Pep Song Contest Still Open, Has Twelve Entries

The fifty dollars which was offered as an award for the winning entry in the current pep song contest is still waiting to be won by some student. Entries may be made by any member, employee or SIU, according to Barbara Von Behren, member of the committee conducting the contest.

Deadline for the contest was recently extended to March 1 by the committee because the members felt that there had not been enough entries to warrant a fair judging.

TO DATE, there are only twelve entries in the contest and all but two of the entrants have furnished original tunes to go with the words they submitted. The contest, however, is only concerned with words for a pep or fight song for the school. Arrangements have been made for music to be written after the words are selected. However, if the judging committee feels that the music will be written, the winning set of words is good enough it will be adapted along with the words.

Requirements for entries are that the entrant need only submit words along with an entry blank for each set submitted. Entry blanks may be obtained at the Egyptian office. Entries may be turned in to either the office or placed in the Letters to the Editor box in the cross-halls of Old Main.

ALL SIU students, alumni, faculty members or other personnel are eligible to compete in the contest, even if not members of the school by a judging committee will receive an award of fifty dollars.

Sponsors of the contest are the Egyptian, the Student Council, the Office of Student Affairs, and the Student Union.

All entries will be accepted and are encouraged by the committees members in charge, for they feel that 12 entries are not enough to provide a good and varied selection from which the song will be chosen.

THE FRONT room of the Student Christian Foundation which recently had its "face lifted" by members of the faculty and their wives who donated time and work to help make the foundation a more attractive place. The room has new curtains and drapes, two new chairs, a new paint job and a general overhauling.

Faculty Members Redecorate SCF

By Bob Henley

Southern's Student Christian Foundation is in the process of getting a complete face lifting job in the inside, and it's not coining the tax money a single dollar.

Under the leadership of Mrs. James W. Neckers, the foundation has had many great improvements with all of the money for the materials coming from donations, and the work coming from faculty members of SIU. For the past few weeks, "work sessions" have been held on Saturday mornings starting at 9 a. m. Mrs. Neckers prepared a small lunch for the "labors" at noon, and then they keep up the task of redecoration until 5 p. m.

Although the work that has been planned is not yet complete, the work committee has repainted the whole interior, added two new rooms, a floor, furniture and pictures. The living room walls have been painted a solid light green color with the ceiling a darker shade of green. New drapes which have been bold multi-colored designs, were hung from valances. Two new floor lamps have been placed in the room, and also a couple of new lounge chairs.

WHAT was once just a storage room filled with discarded items is now a highly decorated ping-pong room. Flashy wall paper was put up by the faculty members, and a new ping-pong table was constructed by one of Southern's students. The second new room is being used by the students for recreation other than ping-pong. New games have been purchased for the room, and church and national publications are on hand for reading.

The kitchen was another part of the foundation that received the paint brush. The committee covered the drab walls with sky blue paint, and then went ahead to put in a new floor.

BESIDES the work that has been done, Mrs. Neckers' committee hopes to add many more improvements to the S.C.F. Their future plans include new rugs, magazine

Opera Workshop Group To Give Two Operettas

Bigek Weaver is sitting in jail awaiting death on a murder charge for killing his rival. Such is the opening scene of "Down in the Valley", one of the operettas to be presented by the opera workshop group, Thursday at 8 p. m. in the University School auditorium.

The starring rolls go to Max Anderson, playing Brack Weaver, and Harriet Caples, portraying Jennie Parsons. Other cast members are Harry Evers as Thomas Bouche, Judson Souers as the preacher, Jerry McGovern as the guard, John Brown with the part of Peter, and William Kohler as Jennie's father.

"Down in the Valley" is presented in a series of flashbacks. The first shows Thomas Bouche, rejected by Jennie in favor of Brack Weaver, at a square dance drunk

He has brought a knife with him to kill Brack who has escorted Jennie to the dance. His intentions are not carried out however as Brack, during the fight, accidentally kills Bouche with his own knife.

THE SCENE shifts back to the present. Brack has written to Jennie as he must know she still lives here before he dies for his unintentional crime. But he receives no answer as Jennie's father forbids her to write him. Brack becomes so desperate that he breaks jail and goes to Jennie. When they are reunited another series of flashbacks portray their memories of the past, such as their first meeting. The job of Brack and Brack, now confident of Jennie's love, willingly gives himself up.

"Trial by Jury" the other operetta on the program for Thursday night has a lighter note. The Chicagoan comedy starring Harry Evers as the judge, Judy Gurley as the plaintiff, and Robert Robertson as the defendant.

There's No Difference

A colored lad, coming home from an Army camp, was carried from the wreckage of the "leigh-ride" plane in which he was a passenger. At the hospital, the doctors ordered immediate blood transfusions. The nurses didn't go to a special-refrigerated cabinet marked "Negro blood." They just gave that boy type "O" blood in a big hurry, and no questions asked.

And down at the Red Cross blood collecting station a Negro White man waits in line between two White men. Her blood, freely contributed to a common cause, goes in the blood bank along with the White blood. And some day it may save the life of a White man or woman somewhere in the world.

There is no White blood or Black blood, no Protestant blood or Jewish blood, no Catholic blood or Mohammedan blood. Laboratory scientists have made meticulous tests. All human be-

Our Fault

In the last issue of the Egyptian we carried an article announcing that the Student Society would no longer be held every week as has been the policy since the Soiree program was organized last year. The programs will now be held only once a month.

Some may wonder why the change—and most likely it will be the fault of the very persons who will do the wondering. The only reason the program has been put on a monthly basis is that student attendance has not been good enough to warrant weekly events.

It can be quite embarrassing when one works hard in planning a program and makes special arrangements with a busy faculty member to take time out to present the program only to have a few people show up to hear him. It is both embarrassing and disheartening.

A faculty member who works hard to get together an interesting and worthwhile talk, and finds out later that there are only a very few to benefit from it is certain not going to be too pleased. And it isn't long until the word gets around, and then it goes back to get anyone to appear on the program at all. We are not criticizing the faculty members, for such feeling is perfectly warranted and we feel it would only be human nature to feel this way. Then too, we don't think there was ever too much trouble in obtaining speakers for the programs.

The only persons whom we feel that we can blame for the situation are students in general, for we are the ones for whom the programs were planned in the first place, the ones who should attend them, and the ones who could benefit most from them.

The only thing we can do now is to see that the programs we attend these Sunday Soiree programs when they are held once a month. Free refreshments are served along with the interesting programs. The Egyptian will give notice of the programs before they happen so that students may make plans to attend. All in all, we can see no reason why, out of all the students enrolled in school, there can't be enough students present at the programs to make up a presentable audience for the speakers. B.V.B.

February Is Month of Holidays and Birthdays

February is quite a month. Bank employees and grade school kids look forward anxiously to Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays. Girls in love anxiously wait for Valentine's Day. Men figuring budgets respect the month's 28 days. And once every four years, husband-hunting ladies try to celebrate February 29 with a bang—or a husband.

The current February is even more special, as it contained a Friday the 13th. A doubly awesome day, Friday the 13th is a combination of an unlucky number and a bad luck day.

UNIVERSALLY, 13 persons at a dinner table is feared. This is probably because there were 13 at the Last Supper with Jesus as the 13th guest. The number 13th appears in mythology with the 13th person usually evil.

Friday is probably considered unlucky because it was the day of Christ's Crucifixion. Some persons, however, contend the day means bad luck because Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit in Eden on a Friday.

TO COMBAT mass cutting on such a bad luck day, it is only fair to mention that some good things have happened on Friday. In fact, it seems to be a lucky day in America. Columbus set sail from Spain on Friday. The Marconi lighted land on Friday, and the Pilgrims came ashore on Friday. George Washington was born on the supposedly "unlucky" day.

Valentine's Day followed close behind Friday the 13th. Its origin is rather obscure. Early Romans have begun the custom when young Latin males drew the names of Roman females from a box on a festival day.

Valentine himself was a priest of Rome martyred in the third century. He had nothing to do with the day except adding his name to the celebration.

The custom of drawing Valentine's names was still in use in Samuel Pepys' England of 1667. Mention of Valentine's Day was made in Pepys' Diary.

By Arlie Trippel
AT PITTSBURGH U. (Pa.)—Three weeks ago, Pitt Student Councilman, Joe Shuler associated the National Student Association of being a Communist front group. Spokesman for the N.S.A. promptly denied the charge of "Commie." Shuler quoted a recent article in "American Student" magazine which called the N.S.A. "leftist" and "anti-fraternal." At a Student Congress meeting to discuss the possibility of Pitt U. joining the N.S.A., Shuler queried the N.S.A. representatives on such questions as "Did the N.S.A. send a representative to the East Berlin Festival in Germany?" (East Berlin is huge Communist center of Germany.) "The N.S.A. spokesman's answer: 'No!'" Shuler then asked, "Was a Red serve as an officer of the N.S.A.?" This time the spokesman replied, "To the same extent as a careful distinction was made between the words, 'censure,' and 'censor.'"

The Daily answered in an editorial, "The tradition that noninterference by any government bodies with the free press is sacred is what we stand by." This series of articles has created a stimulating controversy, as a glance to the "Letters-To-The-Editor" column in the Michigan Daily will reveal.

AT NORTHWESTERN, (Evanston, Ill.)—Ad "Lost Beta pin" has been seen on a west-bound Alpha Chicago. Finder may keep pin please return soon.

Supporters of the plan felt that unlimited class would give students a healthier attitude to classes; they cited statistical records indicating good attendance at schools allowing unlimited class cuts. But, the vigorous opposition declared that all this was "sloganeering" than anything else. According to the dean of students, the plan will not be reconsidered until next year.

AT MINNESOTA U.—A bill to lower the voting age to 18 years has been introduced in the Minnesota State Legislature. Supporters of the bill say it has better than a "50-50" chance of passing. Meanwhile, Senator James H. Duff (R., Pa.) said a few weeks ago that 16-year-olds should be permitted to vote in every case. Senator Duff was interviewed by four college students in "Junior Press Conference," a video program televised by the ABC Television Network. Duff's opinion is that if a boy is old enough to risk his life in fighting for his country, he should be permitted to

Garbutt Studies Dialect Of Area's Old-Timers

"When I had a flat tire, I walked two miles down the road to the far side of the road."

No, that isn't double talk. But it may be a Southern Illinois saying he had to walk two miles down the road to the fire tower after having a flat tire.

This kind of dialect is typical of that being collected by Cameron W. Garbutt of the SIU speech department, who has been gathering dialect specimens for the past two years.

I USE two methods of speech today," he says. "The folk level tells me what people call things. The sound level records the sounds and variations employed in an area." Garbutt ranges over Southern Illinois picking up a word or a phrase here, a sound there which he adds to a bulging notebook.

"His purpose is to fit the area into a map of the country's dialects," Garbutt says. "Whether you say 'ravin' for hog, you are correct. Speak naturally, there's nothing wrong in showing people where you speak from."

THE YOUNGER generation is told about the "birds and the bees" or the "buds and the bees" depending upon where the forefathers originated from. The "bird" sex may have come from New Orleans or New York. The "buds" came from the Middle South. Garbutt's survey shows:

"We live in a transition area on the fringes of three dialect zones: 'Southern American,' 'General American,' and 'Southern mountain,'" the speech collector explains. "Most of the older residents of the area emigrated from Kentucky and Tennessee and brought with them portions of 'Southern mountain' speech. This makes it difficult to determine characteristic speech of the area."

In an effort to study the "native" dialect, Garbutt is using an experimental group of six elderly residents. "THEY WERE not easy to find," he reports. "To fit the needs of my study, they had to be from Southern Illinois, lifelong residents over 65, and have limited education."

To obtain best results from the test, Garbutt asked each of his "subjects" to identify pictures in a book. They told him a sack could be a "poke," a "bag," or a "paper sack." They said women "clean up," "straighten up," or "dust up" their homes.

All the answers were "correct" as far as Dr. Garbutt is concerned; he isn't trying to change speech habits. Interested only in finding how people call things because everyone should speak in a natural manner without affectation.

Lost in the Swiss mountains one week-end, a party of Londoners kept shouting, "Alp! Alp!" And that's how the Alps get their name.

Contributions totaling $153 have been received by the Pi Kappa Sigma sorority for the Anita Early Memorial Scholarship. Miss Early an SIU sophomore from Davton, O., was killed in an auto accident near Terre Haute, Ind., November 26.

Every two years the sorority will award $80 for one year's tuition to a sophomore or junior woman majoring in speech. The award will be made on the basis of need, personality, scholastic standing, and participation in extracurricular activities.

Selections for the award will be made by the University Scholarship committee, subject to approval by active members of the sorority. The winner will be announced at Honors Day ceremonies in May.

Those wishing to contribute may make checks payable to Pi Kappa Sigma sorority, specifying that the money is to be used for the scholarship fund.

Panthers Get 27 in Third Quarter; Overcome Saluki Lead to Win 73-64

By Dan Duffy

A 27 point third quarter Panther attack erased a 35-28 Saluki half-time lead and gave Eastern a 73-64 victory at Charleston, Friday night.

Bob Nickolaus took charge of the Saluki scoring in the first half, hitting on seven of 10 field goal attempts. But the Centralia forward picked up four fouls mid-way in the second period and remained on the bench until late in the third quarter.

WITH NICKOLAUS setting the pace, the Salukis surged out to lead at the end of the first quarter 17-11, and 35-28 at half-time.

The Salukis were still ahead 40-39, with 5:50 remaining in the third quarter. But that's where the Panthers moved into action. A free throw by Bobby Lee tied the score at 40-40.

From there, the Panthers took control of things. By the end of the third period, they had poured in 27 points. Holding the Salukis to just 13, they led 55-48.

THE SOUTHERNERS pulled up to within two points of the Panthers when they trailed 58-56 with 6:45 left in the fourth period. But Ed Taylor hit a bucket and Roger Detrow sank two free throws in those 45 seconds. Eastern led 62-56 with six minutes remaining.

The Salukis moved up again, and nailed 66-62 with two minutes left. But the Southerners fouled their way out of the running. Eastern's Martin Chlivoitch dropped in four of six free throws. This gave the home team a safe 70-62 lead with about one minute remaining.

Only offense the Salukis could come up with in that last minute was two free throws by little Luke Theriot.

THE PANTHERS picked up three unneeded points in the closing seconds when Detrow sank one more free toss and Lee hit a field goal.

Bob Nickolaus carried the brunt of the Salukis' scoring with nine field goals and one free throw for 19 points. Fifteen of those points came in the first half. The Centralia forward fouled out after three minutes of playing time elapsed in the fourth period.

GIB KURTZ, who seems to be returning to top condition again after his month lay-out, shot 500 with five field goals in 10 tries. He added four free tosses in five chances for a total of 14 points.

Ray Rippelmeyer fell far short of his capabilities. The big forward, who leads the Salukis scores, collected only one field goal, in 14 shots. He added two free throws for four points all told.

Martin Chlivoitch led the Easterners with five field goals and 11 free throws for 21 points. Norm Patberg, veteran forward, hit four buckets and nine free throws for 17.

The Easterners won the game on free tosses. Southern outscored them from the floor, dropping in 24 field goals to Eastern's 21. But the Panthers capitalized on 24 Saluki fouls for 31 points, while the Holdemmen made 16 free throws on 15 Eastern fouls.

Indians Beat Matmen, Fedora Only Winner

By Dan Duffy

For the second time this season, Southern's grapplers went down to defeat before the Arkansas State Indians. The Indians took six of the eight matches for a 22-5 victory here Friday night.

Joe Fedora, 147 pounder, posted the only win for Coach Jim Wilkinson's Southerners. The Granite City junior outpointed Arkansas' Joe Kilpatrick 4-1.

BOB WHALEN, undefeated through eight matches, was beaten 5-1 by Conner of Arkansas in the 130 pound match. Whalen ran up his record of eight straight wrestling as a 123 pounder, Coach Jim Wilkinson moved him up to the 130 pound bracket for his Arkansas match.

Marshall Riggan, 130 pounder who dropped down to fill Whalen's 123 pound spot, posted the only other team score for Southern. Riggan and Bill Jackson wrestled to a 1-1 draw. Each man executed an escape, with neither one having any advantage in riding time.

BILL MAYR, Belleville freshman who replaced the injured Jack Smead at 137, lost to Don Austin of the visitors 9-3. After this match, the Indian led 8-2.

This match was followed by Fedora's victory, and Southern pulled up to trail 8-5.

But Arkansas dominated the scene the rest of the way. Bo Zdenek, Southern's 157 pound entry, lost to Indian Bob Rohr 5-3. Arkansas' Allen also won by a two point margin. He defeated Dick Erickson in the 167 pound match 3-1.

WEBER PINNED Southern's Norm Neger in 2:29 of the first period for the only fall of the eight match meet. With a victory already sewed up, Arkansas' Stadler defeated Saluki heavyweight Kent Werner 10-5.

Earlier in the season, the Arkansas grapplers invited the Salukis to Jonesboro, where the Indians administered a 19-8 thrashing. Wilkinson and Assistant Coach Russ Bush will have two more dual meets in which to school their grap-

NEXT FRIDAY, the matmen travel to Charleston in search of a second victory over the Eastern Panthers. Southern beat the Eastern crew here 23-3. The Southerners finish up their 1953 dual meet schedule here Feb. 28, when they entertain the powerful Great Lakes Bluejackets. Southern lost to the sailors at Great Lakes.

The Salukis will be going for their third win of the season when they face the Panthers. They have lost six and tied one.

When down in the month, remember Jonah. He came out all right.

Marv Ann Klingenberg, captain of the Pi Kappa Sigma group, can't slack off even though the Pi Kaps have the women's title clinched. She and team-mate Juanita Perrottto are fighting for the individual crown. Prior to last week's action, they were tied at 144. Connie Conater, Sigma Sigma Sigma, is one pin behind the pair of Pi Kaps. The league ends Thursday.

Southern's Gib Kurtz gets off a jump-shot in last Wednesday's 59-51 victory over Washington University. Kurtz, who was out for a month because of a sprained ankle, is beginning to return to his early season form. Last Friday at Charleston, he scored 14 points, hitting five field goals in 10 attempts. Kurtz, an East St. Louis sophomore, lettered his freshman year as a guard. But since then, he has seen action as a forward, also.

Sigma Pi Can Still Tie Chi Deltas As League Enters Final Round

Chi Delta Chi fraternity's quietest assured themselves of at least a first place tie in the men's division of the Hellenic Bowling League when they took the crown from Pi Kappa Sigma sorority last Thursday.

WITH ONE more session remaining, the Chi Deltas hold a four-point lead over Sigma Pi fraternity. The Chi Deltas hold the Sigma Pi's in the wind-up round next Thursday.

In order to gain a share of the crown, the runner-up Sigma Pi's would have to take all three games and outscore the Chi Deltas in total pins, as well.

THE LEAGUE leaders won the first and third games of their set with the Pi Kaps, while the Sigma Pi's were losing to Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. Bob Courtney and Tom Wehler paced the Chi Deltas with series of 305 and 300.

Marv Ann Klingenberg and Juanita Perrottto led the Pi Kaps with 486 and 460 respectively. Since

Eastern's Cagers Lose to Redbirds

Eastern Illinois' mighty Panthers failed to stop Illinois Normal's Bill Sarver Saturday night, and consequently dropped a 91-89 decision to the Redbirds. This was Eastern's second loss of the season in conference play.

Sarver poured in 41 points for the Redbirds. If that alone wasn't enough, he supplied the game-winning field goal with a long shot in the last few seconds to host an 89-89 deadlock.

The loss weakened the Panthers' hold on first place. Second place Michigan Normal, who defeated Central Michigan Saturday night 80-69, is now only one game behind.

The Normal Redbirds, who beat Northern Illinois 81-79 Friday night boosted themselves back into third place, one game behind the Hurons.

Northern's Huskies also dropped 78-47 coming to host and beat Western Illinois at Nacoreb Saturday night to slump to fifth place.

Although the Salukis lost to Eastern 73-64, they climbed back to fourth because of the Huskies' two defeats.

BASKETBALL coach Lynn Holder looks at the new varsity warm up suits presented to the basketball team by the Theta Xi fraternity at the game Wednesday night. Wearing the suits are John Cherry and Chuck

For the Women

Southern's WAA co-ed cagers found that Eastern Illinois basketball dominance holds true for both sexes. Saturday afternoon, the day after the Salukis lost a 73-64 contest to the Panthers, a team of Eastern's co-eds defeated one of Southern's WAA co-ed teams here 26-21.

THE CONTEST was one of five basketball games played during a WAA Sports Day. Southern's WAA was hostess to teams from Cape Girardeau, Principia, Murray State, and Eastern.

Only one of three Southern teams came through with a victory. This victory came at the expense of Murray State. The Saluki team, consisting of Delores Feldkamp, Norma Lawson, Norma English, Judy Goddes, Mary Ann Klingenberg, Jane Warren, Doris Bex, Ann Steininger, Violet Tyler and Captain Gloria Bonati, ganged up on the Murray co-eds for a 36-31 victory.

CONNIE CONATER'S team, employing Juanita Perrottto, Anna May Hayes, Joanne Livesay, Betty Black, Joan Syll, Jeanette Harris and Jean Sick, was the victim of the Easterners.

Southern's third team came out on the short end of a 58-18 score. Principia was on the long end. Southern's co-eds on the team were Louisa Jaquith, Sally Smysoy, Jane Riley, Joanne Robertson, Eleanor Miller, Louie Taylor and Captain Celia Hutton. Needless to add, Southern's WAA is trying to arrange a rematch with Principia.

*The winning team was coached by Dr. Dorothy Davies and the losers by Lura Evans, both members of the women's physical education staff.

The day's activities also included a luncheon at the SIU cafeteria. The Basketball Sports Day is an annual event sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association. According to Gloria Bonati, president, plans are being drawn up for a volleyball day in the near future.
