"Music Under the Stars," a galaxy of more than 2,000 Southern Illinois musical stars, will be presented in the second Southern Illinois Music festival to be staged in McAndrew stadium tomorrow night at 7:30, under supervision of Floyd V. Wakeland, associate professor of music at Southern.

Greeks To Celebrate Annual Greek Week Beginning May 16

Southern's annual Greek Week will be celebrated by the sororities and fraternities next week beginning on Wednesday and ending Sunday. Greek Week will get under way with the presentation of the Greek Sing contest to be held on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in front of Shryock auditorium. The public is invited to attend the Sing.

Awards for the "Most Valuable Sorority Girl" and "Most Valuable Fraternity Man" will be presented at the dance. Also, other awards earned by organizations during Greek Week will be presented.

Then on Sunday, May 20, the final day of Greek Week, the three sororities will combine to sponsor a formal tea in the Little Theatre from 2 to 4 p.m. Beginning at 5:30 p.m. three card tournaments will be held. Megeff Wins Second In Oratorical Contest

Norman Megeff, freshman from Granite City, won second place in the first regional Newspaper's Oratorical Contest which was held in Chicago last Thursday. First place went to a student from Loyola University. All students entered in the contest had to speak on the same subject, "George Washington, Father of His Country." Fourteen schools were originally represented in this contest.

The program, with President D. W. Morris as master of ceremonies, will open with the presentation of the honored musician of the year, Mrs. J. Clark Phillips, who has devoted more than a half-century in the service of music in the area. She accepted a position as chairman of the violin department at Ewing college in 1907.

Later she studied violin at Milan and Prague, and spent several years in concert work and as soloist upon her return to the United States. At the same time, she became known as a music critic for St. Louis, Chicago and other mid-western newspapers.

SOUTHERN ALUM Mrs. Harold Taylor, who has distinguished herself in concerts here as a vocalist, will be featured student of the honored musician. She will give evidence of her versatility by playing two violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. Hunt Mitchell.

While a student at Southern, Mrs. Taylor played with the orchestra and sang in both the a cappella choir and Madrigals. Since graduation she has taught for seven years—at the university on a part-time basis for three. She is presently a violinist in the Southern Illinois Symphony orchestra. She will present Sarasate's "Les Adeaux" and Schubert's "Ava Maria."

The Southern Illinois Symphony orchestra will play the overture to "Oberon," by Weber, and the tone poem "Finlandia," by Sibelius, under the baton of guest director C. B. Nesler. Beginning in 1929, Nesler has been building bands in Herrin for more than two decades. In 1933 he became director of elementary school instrumental music and has since introduced thousands of Herrin students to their first experience in formal music.

FOLLOWING THE orchestra, a massed Madrigal group of 100 singers dressed in Elizabethan costumes will sing three numbers, including "Now is the Month of Maying," Morley; "Rest Sweet Nymphs," Pilkington; and "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves," by Purcell.

The honored soloist of the evening, Miss Helen Spann, is a native of Anna. Having made appearances on radio, television, in opera, and in movies, Miss Spann has been hailed by critics as one of the most versatile of America's young artists. She appeared on a program over NBC for two years, has sung operatic roles in New York and Los Angeles, and was the singing

New Orleans Painter To Have Exhibit Here

Representative works of Leonard Flettrich, talented young New Orleans painter, will be exhibited here at Southern for two weeks beginning Sunday in the artist's first major show outside his home state.

The exhibition in the art gallery of Old Main building will include 22 oils and about 15 sketches.

Flettrich's paintings are versatile, offering a wide range of form and color, but the artist's motives are consistent. He paints only general or religious themes and there is an element of tragedy in all of them, either expressed frankly or inferred with subtleties.

Burnett Shryock, chairman of the art department, engineered the show here. He was director of the New Orleans Academy of Art a few years ago when Flettrich was on the teaching faculty.

Flettrich will be on campus during part of the exhibit and will give lectures to art students.

No Affidavit Required

Nominations for Student Council members, and for homecoming chairman, will be held Tuesday, May 15.

Don't just say "I'll wait and vote in the elections, because everyone always gets nominated anyhow." In the past, some really promising prospects have been cut off in the nominations because they received eight or nine votes, instead of the required ten—because some would-be voters took it for granted that their candidate would be nominated without any personal help from them.

To vote at SIU, you don't even have to sign an affidavit swearing that you are a Carbondale resident. You just have to have your activity ticket with you.

Better check page 1 of this issue for requirements of candidates for nomination.

ALSO IN CONNECTION with voting, another problem always arises—the problem of which class in which to vote.

The answer is: If you are a freshman now, but will be a sophomore next fall or winter, vote for sophomore student council members. (Don't worry about next year's freshmen representatives. They will be chosen next fall by the personnel deans from the new freshmen.)

If you are a sophomore now, but will be a junior next fall or winter, vote for junior representatives. If you are a junior, but will be a senior next fall or winter, or if you are now a senior who will be back in school next year, vote for senior class representatives.

If you are a graduating senior, don't vote, period. Just accept our congratulations for a successful struggle. V. M.

voice of Linda Darnell in the movie, "Everybody Does It."

Miss Spann will also be accompanied by Mrs. Mitchell. She will sing "Un Bel di Vedremo," from "Madame Butterfly," by Puccini; "Go 'Way from my Window," an Appalachian folk song arranged by Niles; and "Love Went A-Riding," by Bridge.

THE ELEMENTARY chorus and band and high school band for the festival performance were selected from the top 20 percent in the respective organizations in the area schools. From these lists, a group of 1,000 singers from elementary schools (fifth to eighth grades), 250 elementary bandmen, and 210 high school bandmen were assembled.

Mrs. Glen Morris will direct the elementary band: First as a teacher of piano and later in the public schools, Mrs. Morris has been training young musicians for 20 years. She has served as director of instrumental music in the Carbonale city schools for the past eight years, and is chairman of the southern district of the Illinois Grade School Band association. The elementary band will play "Commanding Officer March," by Frang-kiser; "Hymn of Freedom," Tol-mage; "Sun Valley Mountains," Ogden; and "Washington Post March," Sousa. The last number will also feature baton twirling by "Sugar" Beninati, Pinckneyville.

The elementary chorus will sing "Bless This House," by Brahe-Taylor, and "Barn Dance," Elliott, directed by Mrs. Mary Swindell, who has devoted herself to public school music for 16 years. As supervisor of vocal music in the Carbonale elementary schools, she has more than 1,000 students in four schools under her supervision. She also directs an elementary school choir of 125 voices, a junior high school girls chorus of 60 voices, and junior high school boys chorus of 40 voices. As this year's chairman of the Southern Illinois Vocal association, she made arrangements for the annual festival and concert.

MRS. SWINDELL and Wake-land will conduct a combined elementary, junior, senior, and boys chorus in three numbers, including "Snow White Fantasy," arranged by Wilson; "List the Cherubie Hosts," Gaul; and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You," by Lutkin. This will be followed by two dances—"The Spanish Circle" and "Varsovienne"—by a university folk dance group, under direction of Miss Roberta Wheeler.

Under the direction of John Schork, the high school chorus will sing "A New World," Savino; "150th Psalm," Lewandowski; and "Set Down Servant," arranged by Waring. Schork has been contributing to Southern Illinois music since 1937. Before coming to Harrisburg high school as director of vocal music, he was director and supervisor of public school music for seven years. During this time, he sang leading tenor roles in productions of "Faust," "Bartered Bride," "Martha," and several other operas as well as oratorios. During the war he directed military choirs for both Catholic and Protestant services. He was supervisor of entertainment for men overseas, including USO activities.

THE HIGH SCHOOL band will perform three numbers under the baton of Theodore Paschedag, who has played an important role in Southern Illinois music since 1930. He organized many of the bands which have become some of the finest in the state, including organizations at West Frankfort, Mt. Vernon, Benton, Du Quoin, and Golconda.

He began his career at West Frankfort in 1931 and is still serving as director of instrumental music there. He has also served as president of state and regional music associations. In the field of competition, his bands have never lost a district contest in Southern Illinois. The band will present Haydn's "Orlando Palandrino," Bennett's "Broadcast from Brazil," and Sousa's "Fairest of the Fair." On the last number, a group of Southern Illinois twirlers, under the supervision of Louis Waters of Southon, will perform.

CLIMAXING the program, Burl Ives, native of Newton who has distinguished himself as a singer of folk songs throughout America, will present a 30-minute program of songs and comments. Ives has appeared on radio, television, and recordings, as well as in a number of films and stage productions.

Concluding the program, the combined choirs and bands will perform Wilhousky's arrangement of "Battle Hymn of the Republic" under the direction of Paschedag and Schork.

University and university school students will be admitted to the festival upon presentation of their activity tickets. In case of rain, Ives will present a concert in Shrovet auditorium, and the festival will be postponed until Sunday evening. In case of bad weather all weekend, further postponement will be made until next week. Announcements of any postponements will be made over area radio stations tomorrow.

Zoology Students Make Special Field Trip

Southern zoology students left today on a special field trip to Tiptonville, Tenn., to make a first-hand study of birds and wildlife in the area.

Miss Hilda Stein, associate professor of zoology, has been conducting annual field trips along the same route since 1930.

In addition to Miss Stein, faculty members accompanying the students on the trip are Dr. Willard M. Gersbacher, chairman of the department, and Dr. Reino S. Freeman, assistant professor of zoology. There are 36 students taking the trip.

Hours that the Student Center is open as follows:

Weekdays—8 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Saturdays—1 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Sundays—3 p.m. to 6 p.m.

AFROTC Students May Be Deferred

Students enrolled under the Air Force ROTC program at Southern may be eligible for deferment from military service and may qualify for commissions upon graduation, Clark Davis, dean of men, has reported.

Selected students between the ages of 18 and 26 who are enrolled in degree-granting courses of study may be deferred for the school year, Davis said. In addition, the student who ranks high in his class academically and shows a potentiality for leadership is virtually assured of deferment from military service until completion of his college education. Enrollment quotas and deferment quotas have not yet been determined.

The college freshman enrolled in the AFROTC next fall at Southern will study leadership, drill, exercise of command, and other basic military subjects in his first year. For sophomores military study will include aerodynamics and propulsion, weather, navigation, and applied air power, in addition to basic subjects. There will be two class meetings and one drill period each week.

SOUTHERN'S STUDENTS will be required to wear uniforms only during drill periods. The students will continue to take physical education as a part of their regular curriculum.

When a student finishes his first two years of ROTC training, he will be eligible to apply for admission to the advanced course. Applicants will be selected by Southern's president, D. W. Morris, and the professor of air science and tactics. A student selected for advanced work will sign an agreement to continue in the ROTC during the remainder of his undergraduate courses and to attend summer camp when ordered to do so.

While a student is completing junior and senior years, he is entitled to a monetary allowance, and when he attends summer camp for six weeks, he is paid $75 per month.

In Southern's Reserve Officer Training Corps advanced course, which comprises the third and fourth years of academic study, the student specializes in one of the Air Force career fields.

When SIU students have completed their four years in the AF ROTC they will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the United States Air Force Reserve.

New SIU Honor Society Elects Officers, Members

Southern's new Honor Society, which was just recently established, has elected officers for the next year. They are as follows: W. C. McDaniel, chairman of the mathematics department, president; Dr. Vera Peacock, chairman of the foreign language department, vice-president; and Dr. A. H. Black, associate professor of mathematics, secretary-treasurer.

A group of seniors and graduate students have been elected to membership in the society. These students will be notified within a few days, and the list of names will be announced after their acceptances are received.

Initiates will be entertained by the society on Thursday, May 24, at the Giant City Lodge.

Students May Take Outdoor Courses

High school and college students will be able to attend summer school out-of-doors by taking courses to be offered by Southern in state and federal recreation areas.

At Little Grassy Lake, high school students will camp outdoors for one week periods while they study botany, geography, zoology, conservation or other courses which deal largely with nature.

University students may spend seven weeks at an open air education laboratory in Giant City State Park, from June 11 to August 3. They will be allowed 12 quarter hours of credit in courses similar to those planned on the high school level. They will pay $11 a week for room and board at Giant City during the seven weeks.

Purpose of the camps, according to W. H. Freeberg, assistant professor of physical education, is to give students experiences in primitive camp life while they learn about nature by observation and organized academic training.

Between classes, students will study fish and wildlife management and soil conservation. Other activities will include boating, swimming, camp craft, nature lore, hiking and campfire programs.

INDEPENDENTS TO SPONSOR HAY RIDE TUESDAY

The Independent Student Association is sponsoring a hay ride and wiener roast for all members Tuesday, May 15. Students planning to attend should meet at the Cafeteria at 7 p.m. A charge of 25 cents per person will be made.

Jim Alexander, Track's Versatile Point-Getter

By Jim Turpin

Probably the most valuable man on the 1951 track team of Coach Leland Lingle is unsung Jim Alexander, who has been consistently rolling along this year piling up team points and going virtually unnoticed.

In the first meet of the season with Cape, Alexander's stellar performance was overshadowed by a record breaking two mile run by Phil Coleman.

In the Eastern meet, three weeks later, Alexander was easily the outstanding performer of the meet as he captured the broad jump, the high hurdles and the low hurdles for fifteen team points.

IN THE SECOND meeting with Cape, Alex again took three first places, but again it was Coleman's record run and a great halfmile by Larry Taliana that took the glory from his wins.

Last week the Herrin Wonder Boy did it again with three first places in his specialties against Illinois Normal. In three meets he piled up 45 team points, a great record.

These wins have come as a reward to Jim Alexander, a climax to a long and tedious training grinds that have kept him in the best of shape and ready to go whenever and wherever the coach and team needs him.

HE GAVE notice in 1949 when he leaped to a new broad jump record of 23'7 1/2". Observers say that he fell back on this jump and thus did not receive credit for the actual distance.

Since then he has not approached this mark and oftentimes jumps only far enough to win, because he knows that he must save some energy for the other events. In one meet this year he jumped once and won.

It is time that credit be given where credit is due, a salute to a great trackster, Jim Alexander.

JIM ALEXANDER, the young track star from Herrin, is shown above as he went 21 feet, 7 1/2 inches in a jump against Eastern State. Alexander also runs the high and low hurdles for Southern's track team, and consistently places first in three events.

Tennis Team Wins Third In a Row

The Southern Illinois University tennis team downed Cape Girardeau easily 5-2 last Monday as all five singles men swept to overwhelming victories.

The win made it three in a row for the Maroon netsters. They had previously dumped St. Louis U. 4-3 in a return match and had whitewashed Cape 7-0 in their first meeting at the Missouri school.

None of the matches in singles play were even close as the Maroons were too classy for Cape. The best set was the opening one of the Omar Winter-Bob Howard match that was won by the Carmi freshman 8-6. The lead changed hands several times and Winter fought hard with expertly placed shots to gain a well earned victory. Apparently the long match tired the Cape lad because Winter swept to an easy win in the second set 6-0.

JACK NORMAN was also an easy two set winner 6-1, 6-1. Norman lost the opening game of the first set, but was in command all the way after that. His opponent exclaimed after the match, "Jack has a great forehand, it just hits and dies, doesn't hardly bounce at all."

Stan Cooper and Jim Soliday, the other two of the freshman trio from Carmi, won without any trouble. Cooper didn't hardly work up a sweat in beating his opponent, but later received a shoulder injury while batting the ball with Winter. The extent of the injury is not known, although it is believed to be not serious.

Bob Barnhart looked good in a two set win over his number four opponent.

With Southern leading 5-0 going into the doubles matches, Coach Bill Freeburg decided to let some of the other varsity tennis candidates play in the doubles. Bob Wichman and Carol Carr teamed up in number one doubles and Bruce Lape and Charles Rodgers were the number two men. Both combinations were beaten by Cape.

Greek Week Tourneys Held In Four Sports

By Jim Kahmann

Plans for competitive sports, in conjunction with Greek Week, May 16-20, officially got underway this week, and will continue through next Thursday, May 18, according to Jim Throgmorton. Throgmorton, chairman of Greek Week sports, announced that playoffs will be held in tennis, softball, volleyball, and track.

In addition to the men's sports, there will also be a women's archery tourney held under the direction of Roberta Wheeler, instructor in physical education for women.

A single elimination tournament will be held in tennis, softball, and volleyball. In track, there will be a regular track meet held at 3 p.m. Wednesday, May 16 in McAndrew stadium. Preliminaries will be run off Tuesday at 4 p.m. in the 100, 220, 440, 120 highs, and 200 lows. All fraternities wishing to enter men for the track meet should contact Throgmorton at the Chi Delt house.

In the track runoffs, one man may enter only three events. If a man is eliminated in one event in the preliminaries, he can enter but two additional events, according to this plan.

Tennis playoffs are to be held on the agreement of the individual fraternities. Both singles and doubles matches will be held this year. The entire volleyball tournament will be held Tuesday, May 15, in the Men's gym at 7 p.m. A team will be composed of six men, and all the fraternities are asked to have their teams at the Men's gym next Tuesday promptly at 7.

Softball play-offs started yesterday, and are to continue through next Thursday, when the final game is to be held on the old football field at 4:30 p.m. All softball games will be held through the co-operation of the men's physical education department.

Points will be awarded in this manner: Track: 1st—3 points; 2nd—2 points; 3rd—1 point; 4th—1/2 point. Softball: Winner of each game—6 points; Loser—1 point. Volleyball: Winner of each game—4 points; Loser—3/4 point. Tennis: Winner—3 points; Loser—1/2 point.

According to this point system, the track meet possesses the largest possibilities for points. However, during Greek Week, the track events usually are given the most emphasis.
