WORK ON NEW GYM BEGINS

Structure To Be Completed October First

Everyone interested in the S. I. N. U. will welcome the tidings that the hopes for a new gymnasium are soon to be realized. Mr. F. A. Moore, superintendent of construction for the Hutzinger Construction company of Davenport, Iowa, arrived in Carbondale last week and stated that he expects to begin work on the building immediately. Mr. Moore with his family drove from Peoria, Ill., where he had charge of the construction of an armory for the state. He said that he intends to have the gymnasium completed by October 1, 1925, which means that the athletic events will be held in their new home next winter.

The beginning of this building means much to the school. As the school grows, adequate conditions must be provided to take care of all the phases of school work. A new building for athletics is certainly a big step in that direction. The gymnasium will be the largest in the southern part of the state and one of the largest in the state. As athletics are growing and making considerable progress in the school, the old gymnasium is no longer sufficient to meet the needs in that line of work. The new building will not only provide that which is needed but will also aid greatly the future success of athletics in our school, it has become a set fact in the educational world that the school must not only develop the students intellectually, but physically as well. In order to do this athletics must be encouraged which the S. I. N. U. is doing.

The building will also add greatly to the beauty of the campus. We are proud of buildings which we have, especially the auditorium. The looks of the buildings and grounds have a deep effect on the impressions that visitors get of the school and we are sure that the new addition to the campus will aid its appearance remarkably in the future.

A TYPICAL OCCURRENCE

Alumni at Meeting Thursday Night Definitely Decide on Plan--Professor Bradbury, of Illinois U., Artist

At a regular meeting of the Alumni Association held Thursday evening, January 22, it was unanimously and enthusiastically decided to take immediate steps toward the painting of President Shryock's portrait, if the consent of our very unostentatious president can be obtained.

The Alumni feel that the time for this enterprise is opportune while President Shryock is in the full-tide of his professional career and that the honor which is attempted in this manner has never been more richly earned. President Shryock is serving his thirty-first year as a member of the faculty and his twelfth year as president of our Alma Mater. The twelve years of his presidency have seen a 300 percent increase in the attendance of the school and 600 percent increase in the size of its graduating classes, together with a transformation of the school into a Teachers' College of the first rank, all of which progress we recognize as due to President Shryock's rare charm as a teacher and lecturer, to his equally rare power as an executive, and to his untiring and painstaking devotion to every interest of our cherished institution.

The portrait will be painted by Professor Bradbury, head of the Art Department of the University of Illinois, and an accomplished artist of wide experience. The cost of the painting will be $750 with an additional outlay of perhaps $250 for appropriate framing. It will be unveiled, it is hoped, at our coming June commencement, at which time the 50th class of our school will be graduated.

The custodian of the fund will be Miss Grace Burkett, Carbondale, Ill., who is the secretary and treasurer of the Alumni Association. Contributions varying from one to five dollars may be sent to her and will be promptly receipted and placed to the credit of the donor. A prompt and an enthusiastic response of Alumni and other friends is of course assured. A special portrait committee will have full charge of all business details and will try to reach by letter every member of the Alumni Association.

At the same meeting it was also decided to enter into a general Alumni Association, comprising all of the Alumni of the Teachers' College of Illinois. It is believed that the unification of effort through this general organization will be the means of helping to promote the interests of the Teachers' Colleges of the state.

The officers of our own Alumni Association for the year are as follows: President, Miss Lillie Teeter, East St. Louis; vice president, Professor W. T. Pelts, S. I. N. U.; secretary and treasurer, Miss Grace Burkett, S. I. N. U.

MAROONS SWAMP ZEIGLER IN FASTEST GAME OF SEASON

In the fastest game of the season the Southerners took the speedy Zeigler team off their feet. The entire game was filled with numerous attempts to score by both teams and many of the attempts were not failures. Although the opponents seemed to be continually riding Ritchey, he secured seven points and our running guard, Sattgast, swung into line for three field goals. Munger was high point man with four field goals and two free throws. He started the game with a nice one and ended it with two. Sickler seemed to be the chief man of the opponents, yet he had good help.

The first half was the best basketball that has been played here yet. Both sides did some fine passing and pivoting. The last half was mingled with lots of wild shooting without any results.

In the latter part of the last half Hartley and Ritchey were replaced by Hickey and Johnson.

Our team seems to be improving with each time out and with more practice together we expect a real team.

SOUTHERNERS WIN ANOTHER VICTORY

Aggies Show Signs of Long Trip. Maroons Move Slowly

In an interesting game Saturday night the Normal boys added another victory to their list.

Captain McAndrew started the same five that played most of the Charleston game, Ritchie, Munger, Hartley, Sattgast and Pyatt. The game showed no special qualities of basketball except some occasional clever head work passing by our boys and a fast criss cross attack on our five man defense by the opposing team.

Richey was our chief scorer, cooping fourteen of the twenty-seven points. The forwards followed well at his heels taking three baskets each and Bob a free throw.

The Aggies started the scoring and after two baskets from us repeated our act. Near the middle of the half, the Maroons oozed ahead to stay, leaving the score at the half's end 3 to 15.

The Farmers made the long end of the score by one, though last half, it

Mr. Sanders Visits Journalism Class

Mr. Leslie Sanders, editor of the Greenwood (Indiana) News, who was visiting here, talked to the Journalism class last Monday, on the "Requisites of a Small Town Editor." Mr. Sanders brought out very forcefully and clearly that the small town editor needs to have more of versatility and ingenuity than is usually required of the editor of a large city paper.

Following are extracts from Mr. Sanders' speech:

"There is a difference between the work of the editor of a small town newspaper and that of the city newspaper. In the city, or even the larger town, the editor is not quite so well known and consequently not so many things are expected of him. The small-town newspaper editor is expected to enter the spirit of the town. He must hold himself in readiness to

She and Miss Jones spent the following day on a field trip.

BOARD VISITS S. I. N. U.

On Monday, Jan. 19, the State Normal school board held a meeting at Carbondale. The meeting was in session practically all day. At noon, the members were entertained at Anthony hall. With the exception of two, the entire board was here. Those attending were:

Mr. Roland Bridges, Carbondale.
Mr. Charles L. Capen, Bloomington.
Mr. Edgar B. Stell, DeKalb.
Mrs. Martin K. Northam, DeKalb.

Mr. Elmer T. Walker, Macomb.
Mr. Ernest E. Cole, Chicago.
Mrs. Grace Wykes, Benton.
Mr. A. N. Shelton, director of the board.
Mr. F. G. Blair, superintendent of public instruction.

S. I. N. U. "N" CLUB

The "N" club met last Tuesday at 12:45 p. m. and elected the following officers for the year:

William McLaughlin, president.
Ned Foley, vice president.
Claude Ross, secretary and treasurer.

The charter members are to consist of this year's football men and the letter men that were in school at the time when this club was organized. Other letter men wishing to join can do so by paying a small fee. This club will be among the leading clubs in school activities. For one of the chief purposes of this club is to motivate athletics as well as to retain friendship of old letter men.

Those wishing to join write the secretary, Claude Ross.

EPSILON BETA NEWS

Last week will be long remembered by the pledges who were initiated into Epsilon Beta. Who were the pledges? Surely one doesn't have to ask that. They were girls with the "School Girl Complexions." and those dresses—weren't they just grand?

We hope no one thought we should join the crew at Anna by our actions. We are sure some thought we were becoming very snobbish when we wouldn't even speak to them. But now it is all over and we are loyal members of Epsilon Beta.

The pledges initiated were: Edna Johnson, Phoebe Baker, Alberta Truebger, Ruth Hensley, Elizabeth Weinberg, Virginia Telford, Abbie Wood, Lucille Taylor, Mary Dollins, Elpha Doty, Genevieve Hartwell.

At the regular meeting Monday evening some new officers were elected:

House Manager—Abbie Wood.
News Editor—Ruth Hensley.
Librarian—Virginia Telford.

AGORA JAN, 19

One of the most important questions facing the American people today was settled Monday evening in one of the greatest contested debates given this year in the Agora. The question before these debaters was, whether Capital and Labor should be compelled to settle their disputes in legally established courts of arbitration. It was definitely decided that they should not. The members of the Agora have been looking forward to the settlement of this question. It had been discussed and debated informally in several meetings.

The Illinae and Forum were invited in to hear this question settled. Judges for the debate were chosen

SIGMA ALPHA PI TO BUILD

The Alumni Association of the First Fraternity Here Are Making Plans

In connection with the initiation ceremonies at the Sigma Alpha Pi during the week of January 12-18, the Alumni Association met and transacted several matters of important business to the fraternity. But one matter that is of great interest to the whole school is their release of an announcement of certain plans towards the erection of a new fraternity house. This will give the Southern Illinois Teachers' College their first really modern and up to date building along this line.

After the visit to the house and watching the work of initiation given to nine new members the members of the Alumni expressed their approval of the work being done and praised the type of men that are now living in the house. The announcement of the rushing of definite plans towards the erection of the new house came as a pleasant surprise to those here.

While the members are unable as yet to make the announcements concerning the date of erection and the type of building that it will be, they promise that it will be one of the finest fraternity houses south of the state university campus and that plans will be rushed so that more definite announcements can be made at their next regular meeting, which will be held at the time of the Southern Illinois Teachers' Association.

Officers elected at the meeting were: President, D. Ransom Sherretz, Collinsville, Illinois; vice-president, J. Lester Buford, West Frankfort, Illinois; and secretary-treasurer Chas. Millsbaugh, Ina, Illinois.

Margaret Kilmer—"What's that bump on your head?"

Louis Sexton—"That's where an idea struck me."

THE OUTLOOK

To The Decaturian: We always look forward to your paper which always brings us interesting information. Your editorials are always good.

The Vidette, Normal, Ill.: Your Jolly-ology is very interesting. A very interesting paper, but why not an exchange section?

The The Capalia Arrow, Cape Girardeau, Mo.: Look out for us Jan. 24th.

The Commercial News, New Haven, Conn.: We hope you win the Yale trophy for it is something a school should be proud of. Your Scenes at the Annual Library Fair were very interesting.

The Monmouth College Oracle, Monmouth, Ill.: Your last edition was very interesting, especially "The Line." You must have a very efficient joke editor.

The Purple Parrot, Rockford, Ill.: Your Christmas edition of the Purple Parrot was a very unique one.

To the Blackburnian, Carlinville,

The Obelisk, Murphysboro, Ill.: "Your "Things That Never Happen" was very clever. Your paper always contains something good. You surely have a very efficient staff backing it.

EDITORIAL

Smiles are like sunbeams; frowns are like foul weather.

Persistence, patience, and patriotism are the predecessors of prosperity.

Honesty is an art in which it is possible for everyone to be talented.

Your attitude in school activities is an indication of the kind of citizen which you will be in the future.

A true gentleman is a man who gives as much to humanity as he takes from it. Likewise the good student is the one who puts forth an effort to give as much to his school as he takes from it.

Golden Moments

THE LAND GOD FORGOT

The lonely sunsets flare forlorn
Down valleys dreadly desolate;
The lordy mountains soar in scorn
As still as death, as stern as fate.

The lonely sunsets flame and die;
The giant valleys gulp the night;
The monster mountains scrape the sky
Where eager stars are diamond-bright.

So gaunt against the gibbous moon,
Piercing the silence velvet-piled,
A lone wolf howls his ancient rune—
The fell arch-spirit of the Wild.

O outcast land! O leper land!
Let the lone wolf cry all express
The hate insensate of thy hand,
Thy heart's abysmal loneliness.

FRIENDS

Just how many friends have you? Not mere acquaintances you speak to or students who sit next to you in classes, but real, honest-to-goodness friends. If you can truthfully say you have a hundred here in college you are above the average. It is natural to want friends and if you have but few because of bashfulness or some other reason you are missing what is due you as a college student. A car, money and snappy clothes are by no means necessary to make friends. They may attract attention for you, but they can do nothing more. Have you ever read David Gravson's "Friendly Road?" He made friends when he was a tramp.

So forget your snobbishness and yourself, and pay attention to your neighbor; he is interesting.

Hi, diddle, diddle,

The little dog did laugh

BIG ROBBERY

On the night of Monday, Jan. 19, the home of Tom Whittenberg, 907 South Normal avenue was entered by parties unknown at present. The robbery was discovered the next morning. Jewels and other valuables were taken. Mr. Whittenberg placed the value of the things taken at about $250.99. State's Attorney Mildred Watson is working on the case. She has called in a detective who promises to name the thief within a week.

The Alumni Bulletin

The following letter from C. R. Fegley, '24, who is manual training teacher in Marion city schools, will be of interest to many:

"I received my Egyptian and enjoyed this edition very much. I found that the Alumni Bulletin was empty of alumni news and I happened to think that everyone must be doing what I am depending on the other person to do. Mr. Dewey Brush, '22, has accepted a position as writing and drawing teacher in the Marion schools. I am sending a copy of our paper, "The Torch." This is the third number of the paper. It is a bi-weekly published by the pupils and teachers of the Marion city schools."

James E. Bennett, '22, now in the University of Chicago, writes reminding us that he has not been getting his Egyptian. He says that he and the S. I. N. U. colony at the U. O. C., which includes R. R. Pyatt '17, James Bennett '22, Lyndon Hancock '22 and John Wright '22, wants the news.

Harry E. Puntney, principal of schools of Herald, Ill., will return in the spring to graduate with the Senior College class of '25.

Paul Barker, '24, is teaching manual training in the Santa Rosa High school, Santa Rosa, N. M. His uncle, Mose Hall, '17, is superintendent at Santa Rosa.

Willard Mohan orders the Egyptian sent to him at Cambria, Ill.

A letter from Evelyn Williams asks that we send the Egyptian to her address at Alton, Ill.

ANTHONY HALL INITIATION

Friday morning the "new girls" discovered a notice on the bulletin board stating that initiation was to begin that evening at 5 o'clock. There was much curiosity when the sentence was pronounced upon them. In the dining room they displayed their best table etiquette. How skillfully some ate the peas with their knives and drank water with their spoons!

At 9:30 p. m. the girls gathered in the living room to enjoy an hour's program which had been arranged by the new girls. The first number was radio music broadcasted from S. I. N. U. AH reading room, Carbondale, Illinois, Ruby Ice announcing. Other interesting features of the program were: A pantomime, "The Shop Girl at the Movie", by Viola Gaskins, piano solo by Louise Durham and impersonation of Rudolph Valentino and wife by Mattie Hall and Mildred Bone.

At the unexpected hour, 2 a. m., the girls, whose duty it was to clean mirrors and polish door knobs, began their task feeling that they had too much work to do to wait longer. Upon investigation it was discovered that only the rooms occupied by "old girls" had been cleaned at the early morning hour.

The "new girls" came to breakfast dressed as "Kids" and were taken care of for the day by their older sisters.

We were especially anxious to have the drive clean so a number of girls were ushered to the Main Gate and began the task which to them seemed endless. The paddle which was wielded by a Senior hastened the speed of the laggard.

The girls showed interest in preparing for the visit of the Board. The silver was polished, mirrors and door knobs shined, porch and bathtubs scrubbed, corridors cleaned and in fact not a thing was overlooked.

All telephone calls were answered by the "old girls" Saturday, much to the disappointment of the "Kids."

At the last dip Saturday night all gathered in second floor corridor for a "spread" given in honor of the old girls (at their request). Hot "stuff" animal cookies and all day suckers were served. The "new girls" had prepared a program and stunts which were highly entertaining. All scattered to our rooms at midnight feeling a closed spirit of friendship, and the "new girls" looked forward to the time when they will be the "old girls."

being 12 to 13. They seemed to be efficient on their free throwing as seven of their counters were pilled up that way.

We were glad to note that many of our goals were results of good sensible passing thus showing the desired lack of individualism.

"Rusty" Meffort played about ten minutes for Munger in the middle of the game.

Sattgast is covering more floor each time out and Pyatt is swinging into his old form of last year. His weight stands him in good stead. The Charleston rooters nicknamed him "Firpo." Ritchey showed a good eye, but is still slightly weak on defense. Munger did not play as well as in the two previous games, although he did get three field goals. Hartley is the best man on the team in reversing and pivoting and excelling at that also dropped in three two-point counters.

MR. SANDERS VISITS

P. answer any question that is put before him, and every small-town newspaper editor knows that the questions are numerous and varied. For instance, the editor is supposed to know where there is a house that can be rented cheaply; the meaning of, or the spelling of a particular word that somebody wants to use; how much money the bank controls, etc. He is expected to be able to give talks before various bodies on subjects such as 'Evolution' or 'Child Hygiene.'

"The make-up of the small-town newspaper is different from that of the larger towns. Articles must be printed that are interesting to small town newspaper readers, such as the printing of a letter that has been received from a former resident, but is now in Florida or California. The editor must enter into all civic organizations and into the school life. He must make his paper an institution. He should weigh the thing he prints and never take sides, but instead, print both sides to a particular story—for there are always two sides. He must be specific. Rumors are not wanted. He must make his paper the spirit of news.

"Women are important in the newspaper work as well as men. The average girl in journalism is usually a feature writer. She writes upon various topics of the day that are interesting and plays up stories.

"The important thing to remember is to always use diplomacy. Get the facts of the story. People are not so unwilling to give facts to a reporter as they formerly were."
