Woody Hall Parking Bid Killed At Council Meeting

The ancient Greeks had their monster the Sphinx to ask them riddles. Today's campus has their own sphinx in the parking problem: and SIU is no different. The riddles (or headaches) usually presented by the parking problem were dealt with once more by the Student Council in its meeting last Thursday.

The Student Council's proposal to have the small parking lots on Illinois and Grand Avenues set aside for the car-driving girls of Woody Hall to use for overnight parking met with little success. Berry Makes Report

Bill Berry, sophomore representative speaking at the meeting said that in a two-hour conference with Robert F. Eheridge, assistant dean of Student Affairs, several reasons were brought out which indicated that the proposal would be unfeasible.

Berry reported that if the girls would have to move their cars out by 7 a.m. each day in order to allow persons with parking permits to use the space in the premium lots.

Eheridge indicated to him that the girls at the resident hall could drive their cars across the Illinois Central tracks and that they could use the space available along Washington Avenue.

However, the assistant dean also informed Berry that those girls who are eligible can obtain "R" permits for parking at Thompson Point.

Eheridge in a phone conversation stated that any students who are troubled by the City of Carbondale ban on parking along the streets could apply for an "R" permit to use the Thompson Point lot for the overnight parking of their cars.

Berry also reported that the girls at Woody Hall could request permission from Dowdell Hall to use that resident area's parking lot.

Carl Anderson, resident counselor of Dowdell, said that "there were about two vacancies available to the Woody Hall girls".

Whether they parked their cars on Washington Avenue or the Dowdell Hall lot, the girls would have to walk the same distance to return to their dormitory, both Eheridge and Anderson pointed out. Anderson also explained that in order to become eligible to park in the Dowdell Hall lot the Woody girls had to obtain an "R" permit and in addition, they had to pay a $1.25 fee for the maintenance of the lot.

The sophomore read a long list of parking regulations as they were being enforced at some of the Big Ten colleges. In general, these regulations stated "no parking and no driving on campus."

At an earlier meeting Berry had asked for a clarification of the parking rules in and around the SIU campus. His report to the Council attempted to define some of the provisions in the present regulations.

Eheridge will appear before the next meeting of the Student Council, presently set for April 3. No definite plan of meeting was set at this time.

Following a suggestion of Yvonne Anton, the Council will try to obtain a larger meeting room so that interested students could attend their meetings. (The student ruling body had been meeting regularly in the President's Office, however, space there is limited.)

In other business at Thursday's meeting the Council voted down a Berry motion to rescind an earlier decision to purchase desk sets (price $4.50). For Council meetings of the Social Senate, Berry said a committee had been established.

Film Society Shows Albanian Epic Sunday

The Albanian film industry will be represented this Sunday, March 16, when the Southern Film Society presents "Skanderbeg."

The film will be shown in the Library Auditorium at 2 p. m. and 8:30 p. m.

The film is the story of an Albanian national hero, who led the struggle against Turkey in the fifteenth century. Skanderbeg was a great soldier by success in England's Gen. James Wolfe and was described by Longfellow in "Tales of a Wayside Inn."

As a movie, "Skanderbeg" is noted for its pictorial imagery and its highly effective dramatization. The first feature film produced in Albania, the picture was directed by Sergi Youtkevich, famous for his production of "Othello."

Dialogue of the film is in Russian, with English subtitles. Admission will be 40 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

Movie Hour Features 'Rasho-Mon'

Machiko Kyo, Japanese star of "Rasho-Mon," will play the leading role in "Gate of Hell" Friday night. The movie will be shown at 6:30 and 8:30 in the University School Auditorium.

Miss Kyo, who also appeared as the geisha girl with Glenn Ford and Marlon Brando in "Teahouse of the August Moon," will appear as Kesa, the focal point of a classic triangle. The two men involved are Iso Yamagata as the husband, Wataru, and Kazuo Hasegawa as Morihito, the warrior.

The story of "Gate of Hell" revolves around a feud between two clans in ancient Japan. Morihito is the ideal of the old Samurai code—arrogant, brutal, and bloodthirsty. Wataru is the ideal of the opposing Buddhist code—gentle, kind, and self-effacing. Between them is Kesa, and the conflict inevitably leads to tragedy.

Filmed in technicolor, "Gate of Hell" has many beautiful and contrasting effects. The film won the Grand Prize at the Cannes International Film Festival in 1954, as well as the Academy Award as the best foreign film of the year.

Book Service Sets Deadlines

All student textbooks, with the exception of freshman English texts and physical education handbooks, must be returned to the textbook service at the end of this term, according to manager Heinie Stroman of the Textbook Service.

Students will be billed for all other texts kept out after noon, March 20, regardless of whether or not the books are used in progressive courses (courses extending through more than one term). If the books are returned later, the student will be required to pay a late fee of one dollar for each one.

"We have to have the books in on time so we can process them for next term," Stroman explained. "Because of this we have to charge for late books."

Textbooks should be returned to the second floor of the library, through the west entrance, not later than noon on Thursday, March 20. The service will accept books from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and from 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. on March 13 and 14, from 8 a. m. to noon on Saturday, March 15; and from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and 6 to 9 p. m. on March 17.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, March 18 and 19, the service will be open continuously from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Educational Opportunities At Interviews

Job interviews on campus this week involve people interested in teaching, mostly, and business administration.

On Tuesday, March 11, Mr. R. B. Kemble, Northern Trust Company, will interview majors in business administration and Liberal Arts.

Mr. June Price, Supt., Mendota, Illinois, will interview education majors for positions in elementary teaching (music, art, girls' physical education) a n d secondary teaching (English, history, Building Trades a n d speech composition).

Mr. Gordon Debbis, Supt., Edwardsville, Illinois, will interview education majors for positions in kindergarten through sixth grades, Jr. High Language in High School Guidance Counselor.

On Wednesday, March 12, Mr. Aaron Brien, Cahokia Community Schools, East St. Louis, Illinois, will interview education majors for positions on the elementary and secondary level.

Senior Recital Will Be Given Wednesday Eve.

Ruth Adele Bats, senior from West Frankfort, will give a voice recital this Wednesday evening in Shryock Auditorium at 8:15 p. m.

Miss Bats will be accompanied by Patricia Gogepner, pianist, and assisted by Phyllis Foster, flutist.

The young soprano's program will include selections from Bach, Wagner, Mozart, Bizet, and Copland.

The Bach works consist of his "Aus liebe will mein Heiland Sterben" from the "Passion According to St. Matthew;" the "Qui sedes ad dexteram" and "Laudamus te" movements from the "B minor Mass."

Wagner's "Der Engel," "Im Treibhaus," "Schmerzen," "Liebet du um Schönheit," and "Schied von Meiden" also will be given by Miss Bats.

A selection from Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro," "A Day-Scene in November" and "Before Life and After" by Britten; and the "Simple Gifts" and "The Boston Song" by Copland concludes the program.

Barbara Larkin Crowned 'Miss Southern Acres'

Barbara Larkin, freshman from Benton, was crowned "Miss Southern Acres of 1958" at the "Candlelight Coronation" held Saturday night.

The "Candlelight Coronation" climaxed several weeks of spirited activities surrounding the Southern Acres contest.

Miss Larkin was crowned at the dinner held in the Southern Acres cafeteria. The cafeteria was decorated in pink and white streamers, while candles were placed on individual tables. Additional candles were attached to the center posts of the large room, and an atmosphere of flickering candlelight was obtained.

Master of Ceremonies Jerry Hess introduced "Miss Southern Acres" and her attendants to some 100 dancers who watched the crowning at 10:15 p. m.

Kay Sue Eadie, Marlene Peterson, Ladoris Harms and Charlene Brustati were the new queen's attendants.

The ceremonies began with the introduction of the attendants. Queen Barbara Larkin then entered carrying a bouquet of roses and wearing a rose-pink net formal. Her escort for the evening was Bill Henderson.

Joe Sepich, president of the Southern Acres Residence Halls, placed a sparkling star, symbolizing the crown, upon the lovely freshman's head, and presented her with a loving cup.

Background music for the ceremony was provided by the London Branch Band.

Miss Larkin and her escort twirled to her favorite tune "Deep Purple" for the queen's dance.

The queen and each of her attendants received a pearl-beaded handbag as a gift from the residents of Southern Acres.

Photo Fair

The staff photographer for National Geographic Magazine, Thomas J. Abercrombie, will tell about his experiences at the South Pole and in the Near East in a talk during the 8th annual Kappa Alpha Mu Photo Fair at SIU March 23.

Registration for the event will take place at 1 p. m. in the University School auditorium.

The local Photo Fair Photographic Exhibit, the International KAM Collegiate Photography Exhibit, and the National Press Photographers Assn. News Picture Exhibit will be on display in the Library foyer in connection with the program.

Award winners in the annual Photo Fair competition will be announced following Abercrombie's address.

Abercrombie has worked as photographer on the staffs of the Fargo, N. D. Forum, and the Milwaukee Journal. He joined the National Geographic staff in July, 1956. In 1954 he was chosen as Newspaper Photographer of the Year by the N.P.P.A. and the University of Missouri. The Wisconsin Press Photographers Assn. selected him top honors in 1955.

The Photo Fair is being sponsored jointly by the SIU Department of Printing and Photography and the SIU chapter of KAM.

Gus also says that he's been checking some of the areas around Clark Orchard and he notes that some folks have been taking out claims around the lake shore. Shore's suspicion, he says.

Olson Composition Played

A new "Symphony by Band" composed by Phillip Olson, director of University bands, was recently played for the first time by the Northwestern University Band.

The Olson composition was performed at the three-day convention of the College Band Directors National Association held on the Northwestern campus.

First Of Its Kind Equipment Design Institute Seeks To Aid Handicapped

"It has been my belief, as a designer and as an educator," said Harold L. Cohen, design department chairman, "that we must constantly examine our needs, as a collection of human animals, to find specific and general problems a high priority worthy of our attack."

Out of this belief comes the Institute on Equipment Research for Handicapped Children which will be held on campus March 20, 21 and 22.

The purpose of the institute as outlined by Cohen in his letters to the many outstanding participants planning to attend the event.

"Our purpose is manifold," he said, "but basically it is to establish directions for research on equipment for the handicapped child, present and future; to create by equipment evaluation the criteria of design equipment for the handicapped child."

"We also hope to examine the means of communicating ideas and concepts of equipment design to others in the profession."

The institute is being sponsored by the Easter Seal Foundation, the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., and the SIU Department of Design.

Three categories of equipment will be particularly dealt with during the institute. The equipment, borrowed from various manufacturers and producers, includes aids for the crippled child and has among them examples of "relaxation chairs, the standup or standin table, and the walker."

Speakers at the institute will include Dr. Dean W. Roberts, executive director of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.; and Dr. Meyer A. Perlstein, chief, Children's Neurology Service of the Cook County Hospital in Chicago.

Illinois Snakes Are Exhibited For 4 Weeks

The Herpetological Society of SIU is exhibiting a special snake display in the Life Science Building for four weeks.

The display contains a projector showing slides of common snakes in Southern Illinois in their natural environment. Some of the snakes shown are copperheads, cottonmouth, hog-nosed snake, blue-racer, black rat snake, and the common garter snake.

Also in the display's rare tools for collecting snakes. This bit of paraphernalia for snake hunters of the region includes tongs, a sack, and a hook.

The "herp" society has preserved specimens of some of the snakes and amphibians in the display. It also has several books on display.

The newly organized club on campus is concerned with the study of amphibians and reptiles.

It will also speak, as will Dr. John Anderson, dean of graduate research at SIU.

Women's organized house representatives will meet Thursday to complete plans for the women's volleyball tournament. Dr. Lura Evelyn of the women's physical education department said today.

The tournament will start spring quarter.

Handicapped Children
SIU's Institute on Equipment Research for Handicapped Children will deal with the problem of equipment design to aid handicapped children as seen above. Miss Robertine St. James, director of the Moody State School for Cerebral Palsied

The Editors' Opinions At Year's End

This is the last issue of the Egyptian this quarter and it is the last issue for the 1957-58 staff. The "Come in like a lion and go out like a lamb" concept does not apply to the 1957-58 newspaper. If anything, it would be reversed.

The first columns and home-neutered cartoons appeared. These were not always accepted with open arms, but interest was expressed, sometimes violently. Interest seemed to be a new concept, and it was welcomed.

The ever increasing size and complexity of the campus and the student body resulted in the necessity of enlarging the newspaper and its staff.

Editors were written dependent upon need. Editors were written with one thing in mind.

This past year has seen the six-page newspaper become the rule rather than the exception. This allowed for the creation of a second sports page. Whether this has had anything to do with the sports consciousness of Southern is not known, but certainly interest and enthusiasm in winter sports this year has reached a new high.

What seemed to be the long range for the entire student body and the University. This was no small order.

Success cannot be measured by what appears to have been accomplished. Issues are often confused, and accomplishments seldom result from one source.

The continued progress of the University, and the ability of the EGYPTIAN to serve the student body is the real test of success. This test cannot be completed in one year or a dozen terms. It is a never-ending process.

The success of the 1957-58 staff depends upon the 1958-59 staff. It will be up to them to formulate news and editorial policy in such a way to best serve the student body.

As a result, the beginning of the fall quarter found the finished product bigger and more efficient than that of any in the past. Some even ventured to say it was a much better newspaper.

The only real difference to my way of thinking was a necessary one. This is A STUDENT NEWSPAPER. It is paid for BY STUDENTS ONLY. The only thing this staff tried to do was to give the student body its moneys worth.

As a result, the beginning of the fall quarter found the finished product bigger and more efficient than that of any in the past. Some even ventured to say it was a much better newspaper.

Panel discussions and reports, making arrangements jointly with Southern Illinois University.

Many people forget this is a student newspaper. Some think it is a way to enhance their own position. Or a way to tear down the position of someone else.

Oh, this campus is no rare bird. It has its share of professional fakes. Including the student variety. And it is from this group that this newspaper — or any other newspaper — receives the most criticism and mud-slinging.

Putting out a four page newspaper twice a week is no easy task for a group of students who have other commitments aside from the paper. The idea of putting out a six page newspaper twice a week was considered impossible — even by some staff members. But it did capture some imagination.

The staff did it. They put out a six page newspaper twice a week for many months. They managed to slip in a few large editions on special occasions. And in these pages appeared more sports, social news, advertising, and just plain news than ever before. And most of it was about students. And if it wasn't to every member on the staff, and every one who had any thing to do with putting out the newspaper this past year I say "thank you". You all know what the problems were. You did an excellent job of handling them.

That about winds up Cutting up the Good and The Bad. Good Luck on the finals. Good Luck on your vacation. Good By.

Dear Editor: I thought you people might be interested in knowing that the EGYPTIAN has won another honor.

Egyptian Wins Headgear Award

At a party up here in St. Louis the other night we had a make-a-bat-out-of-newspapers contest, and I won first prize with one of those Egyptian bonnets neatly folded with the EGYPTIAN emblazoned across the front! The old shere's finally made it for sure.

You people have done a really fine job with the paper this past year. Congratulations!

And welcome (soon) to the ranks of "ex".

Sincerely,
Don Hargus

Cutting Up the GOOD and the BAD

By DON HECKE

This is the last column of cutting up the good and the bad. For this writer it is the end of a good thing. For some it is undoubtedly the end of a bad thing.

When the present staff took over, they were harassed by many things. Faculty news has been a major part of the paper. When we substituted student news—which should have been there all the time anyway—we heard howls and threats.

Errors. The common joke around campus was that the EGYPTIAN was the place to go if you couldn't spell. The staff made short shift of the joke, and even the first issue had no more errors than any reputable newspaper would have.

Every person on the staff was just as important in getting out the newspaper as any other staff member. The writing and preparation of news, pictures and advertising was handled in as professional a way as possible under the conditions we all had to work.

The individual staffers generally forget about classes, about social events, about that trip home, when they knew work had to be done in the office. You cannot measure personal sacrifice. You cannot measure a person's feeling for doing something he likes to do. You cannot measure contribution. But if you could it is a sure thing that every staff member I had the pleasure of working with would be voted the outstanding student of the year.

The one group who helps put out this paper that most students do not know about is the printers. From the man who first punches the news stories on tape to the man who takes the papers off the press the staff owes a debt of gratitude. The backshop men and pressmen at the Southern Illinois have added considerably to the makeup and appearance of the EGYPTIAN.

To every member on the staff, and every one who had any thing to do with putting out the newspaper this past year I say "thank you". You all know what the problems were. You did an excellent job of handling them.

That about winds up Cutting up the Good and The Bad. Good Luck on the finals. Good Luck on your vacation. Good By.

Across The Desk...

By Bill Epperheimer

This place is once more crawling with humanity. The walls seem to give a little as bright enthusiastic faces peer from every corner and from behind every typewriter.

And all of the miraculous machines which are the life of every newspaper are clacking incessantly. Phones are ringing every five minutes. I have been driven from three desks in fifteen minutes.

Everyone is working in pain. For you, a new staff is taking over.

Many interesting objects are turned up as I clean out the coffee-stained desk at last. Old ideas for stories that never were followed up. Short, stubby pencils with teeth marks on the end, signifying many hours of nervous chattering. Old pictures. Disrupted files.

I leave with regret. And joy. All in all, rewards and evils were balanced well. I cannot forget the hours spent doing what at the time seemed endless and useless tasks. Yet I cannot forget that these tasks will prove to be invaluable in the future.

I cannot forget the nasty unsigned letters with unfounded charges. I cannot forget the dirty looks, and curses, received from those who were in some way offended by the stories intended to improve, suggest and help.

And yet I must not forget those letters and curses taught me in a fashion, to "roll with the punches", as one fellow puts it.

I cannot forget the conflicts which have given me a broader outlook on the newspaper business and relations with readers.

I cannot forget the campaigns and editorials which have fallen flat on their faces. Nor can I forget those which have succeeded in their purposes.

It has been wonderful. It has been terrible. There have been good days and bad days. Good weeks and bad weeks. I cannot forget the money which I have been paid for my efforts, for it has provided much. But I cannot forget the money I could have been paid. It would have provided more.

Gus Bode Says

Gus Sez: Thanks for the load.

Gus hopes the new Egyptian staff will have more cheese cake in the paper.

Gus says — With all the bonus money being given to baseball players, he may break out the spikes — and lance them.

Gus sez that for the new Spring term he hears the campus cops are undegging special on-the-lake larceny.

Gus has his bags packed for the annual trek to Florida over Spring vacation.

Gus sez that it isn't the finals that gets him down, it's the hearing all-of-sudden that's tough.

Gus sez someone must have been plotting against him, knowing he's flat broke this term, otherwise, he sez, why would they make him pay they thought he doesn't get his student check until the next day. Gus added no comment.

Letter From The Editors
Dear Gus; (Bode, that is)

Noting the comment you made in your column about not getting "due credit in their final columns." "It's discouraging," Gus sez, "but I'll continue my efforts in striving for a better University."

Our original intention was to thank you personally, but after searching all over campus for you and not being able to find you we abandoned our effort. Therefore, thanks, loads.

The Editors

and the bad things. Which one outweighs the other? It's hard to say, to pin down. But really now, you knew what I would say in the end. Good bye, that is.

CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS

THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8, the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission, the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world — the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires — no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began — across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 24 miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet — but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes — and the engine was never turned off!

Bigger And Better Library Exhibit Tells Tale

Think doing research in rough around SIU these days? According to a special library exhibit now being shown, things could be a lot worse. In fact, they once were.

For instance, the student who attended the University in its early years did not merely walk into the library, select a few books by use of the card catalogue, stop at the check-out counter, and walk out.

In the first place, the library was not open for business as it is today. A book containing titles from these bygone days states clearly "the library shall be open the fourth and sixth hours on Tuesday and Thursday and after school on Wednesday."

Furthermore, the rules state that anyone who wishes to use the library during these hours must have obtained a written permit to do so from the librarian. At other hours the library was used as a study hall, and student absences were faithfully recorded. Books could be checked out by name, rather than by library card, and the records kept in longhand in a ledger.

These are only some of the facts to be gained from a survey of the exhibit, which was prepared in connection with National Library Week.

Among these is a check-out ledger from 1895, carefully recording the reading habits of student W. H. Shroyer, later president of SIU. Another slender volume lists, by topics, the complete catalogue of books which the library owned in 1878.

The exhibit is designed to show the growth of the SIU library from its establishment in "spacious room" in Old Main in 1874, to its present proportions and those planned for the future. So far, from a time shortly after its beginning, the library has grown from a collection of approximately 5000 volumes to near 200,000 with more purchases planned.

THE COLLEGE SURVEY ANNOUNCES

April Tryouts For New Play Have Been Set

Tryouts for "Dark of the Moon" will be held on April 1, 2 and 3 at the University School Studio Theater.

A cast of 35 performers will be recruited for the play, which will be produced by the SIU theater department on May 12-17 at the Playhouse.

The fantasy drama, written by Howard Richardson and William Berney, was originally produced at the University of Iowa as a thesis for a master's degree in theater.

Cleon V. Bennett, graduate student in theater, will direct the production.

AUDIO-VISUAL GETS 465 FILM STRIPS

SIU has received a gift of 465 films valued at $3,500 from Encyclopedia Britannica, according to Donald A. Ingui, audio-visual director.

Ingui said the gift includes a variety of educational subject matter, primarily in the elementary and high school levels. The films will be reserved for on-campus use.

With the new additions the Audio-Visual Service library now includes 1400 film strips.

An examination before the time scheduled for the class examination. In the event a student misses a final examination and is not involved in a situation covered in (3) above a "WV" followed by the tentative grade with a "12" indicating the number of weeks attended, should be recorded on the grade report by the instructor. A "WV" grade must be completed within one year of the end of the quarter involved; otherwise, it must remain an incomplete grade.

New Commercial Laundry in Operation At SIU

Every day is washday for some persons on the SIU campus.

The University Laundry, now employs more than 20 part-time students with two full-time employees.

The steel buildings, providing more than 7,000 square feet of floor space, houses the complete laundry service. With its four driers, flat ironer and four stainless steel washers, the laundry is now handling all the university's laundry service.

"Before we went into full-time operation," said Brockey M. Childers, manager of the laundry, "SIU's laundry was done by private firms on a bid basis.

"We will do no faculty work, but will handle such university cleaning as uniforms, linens, and other general laundry."

Children said departments are billed monthly for laundry work.

LAUNDRY MANAGERS Brockey Childers, right, laundry manager, and his Assistant John Roberts, inspect several bundles of towels in front of SIU's new commercial laundry's four driers.

U. School Chorus Gives Special Lenten Program

"The Crucifixion in Spirituals," musical settings to poems from Walden Johnson, and arranged by Dr. Charles C. Taylor of the SIU music department, will be one of the featured works at the special Lenten program to be given in Shroyer Auditorium on Sunday afternoon, March 16.

The Lenten program will be sung by the University High School Mixed Chorus, which will be making its second appearance of the year in the series of 4 p. m. Sunday music recitals sponsored by the Department of Music.

Taylor, who is an assistant professor of music, will conduct the group, and senior Patricia Gagnepenn will do the accompaniment.

The afternoon program will be narrated by student Kathryn Loder of the University School.

Two To Be Chosen Award Honors Alumni

Two former SIU students who have made outstanding contributions to their profession and to the University will be honored this spring.

The deadline for nomination of candidates for the two Alumni Achievement Awards is March 15, according to Robert Odaniell, director of the Alumni Office.

The awards are given annually. The board of directors of the Association of Alumni and Former Students of SIU adopted the plan at its Homecoming meeting last fall.

Any alumnus or former student of SIU is eligible to nominate candidates. Academic deans and department heads may make nominations, also.

With the exception of present members of the faculty, the Board of Trustees, and the current president of the Alumni Association,

How is she to learn the facts? How will she know we won't pass her? The truth can still get through to her. Gymnasts Take 2nd In IIAC

Led by the outstanding Jon Cada, who captured three titles, the Western Illinois Leatherstocks took home the championship trophy in the first annual IIAC Conference Gymnastic Championships held in the SIU gymnasium last Saturday.

Southern's Salukis, paced by Roger Council, Bob Fester, and Bob Kies, followed close behind as they grabbed second.

The biggest thrill for Southern fans and also the biggest upset of the day came when Roger Council, SIU's trampoliner, artist, nipped Glenn Wilson of Western. Wilson was undefeated this year and was last year's national champ on the trampoline.

Far in Front
The closest team to the Salukis who turned in a very fine showing, was Central Michigan with 63 1/2 points. SIU had 147. Western Illinois, who finished 8th in the nation last year, was way out in front with 185 points.

The meet was actually much closer than the final score shows. Southern and Western were tied after the afternoon session with 69 1/2 points apiece. Western took one, two and three in the final event, tumbling, to really put a big gap in the final score.

Showered Nothing
Northern Illinois and Eastern Illinois showed almost nothing as they gathered only a few points. Northern took 16 1/2 and Eastern managed to get only six.

Ron Ellberg of Western started off the afternoon by taking the free exercise event with a total of 25 1/2 points.

The side horse was the next event and for the Southern it was the best as the Salukis, led by freshman Bob Kies, took one, two and three.

There were 21 entries on the side horse and about 15 fell off as the event was marred by some very poor exercises.

Jon Cada, Western, turned in a very fine performance as he took the high bar title. John Taylor and Jerry Bickenbach of SIU also turned in excellent exercises as they took second and third.

There were 21 entries on the flying rings to keep Southern in the meet. Fester is a freshman.

The best Bob Hauser could do in tumbling for SIU was 4th as Western finished off the first conference meet by taking 1st, 2nd, and 3rd.

Jon Cada of Western grabbed the all-around championship with 1339 points. John Taylor, SIU's great all-around man, finish close behind with 1210 points.

Team scores: Western, 185; Southern, 147; Central Michigan, 63 1/2; Illinois Normal, 30; Northern Illinois, 16 1/2; Eastern Illinois, 6.

Wrestlers Stopped, Lose IIAC Crown; Swimmers Finish Second In Conference

Olsen Sets Conference Record

Southern's swimming squad stroked themselves to a second place in the IIAC swimming championships last Saturday.

SIU finished behind a strong Central Michigan team who simply swam away with the title.

The boys from Mount Pleasant Michigan had a total of 97 points in the meet. SIU was next with 44 points.

Central took all but two events in the championship meet.

Sets Record
Wayne Olsen kept Central Michigan from stealing the whole show as he broke the IIAC conference record in winning the 220-yard butterfly. Olsen did the 220 yards in 2:35.5 seconds, bettering the old conference record by 4.5 seconds.

The SIU tankmen took second in the Medley relay behind Central Michigan to open the meet.

Warren Dick and Ron Walker then took fourth and fifth in the 220-yard freestyle. Joe Barry grabbed third in the 50-yard freestyle while Bob Schulhof took fifth.

Wayne Olsen, a standout for the Salukis tankmen all year, then set his record in the 220-yard butterfly. This was the only first SIU took in the meet.

Baseball Squad Opens Season

Southern's baseball team will open their 36-game schedule on March 21 when they travel to Louisiana State University.

The baseballers will play ten exhibition games in their southern tour before returning home for their first home encounter against Quincy College on April 3.

On their southern tour, SIU will play Louisiana State twice, Northwest Louisiana, three times, Louisiana Tech, twice and Delta State.

Returning letterman from last year's squad, who took third in IIAC play, are Ron Ayres, Roger Bryan, Dick Dillinger, Carroll Bridges, Don Gibbs, John Gilmore "Icky" Jones, Ken Monaschett, J. W. Sanders, Jerry Thomas and Wally Westbrook.

Not On Squad
Lost from last year's squad are Captain Gordon Lambert, Taylor, an outfielder who hit 335 last year and John Orlando first string catcher for three years. John hit over 300 last year.

The Spring's schedule is as follows:

March 20—Mississippi Univ. (T)
March 21—La. State Univ. (T)
March 22—La. State Univ. (T)
March 24—Northwest La. (T)

Halts Perfect Season

After completing their dual meet season with a sparkling 9-0 record, Southern's grapplers just didn't have enough as they were finally stopped by Northern Illinois last Saturday in the IIAC conference championships held at Northern Illinois.

Just two weeks ago SIU defeated Northern in a dual meet by a decisive score of 24-8. Northern was picked in pre-season selections to take the tournament but after the way Southern had been going all season this prediction was discounted and SIU was picked as the favorite to win the meet.

Wins Title
Jim Bledsoe won three straight matches to win the 123-pound title. Jim beat Tessler of Northern in the finals 12-6 to win the crown.

In the 137-pound class, "Deke" Edwards lost his first match in his college career in the first round when he lost to Gorman of Northern. "Deke" then won two straight to grab third place.

Lee Grubbs continued his fabulous work as he won three straight to defend his title. Grubbs, SIU captain, has now won 17 straight matches this season.

Herman Ayres, another SIU standout, then walked off the mats

Phil Thorne lost his first match in the 177-pound class when he was pinned by 2:14. Phil was then eliminated from competition. The title was won by Conrad of Northern. Conrad pinned all three men he faced and was voted the most valuable wrestler in the tourney.

'Rush' Gets Third
In the 191-pound class, Marion Rushing lost his first match to Elliot of Western, 3-0 but then came back to win two straight for third place.

Houston Antwine, wrestling in the heavyweight class for Southern, was pinned in his first match in 8:23 by Seaman of Northern. He was then eliminated from competition. Rasmussen from Eastern Michigan went on to win the heavyweight title.

"SKANDERBEG" (Warrior of Albania)

Russian dialog with English subtitles. Directed by Sergel Youtkevitch. This is the story of the man who led the Albanians against the Turks in their struggle for freedom in the 15th century. General James Wolfe called Skanderbeg "one of the great soldiers," and whom Longfellow described in "Skanderbeg" (Tales of a Wayside Inn). The first feature film made in Albania, it is remarkable for the pictorial imagery and highly effective editing characteristic of director Youtkevitch, who has been compared in stature with the pioneers Eisenstein and Pudovkin.

Talley--'Most Valuable'

Warren Talley, 6-3 sharp-shooting forward and co-captain from Pinckneyville, has been chosen by his teammates as the "Most Valuable" player on the SIU squad for the 1957-58 season.

Talley, a standout for SIU the past three years, had 237 points this season for an average of almost 10 points per game, (9.9).

Last season Talley averaged 13.3 points per game in conference play and led the Salukis in field goal percentage with a .377 mark. He was picked on the all-conference second team.

This year starting at guard Talley got off to a slow start as did the rest of the team. "Rick" as he is known by his many friends, scored only nine points in his first five games. He was then shifted back to the forward spot and began scoring, and averaged about 12 points a game for the rest of the season.

Begin Hinting
When he began playing and hitting at forward, the Salukis began winning more.

Head coach Lynn Holder said that one of Talley's "finest attributes was his competitive attitude."

"Talley was a great competitor," said Holder. "He was a fine shot and played up to his full potential. He also did a very fine job on defense. If we were playing against a team who had a man who was hot we would put Talley on him."

Holder pointed out that Talley was very easily trained. In his sophomore year Talley led the Salukis with 312 points for a 13.5 average per game.

When asked what was probably Talley's finest game Holder replied that the one at Washington University three seasons ago was probably the best. Talley hit on a jump shot at the buzzer of the second overtime to give the Salukis what everyone thought was a 64-64 tie to put the game into 3rd overtime. However, the shot was not allowed and SIU lost the game, 64-62.

Talley's high this season was 22 points against Eastern Illinois in an important IAC contest which the Salukis lost.

Being fairly small for a forward,

NAIA Honor

SIU's veteran coach and former athletic director Glenn (Abe) Martin is one of four coaches approved for addition to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Hall of Fame.

Martin will be officially presented with his award at the annual NAIA Hall of Fame luncheon at the Hotel Muehlebach in Kansas City, Mo., March 13, during the 20th annual 32-team national NAIA basketball tournament.

Basketball coach at SIU for three years from 1943-46, Martin's cage teams won 41 and lost only 17, including the 32-team NAIA national championship in 1946.

Martin, who now serves as head baseball coach and director of Southern's vast intramural program, joined the SIU coaching staff in 1938 after coaching high school teams at his native Fairfield, and at Princeton, Ill.

A 1931 graduate, Martin was a first-string halfback on SIU's great unbeaten 1930 grid team. After graduation, he played professional football for the Chicago Cardinals before entering the coaching field. Athletic director from 1944-54, Martin in 1946 revived SIU baseball—a sport which had been dropped after the 1924 season. His baseball teams always have finished high despite the keen competition. His all-time baseball record is 126 won, 84 lost (63-38 in conference).

His 10-year grid record (1939-1949) is 31 won, 42 lost, and five ties. His best football team was the 1947 squad, which won the IAC championship and went ahead to beat North Central College, 21-0, in the first annual Corn Bowl game at Bloomington, (Ill.).

Of the 10 other players, coaches, and contributors being named to the Hall of Fame this year, only one, cage star Scotty Staggall of Millikin University, is from Illinois.

Chosen as Southern's toughest conference opponent was Walt Moore, 6-foot-2 Western Illinois University, senior from Mt. Vernon.

Being fairly small for a forward, Talley didn't get many shots from under the basket so most of his shots were from about 25 feet out. He hit 92 for 246 from the field this season, for a shooting percentage of .374.

Coach Holder concluded by saying that Talley was "a great asset to Southern's squad" and that he will be a big loss to next year's cage squad.

Netmen Opens Season

SIU's tennis squad will open their 21 match schedule on March 21 when they take on Southern Methodist University away down south in Forth Worth Texas.

The team will play five exhibition matches before getting down to serious business when they take on Vanderbilt University on March 29 at Vanderbilt.

On their Southern tour, the SIU squad will play Southern Methodist University, Hardin-Simmons University, E. Texas State College, Texas Christian University and Oklahoma University.

Poor Season
After having a poor season last year, the SIU tennis squad is expected to be much stronger this year.

Last year's squad finished their season with a 2-7-1 record. They finished 4th in the IAC conference.

This spring's tennis schedule is as follows:

Bryson Leads Scoring Parade

Seymour Bryson, 6-4 forward from Quincy, led Southern Illinois University in scoring and rebounding during the 1957-58 season.

Bryson, a junior, scored 384 points in 24 games for an average of 16.0 points-per-game and grabbed 118 rebounds for an average of 13.3. In conference play he was even better, scoring 209 points in 12 games for an average of 17.4 per game.

Warren Talley, senior forward, was second high in scoring with 237 points (9.9 points-per-game), followed by Tom McGregg, Ranolou, 200 points (8.1 average); Gene Sams, Albion, 192 (9.6); Garrison Newsum, Shawneetown, 174 points (11.6); and Larry Whitlock, Mt. Vernon, 130 (14.4).

In shooting percentages McGregg was high in field goal accuracy with .448 (69 to 154), followed by Bill Roberts, Monticello, .413 (26 to 63); Sammy Duane, Galatia, .403 (27 of 67).

Volleyball Rosters

Intramural volleyball officials now may sign for the coming season at the Intramural Office, according to Director Glenn "Abe" Martin.

He stated that several had already signed, but that many more could be used. A ready knowledge of intramural and volleyball rules is desired.

SIU will host to the IAC gymnastic championships next Saturday, SIU and Western are favored.

Lee Grubbs, SIU wrestling captain, has run his consecutive win streak to 17 in a row.

128 Points Could Be

SIU's 128-60 record-breaking victory over Eastern Michigan College at Carbondale two weeks ago might be the season high for a college team. A check of the 1957-58 season scores of 240 of the nation's top college teams showed that the only score to rival SIU's 128 was a 127-57 victory over North Texas by Cincinnati in mid-season.

Southern Illinois University coach Lynn Holder this week called his team's victory over Eastern Michigan two weeks ago, "the greatest demonstration of basketball I have ever seen, including big-time college and professional ball."

At one point during the game SIU hit 14 of 17 field goal attempts for a 82 per cent average and hit almost 60 per cent for the game. All 14 of the game with 10 of them hitting 50 per cent or better from the field.

in some fine performances all season and has been one of the squads most valuable men. The victory didn't help the Salukis win the title but it help them grab second place behind a very strong Central Michigan squad.

WAA Volleyball Tournery Begins

Volleyball entries for the house tournament must be in by March 12, according to Dr. Lura Evans of the women's physical education department. Two practices are required of each group.

Practice sessions will be held from 6 to 9 on Monday night, March 31; from 7:30 to 9 on Tuesday night, April 1; and from 6 to 9 on Wednesday night, April 2.

The tournament will officially begin on Monday, April 7. As in other WAA tournerys the play will be in league form.

The volleyball tournament, which lasts for six weeks, will operate under new rules introduced by the National Division of Girls' and Womens' Sports. New rules in effect are:

There will be six players instead of eight.

A player may hit the ball only once instead of twice.

Only three hits will be allowed to a team.

Clockwise rotation will be used.

SIGMA TAU PLAN WHITE ROSE BALL

Plans are now in progress for the annual Sigma Tau Gamma White Rose Ball, to be held April 26.

The Sig Tau rendezvous at the Alpha Gamma Delta House last Monday evening. The occasion was a double pinning.

Glenn "Abc" Martin was made a member of the NAIA Coach's Hall of Fame at a recent tournament in Kansas City.

In recent pledge class elections, Gerry Schutzenhofer was elected treasurer and Frank Fenzel was elected social chairman.

Sigma Tau Gamma will open defense of its all-school volleyball championship next week.

Les Goumas has transferred to SIU from Cape Girardeau.

A dessert party was held with the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority at the Sigma Tau Gamma chapter house last week. Sigma Tau pledges provided entertainment.

William Beck, '41, was recently appointed sports editor of the St. Petersburg Times.

JOHNSON HALL—DOYLE HEAR LITTLEFORD

Warren Littleford, former SIU athlete, spoke at joint house devotions between Johnson Hall and Doyle Dormitory last Thursday evening. The meeting was held in the Johnson Hall lounge.

Littleford, a letterman in 1952, spoke on "Our Christian Testimony, a Most Priceless Possession."

Marjorie Johnson played the piano for group singing. Nat Thompson of Memphis, Tenn. led the singing.

Thompson and Littleford are holding a revival this week at the University Baptist Church.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA PLEDGES SKIP OUT

The Phi Kappa Sigma pledges had a skip-out party last weekend. The pledges visited the Phi Deuteron Chapter at the University of Kentucky for two days.

A Hobo date party was held at the house Saturday evening. Lt. Swartz and Dr. Nelson were faculty chaperones, and the pledges provided entertainment with the Southernaires male quartette.

Prizes were given for the best dressed guests.

Gary Stelz is the new editor of the "Wesley News and Views," the Wesley Foundation paper.

Club Notes On Campus

DAMES CLUB TO HAVE MOVIE

The SIU Dames Club will meet at 8 tomorrow night in the Presbyterian Church, 310 S. University. Speaker for the meeting will be James Arons of the SIU health department.

The meeting will feature a movie and a talk about tornadoes. Members are asked to bring 25 cents for dessert.

EDWARDS SPEAKS TO SCF CHAPEL

Rev. Kenneth C. Edwards, pastor of the Eldorado Calvary Baptist Church, preached at the Student Christian Foundation Chapel service Sunday morning, March 9.

Rev. Edwards exchanged pulpits with Rev. Malcom Gillespie, director of the foundation. His subject was "What's There in It for Us?"

Rev. Edwards is a member of the committees for higher Christian education in the Illinois Baptist Convention and the American Baptist Convention.

SCF SUPPER CLUB TO MEET SUNDAY

The Student Christian Foundation Supper Club will meet Sunday, March 16, at 5:30 p. m.

ESKEW ELECTED WAA REPRESENTATIVE

Linda Eskew, a junior from Benton, was elected chairman of the Women's Athletic Association organized house representatives at a meeting last Thursday night.

Miss Eskew, a mathematics major, lives at Woody Hall. She has been active in Girls' Rally and WAA.

SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE

Scholarship applications must be in by March 15, according to Erwin Sasek, Coordinator of Finances.

Full-time students who are working and are active on campus may apply.

Requirements for Alpha Phi Omega scholarships require a four-point average.

Students should specify whether or not they are applying for an APO or a University scholarship.

in the Student Christian Foundation.

Highlight of the evening will be a debate on "Is There a Final Judgment?" The topic was chosen in "co-operation with final exams" Rev. Malcom Gillespie, director of the foundation, said.

SCF MEMBERS GO TO CHAMPAIGN

Six members of the Student Christian Foundation will journey to Champaign this weekend to attend the Illinois Disciples' Student Fellowship Convention.

The convention's theme is "Does Our Faith Call for Unity?"

The Rev. John Camedy, pastor of the Carbondale Church of Christ, and the Rev. Malcom Gillespie, Student Christian Foundation director, will lead study groups.

Those attending from the local foundation are Jerry Gruen, Nancy Stevenson, Ann Alred, M'Le Brown, Joan Burnett, and Wilma Eddings.

The group will leave Friday, March 14, and return Sunday evening, March 16.

Greek Workshop To Make Plans For Rush Week

The annual Pan Hellenic workshop will be held April 12-13, according to Sharon Fowler, publicity chairman.

"The purpose of the workshop Miss Fowler said, is to bring the sororities closer together through social interaction."

Problems to be discussed at the workshop include the duties of sorority officers and the new rush program, which goes into effect fall quarter.

Previously rush has not started until October, but plans are being made to conduct this year's formal fall rush in the week preceding freshman week.

The Pan Hellenic workshop will open with a coffee hour on Friday, April 12. A buffet dinner, a tea, and a banquet will highlight the activities on Saturday.

An attendance trophy for the sorority with the highest percentage of members present at the workshop will be given. Alpha Gamma Delta won the trophy last year.

Name Standerfer For Summer Trip To Hawaii Church

Ernie Standerfer, junior, has been selected by the Baptist Student Union of the University of Illinois and SIU to serve as a summer missionary to Hawaii.

Standerfer, a history major from Mt. Vernon, was selected on interest shown in BSU work and consecration to God.

"I feel very humble to be selected to go," Standerfer said. "I feel that it will be an unforgettable experience which will add much to my life. I hope God can use me to make a real spiritual contribution to those I work with."

Standerfer will fly to Hawaii the second week in June for a ten week stay. His work will include taking church census, visitation and preaching.

Standerfer is the local BSU president.

Last summer, Bill Edson, senior, and Ginger Augenstein, junior, served as student missionaries from the state Baptist Student Unions to Hawaii and Alaska respectively.

Archie Hooser from the University of Illinois is the student missionary going to Alaska this summer.

These student missionaries are financed through the state Baptist Student Unions.

Home Ec Show To Be April 12

Girls participating in the Home Economics High School Day Style Show will be able to say "I made it myself," when asked about the dress they modeled in the show.

The style show, which is one of the highlights of the Home Economics High School Day scheduled for April 12, will feature a variety of clothes made by the SIU students. Modeled in the show will be evening dresses, school clothes, suits and other types of clothing made and designed by students in the clothing classes.

Approximately 60-70 girls will participate in the style show, according to Dr. Adelin M. Hoffman, chairman of the clothing and textiles department.

The style show will be held in Shroyck Auditorium and Keith Pierce, organizer, will play during the modeling.

The steering committee for the style show consists of Phyllis House, chairman; Melva Homberg, Bette Tripp, Marilyn Greenwood and Le Eta (Smith) Beers.

RE-SCHEDULED RECITAL

The Geraldine Weber-Marie Hofstetter junior recital will be given at 8:15 p. m., Monday, March 17.

The recital was cancelled last week when Miss Weber contacted the measles.
