COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS URGE THE CONTINUANCE OF RURAL PRACTICE

LETTER TO PRES. SHRYOCK AND DR. MERWIN IS REQUEST

The following letter was received by President H. W. Shryock and Dr. B. W. Merwin regarding the interest and attitude which the college has assumed toward rural practice teaching:

Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, County Superintendents of Schools of Southern Illinois, wish to express our appreciation of the course in rural practice teaching which you have been offering, and we wish a continuance of the work.

We have observed that the course in rural practice teaching has been very helpful to the beginning teachers in our respective counties. Under the new certificating laws an ever increasing number of junior college graduates finds it necessary to teach in the rural schools, and they should have some special preparation for this work.

We urge, therefore, that you require all sophomores, especially those who may accept work in country schools, to take rural practice teaching. It will be found easier to secure employment for those who do. And that the work may be continued, you may be sure that we will co-operate with you in it in every way possible:

Ethel B. Hartman, Mound City, Pulaski County.

Elmer B. Swafford, Benton, Franklin County.

Lewis Ebb Etherton, Murphysboro, Jackson County.

Don C. Moss, Marion, Williamson County.

L. W. Brown, Jonesboro, Union County.

Variety Program at First C. of C. Meet

The Chamber of Commerce held its first meeting Thursday evening, September 17, in the Socratic Hall.

A large crowd enjoyed the interesting program which was as follows: Talk, "The Value of Shorthand and Typing," Miss Emma Francis; piano solo, Miss Dorothy Jones; reading, Miss Simmons; trombone solo, Bon Brown; talk, "Current Events," Francis Blankenship; saw and whistling solo, Miss Shields; Odds and Ends, T. L. Bryant.

Officers for the ensuing year are: President, Abe Martin; Vice President, Marie Baudison; Secretary, Mary Colombo; Treasurer, John McAfoos; Egyptian Reporter, Cleta Greer; Transportation, Paul Sisney; Scrap Book manager, Allen C. Dawson.

The next meeting will be on Thursday evening, October 1. Everyone who is interested in commercial work is invited to come and take part in the meetings.

Forum to Hold Initial Meeting September 28

The men's debating society of the College, the Forum, opens its season's activity on Monday evening, September 28, when the initial meeting will be held at 7 o'clock in the Zetetic hall.

This club is one that devotes its year's work to forensic activities—debate, argumentation, and public speaking. Meetings are held weekly throughout the fall and winter terms and in the spring session until the annual debate for the College championship with the Illinae as the opposition concludes the Forum's work.

For the last two years the Forum has won the College debating championship, in each instance, the Illinae being downed by a 5-2 score. Last spring the two societies argued the Compulsory Unemployment Insurance question.

The Forum membership is usually limited but this season there are opportunities for men interested in forensics to join the group because of vacancies caused by a large number of graduations in June. Of the four varsity debaters who won the championship in spring only one, Guy Williams of Harrisburg, is in college. However, there are a number of other members, whom it is expected will appear at the opening meeting.

It was announced that students who wish to continue debating experience gained in high school are especially welcome to the Forum, but lack of scholastic training is no barrier to admission.

Officers, including a successor to Harold Menke of McLeansboro, former president, will be elected on Monday evening, and the general program for the year will be mapped out.

Practice Instructors Report Activities

Members of S. I. N. U. faculty who were studying at Chicago University and at Columbia University this summer were pleased to find among the first references given for English courses, the book written by Mr. W. A. Furr, superintendent of the Allyn Building.

Mr. Merwin reports that over 300 students have applied for practice in the grade and high school for the winter term.

Mr. Cox and Dr. Merwin recently made a trip to the Cahokia Mounds in the capacity of Archeological consultants to meet M. W. Sterling of the Smithsonian Institute. During the past year Mr. Cox and Dr. Merwin have been carrying on archeological investigation in Southern Illinois and they will continue this through the coming year.

Annual Field Trip to be Held September 26

The annual earth history field trip for the science teachers of Southern Illinois will be held this year on Saturday, September 26, in the vicinity of Carbondale and Giant City Park, according to an announcement sent out from the offices of the State Geological Survey at Urbana, which organization sponsors these field study trips in various parts of the state. This year the Southern Illinois Science club will make this trip their annual fall field trip.

The teachers will meet at 9 a. m. on the above date, at the Roberts Hotel in Carbondale, and will then proceed by automobile to the various points of interest on the itinerary. The trip will emphasize the demonstration and explanation of the main events that transpired in the region during the past ages, as shown by the character and attitudes of the rock formations in that area. The physiographic history of that part of the Illinois Ozarks will also be outlined.

Those who plan to attend are asked to wear hiking clothes, to prepare packed lunches, and to appear at the meeting place at the appointed time. There is usually plenty of room in the automobiles for those who do not come in cars of their own.

Information concerning the trip may be obtained from Miss Zimmer-schied in the Science Building.

Pep Club Sponsors Pencil Sale Today

Under the sponsorship of the newly organized Pep Club, 1000 pencils bearing the home football schedule are to be sold by members of the football team. The purpose of this is to advertise the home football games to townspeople as well as to students.

Two pencils will be marked by faculty members. The purchasers of these will receive prizes, to first prize being $1.00, the second 50c. The lucky purchasers will be announced when the pencils have been sold.

The pencils will be on sale Wednesday, September 23. Football players will be in charge of the sales. It is hoped that the student body will respond enthusiastically to this enterprise.

Pep Club Meeting Thursday Night

The Pep Club held its first meeting Thursday night, September 17 in the gym of the old Science Building, under the sponsorship of Dr. Beyer and Miss Scott.

An informal program of music, songs and yells was led by Charles Harris.

The regular meetings will be held on Tuesday night, and all students are invited to attend.

Y.W.C.A. Organizes a Book Exchange

The Y. W. C. A. has organized a Book Exchange for the services of the students. The books should be brought to the bookstore, which is on the third floor of the new Chemistry building, and left there after filing name, address and price wanted for the book. After the books are sold the money will be turned into the Business office and Mr. Miles will write out all the checks. A small 10 per cent fee will be charged for this service. The bookstore will be open only the first week of every new term so don't forget the Y. W. C. A. bookstore the first week of the winter term. Those students who brought books which have not been sold may call for them now or may leave them to be sold next term.

The officers of the Y. W. C. A. are: President, Helen Crisp. Vice President, Elsie Strothmann. Treasurer, Ruth Stevenson. Secretary, Alice Graham.

The cabinet officers are: Evelyn Hodge, Mary Winks, Marjorie Young, Winifred McCue, and Marie Gumm-shheimer. The advisors are: Miss Krause, Dr. Kellogg, Miss Powers, Miss Carpenter, Dean Woody, Miss Stein and Miss Means.

The Y. W. gave a tongue dance on Tuesday night, September 15, after which Helen Crisp gave a short talk on the purposes of the Y. W. and inviting all to come to our next meeting, September 22. Watch the bulletin board for announcements.

Freshman Wins Two Prizes at State Fair

Jay Wilbur Friedline, a freshman of S. I. N. U. won first and second prizes in the Home Economics Exhibition Department of the Du Quoin State Fair the first week in September, 1931.

An oil painting of a deer won first prize, and a marine picture in oil won second. Both pieces of work were done under the supervision of Miss Lula Roach, head of the Art Department in the college.

Mr. Friedline's works were chosen from a large group of paintings entered by artists from all over the southern part of Illinois.

The Obelisk used some plates by Mr. Friedline last year, and he painted part of the scenery for the Zetetic play last spring. The Art critics in S. I. N. U. have lauded the work of this young artist.

After finishing the Art course in this college, Mr. Friedline expects to continue his study in the Art Institute at Chicago.

MARGRAVES' PROTEGES ENTER FRIDAY IN CHAPEL

The S. I. N. U. band under the leadership of Wendell Margrave, made its first appearance in chapel last Friday morning, playing the following selections: "The National Emblem March" by Bagley, and the overture, "Alda" by McCaughey.

The number of instruments in the band this year numbers fifty-seven, this exceeding last year's number by eight. There are twenty-one new members, of whom all but two are freshmen. The new instruments introduced into the band include a euphonium, played by J. D. McLean, and a bassoon, played by Mr. McIntosh.

There is some very good material in the freshman portion of the band, some members having had eight years of musical experience. The band will make its next appearance at the meeting of the Women's Club tomorrow afternoon, and then at the pep parade in the evening.

At present there are a few openings in the band particularly in the tenor and bass saxophone sections.

The band seems to be the best it has ever been as material keeps increasing each year. As usual the band will be a well dressed aggregation. Director Margrave is planning to purchase ten new uniforms.

The band entertains during all home athletic events and marches between halves at football games. Five snare drummers promise to make the band's appearances thrilling affairs this year.

Pep Club Organizes With Fifty Members

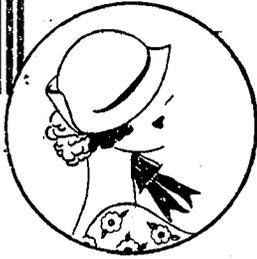

The Pep Club held its first meeting in the old gymnasium Thursday evening at seven o'clock with about fifty students in attendance. Miss Carpenter, Miss Scott, Dr. Tenney, Dr. Beyer, and Mr. Margrave are faculty advisors of the club.

The Thursday meeting was called to order by Charles Harris. After several instrumental solos and orchestral selections, George Porter, "Pat" Randall and Aden Bauman assisted "Chuck" Harris in leading a few rousing yells.

An organization of this kind to promote enthusiasm among the student body has been an annual affair. The pep squad hopes to be particularly active this year in supporting the football team.

The club decided to give a tea dance at the University Cafe, the proceeds of which will be used to buy sweaters for the pep squad. The date for the dance will be announced later. A snake dance will be held next Thursday night, the demonstration starting in front of the Cafe.

Fifteen High Schools Represented at U. H.

Although the college students hear a great many announcements concerning it, most of them know very little about the University High School. There are 115 students in all, 18 freshmen, 32 sophomores, 27 juniors, and 38 seniors. Strangely enough the largest part of these students do not live in Carbondale, but come here from three-year high schools in various towns around here. The University High is, of course, maintained mainly for practice teaching for college students.

Professor F. G. Warren is the superintendent of the University High. Other members of the faculty are Miss Wells, Miss Francis, Miss Gibbons, Mr. Combs, Mr. Schroeder and Mr. Wright.

Although the high school is not of sufficient size to maintain a football team, it enthusiastically supports the varsity during the fall term. In the winter, however, the University High basketball team shows up quite creditably in the Egyptian Conference.

The high school students were extraordinarily active in college activities last year. They produced a clever one-act play at chapel one morning and also conducted a popularity contest. Both events were very successful. They are planning to carry out more such activities this year.

The different classes will meet to organize and elect officers this week.

An unusual feature of the University High School is the fact that students from many high schools, usually three-year schools, complete their work here. This year, representatives of fifteen high schools have registered, making a unique record for such a small high school. As soon as the "ice is broken" and the students become acquainted with each other, they will hold a series of parties and entertainments. The schools represented are: Makanda, Carbondale Community, Benton, Flora, Buckner, Burnt Prairie, Noodle, Texas, Herrin, Cypress, West Frankfort, Douglass, Hurst Bush, Brookport, Royalton, and Carterville.

JULIA JONAH SPONSORS DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Strut and Fret, the dramatic organization on the campus, held its first meeting last Thursday evening, in the Strut and Fret hall. Leo Brown, president last year, presided. Impromptu skits were the order of the evening, among which were Romeo and Juliet, Quick Henry, the Flit, and the Automobile Ride. The new freshman members showed talent, participating in this entertainment.

Miss Jonah, faculty sponsor, gave a brief talk explaining the purpose of the club. At the meeting next Thursday evening, officers will be elected.

Lena Van Hooebeke had as her guest Friday, her father, Mr. Dalpha Van Hooebeke of Sesser.

Retorik

Of all the moans of anguish emanating from the different sections of the campus the majority seem to originate in the rhetoric class rooms. It has been said, not wisely but too well, that "Rhetoric is the Waterloo of the freshman." Judging from the signals of distress that upper classmen see and hear both on and off campus, this must be a decided truth.

Freshman girls are impossible to date now. Freshman boys can not be persuaded to indulge in a game of pool, attend a dance, or what have you? What is this atrocious consumer of time that keeps these poor freshmen indoors engaged in ferocious study? If the question be put to them, 99 44-100 per cent of them will feebly reply "Rhetoric."

Ah, indeed! Rhetoric! The freshman's burden, the past horror of upper classmen. But why, you ask, do freshmen fear this age-old subject? Is it because of heavy, inconsiderate assignments? Can it be because there is a superfluity of examinations? Is the subject too complicated for freshman minds? To all these queries we have but one answer, and as it can't be "yes" it of necessity must be "no." It is true that we have not yet discovered the reason for freshman groans at the very mention of the word rhetoric, but surely the mystery can be solved.

Aha! (And other exclamations of gusto.) I perceive a freshman on yonder step who is staggering under the weight of a rhetoric book. I shall interview him and endeavor to delve to the depth of this riddle.

"Oh, I say, Frosh, hold up a minute. I wish to converse a moment with you."

"Oh, yeah? Well, make it snappy."

"Oke! I merely want to ask you

Personals

Miss Ruby Bishop and Mr. Yost Rosier of Kansas City, Mo., were the guests of Sue Farthing, Thursday.

Ruby Kathryn Jones was hostess at a bridge party Wednesday night. The guests were: Loreen Kaen, Mary Anderson, Eula Mae Sims, Dorothy Jones, Helen Skaggs, Margaret Hill, and Ruth Perrine.

Mary Loomis entertained her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kathryn Snyder Loomis of Anna, Saturday.

Justin Coleman, of the Ish Blank orchestra, visited in Carbondale Wednesday. Mr. Coleman was a student at S. I. T. C. last year.

Raymond Mayfield spent the week end in Olney, Ill., where he is a representative of the Kraeger School of Music in St. Louis, Mo.

Margaret Kelley had as her guest last week end, Herbert Barr, Jr., of Crown Point, Ind.

why freshmen detest rhetoric?"

"Ha! That's an easy one. We freshmen seek aid in untangling comma splices, runover sentences, and the other myriads of things (not understandable) from the upper classmen who have had rhetoric. They invariably must forfeit their sophistication over us lowly freshmen, for they know less about rhetoric than we do. We spend all our time studying the subject, so that we won't lose our sophistication, yet for all our study, we fail to retain a thing."

"But why the moans in the classrooms, Frosh?"

"Oh, that's just the prof bewailing when one of us tell him that the reason a word is capitalized is because it's a verb, when every one knows it's because it's a pronoun. So long."

Delta Sig News

In last week's issue of the Egyptian, Marian Dill was listed as a pledge of Delta Sigma Epsilon. This was an error. It is Elizabeth Dill who is the pledge, and not her sister, Marian.

In spite of the heat approximately thirty couples attended the tea dance sponsored by the Delta Sigs last Thursday afternoon. Music was furnished by Paul McRoy, Freddie Hallagan, and Courtney Miles.

Idabel Boyd of McLeansboro, spent the week end with her parents.

Dean Lucy K. Woody was the guest of honor at a dinner last Wednesday night. Other guests included Margaret Hensley, Marie Ames, D'Elia Williams, Marian Dill, Floriede Humphrey, the town actives, and town pledges.

Florence Young, who is teaching in Dupo, visited at the Delta Sig house last week end. Miss Young attended S. I. N. U. last year.

O'Grata Chance spent the week end in Mounds.

The Delta Sigs entertained with "open house" last Friday night. Dancing and bridge were the features of the evening, with refreshments served later. Miss Harriett Means, house mother, was the chaperone.

Elizabeth Dill, a town pledge, was the guest of Winona Gunn, East St. Louis, last week end.

Gertrude Kraft of Benton visited at the Delta Sig house Wednesday evening.

GIVE IT BACK

The ineligibility list has been suspended until further notice.

We ask that this system not be abolished because during its short life it has served S. I. N. U. well. It is but fair to the students that those who rate the ineligibility list be excluded from campus activities. Fear of exclusion from campus activities was an incentive to many students last year.

True enough, college men and women should need no incentive to go on with their work, but the existing facts are that there are many in S. I. N. U. who are still boys and girls, and who really need something like an ineligibility list to work against. Their efforts to keep above the 2.75 average will raise the scholastic average of the school.

Coaches and athletic directors have found that scholastic requirements make better material for athletic teams, and logically, the same principle will hold in any organization.

WE'LL DO IT

Organization of a Greek letter club for journalists of the college is being planned by members of the Egyptian staff. The club, suggested as a means of promoting enterprise on the part of the college journalists, will be open to those working steadily on the paper. Only those members of the staff who are essential to the success of the publication will be allowed to become members. A similar organization has been tried at De Kalb Normal and found to be very successful. If present plans materialize, it is planned to have the club meet one evening each week to discuss journalistic problems and to receive valuable lectures aiding the college writer. It is not intended as a fraternity but is open rather to both men and women interested in furthering their journalistic careers. The absence of a course in journalism in the present curriculum of the college is hoped to be neutralized by the addition of this club to the campus.

ANOTHER CHANGE

The Egyptian has always favored changes that are for the betterment of S. I. N. U. The time has come when we believe that another change should be made.

Our steadily increasing enrollment each year is rendering the present system of faculty advisers inadequate to fulfill the needs of a large student body. Other colleges and universities have instituted better systems which, in comparison to ours, makes our present system obsolete. In other schools students choose their advisers from the department in which they are majoring. In that way, they confer with someone who is in a better position to advise them in their choice of courses.

Under our present system, it is impossible for the faculty advisers to handle such groups of students and arrange the right kind of work for each of them. As a result, many candidates for graduation must pay for an error by spending extra time in school to complete all of the necessary work required.

In consideration of the existing facts, we believe that it would be of benefit to the students and to the faculty advisers for S. I. N. U. to adopt the change suggested. Other colleges and universities have been operating under this plan most successfully, and we are certain it would serve S. I. N. U. more effectively than our present system.

Briefly our plan is this, registration for classes should not be made according to the year classification of a student, but according to the department in which he is majoring.

THE SPHINX KNOWS:

What Dr. Beyer was trying to tell Miss Scott in chapel Tuesday.

A girl who very carefully filled out her directory cards in chapel and didn't sign her name.

The three highest grades on Miss Smith's fourth-hour dictation test were made by three young ladies, and the next three high grades were made by the young men who sat next to them.

Profanity is easily written in shorthand.

Mary Colombo has had her curiosity aroused by a remark about her "inside knowledge" on faculty members.

Why Leo Brown gave himself the airs of a "young doctor from New York" not long ago.

Anthony Hall girls are rejoicing over their freshman, Helen Pillow, who plays jazz as long and vehemently as even they desire.

A freshman who kept a reserve book out of the library two days and had to pay a sixty-five cent fine.

A girl who lost an Eversharp pencil in the Egyptian office and found it there two days later.

A Delta Sig pledge who had to do her studying in the bathtub because she misbehaved.

THE SPHINX WONDERS:

What sort of a period it is from Sunday 9:30 a. m. to Sunday 12:00 p. m. Miss Crawford says it's Sunday until 9:00.

If you ever tried to play volleyball.

What would happen if James White was silent all through a French recitation.

How the Delta Sigs managed to have a tea dance last Thursday without evoking a cloudburst.

Why our Clarence Kirchoeff doesn't have a date with some of the seventeen girls who are madly in love with him.

If we're going to have a Zetetic dance soon.

What caused the eight faculty members who have lunch at the Delta Sig house to forget to eat their dessert.

Dear Sphinx:

I am experiencing the usual chaotic mental condition of the freshman, and I would like to ask you concerning the rich traditions of this institution. Is it true that only last year alligators lived in the fountain? Was the French and Indian War fought on this campus? Is Anthony Hall the namesake of that great temperance worker, Susan B. Anthony? Did O Henry attend school here last winter? Is the Cafe really a den of iniquity? And is Cambysses the own son of the great, historic steed?

Yours confusedly,

Monsieur Le Noveau.

Monsieur Le Noveau:

I am answering your letter out of the many hundreds I have, because I realize your mind must be put at ease. First of all, let me remind you that faith is a noble virtue.

Concerning that habitat of the alligators, I would believe that story to the point of not wading in the fountain. The terraces of the Shryock Auditorium are sufficient proof that the war was fought on this campus. Grass has never grown there since. Anthony Hall is a great and august body. Doubt nothing concerning it. O. Henry of the True Story DID attend this college last winter (he's now furnishing testimonials.) Since the Cafe is so adequately peopled by faculty members, it's best to pass over it in silence. As for Cambysses, one glimpse at his noble lines will convince you.

Credibly yours,
The Sphinx.

Dear Sphinx:

I should like the advice of thy limitless knowledge. You are the only one who can help. She is a junior and the head monitor of the junior section. How could I get introduced to her? I want a date with her so badly that I would even take a D from this term's French for one. If you can aid me in this adventure, I promise to bring you a "coke" on my next trip across the Sahara.

Thanking you in advance, I am,

My dear puzzled Sophomore:

Please don't go to any extremes! A D in French is a D in French and a date with a girl, why—that's merely a date with a girl. My dear friend, I have a confession to make—the subject of your no-longer silent admiration is really Joan Crawford in disguise. Now, you can see how hopeless it is, but I had to tell you for your own good, if not for the good of the school. You shall not get that D, and by the way when do I get the "coke"?

Yours confidentially,
The Sphinx.

MAROONS RECEIVE FIRST NIGHT WORK UNDER BEACONS LAST FRIDAY

HOURLY SPENT IN GETTING PREPARED FOR SCOTT FIELD AVIATORS

On Friday night the Maroons were given their first workout of the year under the glare of the floodlights. The practice sessions were in the form of a hard scrimmage for the first four teams, A, B, C, and D. The A team composed of Captain Canada at center, Robertson and Watson, guards; Sisney and Brown, tackles; Swofford and Stephens, ends; Martin and Willis, halves; Lauder, quarter, and Capt. Patten at full, was pitted against the C team.

The boys were given a hour's hard work with the A team pushing the ball across the goal line on three occasions. Martin again looks good, as do Patton, Willis and Lauder, but their berths are by no means permanent, as Coach McAndrew has several performers in Davison, McGowan, Holder, Wimberly and Lutz who will be able to step right in if they are needed. Pat Patterson of Harrisburg, end on C team has been working hard and his showing Friday night impressed Coaches McAndrew and Lingle very much. Red McGowan is beginning to show some of his old dash of high school days and Wimberly and Davison both give promise of starting in where they left off in high school.

The B team in an hour's scrimmage against D team scored a couple of times while holding the D team scoreless. Davison, McGowan, Holder and Wimberly in the B backfield, all joined in carrying the ball, and if those boys were larger and had their present speed, what a combination they would make. Coach McAndrew was well satisfied with the first scrimmage, and although some weak spots will have to be remedied, the Maroons will be ready for the kickoff on Friday night.

John Chapman Appointed to Managership

John Chapman, a senior, has been appointed athletic manager of S. I. N. U. for the college year. This position comes following active work in athletic work during last year's brilliant season. In 1930 Chapman held the position of manager for track and football, and assistant manager for basketball. This year he will hold the managerial role in all major sports. Chapman is very deserving of the responsibility which is his for the year. In his past work he has shown characteristics which commend him well for the job.

Few realize how replete with duties such a position is. Details of the various athletic events must be attended to by the manager. He must see to publicity, take charge of uniforms and equipment, and cover ticket sales. Beyond these things he has minor duties which, with those just mentioned, require a major portion of the student manager's time.

Back again after a year's leave. What holdeth this season in the way of the new and undiscovered?? The queer and laughable? The comic and tragic?

And where be the all-fired Algerion of the all-fired ancestors? Why should we be interested in national and international recovery from the depression when we have a recovery of our own to promote? A bar of Life—buoy to aid the finder is donated by this column.

We hereby solemnly swear to omit all blondes as space fillers in this column.

We're off blondes anyway.

Per McIntyre: Thoughts while strolling caféward:

Marion Dill's pepscent smile and rumors of something left under an Indiana moon. DuBarry, Hudnut, and Paris odors, each with its own individual scent and cents. Rustevio, the Alabama "Keed." The return of Handegan. The myriad brass circles within the triangle—doubtless another pledge being coached to develop an inferior complex. New corner booth crushes. If it could moan, we wager it would cry for Harper and Kilbreth. Them was the good old days, pard. The new Jane and her apparent bent toward establishing a new record as to many and divers boy friends. Perspiring individuals with the glint in their eyes—maybe sunstroke, maybe daughter stroke. What is the new conception of Western Union which everyone seems to talk of? Oh, well, another time to the Cafe.

Friday night, the debut of the '31 gridironists. Canada is expected to have more luck than in the initial home game of last season.

Scott Field will probably think they have been led into a sham battle before the end of the first half. Anyway, they'll be experienced cannon fodder for the Southerners.

Lovely weather—for the pants pressers. One walk in the hot weather at present is equivalent to a bill from the cleaners.

Never before have we admitted the depression but now we are convinced. When husbands and wives begin bumping each other off for their insurance, there is nothing to be blamed but the depression.

By the way, have you noticed the fall in number of bridge clubs and parties. Bills from the grocers are very popular as consolation prizes.

The present administration at Illinois tells the freshmen that the depression accounts for their attending school this year. S'funny and at the same time ambiguous. There are plenty on the outside who are not attending for the same reason.

Report on the game Friday night with the next issue.

And by the way, dearie, will you have a corporal, a lieutenant, or a major?

MAROONS AND SCOTT FIELD AVIATORS TO MEET FRIDAY ON COLLEGE FIELD

Student Coaches Help Mac Develop Football Teams

Coach McAndrew has appointed Ralph Foley, Eugene Steritz and Francis (Hank) Loudon, as coaches of the All-Americans or "Pea Patch Terrors." Last year the number of candidates reporting for football increased so much over previous years that it was decided that the squad must be divided, so student coaches were given charge of the ones who were not quite good or developed enough to make the varsity. They did so well that this season, more candidates reported than ever before. The three coaches have already taken charge of their yearlings and have been making rapid strides this last week.

Eligibility Rules to be Discontinued

President H. W. Shryock has announced the discontinuance of the rules governing participation in extra-curricular activities until the faculty acts on the matter sometime in the future. Until that time President Shryock intends to deal with individual cases as they may arise. The suspending of the plan worked out by the Student Council under the guidance of Dean Wham follows a year's tryout of the system. Dean Wham investigated several colleges similar to this in size and also larger universities in attempting to find a system of eligibility requirements suitable for the college. The plan adopted resembled closely one in operation at Illinois University.

Actual operation of the old system was taken over by Dean Wham, who collated all material and arranged for the publication of the lists of ineligible. Each month the list was compiled of those not receiving a high enough point average to permit their engaging in outside activities. The point average was a 2.75 in the case of membership and 3.25 in the case of holders of offices.

The eligibility rules concerning inter-collegiate activities, such as athletics, are still in effect. For instance the rules of the Little Nineteen Conference are carefully adhered to and observance of them is not impaired by the suspending of the scheme adopted last year.

Kenneth Chase of Mt. Vernon, was the guest of his sister, Carrie Chase, Tuesday.

Students of the college who have affiliated themselves with the Presbyterian church here were the guests of the Church at dinner Monday evening.

COACH McANDREW OFFERS PROBABLE LINEUP FOR FRIDAY

The football curtain will be raised on Friday night when the Southern Teachers tackle the Scott Field Aviators on College Field at 7:30 p. m. Last year the Maroons ran roughshod over the Aviators, defeating them 32-0, but that was during the middle of the season, and the victory was won by the greatest Maroon team ever to represent S. I. N. U. on the gridiron.

Not much is known about the Aviators as yet, but the Flyes are usually quite formidable and can be counted on to give a good account of themselves. Mac will probably line up B, C, and D teams on hand to relieve the A team.

This game was scheduled to be the original opener with DeKalb College. Coach McAndrew expects the Scott Field Aviators to present a brilliant if not organized lineup. Last year individuality marked the Aviators' performance. In Spinks the Aviators had one of the best open field runners seen on the college gridiron last season.

Zetets Hold Initial Meeting of Year

The Zetetic Literary Society held its opening meeting for the Fall term last Wednesday, September 16, in the Zetetic hall in the new Chemistry Building.

The following program was presented:

Devotional exercises, Richard Watson.

Extemporaneous debate: L e o Brown, affirmative; Carl Gower, negative.

Vocal solo, Sue Farthing.

Talk, Marc Green.

Banjo solo, Courtney Miles.

Talk by club sponsor, Mr. Faner.

Hot weather and interfering activities caused the meeting to start fifteen minutes late. The devotional exercises are a newly instituted number on the program. Its continuance will depend on popular approval which so far seems favorable.

Mr. Faner emphasized in his talk that Strut and Pret is a dramatic club, that glee clubs and choruses are specialized musical organizations, that the Forum is a specialized debate club, that Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. clubs are specialized, but that the Zetetic club is not specialized along hard and fast lines. Advancement in elocution is the principal objective, but training in other fields is not to be neglected.

It was pointed out by the president of the club that a new vice president, a new treasurer, and a doorkeeper—all elective offices, are to be filled by the club at the meeting of September 23. The program for the meeting of Wednesday, September 23 will be posted on the north bulletin board.

All students are invited to attend the Zetetic meetings even though they do not wish to become members.

Tonight, a short talk, "What the School Boards are Looking for in Prospective Teachers," will be given by Dean Wham. This is a vital and very realistic question in the students' minds. Dean Wham will give in brief form, methods of meeting these requirements.

Carl Meese drove to Vergennes Thursday afternoon to visit his brother, John, who teaches in the high school there.
