Here it is, Southern's largest and most elaborate Homecoming in the whole. As mentioned previously, tradition has been thrown to the winds and a new—all new Homecoming is the result. It is Southern's first three day Homecoming which is to be tied in very closely with our new University status. At the Homecoming Steering Committee meeting Monday night, October 15th at the home of Doctor Orville Alexander, the final schedule was adopted.

3 Day Celebration
The evening of Thursday, October 23 will officially open the three day celebration. A combined program of the recognition ceremony of our University status, with an address by Doctor John Dale Russell, Director of the Division of higher education of United States Office of Education, Washington, D. C., and the coronation of the Homecoming Queen. This ceremony should be the most outstanding in the history of the school. This major event in the auditorium will start promptly at 8:30 p. m. at which time all doors will be closed. As a helpful hint it is suggested that you come early for a large crowd is expected. Immediately after the coronation the Queen and her court will appear at the bon fire at which time the Freshman will take the oath of Southern Students and burn their ribbons. From then on the open and court will reign over all the homecoming event.

Friday's Event
Friday, October 24, the celebration will start early and last late. A special assembly and pep session combined with a snake dance will start at 10 a. m. at the McAndrew Stadium. At the half, the Varsity Theatre will open its doors, throw away the admission tickets and feature a free movie for all students at 2 p. m. Scheduled at 4 p. m. is the open house at the President's office. Every one is cordially invited. The main event of the evening will be the presentation of the Homecoming Play "The Poor Nut," in the auditorium at 8 p. m., presented by Little Theatre and under the direction of Doctor McLeod.

event of the evening will be the presentation of the Homecoming Play "The Poor Nut," in the auditorium at 8 p. m., presented by Little Theatre and under the direction of Doctor McLeod. Saturday, October 25, finds Homecoming running from dawn to dawn. At 9 a. m. there will be a hockey game, Varsity vs. Alumni, on the hockey field behind McAndrew Stadium. The doors of the President's office will again be open from 10 a. m. to 12 noon. The largest parade in the history of the school will start at 12:15 p. m. at Washington and Main streets. It will go North to Oak street and then west to Illinois, South to Cherry street, west to University, down University to the campus, through the campus past the stadium and come to rest on the softball field. All students participating in the parade must have their activity tickets to be admitted into the stadium, where a section of seats will be reserved for them.

Game at 2 p. m.
The kickoff for the Homecoming game between Southern and Northern will begin promptly at 2 p. m. The game will be broadcast by WCOL of Carbondale and WJWP of Harris. At the half, a ceremony commemorating Southern's status as a University will be presented. The presentation of awards will be made at this time for the best floats, the best house decorations, and the best stunt. After the victory there will be an alumni tea at Anthony Hall. Everyone is invited to attend. The Homecoming dance will be at 9 p. m. It will put the finishing touches to the gigantic celebration. The dance is in the gymnasium and will feature Ray Anthony and his band as well as the first appearance of the Homecoming Queen and her court. Here's wishing you a bigger and better Homecoming!

BAND TO PLAY IMPORTANT PART IN HOMECOMING

The marching band of S.I.U. is to be one of the many interesting attractions of the Homecoming at Southern.

The band directed by Mr. Harold Hines and consisting of 65 students will join with 42 members of the University Choir to present a part of the program at the Homecoming football game. As the band has been allotted only five minutes between halves, they will present only two formations. The first formation, Mr. Hines has announced, will be an outline of the Old Main building. While in this formation the band and choir will sing "Auld Lang Syne." For the second formation, the band will form an outline of the state of Illinois. The choir will then form an "S" for Southern in the center of the state, and the group will sing the Alma Mater Song. Southern's Marching Band will also have the honor of leading the Homecoming parade, another feature of Homecoming. There will also be a pep band at the bonfire on Thursday night.

Commerce Club Elects Committees

Dick Woods, president of the S. I. U. Commerce Club has appointed the following committees at last meeting of the club held Thursday evening in Main 309. The committees are as follows: Film Committee: Alvin Vravick, chairman, Virgil Spruell, Sam Kendrick, and Charlotte Tutbill, members. Program Committee: Roy McCallum, chairman, Norma Trotter, Fadhne Crader, and Mary McDowell, members. Social Committee: Marjorie Behloff, chairman, Mary Bob and Emma June Jankins, Lettie Koughn, and Gale Calvert, members. These committees are to handle most of the Commerce Club's functions for the coming year.

PUBLIC LIBRARY NOTICE

The Public Library Board of Carbondale has reminded students of Southern that the library will remain open each Sunday after-noon from 2 till 5. The public library is located on the corner of Elm and University avenues and open each week day from 2 p. m. until 9 p. m.

THE POOR NUT TO BE PRESENTED ON OCTOBER 24

The Homecoming play, "The Poor Nut," which deals with college life in the 20's will be presented at 8 o'clock, October 24 in Shryock Auditorium. The play tells of a college boy who has always been on the wrong end of the campfire social, but dreams of going with queens. Dale Kittle of Wayne City plays the part of John Miller the poor nut. He has been in several plays here before and had leads in both Little Theatre game productions last year.

Phyllis Johnson of Du Quin, who plays Margia, the female lead, is also experienced on the stage here. She played the lead role in the last spring production. Two actors in the play, Louis Hammack of Sparta and Charles Weber of Cairo have taken part in the last three productions at Southern, both of them having major parts. In this play Louis plays Maggie, the Ohio cheer leader, and Charles plays the school coach.

Eddie Melvin of Tamaroa, Art Carter of Anna, Bob Veach of Herrin and George Seifert of Du Quin are also experienced on the stage here. In this play Eddie has the part of Jack Smith, one of the campus wheels, Art plays a professor, Bob is cast as Hoyt, a track star from Wisconsin, and George is Wally Pierce, an Ohio track star.

There is also a newcomer to Southern's stage who has a major part in this play. Julia Harper, a freshman from Carverville, has the part of Julia, a Wisconsin beauty. Dr. Archibald McLeod, associate professor speech, is directing his first play at Southern. Dr. McLeod who was born in Scotland, received his bachelor's degree at Oberlin College, his masters at the State University of Iowa and his doctors from Cornell. He has taught at the State Teachers College in Emporia, Kansas, Texas State College for Women, and Louisiana State. He is now working with the Little Theatre on both the stage plays and the radio plays.

Work is also being done on the technical part of this play. The stage crew directed by Rully Chang of Avondale Estates, Georgia is busy making four different sets. One of these sets will be a stadium where the track meet is held. The other three are different scenes of the technical staff and other committee heads have done a great deal of work for Little Theatre.

PEP RALLY

A pep rally will be held for the football team on the steps of Shryock Auditorium, Friday, October 17, at 12:30 p. m.

Let's send the team off to Macomb with a bang—see you Friday.

PHYSICAL PLANT TO BUILD CAGES FOR HAMSTERS

One of the physical plant projects of the week, as announced by Dr. William N. Phelps, is the building of cages in the basement of the Old Science building for the confinement of Hamsters, imported animals from Turkey. These are small animals, similar to guinea pigs, which will be used in experiments by zoology students.

Along with everyone else, the plant is helping prepare for homecoming. Flood lights are being placed on the softball field, a public address system is being assembled on a speaker's platform, and stage props are being constructed for the play.

The overhauling of all the boilers at the boiler house is expected to be finished this week.

ART DEPARTMENT TO EXHIBIT NEW PAINTING SERIES

The Art Department will have the first of a series of exhibits in the Little Gallery in Old Main from October 15 to November 16. The exhibit will include reproductions from the August 4, 1947 issue of Life magazine featuring the romantic city of Venice. Life will furnish the material to be shown in the exhibit. They will include Leonardo Loredano, Doge of Venice; Travels of Marco Polo, Venice in 1509, Opulence, Abduction of Holy of St. Mark, Sacred and Profane Love, Pastoral Symphony, Paganary, Travel, and Battle of Sepanto.

The final election for Homecoming Queen and Attendants will be held Tuesday, October 21. Students must present activity tickets in order to vote. The polls will be open from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. and will be located in front of Old Main, weather permitting, otherwise polls will be located at cross-roads of Old Main.

There will be no campaign within 200 feet of the polls, and students are to be reminded that voting for the Homecoming Queen will be by preferential balloting. Ballots marked incorrectly will be void.

Orchids to the Oblisk

How many of us stop to consider the work it takes to edit and assemble a school year book? How easy it is for us to offer individual suggestions for improvements or to criticize—but do we ever think to compliment or stop to consider the position an editor is in? Do you? Did you, for instance, think about dropping last year's Oblisk editor, Chuck Rust, a card telling him how much you appreciated his work or did you even go to the TROUBLE of telling him when you happened to see him.

Last year's editor was faced with innumerable problems. The engravers and printers were swamped and therefore the completion of the annual was delayed several times, and editing and sifting copy is no easy job. It must be done in a fair dispassionate manner. Pressure is put on the editor from all sides. His judgment must be good and clearly unbiased. Friends become just another student when it comes to deciding which picture shall go into the annual. All the organizations must be represented according to their value—the result is sometimes hard to take, which doesn't make the editor's job too easy. The old proverb which reads "the value of anything is measured by its want," must be entirely disregarded.

Considering these reasons we would like to extend our thanks to last year's editor, Chuck Rust. We appreciate your fine work, Chuck. Also like to send the new editor, Carlos Pleashe off on a good start by pledging our full cooperation. By making a promise of this kind we can make a difficult job easier and assure the school of a more successful Oblisk for 1947-48.—F. H.

For Safety, Not The Treasury

Recently the police of this city gave notice of their intentions of becoming strict. No more speeding or running of traffic lights. Which is all fine and fair enough. The trouble question is this move, however, how low on funds is the city government? Always, it seems, this kind of drive comes when the coffers of the group to benefit—in this case Carbondale—are low. This idea seems to be widespread among the citizens of this city.

It isn't that the city is rebelling. Citizens want a city known far and wide for the high standard of law and order it upholds. But the city wants this regardless of how much or how little the treasury balance shows. They want, and rightly so, for this law and order to be of public service for the good it does and not for the money in revenue it will pay. Who knows, but what this drive may have started just in time to save some child's life. So Carbondale has made the mark. Let's sincerely hope she will follow through.—J. W. B.

Carbondale, Co-operate

Recently the President of the United States asked the American people to voluntarily discontinue eating meat, poultry, and poultry products on certain days. We were told that without the cooperation of the entire nation his program for helping feed a hungry world would not work. The President included every student enrolled at Southern in his plea for his plan. All most of us need to do to realize the need for the program is to recall the hunger we have seen in the world, the war years and all destruction associated with war, and the price some paid for this peace.

A chicken leg, egg, or a pork chop is a small item compared to human lives. Hunger breeds war and wars take lives as the number of dead in the first two world wars show. Let's give the president our full support.—R. W. E.

The other day a very perplexed-looking dog was overheard to comment as he surveyed Southern's torn-up campus. "Wonder what dirty dog's been digging for bones in this yard?"

The Evansville-Southern game last Saturday with all its pass work gave the first evidence of the application of a well-known term for football, the newly adopted phraseology—batting average.

WHEELER LIBRARY ADDS 750 BOOKS

Wheeler library has put out a booklet for books added during August and September. This list contains 750 books according to Miss Opal Stone, director of Wheeler Library.

The call numbers are as follows: General Works 600, Philosophy Psychology 100, Religion 200, Social Sciences, Sociology 300, Philosophy 400, Pure Science 500, Applied Arts, Applied Science 600, Fine Arts 700, Literature 800. There have been more books added on music.

Botany Notice

The Botany department requests all students and organizations placing signs and placards on trees on the campus, to please refrain from using tacks and nails in doing so. Tacks and nails are detrimental and injurious to trees, so would everyone please use string and tie signs on?

NOTE: Have you ever noticed the life of a bulletin board when thumb tacks are plentiful?

ERVIN IS INVITED TO EXHIBIT WORK IN NEW YORK

Kenneth Ervin, instructor in the art department has been invited to exhibit five paintings in the annual show at the Pyramid of artists, to be held at the Riverside Museum in New York City, during August.

Ervin was selected to the Pyramid group last spring on a basis of merit of work submitted to the membership jury. This group of painters is composed of thirty young painters and graphic artists and is organized on a cooperative basis.

Ervin completed his undergraduate work and received his M. A. degree from Louisiana State University in 1942. He was later employed as director of Jane Street Gallery.

Ervin's ability has received national recognition on several different occasions.

Display 'Gadgets'

A "racker" display featuring many new items of household equipment was the highlight of a Southern Homemakers' meeting held Wednesday at 4 p. m. in room 111 of Old Main.

SOUTHERN CHORUS TO SING AT MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Southern Illinois University's chorus will open the Du Quoin Music Festival Saturday night, October 18, at 7:30, in the Du Quoin Foreground.

The chorus will sing the following numbers: "Hymn to Music," by Buck; "Oh Folia et Filiae," by Lessing; "Oh Bless Are They," by Technich; "Oh Sing Your Songs," by Cain. Other selections on the program will be presented by the Du Quoin Senior high school chorus, Du Quoin Junior high school chorus, and three different massed bands.

Phonograph System Offers Practical Aid In Speaking

With the aid of a phonograph recording system, the foreign language department offers practical assistance to the language students, enabling them to gain a more accurate knowledge of spoken languages, according to Louis Boyer, instructor in Spanish conversation.

The collection of records in the foreign language building includes French, Russian, and Spanish, which the students listen in order to gain better pronunciation and better understanding of the language which they study. The students may also have records made of their own pronunciation, thereby enabling them to measure their progress from a more critical standpoint.

During World War II only 400 Medals of Honor were given.

The human brain is wonderful. It starts right in working the moment you wake up in the morning and doesn't stop until you are called on in class.

Two deer were walking through the forest when they smelled a hunter in the distance. For a while they debated whether or not to keep on going.

"Well, I'm game," said the first one.

Just then a shot rang among the trees, and the second deer toppled over.

"I guess I am too," he muttered.

He tried to kiss her by the mill, one lovely, starry night;

She shook her head, and sweetly said,

"Not by a dam site."

Few of us realize the work being done by the campus photographers. Practically all the pictures appearing in the Egyptian and Oblisk are done by members of our campus photo lab. Besides this they do all the various school jobs requiring their services. Frank McCurdy has charge of the photography department.

How do students know there is nothing for them in Carbondale when they don't stay to find out?

Kampus Comment

If formal dresses become any more abbreviated, sorority pins will have to be worn in the form of stickers.

Some kind of lights should be placed around the various excavations and barriers on campus. Injuries either fatal or minor in nature could easily result under the present unmarked condition.

How Green Is Our Valley?

Eight years ago there were no ever-green shrubs and few flowering shrubs on the campus. Flowers then consisted of like miniature swamps after every rain; in other places, soil often washed into the drainage ways. Ten dead tree stumps were in the central area around the flag pole and a campus "flowers" then consisted of a few castor beans around some of the buildings.

At the present time the grounds are torn up because of the expansion program, nevertheless, few students realize the achievement of the campus landscapers, under the direction of W. M. Marberry, assistant professor of botany and chairman of the grounds department. In the period of 1946-47, 137 trees, 157 shrubs, and 11,150 flowers were planted; 4122 plants grown by cuttings were propagated and are growing in the nursery or on the campus.

A total of approximately 4,416 new woody plants were started or planted for the campus beautification during the past twelve months, and an approximate total of 11,150 new herbaceous flowering plants were planted during the same period. This is a sizable contribution to the betterment and beautification of the Southern Illinois University campus grounds.

The highly active and praise-worthy Grounds Department, is again planning extensive plans for the decoration of Southern's campus.—D. M.

Health Department Is Studying Child Growth

Southern's Health department, through the cooperation of the Allyn Training Building and their Kindergarten, is conducting a child growth pattern program. It is the study of child growth and health, based on factors of weight and height plotted on Wetzel grids, to show a child's pattern of growth whether normally or abnormally.

The Wetzel grid, invented by Dr. Normal Wetzel of Cleveland, Ohio, plots the child's growth pattern and shows defects in normal health and growth that should be consulted with a physician. These patterns are to be kept constantly on each child from the day he enters a kindergarten, through high school. Every child has a particular pattern of growth he follows; and with the incorporation of this program, each defect can be spotted immediately and corrective action can be taken.

Very few schools are using this program at present, and Southern is far ahead in its extensive health program. These grids aid each teacher in screening their pupils as to their growth, and help them determine each one's interest.

Cooperating in the program are Dr. Ted Rapsodie, principal of the Allyn Training Building, Dr. Sam Mott, associate professor of first school education, and Kindergarten director; Miss Tina Goodwin; Miss Ruby Van Trump, and Miss Madelyn Treese, teachers of the first, second and third grades respectively; and Miss Edna Bradley, nurse from the university Health Department.

HOUSING DIRECTOR VISITS U. OF I.

Mabel Pulliam, housing director, visited the University of Illinois last week for the purpose of picking up a few pointers on housing from Doctor Earl Thompson, alumnus of Southern and housing director at the University of Illinois.

From there she went to the League of Women Voters' meeting in Chicago as representative of Jackson County. The topic of the meeting was "Political Aspects of Housing."

Staff Member To Judge At Press Meet

Robert A. Steffes, acting chairman of the journalism department, will conduct a round table discussion and will judge Southern Illinois high school papers at the Southern Illinois High School Press association to be held at Johnston City, October 18. The principal speaker at the meeting will be Donald E. Brown, professor of journalism, University of Illinois.

Four Instructors To Attend Chicago Meet

Four instructors from Southern are to attend the combined annual meeting of the Illinois Vocational Homemaking Teaching Association to be held at the Edge-water Beach Hotel in Chicago, Oct. 23-24-25. Teachers planning to attend the meeting are Miss Lucy Wood, Miss Mary Louise Harsh, Miss Paul De Bass, and Miss Helen Starck.

FAMOUS SCULPTOR TO LECTURE IN AUDITORIUM

Paul Manship, one of America's foremost living sculptors, scheduled to speak on "Sculptor in the Making" on Thursday, October 16 in Shreeve auditorium. His lecture will begin at 8:15 p. m.

Paul Manship

Manship is an outstanding authority on modeling sculpture for bronze casting. He is one of the few sculptors who works in great detail. The bulk of Manship's work is in bronze, and according to experts, he has an instinctive knowledge of what he can do and what he cannot do in this difficult medium.

His works appear in the Metropolitan Museum of New York, Chicago Art Institute, the Musée de Luxembourg, the Corcoran Gallery of Art and the museums in Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Cleveland, St. Louis, Exeter, and Toronto, Canada.

Some of his principal works are "War Memorial," "Hercules Fountain," "Darius and Xerxes," and "Prometheus Fountain." He also directed the carving of the Minute Distinguished Service medals.

NOTICE

Miss Marjorie Shan's, registrar, announces that the schedule for the winter term will be published in the Egyptian October 30. Each student is asked to keep the schedule.

Southern Students To Attend Speech Meet Next Month

Several Southern students will attend a speech meet to be held at Bradley University in Peoria on November 14 and 15, it was announced by Dr. Larson, chairman of the speech department.

Six representatives will be chosen to take part in the meet, each law taking part in two or three different events. The different events are original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, radio broadcasting, original poetry reading, debate and debate.

Any student interested in attending this meet should contact Mr. Latton.

PI KAPPA SIGMA
The Pi Kaps held their annual fall open house Wednesday night, October 15. The girls costumes and the decorations were around the theme of a German Wine Garden. Cider and open-faced sandwiches were served at the bar in the basement.

The Pi Kaps visited the Chapter house this week. They were Miss Helen Dorris who is now teaching Home Economics at the Du Quoin High School, and Mrs. Harriet Fowler, the former Harriet Fowler who is now living in Steele, Missouri.

DELTA DELTA CHI
New executive members who went through initial initiation recently are: Ref. Hart, Don Rogers, Bob Stout, Jack Drake, Gil Harrison, and Arch Blackard.

The pledges of the fall term class held an impromptu picnic Monday night, October 13. This entertainment program was held along with the pledges of the Sigma Sigma Sorority. The following Tuesday evening repercussions occurred when a joint pledge and active meeting was held. The following pledges participated in this picnic: Bob Rude, Jack Bennett, Jack Bonnevise, David Moore, Jack Pastinski, Harold Christian, Bill Tully, Jim Kern, Milton Whitten, Dick Thomson, A. C. Rabors, Si Allen, Roy Wehshinke, Steve Hancock, Bill Marks, Bill Ridgely, Bob Barnes, Frank Fenz, Milton Weislocker, Larry Ward, and Roy Elton.

ANTHONY HALL
The Anthony Hall co-eds had an exchange dinner with the S.F.A.'s last Wednesday, October 8. Twenty girls were entertained at a barbeque in the Fraigs house, while twenty men were guests of Anthony Hall.

October 16, the girls had an exchange dinner with the Sigma Beta. Elizabeth Ruel, former Anthony Hall house president, was married to Dr. Donald Lyman Johnson on Sunday, October 12. She is now teaching at Carbondale. After graduating from Southern, she had a scholarship at Oberlin college where she received her master's degree. Recently she taught zoology at Eastern Illinois State Teachers College and was assistant to the director of the women's residence hall there. She and her husband will be at home at the Varsity Apartments, 25 South Cherry St., Harrisburg, Illinois.

Mr. John Dale Russell, director of the Division of Higher Education, U. S. Office of Education, will be at home at the principal address Thursday evening in conjunction with homecoming, Oct. 23-25. Mr. Russell will stay with his wife at Anthony Hall during his visit to Southern.

NU EPSILON ALPHA
Clyde O'Daniel was a guest of the fraternity over the week-end. Mr. O'Daniel is the father of the fraternal president, Mack O'Daniel. Waldo MacDonald, the first president of Nu Epsilon Alpha, was a visitor over the week-end. Members of NEA attended an exchange party with Anthony Hall last Wednesday night.

NEA pledges will have a party with the Tri-Sigma pledges at Giant City on Wednesday, October 15. The NEA will exchange with the Chi Delt's concerning the outcome of the homecoming house decorations. Win, lose, or draw, it should be a fine party.

Chaedy Duaman, an NEA pledge, is one of Southern's newly elected cheer leaders.

The NEA house has a new neon sign with the initials of the fraternity. It was installed last Sunday.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON
Dorothy Krausz, Delta Sig, of Chicago, was married to Clayton Pratt of Gibbie Saturday, October 11th, at Olmsted. Standing up with the couple were Jo Reichert, a sorority sister, and Gilbert Ely, a K.D.A. pledge. The couple will continue school at Southern.

Another marriage took place last week, which was that of Katie Alley, Delta Sig alum of Sparta, and Robert Davis, Sigma Beta of Zeiler. They were married in Murphysboro on October 10th. Pinky Sprinkle, sorority sister of the bride, was bridesmaid; Emie Koenigs, frat brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Davis is teaching at Belleville. Davis will continue his studies here at Southern.

The Sigma Beta and the Delta Sig held a picnic at Crab Orchard last Thursday evening.

Alum Jeannie Haroldson was visiting in Carbondale this week-end.

SIGMA BETA MU
Anthony Hall and the Sigma Beta will have an exchange dinner October 15th.

221 West Jackson is the address of the frat's new annex. It's also the address of the annual fall open house, which will be held October 16.

Jim Cook, alum, visited at Southern October 13th.

TRI SIGMA
Active members of Sigma Sigma Beta were dinner guests of the Delta Sigma Epsilon on Tuesday evening, October 7, from 5:30-7:30. The guests were: Veda Halham, Elia Williams, Frankie Woods, Pat Patterson, Lois Fox, Lorraine Wallace, Dorothy Coleman, Mary Hartman, Katie Konstantine, Mildred Lawson, Ross Knight, Lorraine Carrington, and Hannah Tregott.

The actives attended a picnic at the Dodge farm south of Car-

Working On Campus At All-Time High

With the increase of enrollment in the past few years, there has been an increase of employment problems on the campus. The number of students seeking employment this year has reached the highest in the history of Southern. Dean Marshall S. Hiskey announced this week.

To date the employment office has information of 534 students who are employed steady or part-time. Of this number 314 have regular jobs on campus. An additional 76 students have short odd jobs classed as emergency jobs. Approximately 85 students have acquired some sort of work off campus, 30 of which have permanent, part-time work. Many students with the KDA fraternity, Wednesday, October 8.

Tri Sig pledges and the Delta Chi pledges had their picnic on Thursday, October 9, also at the Dodge farm.

Monday night, October 15, Tri Sigma pledges and Delta Chi pledges skipped their respective meetings.

CHI DELTA CHI
Plans were made at the Monday night meeting for an alum banquet on Saturday afternoon, October 25, at the house. Tentative scheduling of an exchange dinner with the Pi Kappa Sigma will be October 21.

Alums, Robert Treese of West Frankfort and Oral Telford of Centralia were visitors last week. Telford is returning to school in the winter term.

President Dan Cox announced that Raymond H. Dye and Professor E. C. Coleman were elected sponsors.

The Chi Delta Chi actives pledged the pledges 7-11 in a football game played Wednesday, October 8 on the old football field.

Both sides substituted freely in the game which saw Bill Hayze score the lone touchdown early in the game on a long pass.

Yesterday afternoon the actives and the pledges clashed in a softball tilt, but the result is not available.

KAPPA DELTA ALPHA
Last week, Harold C. Hines was made an honorary member of Kappa Delta Alpha fraternity. Hines is a member of Southern's music department.

The K.D.A. attended a picnic with the Tri Sigma sorority Wednesday, October 8.

The RDA pledges will have a party Thursday night, October 16.

KAI SHEK HALL
The members of Kai Shek Hall are inviting all their alums to a tea which will be held Friday night, October 24, after the homecoming play.

OCTOPIUS
The girls living at the Octopus this year have reorganized and elected the following officers: president, Cleo Anderson; secretary-treasurer, Margery Mason; and reporter, Doris Lodge.

The big topic of discussion around the house at this time is homecoming.

The girls had a surprise birthday party for Doris Lodge on October sixth. Refreshments of cake, ice cream, and cakes were served to the following: Jessica Guffy, Cleo Anderson, Gloria Mase, Jackie Carter, Margery Mason, Mrs. A. G. Redour, our housemother, and the honored guest.

Jim Cook, alum, visited at Southern October 13th.

TRI SIGMA
Active members of Sigma Sigma Beta were dinner guests of the Delta Sigma Epsilon on Tuesday evening, October 7, from 5:30-7:30. The guests were: Veda Halham, Elia Williams, Frankie Woods, Pat Patterson, Lois Fox, Lorraine Wallace, Dorothy Coleman, Mary Hartman, Katie Konstantine, Mildred Lawson, Ross Knight, Lorraine Carrington, and Hannah Tregott.

Radio Club Organizes

The radio club held its initial meeting last Thursday at 8 p.m. in Parkington 204. The objectives of the club were outlined and discussed and temporary officers were elected.

They are Chuck Williams, president; Henry Borella, vice president.

The club is sponsored by Dr. Young and is open to all people who are interested in radio. It will assume operation of its "ham" station W9JLH as soon as the license can be re-instated.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 16 in Parkington 204 at 4:00 p. m. All people who are interested are invited to attend.

Of the 354 employed on campus, 133 are clerical workers, 22 work in the cafeteria, 38 in the library, 55 are technical workers, 67 in buildings and grounds, 14 as special appointments, 15 emergency appointments, and the others as teacher's assistants, workers in the health service, the photo lab, and on the farm.

The Dean's office has sent out 364 letters to merchants downtown asking if they need student help. Approximately 25 students have been placed this way so far.

SQUARE DANCE FEATURE OF SING AND SWING CLUB

The third meeting of the Sing and Swing Club was held Wednesday, October 8, at 7:30 in the Old Gym. The evening was spent in square dancing. During the intermission, a short business meeting was held. Six members of the club were elected as a permanent recreation committee. An enjoyable evening was had by all, except for the fact that there were not enough men for the number of girls present.

Notice to all, especially men: If you are looking for an evening packed full of fun and exhilaration, why not try the Sing and Swing Club next Wednesday night?

Maroons Hope To Upset Western's Homecoming In Saturday's Contest

A twice defeated Southern football team will journey to the Western Teachers College at Macomb for their first conference contest of the season Saturday. The two teams will go into the game carrying conference championship hopes. As yet Western is undefeated, having defeated Illinois College 40-0, Quincy 34-0, and they played Carthage to a 13-13 tie.

Southern has a record of one victory and two defeats but believe their opponents have been of greater strength than those of Western. This will be Western's homecoming game.

Last year the Maroons who held the runner-up position in the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, defeated the "Fighting Leathernecks" 19-7.

Southern's starting lineup will be changed slightly over last week's Galen Davis of Du Quoin and Bob Colborn of Flora will probably go out for Gal Gun at tackle. The tackle positions will be shared by John Corn of Benton and Captain Charles Mathieu of Eldorado. Jim Levin of Benton and Bob Eldridge of Fairfield will be installed as guards.

In the Maroon backfield, where there is always a change or two, there will be Bill Malinsky and Flora at quarter; Bob Johnson of Du Quoin and George Sawyer of Woodriver at the half back slots; and Don Riggs of Fairfield, who scored Southern's only touchdown last week, at fullback.

"Bunker" Jones of West Frankfort suffered a neck injury against Indiana State and will be out for the rest of the year according to athletic director and head football coach Glenn "Abe" Martin. Another West Frankfort man, Bill Wilkinson, is also out for the rest of the year. Dick Seelman will be out for about two weeks along with June Gross of Du Quoin. Men who have been out of practice for the past week and will probably miss most of the game with Western are "Cotton" Cogswore of Benton and Warren Littlefield of Vandalia.

NOTICE
Southern's intra-normal program began this week with the horse shoe tournament getting under way, and applicants for the Ping Pong tourney reaching 30. The latter tournament will start next week.

On The Trail Of Sports
by Fenton Harris

It should prove interesting to watch the results of our game with Illinois Normal. Normal has previously defeated Indiana State this year 20-7—the difference is two points less than the number of points Indiana State beat Southern Normal. Obviously both teams—but the Maroon players all think they have a better team than Normal. They are rather puzzled as to what happened at Terre Haute. The answer most frequently given by a player was a "strug of the shoulder and—just the breaks." This year's team is a confident group of football players. They have confidence in themselves and each other, but they are also men who would hesitate to over-rate themselves. They can well afford to be confident considering the material—after all the lineup is studded with all-conference material and stars of other teams. Several names came to our mind immediately... Jim Lovin, "Cotton" Cogswore, Bill Malinsky, Bob Eldridge and Charles Mathieu—Lovin, Cogswore and Malinsky have been all-conference. Eldridge previously played with the Iowa Pre-Flight Senators and Mathieu with the Bucknell eleven. Considering this we are tempted to say immediately the breaks really make a lot of difference in football. However, maybe Indiana State and Normal have both been under-rated—let's wait and see (the Normal game should tell).

Most people are predicting the Maroons' toughest competition in the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference will come from Eastern and Western. A few think Northern or Normal will be in the battle, but not as much as the others. However, we think the Northern team is the one to watch. They lost by graduation and therefore they are being rated much lower. In our opinion they should be given a lower rating but not too much lower. Remember

Looking At High School Sports
By Dolan Giger

Southern Illinois football has shown a trend in the state's lineup of unbeaten and untied records for 1947. In the Associated Press poll the order is something like this for the week ending last Friday: Salem is rated by AP fourth and Denton fifth. Salem's 32 to 0 conquest over a non-impressive Mt. Carmel team shaved their total points to 156 in five games. A little Christopher held the record Benton powerhouse for the first half, but fortitude alone could not keep the highly favored Rangers from a last half scoring spree and the Bears went down to defeat 32 to 0.

Murphysboro is in eighth position after trouncing Sparta. Carbondale is farther down the list because they have not reached such a high point total. However, they kept their slate clean by wiping out Chester last Friday night. In other games with teams who have been beaten and tied here are some of the results: Carmi roughly pushed Metropolis aside with a 36 to 13 whippin'. A slightly improved Mt. Vernon team refused to let observers' comments influence the outcome and a well coached crew came back to tie the favored Red Birds of West Frankfort 6 all in a highly confused and rough bout at West Frankfort.

At Marion a moral victory was registered when the local team scored a touchdown but still went down to defeat under the heavy tread of the Orphans from Centralia. The final score was 21 to 7, extra point too!

This week we are going out on the proverbial limb to predict that Carbondale will whip Pinckneyville, Christopher over Herrin, Metropolis over Anna, Murphysboro to swamp Johnston City, Mt. Vernon to subdue Marion, Fairfield to beat Flora, and West Frankfort to edge out Eldorado. This week's special is Carmi to upset Harrisburg. The game of the week is Centralia versus Salem and we pick Salem by one td.

This week's schedule:
Carbondale at Pinckneyville.
Herrin at Christopher.
Centralia at Salem.
Metropolis at Anna.
Coy of St. Louis at Sparta.
Murphysboro at Johnston City.
Elkville at Zeigler.
Marion at Mt. Vernon.
Carmi at Harrisburg.
Flora at Fairfield.
Eldorado at West Frankfort.

Maroons Score Early In First Quarter; Fumble, Bad Pass Lead To 21-6 Defeat

On a hot afternoon in Terre Haute, Indiana, an alert bunch of Indiana State Sycamores took advantage of a Maroon fumble, an intercepted pass and a 69 yard pass to outplay Southern in a rough and tumble affair on the Hoosiers' field. Bill Wilkinson, West Frankfort, fleg Southern back, ran an Indiana State punt to State's 36. He immediately picked up two more yards, then Bill Malinsky, Flora, passed to Joe Hughes, West Frankfort, on the 20. Don Riggs, Fairfield, carried the ball to the one-yard stripe, and on the next play, Riggs scored by smashing through center. "Bunker" Jones, West Frankfort, missed his only attempt of the day for extra point.

By recovering a Maroon fumble, State bounced back. But on two successive losses, the Sycamores fell back to the 26. On a beautiful run, Max Woolsey then carried the "skin" to the Maroon one-yard line. It looked like the Maroons were going to hold, when on the first down, State could not score. On the following play, Faught crashed through center to temporarily tie the game. Bob Christopher untied the count by successfully kicking through the uprights making the score Indiana 7 Southern 6.

After Malinsky had kicked to the Maroon 31, Woolsey repeated his deceptive running, this time to Southern's three. End and Captain Stan Sajko snared teammate Faught's end-zone pass to again

Evidently Southern has a very promising athlete in freshman Joe MacLafferty. He placed second in the mile last year at the state meet. He recently set a new cross-country record at Eastern in his first cross-country attempt. Most of us may not think this too much of an accomplishment, considering his previously proven ability, but that is under-estimating MacLafferty's ability. Cross-country calls for an entirely different pacing than the mile and also requires other abilities not needed in the mile. In some ways his experience in the mile could be considered as a deficiency.

Southern's Cross-Country Team Defeated; McLafferty Sets New Record At Eastern

Southern's cross country team was defeated by Eastern Illinois State Teachers college of Charleston last Friday by a score of 30 to 25 in a meet at the Charleston athletic field.

Joe MacLafferty, Maroon freshman, of Carbondale set a new record in the 8.25 mile run when he clipped the course in 17:31. His time was nine seconds better than the previous record.

This was MacLafferty's first experience as a cross-country runner, but he is well known by track fans who remember that he placed second in the Illinois State high school mile championship last spring.

Results:
First, Joe MacLafferty (S); second, Scott State.
In the third period, the Sycamores scored on a 69 yard pass. Final score Indiana State 21 Southern Illinois 6.
