Southern In Retrospect

Of all the history we read, or are taught, that which is closest to us is perhaps overlooked the most.

The history of Southern as a live and vibrant one. Not only composed of trials and tribulations, highlights and glories, a concrete, progressive growth.

This growth is very evident in the various records that have been kept from the incubation of the school to date.

From the records, one finds that Southern was built out of progressivism.

In 1865 there were only two state educational institutions functioning in Illinois: The State Normal at Normal Ill., founded in 1857, and the Industrial University (Now the U. of I.) at Champaign, chartered in 1867.

It had taken four years of public conventions and bitter contests in the legislature before the first nearly ten more years were spent to gain the state university.

There was little hope for a state Normal. Cooperative planning, however, began.

The first meeting of men interested in founding a "Normal College" in Southern Illinois was at a teachers' institute held at Salem, Marion County, in the spring of 1868.

A prominent motive of the convention was to begin a movement toward establishing a Normal school downtown. Fifty people signed a circular to meet at a later specified time to consider the educational needs of the district.

A similar circular was issued a few days later from Carbondale, Jackson County, without apparent knowledge of the Salem meeting. People were invited to attend a later meeting.

At least 1000 persons attended the second assembly. Held the last of May or the first of June.

The circular evidently contained great news toward making public opinion favor the proposed action. The appeal was successful. Five months after the committee met in Odell a Southern Illinois Normal became reality by act of the state legislature.

Students Always Welcome At SIU Religious Organizations

By George Bliss
"You Are Always Welcome," is the slogan of the six religious organizations at SIU. These groups represent most faiths and are ready to offer a helping hand.

Three of the organizations have buildings on or near the campus which are open to students at all times. These are the Student Christian Foundation, Baptist Foundation and the Wesley Foundation.

The Wesley Foundation is located on the street from University to Madison Ave.

The Wesley Foundation is similar to the SCF and Baptist Foundation in that it offers religious guidance and classes for students.

The weekly schedule is: Friendly Hour, Monday, at 4 p. m.; Prayer Service, Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.; Worship, Thursday, 7:30 p. m.

The director of the foundation and instructor in religious subjects is the Rev. Ronald Sieben.

Christianity Club
The Christianity Club is an organization of the Episcopal church and is open to all members of the Episcopal faith and to students interested in the work of the club.

The Christianity Club meets once every two weeks at St. James' Episcopal Church, under the leadership of the Rev. W. John Harris and Mr. R. S. Randolph.

Gamma Delta
Gamma Delta is a Lutheran student club which is devoted to the study of the Bible and development of a Christian attitude.

It meets the first and third Wednesdays of each month under the leadership of the Rev. Eric and Dr. Jacob Bach at Our Saviors Lutheran Church.

Newman Club
The Newman Club is the Roman Catholic student organization designed to guide spiritual, intellectual and social life of the student. It meets once every two weeks at the Parish Hall at 7:30 p. m. under the leadership of the Rev. Robert T. Hutsch and Mrs. Elizabeth Meehan.

Credit Due
Dr. Paul Hunsinger, associate professor of speech, contributed the guest editorial that appeared in the Tuesday edition of The Egyptian.

The article entitled "Religion Can Be Found" was printed with our editorial credit line.

Joe Thomas To Entertain Supper Club Director
The Supper Club, affiliated with the Student Christian Foundation, disclosed that Joe Thomas, special student in the department of music and communications, from Carbondale, will entertain at their annual dinner, Sunday at 5:30 p. m.

VTI Honors Apprentices Morris, Tenney Speak At Banquet

Twenty six apprentice plumbers and fitters, beginning the fifth year of a 10,000-hour program eventually embrace seven different trades. Fourteen locals of the Carpenter's Union are expected to join forces with SIU to inaugurate the next apprentice training series.

At the end of this year's training, the members of the original class will receive certificates qualifying them as journeymen in an area including heating, air conditioning, refrigeration, plumbing and fitting.

The program is being administered by SIU's Technical and Adult Education Division in cooperation with the Plumbers and Fitters Union.

Delvey W. Morris, president and Vice-President Charles Tenney gave congratulatory addresses, along with Ernest J. Simon, president of the Plumbers Association and local unions also were on hand, as well as area contractors and business leaders.

The banquet, at the Southern Lakes cafeteria, officially kicked off the apprentice training program for the school year at VTI—a program of apprenticeship in which participants embrace seven different trades. Fourteen locals of the Carpenter's Union are expected to join forces with SIU to inaugurate the next apprentice training series.

At the end of this year's training, the members of the original class will receive certificates qualifying them as journeymen in an area including heating, air conditioning, refrigeration, plumbing and fitting.

Concert pianist Steven Barwick, a new addition to the SIU music department staff, will be introduced to area music lovers in a recital in Shroyck Auditorium Thursday.

Strongly influenced by Claudio Arzau, a former teacher and now close adviser, Barwick has been acclaimed by eastern critics who cited his "defiant virtuosity and singular polish," and "great musical integrity."

His program includes "Variations on 'Salvo To Domine'" by Mozart; "Sonata Op. No. 2," by Beethoven; "Sonata Op. 22," by Schumann; "Three Fantasies," by William Bergsma; "Choro Torturado," by Gnarneri; "Oiseaux Listes," by Ives; "Toccata," by Chopin (Liszt); and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 11."

Barwick has been granted a campus leave of absence for a European concert tour next spring.

Obelisk Pix Deadline For Sops October 1
Sophomores have until 5 p. m. tomorrow to have pictures made for the 1956 Obelisk. Junior pictures will be made next week; graduate students, Oct. 10-15.

All Obelisk pictures are being made at Nauman Studio this year, with the charge remaining the same as last year.

Men are being required to wear coats and ties; girls will not be photographed in dresses.

Although all freshman pictures have not yet been processed, Don Bill Burger and Kay Campbell, ISA will meet every Monday at 2 p. m. in Aegle 202, according to Flors.

Hunsinger's Pep Talk Feature Of Bonfire Tonight

Dr. Paul Hunsinger, associate professor of speech, will give a "pep talk" at the all-school bonfire tonight. The bonfire, second in the series of events sponsored by the Student Union Council, will be at the Carbon Dale reservoir. Buses will leave from in front of the Student Union at 7:30 p. m. and will start back at 10 p. m.

Also on the program will be group singing led by Bob Dun led. Hot dogs, cheese, potato chips, soft drinks, and marshmallows will be served. Tickets for the bonfire are 35¢ and may be purchased at the Student Union Desk. "All students are welcome and we want as many as possible to attend," said Miss Martha Grisson of the Student Union.

Terry Cubison, program chairman, Ruth Reedy, recreation chairman, Emil Spees, house chairman, and their committees planned the bonfire. Also helping were John Teschner, president; Pat Camp, acting secretary; Ross Hollowick, treasurer; Elizabeth Wilson, refreshment chairman and we want as many as possible to attend," said Miss Martha Grisson of the Student Union.

His program includes "Variations on 'Salvo To Domine'" by Mozart; "Sonata Op. No. 2," by Beethoven; "Sonata Op. 22," by Schumann; "Three Fantasies," by William Bergsma; "Choro Torturado," by Gnarneri; "Oiseaux Listes," by Ives; "Toccata," by Chopin (Liszt); and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 11."

Barwick has been granted a campus leave of absence for a European concert tour next spring.

Although he has a routine of magic, he prefers to be termed a comic. Jim Berkshire, freshman theater major, uses his tricks only to support his comedy routines.

When he was nine, Berkshire was a performance of "The Blackboard Magicians." At age 10, he was a member of the "Magicians' Club" and was performing for small groups, such as Boy Scout troops.

When he was 14, Berkshire joined the International Brotherhood of Magicians union. He is supposed to have been the youngest slight-of-hand artist in the U. S. at that time.

While still young he contacted an agent in Cincinnati and got bookings at high schools and theaters in Indiana, Illinois, and Ohio. He did some TV work and played at club meetings. As his "gilt of gab" picked up and drew more laughs, he placed more emphasis on his comic appeal and less on his magic.

Much of Berkshire's experience occurred after he was drafted in 1949. While making basic training at Camp Polk, La., he was named emcee for two service clubs there.

Berkshire then went overseas for 18 months and was assigned to the first division. Late he was assigned to the Seventh Army Special Services and was in several shows which toured U. S. Army installations in Western Germany.

Once he went AWOL to perform for a German audience. An interpreter was used to relate his jokes to the crowd. He waited "in agony" after each punch line while it was repeated in German. It was felt he'd get a laugh. His pictures were taken and appeared the next day in the local German newspaper, with a story by him unable to read. When his CO saw the picture, Berkshire was called on the carpet for going AWOL. But let off easy.

While overseas, Berkshire met the girl who became his wife and has a three-month old daughter.

Berkshire performed for the Southern Illinois high school journalists' meeting at SIU last Saturday. He hopes to get bookings to perform for various organizations were on campus and at area high schools to help pay his way through college.

'Club 21' Meets In Student Union

"Club 21," an organization formed last year by 10 men over 21, met for the first time to day in the conference room of the Student Union.

An invitation to join is extended to all male students 21 or over, according to Dick Reynolds, president.

Printmakers' Work In Allyn Display

An exhibition of the works of "Young American Printmakers" is the first of a series of art exhibits to be held in the Allyn Galleries through the courtesy of the SIU Art Department.

This selection of prints now on display, was prepared and circulated by the Museum of Modern Art, New York City. The prints represent all the different graphic techniques now in use by young printmakers in the country.

The Junior Council of the Museum of Art, under the direction of William S. Lieberman, Curator, invited work from all American graphic artists 35 years of age or under. From the 1500 prints submitted those 70 prints on display here at Southern were selected as the best examples of contemporary printmaking.

This exhibition shows the three dominant characteristics found in modern printmaking. They are the continual emphasis of scale in the prints; the frequent use of color; and the continual research and experimentation taking place in the art.

"This exhibition is one of the finest ever shown in our galleries," said Prof. B. W. McMinn, member of the University Art Department staff. "It is quite unusual and should be of interest to every student at the university. We extend an invitation to all students to stop by the galleries in the Allyn Building and view these prints."

The prints will be on exhibit until the end of the month.

The techniques and traditions of the printmaking field are perhaps the most interesting forms of modern art. The art of printmaking is an old one, and a field that incorporates many printing and reproduction techniques. These include woodcuts, a form of printing invented by the Chinese and dating from the year 868. In this process a wooden block is carved out to form the design and impressed against paper to print the image, with the colors which are applied to the colored block.

In etching, acid replaces the hand carving and the wood is replaced by a metal plate.

Engraving's similar to etching but the "cutting out" of the design done with tools and manual skill. The plates are much the same. Other similar techniques are used to produce the different

6 Stations To Carry Seluki Games

A six station regional network will carry play-by-play accounts of live home football games it was announced last week.

The games will be "fed" by SIU's Broadcasting Service, with students Bob Howe and Jim McKinstry handling the description.

Carrying the night games will be WHCO Sports, 1230 kc., WKRO Cairo, 1490, and WPIF Herington, 1340. Their schedule includes the opener, beginning at 8:10 p. m., and two home games: Saturday at Miami Central, and Oct. 15, Eastern Illinois. Air time for both will be 7:55 p. m.

Set to carry the three home der games are WHCO Sports, 1230 kc., WINI Murphysboro, 1420, and WMOK, Metropolis, 920. The games are Nov. 5, Washington University; Nov. 19, Northern Illinois; and the season winding Nov. 24 against Bradley. Air time for all three will be 1:25 p. m.

Ralph Becker, production manager of the Broadcasting Service, said the department is exploring the possibilities of also feeding live accounts of some SIU basketball games.

Miller is on the steering committee for High School Guest Day. Minnie Heirn is on the Homecoming Steering committee.

Salukis Face Chips In Home Opener Tomorrow

"I may get beat but I don't know by whom," was the pre-season boast of Bill Kelly, head coach of the Central Michigan College Chippewas—Southern's opponent in the home grid opener Saturday night.

A veteran team, including 27 lettermen from last year's conference co-champions, have made Kelly's boast look good as the Chips rolled over Kansas Teachers and Western Michigan in their first two games.

Meanwhile Coach Al Kavala, Salukis have dropped two close decisions, losing to Southeast Missouri at Cape Girardeau 7-0 and to Illinois Wesleyan 14-13 at Normal Saturday night.

Kavala has announced only one change in his starting lineup for the Central Michigan game naming Bob Hodge into the left guard slot in place of Bill Miller.

Despite the large number of returnees and a good crop of transfer students and freshmen, Coach Kelly was shaken early this season by Jim Podoley's decision to forego football to prepare for the deatlon competition in Olympian trials.

A unanimous choice on the IAC all-conference team last year, Podoley led the Chips in rushing, picking up 1079 yards in 110 carries.

Expected to take up some of the slack is Bob McNamara, a transfer from Indiana, who will start at fullback. The rest of the Michigan lineup will see Keith Emeryson, 215, left end; Chuck Scott, 224, left tackle; Ray Fieze, 200, left tackle; Dick Kackmeister, 205 center; Ron Rolph, 190, right guard; Oliver Porter, 200, right tackle; and Tom Mason, 180, right end.

Joining McNamara in the back field will be Jim King, 180, quarterback; Bernie Rutenik, 180, left end; and Jerry Thomas, 190, right half. Also expected to see a lot of action is Jan Walz, 6'2" 225-pound end.

Game time in McAndrew Stadium is 8 p. m.

Quarter back Jerry Hartz has been one of the main offensive cogs in the SIU grid machine.

Tennis Hopes Up At SIU

SIU's tennis hopes received a boost with the entry of four promising freshmen, Jim Jarrett, Decker Jim Shonkin, Collinsville Jerry Gruen, Granite City, and Morris Rosenthal, Edwadesville.

Two servicemen, Oscar Winars, Carini, and Jack Norman, Varsity School, SIU tennis veterans, also are expected to be ready when tennis-season opens.

Southern's new tennis coach John R. (Dick) Lefevre, said that not only are tennis prospects up at SIU, but that several areas are now more interested in tennis than ever before.

Lefevre said that he would be glad to help area leaders either in developing new tennis courts or conducting tournaments or clinics.

21-Game Hoop Card Includes Michigan State

A tentative 21-game basketball schedule, including a Dec. 15 tilt against Michigan State at East Lansing, is the SIU athletic department.

The schedule, opening Dec. 11 with an inter-section game against Washish College at Three-Riversville, Ind., also includes a credit-by-visitational tournament Dec. 28-29, at Portales, N. M. A "one home game slate begins against Illinois Wesleyan on Dec. 6.

Dr. Carl Erickson, SIU athletic director, said a contract was sent to Michigan State after the date had been approved and details agreed to by Clarence "Biggie" Mann, athletic director of the Big Ten school.

The Salukis open Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference play against Central Michigan at Carbondale, Jan. 6.

Huskies Open IAC Card Vs. Illinois Normal

Bob Kahler's youthful Northern Illinois State football team will open its IAC schedule against Illinois State Normal in DeKalb tomorrow afternoon.

Both the Huskies and the Bad-lands will be after their first win of the current season. Whelan topped Northern, 12-0, last week end, while Bradley was beating Normal, 18-7.

Five Huskie freshmen played most of the game against Whelan last Saturday and should see considerable action against the Huskie Kahler commented, "It was played with the play of the freshmen against Whelan."

Four of the veterans were in the starting lineup. Don Ebenzer of Rock Falls opened at center. Bob Caffery of Rockford and Dick Vance of Palos Park at tackles and Dan Balcer of North Chicago at right halfback. Chuck Boudreau, freshman from Kankakee, replaced injured starter Don Graham of Crete at quarterback early in the first quarter and played the remainder of the game.

Kahler was impressed with the defensive work of Ed Bauer of Round Lake at fullback. Bauer had been released from the Army on Sept. 14 and had only a week of practice prior to the Wheat on encounter.

Although Kahler was pleased with Bauer and the freshmen, he pointed to poor downfield blocking as one of the chief causes for Northern's defeat against Wheaton. "Our downfield blocking wasn't what it should have been," said Kahler.

In preparing for Illinois Normal this week end, the Huskies must gear their defense for one of the best pairs of running backs in the IAC, Bob Riegenback of Tremont and Darrell Spang of Normal stood out in defeat against Bradley last week end. Coach Ed Struck has a veteran forward fullback in the line to springle the two procedures.

Kahler hopes to bolster his line by working guard Don Davis of East Moline at center to split Ebenezer, Ed Schulz, 285-lb., center from Elgin, will get more work at tackle to help out Vance and Coffey.

Ebenezer, Vance, Cealmer and regular fullback Larry Leuland of Wooming suffered minor injuries against Wheaton and may be slowed up somewhat this Saturday.

30 Candidates Report For Cross Country

Veteran track coach Leland P. DeC) Klinge has opened cross country practice at Southern Illinois University with more than 30 candidates.

Lingle plans to build this year's team around three returning lettermen: Captain Howard Branch junior from Mounds; Bobby Otto, sophomore from Galesburg; and Sammie DeNeal, junior from Hartsburg.

Several promising freshmen are among those who are beginning workouts. One of Lingle's biggest worries is where to hold meets and practice sessions. Part of last year's cross country course has been taken over by temporary buildings erected this summer to help take care of Southern's record-breaking enrollment.

Last season Southern won three and lost three and finished fifth in the IAC conference meet. A six-meet schedule has been planned with a possibility of two or three more meets being added next month.

Tentative schedule: Oct. 8—Southeast Missouri or Memphis State, here. Oct. 15—Western Illinois, there. Oct. 22—Eastern Illinois, there. Oct. 29—Illinois Normal, here. Nov. 5—University of Chicago, here, or Illinois State Meet at Normal. Nov. 12—L. E. A. C. Meet at Michigan Normal (Apsilanti, Mich.)

Co-Roc Dates

Arrangements have been made for students and faculty to use the tennis courts, gymnasium, and playing fields on Friday afternoons from 3 to 6 p. m., Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., and Sundays from 1:30 to 5 p. m.

Equipment may be checked out by students or faculty members at their own risk in the Intramural office in the Men's gymnasium. Members are invited to participate in the recreation program.

Northern Illinois State's cross country team will open its 1955 schedule at Beloit College on Saturday.

Coach Carl Appell's Huskies will be led by sophomore John Kilkullen of Des Plaines, a letterman. Kilkullen placed second in the two-mile run at the IAC meet last year.

The Campus Crier

The inexperienced (mostly) Saluki gridders have shown a lot of promise of developing into a first rate grid squad with a little seasoning. But, I'm afraid their opponents tomorrow will give them quite a bit of trouble in the intramural office in the Men's gymnasium. Members are invited to participate in the recreation program.

I have to sound pessimistic, but I can foresee nothing but tilt tidings for the Salukis tomorrow. This dismal attitude is not intended as a reflection on Coach Kavala or his charges because they have shown tremendous potential in the two previous games. I just think the Chips are a two tough (I wouldn't mind being made a list in this instance.)

I noticed a sign, BLYAT (MICHIGAN, spelled out in letters three feet high on the steps of Shreck). This sign is typical of the spirit which seems to be infectious on the SIU campus this fall. I don't know if the upper classmen here caught it from the freshmen or vice versa.

I have only one question: Is it permanent or just a brief outbreak?

The athletic teams need support from the student body or they can't perform up to their capabilities without a little support from the fans. To know someone should them gives that little added incentive.

At the risk of sounding like a drum, I'd like to say on record so saying that the student body should support the athletes of this school to the utmost win or lose.
