THE FOURTEEN VIRGINIANS WILL PLAY FOR PROM

CORONATION CEREMONY FOR PROM QUEEN TO FEATURE EVENING'S PROGRAM

For the first time in the brief history of S. I. T. C. campus dances, a recognized dance band will be featured at a college dance. The senior dance committee has secured for the Junior-Senior Prom from Friday evening in the men's gymnasium, The Fourteen Virginians, a well known traveling band from the northern part of the state. Besides regular dance numbers The Fourteen Virginians will offer special entertainment, and will feature their blues singer, Jean Day.

The featured event of the evening will be the advent and crowning of the queen of the Prom, a girl chosen from the senior class. The identity of Her Majesty will remain unknown until the ceremony takes place. She will be attended by Eloise Wright and Polly Peterson, both of whom were selected by the junior class last week.

Silver, blue and gray have been chosen for decorations. Since the gym is so large, the decorating will be concentrated on the lighting effects which will minimize the height and bluntness of the room. The orchestra will furnish lighting effects for its own background.

Prom to Be Semi-Formal

The committee has announced that the affair will be semi-formal and will be chaperoned by Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Scott, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Abbott, Dr. Mary Steagall, Miss Marjorie Scott, Robert Dunn Parer, Captain and Mrs. William McCandrew, Dean Lucy K. Woody, Miss Thelma Kellogg, Miss Emma Bowen, Dr. and Mrs. Russell Nolen, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Beyer, and Vincent DiGiorgano.

Dancing will be from 9 till 11. Cards will be provided for those who do not care to dance.

A tentative admission price is $1.25. However the joint junior and senior committees have not definitely named the admission price. All arrangements for the Prom have been made by the two class committees, consisting of Floyd Smith, Berdena Farnor, Arthur Newman, seniors, and Eloise Wright, Richard Wittenborn and Lois Boyle, juniors.

HOME ECONOMICS CLASS DRESSING DOLLS FOR ALLYN BUILDING MUSEUM

The Home Economics survey class is dressing-dolls for the children's museum of the Allyn Building. These dolls are dressed to represent characters in children's literature, such as Robin Hood, Red Riding Hood, and others. The dolls were bought with the money which was made from the sandwich sale last week.

Science Students On Week-End Tour

The Chemeka club made its annual trip to St. Louis Friday to visit places of interest to chemistry students.

The group visited the steel plant at Granite City Friday morning and had lunch at the plant cafeteria. In the afternoon they visited the Illinois Owens glass company at Alton. Saturday they visited the American zinc company in St. Louis.

Dr. R. A. Scott, Dr. T. W. Abbott, Dr. J. W. Neekers, Dr. Kenneth Van Lente, and Dr. O. B. Young were chaperons on the trip.

LITTLE THEATRE TO HONOR SIX GROUP MEMBERS

FOUR ACTORS AND TWO TECHNICIANS WILL RECEIVE AWARDS

The Little Theatre ruled at a meeting Thursday evening that six members of the society, four actors and two technicians, should receive honorable mention for outstanding work in the organization this year.

The actors chosen were Robert Boyle, who appeared in "Tune In," and was president of the society until he withdrew from college; Elizabeth Anne West, who played in "Tune In," and "Three-Cornered Moon," and served on the program committee; Edward Mitchell, who appeared in "Tune In," "The Pot Boiler," and helped with the reorganization of the Little Theatre last fall; and Erna Knobloch, who worked in "Tune In," and "Three-Cornered Moon."

The technicians honored were Karl Bauman and Barbara Jane Scott. Mr. Bauman designed the sets of "Three-Cornered Moon" and the first act of "Tune In." Miss Scott designed the set for the third-act of "Tune In," and has worked on the set of every other play.

Officers were also chosen for Little Theatre production this year next year. They are: president, Edward Mitchell; vice-president, Lois Boyle; secretary-treasurer, Anna Lee Moore.

A provision was passed that try-outs for vacancies in the group that will be held before two weeks shall have elapsed in the school term next fall. Approximately ten places will be open, membership being limited to twenty-five actors and two technicians. Unless applications can really qualify, the maximum quota will not be reached.

Commerce Club Will Hold Mock Trial Tomorrow Night

"The Slander Case", a mock trial, will be the main feature of the final Chamber of Commerce meeting to be held in the Socratic hall tomorrow night. Musical selections, consisting of piano solo, by Gene Allen; and numbers by a negro quartette, under the direction of Selma Snow, will complete the program.

It seems that Mary Carter, a guest at the home of Joan Martin, called her hostess a "dumb-bell," and the "Slander Case", coached by Robert Karr, is Jean's attempt to get even. Judge John Brewer will listen to the pleas of Attorneys Robert Gallegly and George Hanson. The sheriff will be Jim Gray, and the court reporter, Lester Riddle. The following witnesses will testify: Dr. I. Q. DeRibus, Robert Karr; Professor N. O. Goode, Carlton Rasche; Virginia Dare, Harriet Schimpf; Emilee Post, Charlie Head; Precious Stone, Alice Craney.

The newly-elected officers for next year will have charge of the meeting. They are president, Robert Gallegly; vice-president, Randall Quindry; and secretary-treasurer, Robert Karr.

CASTS FOR SOCIETY SPRING PLAYS IN HEAVY REHEARSALS THIS WEEK

ANNA LEE MOORE, FRANK SAMUEL CARRY ROMANTIC LEADS IN ZETETIC PLAY

With the approach of commencement week, the Zetetic spring play cast, in addition to concentrating on the third act of "Holiday," began final rehearsals last week on the first and second acts of the play.

From the models sets submitted by the stagecraft class the plans of Edward Mitchell for the first and third acts and those of Kathryn Seibert and Robert Channess for the second act have been chosen. The stage settings will be constructed under the direction of these students.

In the play which tells of the life of the Park Avenue Strains, Anna Lee Moore, a sophomore from Harrisburg, has the feminine lead of Linda. Miss Moore, a member of Strat and Fret Little Theatre, gave a creditable performance in the Homecoming production, "Tune-In." In her first year here she also identified herself by her excellent work in inter-collegiate debating. Opposite her in the male lead is Frank Samuel, also a member of Little Theatre.

Mr. Samuel, who was prominent in high school dramatics, has during the past year made successful appearances in "Tune In," and in the Little Theatre production "Three-Cornered Moon."

Appearing in her first major role, Martha Howells, a junior, promises an outstanding performance in the unsymmetrical role of Linda's sister, Julie.

Six Character Roles in Play In addition to the straight leads there are six good character parts. Departing from her usual dramatic roles, Elizabeth Anne West, in her last S. I. T. C. stage performance, characterizes Susan, the wife of Nick Potter, played by Gasaway Bovinet. The Potters are a care-free couple who live for the joy of living. Another comedy team is that of Marjorie Brown and Arnold Thomas as Laura and Seton Cram, the obnoxious Seton cousins.

Everett Mitchell will appear as Ed Seton, the father who is accustomed to having his will obeyed. The part of Linda's irresponsible brother, Ned, is taken by Edward Mitchell, newly elected Little Theatre president.

JOHN STRAUB, WITH MUNY OPERA EXPERIENCE, HEADS SOCRATIC PLAY CAST

The Socratic cast for "A Murder Has Been Arranged" is well underway in its rehearsing in preparation for production on June 6. The cast is doing an excellent job of capturing the suspense and horror of this murder mystery.

John Straub, whose stage poise has been marked up to his credit on more than one occasion, is living up to his reputation. Mr. Straub has appeared in two roles in Municipal Opera, St. Louis, as well as in many high school productions. Mr. Straub's first appearance in dramatics on this campus was in "All's Fair," 1933-34 homecoming play, in which he did a Peasant Dance specialty. In "A Murder Has Been Arranged" he is handling the role of Maurice Mullins, the Complete Criminal.

Ernest Brashear, who plays the part of James North, the reporter who can't remember his name, has done an excellent work this year. He has appeared in the homecoming play, "Tune In," "Three-Cornered Moon," the Little Theatre production of the year, and in the "Pot-Boiler."

Genevieve Morgan made her first prominent appearance in dramatics at S. I. T. C. as Kitty, the persistent girl-friend in "Three-Cornered Moon." She also had a minor part in "Tune-In." Miss Morgan will play the lead as Lady Beatrice, the young wife of the murdered man.

Others in Case Experienced in Society Presentations

Ruth Nast and Musette Cary are new in campus presentations, but have been very active in dramatics, directing and acting in short plays before the society during the year. Ruth Ella Neal appeared in "Violent Moves In," a short-play given in the fall term before the society. They have all played numerous character parts while in high school.

LaVern Adams, who has attended dramatic school in New York, will make his first appearance in a major production as Sir Charles Jasper.

Ann Langdon is making her first appearance on the college stage as Mrs. Wrogers, the English maid-of-all-work. Her previous experience has been in the realm of high school dramatics.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES TO BE SUNDAY MORNING

158 SENIORS INCLUDED IN PROCESSIONAL; SERMON BY REV. J. S. BURGESS

Beginning the sixteenth annual S. I. T. C. graduation exercises, 158 seniors will file in solemn procession from the Main building into Shryock Auditorium Sunday morning to attend the Baccalaureate services. The services will start at 10:15. The Reverend Mr. Samuel J. Burgess, pastor of the Carbondale Christian church, will deliver the baccalaureate address, and the Reverend Mr. Wilkes B. Watson, minister of the First Baptist church of Carbondale, will give the invocation and benediction.

The MacDougal Club will furnish special music for the occasion.

The candidates for the Bachelor of Education degree will be grouped together in alphabetical order for the procession, while another group, also in alphabetical order, will be the two-year graduates. The groups will congregate in the Main building.

The faculty will march in the academic procession and will assemble in front of the gymnasium. Both the faculty members and seniors are requested to be at their respective gathering places by 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Commencement Procedure the Same

The procedure commencement day, Friday, June 7, will be the same, the groups meeting at the same places and marching into Shryock Auditorium in the same manner.

At the commencement exercises, guests of the graduating classes will be seated in a reserved section of the auditorium. Each senior is allowed two tickets for this section. Tickets were made available at the Registrar's office Monday, and should be secured immediately.

Alumni and 1935 Graduates Invited To Attend Dinner

The first dinner of the new Alumni Association will be held at 6:30 Thursday, June 6, at Anthony Hall. All alumni members of the two and four year graduate classes are invited to make reservations with Miss Grace Park at Francis Hall by next Tuesday evening. Tickets are seventy-five cents. This includes the price of the dinner and the dues of the association.

A short business session will follow the dinner. Mr. Everett Miller, vice-president of the old association, will act as presiding officer in the absence of the president, Frank Bridges. New officers for these positions will be elected, but Miss Burckett will retain the office of secretary-treasurer. It is likely that the association will decide to have subsequent reunions during Homecoming.

About fifteen representatives of the class of 1935 have already made reservations. It is customary for this class to hold reunions every five years, therefore it will be the honored class this year.

Several musical selections will be played by a string quartet composed of Mr. Utah Kruppe and Wendell Marxace, violin; Charles Patterson, viola; Allison McCord, cello. The program follows:

A CHALLENGE

About 160 S. I. T. C. graduates will enter upon their breadwinning period next week. With the exception of a few, all of the seniors will be looking for, or creating themselves in, teaching jobs. Their problems will be legion.

They must face adverse economic conditions which lead to a discouraging outlook. They must face the fact that they are in an overcrowded profession. They will meet with dishonest policies, disheartening and dangerous. Some seniors probably will be, if not have been, approached with the crooked salary "kickback" demand.

These are some of the obstacles. There are encouragements more than compensating. Such graduates as those who today look with discouragement toward the seemingly slim prospects of being placed in a teaching position for the coming year, will do well to note the past S. I. T. C. record for placements. During the years which were least in yielding teaching positions, this college maintained an enviable record in caring for its graduates. Such a record was established and maintained only by the keenest alertness and untiring industry on the part of the administration.

Dean Wham's office will be kept open all summer to handle placements. Last year S. I. T. C. placed nearly 75 per cent of the graduates. Many of these placements were obtained through the summer months. Indeed commencement time is just the beginning for securing situations.

Individual initiative will still be the best means of securing jobs. The local office is only a placement aid and guide. Seniors would greatly benefit by cooperating to the greatest extent with Dean Wham's office.

The graduating men and women can look forward to the best years of their lives to be spent in their chosen profession. It may be overcrowded; nearly all professions are. But there is always room at the top. The graduates are about to meet the world as it exists. They are entering for the first time in reality, upon the adventure of life. That very fact should give them a zest, a lift.

Confidence and hope should be the keynote of commencement week. Certainly there are difficulties to confront, certainly life's realities are tough, but the graduates have spent four years specifically preparing themselves to meet these obstacles.

Confidence should come from their training, hope from their youth.

Theoretically, every S. I. T. C. graduate has the ability to earn his own way in the world. He will soon be on his own.

Here is a challenge, and meeting it will be the first and most important step in a graduate's life.

COLLEGIATE REACTION

A few weeks ago the Williams College "Record" was instrumental in ending the run of Hearst Metroton News at its local theatre, because, as they said, of its ill-concealed militaristic propaganda. This is representative of a widespread movement among colleges, and not only against Mr. Hearst, but against all big game and victors alike. Although this movement does not seem to have reached our campus, it is one that is worthy of thoughtful consideration.

RECOGNITION AT LAST

S. I. T. C. has at last seen fit to reward a hardworking group of athletes who have, until this year, received no recognition for their work. Minor letter awards will be given to five members of the 1935 gym team, it was announced recently.

The gym team, organized in 1928, has for six years given performances both on and off the campus. Until this year, the only recognition received has been the compliments and sincere thanks of students and visitors alike. These performances have not been bursts of sudden skill, but rather have been the result of constant, sustained practice and the able tutoring of Coach DiGiovanna.

We feel that this long-delayed recognition is proper, and extend congratulations to Mr. DiGiovanna and the gym team.

KEEPERS?

Have you ever considered the lost column with the found column? The articles found and turned in are small, insignificant articles, while those lost are more valuable. We don't mean that things that are found are not lost, but we do mean that all the things that are found are not turned in. "Losers weepers, finders keepers" should not apply to honest students.

Even as the changing wind on the stone face of the Sphinx of Egypt brings different sounds, temperature, and weathering actions—so, too, does the character of news change in this column when the writers change.

Jeanette Spaulding, last week, tossed a doughnut some thirty feet into the dignified air of Anthony Hall's dining room. After the doughnut had crashed to the floor, from its trip through the rafters, said Jeanette: "I've always had a suppressed desire to do that, but Miss Baker was always around until now."

Lavern Hemmer—that swift pacing little K. D. A.—holds the record for long and verbose inscriptions in Oblislat Peggy Wiehe and Genevieve Douglas, who, as to who wins the most lively literary touch of "Gourd Head."

Said Ann Langdon: "I'd love to tell you what goes on at play practice for 'A Murder Has Been Arranged,' but they would know who told you."

Sadly shaking their heads came Jim Gray and "Wilby" Schaffer from Dr. Thalmann's Education 310 exam—"Guess we had the wrong trip on them questions," muttered one of them.

"St. Louis" Louis Bertoni is cured of loaning money! For the clean and noble purpose of paying a laundry bill he loaned "The Dove Nesters" (2011 W. Main) $1.00 weekly wage. The Dove Nesters are still in default. Lack of the "buck" gave "King Kong" inside track in the Bertoni, Taylor, Califree race.

Nemo Gaines takes a novel course under Miss Barbour. Last week he convulsed the class when he asked: "If the heroine of that novel was so innocent how did she know that was a BULL instead of a COW in that field?"

News Item: Grover Morgan favored record assembly with an accordion solo and Elsie Faner with a date last Thursday.

"K" Standard is gaining fame as being a gracious hostess to people who have no warm water for bathing, and for one chemistry student whose initials are—George West.

The Sphinx Notes With Story

Stinner's:
 "Bill Salus" craving for a diet highly charged with proteins; Mable Silkwood's constant primping in Ed. 310 class; Happy Evans' distributing of "Red" newspapers; Joe Sunderland's greed for more chain letter dimes; Catherine Huntington dressing up in VERY flimsy paper dresses for the benefit of the "21 Normal girls"; "Vastly Fairs" shower being used so often for cold shower purposes; James Owen's way of kicking over dressers; Eddie Reed and Anna Louise Isherwood's vaquent wailing; The Rat Hole's "R" charger" when driven by Zenith Sitter.

The Sphinx Smiles a Salute to

Polly Peterson in her pink outfit; Bob Jack's good disposition and dignity; Lee Rushing's ability to sell a special delivery stamp to his landlady to finance a meal for his room mate.
 Audrey Hill's sincerity and social vision.
 "Beans" Hetherington's appreciation of literature; Alberta Hamilton for being natural; "Chris" for liberal extension of credit to hungry men.

McIntosh To Sing At Socrat Meeting

David S. McIntosh, head of the S. I. T. C. music department, will sing at the Socratic society tonight. Other numbers on the program will be a musical novelty by Glenn Gregory, a humorous reading by J. C. Johnson, and a musical feature by a quartet.

19 U. High Seniors To be Graduated

The following nineteen high school seniors are to be graduated from University high school at commencement exercises, Tuesday evening, June 4: Elizabeth Barnes, Thelma Barrett, Guinna Cotter, Earl Etherton, Helen Frank, Floyd Ghent, Mark Hall, Marjorie Mae Johnston, Martha Jones, Alice Konydo, Clarence Logan, Jr., Alice Melinger, David Moss, John Herbert Neal, Raymond Neuhof, Salome Perry, Helen Perry, Robert Peterson, Virginia Lee West.

J. Ward Barnes, Modern Problems Club Organizer

J. WARD BARNES

J. Ward Barnes, a senior who is generally known on the campus for his friendliness and ever-ready spirit of cooperation and conviviality, might well receive some attention with regard to his more serious achievements. Although he was an office of his class during his junior year and has taken part in various other activities, Mr. Barnes will have a permanent place in campus history because of his organization of the Modern Problems Club.

When, after several unsuccessful attempts to gain permission from the administration, Mr. Barnes, with the aid of other interested students, founded the organization, it was called the Latin American Club. This year the name was changed to the more appropriate title, "Modern Problems Club." With the close of this, its second successful year's work, Mr. Barnes can undertake his graduate work in history with the satisfaction of knowing that he has founded a substantial and worthwhile project at S. I. T. C.

INTERFRATERNITY HONOR TROPHY SELECTED; TO BE PRESENTED MONDAY NIGHT

The trophy to be awarded by the Interfraternity Council to an outstanding fraternity man on the campus has been selected. It is a silver trophy, seven or eight inches high, similar to a cup, except for a closed top. There is a design on it. The trophy will be presented at a joint meeting of the two fraternities, to be held Monday night at the K. D. A. house.

REFLECTIONS BY F. S.

It seems like every student, at the end of every term, changes. From a student to a cramming Book-worm! The library's Packed, and the books you want are out—(???) So you sit Down to Wait for them, All you can Do is Pout!

Here you need A book, The need is Oh so dire, But you Couldn't get That book For love Or blood Or hire!

Ah! A teacher Comes upon the scene. (Watch that face, So calm, serene!) He saunters Back behind The "bar"—

The "bar"— Coasters your Books From near And far He takes them Out— (You froth and Foam)

—And he keeps Them out Till the cows — Come home!

So my dear Children, Find a place And perch, Until the Teachers finish Their Spring Term Research!

OH! It's quite All right, For we can Wait, Until it seems That we all Wait until Too late!

"Have you asked me To write in your OBELISK?" "No, I haven't." "Ah! You are indeed a Fran!"

Two W. U. Faculty Members to Speak at A. A. U. P. Dinner

Professor L. L. Bernard of the sociology department of Washington University, St. Louis, and Professor Theo. Lentz of the Washington University education department, will be guest speakers at a dinner given by the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors at the Roberts Hotel Tuesday night. The dinner will be at 6:30, and will be attended by the members of the local A. A. U. P., their wives and guests. There are sixteen active members of the local group. Robert D. Faner is president; Miss Esther M. Power is secretary, and Dr. J. W. Neckers is treasurer.

A committee composed of Miss Mary Crawford, chairman, and Dr. Vera L. Peacock and Miss Hilda A. Stein, has charge of the winter arrangements. Professor Bernard, a member of the National Council of the A. A. U. P., will speak concerning the organization itself. Professor Lentz will follow with a discussion on the same topic.

Mrs. Bernard and Mrs. Lentz will also attend the dinner.

White Elephant Sale Returns Net Approximately $60

Though financial returns from the white elephant sale last week fell a little below those of former years, from the standpoint of cooperation, interest, and enthusiasm this year's sale may be considered an outstanding success. Under the efficient auctioneering of Oliver Baggott and Wesley Bovinet, bids went up quickly and to a satisfactory height. Simultaneously with the sale from the stage twelve girls sold ten cent packages up and down the aisles of the auditorium. Intense interest in the auction drew attention from the sale of the smaller items, and some of them remained unsold.

An interesting feature of the hour was the unsuccessful attempt of Miss Helen Baldwin to make her sack explode.

The several hundred packages offered contained lost articles turned in to the president's office, and novelties made by C. W. E. S. girls during the winter. The proceeds, approximately sixty dollars, will be added to the college's student loan fund.

About two hundred of the ten cent packages are being held in Dean Woody's office, and may be purchased at any time within the next two weeks.

Delbert Spears, head announcer for the sixteenth annual Little Nineteen meet, has filled this position for twelve years.

Laeding, of Macomb won the discus toss by the narrow margin, nosing out Slance of Wesleyan by one-half inch.

Three entrants in the 220 yard dash fourth trial heat trotted to a tie finish in 44.1 seconds. The slow time was a result of the fact that three qualified in each heat.

Miller of Illinois College barely missed setting a new pole vault record as he tried at 12 ft. 10 1/2 inches.

The Southern Teachers squad traveled farther than any other team in the meet.

Of the twenty-one conference schools, nineteen entered men and sixteen scored points.

The Macomb band of thirty-two members paraded before the meet opening Saturday and played during the two-mile run. Black trousers, purple and gold sweaters and capes made a neat ensemble.

Natalie Sebastian, Macomb coed, was elected as May Queen, and with her four attendants occupied the place of honor and awarded the victors' medals.

The Fly Swatters, with their six game streak, are certain to finish on top of the league standings, but according to league plans, must meet the second place club in a playoff game.

It may be necessary to continue the play tomorrow, for if the K. D. A.'s trimmed the Monkey's tonight, and the Faculty defeated the Swatters, it would leave the fraternity meet for the second round.

On the other hand, a Faculty or K. D. A. victory while the other team was losing would place the winners in undisputed possession of second place and in the playoffs.

Announcement of tomorrow's schedule is withheld pending the outcome of the games tonight.

Carding will be made to definitely decide the playoff competitors. All players and managers are requested to wait in the bulletin board in the gym for the schedule.

In an other league game, the undefeated Fly Swatters defeated the Chi Dells 8-2. Bartimus and Rains allowed the fraternity team only one hit and struck out thirteen men.
