Comes the Exodus—

Back to their homes will go more than 1200 students and school teachers from Southern next Friday—carrying the beacon of democratic education to every "hooch and cranny" of Southern Illinois. It is to these scholars who will not return to S. I. N. U. again until next summer that this issue of the Egyptian is dedicated.

In order that the alumnae and students of Southern may keep informed on the activities of this college and general school news of vital importance to this area, the Egyptian is offering to send the Egyptian to any former S. I. N. U. student in any locality of the United States or its possessions for the next academic year (nine months) for $1.20. Although containing only four pages during the summer term (many colleges do not publish a paper during the summer), the Egyptian contains six "newsy" pages during the regular school year.

The Egyptian urges all students and teachers who do not intend to return in September to leave a check for $1.20 at the Egyptian office, or to mail same to the Egyptian.

ENTERTAINERS CHOSEN FOR NEXT YEAR'S PROGRAM

Bonelli, Vienna Boy's Choir, LeMeri, and Kneisel Trio Included

Appearing on the Cooperative Concert Association's concert series for next winter are Richard Bonelli, famed Metropolitan baritone; the Vienna Boy's Choir; LeMeri, active dancer; and the Kneisel-Alten-Turner trio, popular violin, cello, and piano trio.

Richard Bonelli, who is considered by some the second-greatest living baritone, is a member of the San Francisco and Chicago Civic Opera Companies as well as of the Metropolitan. He was a star on the Universal Rhythm radio program last summer, and appears often as soloist with the concert of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

The second number of the series is the Vienna Boy's Choir, a group of 50 American boys who are on their first American tour. They have sung extensively in Europe, and participated in the Salzburg Musik Festival under the direction of the famous Arturo Toscanini, their regular director. Dr. George Oruber, They will present choral numbers and a condensed version of an opera in costume.

LeMeri, native dancer, makes the third number. She dances to authentic native music recorded on the spot and has no other accompaniment. Her concert will consist of a series of about ten different dances in elaborate native costume. She has toured widely in foreign countries, but this is her first American tour.

A return engagement of the Kneisel-Alten-Turner trio completes the program. The trio played the cooperative concert series two years ago and was so popular that a return engagement was necessary to satisfy public demand. They will play two groups of numbers together and each will present a group of solos.

The Carbonate Concert Association and the Southern Illinois State Normal University sponsor the concert jointly, and members of the student body as well as the association members are privileged to attend the programs.

Laves Will Talk Monday Morning On American Neutrality In Next World War

Dr. Walter Laves is Regional Director Of The League of Nations Association

Dr. Walter H. C. Laves, lecturer on world affairs, will address the S. I. N. U. students and faculty at a special chapel exercise, Monday morning, July 25. Since 1936 he has been a member of the political science department at the University of Chicago.

MILLION DOLLARS APPROPRIATED TO NEEDED HIGH SCHOOLS

Approximately 40 Counties Will Be Aided by Funds

By signing House Bill 30 last week Governor Henry Horner set in motion machinery for distributing $1,000,000 to needy high school and non-high school districts throughout Illinois.

About eighty-three districts and two non-high districts in more than forty counties will participate in the state aid, included by Governor Horner in the special session call because of the precarious financial condition of many of the state's high schools.

House Bill 30, introduced by Representative Sidney Parker (Dem., Tazewell) and Joseph H. Davis (Dem., Macoupin) provides that the funds should be distributed through a board consisting of Governor Horner, the superintendent of public instruction, the auditor of public accounts, the attorney general, and the director of finance.

The appointment of registration grants for the 1937-38 school year will be among districts maintaining grades 9 to 12 or any of them, which levied a high school educational tax in 1937 of not less than three-fourths per cent.

LOGAN REPORTS ON COLLEGE'S PROGRESS IN VISUAL EDUCATION

Approximately 152 Hours Spent on Visual Education Last Term

Mr. Clarence C. Logan, film journalist, has reported that, beginning March 31, 1938, and including June 1 next, there were 136 films shown on the S. I. N. U. campus. Total attendance for the spring term was 12,650 with an average of 35 persons at each showing.

Attendance was partially limited because of lack of seating facilities in the room where most of the films were projected. Allowing 300 feet to the reel and each reel run for about two and one-half times, the total amount of film run was 136,000 feet. The machine was in projection use for a period of 70 hours and 21 hours were spent in re-winding. Care of the films during parts of the machine requires proportionally as much time as projecting, thus approximately 152 hours were spent on visual aids the spring term. Mr. Logan expects the college to secure even more notable progress in the field of visual education during the ensuing academic year.

YOUTH LEADERS MAY MEET HERE IN OCTOBER

Lindstrom, Schafer, Rickman, Campbell, Are On Program

Mr. S. R. Byers, of the State Department of Public Welfare announced last week that a conference of the youth leaders of the lower 27 counties of the state will be held on the S. I. N. U. campus at Grand City Park on October 8.

This conference, sponsored by the State Department of Public Welfare in the interest of delinquency prevention, will be open to anyone in this section of the state who is interested in the problems of delinquency and youth.

Dr. D. E. Lindstrom of the University of Illinois will be in charge of the program for the day. Other youth leaders who will lead discussion groups are W. Guido Shafer, regional deputy executive of the Boy Scouts of America, Claude Hakey, representative of the Y. M. C. A., Thomas Rickman, Jr., state director of the W. P. A. recreational program, and William Campbell, state director of the N. Y. A.

At the State Conference on Delinquency Prevention which met earlier in the spring, Governor Horner requested that discussion meetings be held throughout the year in centrally-located places for the study of means of teaching the youth of the country. With the cooperation of the N. Y. A. and the W. P. A. recreational program, and the state educational leaders of the state, such discussion groups as will be held here have been mapped out.

Besides the general public, representatives of the major youth civic, religious, and educational organizations of the state will attend the conference.

Curriculum Committee Meets; Decides That Overlapping of Courses is Not Serious

The curriculum committee held its latest meeting on June 27. Several sub-committees are at work and will report later, but two important decisions were made.

The following ruling was approved after considerable debate and is now in effect: "It shall be the policy of the curriculum committee to approve the offering by any department of survey or methods courses for those who plan to teach in the elementary school, without requiring the department to count such a course on the major or minor in the field. In other words, such courses need not be required of majors and minors in the subject matter fields, but are recommended for those majoring or minoring in elementary or rural education."

The second matter concerns the overlapping of courses among departments. The following is from the minutes of the meeting: "Mr. Mayor, as chairman of a committee appointed for the purpose, presented the result of a study made re-

By CHARLES SOUTH WE SPENT THIS weekend in Champaigna looking up old acquaintances and in general having a pretty good time in spite of the fact that our spirit still does not fit their back arguments, but with the photographs that condition should be limited in the future. James C. Ellis, president of the Dade Park Jockey Club, said:

TUESDAY OF THIS WEEK Capt. MacAndrew's basketball class will attend a two-part picture on basketball played at the University of Illinois. The picture was directed by Coach "Phog" Allen... the boy viewed the picture with a great deal of enthusiasm, and as in all reviews of pictures, about as much praise is there was criticism, was heaped on the quality of Phog's Allen.

ANOTHER CONTRIBUTION came in this week to the effect that "Big Boy" Hoidal, former Southern wrestler and a tremendous mass of human flesh if I ever saw one, has been scheduled to appear at White City Park on a boxing and wrestling card in the near future, but since the "contribution" was not dated, I may not know whether the holiday was successful or not. I will say though, that he is just as big as he is tough and not a pushover in anyone's language.

DIZZY DEAN IS BACK in the lineup and it appears that he will be able to work with the old ones and interferences, if Sunday's performance is any good. The great old add-on about the same thing to baseball that red pepper does to this line name... may be all right, but that extra dash of spice, but it's all the same to you, UB have fun with it please!

THE LUCK OF THE IRISH was not to be expected when they played against the team of the United States... something was said in the papers about the fall of the old and I guess they were all over it. The truth then they knew... there are a lot of sentimental blarney Irish men around who would like to go back to their old home... Faith and good luck to you!

Stabled at Dade Park are many two-year-olds from the Mustangs section of the state. They will be in readiness, their trainers say to go to the post in the coming meeting. Several stables have also arrived from Chicago and Detroit tracks. Lester E. Veisor, associate manager, has a full crew of men at work putting the track and grounds in top condition. "Due to a lowering of the bridge tolls in Western Kentucky," Mr. Year said, "there is every prospect that the Dade Park attendance will be larger this year than ever before in the history of the track. Racing fans everywhere with delight the announcement this week that an "electric eye" would be used at Dade Park for the first time in recording the finish of each race. Close finishes in the past, naturally, caused some

With excellent pitching by Troy Edwards and the help of six errors by the Menard players, Carbondale coasted to an easy victory. Five of their runs were scored in the sixth inning on three hits and two errors. Menard's lone tally came in the fifth, the product of slugging by Andrew and Bolton. Ninety-two Students and Eighteen Instructors Have Participated in S.I.N.U. Summer Recreation Course

As a result of the cooperation of various faculty members from the fifteen academic departments of S. I. N. U. who have served as instructors for the different phases of the college recreation course, this new venture into the intensive teaching of theory and application of recreation is proving to be successful. Ninety-two students are enrolled in the subject which offers four quarter hours credit toward graduation. It is listed under the courses of the department of physical education, and Director William M. Andrew acts as coordinator for the course.

The class in recreation has been set up to include music, folk dancing, nature study, drama, story telling, puppetry, photography, physical activities, social recreation, and craft work in leather, bone, archery, toys, and model building. Those who started puppetry continue their work under the direction of WPA state project technician Don B. Summer League Sidelights

In the game Tuesday, Goforth, first baseman for the Spirits, celebrated his 100th birthday by making an unassisted double play in the first inning... The Spirit-Raiders game was the second one that Flago has pitched this season. In his previous encounter with the Spirits he had allowed only six hits but lost 7-2. In the second's opening Flago struck out four bats and Wright, pitcher for the Spirits, fanned three... Flank, Raider second baseman, established a new record for the season of eight assists... What makes Flago's victory more impressive is the fact that the Spirits have been winning 12 out of 13 games.

SINCERELY
Conventionalists

Dear Old Sphinx,
Four years ago we were Freshmen at S. I. N. U. We wondered as we looked into the future, if that four years would ever pass. Would we receive the graduating Senior for entering a diploma? Soon the Freshman year passed, and we were honored with the name, Sophomore. As Sophomores, we began to appreciate those monstrous teachers that when we were Freshmen we were afraid to speak to. Soon we became Juniors, still what a thrill. We were in Senior College at last. We could take three hundred courses and be on safe land. The Junior year soon passed.

We are honored Seniors at last, but not for long. Now each building, each hall, and each room seems to say, "Freshman, your four years have passed. We are ready to give you that diploma." The campus seems to say, "Good luck and much happiness Senior. Your life is yours. We have done our bit. If you need help we are willing to do when we can."
Now, Freshmen remember four years ago a short time. They passed in a hurry. Commencement day comes. Then, you ask, "Have I made the best of the past?"
Remember, Freshman do your best now. You will have fewer regrets when commencement day comes.

We are still uncertain as to which of these stages our friend, Oxford, can be classified, but we are sure that his ability to play baseball can be classified as in the first stage; his ways with his girlfriends in the second stage; but when he puts (?) his hat to the ladies we are sure he is in the last stage.

Did Joe Turner have some motive for dumping a host of shed cucumbers in his lap at Miller's boarding house, or was it just some emotional reaction to exertion stimuli across the table?

We learn in Psychology that "Play is what we do when we are free to do what we will". When playing of a game was Loy Barber kind when the Riverside Swimming Pool operator had to point out a "No Petting" sign to him?

ODE TO A CERTAIN PSYCHOLOGY PROFESSOR
(The Season- The Reason)
We had one cold December day, I feared no icy storm;
Because I knew, when bedtime came, She'd keep my footies warm.

Now - I'll give praise where praise is due;
So gladly I'll confess:
She filled my winter needs - and
I'm sure, I'm sure,
To be a nice success.

But months have passed; and summer's come;
She's still a nice woman
But now - I'd like to trade her off
For one electric fan.

BOYS! ATTENTION!
A certain little girl by the name of Hodge confesses to her Psy. Professor that she lacks experience. If a man is wrong, knows he's wrong, and admits he's wrong, he's smart.
But if a man is right, knows he's right, and admits he's wrong, he's married.
Just ask it. If Rana. (Sigh) (Sigh)
- Cy the Psy.

Dearest of Sphinxes:
I ask you why this tempest in a teacup? Why this nervous, spare talking emptiness? Why must we week after week be subjected to this week at echo? Why this unending chatter between your so charming self and this "Gentle Reader"?

Why can't you two book worms crawl back into the heavens from which you so lately crept and leave us in quiet? Why this "Midsummer Nightmares"? Why can't you again let us have our column "As we like it", and cease this "Munch ado about nothing"? Why a "bunch you again why? Pie on you!"
- The Gentlest of Readers.

Why a "WHY"? If I answered you shall see me at Phillip!

MUSINGS OF AN ONLOOKER
I wonder
Why Gussie got a new sister - could it be that N. A.'s boy friends wore the old one out?
What made Evelyn and Prenda come back after they had started to the show Sun. hit?
Who H. Cole had a date with Saturday and if it turned out a success

Rockman Discusses Recreation With Sports Staff Reporter
Praises McAndrew For His Work With Recreational Groups On Southern Campus
By HELEN WRIGHT

Slyly nonchalantly in the window of "Mac's" private office in the men's gymnasium as the sun streamed through with a temperature of 90, Mr. Thomas Rockman, state director of recreational projects for Illinois, graciously submitted to an interview with this reporter.

Mr. Rockman has been in the field of recreation for the past fourteen years and has been director of the WPA Recreation Project since 1935. He is a native of Chicago and received his early schooling there. Upon graduating from high school he attended the University of Illinois where he took further work in his particular field of interest and graduated in 1925. He went directly into the field of recreation in Chicago where he was made director of the recreational program for the parks and playgrounds. He held this position until 1930 when he was made State Director of Recreation for the WPA. When asked just what his philosophy of recreation was, Mr. Rockman replied:

"I think that leisure is one of the six basic needs of the American people. The other five, I would classify as economic security, a good home to live in, a good education, and an honest government. The introduction of machinery and the shortened hours of the working day have greatly increased our leisure time and have presented a problem of all in the modern world. In April of 1937 our one source of value still in the near future, be governed by what we do in our leisure hours rather than what we do in our working hours.

"Time is a thing which may be used either constructively or destructively and it is obvious that the latter is undesirable. Leisure time should offer opportunities for the development of skills and talents. We should learn to appreciate music, art, drama, and other cultural things, so that we would not be forced to spend all of our leisure time in baseball, basketball, football, and other athletic recreations."

"We wonder why Grace Hadoway is seen walking home with flay when she has been out riding with Berger - could it be so Loreta wouldn't suspect!"

Did someone say Tom North was slipping? A little bird tells us that the Charlies have it. Struz and Waterman, respectively - Let us in on it Getze

Dear Sphinx:
Why is John Ducker some around with that big smile on his face? Could it be that Maude Miller has finally convinced that young undertaker that he should further his education in Cincinnati?

It's being rumored around the campus that Raymond H. Kann has finally succumbed to a long and arduous romance which terminated last Saturday at the Jackson "bunny court" house. Could this be true?

Delton Rae has been phoning for Loyd Berger at 69 South Illinois. Grace says he performs his duties well.

LIBRARY INEQUAITY
I am about to finish my career on this campus. I grow more and more enthusiastic about old S. I. N. U. I enjoy going to the Library and standing in line some thirty minutes by the side of some beautiful blonde (brunette preferred) waiting to see the book. When my turn comes to tell the loan taker in the library what I prefer to read that will give me a start on my term paper, he proceeds to check the file, (yes the book is in), Pitter, Pitter toward a large stack of books. After a lapse of five minutes, he returns to say the book has been out. By that time another gentleman has surrounded the loan taker and "lo and behold" a more beautiful blonde has appeared by my side. By the way she would look more beautiful inside the cornal walking on in studious students trying to get a term paper in the seventh week. In turn another order is given and I proceed to sign my name, but am interrupted by a voice saying "where's your activity ticket." After a diligent search, I admit I forgot it one time. So help me, no book again and no term paper the seventh week.

Swartz and Bowden Aid In State Work
Dr. W. G. Swartz and Dr. R. D. Bowden, of the political science and sociology departments at S. I. N. U., were members of a group of college teachers in the State Division of Old Age Assistance in conducting competitive examinations for the selection of County Superintendents of Public Welfare recently. Dr. Swartz assisted with the grading of written examination papers, and Dr. Bowden with the giving of oral examinations.

The work was done in an effort of the state department of public welfare to make old age assistance non-political in administration. 373 candidates from eighty-six Illinois counties took the written examination early this spring. In April oral examinations were given to the 150 persons who passed the written examination with a grade of 60 or better. These candidates were from 42 counties.

The oral examinations were given by professors, two newspaper men, lawyers, bankers, and others. They were instructed by John C. Weigel, department executive for old age assistance, and then divided into pairs, and assigned candidates from seven counties. No examinee was permitted to see his own papers, and no names were given to the examiners. Applicants were introduced by number only. Likewise the applicants were not told the names of the examiners.

The work was something of a novelty in state department administration and was planned to make selection of old age assistance administrators non-partisan. Examinations were given at Springfield.
