With the close of the second week of conference play, Carbondale Teachers are in a triple tie for first place in the Illinois College Conference football race. The other co-holders of first place are James Millikin College of Decatur and Macomb Teachers College. Each of these teams have a record of two wins and one loss in conference play. Immediately behind them with one game won and one loss are Augustana, Carthage, McKendree, and DeKalb Teachers. Also undefeated are Illinois Wesleyan, which has a 6-6 tie with DeKalb in its only conference engagement, an Lake Forest, Monmouth, Bradley, and Elmhurst which have not yet opened their conference schedule.

Carbondale Teachers have attained their rank by victories over St. Vistor by a score of 14 to 0 in the season's opening game and by a 14-6 triumph over Old Normal of Bloomington last Saturday. The only loss has been to Cape Girardeau (Mo.) Teachers who are now the co-leaders in the Missouri Intercollegiate Conference.

As the Southern Teachers are idle this week they have an excellent conference schedule.

FACULTY SPEAK AT COUNTY MEET

Mr. F. G. Warren, Mr. T. R. Bagsdale, and Mr. David S. McIntosh represented the faculty of Southern Illinois Teachers' College on the lecture list of the Jackson County Teachers' Institute held in the high school building in Murphysboro last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. McIntosh was in charge of the musical program on Thursday and Friday mornings. On Thursday morning he was in charge of the sectional meeting of the rural schools and directed the meeting in singing and drilling in the interpretation of music. His second sectional meeting with the rural representatives on Thursday afternoon was spent in discussion on the origin of music. In his third general meeting with those of the rural schools on Friday morning, he discussed the problem of teaching music in rural schools.

Mr. Bagsdale spoke to the sectional meeting of the grade schools on Thursday morning on the topics of reading and literature. At his Friday morning session with the city school representatives the topic for discussion was grammar. His afternoon session was with the representatives of the rural schools and the discussion topic was beginning reading.

Mr. Warren spoke to the four general sessions of the Teachers' Institute. His lectures were given on the following subjects: A Catechism for Teachers, The Emotions in Education, Training for Effective Study, and Preparation for Citizenship. In his session with the high school representatives he discussed the topics of Research for High School Teachers and Adolescence and Its Problems.

Twenty-Eight Will Represent W.A.A. at Normal Sports Day

The Woman's Athletic Association has completed its plans for the annual trip to Normal this week end. Twenty-five girls and three faculty sponsors will leave Friday at noon on a bus chartered for the occasion. They expect to arrive in time to attend a reception Friday evening. Saturday morning, the Carbondale hockey and volleyball teams are scheduled to compete with MacMurry College, University of Illinois and Illinois State Normal. The members of the faculty attending have been asked to officiate at the games during the morning. The girls from all schools will be the guests of honor at a luncheon Saturday noon. At this time the presidents of the Woman's Athletic Associations represented will give short talks on various phases of organized activities. The president of the Carbondale Association, Miss Nedra Goggin, will give the first talk on Social Affairs.

MacDowell Club Sings Tomorrow

The MacDowell Club is scheduled to make its first appearance before the student body at the chapel exercises tomorrow. A most interesting and varied program has been prepared and will be presented as follows: "Lovely Night" from Contes D'Hoffmann by Offenbach; Bless the Lord O My Soul—Ipollitof Ivanoff; The Deils Away Lyrics by Bobby Burns, music by Eric de Lanarter; The Builder—Cadmian.

The MacDowell Club this year consists of 76 members, which is a considerably larger number than last year's enrollment. This increase is occasioned by the fact that so much excellent material appeared at try-outs.

MRS. BARNES TEACHES COOKING CLASS FOR BOYS IN LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING

A weekly cooking class, open to all boys who are doing light housekeeping, meets in room 110 in the Main building the fourth hour Tuesday, the third hour Wednesday, and the seventh hour Thursday. Students may enter this credit class at any time, selecting one of the three periods. The length of the course will depend upon the amount of interest shown by the boys enrolled. Mrs. Mary Louise Barnes of the Household Arts department is the instructor.

CWES STUDENTS FORMERLY EARNED LIVINGS AS VAUDEVILLE ACTORS, DRAPERY CLERKS, ENGINEERS

S. I. T. students may have lived in luxury in cafes and apartment-house basements, and may have spent only fifty cents a week for food, but none have starved. Indeed, cases of ill effects from undernourishment have been few.

Our working students have shown themselves to be both resourceful and versatile. Prior to federal provision for student employment these students had only the chance of scarce, part-time jobs or of borrowing. And yet two hundred of our students managed by various means to support themselves in college. Some were clerks in shoe and clothing stores, while others weighed sugar or measured potatoes after school and on Saturdays. The mining and engineering industries were represented on our campus, as well as the Real Silk Hosiery Mills. There were those who, after spending the day in school, played in a dance orchestra at night. Some were waiters in cafes and restaurants during their spare moments while others found employment in filling stations. The city transfer trucks and stenographic odd jobs claimed a few, but more kept fit by firing furnaces.

"Tune In" Rehearsals Begin With Forty-Five In Chorus and Cast

Berdena Fener and John Moore Take Leading Roles in Homecoming Musical Comedy; Reeder and Smith at Pianos

Approximately forty-five people are swinging into a full time rehearsal schedule this week for the Homecoming production "Tune In." Besides the individual work being done in bit parts, two nights each week are devoted to chorus work and one night to rehearsal of the speaking parts.

Grover Morgan, co-author of the musical comedy, was present at the initial rehearsal last Thursday evening. Mr. Morgan came to talk over the arrangement of the musical score with the other composer, Mr. Wendell Margrave. Floyd Smith, a former student and accompanist for the All's Fair presentation last fall, comes one day each week to accompany the soloists and to make suggestions concerning the musical interpretations. At present Paul Reeder is playing first piano for all rehearsals.

Some of the leading parts are cast as follows: Sammie (Stonewall) Jackson, a football player, John Moore; Sally Sloan, a Tri-Tri pledge, Berdena Fener; Hollingsworth Dunks, a freshman, Bob Boyle; Doc Wilder, his inspiration, Anna Lee Moore; Professor T. Harrington Sims, Ph.D., Henry Hitt; Jean Andrews, the Tri-Tri pledge captain, Lois Boyle. Other favorites among the campus troupsers who will appear in the production are Everett Mitchell, Elizabeth Anne West, Marjorie Brown, Francis Phillips, Pauline Fisher, Arnold Thomas, and Edward Mitchell.

In addition to these people who have done considerable work in campus dramatics, nine new members of Little Theatre have been cast in the speaking parts.

Miss Mabel Walton May Call Session Of Pan-Hel Council

Miss Mabel E. Walton, president of the Association of Educational Sororities and national president of Sigma Sigma Sigma, will visit at the local Tri Sigma house this week end. While she is here, the local Pan-Hellenic Council will probably meet in special session for inspection purposes.

The Pan-Hellenic Council, under the presidency of Elsie Fener of Sigma Sigma Sigma held its second meeting of the year last Wednesday in Dean Lucy K. Woody's room. Rushing rules and house rules were discussed.

Tri Sigma representatives to the Council, in addition to Miss Fener, are Phyllis Petersen, treasurer; Mary Lawrence, voter. Ella Williams substituted for Miss Petersen at last week's meeting.

Delta Sigma Epsilon representatives to the Council are Ellouise Wright, recording secretary; Jewell Medlin, corresponding secretary; Betty McElhatton, voter.

Dean Woody is faculty sponsor of the Pan-Hellenic group on this campus. The council meets regularly the second Wednesday of each month.

Freshman Class Present Program In Chapel Friday

The freshman class will give the students of S. I. T. C. an opportunity to see some of the new talent in college when they present their chapel program Friday.

The program will be as follows: Vocal solo, Bill Hodge; violin solo, Thera Boyd; double quartet.

A talk on Snakes by Fred Cagle was the feature of the sophomore program last week. Several different kinds of snakes were shown to the student body. Other numbers in the program were vocal solos by Jewel Medlin and Wayne Barker, a trombone solo by Fred Besant, and piano selections by Helen Thompson.

S. I. T. C. STUDENTS ENTERTAIN AT C. C. H. S.

Paul Reeder, Wendell Otey, Berdena Fener, and the B. W. Quartet, composed of Allan Graves, John A. Moore, Bluford Sloan, and Marvin Maynard, gave a musical program at Carbondale Community High School last Wednesday.

The group was invited to the high school by Miss Martha Brown who is in charge of the chapel programs there.

Illinae Debaters Schedule Contest With U. of Missouri

The Illinae has arranged for a debate with the University of Missouri to be held there on December 30. The question has not yet been decided upon.

At their regular meeting Monday the Illinae held practice on the question, Resolved, That all college students should be allowed to cut classes at their own discretion. They were entertained also by a violin solo by Betty Jones.

The Illinae are entertaining the Forum with a ghost party Monday October 29. It is customary for the losing team in the Spring debate to entertain the winning team.

Mu Tau Pi Pledges Five Journalists

Elsie Fener, Nedra Goggin, Eileen Brock, Everett Mitchell, and Robert Boyle were formally pledged to Mu Tau Pi at a meeting of that fraternity held last night at the Chi Delta Chi house.

Each of the pledges has been selected on the merit of a year's outstanding work on one of the campus publications. Elsie Fener, who did consistent work on last year's Egyptian, is at present listed among the reporters and special writers. Eileen Brock, also a last year's reporter, is the alumni editor of this year's paper. Nedra Goggin, present women's athletic editor, served her apprenticeship as sophomore editor of the Obelisk, together with Everett Mitchell, another member of the Obelisk staff. Robert Boyle, who has been identified with the Egyptian during the past year, is at present a columnist on the staff.

These pledges will serve a short pledge term, not exceeding two weeks, at the conclusion of which an initiation party will be given in their honor by the actives.

NINETEEN STUDENTS WILL BE DELEGATES AT B.S.U. CONFERENCE

Nineteen S. I. T. C. students will be delegates to the Third Quadrennial All-Southern Baptist Student Conference in Memphis, Tennessee, October 2-8. They are, Lucille Corral, Allan Graves, Noel Taylor, Bluford Sloan, Howard Crenshaw, Walter Thompson, Rev. Frank, Marcella Walkerman, Lillian Sanders, John Albert Moore, Paul Reeder, Gordon Dodds, Dorothy Angle, Marvin Maynard, Charlotte Fraley, Virginia Harris, Edith Wall, Oliver Shields, Helen Cannon.

DIPLOMAT WILL SPEAK HERE IN LECTURE SERIES

COMMITTEE NEGOTIATES TO BRING NICHOLAS ROOSEVELT TO S. I. T. C.

A telegram from Chicago Tuesday morning informed the Lecture Committee of the School Council that Nicholas Roosevelt will definitely appear in Carbondale on March 21.

An attempt will be made by the selection committee of the School Council to bring Nicholas Roosevelt, renowned diplomat and journalist, to this campus on Thursday, March 21. Following the meeting of the committee on Monday afternoon, a wire was sent to the agency handling Roosevelt's lecture tour concerning his appearance here.

The committee discussed other speakers and musical entertainment at its Monday meeting. It can be definitely announced next week whether the committee will be enabled to present a leading Midwestern symphony orchestra.

Mr. Roosevelt, on his tour, has seven speeches on timely domestic and international themes. Since he has attained his greatest reputation as a diplomat, the committee felt that the local audience would prefer to hear one of his discourses on world affairs. One of his subjects, "Where Europe's Wars Are Bred," appealed particularly to the committee and it may be delivered here if arrangements for Mr. Roosevelt's appearance can be satisfactorily completed.

Mr. Roosevelt, now on the staff of the New York Herald-Tribune, was made Vice-Governor of the Philippine Islands and later Minister to Hungary by President Hoover. He has returned to America after his diplomatic residence abroad with much new material on world affairs. His articles on America's international relations have been widely published in newspapers and magazines for the last fifteen years. He is the author of three books on foreign relations: The Philippines: A Treasury; and a Problem; The Beatles Pacific; and America and England.

If the School Council committee can bring Mr. Roosevelt here on the date it desires, his address will be delivered on Thursday of the first week of the Spring term.

150 PARTICIPATE IN GEOLOGY TRIP

Approximately 150 persons, more than half of them affiliated with S. I. T. C., took the State Geological Survey field trip through the Spar mines of Rosiclair last Saturday. Under the guidance of Professor Edson S. Bastin, head of the department of geology of the University of Chicago, the groups studied the Hillside, the groups studied the Hillside, the groups studied the Cave-in-Rock mine. These two points were studied for the purpose of showing the difference in the deposition of the Spar. The deposits of the mine at Rosiclair are in vertical veins whereas at Cave-in-Rock the deposits are pushed in between the bedding planes of the rock. The group studied also the igneous which seemed to be responsible for the accumulation of the spar. Other points which were scheduled for study included the iron furnace.

Mr. Floim Fox of this faculty was elected to succeed Dr. W. M. Bailey as the organizer for next year's trip. Faculty members who accompanied the expedition Saturday were Dr. May Steagall, Miss Charlotte Zimmerschied, Mr. Frank Colyer, Dr. O. B. Young, Miss Martha Scott, Miss Mary Goddard, Miss Florence King, Miss Phaezanna Krause, Dr. Bailey and Mr. Cox. The rest of the S. I. T. C. delegation was composed of members of the student body.

SIT DOWN AND BE COMFORTABLE

No matter what time a football fan gets to the games at this college, he has to stand up. The bleachers furnish standing room only, merely because an over-enthusiastic bunch of collegians insist upon draping themselves over the boundary fence.

We believe that most people would rather sit for two hours than stand for two hours. It seems hardly a fair arrangement whereby a hundred people can force several hundred others to be uncomfortable.

It's all the fault of the fence drapers, of course. With a little restraint they should follow the game as well from the bleachers.

A NEW METAPHOR

No longer in our campus life do we hear of geniuses; they are all Ralph Thompsons. If there is to be a brilliant student in class your friend remarks in the typical college vernacular, "Say, have you noticed the Ralph Thompson?"

FRATERNITIES FACE A CRISIS

"Fraternities get a shock at Yale, 'Fraternities Face Swarthmore test.'" "Fraternity Enrollment Slumps at Cornell."

Concurrently we hear of the establishment at Yale of new residence colleges, after the Oxford system, which are fast becoming the equivalent of fraternities.

The fraternal problems undoubtedly owe their existence in part to economic conditions. Students are finding it less expensive to live in the dormitory systems; at the same time they are questioning the "spending of money for hardware which is used for decoration only," as a member of one of the honorary societies put it.

This condition seems no parallel on our campus. Indeed, enrollment in local fraternities saw a marked increase this fall over enrollment in other years.

HI, PAL

The prevailing fashion among nations to adopt standard salutes finds no echo on our college campus. Each collegian has his own characteristic style of greeting, ranging from a breezy fying of the arm into the air to a precise movement of the forefinger.

Do these varied forms of salutation reveal anything of the temperament of each respective owner? Here lies a new field for psychologists. Who knows but that the hand-flapper is bound to be flighty? So, pals, watch your step or rather your salute.

THE SPHINX KNOWS:

That Mary Lawrence likes to spend her time at the library seeing the movies.
Bordena Faner has been asked to star in a proposed production "Getting Gertie's Garter"—the name Gertie is significant to Bordena—Ask her.
That Mary Benner waited an hour for "Shadow" Courtney in the University Cafe the other day, and then Shadow sat down with Betty McChesnut.

That English 808 discussion on "Moby Dick" brought the remark that Melville went in sea because of that "itchy" feeling.
That we have a new organization on the campus which meets in grave yards and empty box cars and the members carry guns and swords after dark.
Marvin Ballance will give you the details.

That Dr. Purdy was seen parked with a dandel last week south of town.
That the Sam Layman's "not-car" is out again dragging a garage bill along with it.

THE SPHINX WONDERS:

Why Mary Sue Nelson was so excited when she went to the football game with "Red" Chammess and found the boy she left at home behind her.
What was the cause of Frances Lockie's hiccup at the Cafe last Wednesday—Why! Fran!
Who owns that fuzzy grey sweater at the Chi Delta house, and is it worn by a schedule?
If the presence of Peg Hill helped to keep no girls away from "grandpa" Turner this week.

If Margaret Cummings is ever called "Hazel" by Dean Wham.

ON AND ON

Disillusionment: He Had just committed a slight social error. He Peeped at her frozen face And considered it an auspicious moment To depart. So He rose, and as he Sided self-effacingly toward the door, He slightly remarked, "Well, I must be off." "Yes," She bitterly responded, "You must be."

Cantor: Nodded on a Freshman theme-- "I discovered by inquiry that many of the students do not like chapel. This surprised me very much. I like chapel."

Worry: Said one young freshman lady To another: "Good heavens! I've left all my new pairs of shoes In my unlocked room."

In my unlocked room: "Oh, my goodness, I don't have that worrying," airily replied the other. "I'm wearing all of mine."

Perseverance: With hurried features The overburdened looking young Freshman approached his Rhetoric teacher.

How do you spell: "Brusquely demanded 'How do you spell 'Hisselt?'" "Patently The weary teacher Raised her head. Slowly she articulated, "There is no such word."

Unswerving, He persevered, "If there was such a word, How would you spell it?" The remains may be viewed Tomorrow.

Socrats Present The Constant Lover

The Socratic Society will present the first play of this year, The Constant Lover by St. John Hanklin, at its meeting tonight. The characters are: The girl, Eleanor Fields; The Constant Lover, Ed Geiger. The dialogue is a light comedy consisting of rapid fire conversation to which a cuckoo bird adds his bill.

High School Notes

The physiography and commercial geography classes in the University High School went to Giant City Friday, October 12. There they studied the formation of rocks. The classes are under the supervision of Professor C. C. Logan, and each class has two student teachers.

Museum Displays Curious Animals

The Museum has for this week's display an interesting group of curious animals collected from many parts of the world. A small Woodchuck is the main feature. This particular woodchuck's teeth had grown so long that they penetrated his brain and caused his death.

KAPPA PHI KAPPA INITIATE FOUR MEMBERS

Harrison Eaton of Granite City, Robert Chamm of Marion, Glenn Gregory of Carbondale, and Gordon Dodds of West Frankfort were initiated into Kappa Phi Kappa at its October meeting.

HAROLD BROWN PLEDGES SIGMA NU

Harold Brown, a former student and member of Chi Delta Chi, has been pledged to Sigma Nu fraternity at George Washington University, Washington, D. C. Mr. Brown has a government position in the District of Columbia.

TRI SIG AND CHI DELT PLEDGES HOLD TWO PARTIES FOR ACTIVITIES

Beginning the social activities of the year for Greek organizations, the pledges of Tri Sigma sorority and Chi Delta Chi fraternity entertained their activities Friday and Saturday nights, respectively. The sorority pledges had a scavenger hunt for the actives and their escorts. The fraternity pledges sponsored a party at Midland Hills.

Tomorrow afternoon the pledges of Delta Sigma Epsilon are entertaining the pledges of Tri Sigma, Chi Delta Chi, and Kappa Delta Alpha at a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock.

TEN YEARS AGO AT S. I. T. C.

Miss Martha Buck, 80 years of age and oldest living member of the S. I. N. U. faculty, spoke before a special meeting at the First Baptist church last Sunday. The services were held in celebration of Miss Buck's Mrs. Christoph's, and Mrs. Wiseman's fiftieth year of affiliation with the church.

S. I. N. U. walked through the Mayfield College football team for an easy victory, 54-0, last Friday.

One hundred four members of the Freshman class were present at the 1924-25 election of officers in Mr. G. W. Smith's room during the chapel period, Tuesday. Lavern Phemister was chosen president.

The organization of a pep club this year marks the inception of a movement for a club new to the history of this school. Louis Shannon is the first president.

Faculty News

Dean George Wham has returned from a tour during which he addressed the teachers of various institutes. On Wednesday and Thursday he was in Marshall as guest speaker at the Clark County Institute and at the Marshall Rotary Club. Friday he spoke at the Randolph County teachers meeting in Red Bud.

Mr. W. Wham will lecture in Rockneyville to the teachers of Perry County.

Honoring Dr. Vera Peacock and Miss Mary Entsminger on the occasion of their birthdays, Miss Marjorie Shank entertained at a tea Friday afternoon.

Mr. George W. Smith, accompanied by Mr. Paul Angle and Mr. Frank Stevens, made an extensive trip through Southern Illinois last Tuesday and Wednesday, stopping at numerous historical spots. Mr. Angle, who is secretary and librarian of the State Historical Society, was especially interested in finding locations that merit the attention of the State Historical Society.

Noting especially the Indian history of Illinois, the party went first to former Kaskaskia reservation near the town, Grimsby. From there they proceeded to Grand Tower and to Ware, where they picked up an old Cherokee trail. After stopping at Jonesboro, they visited the site of the Lincoln-Douglas debates, the men continued to Mt. Pleasant, the site of another Cherokee reservation. A visit to Giant City Park concluded their tour.

JOURNALISTS CONTINUE STUDY OF GOOD NEWS

Under the instruction of Elizabeth Ann West, the journalism class will continue its lesson on "good news writing" this afternoon. The lesson this week will cover the miscellaneous points of good news writing. The meeting will begin at 4 o'clock and will be held in room 206 of the Main building.

"TREES TO TRIBUNES" NEWS REEL TO BE SHOWN AT COMMERCE CLUB

Mr. Ralph Hamilton will present this three-reel movie "Trees to Tribunes," and "Trapping Tonsils," one reel, at the Chamber of Commerce meeting tomorrow night. Following the movie there will be a talk on the newspaper industry by Ralph McBride. Clarence Miskel, an expert operator from the offices of the Kroger Baking and Grocery Company, will give a complete demonstration. Other members on the program are a tap dance by Ruth Stefanoff and a piano solo by Dorothy Goodrich.

There will be several important announcements concerning the trip to St. Louis.

BOOK REVIEW

A BOOK OF AMERICANS, By Rosemary and Stephen Vincent Benet (quilted 1933.) I have never been able to feel for Stephen Vincent the affection that he inspires in most of his readers. His charm has always succeeded in frightening me away, or, did, until I tackled the Book of Americans.

In this nonsense account, the Benets scrupulously debunk American civilization in general, including Elizabethan Benet and some of the monstrosities that have been masquerading for men in our nightmare literature, the old time history text. Cotton Mather and his witches were thoroughly "panned," but gallant warriors like "Crazy Horse," magnificently glorified. (It mattered little that poor Horse always managed to be on the losing side.)

Only a few not from the cover a huge Injun stares at us; we do not get him for two reasons: First, because he is only an exhibit, and his portrait is not nearly so terrifying as that of Peter Stuyvesant or Andrew Jackson; second, because we know he was originally only an hallucination in the mind of Charlie, the illustrator. Of the poor red man it will say:

"They'll kill his deer and net his fish and clear away his wood, and frequently remark to him they do it for his good."

But Hernandez DeSota takes second prize with:

"He discovered the great Mississippi, he faces perils and hardships untold, and his soldiers are bacon, if I'm not mistaken, but nobody found any gold."

Then too, it was such a great feeling to find out that our own Captain Kidd made the Achilles of ancient fame look like a summer rose, or that sweet Dolly Madison wore the quantity and quality of jewelry that made Mae West famous.

One thing remains, it depressed me greatly to see the Ziegfeld Folly girls, W. C. Fields, Peggy Hopkins Joyce, "Dizzy Dean," or the celebrities that we know, omitted from the necessary factors that go to make up our American civilization. Probably they will be included in the sequel, which I hope Mr. and Mrs. Benet get ambitious enough to write.

Zetets Enroll New Members Tonight

Thirty-two new members of Zetetic society will be officially present for the first time this evening at a program designed to acquaint them with the society, both past and present. Marjorie Brown will give a talk on the origin and development of the society, which is also closely connected with the school's history.

The following new members are asked to be present: Charles Mathews, Donald Clatin, Mary Ellen Curd, Max Rea, Lucille Brooks, Mary Elizabeth Wright, Bernadine Aves, Mary Eleanor Wright, Betty Berry, Helen Hays, Susan Fraz, Betty Jones, Mildred Walker, Tower and to Ware, where they picked up an old Cherokee trail.

After stopping at Jonesboro, they visited the site of the Lincoln-Douglas debates, the men continued to Mt. Pleasant, the site of another Cherokee reservation. A visit to Giant City Park concluded their tour.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Since some of its officers did not return to college this year, the Y. M. C. A. held an election October 2 to fill the vacancies. John Mitz became president. James O'Malley was elected vice president. Joe Billinger, a freshman, is the new secretary. Fred Trebb remains as treasurer.

CHACO WAR TOPIC FOR LATIN-AMERICAN CLUB

The discussion at Latin-American Club tomorrow night will revolve around the topic of the Chaco War. Important plans for the future of the club will be made. It is necessary that all members be present. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:30.

S.I.T.C. DEFEATS NORMAL TEAM BY 14-6 SCORE

MAROONS REVENGE THREE-YEAR DEFEAT AS 350 BOY SCOUTS WITNESS GAME

Southern football success thus far this year has been due largely to the pass catching abilities of Jim Gray and Howard Moorman, S. I. T. C. ends. Gray is a senior and hails from Collinsville, while Moorman is a Christopher product and is playing his third season on the Maroon and White squad.

HANCOCK REMARKS ON RIVAL TEAMS

By VERNON CRANE

One of the best known members of the faculty of any college is the football coach. In the person of Howard Hancock, Old Normal, our vanquished gridiron rival of last Saturday certainly has a capable, interesting mentor. Coach Hancock, interviewed before the game at the Roberts Hotel, headquarters of the upstate team, was noticeably solicitous about the respect and admiration of the squad. Speaking of Old Normal-Southern athletic relations, Coach Hancock was highly complimentary in regard to the fine sportsmanship of the S. I. T. C. team, and concerning the ability of his friendly rival, Captain McAndrew.

"The Old-Normal-Southern competition has always been hard fought and cleanly played," reminisced the husky, youthful appearing instructor. "We always point to the game with Carbondale a little more than for any other game, and I believe that we enjoy this yearly battle more than any of the others. We know that we'll be meeting a well-coached eleven, say, they don't come any finer than Mac."

Coach Hancock then was asked concerning his own work at Normal this year, his fourth year there. "He has experienced an unforeseen loss of veteran material, but expects his green team to improve as the season wears on. Typical of his work for the general improvement of the athletic system is the move which he has tentatively inaugurated at the upstate school. This is to provide for the award of a varsity letter to an athlete who has served his school in any sport for four years, whether or not he has played the required number of quarters.

The general coach, who also teaches baseball, was particularly impressed with the work being done to improve the athletic facilities here. He complimented Southern on its new field and track, and on the gym, which is similar to Old Normal's. He further stated that he believed the winning team in Saturday's game would stand a good chance to take the conference championship!

Southern continued its march toward the Little Nineteen championship and gained revenge for its set-back by Old Normal last year, when the Hancock coached eleven was defeated by the Maroon and White aggregation Saturday, by the score of 14-6. Approximately 350 Boy Scouts attended the game as guests of the colleges.

Old Normal, being unable to penetrate the Southern line, made only one first down during the first half and that by a pass, and rolled up merely six during the entire contest. Carbondale had nine first downs to its credit.

The Maroons started off with a bang, scoring two touchdowns in the second quarter and threatening several times during the contest. Old Normal, held scoreless until the last stanza, never made but one serious threat to score and that resulted in the upstate's lone marker.

The McAndrew team scored its first touchdown at the start of the second quarter. After several plays by both teams that resulted in no great gains, Lenich, with the ball on Southern's 30 yard line, punted the pigskin to Murray, the visiting quarterback, who fumbled on his own 20 yard line and Carbondale recovered. A pass from Lenich to Gray and three smashes at Normal's line resulted in a first down. Southern then tried an off-tackle play with Hill carrying the ball, but this resulted in no gain.

On the next play Lenich dropped back and shot a bullet-like pass into the outstretched hands of Gray for a touchdown. Lenich kick-kicked for the extra point.

Southern's second marker was scored immediately after the first touchdown when Lenich, attempting to kick-off for Southern, twice booted out of bounds. This gave the ball to Old Normal on its own 40 yard line. After two plays that resulted in losses, Bell, Normal's halfback, tried a pass which was intercepted by Hill and carried to Normal's 28 yard line. Two plays put the Southern eleven on the 17 yard line, and then Lenich tossed a pass to Moorman that was good for 15 yards. Wolfenbarger plunged through guard for S. I. T. C.'s last marker. Lenich made his second try for the extra point.

During the latter part of the second stanza, S. I. T. C. had two more chances to score after two

Ten Games in Conference List For This Week

GAMES THIS WEEK

Friday, Oct. 19, Valparaiso at St. Vistor, night.

Saturday, Oct. 20, State Normal at Eureka*; Monmouth at Bradley*; DeKalb Teachers at Wheaton*; North Central at Lake Forest*; McKendree at Macomb Teachers*; Knox at Illinois College*; Millikin at Illinois Wesleyan*; Aurora at Elmhurst*; St. Ambrose at Augustana, night.

*Conference games.

Monmouth, Ill., October 17.—Three homecoming games feature a ten game schedule for members of the Illinois College conference during the week. Monmouth will be the homecoming attraction at Bradley, Millikin will attempt to spoil Wesleyan's celebration and Valparaiso may sadden the hearts of St. Vistor's alumni.

Bradley, Monmouth and Lake Forest engage in their opening conference battles of the year. Sixteen colleges have already received their baptism of league warfare. Elmhurst will wait another week before making its first venture for the league title.

Seven of the ten games scheduled for the week are conference affairs and all will be played on Saturday. Three members of the loop, Charleston Teachers, Carlsberg and Carbondale Teachers will be idle.

Both Monmouth and Bradley are blessed with numerous veterans this year. Bradley has won for two years in a row, but Monmouth is hoping that the third time will be the charm that will upset the Peorians. Randall Gray, guard, who is back at Monmouth after a year spent recuperating from an automobile accident, has been the star of the Scot line during the season thus far.

North Central will be the first conference enemy of Lake Forest this year. Coach Ralph Jones appears to have the best Lake Forest team in years and his eleven may make a strenuous bid for the loop crown.

Millikin seeking its tenth state conference football title renews its ancient rivalry with Illinois Wesleyan, present title holder.

EGYPTIAN SCOUTS COLLEGE GUESTS LAST SATURDAY

THREE HUNDRED FIFTY LAIDS OF COAL BELT DISTRICT WITNESS NORMAL GAME

More than three hundred fifty Boy Scouts, scoutmasters, and cub Scouts of the coal belt district were guests of S. I. T. C. at the Southern-Old Normal football game at the athletic field Saturday afternoon. Saturday was "Scout Day," observed on the campus of many colleges throughout Scout Region Seven.

The Scouts were officially greeted, following their parade up Normal avenue by a short program in Shryock Auditorium. After a number by the S. I. T. C. marching band, Dean Wham introduced President Shryock, who welcomed the assembled Scouts. Then W. Walter Shaver of Chicago, member of the Regional Council, delivered the principal address. He spoke on "What Scouting Means to You," and gave a very forceful talk. The many troops then marched out to the game site, and took their seats in the east stands.

During the intermission at the half, the drum and bugle corps of Anna presented a neatly executed drill, which was enthusiastically received by the crowd.

Troops were present from the following towns: Anna, Murphysboro, Nashville, Herrin, Sparta, Du Quoin, West Frankfort, Carbondale, Chester, DeSoto and Christopher.

With The Graduates

Friends of Armetha Schelbeard, '22, have received word of her marriage to Richard Derr of Dupu, June 17, 1934.

William Cockran, who graduated from S. T. C. with the class of 1882, died at San Antonio, Texas this September.

Mr. Cockran had served in several Southern Illinois schools as principal and was a resident of Makanda and Metropolis for a number of years. Mr. Cockran was employed as postmaster at Marble Falls, Texas for several years.

Coleen Brock, '34, is teaching at Pittsburg.

Morris Simpson, '32, is teaching in the Macedonia high school.

Dorothy Hays, ex-'36, is playground director at West Frankfort.

Bill Howell, ex-'34, is enrolled in Baylor University where he is completing his law course. Mr. Howell has charge of the University dance orchestra, "The Campus Cavaliers." The orchestra had an eight weeks' engagement at Rice Hotel in Houston, Texas this summer.

Joe Dally, ex-'31, received his D.D.S. degree from Washington University this spring.

Ardell Smaltenberger, '34, is teaching at Dupu.

Frank Young, ex-'31, who received his B.B.L. from Northwestern University in 1933 is now employed in the state department at Springfield, Illinois.

ADDITIONS MADE IN 1934-35 DIRECTORY

The Y. M. C. A. distributed the 1934-1935 Student Directories during the chapel hour yesterday. The new features of the book include a picture of President H. W. Shryock and a message written by him to the student body. There is also a classified buyer's guide, which replaces the ordinary type index and which is much more practical.

Gordon Dadds, secretary of the campus Y. M. C. A. was the business manager of the enterprise.

In addition to the names, local address, telephone number and home town of the students, there is a section that contains the same information concerning the faculty with the addition of the building and number of the room occupied.

Other items are a list of approved rooming houses, a club-fraternity directory, information concerning the Christian Associations, and the personnel of the administration.

WILLIS TO SPEAK

SOUTHERN LISTS AMONG LEADERS OF CONFERENCE RACE

lent chance to pass some of their rivals for the top rung as all of the undefeated teams with the exception of Carthage and Augustana risk their perfect records in conference title Saturday. By the end of the week all of the members of the conference will have played at least one conference engagement, with the exception of Elmhurst College.

The Southern Teachers still have games with DeKalb Teachers (There), McKendree (Here), Cape Girardeau Teachers (Here, Non-Conference), Chadstone Teachers (Here), and Illinois Wesleyan (Here). In last year's meetings with these teams, Carbondale earned a record of two victories and one defeat. They defeated DeKalb Teachers, 13-0; Charleston Teachers, 19-0; and were drubbed by McKendree by a 13-0 score.

Thus far in the 1934 season, DeKalb has won one game from Elmhurst, and has played a tie game with Illinois Wesleyan. McKendree has played one conference game, which they won from Old Normal. Charleston Teachers, in conference play have lost their only game to Millikin, and have yet to break into the winning column. Illinois Wesleyan has played one game, which resulted in a 6-6 tie with DeKalb Teachers.

The Southern Teachers will still be handicapped by injuries in their next conference tilt. Emery, veteran center, will of course be out of play for the remainder of the season, and it is not expected that Eaton, guard, will be able to be in the lineup before the closing games. However, McGrawski, Moorman, and Washenberger have all recovered from minor injuries. The game with Old Normal uncovered one new star, at least, in Dale Hill, 135-pound halfback from Fairfield. Dabney, sophomore guard from Haysburg, is showing up well in his first year of college football. Lester Deason, freshman from Carbondale, who occupies the other guard

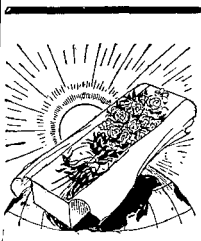

MANUAL ARTS GROUP PERFECT WRENCH

The Industrial Arts department, headed by Professor L. C. Petersen, has recently perfected a new type wrench. The wrench, although simple in construction, contains several features far superior to the ordinary type of wrench.

By means of a lever, the pressure which the wrench exerts upon the object is almost limitless. This mechanism insures a positive grip, making the chances of slipping and marring the material negligible.

This handy little tool can easily be made in a machine-shop by workers there.

birth, is holding his own against his opponents. North, a quarterback from Carterville is making a hard fight for the regular quarterback position. With these promising newcomers and the seasoned veterans from last year, the chances look bright for a conference title.
