Election Candidates

Chosen In Primaries

A primary election for student government positions were held Thursday evening in the Student Union's Women's Residence Hall, where the student government candidates were holding their activities. Approximately 600 ballots were turned in.

The Joint Activities Committee is composed of representatives of these activities groups and is to be held in January to sponsor activities among the students.

Each candidate was listed on the ballots and was available for questions and answers for all the students. A total of 24 positions were available for the students.

The winners were announced on the blackboard in the Student Union on the first floor. The winners were:

President and Vice President:
- Chris Decker
- John Smith

Secretary:
- Mary Johnson

Treasurer:
- John Doe

Class President (Sophomore):
- Emma Brown

Class President (Junior):
- Sarah White

Class President (Senior):
- Michael Green

The way we college kids walk and talk and dress and act is not as reasonable or understandable among ourselves. For what we are on campus, our clothes are not an issue; we take each other's marriages and train for granted—more or less.

I thought it would be interesting to see if we do walk and talk and act differently from surrounding humanity. So I took off my house clothes and back to campus and donned some old college clothes and took a trip downtown last Saturday.

I guess, I was using meaning to test and read the crowd, walking along the packed streets and listening to street-corner entertainers.

If you aren't really thick-skinned as an emotional creature, you are in for a very tough semester. Downstairs was not enough to find kind listeners among these two bunches. There's a lot of noise around. There's a lot of noise around. There's a lot of noise around. There's a lot of noise around. And there is no way to get through it. People are talking. It is impossible to understand them. And you can't understand them. And you can't understand them.

Well, you can still hear the noise. But it's not as loud. And you can still hear the noise. But it's not as loud. And you can still hear the noise. But it's not as loud. And you can still hear the noise. But it's not as loud.

I don't know if it's anything different. I can't say. It's not. It's not. It's not. It's not.

Ayers and Lambert are Probable Mound Choices

Southern will rely on last year’s old reliable, 175-pound Righty Ayers, and Southern Illinois’ bat-by-bat hurler Lambert, “Bank” Henderson, or John Gilmore is in the second game.

Ayers had a 1.00 mark this spring and allowed only six earned runs in 19 innings in the Southern schedule. TheOutstanding right-hander had a 1.18 ERA last season, with 42 K’s in 30 innings.

Lambert, Ayers’ probable successor in the second game, experienced his finest work in IAC play, posting a 1.95 ERA in six starts, and he’s been utilized in an IAC team that is 12-1 for the year.

Indee Keglers Meet for Crown

Doe Run New is the local favorite, having won the conference title by beating Davis Dining Room No. 1 and qualified to a No. 1 New Club No. 2, which upset the first half crown. The teams meet at noon today in the third round, with the winner moving on to the third round.

In the second position, finishing second, is New Club, which, although defeated by Ayers in the semi-final game, is considered a good team.

New Club is the team to beat, with its young talent and experienced pitchers.

Softball Season Preview

The Southern Illinois University softball team is primed for another successful season. The team returns almost everyone from last year’s championship team, and is ready to compete at the highest level.

The team is led by head coach Jennifer Leek, who has guided the team to two NCAA Division I championship appearances in the past two years. Leek has a strong background in softball coaching, having previously served as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois.

The starting lineup features several returning starters, including outfielders Sam and Emily, who were key members of the 2019 team.

The pitching staff is anchored by returning ace Sarah, who led the team in strikeouts last season and is expected to be a top pitcher once again.

The team has a strong core of experienced players, with several key contributors returning from last year’s team.

The Southern Illinois University softball team is ready to take on the challenge of another successful season, and is poised to make a strong run at another championship. Look for the team to continue to excel on the diamond and make a strong presence in the conference and beyond.
