Tickets On Sale For Comedian's Two Appearances In Shryock

A cigarette, a bar stool, a sensitive awareness for some of the more humorous aspects of life. His hilarious accuracy in relating them make his monologues unique. Berman at first considered himself a dramatic actor, rather than a comedian. Ten years of small, unprofitable jobs in summer stock and on TV went by before Berman's "break" came—just two and a half years ago. He applied for a comedy job at Mister Kelley's Night Club in Chicago and Berman was a smash.

When Kelly Contura, a freshman journalism major from Chicago, checked her mail last week she discovered a package inside. Miss Contura, being a real cool personality, did not become excited or overjoyed. "Probably just some cookies from Mom," she teased at the made her way to Steagall Hall.

I Smell A Rat!

The foursome existed quite serenely for several days. Then Kelly, the suspicious type, began to have doubts about the "mouse." "His nose is too long, and look at those big ears. Grrr, I smell a rat," she announced. "My baby, serious," said Harlan, "My baby! cried Eleanor. (she's the motherly type.) A brief, prejudicial trial without a mouse on the jury, and a decision was handed down that "the mouse must leave the house, and so she's a rat!"

Editors' Opinions

The Past Year

Another year has passed... and a new group takes over. What has the last year meant? The University has grown and made progress, and the Egyptian has adapted and adjusted to this growth and progress.

Many things which the Egyptian has done during the past year are evident. A number of major papers have been run due to increased news coverage and advertising. A greater amount of campus coverage has been achieved and a wider view of the campus coverage has been achieved and a wider view of the campus and events presented. This has been possible because of the increased number of students willing to serve as reporters, giving of their time and efforts.

The Egyptian, under the 1959-60 staff, received a first class award in the Associated Collegiate Press critical review of the trees at least for a few days.

ice. This was the highest award ever received by the newspaper in this competition... In cooperation with the State of Illinois Traffic and Safety Committee, the Egyptian aided in alerting people to traffic hazards, including holiday yellow and red alerts.

The Egyptian supported and campaigned for the necessity of signals at the Grand Street crossing... and finally this was accomplished.

The newspaper solicited, received and printed letters from the various state-supported university presidents supporting the bond issue drive which will go to the voters on Nov. 8.

These items are only a small part of what the Egyptian has accomplished within the last year. The staff has not been perfect, but they have made definite progress... and the new staff will continue that which has been started.

Noise In Library

With final exams popping up Monday, many new faces will be seen in Morris Library. Along with the new faces will come more noise, more confusion in the study lounge.

It is only human that noise will be made by persons walking in and out, shuffling chairs and a few necessary whispered conferences. However, the noise has been so bad on some nights this quarter that persons have left to seek quietness in empty classrooms.

In the first place, it is the responsibility of students who use the library to keep conversation to a minimum. Many people's final grade... and sometimes the next quarter in college... depends upon how much knowledge is gained during final exam week. Thoughtless persons who talk and make unnecessary noise in general should be more conscious of others.

However, the 18 percent of any group will always cause some trouble. For these few, it is the responsibility of librarians and student employees to at least ask the responsible persons to be more quiet. If this does not work, a quiet but firm invitation to leave the library is in order.

It is hoped that each student will take it upon himself to be cognizant of other people's rights. It is also hoped that library personnel will take steps to quiet the few who persist in disturbing others.

News And Views

By Barbara Dawson
I must agree with Shakespeare "parting is such sweet sorrow." Before the final parting comes, however, I would like to take this opportunity to extend my sincerest and grateful appreciation to all the people who have made the last year possible and tolerable.

To all the students, faculty and staff members, and administration officers who have given their cooperation, support and aid to myself and the staff, I want to say "thank you"... you have all seen most wonderful. Without the cooperation, the Egyptian could not have done all it did. The warm friendship extended to us by many departments and individuals has been most encouraging, and has given the added incentive to continue to the utmost of our ability in our service to the readers. We feel that our service has increased through added coverage of news and events on campus.

My staff... my wonderful, devoted, hard-working, unreplaceable staff. They have withstood criticism, disappointment and sometimes unbelievable odds to do their jobs and do them well. Often, when the going was the roughest... the staff would see a lighter side, laugh, and plunge into the task with more vigor, determination and skill than I feel today.

They, as well as myself, realized that we are learning. So even those individuals who criticized, either destructively or constructively, have helped us. They have aided in us accept that learning process known as "tolerance." Actually the staff was the first to criticize themselves... for they have all others knew when they had failed or when they had made the wrong decisions.

Our faculty adviser, Charles Clayton, has been a steady, understanding and guiding hand which helped us over the rough spots. He gave us encouragement and direction, for which we shall always be grateful.

Without the Southern Illinois personnel, especially the printers, we would have been lost. We want them last year as green seedlings and under their aid, cooperation and encouragement we have emerged as more experienced individuals. They have praised us for our good deeds... but then we owe much of the success of the Egyptian during the past year.

To all of the individuals I have mentioned and to those not mentioned, but remembered, I shall always be deeply indebted. I leave not a desk or a title to the new staff... but a newspaper. In their capable hands the Egyptian will continue to grow and progress and maintain its position as a campus newspaper... a service to its readers and to the University.

For myself I can only make one comment: "Once there was a little girl... who grew up to be Editor of the Egyptian."

The Culture Corner

The following poem was contributed to the Culture Corner by Roger Ulrich, psychology graduate student.

I LONG FOR QUICKSILVER
I long for Quicksilver
And would reach
And grasp it
But to grasp it
Is to lose,
And to lose,
Leaves my soul sick
With negative desire.
Teacher can I learn
To hold gently
Or must I
Forever watch as it
Slips mocking from
My outstretched
Hand.

Graduate Exams

Deadline for registration for National Graduate Records Examinations, to be given by the SIU Educational Testing Center April 25, is April 8. Application blanks and 8 1/2" x 11" registration cards are available at the office of Student Affairs.

Applicants for certain graduate and professional schools are required to offer scores on the tests for admission. Students planning to enter such schools should check with the particular school to find out if the tests are required.

Two types of tests are given. The Aptitude Test provides a measure of general scholastic ability at the graduate level, and the Advanced tests, which are offered in its subject areas, are designed to measure comprehension of the materials basic to success in the field of study.

"AN EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES"

Twinkly, lovable old Dr. Wagstaff Sigfoos, head of chemistry at the Upper Rhody Island College of Science and Palmistry, cares naught for glory and wealth. All he cares about is to work in his laboratory, to play Mozart quartets with a few ermites, to smoke a good Marlboro, and to throw sticks for his faithful dog Trexy to fetch.

So when, after years of patient research, Dr. Sigfoos discovered Reverso, a shaving cream which causes whiskers to grow inward instead of outward, thus enabling a man to bite off his beard instead of shaving it, it never even crossed his mind that he had come upon a key to fame and riches; he simply assigned all his royalties from Reverso to the college and went on with his quiet life of working in the laboratory, playing Mozart quartets, smoking good Marlboros and throwing sticks for his faithful dog Trexy. (Trexy, incidentally, had died some years earlier but habit is a strong thing and Dr. Sigfoos to this day continues to throw sticks.)

As everyone knows, Reverso turned out to be a madly successful shaving cream. Royalties in the first month amounted to $200,000, which came in mighty handy, believe you me, because the college had long been postponing some urgently needed repairs—a lightning rod for the men's dormitory, new hoops for the basketball court, leather patches for the chess team's elbows and a penwiper for the Director of Admissions.

In the second month royalties amounted to an even million dollars and the college bought Marlboro cigarettes for all students and faculty members. It is interesting that the college chose Marlboro cigarettes though they could well have afforded more expensive brands. The reason is simply this: you can pay more for a cigarette but you can't get a better flavor, a better smoke. If you think fagor went out when filters came in, try a Marlboro. The filter cigarette with the unfiltered taste. You, too, can smoke like a millionaire at a cost which does no violence to the slimmest of budgets. Marlboros come in soft pack or flip-top box and can be found at any tobacco counter. Millionsaire can be found on yachts.

But I digress. We were speaking of the royalties from Reverso which continue to accrue at an astonishing rate—now in excess of one million dollars per week. The college is doing all it can to spend the money; the student-faculty ratio which used to be thirty students to one teacher is now thirty teachers to one student; the Gulf Stream has been purchased for the Department of Marine Biology; the Dean of Women has been gold-plated.

But money does not buy happiness, especially in the college world. Poverty and ivy—that is the academic life—not power and pelf. The Upper Rhody Island College of Science and Palmistry is frankly embarrassed by all this wealth, but I am pleased to report that the trustees are not taking their calamity lying down. Last week they earmarked all royalties for a crash research program headed by Dr. Wagstaff Sigfoos to develop a whisker which is resistant to Reverso. Let us all join in wishing the old gentleman success.

The sponsors of this column can't offer you money but they can offer you fine smoking accessories with or without filter. If you favor filter try a Marlboro. If non-filterers are your pleasure pick a Philip Morris.

LAST ISSUE

Skaters Get Green Light

The Egyptian has received word from Rich Irvin, Campus Lake supervisor, that skating on the lake should be limited to the area behind Bayle Hall.

The ice is most solid in this area and equipment is available there in case of emergencies, he said. Other parts of the lake, especially the south end, are not safe for skating.

Union Tourneys Completed

The smoke of battle has cleared and another Student Union Tournament Week ended as finals in table tennis, bridge and billiards were completed Saturday.

Don Brewer, senior from Carbondale, came out on top in the grueling table tennis competition.

Bonnie Metrink, Belleville sophomore, and Don Wells, Venice senior, proved a winning combination in bridge.

Preliminary action was held at Thompson Point, Dowdell, Woody Hall, the VTI Student Center and the campus Union Feb. 8-18. Finalists from the different living quarters clashed Saturday at 1:30 p. m. in the Student Union to determine the winners.

Brewer and Bartlett were Student Union entries, and Metrink and Wells represented Thompson Point in the playoffs.

The winners are now eligible to participate in national competition, and if average scores are high enough they will be invited to attend the face-to-face Tournament at Purdue University.

Winners' trophies will be on display in the Union until Thursday, when they will be presented to the victors at freshman convocation.

White Stuff's Gotta Go

'Snow Good!'

By JAN ROSS
Staff Reporter

"I think it's beautiful—why isn't there more of it!"

This was Judy Reeb's answer to the question asked of several students: What do you think of the snow? She is a freshman from Deerfield. Other reactions follow.

Bonnie Jo Pollack, Cicero freshman, liked the snow too—with one qualification. "I'd rather use tennis rackets for playing tennis than for walking through drifts!" she said.

Sophomore Cindy Wheeler, from Jacksonville, sided with Bonnie, saying, "A little of it goes such a long way!"

"Anyone for a snowball fight?" was the only comment of Larry Essenpreis, Highland sophomore. Zelma Johnson said she liked snow, "but my favorite song is still 'Summerme'." Zelma is a senior from Terre Haute, Ind.

Dale Yerm, Effingham sophomore, thinks the snow would look a lot more beautiful—"on some other campus."

Jo Ann Jaffey says three cheers for ice skating and all that, but wants to know whose bright idea it was to make an ice slide out of the path through Thompson Woods. She is a Highland Park sophomore.

Carole Lybarger, Collinsville freshman, moaned, "I wish it would quit—I'm tired of ordering my meals out."

Senior Ted Calvin, also from Collinsville, had only one comment: "That snow has got to go!" he said emphatically.

Linda Platt, Monticello freshman, thinks the snow is a fine thing. "In fact, I'd love it if I were only co-ordinated enough to stand on my own two feet!"

AGRICULTURE STUDENTS MAKE ST. LOUIS TRIP

Twelve members of an SIU Class in grain marketing participated in a day-long field trip to the St. Louis Grain Exchange recently. The group, all agriculture students, observed grain trading activities. They also visited other grain marketing facilities in St. Louis during the day. Walter J. Anthony Hall On Magazine Cover?

SIU's Anthony Hall appeared on the cover of the February issue of "Adult Leadership," a monthly publication of the Adult Education Assn.

An inside article reviews the building's history, reflecting the growth of Southern. Built in 1912 as a girls' dormitory, it was converted into a men's dormitory for a brief period in the early '50s when enrollment began to explode. About this time the building acquired the nickname, "Agony Hall."

The building is now headquarters for the Division of Area Services, the Community Development Institute, the Department of Community Development and the Campus Police.

Developing grace of figure and poise of manner often depends upon proper body movement, according to Miss Eleanor K. Mathis, coordinator of the cosmetology department of SIU's Vocational Technical Institute.

Miss Mathis is teacher for a course currently being offered over WSIL-TV, Channel 3. Hartrberg, by the Division of Technical and Adult Education. The latest, programmed as "Reflections of Beauty" includes 20 lessons that cover every beauty subject from pedicures to hair styles.

Lesson five of the series will be shown at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow. Those enrolled receive an adult education certificate and study materials periodically throughout the session.

Foolproof Formula Simplifies Chemistry

Lucky Strike's Dr. Frood to the rescue:

Dear Dr. Frood: I am having a difficult time in chemistry. We are studying the chemical properties of acids, and I have become utterly confused. Can you help me understand any?

J. Bunsen Burner

Dear Dr. Frood: Exactly what is the difference between adult westerns and what I suppose you would call juvenile westerns?

Channel Selector

Dear Channel: It's the horses. The hero on juvenile westerns rides a pure white horse or a palomino. In adult westerns, the hero's horse is brown, sincere, mature-looking.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am going out for the college play and have become interested in the "Method" school of acting. Could you tell me how this differs from ordinary acting?

Thespis

Dear Thespis: It is all a matter of how you throw yourself into your part. For instance, when playing "Peter Pan" the ordinary actor flies through the air on guide wires. When the "Method" actor plays the role, wires are unnecessary.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am friendly, outgoing, tolerant, athletic, well to do and a good conversationalist. Why does everybody hate me?

Kla. Baptist Snuffs Out Salukis' Bid For National Basketball Title

Southern's basketball Salukis ended their '59-'60 season, Monday, losing to Oklahoma Baptist University, 75-71, in the first round of the single-elimination 32-team NAIA tournament at Kansas City, Mo.

Seeded third in the tourney, the Salukis' loss was considered an upset at the hands of the unrated Bisons of Oklahoma Baptist. SIU finished the campaign with a 20-9 record.

Coach Harry Gallatin's squad dominated play in the first half, leading by six at the intermission, 39-33.

Missed Last Seven
Charlie Vaughn, Southern's leading point producer, missed his last seven shots from the field and four free throw attempts that doomed Southern in the closing minutes of play. Vaughn wasn't the only one that couldn't find the range in the last half; if it hadn't been for fine defensive and offensive play by Harold Bardo in the last five minutes, SIU wouldn't have remained in contention.

Free throws iced the game for the Bisons as reserve Chuck Ruggles hit two charity tosses and Bill Rousey and Don Masters contributed one bonus try each to gain the winning four point margin.

Vaughn missed his first shot of a one-and-one situation that could have pulled the Salukis within one point, 74-72, with 22 seconds remaining; but he failed to hit the clutch attempt.

The game was tied three times in the second half with the last such occasion being 77-77 as Rousey hit his free throw to put Oklahoma Baptist ahead to stay.

With three seconds to play in the first half, Southern's Don Hepler picked up his fourth foul. Hepler did not start the second half; his absence was noted as SIU began to lose their domination on the backboards. He returned to play with nine minutes left in the game, but he was whistled for his fifth personal foul with 7:39 to go in play and left the game with four field goals for a total of eight points.

Numerous floor mistakes and an off-night from the field helped to end the season for the Salukis. Southern, known to be a running outfit, did not get one fast break on the Bisons.

Southern's biggest lead in the first half was eight points as Hepler connected from the corner with 3:05 left intermission. The game was close in the early minutes of play with SIU always holding at least a two-point lead.

The Salukis came out at the start of the second half as if they were going to run Oklahoma out of the Kansas City Auditorium; they opened up an eleven-point lead, 44-33, after only one minute and 13 seconds of play. Southern held an eight to ten point margin for the next 12 minutes.

The Bisons were not to be denied.

His captain, Masters, was a thorn in the side of Southern all night as he kept Oklahoma Baptist in the game with his scoring. Getting only eight points in first half, he came through with 19 in the last half to end the evening with 27 points and game scoring honors.

Vaughn was the leading scorer for Southern, despite his cold spells, with 25 points. He missed eight of 13 from the free throw line, and he also missed his last seven shots from the field in the first 20 minutes of play.

SIU hit on 41 per cent of their shots in the first half as compared to the Bison's 35 per cent. The Bisons won the game at the charity line, hitting 23 of 32, while the Salukis hit only 17 of 31 tries. Thus Southern outscored Oklahoma Baptist from the field 27-26, but this was not enough.

SIU Swimmers Hit National Tourney Trail

Coach Ralph Casey will be kept on the road, traveling successive weekends, going to the NAIA, NCAA, and the AAU swimming meets, starting next week.

Casey will take a 10-man squad with him to the NAIA at Ball State in Muncie, Indiana. "We have a reasonably good chance of winning the NAIA," declared Casey.

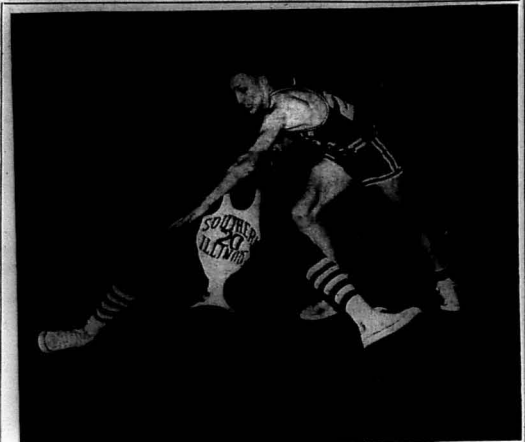

The NCAA competition is at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. Swimmers Norbert Rumpel and Walt Rodgers will represent Southern there. Rumpel is expected to place.

National AAU competition is at New Haven, Conn. Casey intends to take Rumpel, Rodgers, Ray Padovan, Mike Wilhelm, John Fishbeck or Jesse Ellis, and Ron Ballatore or Bob Steele. Rumpel won both the 100 and 220 titles last year at the AAU.

Charlie Vaughn... Saluki Record Setter

District 20

Vaughn Goes On NAIA Squad

SIU's Charlie Vaughn headlines the all-District 20 (Illinois) basketball team selected by the coaches and announced this week by John W. Massey, District 20 center, and at the guard position are Charlie Vaughn, Southern athletic director, Vaughn, first choice on the otherwise all senior squad.

Vaughn, 19-year-old sophomore from Tamm, has paced the Salukis and the District in scoring for the past two years. He received 29 of a possible 36 votes.

Coaches selected North Central's Dick Howard to team with Vaughn at the guard positions. Howard was second in scoring behind Charlie with a 20.8 scoring mark in last week's District averages.

Larry Gentry, Northern Illinois, and John Zuzevich, Quincy College, were chosen at the forwards and Grady McCollum, Western Illinois, Sr., 6-4 at center, and at the guard position are Bill McFoss, Western Illinois, and Buzz Shaw of ISNU at the guard posts.

Southern, with Vaughn and company, added another laurel to its fine team by retaining the NAIA District 20 'Illinois' scoring title from last year.

The Salukis poured through 2.16 points in 26 games for an 83.3 scoring mark. Coach Harry Gallatin's "pro-type offense" gained Southern a tie in IIAC play and the championship of the NAIA District 20 playoffs at North Central.

Southern averaged 88.5 points a game last year, while Illinois Wesleyan replaced Aurora College, last year's leader, as the top defensive team in the District. The Titans, winner of the experience gained covering the 10 varsity sports at Southern, are now two legs of the trophy.

Captain for La Casa was Dot McGregor, and top scorers were Turner 10, Johnson Hall's Carolyn was Sharon Farmer, and high scorers were Marilyn Coats—9, and Sharon Farmer—8.

THE LAST BROKEN BOARD

The last board has been broken over that funny little man's head at the top of this column. Right now he is packing his bags to move up to a position with more phone calls and more headaches. (Sometimes it would have been more appropriate if those were telephones rather than boards broken over his head.)

That little guy has been sitting up there for about two and a half years, and he has enjoyed almost every minute of it. It has also been the most profitable period in his college life.

He hasn't seen eye-to-eye on everything with the Department of Athletics or many other people for that matter. However, this seems almost an inevitable thing because when any department grows at the rapid pace that Southern's athletic department has been, it is bound to have growing pains and sometimes people (especially the guy at the top with a sore head) possibly are too critical.

However, he hasn't regretted a thing he has done. He has made some careless mistakes, but most people say that it is how one learns—by making mistakes. That is exactly why he took the job—to learn. And that is why Joe Gagie, the new sports editor has taken the job—to learn.

The "major" sports have also improved greatly. Abe Martin's baseball contingent has gone from the dorm of the conference to "weak" sport.

The improvement of some has been almost unbelievable. Gymnastics is an excellent example. In 1956 when Bill Meade came to Southern, the Saluki gymnasts were winless. In 1957-58 they improved with a couple victories. Meade then said that he would come very close to bringing a national title to Southern by 1961. I laughed to myself. Last year, SIU finished seventh in the nation, and this year it could finish in the top five. Next year who knows? Gymnastics isn't the only sport that's improved. Swimming has been turned into a powerful sport at Southern in just three short years. The SIU wrestling team improved from just three short years. The SIU wrestling team improved from just three short years. The SIU wrestling team improved from just three short years.

Saluki Gymnasts Favored For IAC Title; Frosh Compete In Central States AAU

The fight will be for second place, not first, when the IAC members gather at Central Michigan University for the annual gymnastics showdown today and tomorrow.

It is a common belief that the IAC championship is generally conceded to be in the hands of defending champ SIU, and Illinois Salukis will probably score at will against their five conference competitors.

Coach Bill Meade of Southern will take a 10-man squad with him to Mt. Pleasant, Mich. for the conference finale. At the same time he will send the contingent to the Central States AAU Invitational Championships at Hamilton, Ohio.

Representing SIU at the AAU tourney will be freshmen Fred Orlosky, Bruno Klaus, and Tim Phillips; and sophomore Bill Simms will complete the contingent. Orlosky, Klaus, and Simms are all-around performers while Phillips is a high bar and parallel bar specialist.

The University of Michigan is the defending AAU champ. "On the apparatus, the freshmen are stronger than the varsity," declared Meade. "But in a championship meet, the varsity is superior because of the tumblers and trampolinists," added the gymnasium mentor.

"We're favored to take first in every event; my Salukis are stronger in tournament championships than they are in dual meets," concluded Meade.

Remaining places are far from being so certain, however. Western Illinois, a distant second to Southern last year, comes into the meet with a strong entry, but Central Michigan and Eastern Illinois also will be making bids against their five conference competitors.

Illinois State, third last season, has slipped far down in the field while Eastern Michigan is expected to send only a skeleton crew to represent it. Northern Illinois will not enter this year.

Southern piled up a winning margin of over 100 points last season in taking its first conference title. This year the Salukis look even stronger.

In regular season competition Southern compiled a 9-4 record and all four losses were to Big Ten schools. In the victory column, they recorded wins over Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, and IAC members Central Michigan, Eastern Illinois, and Illinois State.

Heading the SIU attack are 1959 All-Americans Jack Wiley and Ed Foster. Behind them is the most polished group of gymnasts to ever compete in the conference.

Western Illinois brings the winningest record into the meet. Leathernecks, 1958 IAC champs,

To Saluki Gymnast Practice Brings Success

If the old adage of "practice makes perfect" is true then, SIU gymnast, Bob Kies, should be wearing that point of perfection.

Kies, a side horse specialist, will be one of the big guns for the Salukis today and tomorrow in the IAC gym meet at Mt. Pleasant Mich.

The St. Louis junior will also be a fine performer in Southern's favor as the Dogs travel to University Park Penn., next week end for the NCAA meet.

Kies is one of the most popular and well liked members of coach Bill Meade's squad. He averages from 60 to 70 routines every practice session. Bob thinks Meade is "one of the best coaches in the game," and that he is a "pusher" like good coaches have to be.

The easy-going junior attended Cleveland high school in St. Louis. He lettered in high school gymnastics under coach Ray Sanger. Southern's coach Bill Meade once said that Kies came to Southern just as an average high school gymnast, in fact not as good as some. Meade said after working with Bob for a little over a year that "he had never seen any gymnast improve as much as he did in that short period of time."

This year, after finishing seventh in the nation last season, Kies is a big threat to take the NCAA side horse title. Bob has been defeated only once in Southern's 13 dual meets and that was to the defending national champion Bill Buck of Iowa. In a recent meet in the Men's Gym against the University of Minnesota, Kies turned in a brilliant performance getting almost 94 out of a possible 100 points from the judges.

Kies says that the toughest meet that Southern has had this season have been against the Illinois and the Spartans of Michigan State. Southern split two meets with the Illini while losing to Michigan State by 10 points.

"Andy Kostick and Don Leas (two SIU assistant coaches) have really helped me," grinned Bob. He also rates teammate Gene Salmon high in the "help" department.

There seems to be little doubt in anyone's mind that tomorrow Bob Kies will bring another IAC week? Who knows he may bring the NCAA gold medal home.

A high school graduate who did not rank in the top three-fourths of his class is granted probational admission to the University.

All changes of address should be reported to the Registrar's Office.

Spring Roundup Southern's Schedules Announced

By Joe Gagis Sports Reporter

SIU's spring sports schedule is headlined by many formidable foes. Baseball, track, and golf have impressive slates but the Saluki tennis squad meet the tops in the country.

Coach Glenn "Abe" Martin isn't too happy with the weather these days. Martin, Southern's baseball coach, has his eye on the season opener March 21, on their southern trip, and his squad has had limited practice because of the snow.

"We've been handicapped with no place for indoor practice, and since we haven't a batting cage, we have no idea who will be my outfielders," said "Abe."

The Saluki baseball team are the defending IAC conference champs. Last year they compiled a 21-7 mark and finished fourth in the NAIA double elimination tournament.

"Pitching will be our strongest department, but I need a catcher, first baseman, third baseman, and two outfielders," stated Martin.

Coach Martin hopes to find some freshmen to fill the gaps in his lineup. Outstanding freshmen candidates are three base-men Dave Leonard, catcher Dave Carnaghi, second baseman Dennis Harley, and first basemen Paul Catalano and Ron Schaefer.

Martin says that Northern Illinois will be their toughest foe in the conference, since NIU has their entire squad returning. J. W. Sanders, a graduate student and last year's all-conference catcher, assists Martin.

Non-conference teams on the schedule include Southeast Missouri, Wheaton, Evansville, Washington University, and Bradley University. On their trip south, they encounter Southeastern Louisiana, Loyola University, and Nicholls State College.

The schedule:

Southern's tennis schedule leaves nothing to be desired except that the Saluki netters play more meets at home. Coach Dick Le Fevre's squad start spring season with a trip March 19 with a meet at Alabama.

In compiling an 11-3 mark last year, they had wins over Iowa, the then defending Big Ten champs, and Kenyon College (the Ohio Conference champs). The Salukis also took the IAC Conference title in the first four positions and in the doubles.

"This year our team is better balanced," said Le Fevre. "The weather has halted our challenge matches, which determine the six men who will make the spring tour," continued Le Fevre.

Gone from last year's squad are Captain Jim Jarrett, Marvin Cohen, and Jerry Green; the number two, four, and six men. Returnees are Captain Ron Underwood; Jerry Budzelek, the number one man; Dick King; Arnie Cabrera; and John Taylor may join the team after the gymnastic season is completed.

Le Fevre hopes to receive additional help from freshmen brothers Roy and Bob Sprengelmeyer and sophomore George Domenech, who just gained eligibility.

The schedule headlines such top colleges as Vanderbilt, Bradley, Iowa, and Notre Dame who is the defending NCAA champ; on their spring trip they will encounter such stalwarts as Alabama, Florida State, Minnesota, Florida, Mississippi Southern, Georgia, and Tennessee.

Coach Leland "Doc" Lingle's tracksters open up their 1960 season, April 2, with hopes of going undefeated again this year. Last year's squad were undefeated in dual meet competition and also reigned as the state champions.

"Doc" entered Doctor's Hospital last week with a severe case of asthma; his condition was critical for a time, but he is presently recovering. It appears doubtful that he will coach this spring, so Dr. Andrew Vaughan has temporarily taken over his duties. Vaughan was once coach for last year's football team.

The track team will participate in the Kansas Relays, the State Meet, the IAC Meet, and meet Southeast Missouri, Missouri School of Mines, Eastern Illinois, Washington University, and Illinois State Normal in dual competition.

The "Boaring 20's" were brought back for a few hours Sunday when the Tekes and the DZ's got together. The event was an exchange party held at the Teke house.

Ukes played by several of the girls provided the background for group singing in the "20's" style, and costumes added to the occasion's spirit.

The national interior decorator is visiting the house today to give suggestions for the new house.

All active members of the sorority took their annual national exam during meeting Monday. This was the new officers' first meeting, and was the first active

APQ WORKS ON MARCH OF DIMES
Members of Alpha Phi Omega's Girls' Rally will spend Saturday afternoon writing and packing materials for the March of Dimes Crusade that will take place during the Illinois high schools. The fraternity is now involved in the Ugly Man Contest, for which many entries were received. They are set up in the Union and voting ends today. Although a service organization, Girls' Rally takes part in social events such as Homecoming and Spring Festival and works jointly with APO for many projects. The most familiar Girls' Rally projects are the official Girls' Rally Campus Calendar and the traditional Homecoming Mums Sales.

In the near future, the group hopes to become affiliated with Gamma Sigma Sigma, the national service sorority.

The open meeting will be a purely social event with refreshments and entertainment. Members of APO will assist with the meeting. It will be held at 9 p.m. in the lounge of the Home Economics Building.
