MEMORIAL DAY

Warriors and warbirds of America fight on to honor and avenge those who have fallen in freedom's fight

A CRUEL MOCKERY

One of the most ludicrous farces in campus history is now in the process of being enacted here at Southern. Last week, at an election of the Student Council, members were chosen to that astute body on the assumption of a total of fourteen votes. This, in itself, a unique manifestation of the will of the majority, when a rise to power can be achieved so cheaply. Evidently the student body of S. I. N. U. was not cognizant of the fact that they have a definite role to perform for Southern by choosing able and representative leaders, as these leaders will shape the policies of the student body which will in turn, reflect directly upon the college as a whole. However, this has not been the attitude of most of the S.I.N.U. students, since the majority seem to have acquiesced in having a council, composed of either appointees or small clique pressure groups. True, S. I. N. U. does not have the advantages of her former leaders—the ravages of the war have left their mark. But how is democracy to survive in any walk of life if other leaders are not ready to take their places. The students who remain to carry on at Southern should not be considered as mere stop gaps, but as initiators who will readily assume responsibility and acquit themselves in an admirable fashion.

During the past year those leaders who sought to inspire campus activity and to perform the perfunctory duties assigned to them have allowed the sands to run dangerously low. It might be said that their innocuous tendencies have allowed to be established a precedent that bodes no good for future S. I. N. U. democracy.

These tendencies have reached the stage of so complete an indifference that campus elections are being managed, devoid of electioneering. The character of the last election, which has received so strong an indictment in past paragraphs, is such that any member of the student body could contest the recent balloting if he so desired. Fortunately, inertia prevails.

It is usually customary on such occasions as this to wear black—and a wide-awake student might bring forth the coffin—for so surely has democracy at Southern been laid to rest.

IN REQUIEM

With the final effort of the present Egyptian staff now in your hands, the chaotic year of 1942-43 at Southern has drawn to a close. To those who have labored to bring you a readable weekly, this year has been a particularly significant one. As journalists we have enjoyed many a scoop, have tweaked the nose of many a faculty member, have fought for all the causes which we have believed to have been worthy, and in total have had a hell of a time preparing this issue for your consumption every Friday morning.

The Egyptian, like any other campus organization, has been hard hit by the war. Nevertheless, the same traditions which have made Southern an eminent teacher's college and now a potential liberal arts university have also prevailed in regard to the

DR. GRIFFITH AN ENIGMA

Current news reports disseminating from Springfield denote a panic in anti-U.S.I. headquarters with the announcement by Dr. Griffiths of the pseudo-facts and ambiguous figures club, that the modified U.S.I. bill is even more dangerous than the original bill. It is now more than ever apparent that the ghost war, as Senator Libonati so labeled the antics of the opposition, is now attempting to find and fight bigger and better haunts. Dr. Griffith has conjured up an awesome picture when he intimates that this tiny university in Little Egypt is pulling the silken cord about the neck of her sister institution by endeavoring to promote the general welfare of Southern Illinois.

Dangers of conflict, jealousy, rivalry and overlapping which have been pointed out by critics of the original bills have been made explicitly possible by the amended bill. Thusly has the elastic clause of bill No. 6 been interpreted by Dr. Griffith.

It might be well to point out that during past skirmishes Dr. Griffith is on record as saying that "a university of Southern Illinois would be an unnecessary duplication of facilities already possessed by the University of Illinois." It would seem from these discourses that Dr. Griffith is harboring a definite prejudice toward expanding educational policies in the state of Illinois and that this aversion has become almost an allergy where S.I.N.U. is concerned.

THE CASE FOR A LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE AT S.I.N.U.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NORMAL UNIVERSITY SHOULD BE CONVERTED INTO THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN ILLINOIS BECAUSE . . .

- I. The people of Southern Illinois do not have the educational opportunities available to other citizens of the state.
II. Many young people in Southern Illinois do not especially want to teach, but cannot afford to go elsewhere for advanced training in their special fields.
III. The people of Southern Illinois need and deserve an educated leadership.
IV. Southern Illinois is a region worth developing.
V. The people of Southern Illinois need and deserve vocational training.

- VI. The people of Southern Illinois need and deserve a center for preserving and developing the cultural life of the region.
VII. Southern Illinois Normal University can no longer honestly function as a school for teacher training only.
VIII. The whole state of Illinois would benefit from improved opportunities for education in Southern Illinois.
IX. Conversion now would cost little.
X. The post-war period will bring new problems to the region—problems which only a university can handle and which it must prepare to solve.
XI. The best place in which to keep Illinois abreast of broad educational advance is Southern Illinois, for it offers unique opportunities for regional services, experimentation, and pioneering developments.

ABOUT IT AND ABOUT

By TOM STEPHENSON

During the past months many people, including senators and representatives, have been raising the cry that we should devote the major part of our war effort to the Asiatic theatre. There have been remarks saying that if we open as much as 5% of our aircraft production were placed at Mr. Arthur's disposal he would soon be able to launch great offensives against the Japs and push them back steadily. It was assumed by those people apparently, that over 85% of our aircraft production was going to the European theatre.

This mistaken assumption was corrected the other day when Prime Minister Churchill mentioned in his address to Congress that the majority of the U. S. armed forces outside the continental U. S. were in the Pacific area. President Roosevelt confirmed this later at a press conference. He said that over 90% of our forces outside the U. S. were in the Pacific area, and that airplane was the major part of the effort of the United Nations as a whole is engaged in Europe. The strategy is to break Hitler first, then Japan. This is certainly wiser than trying to break them both simultaneously. Russia has received more lend-lease material than any other country, with England a second. China has received so little, not entirely because of strategy, but because of the military and geographical difficulties which exist.

To date we have been forced to disperse our great strength. Added to this is the great shipping difficulties which involve the element of time. The growing menace rears its ugly head in the war zones. We are all expecting the second front. And after that the crushing of Nazi power in Europe. When this occurs we no longer have to disperse our strength, but can concentrate it against Japan, together with our allies, Britain, China and probably Russia. It doesn't seem possible that the Japanese could hold out very long.

Commencement Instructions

June, 1943

On Baccalaureate Sunday and Commencement day the faculty will meet in the new gymnasium to meet in line for the Academic Procession. The members will march in the order given in the catalog. In case of rain the faculty will meet in the Old Gymnasium.

The candidates for the degree will meet in the Main Building; the May graduates on the second floor; the July graduates on the first floor, north end and the August graduates on the first floor, south end. Each group will form in alphabetical line beginning at the central stairway.

The order will be the same for both Baccalaureate and Commencement. He presert by 4:30 p. m. Sunday, May 30 and by 9:00 a. m. on Friday morning, June 4.

In regard to Academic Customs, the cap is an essential part of the academic dress and is to be retained on the head throughout all academic exercises except our "leg prayers." The position of the tassel has little or no significance for the sake of uniformity the tassel should be placed so as to hang over the left front of the cap. Also, for the same of appearance, the top of the cap should be parallel with the floor.

At the end of the Processional everyone should remain standing until after the invocation. When all have marched in and are in place, the President will remove his cap at which time all need should do the same. After the invocation all should be seated, the men replacing their caps. After 10:00 a. m. the address of all degree candidates will arise on signal. The place is suggested, the degrees are conferred and the diplomas presented as the students walk across the stage. All should remain standing until everyone is back in place. In case of doing, all should look to the marshals for information.

The diplomas will be presented directly. To avoid errors, each candidate should give his name to the person presenting him the diploma. Those who do not finish until May and August will receive empty covers. These should be returned to the Registrar's Office immediately after the exercises. Students who fail to do this will receive diplomas without covers in July and August.

A Rebuttal of the Case for USI TO THE CARBONDALE KIDS

(FROM THE D AILY ILLINOIS)

With USI measures apparently losing ground in the state legislature, non-legislative proponents of the bill gave the measure a shot in the arm by sending four co-eds—whom the legislators promptly dubbed "sweater girls"—to Springfield to plead for the cause.

We hope the legislators won't allow their heads to be turned by this Lana-Turnerish display. And haven't the proponents of the bill taken into consideration that this action might be "prejudicial to the best interests" of the University of Southern Illinois?

Inasmuch as the "Carbondale kids" are determined to make a show of it, may we recommend for their earnest consideration the following acts, designed to make friends and influence legislators:

- (1) A chorus line of 20 dazzling, dashing co-eds to do a can-can on the rostrum.
(2) Solicitation of personal telegrams in behalf of the USI from "Cherry Blossom" of Lil Abner fame, W. C. Fields, and the Hobo News.
(3) A fraternity serenade beneath the windows of the Lincoln and St. Nicholas hotels in Springfield.
(4) A strong, healthy display of ping-pong to exhibit the athletic prowess of the University of Southern Illinois.
(5)—Presentation of the advantages of how duplication of educational services will benefit the state of Illinois.

When USI proponents use such methods of display and exhibition to support their demands, they are merely manifesting their admiration that they have very little logical and substantial evidence to back their case. Yes, sex has definitely replaced ping-pong as America's favorite indoor sport.

Southern Scribes

In a program at Spring Hill College, Alabama, exactly identical to that which S.I.N.U. is offering its aviation cadet candidates of the 6th College Training Detachment, are Delmar Lovell and Artemon Johnson. Southerners who worked together for some time in the college film service. Four other fellows from S.I.N.U. at the same school are Harold Harres, M. J. Gingrich, Joe Gregurich, and Donald Gladson.

Johnson writes of Spring Hill College (otherwise known as "Fountain Mountain"); "Spring Hill College is located in a suburb six miles from Mobile, Alabama. The main feature of the school is that it is a Catholic boys' school with a good pre-medical department. It may interest Dr. Neckers, Dr. Abbott, and Dr. Van Leuzen to know that I found a copy of "Experimental College Chemistry" here in the chemistry department."

"About to become a 'Southerner' in fact, Johnson confesses that were it cooler he would love the south because 'The southern families and their daughters are very friendly. I am trying to keep my guard up, to prevent becoming a rebel.'"

Lovell insists that "S.I.N.U. can hold her place among the best colleges in the country. We have fellows here from the University of Wisconsin, University of Chicago, Yale, and from all the teachers' colleges in Illinois. I think S.I.N.U. has them beat on how it treats her 'bottleful alumni.'"

"Note to the circulation manager: Please see that A.C.'s Lovell receives a copy each week regularly."

Carol Rich, '36, Appointed Lt. Junior Grade, U.S.N.R.

St. Louis, Mo. — Another Southern Illinois Normal University Alumna will soon be wearing the gold braid of a Navy officer. Carol E. Rich, of Anna, Ill., a graduate of S.I.N.U. with the class of '36, has been appointed Lieutenant (Junior grade) in the United States Naval Reserve and was sworn in at the St. Louis Office of Naval Officer Procurement May 24. He is expecting orders to active duty, probably to an indoctrination school, soon.

In announcing Lieutenant Rich's appointment, Lieutenant-Commander Hugh MacMillan, officer-in-charge of the St. Louis procurement activity, said many S.I.N.U. graduates are apparently unaware of the opportunities offered by the Naval Reserve and that commissions in the USNR are available directly from civilian life.

Commander MacMillan invited those who believe they are qualified to serve as Navy officers to present their qualifications to his office either by letter or in person. Lieutenant Rich, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rich of Anna, has, for the past 14 months, served as an instructor in radio mechanics at the Air Force Technical School, Fort Rucker, Ala. He has a brother, Lieutenant Thomas S. Rich, serving with the army.

MacLeod To Instruct Two Classes At S.I.N.U.

Norman MacLeod, noted poet, author, lecturer, and teacher, who has been secured as post-graduate for the first summer session at Southern Illinois Normal University, will teach two courses in the English department — American poetry No. 305; the other, Modern Literature No. 212.

American poetry, a senior college course, deals with the great poets from 1600 to 1930. Modern Literature, a junior college course, includes the poetry, short stories, essays, novels, and plays of the present century. Mr. MacLeod has had a great deal of teaching experience in these types of literature.

Well-established in contemporary literary circles, Mr. MacLeod is the author of six books. His poetry has been translated into six different languages and published in over fifteen foreign countries. The college English department feels itself fortunate in having such a distinguished presence on the campus and it is hoped that as many people as possible will take advantage of the opportunity of studying under Mr. MacLeod.
