SIU Cagers to Meet Indiana State

Housing Bills To Be Early

An advanced billing procedure to remind students of upcoming housing payments has been initiated by the Housing Office, Robert E. Maurath, assistant coordinator of housing, has announced.

Students were notified at the end of fall term to remind them of payments coming due Jan. 4, 1965. Bills include the Jan. 4 payment plus any earlier payments due, Maurath said.

In other words a student who pays three times a quarter should have received a bill for the $85 payment due Jan. 4 for the first third of winter term, plus any overdue payment for fall term housing.

On each bill is a billing date. If a student has made his payment later than this date, he should disregard the bill.

Students paying by the quarter owe $265. Maurath said the office hopes to send bills a month ahead of the time payment is due.

2 Gold Watches To Be Awards At Variety Show

Applications are available for the Service to Southern awards given at the Theta Xi Fraternity All-School Variety Show on March 6.

The awards consist of two gold watches to the outstanding man and woman who have shown leadership in school, fraternity, housing or club activities.

Runner-up awards will also be given during the show.

Students who have a minimum 3.0 over-all grade average are eligible and may pick up applications at the University Center information desk. All applications are to be submitted to the Student Activities Office by Feb. 5.

Students Express Opinions

On Health Service Move

By Roland Gill

When news hit the campus of the proposed moving of the Health Service to Small Group Housing 115, it generated immediate opinions from SIU students.

Favorable or unfavorable attitudes toward the shift usually depended on where the student lived.

On-campus students reacted favorably to the idea, while some off-campus residents showed immediate dislike for the move.

Suzanne Shelton, freshman from Paducah, Ky., majoring in Spanish, and Andrea G. Bugateski, a junior English major from Christopher, both live at Baldwin Hall at Thompson Point. They agreed that the move is a great idea, because the facilities will be much closer now.

On the other hand, Judy Bowman, a senior living at 400 W. College St., responded to the news with, "Moving out there is a terrible idea! It may be great for the Greeks, but for us off-campus students it's terrible."

Darrell Murphy, a University City resident, said, "It sure will be a long walk," Murphy, a sophomore pre-engineering major from Pittsburg, agreed, however, that the new location would be a much better building.

"It certainly is a lot cleaner looking than that shack on the other side of the tracks," he said.

"I'm in favor of it," was the reaction of Al Bork, a sophomore in Plan A Curriculum. "The new building will give the expanded facilities which are so badly needed," he added.

"Maybe the move will do away with the three-hour waiting sessions to see a doctor," hoped Carla Phelps, an off-campus student. Carla, a senior kindergarten-primary education major from Joliet, added, "We might be dead when we get there after walking that far, but it's a great idea."

An altruistic opinion was offered by Bill Kilpatrick, a freshman history major from Elmwood. Bill, also off-campus, said, "It will be closer for more people over there and will do more people more good. I think it's a good idea."

Three-Game Winning Streak Is on Line in Arena Tonight

By Bob Reincke

Southern puts its three-game winning streak and its record for never losing in the Arena on the line at 8 o'clock tonight when the Salukis meet Indiana State.

The Salukis carry a 5-2 record into the game, and have won all of the games in the Arena. Wednesday's victory over Washington was also the third in a row for coach Jack Hartman's five after they dropped a 61-48 heartbreaker to Kansas State.

Spring Advisement Appointments Start Tuesday at Center

Students may start getting appointments to see their advisers for Spring quarter advance registration this Tuesday in the Olympic Room of the University Center.

The appointment - making schedule calls for seniors to make appointments on Tuesday, juniors on Wednesday, students in General Studies with names beginning with L through Z on Thursday, and the remainder of the General Studies students on Friday.

The appointment - making process will be held in the University Center's Olympic Room from 8-11:30 a.m. and 1-4:30 p.m. on the days mentioned.

Students in good standing who have registered at least once in their current academic unit and who wish to use the self - advisement procedure will begin to report on Jan. 25.

The complete appointment making and self-advisement schedule will be published in Tuesday's Daily Egyptian.

New Deadline Set For Registration

The last day for sectioning late registrations and program changes without a dean's approval has been extended to Jan. 13. Advisement for program changes and late registrations without a dean's approval will end today.

According to a sectioning spokesman, the three-day extension is due to the half-day that the Sectioning Center lost when it moved from the Arena to the Sectioning Center last Wednesday, as well as the late registration of over 1,000 students.

In an effort to avoid the long lines in front of the Sectioning Center, an appointment system is now being used which a sectioning spokesman said may take the students a little longer but will be at least orderly.

The spokesman denied rumors that athletes are being given priority in going through the sectioning process.

Tonight's opponent has won six of its first 10 games, but stands the chance of getting credit for only one of the victories. The Sycamores' coach, Duane Klueh, discovered earlier this week that one of his starters had participated in an amateur tournament last summer in violation of National Collegiate Athletic Association rules.

Starting guard Curt Crittendon is now ineligible because of his participation in the tournament and Indiana State has offered to forfeit the five games it won while he was in the lineup.

If the other schools take advantage of the offer, the Sycamores will only be credited with this week's victory over Ball State.

Of the four games the Sycamores have actually lost, two have come at the hands of a pair of the finest teams in the country. The University of California at Los Angeles, the nation's top-ranked major college team, clobbered Indiana State 112-76, and third-ranked Michigan beat them 102-64.

Crittendon's loss is one of a pair of handicaps the visitors will have to cope with tonight. The Sycamores' second leading scorer and rebounder, Lenny Long, suffered a concussion in Wednesday's game with Ball State and will be out of action. The 6-5 senior had been a two-year starter and had picked up 19 points before his injury midway in the second half.

Coach Klueh will go with Fred Huckstep in Long's place tonight. The 6-6 senior is averaging less than four points a game before moving into the starting five. The other forward will be Joe Warfell, a 6-3 junior averaging 10.6 points a game.

In the backcourt will be Don Pope who moved up to the spot vacated by Crittendon. The 5-8 senior was a starter last year, but is averaging less than four points a game so far as a reserve.

Teaming with Pope at the guard spot will be Rich Edgerton, a flashy sophomore playmaker. Edgerton has improved considerably since the start of the season and has

Monday Last Day For Ilegal Cars

Students with unregistered cars will have until Monday to either register them or take them home. A Parking Section spokesman said tickets will be issued Monday to all unregistered cars on campus.

The penalty for operating or possessing a car without the authority of the University is $50 and/or disciplinary action, including suspension from the University.

Bossings' Cookie-Tasting Party To Have International Flavor

Nelson L. Bossing, professor of secondary education, and Mrs. Bossing will entertain foreign students with an international cookie-tasting party at their home from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

The party will be the last of a series of cookie-tasting fetes for SIU foreign students sponsored by the Bossings. Four similar parties were given on Dec. 24, Dec. 27, Dec. 29, and Jan. 3.

This series of the parties was planned for those foreign students who could not leave

Carbondale through the holidays, to help them get acquainted with each other. Some 250 foreign students have been guests of the Bossings.

Mrs. Bossing has made the cookies from recipes collected from 20 countries. The reception on Jan. 10 is particularly for new foreign students entering SIU this quarter.

The Bossings' home is at 1004 Skyline Dr., Carbondale. Transportation to the party will be arranged.

WSIU Announces Radio Auditions

SIU's radio station, WSIU, will hold auditions Monday and Tuesday nights from 7 to 10 at the studios in T-37.

Students interested in announcing, newsbroadcasting, sports announcing, or writing are invited. Anyone interested in any other facet of radio broadcasting is also welcome to attend the tryouts. No previous radio experience is necessary.

Today's Weather

Cloudy and much colder today with rain falling in the extreme south. Freezing rain or snow predicted elsewhere. Temperatures will range in the 40s in the extreme south and in the 30s elsewhere.

PLAN BRIDGE LUNCHEON - Committee members of the SIU Women's Club are planning the organization's annual luncheon and bridge party, to be held at 1 p.m. Jan. 16 in the University Center ballroom. The members are Mrs. Robert Odaniell, in charge of decorations; Mrs. Troy

Edwards and Mrs. Robert Gallegly, cochairmen; and Mrs. Carlton F. Rasche, publicity chairman. Deadline for reservations, at $2 each, is Tuesday. They can be made with Mrs. Paul Lougeay or Mrs. Howard French. Guests of club members are also invited to attend.

Impeachment?

Absence of Senator Brings Heated Debate In Year's First Meeting of Student Council

At their first meeting of the year, Student Council members waged a long verbal battle over the constitutional powers of the presiding officer to excuse the absences of student senators.

The meeting moved along smoothly at first with a roll call, reading of the minutes, a few announcements and some postponed old business. Then, the fireworks began.

Under new business, Bill H. Carel, senator from the College of Education, told the Council that Ann M. Antoniono, senator from General Studies, had missed more than two meetings. He said that under Council bylaws she should be impeached automatically.

Don Grant, presiding officer of the Council, said he and Pat Micken, student body president, had talked to the student senator previous to her absence from the meeting and they had excused her.

Upon hearing this, James R. Standard, senator from the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, asked why Grant thought he could excuse a student senator from meetings.

Grant replied that Miss Antoniono had given him extenuating circumstances, and he and Micken had decided that she could be excused.

Grant, hastily thumbing through the Council constitution, explained that he, along with advice from Micken, had decided Miss Antoniono should be temporarily excused because of extenuating circumstances.

Carel, who himself had been impeached at the beginning of fall quarter and then re-elected, persisted and said Miss Antoniono had missed four meetings, not two, and that she should be recognized as impeached.

He then made a motion to this effect, and included that Howard F. Benson, elections commissioner, schedule an election in two weeks to fill the vacated seat.

The motion was seconded, but in order for the Council to act on the issue, two-thirds of those present must be in favor of voting on the motion.

The required two-thirds was not registered, so instead of voting on the motion, the problem was opened for more discussion.

Again the argument waged back forth until Grant cited the following:

According to the Council's constitution, "any senator who is absent from more than two meetings, without a proxy, is automatically impeached unless there is extenuating circumstances."

Grant continued that there was such circumstances, and that he, as presiding officer, had rightly granted the absence. He also stated that he would not recognize the impeachment of Miss Antoniono, and the only way the Council could reverse his stand would be with a two-thirds vote.

Standard accepted the challenge and presented a motion to over-rule the presiding officer.

Again the required number of votes was missed, and Miss Antoniono was free from impeachment—at least for one more meeting.

Grant said he will check on Miss Antoniono to find out what she plans to do, and if she is not present at the next meeting, he will call for her impeachment.

Applications Open For Kaplan Grant

Applications are available for the Leo Kaplan Memorial Scholarship given annually by Theta Xi Social Fraternity at the All-School Variety Show.

Applicants may acquire forms at the Financial Assistance Office in the Office of Student Affairs. To be eligible, one must be a sophomore or junior with a 3.75 minimum over-all grade average.

The applicant must also show a financial need and must demonstrate qualities of leadership and participation in activities. Physical or biological science majors are preferred.

The scholarship will be awarded at the variety show on March 6. Leo Kaplan, for whom it was named, was a Theta Xi adviser for 10 years. He left funds for the scholarship.

Deadline for applications is Feb. 12. They are to be submitted to the Financial Assistance Office.

Future U.S.-Soviet Relations Is Big Question

World Problems Press Johnson for Decisions

By James Marlow
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON—In one of the most vital areas of all—foreign affairs—the new year starts off with question marks dangling over the United States and the Soviet Union.

There's no doubt about where President Johnson stands on domestic affairs. He has talked about them a thousand times and laid down a huge program in his State of the Union message to Congress.

But still unknown, after his more than 13 months in office, is how he will perform and what he will propose in the foreign field.

This is also true of Nikita Khrushchev's successors, the new Soviet leaders, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and Leonid I. Brezhnev, the Soviet Communist party chief. In his message, Johnson invited them over here.

Johnson consistently has spoken so mildly, and so little, about foreign problems that his restraint had to be deliberate, although this is in keeping with his technique of creating no unneeded conflicts or antagonisms.

The net result is the picture of a man who didn't want to get involved or commit himself in dilemmas overseas until he had straightened out things at home. This paid off well, as the election showed.

Ever since they bounced Khrushchev out of his job as premier last fall and out of the Russian picture altogether, the new Kremlin leaders have played about as mum as Johnson.

They haven't shown any more initiative or imagination in foreign policy than Johnson. At this point the West can hardly pretend to say what direction they will take or how difficult they will be to get along with.

They sounded more than ungracious—they sounded dull, hackneyed, unsure and negative—in their reaction to Johnson's invitation and the mild tone of his message on Communism in general.

They didn't say anything directly, but they did indirectly, through their government-controlled press and radio, which practically accused Johnson of double-talk when he talked of peace and talked of staying in Viet Nam.

Various reasons could be conjured up to explain this criticism—for example, an attempt to chill any desire on the part of their European satellites for friendlier relations with this country. All might have some validity.

But underneath lay this one consistency on their part: their almost totally speechless performance since Khrushchev's departure.

What the West can't even tell yet is whether the present two-

Gib Crockett, Washington Star

man leadership is just a temporary arrangement until a single leader can be agreed on.

In short, the Soviet leadership up till now gives the impression of being unsure of itself.

Johnson's gestures toward the Soviet Union cannot be taken as a policy unique with him. He inherited it from Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy who worked to build it up.

Johnson would have caused a sensation if he had acted any other way. But his up-till-now tactics of subordinating foreign policy positions to domestic ones can't go on much longer, if only one spot, Viet Nam, is taken as an example.

With the repeated defeats of the American-backed forces there and the steady disintegration of the government, Johnson will have to make new decisions, his own, to find a solution.

New Organization Like Viet Cong Adds to Peril in Malay

By Edward Neilan
Copley News Service

HONG KONG—Still another Viet Cong-like organization has popped up in Southeast Asia.

This time it is in the Malaysian state of Sarawak on the island of Borneo, and it is adding to the war peril in this hot-spot of the "confrontation" instigated by Indonesian President Sukarno against Malaysia, a nation he has vowed to "crush."

The deteriorating situation between the two countries, heightened by Sukarno's announcement that he was pulling Indonesia out of the United Nations because a seat on the Security Council had been earmarked for Malaysia, also has brought on a renewed flurry of troop movements.

The first paratrooper contingents of what will be a 1,000-man British force to help defend Malaysia against possible Indonesian attack, have begun arriving in Singapore. Britain also has ordered an aircraft carrier and several cruisers to the Malaysian area. British ship crews also are being flown in to man activated reserve fleet ships in Singapore.

Malaysia also has sanctioned "hot pursuit" against large-scale guerrilla attacks, which would authorize its troops to cross the borders of Sarawak and Sabah (North Borneo) to pursue guerrillas into Indonesian territory.

Lending new aid to the Indonesian forays, the new Sarawak Viet Cong-style multiracial front group, which calls itself the "North Kalimantan National Liberation League," is supported by the underground Sarawak Communist Party. North Kalimantan is the Indonesian name for North Borneo.

Judging from documents captured by the Malaysian government, the organization bears close resemblance to the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam, which is the political arm of the Communist Viet Cong.

The group has flourishing counterparts in Laos, Cambodia and, more recently, in Thailand.

Like the Viet Nam Liberation Front when it was formally launched four years ago, the North Kalimantan Liberation League has issued a manifesto, a constitution and a set of directives.

Captured documents instructed agents to recruit members from Malaysians of Chinese origin. Non-Chinese are to be accepted "only with strict caution."

According to the Malaysian government, the documents were captured last month in a village in Borneo.

It is estimated that about 1,000 Chinese living in North Borneo crossed into Indonesian Borneo in 1962 and 1963 after Indonesia announced its confrontation of Malaysia.

Many of these Chinese have returned in raiding parties after undergoing training by the Indonesians.

Le Pelley, Christian Science Monitor

AND THE RECOIL COULD KNOCK YOU OVER

A main target of the North Kalimantan Liberation League is said to be Chinese merchants. These merchants are being coaxed into protesting government tax policies and other regulations.

"The league pretends to be a means of uniting people of all races and classes into a Socialist movement," a Malaysian government official said. "In fact, it is a plan to unite them into a Communist mass movement."

Sukarno May Make Malaysian Thrust

By William L. Ryan
AP Special Correspondent

Indonesia's President Sukarno may be preparing for strong new thrusts against neighboring Malaysia, intended to stop short of provoking general war in Southeast Asia. He could edge perilously close to the brink.

Indonesia's departure from the United Nations and concomitant pronouncements from Jakarta and Peking sent shudders through the world's chancelleries. The danger of broad conflict in Southeast Asia seems to be growing.

Malaysia's Foreign Ministry speculates that the "crush Malaysia" venture has been planned jointly by Indonesia and Red China. Peking's foreign minister, Chen Yi, visited Jakarta last August. Sukarno visited China in November.

The plan may be to create revolutionary chaos in Malaysia without going far enough to provide the country's protectors sufficient provocation for drastic countermeasures against Indonesia. The plan also may be relying on support from many of the huge Chinese minority inside Malaysian territories who can be considered an explosive potential.

Four months ago, Australia issued a warning that "unprovoked aggression in the territories of Malaysia must be countered and will be countered." Foreign Minister Paul Hasluck said Australia has clear commitments regarding the defense of Malaysia in partnership with Britain. Australia regards Sukarno with suspicion and annoyance.

Indonesia's regular army may now be as large as 400,000, equipped with Soviet weapons. In contesting with China for Indonesian support of Soviet aims in Asia, the Russians were reported to have given Indonesia an additional $150 million worth of arms in 1964. In all, building up Indonesia over the years cost the U.S.S.R. well over a billion dollars.

New Trial Granted for Dunlap; Escaped Before 1st Conviction

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Leroy Dunlap, who lived for 44 years under the threat of a possible death sentence was granted a new trial Friday.

Dunlap was convicted of first-degree murder in 1920, and the jury did not recommend mercy — making the death sentence mandatory. But Dunlap never was sentenced — because he was not there.

He had escaped while being tried for his part in a holdup slaying. He remained free, part of the time serving in the armed forces under an alias, until his arrest last fall in an old soldiers' home. Today Judge Stephen C.

British and Commonwealth forces which can be considered committed to Malaysia's defense now probably total about 50,000 plus formidable naval and air support. Malaysia's own regular armed forces total less than 20,000, plus 35,000 in paramilitary forces guarding internal security.

Burch Predicts Costly Battle Over Republican Party Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — While his party foes claimed broadening support, Republican National Chairman Dean Burch said Friday the fight over his job could cost the GOP millions of its best workers and contributors.

Burch clearly was talking about the conservative forces that rallied around Sen. Barry Goldwater for president. And while he did not spell it out, the embattled chairman implied that if he goes, they will too.

Goldwater's choice for the chairmanship made the remarks in a speech to the National Press Club.

Burch also disclosed that he met privately this week with Ohio Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss, rated the favorite of liberal and moderate Republicans to replace the national chairman.

They talked about the chairmanship and about Bliss' own position in the struggle over that job, Burch said. But he would not reveal what was said.

Khrushchev Believed Living Near Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev is believed to be living quietly in the snow-covered country near Moscow, Communist sources said Friday.

The former premier has been there most of the time since he suddenly was ousted three months ago.

Informants indicated Khrushchev is in fairly good health.

Steelworkers Election Delays Negotiations

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The election feud in the United Steelworkers Union forced a recess in basic steel contract talks Friday, dampening hopes for an early settlement.

The 11 steel companies involved in negotiations proposed a five-week recess. The union went along with it.

Presumably, the delay will add to the uneasiness in the steel and steel-using industries which always get a case of jitters during negotiation periods. Some buyers already have started to build steel stockpiles out of fear of a strike.

Incumbent David J. McDonald is being opposed for the union presidency by USW Secretary-Treasurer I. W. Abel. The race has erupted into a heated verbal battle of charges and countercharges. Some one million USW members will vote Feb. 9.

R. Conrad Cooper, a U.S. Steel Corp. vice president who is the chief company negotiator, told a news conference the delay in negotiations increases the possibility of a crisis in bargaining. Cooper said the companies do not want to get drawn into the union election struggle, adding: "The companies have not forced a suspension of negotiations. We have simply forced a recognition of the facts of life regarding collective bargaining."

New Role for Chile Urged by Minister

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Foreign Minister Gabriel Valdes recommends that Chile establish closer ties with the neutralist and Communist nations as part of an expanding world role.

"Chile must be an active element in the creation of a new world community, in which the underdeveloped countries of the so-called third world will play a decisive role," he said in a foreign policy address to the Senate made public Thursday.

Hinting at closer ties with Red China, he said that Chile "has a destiny open toward the Pacific and, in a future which is not far away, continental China will open itself to exchanges in this area."

The BIG Inch

The BIG inch — lonesome by itself, but when incorporated into a DAILY EGYPTIAN classified, it is mighty big. Let's see, 1 inch times 10,000 (that's our circulation) is 10,000 inches. At a rate of only $1.00 for 20 words, that's nearly 10,000 inches for $1.00!

Who will read your 10,000 inches? Students just like you — faculty members just like you — families just like yours — people just like the people you know.

You can plainly see that if you have something for sale, a service to offer or have merely lost your favorite roommate, the DAILY EGYPTIAN's the best place to look.

Better place your ad today, but hurry, deadlines are 2 days prior to publication at noon, except for Tuesday's paper which is noon Friday. Call 453-2354 for details.

SIU Swimmers Hope to Make Big Splash in Big Ten Relays

Coach Ralph Casey predicts his SIU swimming team will be competing in "The best college relay meet that has ever been held" when it takes to the water this afternoon in the Big Ten Relays at Ann Arbor, Mich.

The Saluki mermen will be joining such swimming powers as Michigan and Indiana, the nation's two-top rated teams, and Ohio State and Michigan State in the talent-rich six-team field which will dive from the post at 2 p.m.

Only Wisconsin of the pack seems not to be in the super-

Red Schoendienst To Speak at 'Y' In Carbondale

"Red" Schoendienst, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team, will be featured speaker at the Carbondale YMCA annual meeting and dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday in the University Center Ballroom.

Dr. Clifford Neill, YMCA president, said a feature of the program will be vocal selections by Schoendienst's wife, Mary, and a brief concert by the University Male Glee Club.

Plans for the Carbondale YMCA in 1965 also will be presented.

Leater Summers, YMCA secretary, said today that tickets still are available at $3.75 each and may be purchased at the information desk in University Center or at the YMCA office, 213 East Pearl Street.

YMCA work began in Carbondale in 1925, with activity centered around high school students in the form of clubs and youth conferences. First Carbondale YMCA board of directors was organized in 1955.

Courses in first aid, sports and physical fitness are listed on the YMCA's winter schedule.

man class. Thus Casey has little hopes of a team championship although he believes his squad's chances are good in several of the individual events.

The best bet for a Saluki blue ribbon may come in the 2000 freestyle relay, in the longest of the day's come-offs the Salukis will be sending the young but fast quartet of Rich Evertz, Don Shaffer, Kimo Miles and Thom McAneney in hopes of laurels.

With veteran McAneney, one of the best 500 freestylers in the nation, anchoring the team it could very well be in the money. The tall Miami, Fla., junior already has turned in a sub-five minute performance which possibly may be the only one recorded this season.

Also regarded as possible winners for SIU are the 300-yard Butterfly Relay team of Marco Bonne Miles and Darrell Green and the 200-yard Medley Relay quartet of Bob O'Callaghan, Ted Petras, Green and Mike Roberts.

Eighteen Salukis will make the trip by plane this morning and will be returning via the air route this evening. It should be a busy day for all 18 as most will be competing in the maximum number of events allowed—three.

The Salukis will have entrants in all 11 of the afternoon's events except the diving. As the meet's name applies all events will be relays, the only time SIU will run into that situation this season.

The meet will be the third competitive outing of the season for the Salukis who have defeated Evansville and Mankato State in dual meets. The team is predominately composed of underclassmen with only five seniors, Mike Roberts, Ray Sickler, Darrell Green, Ted Petras and Andy Stoodly listed among its numbers.

After this afternoon's outing the Salukis will return to their dual meet schedule hosting Nebraska's Big Eight Cornhuskers next Friday.

Intramural Basketball Teams Meet In Weekend Contests

Wilkinson's Matmen Face Iowa School Team Today

Jim Wilkinson and nine of his SIU wrestlers left Friday on a 375-mile trip to Fairfield, Iowa, where they will meet Parsons College at 1:30 p.m. today.

Dan Gesky, who wrestles in the heavyweight class, is the only undecided entry for Southern.

Wilkinson plans only to use him in case a fall is needed to insure an SIU victory.

If Gesky does not wrestle, his place will be taken by Alf Harem. Harem is not operating at full strength either and, if the meet is not close, Wilkinson may forfeit the heavyweight class to Parsons.

Wilkinson's lineup appears set at the other weight classes. Barry Baron and George McCreery have recovered from their minor injuries and will defend the 130 and 167 pound classes for Southern.

Southern's other entries include Don Devine at 123 pounds, newcomer Dave Pforr at 137, Terry Thomas at 147, Dan DiVito at 157 and Bob Herkert at 177.

The meet is expected to warm up the Salukis for their quadrangular meet next week at Oxford, Ohio. The SIU matmen will be facing wrestlers from the University of Cincinnati, Indiana State, and the host school, Miami of Ohio.

Cadet Bands Plan To Play at Games

ROTC pep bands will provide entertainment for all home basketball games, Jim Lagestee, conductor of the bands, has announced.

Two divisions of the band will divide the work, with one division performing at all games during the week and the other playing on Saturday.

Cadet Lt. Paul Johnson will be commander of the weekday band, and Cadet Lt. Larry Brickman commander of the band playing on Saturdays.

Mighty Wichita Team to Give Salukis Hard Night's Fight

Southern's basketball team will face its toughest test of the season, when it invades Wichita on Monday night.

The Wheatsockers are ranked fifth in the Associated Press major college polls and have won nine of their first 11 games. Both of the defeats have come from other highly regarded teams, The Shockers fell to St. Joseph's, the fourth-ranked team, 77-69; and lost a cliffhanger to third-ranked Michigan, 87-85 on a basket by Cazzie Russe! at the buzzer.

Wichita's lineup is enough to frighten even the most stout-hearted opponent. The full roster of 14 men have a combined height of 90 feet. For the mathematically inclined, this is an average of just over 6-feet-5 inches per man. The Shockers have three men at 6-7, two at 6-8, and one each at 6-9 and 6-10.

Wichita also has an abundance of experience and depth to go along with the height. They have nine men back from last year's team which posted a 23-6 record and advanced to NCAA regionals. Heading the list of returnees is Dave Stallworth, whose eligibility expires three weeks after Monday's contest.

Stallworth was everybody's All-America last year and was voted as one of the year's best collegiate players. The 6-7 senior averaged 26.5 points a game last year and was also the leading rebounder.

Other probable starters for the game are 6-10 senior center Nate Bowan, 6-5 senior forward Dave Leach, and junior guards 5-10 John Criss and 6-1 Kelley Pete.

As if the credentials of Stallworth weren't enough, Wichita coach Gary Thompson says that Pete is a potential All-America and adds that he could be the best player in Wichita's history.

The Shockers' main height comes from the second unit made up of 6-9 Gerry Davis, 6-7 Larry Noshik, 6-4 Vernon Smith and 6-8 Gerard Reimond.

Professors to Talk In Unitarian Series

William H. Harris, professor of philosophy, will open a series of talks on the "Human Consequences of the Technological Revolution" at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at the Unitarian Church.

Other speakers in the series include Robert G. Layer, professor of economics; Don Ihde, and George T. McClure, assistant professors of philosophy; and Paul R. Wendt, professor of instructional materials.

Aspects of the technological revolution to be touched upon by these and other speakers, to be announced, will include automation, leisure, work economics, machine-programmed instruction, literature and music.

City Planners OK 2 New Dorms

The Carbondale City Plan Commission has given its approval for the construction of two dormitories to be built on Graham and Wall Streets, just north of East Freeman.

Construction of the two dormitories is scheduled to begin in the spring and is expected to be completed by next September.

Both of the three story dormitories will house 111 occupants and each will be served by a centrally located dining hall.

In other events Barbara Rendleman, chairman of the zoning commission, said that a hearing will be set shortly on the 1 1/2 mile city zoning ordinance.

Robert A. McGrath, University registrar and vice chairman of the City Plan Commission presided over the meeting in place of Chairman John F. Lonergan, University landscape architect.

FRANK KONISHI

Konishi Gets Grant From U.S. Agency

A $17,666 grant from the U.S. Public Health Service has been awarded to Frank Konishi, associate professor of food and nutrition, to support his research on the metabolism of liver and fat tissues.

Konishi last year received a $57,890 grant from the National Institute of Arthritis and Metabolic Diseases for a three-year study of this obesity problem.

Former radiobiologist with the U.S. Naval Radiological Defense Laboratory at San Francisco, Konishi joined the SIU School of Home Economics faculty in 1961.

5,359 Interviews

Placement Service Activity Shows Major Rise Over '63

Employer representatives from 26 states and Washington, D. C. conducted 5,359 interviews with individual students during 1964, according to the Placement Service annual report.

The interviewer total showed an increase of 30 per cent over 1963, according to Royce R. Bryant, Placement Service director.

Commanding salaries that ranged up to 4 1/2 per cent higher than last year, SIU graduates had the widest job market that has been open to any graduating class.

The report shows that last year's graduate accepted positions with business and industry in 37 states, 52 countries in Illinois and in 16 foreign countries. In the teaching field, graduates accepted positions in 33 states, 81 counties in Illinois and seven foreign countries.

The report showed salaries increased over those received by 1963 graduates. Master's degree graduates received the larger increases—4 1/2 per cent increase for elementary teaching and 4 per cent for secondary teaching.

The demand from business and industry was greatest for engineers, accountants, chemists, management trainees and production trainees, the report shows. Marketing personnel in such fields as advertising, insurance, merchandising and sales promotion remains one of the strongest areas. Job opportunities for college graduates with the federal government are still on the increase.

"With 2,125 SIU graduates of 1964 (bachelor's through doctor's degrees), 182 two-year graduates of the Division of Technical and Adult Education, and 1,092 alumni who re-activated their papers with the service, the Placement Service was in a position to recommend 3,399 candidates to employers during the 1963-64 placement year," Bryant said.

averaged about 15 points a game in the last four outings.

The big man for the Sycamores, however, is center Butch Wade. The 6-4 sophomore is averaging 25 points and 10 rebounds a game and is breaking school records right and left. In his first varsity game, Wade set a record by pumping in 39 points against Illinois State.

A couple of weeks later against Kent State, he made 18 straight free throws and wound up with 24 of 26 attempts for another pair of records. In the Ball State game the sophomore flash tallied 35 points and pulled down 18 rebounds.

U.N. Seminar Set Sunday at Theatre

The first seminar in a series of six covering the background and development of the issues before the Model United Nations General Assembly will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in Studio Theatre.

Abdul Abbass, professor of government, is to be the initial speaker of the series. The first seminar will cover the historical development and operating organization of the United Nations.

Model U.N. Secretary Gen. George Paluch said the Steering Committee of the Model U.N. considers attendance at these seminars mandatory for successful representation of delegations. All delegation chairmen and delegates are expected to attend, Paluch said.

Circle K Chapter To Meet Monday

The SIU Chapter of Circle K International will meet at 8:30 p.m. Monday in the Morris Library Lounge.

A special program dealing with meeting procedures and club activities is planned, said John Paul Davis, president of the chapter.
