Speaker Stresses Cold War Facts In Assembly

By Bob Abbrino
Alternating between pessimism and optimism, Louis J. Alber, world traveler, author, foreign correspondent and news authority on foreign policies, told freshmen at the assembly Thursday morning that Russia is cracking, and at the same time warned that "unless we win the war we are now in, we will lose the suicidal shooting war when it comes."
He went on to describe "the

'Syrian Yankee' To Lecture At Shryock

Salon Rizk, author and lecturer, will speak in the Freshmen Assembly tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.
His best-selling autobiography "Syrian Yankee," which first appeared in the Reader's Digest, has been summarized in many textbooks and anthologies, and has been translated into several foreign languages.
"This story tells the inside facts on America, but Rizk's greatest contribution to American self-understanding has come through personal appearances from coast to coast. His inspiring faith in democracy born of early old-world oppression, with the warmest response from his listeners everywhere," it has been said by reviewers.

Besides his autobiography, Rizk has written "America is More Than A Country," "America's Role in the Near East," and "It Pays To Be Immigrant."

Student Job Service Places 170 This Term

The Student Employment Service has placed 170 students in various jobs this term, according to Dr. Alice Reiter, Director of Student Employment.
Mrs. Baker stated that she had received 510 applications from students who wanted employment. "So far," she said, "we have found jobs for 170 of these, and we are still placing some all the time."

Besides the 170 who were placed this term there are about 580 students still holding jobs which they had won according to figures received on the student payroll.

Students employed this term work on campus in dormitories, and Southern Acres. A large majority of the students have received employment from the cafeteria and residence houses, working in food service and as janitors.

Jobs are becoming available everyday, and those who want to work should keep in touch with the Student Employment Office, Mrs. Reiter says. At the present there are several odd jobs open.
"There are many students working who weren't placed by us, and many students are working at their homes on week ends. Students who are eager for work should keep in touch, as we will place a lot more through the year," Mrs. Reiter says.

SIU Plays Host To 1,000 High School Students

High school students of the area had a glimpse of Southern Illinois Saturday when approximately 1,000 of them from 41 different schools were on campus according to Dr. Elizabeth Greenleaf, Supervisor of Student Activities.
The students had a full afternoon of activities before attending a Northern-Southern game in McAndrew stadium where they set in a reserved section.

A variety show at 6 o'clock followed registration and tours of the campus which were conducted by members of APO and Girls Rally. Tom Hill acted as master of ceremonies, and the high school students were greeted by Dean L. Clark Davis, President David W. Morris, and Student Council president Ann Marie.

The variety included violin, accordion, and vocal music; prize-winning skits from former variety shows on campus, and comedy routines. SIU cheerleaders took over the show and introduced the group to some of Southern's yells. JoAnn McInrye announced the yells.
A snack and chat hour at the Student Union occupied the students until it was time for their group to go to the chili in a cone at the chili supper with President and Mrs. Morris at the cafeteria.

Mary Ann Narviss and Donoran Merrifield have been named student chairmen for the day's program. Initiations have been sent to all parents, and plans for the day have been completed, according to Dr. Betty Greenleaf, Director of Student Activities.
Registration will be held in the Student Union, 3 p. m., Saturday. All appointments will remain open during the afternoon in order for students to introduce their parents to members of the faculty. Students may also take their parents on tour of the campus. All buildings will be open.

All-School Picnic Attracts 100 SIU Students

By Wynona Smith
Approximately 100 students attended the all-school Campfire and Picnic at the APO Picnic Grounds Friday night. The event was free and sponsored by the Student Union Committee.
The union committee came although firewood was quite scarce. A fire in direction signals to the picnic site. Pots of fire lit the way down the hill from the Men's Residence Halls spouting the night with drama. Of course, those who didn't know a bridge had to be erected; almost broke their necks. A Dale danger only heightens excitement.
Parties began by singing the old songs (and if any student didn't know "Top of Old Smokey" before coming to college, he ought to be now), and sang them lustily. Dick Beyer provided accompaniment for his table.

WORKMEN from the Sanders Nursery, Paducah, Kentucky, prepare to set an oak tree in place on the south side of Woody Hall. This is one of 36 trees which are to be set in place as part of a project to put about 200 plants on the grounds of Woody Hall.

Landscaping At Woody Hall Trees, Grass, Shrubs, And Vines To Adorn Scene

When the present Woody Hall holes for them, and putting them in landscaping project is completed, there will be approximately 2500 and the grass, which is to be planted now on the scene to make the place "prettier," according to John Longenecker, architectural services.
Longenecker, who is co-ordinating the work of the Sanders Nursery, Paducah, Kentucky, which has the contract for the project, says that about 46 trees will be set on the grounds and that the rest of the plantings will consist of bushes, shrubs, and vines.
The task of setting the trees in place is about half completed at the present time. Trees of six or seven inches in diameter are being used. Most of the mirt trees have matured locally. Leonard Bivins, however, will have to be brought here from Kentucky, since suitable trees of all the desired varieties are not available on University property.
Perhaps next spring Woody Hall will be surrounded by tall growing shade trees, shrubs at various points around the building, and green grass, all the result of the project to bring Woody Hall out of the desert of dirt drive, which resulted from the building project.
The project is not just a matter of selecting trees or shrubs, digging

We must not just approve it. We must approve it heartily. We can give it the support which it deserves by turning out in record numbers for the all-school election and voting "yes" on this proposal.

Southern Takes First Home Game

Salukis Humble Huskies; Passes Produce Points

By Bob Peas

The Northern Illinois Huskies came all the way to Carbondale only to meet up with a Southern Huskie — quarterback Joe — who carried defeat for them in his right arm.

Huskie came off the bench late in the first quarter and proceeded to lead the Salukis to their first victory of the season in their first home game. He completed 10 passes in 14 attempts for a total of 158 yards and three touchdowns.

The Salukis aerial attack was augmented by the bull-like running of Warren McCullough and Jack Schneider. McCullough carried the ball 11 times and gained 79 yards for one touchdown and an average of 7.1 yards per carry. Schneider juggled the leather nine times and picked up 62 yards and one touchdown for an average of 6.9 yards per carry.

All told, the Salukis gained 162 1/4 yards on the ground and 187 yards through the air, while the Huskies could only muster 63 yards on the ground and 87 yards through the air.

Both teams scored in the first period, with the Salukis having the distinction of tallying first. Southern took the opening kick-off and moved the ball down to Northern's 23, where a lone fumble halted their drive. But the Huskies couldn't go anywhere and were forced to punt. The punt was taken by Gene Arai.

Aronelli on the Salukis' 40 and ran back 35 yards to Northern's 25. After a couple of line plunges put the ball on the 20, Huskie tried a pass to end Wayne Williams for a 14-yard touchdown. The try for extra point failed.

Northern tallied shortly after the kick-off. With the ball on his own 29, quarterback Harnes faced back as if to pass but executed a quick hand-off to Bauer instead. Bauer found a hole in the SIU line and got all the way down to the Salukis' 29 yard stripe before he was brought down. Two plays later, Harnes threw a flat pass to Sholz, who scampered the rest of the way for the touchdown. McKillen kicked the extra point.

Southern's second score came in the second quarter after Schneider returned a punt 12 yards to the Northern 40. A five yard penalty and a yard for extra point also gave Southern the lead. McCullough carried the ball 11 times and gained 79 yards for one touchdown and an average of 7.1 yards per carry. Schneider juggled the leather nine times and picked up 62 yards and one touchdown for an average of 6.9 yards per carry.

Both teams scored in the first period, with the Salukis having the distinction of tallying first. Southern took the opening kick-off and moved the ball down to Northern's 23, where a lone fumble halted their drive. But the Huskies couldn't go anywhere and were forced to punt. The punt was taken by Gene Arai.

Huskie pass and weaved his way for 29 yards and a touchdown. Huskie tossed Aronelli for the extra point.

Ludoking wound up scoring for the day when he planged four yards for Northern's final tally. McKillen kicked the extra point.

Leo Wilson caught three of Huskie's passes, good for 46 yards, and two of Ray Tabacchi's throws, good for 29 yards. Williams caught passes good for 61 yards, and Dan Smith gathered in three passes totaling 15 yards.

Swible, Tim Bowers, Dave Stroop, Cliff Johnson, and Captain Charlie Parker were outstanding on defense.

Who's Who For SIU

By Don Primas

Even though an injury kept Hank Warfield, out of the Northern game, he's still leading the Salukis in rushing.

The big fullback has ripped through opposing lines for a total of 144 yards in 23 plays, compiling an average of 6.3 yards per carry. Warfield's yardage was made in the Southeast Missouri and Illinois Normal games. A leg injury kept him on the bench during the Northern game.

Jack Schneider is runner-up to Warfield in the rushing department, having 107 yards in 28 carries for an average of 4.8 yards. The hard-running halfback is in his second year as a regular.

Joe Huskie is leading the team in total offense with a total net gain of 310 yards. Huskie has 300 yards via the aerial route and 10 on the ground in 54 plays. Runner-up to Huskie in total offense is Warfield with 144 yards.

Huskie also leads the team in forward passing. The veteran quarterback has completed 27 passes out of 49 attempts for a total of 300 yards and four touchdowns. His average is healthy .550.

Ray Tabacchi, who shares the quarterbacking job with Huskie, has an even .500 passing percentage with three completions in six attempts, a total of 39 yards.

Wayne Williams is the leading pass receiver on the team. He's caught eight passes for a total of 111 yards and two touchdowns. Right behind him is Leo Wilson, with nine catches for 104 yards. Williams has caught two aerials in the middle zone and Wilson has caught two.

Warren McCullough is the team's leading punter. With statistics based on a minimum of three punts per game, McCullough has an average of 31.3.

Williams is the leading scorer on the team. He has two touchdowns and two extra points for a total of 14 points, and Warfield, Wilson, Schneider, McCullough, and Tabacchi all have one touchdown each. The Salukis have scored 53 points as against 73 for their opponents. They are a little bit behind in rushing, 516 yards to 468 yards, and are ahead in punting, 501 yards to 450 yards. The Salukis hold an edge in forward passing, getting 374 yards while their opponents were getting 300 yards.

LEO WILSON snags one of the many completed passes that spelled doom for Northern in Saturday's game. "Leapin' Leo has caught 9 passes for a total of 104 yards this year.

Henry Ford had to chain his first car, an 1896 model, to telegraph poles to keep the curious from walking off with it. The car had two forward speeds, 10 and 20 miles and off came on a spread from Kay to Jim Gelch, who made a nice twisting break.

Some set up the final score by intercepting a pass at midfield in the third quarter and running it back to the 30. Doug Kay took over, the quarterback spot and, using the quarterback spread formation, moved the ball down to the 10. The play forward speeds, 10 and 20 miles and off came on a spread from Kay to Jim Gelch, who made a nice twisting break.

JACK SCHNEIDER, one of the backfield stars of the Northern game. Schneider who really hit his stride in this game has carried the ball 28 times this year for a total of 107 yards. Average — 3.9 per try.

Southern Bees Tie Eastern 20-20

After giving up 20 points early in the game, the Saluki "B" team came back with 20 points of their own to fight the Eastern Illinois Panthers to a standstill in McC. Andrew Stadium last week.

The Panthers scored twice in the first period and once again in the early part of the second to take a commanding lead. The Salukis were hampered in their first game of the season by fumbles and penalties.

The Saluki offense finally got rolling late in the second quarter. Quarterback Charlie Stone, running to his right on a pass play, was seemingly trapped by the whole Eastern line, but he completed a jump pass to Lindell Marie who went on to score. The play covered 60 yards. James Jones kicked the extra point.

On the kick-off after the touchdown, Eastern fumbled and Southern recovered on the nine yard line. A series of plays moved the ball down to the one yard line, where Marie plunged to payd with 23 seconds left in the half. Jones again converted. Southern repaid the generosity of Eastern's fumble by scoring the touchdown with 10 men on the field.

Stone set up the final score by intercepting a pass at midfield in the third quarter and running it back to the 30. Doug Kay took over, the quarterback spot and, using the quarterback spread formation, moved the ball down to the 10. The play forward speeds, 10 and 20 miles and off came on a spread from Kay to Jim Gelch, who made a nice twisting break.

Sport Spiel

By Bob Peas

Those of you who were fortunate — and smart enough to stay and see the Northern game, saw a good example of tough football. Last year the Huskies threatened a green Saluki team to some mean football. Sunday the Salukis repaid this debt 4- with interest. In my opinion it was a debt well paid.

IN THE FIRST quarter, the Southern line got off to a pretty slow start. They picked up from that though and played a good, sharp game. Line coach BOB FRANKZ seemed to have the Huskies continually snared, the Northern pass. This paid off in two points when they scored the safety. After Northern's initial rush for a TD, the line stiffened up and made the Huskies pay for every yard gained.

Some of the outstanding men in this game were: "MOOSE" SIVILLE. Siville was all-over the field on defense. He was the one that kept the Huskies from getting too far. TIM GOVERNERS, was another standout on defense, the big Memphisborn had looked good in every game and in this one he stood out in particular.

There were some more men who played a very tough brand of ball in a very tough game. Capt. CHARLIE PARKER showed good, solid line play. As usual, CLIFF JOHNSON looked good. Game KROLOAK and DAVE STROUP ratted some lumps on a Northern line which wasn't composed of any youngsters.

IN LOOKING at the backfield Saturday night I saw some definite improvements. MCCULLOUGH seemed to hit his stride in this game. The big ex-GI is no speedster, but he showed foot-work surprising in a man his size. JACK SCHNEIDER, as anybody who saw the game noticed, is tough. I like the way that Schneider puts his head down and moves out. This type of a runner is hard to stop. JOE HUSKIE looked better in this game than any other this year. When Huskie has his passing arm and eye in shape, he's hard to beat.

THERE COMES a time in every self-respecting sports writers' life when he mus go out on a limb and make some predictions. Why I don't know, but that's the way it is. So here goes.

First I'll start with our next game, Michigan Central is a very tough team. They won the conference last year and to me, so far their look to me like a cinch to repeat. Playing on our home-field will help, but I think the Chips will be a little too tough. I look like the Chips in this as you be quite a bit.

AS SOON AS the Salukis recover from the Central game they will face another tough team — Michigan Normal. Many think that they will beat Central out for the championship. Last year they took the Salukis 30-6. The Salukis are better than last year but this looks to me like another tough road to hoe. Probably the score will be pretty close to last year. I hope I'm wrong on both Central and Michigan Normal, but that's the way it looks to me.

Next, we have Eastern in our Homecoming game. We won last year 21-0. Eastern hasn't improved much and the Salukis have. I think the Salukis will make it a happy-home-coming to the tune of about 30 points.

Soon after Eastern we face Missouri School of Mines. This is a big question mark. They've won two games and lost one. They gave Washington IL a real tough battle for the first half. In view of this, I'd say that they are to be favored. This is a home game though and the Salukis are together here than anywhere else. This should be a close game, and I'll prefer the Salukis.

WASHINGTON U OF ST. LOUIS — We came very nearly to upsetting them last year on our own field. They have been getting great runs this season so far though. Right now they are number 1 in small schools for total offense this year. This game's there. I'm afraid the Salukis are in for another defeat in this one.

THE LAST GAME of the year is against the Western Leathernecks on their home field. Last year the Leathernecks ran all over the Salukis for a 38-7 win. They've lost a lot of men by one thing and another though. Also, the Salukis aren't the same green team that the Leathernecks pushed around last year. This will be a close game. Extra points may be a deciding factor, a department in which the Salukis aren't particularly strong. I'm going to pick the Salukis in this one though. They are tough enough to win it. I think.

A funny little side-light — The Northern team left one of their letter ends at home. He was late for the bus, and they forgot him. Looks like they must have been pretty about up here before they left.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

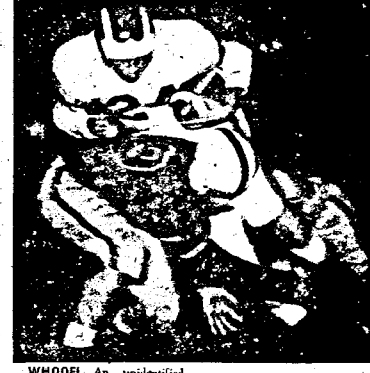

"So hairy your head is the sand," shrieked Sheedy's chick. You'll never part a wing on my finger until you start using Wildroot Cream-Oil on that messy hair. It's America's favorite hair tonic. Keeps hair combed without any trace of greasiness. Removes gross, ugly dandruff. Relieves annoying dizziness. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test.* Paul looked so good in your very first time he used Wildroot Cream-Oil, his pigeon egged him on until he proposed. So why don't you buy a bottle or tube today at any retail goods counter. And each time you have a hair-cut, ask for Wildroot Cream-Oil on your hair. Then no gal will ever give you the bird.

THREE NORTHERN PLAYERS converge on Jack Schneider. He has his head down on a desperate effort to grind out a few more yards. This tone was good for 21 and a first down.

DAN SMITH, SALUKI END almost got this one. He caught it in a flying leap. An instant later, however, he crashed to the ground and the ball flew out of his hands. It was a nice try.

WHOO! An unidentified Northern player hits Jack Schneider on an line plunge. Schneider gained about six yards on the play.
