Schedule Bridge Play-off Tourney, Practice Session

In order to determine which eight of Southern's bridge players will enter the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament, a play-off tournament has been scheduled to be held in the Student Center on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 5 and 6, from 7 to 10 p.m. For those undergraduates students who have expressed an interest in entering the tournament and who are unfamiliar with the way duplicate bridge operates, a practice session of duplicate bridge has been set for Thursday night, Jan. 24, from 7 to 10 p.m. AT THIS SESSION students will choose partners with whom they would like to play in the preliminary play-off tournament. Those partners who have highest scores in this preliminary tourney will play in the national tourney to be held on this campus sometime during the week of Feb. 17-23.

According to the last report from the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament Committee, 44 states are represented by the 196 colleges entered in the tournament. Southern's players will be competing with 31 other colleges in the Great Lakes Zone. Winners from each of the eight zones will play in the finals to be held in the Blackstone Hotel in Chicago on Friday and Saturday, April 18 and 19.

Plans Near Completion For Independent Week

Plans for Southern's first "Independent Week" to be held on campus Jan. 29-Feb. 3 are nearing completion according to Wynona Smith, chairman of the planning committee. Tentative plans for the week include the election of "Queen of ISA Week" at a penny a vote. Other plans include a jazz band concert and dance, men's residence hall open house, social affair at the student center, musical show in Shryock auditorium with student talent, and basketball game between Southern and Illinois Normal with a dance following the game. "Independent Week" is being organized in hopes of making it an annual affair.

Miss Strang also said that if there was a demand, coffee hours could be extended and doughnuts may be served.

APO 'Mile of Dimes' Starts Tuesday, Jan. 22

With the explosion of an aerial bomb Tuesday at 9:50 a.m., Southern's annual "Mile of Dimes" drive will be launched by the Alpha Phi Omega as a special feature of the March of Dimes campaign. At that time the first dimes will be laid on the line which will run from the main gate to the steps of Old Main.

Still Collecting . . .

Funds for the Mine Disaster Scholarship, for students whose parents were victims of the West Frankfort disaster, are still being collected. Although the scholarship was set up by the faculty, students and faculty members alike may contribute. Contributions should be sent to the Student Affairs office in care of I. Clark Davis, dean of men.

The first dimes will be placed by Dr. Charles Tenney, administrative assistant to the president; I. Clark Davis, dean of men; Dr. K. A. VanLente, president, American Association of University Professors; J. R. Zimmer, Carbonate chairman of the March of Dimes drive; and Paul Morris, Alpha Phi Omega.

GOAL OF THE "Mile of Dimes" is to reach the steps of Old Main. It takes approximately $400 of dimes to cover the distance from there to the main gate. Southern's March of Dimes collections now total $148, which has been collected at basketball games by the Alpha Phi Omega.

Besides placing dimes along the "mile" students may place contributions in boxes which will be placed in all organized houses. The campus March of Dime committee consists of John S. Rerdeman, SIU legal counsel and chairman of the drive; Dr. K. A. VanLente, Dean I. Clark Davis, Mrs. Minnie Pitkin, Harry Mitchell, and student Paul Morris.

Announce Feb. 12-14 As Try-out Dates For Theta Xi Show

Try-outs for the Theta Xi Variety Show, to be held Feb. 27, will be run for three days, beginning Feb. 12 and running through Feb. 14, according to chairman Bob Mosher.

Auditions for Master of Ceremonies will be held Tuesday evening, Feb. 12 at 7 p.m. in the Little Theatre. Mosher announced that those wishing to try-out as requested to have some sort of format arranged by that time.

The following two auditoriums, will be devoted strictly to auditioning the various acts. A faculty committee composed of Dean I. Clark Davis, Dean Leah Farr, and Miss Eleanor Taft, director of Student Affairs, will judge.

A feature of the show will be the presentation of the two services to Southern awards to the outstanding male and female students. In addition to this award, a trophy will be presented to the best act submitted by an organized house. Also plaque will be presented to the members of the top individual act. An on-the-set party is planned for all the members of the cast after the show.

The March is On

For the fourth time in as many years, the swelling tide of polio engulfed the nation in 1951. Like a flooding river, bursting through barriers and plunging across the countryside, the uncontrollable force of polio epidemics descended upon American homes, bringing hardship and tragedy to the families of some 28,500 victims.

But wherever polio struck—on the plantation, in the mining town, on the reservation, in small college towns, or in the nation teeming centers of population—the means of resisting its onslaught were close at hand—through the March of Dimes.

March of Dimes equipment pools rushed 500 iron lungs to polio patients, part of more than $1,000,000 worth of emergency equipment furnished during the year, and secured the services of more than 800 nurses and 100 physical therapists assigned to emergency posts throughout the country.

After five months of continuous epidemic pressure, the polio tide receded. But the needs of the stricken now became more compelling than ever. By November, the National Foundation was accruing a heavy debt, with unpaid bills that would reach approximately $5,000,000 by the end of the year.

DESPITE THIS deficit, no polio victims who needed help were neglected. When funds for patient care were exhausted the burden of payment was not thrown back upon helpless patients. The debt was assumed by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, to be paid from the funds raised in 1952. The March of Dimes, for the fourth straight year, had been outpaced by the March of Polio.

Thus, the National Foundation is in debt for $5,000,000 from the ravages of the only epidemic disease still on the increase in this country. In an attempt to keep apace of the crippling disease, the drive will be extended to last one month this year (Jan. 2-31) instead of the usual two-week drive.

The drive at Southern has already reached $148.00. If the APO Mile of Dimes, which starts Jan. 22, winds its way to the steps of Old Main, 200 feet from the starting point, $400 more will be added to the total.

Carbondale can fight back at polio in 1952, and fight back hard—because there is a MARCH OF DIMES. But March of Dimes funds are under the severe challenge of a rising tide of polio. Only a rising tide of dimes can stem this challenge. D. D.

Correction Please!

In the last issue of the Egyptian, the article concerning the organized house grade averages for fall term mistakenly listed La Casa de Siesta as a women's organized house and the Normandy as a men's organized house. Sorry, girls and fellows!

Since La Casa de Siesta is a men's house it should have been listed as having the top men's house average, which was 3.84. This leaves the Normandy, women's house, with the second place title among women's houses with a 3.64 average. However the house with the highest average is still the Dutchess, women's house, with a 3.95 average.

Music Students Present Recital

Southern, Illinois University's department of music, headed by Dr. Maurits Kesnar, presented a Student Recital in the Little Theatre Wednesday night. The program for the evening featured nine selections presented by nine Southern soloists.

Arrangements by such greats as Beethoven, Bach, Chopin, Balay, Schubert, Donaudy, Moritz, Strauss, and Brahms were rendered by the members of the recital program. Included in the evening's presentation were four piano numbers, three vocals, one trumpet solo, and one saxophone solo.

THE RECITAL opened with Marlene Rann playing the "Sonata, opus 14, number 2," by Beethoven. Following Jean Jones, soprano, sang "My Heart Ever Faithful." The evening's third number was Patricia Burks' presentation of Chopin's "Nocturne in G Major, opus 37, number 2." Lester Ross, (trumpet), then played "Balay's Prelude" and "Ballade." Fifth number of the evening was Elva Lou Clemmons's piano solo of "Schubert's Sonata, opus 53."

The four concluding numbers of the evening were given by Bill Wakeland, baritone; Donald Melvin, saxophone; Hazel Moss, soprano; and William McGuire, pianist. They presented Donaudy's "O Vanished Loveliness," Moritz's "Sonata" (First Movement), Strauss's "Zueignung," and Brahms's "Fantasies, opus 116," respectively.

McGuire's presentation of the Brahms numbers/concluded the evening's concert.

A Review—

New Book Relates Prison Camp Life

by Helen Nance

Life in a Japanese prison camp in Malaya is related in Leslie Greener's novel "No Time to Look Back." The pivotal character is an Angelican Padre by the name of Choyce.

Choyce was a man who dared to fight for the rights of his fellow prisoners—a man who held a conventional but powerful faculty in his character.

Two youths came to mean more to him than any of the other prisoners in the camp—Andros, supposedly a Greek suffering from amnesia, but who exerted a growing spiritual power over the entire camp; and Pendle, an intense and turbulent painter whose bitterness was intensified by his love for an exquisite Chinese girl who had saved his life.

Andros and Padre Choyce were the sermonizers of the prison camp.

Dramatic scenes appear throughout the entire novel. The capture of three escapees and their execution make up one of the more tragic scenes.

Leslie Greener, the author, has been an artist, journalist, soldier, and educator. "No Time to Look Back" is Greener's first novel to be published in the United States.

SIU Child Guidance Clinic Goes to Carmi

Southern's Child Guidance Clinic, under the direction of Dr. W. A. Thalman, is holding a clinic yesterday and today in Carmi, in cooperation with Harold S. Robbins, director of guidance and special education in the Carmi schools.

This is the second clinic to be held at Carmi within the past several weeks. A one-day clinic was held in December, but because of the large number of cases to be studied, the clinic was postponed until yesterday.

The Child Guidance Clinic usually studies cases brought to campus on Friday of each week except when it is called upon to conduct clinics in the area.

During the first eleven months of 1951 children were brought from fifty different communities to Southern's clinic.

To Show Game, Parade Films from Rose Bowl

Donald A. Ingli, director of Southern's Audio-Visual Aids service, has announced that pictures of the Rose Bowl game and parade will soon be shown on campus. Although it is not known when the films will arrive, the showing will probably be within the next two weeks.

The Parade films will be shown in technicolor. The film of the Rose Bowl game will be in black and white and will have some sound explanation throughout the showing.

Announcement of the date on which these films will be shown will be posted on the bulletin board in front of Shryock auditorium.

Monday, the movie, "Pygmalion" was sponsored by the Lectures and Entertainment committee and the Audio Visual Aids service. Approximately 550 students and persons from the area attended the two showings of the movie in the University School auditorium.

TOM MILLIKIN gets high off the ground on a lay-up shot in last Saturday's Wesleyan game. Grouped around him are Ray Ripplemeyer, No. 34, Chuck Thate, No. 39, and Jack Theriot, No. 22. Southern will be without the services of high scorer Tom Millikin next Thursday when they run up against Tom Katsimpilis and the high-flying Eastern Panthers.

SIU Meets Eastern in Crucial IAC Tilt

Southern's cagers will invade Charleston this coming Thursday to tangle with the Panthers of Eastern Illinois State. The main purposes of this IAC visit for Coach Lynn Holder's men will be to check the rapid advance of the Easterners toward the conference crown. The high-flying Charleston men will carry a near 80-point average into the tussle and will most likely feature a fast offense which has helped them to bowl over one foe after the other during the present '51-'52 campaign.

NOT ONLY will the Salukis be hoping to improve their league record thus far, but they'll be hoping, at the expense of Mr. Katsimpilis and company, to regain a firm grip on the long series standing between the two which now

JACK THERIOT, Southern guard, takes the ball in toward Wesleyan's basket. In the foreground is Tom Millikin, forward. Millikin scored 31 points to lead the Salukis to a 83-52 victory over the Titans in his last game in a maroon and white uniform.

Salute the Salukis

Stan (Pony) Horst, senior letterman from Hoyleton, has been named captain of the SIU basketball squad, coach Lynn Holder announced last Tuesday.

Stan replaces Tom Millikin, who left yesterday for military service.

Horst came to Southern last year as a junior, after spending two years at Centralia junior college. He lettered in basketball last season.

Although the Hoyleton senior hasn't been on the starting five this year, Holder has used him as shows SIU leading 40-34. To regain the grip is the correct wording too, for Southern has won just nine while dropping 15 since the 1940 season.

There once was a time when Maroon teams held a 12-game advantage over their up-state rivals, but that bulge has now been cut to four and features a point spread of just 2814-2781 in favor of Southern. Throughout 74 games, that's an average Saluki win of just 38-37. Last year's 107-78 trouncing at the hands of the Panthers didn't help Southern's point margin one bit. That defeat was the worst ever inflicted on a Southern team by a Charleston aggregation.

IN CONTRAST to it, the Salukis can point with pride to their resounding 67-31 thumping of the Easterners in 1946.

a "Johnnie on the Spot," substituting him frequently in every game at both guard and forward.

Up to the Eastern game last night, Horst has scored a total of 44 points, ranking him seventh in the Saluki individual scoring list.

BOB NICKOLAUS, Centralia sophomore, will have his work cut out for him from now on. For Nickolaus has stepped into the forward spot left open on the Saluki starting line-up when captain Tom Millikin, Pinckneyville senior, departed for service.

A dead set-shot, Bob lettered here last season, his freshman year. Although barely over six feet, he is also a valuable guy to have around when it comes to rebounding.

Nickolaus, who is also a high jumper on the track team, got a bad break to start off this season. He bruised his ankle in the early part of the season, and was sidelined for four games.

In an interview last week, Holder indicated he had planned to use Nickolaus as Millikin's replacement if his ankle could take steady play. In speaking of him Holder remarked, "He's got speed, and he can hit. If his ankle's all right, he'll be the one to go."

Although he has played in but nine games thus far, "Nick" has dropped in a 45 point total, to rank him sixth on the Saluki scoring list.
