Present Part of 'Music Under the Stars', To Present Modern Postpone Remainder of Festival Program Dance Concert Here

Only a portion of the Southern Illinois Music Festival, "Music Under the Stars," was presented to a capacity crowd in McAndrew Stadium last Saturday night. Approximately half of the program was postponed until May 17, because of rain.

Following the "Star-Spangled Banner" by the Southern Illinois high school band under the direction of Lawrence Kaney, Mt. Vernon, and the flag raising ceremony by Southern's AF ROTC unit, SIU President Delyte Morris presented the welcoming address.

Mrs. H. O. Pope, DuQuoin, the honored musician of the Music Festival, was presented to the audience by President Morris. Mrs. Pope has been prominent in musical work in Southern Illinois for over 46 years. A tea in her honor was held at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Student Center.

ganizations, the junior elementary chorus and the senior elementary chorus sang "Country Garden" and "My Johann." Both the junior and senior elementary chorus combined under the direction of Miss Betty Boatright, Herrin, in their presentation of "This Is My Country" by Jacobs-Scott.

A May-pole dance by students of the Anna-Jonesbofo high school, preceded the presentation of the winner of the music contest held Saturday morning.

Helen Cox, Belleville student, winner of the Festival contest, then presented her winning selection, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint Saens.

Under the direction of C. B. Nesler, the elementary band presented three selections, "Sunnyland Overture," "La Hora Pan Americana," and "Manhattan Beach March."

"Sugar" Beninati, solo baton twirler from Pinckneyville, performed with the massed elementary band. She has performed in Holland and for many other organizations throughout the United States.

The remainder of the program was postponed with the exception of the fireworks display which was originally planned as the conclusion for the entire Festival program.

The honored soloist, Leon Kirkpatrick, pianist from DuQuoin, did

To Give Awards On Honors Day Here Thursday Morning

Twenty-one awards and scholarships will be presented and mentioned at Southern Illinois University's Honors Day assembly Thursday, May 15, at 10 a.m. in Shryock auditorium, according to Dr. Vera Peacock, faculty chairman of the Honors Day committee.

Also at this time, approximately one hundred of Southern's students will be recognized for outstanding scholastic achievement. Included among the students will be 30 graduating seniors who will receive pins for having an average of 4.25 or above; 32 juniors and seniors not graduating with an average at or above 4.25; 15 sophomores with an over-all average of at least 4.5; and 23 freshmen with averages of 4.5 and above.

SCHOLARSHIPS and awards to be presented this Thursday include the American Association of Teachers of Spanish Award, to be presented by Dr. J. Cary Davis; the Betty Rhodes Memorial Prize, by Beverly Fox; the Phi Beta Kappa prize, by Dean Willis G. Swartz.

The Jog Dougherty award, by Doug Shepherd; the Pan-Hellenic Scholarship plaque, by Dean Leah Farr; the Inter-Fraternity Scholarship plaque, by Bill Moore; the Mallarme Prize in French Studies, by Miss Madeleine Smith; and the Kappa Omicron Phi award, by Miss Freda Thompson.

OTHER AWARDS to be mentioned at the assembly will include the Parent Teacher Association scholarship, the Rotary Fourth Object scholarship, the Charles Neeley Prize, the Thelma Louise Kellogg scholarship, the Helen A. Schuman Graduate scholarship.

The B'nai B'rith Federation Scholarship Exchange Fund, the Women's Relief Corps G.A.R. scholarship, the William Pulverson Memorial scholarship, the Elks Scholarship B.P.O.E., and the June Vick scholarship.

Following the assembly, at 11 a.m., there will be a reception at Anthony Hall for all Honor Students, parents, friends, and faculty members.

All 10 and 11 a.m. classes will be dismissed to permit students to attend the Honors Day events.

not appear on the program. He will perform Saturday, May 17, in Shryock auditorium.

Lighting details for the Festival were planned by Lawrence Voss of the SIU speech department.

Dance Concert Here Tomorrow, May 14

A concert in the modern idiom by members of the Modern Dance club and the advanced dance class of the women's physical education department will be presented tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in Shryock auditorium.

The program will include a suite of dances entitled "Theatre Sketches" including three parts, a blues number, a rockette, and a ballet.

Members of the university choir will accompany the performers in the two sections of the "Religious Week Suite," the "Gloria" and "Bless the Lord, Oh My Soul."

Another portion of the suite, "The One-Hundredth Psalm," will be narrated by Lloyd Bitzer, speech major from Carmi.

The "Gavotte," the "Gigue," and the "Minuet" will be presented in the "Pre-Classic Suite of Dance Forms."

"THREE LITTLE DUCKS," a theme with variations, will feature a change of mode to minor, a change of meter to waltz, and a change of accent to boogie.

Gloria Bonali, soloist; Joan Livesay and Eleanor Miller, dual presentation; and Eleanor Miller, Gloria Bonali, and Mary Jo Zumer, trio number, will be featured on the concert program.

Plans have been made for a campus suite, "The Class-Room" to be presented by the group.

Other girls who will appear in the concert are as follows: Olivia Baker, Wilma Beadle, Betty Black, Connie Conatser, Lucille Cleland, Delores Feldkamp, Londa Jaquith, Nancy Lofgren, Merna Morris, Jo Ann Robertson, Ann Steingrubby, Joan Still, and Ann VanLente.

Admission will be free.

To Launch Greek Week Activities Here Tomorrow

The annual Greek Week activities on Southern's campus will be launched tomorrow with a Greek workshop to be held in the University School auditorium at 6:30 p.m.

Final Examination Schedule Released

Following is the final examination schedule for the spring quarter as printed in a release from the Registrar's office. Final exams will begin on Monday, June 2, and end on Thursday, June 5.

The schedule is:
 Monday, June 2
 8 o'clock classes—8 a.m.
 History 103, 201, 202—11 a.m.
 Physical education 103 (women's)—4 p.m.
 Tuesday, June 3
 9 o'clock classes—8 a.m.
 Sociology 101—11 a.m.
 2 o'clock classes—1:30 p.m.
 Wednesday, June 4
 10 o'clock classes—8 a.m.
 English 103—11 a.m.
 3 o'clock classes—1:30 p.m.
 Thursday, June 5
 11 o'clock classes—8 a.m.
 Government 101, 231, 300—11 a.m.
 12 o'clock classes—1:30 p.m.

ALL EXAMINATIONS will begin at the hours scheduled above and will run for two clock hours, except for classes that meet only one or two hours a week. Examinations for those who begin at the end of the two-hour examinations and will run for one clock hour. This arrangement is necessary to dovetail three, two, and one-hour classes that meet the same period.

Four o'clock classes may be arranged by the instructor at one of the regular periods.

Examinations in evening classes will be held at the last meeting of the class in the examination week.

All examinations must be given at the time scheduled.

A student who for some reason must miss the final examination may not take an examination before the one scheduled for the class. In this case, "W," followed by the tentative grade, should be recorded by the instructor. The final examination may be given at a later date, within one year.

granted, according to Dean of Women Leah Farr.

The speaker for the first portion of the workshop will be Dof Mal-lot, staff member from Purdue university. Following his address, the participants will be divided into eight groups under the leadership of an appointed group chairman.

One group will meet at each sorority house and one at each fraternity house.

The highlight of Greek Week activities will be the annual Spring Sing to be held on the steps of Shryock auditorium at 7 p.m. Thursday. At this time, each fraternity and each sorority will present three chorus numbers for the contest competition.

The contest selections usually consist of an organizational song, a serious song, and a lighter number.

THE SELECTIONS will be graded by out-of-town judges, and trophies will be awarded to the outstanding sorority and fraternity choral group by Floyd Wakeland, SIU music department staff member.

Following the Greek Sing, an open house will be held at the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority chapter house.

Members of Greek organizations will meet at the flag pole Friday at 4 p.m. for the annual Greek picnic. This year the picnic will be held at Crab Orchard lake.

Saturday afternoon has been set aside for the Inter-Fraternity track meet to be held at 1:30 p.m. at McAndrew Stadium. Other athletic events have not been scheduled as yet.

The Greek dance will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the women's gym Saturday night. Tommy Lawson and his band have been contracted to play for the dance.

PRESENTATION of the most valuable sorority girl and most valuable fraternity man awards will be made at the dance at 10:30 p.m.

The judging for the most valuable awards will be held today at 4 p.m. in Main 102. Fraternity men competing for the award must have a speaker present to represent him to the faculty committee who will make the final decision.

Other awards to be presented at the dance will be the sports trophies. Three bowling trophies will be presented. A first and second place trophy will be presented to the fraternities for high averages in the Greek bowling league held throughout the year. A first place trophy will be awarded to the high ranking sorority.

TWO INDIVIDUAL awards will be presented to the girl and boy who has the highest average in the league for the year. Two general sports trophies will be awarded to the organizations that have the highest averages in sports events during Greek Week.

The final events have been scheduled for Sunday, May 18. From 3 to 5 p.m. the sororities will have teas.

After the teas, a canasta tournament will be held at the Sigma Sigma Sigma chapter house, a pinochle tournament at the Pi Kappa Sigma chapter house, and a bridge tournament at the Delta Sigma Epsilon chapter house.

GREEK WEEK over-all co-chairmen, Helen Nance, (left), and Jim Schmulbach, complete plans for the annual Greek Week celebration which begins tomorrow with a workshop to be held at University School auditorium at 6:30 p.m.

More Money?

In last Tuesday's Egyptian there appeared a letter from Joe Harding, a member of the Student Wage committee, explaining that a committee had been organized to investigate the student wage problem here on campus.

At that time, we of the Egyptian staff did not know much about this newly organized committee, but now we have talked with a committee member and other students concerning the work of the committee. It seems, at last, that a group of students have had the ambition to actually check into the student wage situation to see if it could possibly be improved instead of just standing around making complaints about it.

We certainly think that such a committee, as long as it works in an accepted manner, can certainly help the wage situation here at Southern—even if they don't succeed in increasing student wages, they may find out why they can't be increased and thus satisfy student curiosity.

SO FAR, WE THINK that this group has acted along the right lines, for they have circulated statements to various organized houses informing them of the committee and asking for support. According to Joe Harding, the committee has no intention to cause any type of strikes or violence.

The committee plans to gather statistics from other schools and to compare Southern wage standards with them. The committee has prepared a formalized request which is to be presented to the administration. This group does not plan to demand higher wages, but it's main objective is to bring the problem to the attention of the administration.

The committee has received favorable opinions from several faculty members and it has the backing of labor unions and the editor of the Free Press newspaper.

This committee belongs to us, all students of SIU, and it is up to us to see that it gets the proper student backing. Who knows? Maybe someday, students will come to Southern because the wages are the best in the area. Anyway, we can dream, can't we?

Campus Corruption

Election campaigns, like many other things, are not good nor bad within themselves. It is the persons connected with these campaigns that make them what they are, whether on national, state, city, or campus level.

To corrupt the latter form of election, is by far the worst of crimes, for to do this is to attack the basic teachings of government in universities throughout the United States. If this type of corruption begins on such a small scale as a university campus, there is no wonder that it reaches such tremendous heights in the national political scene.

When such corruption does appear on campus, it undoubtedly arises from some individuals trying to imitate and follow in the paths of their "Big Shot Idols" on the national level. Maybe these persons had better look around and see what happened to the big boys in the end.

Receive Verification That Southern's Saluki Flag Was Dropped On North Pole

by Bob Sergeant

If you ever want to take a trip to the north pole you can be assured that you will not get homesick, for right on the pole is a Southern Illinois University flag.

Last fall Southern sent a flag to be dropped on the north pole by an air force weather plane. Verification that the mission was accomplished was received by Cpl. Bob Hammann, former SIU student from Du Quoin.

Hammann, who is now stationed at an air force base in Nashville, Tennessee, stated that Sergeant Bill Norris of Jacksonville, Florida, personally dropped the flag a few months ago.

NORRIS, WHO is a right skinner, the same as a right fuselage gunner in combat, on a B29 weather reconnaissance plane, stated that he dropped SIU's flag out of the plane directly above the north pole. He said, "At the time if the weather had not been clear enough to make the pole we were going to drop the flag just anywhere and say that it was dropped on the pole, but the weather was perfect all the way and we were able to make our objective without a mishap."

Norris went on to say that Southern was the only university which had ever done anything like that and that it really boosted the morale of the boys in Alaska to know that a school "back home" would think of doing such a thing. He stated, "Southern became quite well known among the boys at the base for sending the school-flag to be dropped."

Opinions

Take Student Poll On Higher Wages

by Dan Halloran

Would you continue commuting even if you were guaranteed higher wages for work at Southern?

This question, asked a group of 12 students, who normally return home each weekend, produced a variety of answers. There were six "no's," five "yes's," and one smile.

A second term freshman speaking for the "no" group replied, "As things are now I can make more money in one day at home than I could in one week down here. They would have to raise wages considerably around here, but if they did I would stay down."

The "yes's" on the other hand, complain that there is "nothing to do around here over the week-end except go to the show."

The smile? That was a case of love, and for all practical purposes might be listed with the "yes" group.

Movie, 'Quo Vadis'

by Dan Halloran

Henry Sienkiewicz's best selling novel, "Quo Vadis," provides the basis for one of the screen's most extravagant spectacles.

Robert Taylor, as Marcus Vinicius, returns to Rome a military hero after an absence of three years. Through his uncle, Petronius, Marcus meets Lygia, played by Deborah Kerr. She is a hostage, daughter of a defeated king.

Marcus becomes acquainted with the Christians through his attraction for Lygia. He is impressed by them but does not become one until after he joins the revolt against the mad emperor, Nero, for burning Rome.

The triumphal marches, the burning of Rome, the Christians in the Colosseum, all provide stirring scenes.

Quo Vadis, — which means "whither goest thou"—is the title of the book and picture. These are the words said to have been spoken to St. Peter on the road outside Rome warning him to return and help those who were being executed for the destruction of Rome.

"Quo Vadis" will begin a three-day showing here in Carbondale tomorrow.

Many Duties

Guidance Staff Versatile Group

by Doris Hatrell

The guidance and special education department, since it was set up at SIU in 1949, has administered different tests to some 7,000 students in about 55 southern Illinois towns, employing approximately 25,000 tests. These tests include intelligence tests, aptitude tests, hearing, etc.

The department's chief purpose is not to teach theory in special education, but as Dr. Marshall S. Hiskey, chairman of the department says, "We give area service and at the same time, give the students in the department practical experience on the job."

BESIDES ADMINISTERING these various tests, the department has given consultant services to some 15 or 20 schools in the area who have problem children. It sponsors career conferences and publishes quarterly a guidance newsletter, which reaches nearly 600 schools in the southern Illinois area.

Every full time faculty member of the department is, at the present time, working on some project. Dr. Maude A. Stewart, in cooperation with Mrs. Alice Rector, is attempting to establish high school norms on the Differential Aptitude Test.

DR. EUGENE FITZPATRICK is writing a book on statistics. Dr. Hiskey has a test which has been used for deaf children, and now he is setting up the test for hearing children. Dr. Ledford J. Bischof is outlining a text in psychology on the high school level.

Dr. William N. Phelps, another member of the department, is making a study of attitudes of college students. Dr. W. A. Thalman works chiefly with the child guidance clinic, and Dr. Brackett of the speech department devotes one-fourth of his time to the guidance and special education department.

Advisement Week Now Underway

Beginning yesterday and continuing through this Friday, May 16, is Advisement Week for the summer quarter for both undergraduate and graduate students. Tentative schedules of classes for the summer term may be obtained at the Registrar's office.

Undergraduate students should first, after obtaining class schedules, consult their advisers. Two work sheets should be completed by the student which should then be approved by the adviser.

One of the sheets will be retained by the adviser, and the other will be kept by the student to serve as his authorization to receive class cards from departments on Registration Day for summer term, which is to be held June 16.

STUDENTS who desire to change their majors should contact Mrs. Loretta Ott in the Office of Student Affairs during the Advisement Week to be assigned to the proper advisers.

Graduate students should first obtain their registration materials from the Graduate office. They should then go to advisory committee members for counsel and signatures, and then the materials should be returned to the Graduate office for the Dean's signature.

If a student does not participate in Advisement Week, he will be delayed in the registration process on Registration Day, according to the Office of Student Affairs.

Give New Name to Greek Governing Body

At the last meeting of the Pan-Hellenic Inter-Fraternity Council it was officially decided to call the organization the Inter-Greek Council. The simplified name was decided upon in order to replace the longer official title.

The Inter-Greek group is composed of representatives from the five fraternities and four sororities on campus.

Tear Down Old Heating Plant Chimney To Make Way for Highway Relocation

The 100-foot chimney of the old heating plant located on Harwood avenue near the Illinois Central railroad tracks, is almost demolished to make way for a relocation of U. S. highway 51.

Three workmen are using sledge hammers and crowbars and they are demolishing the stack by working from interior scaffolding.

The new heating plant which was completed last year has now replaced the 34 year old structure. The old power plant was completed in 1915 at a cost of $55,000.

The old plant was made necessary by a period of physical plant expansion during the SIU presidency of D. B. Parkinson from 1897 to 1913. Prior to the building of the old plant, campus buildings were heated by boilers which were located in the basement of Old Main.

With the addition of the Old Science building, Wheeler library, Allyn building, and Anthony Hall, a need for the old power plant was established. The old plant was outmoded by a new period of growth that began in 1947.

The new power plant, designed to meet the needs of future campus development, went into operation last year.

U. S. highway 51, will be relocated on the former site of the old plant. In addition to eliminating two sharp turns, the relocation will relieve present pedestrian traffic hazards caused by campus developments along Thompson street.

SIU and Normal Split, Win 7-0, Lose 4-3

by Don Duffy

Third baseman Tom Molloy's ninth inning single with one out and the bases loaded handed the Southern Salukis their first defeat in IIAC play, 4-3. The game played last Saturday at Bloomington, was the tail-end of a double-header. Southern won the first game, 7-0.

This two game split with the Normal Redbirds gave the first place Salukis a league record of five victories and one loss. Wayne Grandcolas, who pertisided a two-bit victory in the first game, won his sixth straight game without a loss.

Ron Hagler, who went all the way in the second contest for the Salukis, was the victim of three unearned runs in suffering his second loss. The Murphysboro freshman now has a record of 4-2.

Southern had an easy time of it in the first game. The one-run they shoved across in the first on Schmulbach's walk and Ems' single proved to be all they needed. Vern Zapotocky swung the big bat for the Salukis, collecting two triples in four times at bat.

Grandcolas struck out three and gave up five walks. Other than the two singles, both by .214 hitter Wayne Davis, the Redbirds hit only three balls out of the infield.

Southern scored first in the second game. Burns walked to open the fourth, went to second on a sacrifice, and scored on Zapotocky's double. The Salukis scored one in the fifth when Bob (Candy) Ems rocketed his fifth home run of the season.

The Redbirds trailed 2-0 when they came to bat in the seventh. But before they were through, they tied the score on two singles and errors by Coleman and West.

Southern scored one run on three hits in the top of the ninth, and possibly could have scored more. Hagler walked with one out. Schmulbach singled, Eddie Coleman, next batter, doubled to right center, scoring Hagler. But when Schmulbach tried to come in on the hit, he was thrown out at the plate. Valier followed with a single, sending Coleman to third.

Ems was the next batter. In four previous trips, he had banged a home run and a triple. The triple came with no outs in the eighth, but his teammates failed to bring him in. This time "Candy" hit a fly ball to left to end the inning.

Glen Honsbrush, Normal's pitcher, opened the last of the ninth by grounding out. Bill Ejlana, left fielder, was safe on West's second error. Bill Sarver doubled him home to tie the score. Hagler walked the next two batters, a .111 hitter, and a .250 hitter. Molloy then slapped his first hit of the series to score Sarver with the winning run.

Southern battles the Northern Huskies in a double-header here next Friday. Northern will be out to avenge a double defeat which Southern dealt to last year's championship team, 5-4 and 4-2.

NCAA Releases Top College Track Marks

Trackmen Suffer First Dual Loss, Eastern Wins 68-63

Southern lost its first dual track meet in five starts last Friday at Eastern 68-63. The meet was tied until Eastern won the final event, the mile relay.

The Salukis were strong in the races but managed to win only one of the field events. Harold White took the high jump with a six foot even leap, but Eastern won first in the shot, discus, javelin, pole vault and broad jump.

Phil Coleman turned in his best time this season in winning the two mile in 9:52. He also won the mile in 4:27.2 to remain undefeated in both events this year.

Bob West won both the 100 and 220 to gain Southern its first victories of the year in those events. Dick Gregory won the 880 and Abe Cherry took the 440. Southern lost both of the hurdle races.

What hurt most was Southern's failure to place a man in either the broad jump or shot put. That gave Eastern 18 points and set the stage for the Panthers to break the 63-63 tie with the final relay event.

The results:

Mile: Coleman, Gregory, Sims (E), 4:27.2.

440: Cherry, Dettro (E), Bierman, 52.5.

100: West, Lawler, Murphy, 10.4.

High hurdles: Young (E), Cavanaugh (E), Ringling, 16.9.

880: Gregory, Farris (E), Delia, 2:05.

220: West, Cherry, Soergal (E), 23.7.

Two mile: Coleman, Wills (E), Acklin (E), 9:52.

Low hurdles: Ellis (E), Lawler, Wilson, 26.0.

Shot: Davis (E), Roe (E), Ferguson (E), 41'8 3/4".

Discus: Partridge (E), Edwards, Ashely (E) 129'4".

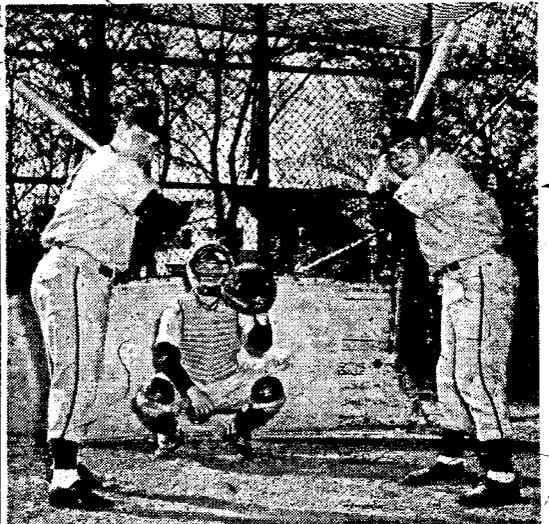

Javelin: Soergal (E), Carlile, Massa, 172'11".

Pole vault: Henderson (E), Clark, Cavanaugh (E), 12'6".

High jump: White, Ellis (E), Baldwin, 6'.

Broad jump: Henderson (E), Ellis (E), McCoy (E), 21'9".

Mile relay: Eastern, 3:30.

BOB (CANDY) EMS (right), Saluki fielder, is powering Southern's drive for the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC) title. In 14 games, the Fisher sophomore has batted .355. Giving the Martinmen their power from the port side of the plate is first baseman Larry Burns, a Madison junior hitting .283. The catcher is Jack Chor, Lebanon freshman.
