High School Seniors Will Be Guests at Southern Tomorrow

Assembly To Open Program; Expect 1,000 To Attend

More than 1,000 seniors from Southern Illinois high schools will be guests of SIU tomorrow on the annual Senior Guest Day, according to Robert Etheridge, assistant dean of men and general chairman of the affair.

Registration is scheduled from 8 to 10 a.m. in the recreation room of the Women's gym. During this period, seniors will also be conducted on tours of the campus by Alpha Phi Omega and Girls' Rally members.

AT A 10:30 assembly, SIU Homecoming queen Doris Wade will be introduced by Homecoming Harry, alias Joe Embser. Doris Schwinn will act as master of ceremonies for the program, which will also include selections by the Maroon band and the Madrigal singers, a skit by Ed Lunde and Jim Trigg, a vocal selection by Wanda Crabtree, and a movie, "From Normal School to Regional University."

Wayne Mann, university alumni director, is program chairman for Senior Day.

Dean of Men I. Clark Davis and Dean of Women Leah Farr will preside at a 12:30 luncheon for chaperones and bus drivers at the Canteen.

IN THE AFTERNOON, the seniors will be guests of the university at the Maroon-Western football game at McAndrew stadium. In conjunction with the cheerleading clinic also scheduled for tomorrow, high school cheerleaders will lead the seniors in yells during the game. At half-time Southern's marching band will perform.

Tomorrow night the WSC will sponsor an all-school dance in the Women's gym, beginning at 8 p.m. "Showboat" will be the theme for the dance.

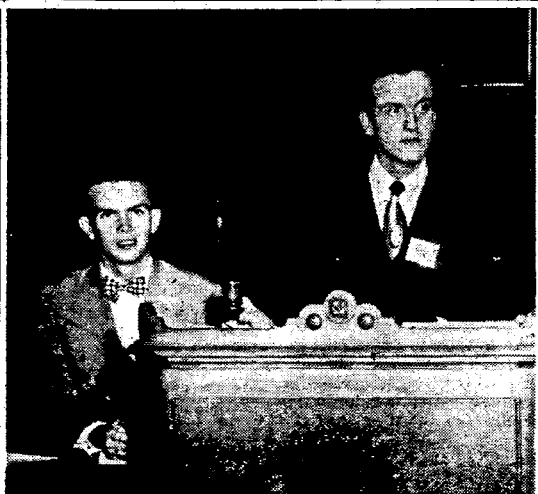

Senior Guest Day is being sponsored by the Student Council, in conjunction with the personnel deans, with several student-faculty committees in charge of arrangements.

To Inaugurate Clinic For Cheerleaders

Southern's first annual cheerleader clinic will be held here tomorrow. Approximately 100 cheerleaders from various high schools in this area are expected to attend the meet.

Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the auditorium foyer. Dean of Men I. Clark Davis will speak to the group at 9. This will be followed by a talk entitled, "Empathy Should Mean Something to You," by John Mulkin, Southern cheerleader coach.

A panel discussion will be held at 10 and an open forum at 11. Members of the panel discussion, which will be on "Ethics and Etiquette of Cheerleading," will be Dr. Paul Hunsinger of Southern's speech department; Leodio Cabutti, Herrin football coach; Hazel Beattie, a cheerleader coach; and William O'Brien, an official and a member of Southern's athletic department.

Trustees Ask for Record $10,606,317 Budget

Southern's Board of Trustees has approved a budget request for $10,606,317 from the state to cover university operating expenses during the next two fiscal years, 1951-53. The decision was made at the board's meeting here Monday.

The proposed budget marks an increase of more than $4,000,000 over the current budget of $6,500,634. The new request for state funds does not cover the university's extensive building program, which will be handled separately.

BIGGEST SHARE of the increase—approximately $2,681,000—was allotted for salaries and current operating costs. To support Southern's programs of service to Southern Illinois, such as the new vocational-technical institute, $1,347,140 will be asked.

SIU President Delyte W. Morris said that although the budget request appeared "quite liberal" in comparison with the appropriate for the current biennium, it would "only allow for a conservative development of our program, because of rising costs of operation . . . The purposes behind this request are to maintain this program during the next two years, to consolidate certain gains already made and to implement a small number of recently established activities for which there is pressing demand in the area."

IN ADDITION to approval of a new budget, the board also voted to go ahead with their five-building construction program, although bids submitted last week at Springfield were twenty-five percent over available appropriations.

Board chairman, Dr. Leo Brown, stated that the school will start any or all of the units with what funds it has as soon as contractors are ready, and will make modifications rather than scrap any one building.

An apparent low bid of $5,600,000 for construction of five proposed SIU buildings was announced earlier this week by state officials.

The bid came from the Federal Constructors, Inc. of Chicago.

The latest low bid on all five units is about $1,500,000 more than Southern's building appropriations.

Athletic Committee High School Press Convention Opens Makes Decision on Scheduling Games At SIU Tonight; Over 135 Register

A motion that Southern not schedule games where team members could not play because of "race, creed, nationality, or religion" was unanimously approved by Southern's athletic committee, headed by Dr. William Tudor, in a meeting Tuesday.

The matter was brought up following a recent game with Arkansas State in which four Negro team members did not play because Arkansas State officials advised against it because of the race feeling in that area.

EXACT WORDING of the motion, which was made to include other items than race, was that the "committee support the director of athletics in not scheduling games with schools or in communities where any member of the squad concerned would not be able to play because of race, creed, nationality, or religion, and that the personnel of the squad be determined solely by the coaches' opinions of skill as long as the player meets the eligibility prerequisites, including scholastic requirements."

Little Theatre To See Shakespearian Comedy

Thirty-two members of Little Theatre will go to St. Louis tonight for the performance of "As You Like It," starring Katharine Hepburn, at the American Theatre.

Those making the trip are to meet at the flagpole at 4:30 p.m. Transportation will be furnished by the university.

Trustees Ask For Ban On Businesses in Area Near Southern Campus

Southern's Board of Trustees voted to ask the Carbondale city council to establish zoning regulations in two areas near the SIU campus in a meeting here Monday.

If the council approves the board's request, business places would be prohibited in (a) an area bordered by Illinois, Mill, Forest, and Chautauqua streets, and (b) an area east of the Illinois Central railroad adjacent to the Dowdell estate recently acquired by the university.

More than 135 delegates representing 15 Southern Illinois high schools have pre-registered for the first annual meeting of the Southern Illinois High School Press association which begins tonight on Southern's campus. Donald R. Grubb, conference director, reported today.

Formal registration for the Nov. 17-18 meeting will open at 5 p.m. in the Student Center and will be followed by a mixer and entertainment program in the Men's gymnasium under the direction of Dr. William Freeberg, assistant professor of education for men.

Grubb estimates that more than 150 delegates will register for Saturday's newspaper, yearbook and business panel discussions which begin at 10 a.m. and continue until 2:45 p.m. Discussion leaders will include the editors and business managers of the Obelisk and Egyptian.

DURING THE noon luncheon tomorrow in the university cafeteria, Dr. Charles D. Tenney, administrative assistant to the president, will speak to the group of high school students and advisers on "How to Keep Your Newspaper Out of Trouble."

This is the first year the SIHSPA has met on campus under the direction of the journalism department. The association in the past held its meetings among high schools in the area and this year voted to have Southern serve as a permanent home for future meetings.

The organization was formed approximately 20 years ago with

THE UNITS include a library, the second unit of the service shops building, a life science building, and industrial education and physical education wings for the new training school.

A report to the board from three bonding companies, concerning the planned construction of a 400-bed women's dormitory, indicated that the dormitory will have paid for itself within 40 years. Room and board for the dorm has been tentatively set at $14 per week.

Dr. Orville Alexander, former director of the Alumni Services and a member of the government department since 1938, was appointed chairman of the government department in one of the board's many appointments.

To Feature Cullinan At WSC Dance

Ed Cullinan, organ stylist and accompanist, will be featured at the WSC Showboat dance tomorrow night at 7 in the Women's gym.

Cullinan, who has a M. A. degree in music, played a one-year engagement at the Park Plaza Hotel, St. Louis, and has accompanied Larry Adler, Carmen Miranda and other artists.

the purpose of promoting better high school newspapers and yearbooks in Southern Illinois. "The organization's purposes and aims will not be altered when it comes to Southern," Grubb said, "but will be expanded and given some financial assistance by the university."

Our Opinions . . .

Number of pedestrians killed each year is being reduced by leaps and bounds—Franklin P. Adams.

An Encircling Problem

Southern's students had better brush up on their physical education. Within a short time, the SIU campus will be cut—not by just one, but two United States highways.

In order to install a new heating tunnel, half the traffic on Route 51 will continue to use Route 51 while the other half will cut across campus via Harwood street and the campus circle.

The present Route 51 is dangerous enough, but to have busy highways make a circle on the campus will really offer a big obstacle to Southern's students.

So far, Southern has been lucky in not having anyone killed or injured while crossing Route 51, but the university has not fared so well in the damage line. Only last week a car plowed into the duplicating service doing about $1,000 worth of damage, as the car failed to make the 90 degree turn at the corner of Grand and Thompson.

By a state regulation, the university carries no insurance on buildings and unless the university or state can collect from the man who rammed the building, then Southern will have to stand the loss. Southern has a hard enough time getting money without having to pay out money for avoidable accidents.

The only good solution to the traffic problem is the re-routing of 51. Plans have been made for several months, perhaps years, for the diversion of Route 51 across the tennis courts and old football field and out past the power plant back to the present Route 51. Southern's Board of Trustees has even allotted ground for the highway.

However, the highway change seems to be at a standstill. Both the state and university have several things to do before the change is made.

We think state and university officials should try to speed up plans for the new highway in order to make the campus a much safer place to walk. B. H.

Football Champions—and Why

Who said extra points don't count? The new IIAC conference champion—Illinois State Normal—won four of its five loop victories by only one or two points.

The Normal Redbirds barely edged out Western, 14-13, nipped Central Michigan, 14-13, tripped Northern, 13-12, and overcame Eastern, 23-21. Oddly enough, the only team they failed to beat was the Maroons who tied Normal, 14-14, in the Homecoming game.

Just as in a football game, those little extra points also sometimes count high in real life.

People usually are irritated, not by big things, but by little ones. Next time you are inclined to overlook a small point, look at it again. It might be more important than you think. The extra points may not always be in the form of a football championship, but they will pay dividends. B. H.

One Sentence Editorial: From where we sit, the Pancratium being held here this week sounds like it has endless possibilities and might provide many laughs.

To Detour Traffic On U.S. Route 51

Northbound traffic on U. S. Route 51 soon will be detoured through the campus via Harwood street and the campus circle, university officials announced this week.

The re-routing will be necessitated by construction work on an addition to Southern's large heating tunnels. The addition will be made by the J. Edgaf Stephens and Sons, Inc., Carbondale, which has been awarded the contract for making an addition to the present heating plant by constructing a heating tunnel to the proposed library and life science buildings.

The new tunnel will join the present heating system on Thompson street, between Chautauqua and Harwood streets.

CONSTRUCTION is scheduled as soon as the reinforcement steel arrives. It is scheduled to arrive within the next two weeks, according to a spokesman for the Stephens Co. It was originally slated to begin the work earlier, but the necessary materials were not available.

How long the construction of the new tunnel will take is not known, but the detouring of traffic probably will last for only a short time.

Southbound traffic on Route 51 will use the present route, but will go along the edge of the construction area, W. A. Howe, head of the physical plant, said.

MEANWHILE WORK continued on 18 of Southern's new barracks. Eight barracks are "under roof" while 10 others are in various stages of completion, Howe said.

When the barracks will be ready to occupy will depend on several things, Howe added, including such items as the availability of pipe and necessary heating equipment. Plans are being made to heat all the new barracks by central heating which means that heat will

The training school is nearing completion and the new service shops are more than 80 per cent completed. Work on the training school site was being done this week. Whether or not nearby university houses on Grand will be torn down in the near future so the training school site can be completed is not known.

Face Full of Pie Opens Pancratium

A hidden pie brought the first event of Southern's first frosh-soph Pancratium to a surprising finish last night as both class presidents ended up with a face full of chocolate meringue pie!

In an exciting contest which netted the winning class ten points toward the Pancratium championship, not only did the loser get a pie in his face, but both the freshman class president, Earl Cox, and the sophomore class leader, Bob Coover, went home flavored with chocolate.

Altogether there are 22 events and 1,000 possible points.

Thirteen more events were scheduled for today. At 10 this morning there was a greased pole climb at the flagpole which was worth 40 points, to the winning class.

At 12 NOON, a rabbit is to be turned loose and the winning class is to be awarded 100 points toward victory. Most mysterious contest is a "Mystery Tune" contest which is worth 100 points to the class that can discover the name of the well-known song which was being played backward.

Other events today and tomorrow include:

- 2 p.m. Checkers—Student Center—25 points.
- 3 p.m. Horseshoes—Horseshoe Pits—25 points.
- 4 p.m. Chess—Student Center—25 points.
- 4 p.m. Obstacle Run—Campus—75 points.

- 4 p.m. Chariot Race—Campus Circle—50 points.
- 9 p.m. Barbershop quartets—W.S.C. Dance, Men's Gym—75 points.

PANCRACTIUM Headquarters have been set up in the crosshalls of Old Main. There entrants must sign up for events. A running score of the events will be posted minute by minute at the Pancratium Headquarters.

BSU To Have Services At Cemetery Ridge

Rev. Floyd Jent, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Carterville, will speak at the annual B.S.U. Thanksgiving sunrise service at Cemetery Ridge Wednesday, Nov. 22 at 6:45 a.m.

The public is invited to attend the services.

Everyone is asked to meet at the Baptist Foundation at 6:30 a.m. Transportation will be furnished to and from the Ridge, located a quarter of a mile east of the SIU campus.

Special music will be furnished by the Foundation mixed quartet.

Those who have a car and would be willing to transport students contact Sherley Mayo at the Baptist Foundation or phone 1129YM.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Joy Fry and Cleo Anderson will attend a state college home economics conference in Chicago today and tomorrow.

Various exhibits and talks will highlight the two-day meeting.

The convention will be held at the Congress hotel and the Rosary college.

UNCLE GETS A GOOD ONE

The physical education department received a hard blow this week when Bill O'Brien, the likable assistant football, basketball and baseball coach, received his re-call from the Marine Corps. O'Brien has been on the campus for three years in a coaching capacity, and for a similar number as an athlete before the war.

Any coach likes to look back on his athletic days with a certain amount of pride, and in O'Brien's case this pride would certainly be warranted. That is to say, Bill was just as outstanding as a football and baseball player as he has been as a coach. Every athlete on this campus has grown to like Bill O'Brien, both as a coach and as a man. But there're possibly some things they don't know about his athletic career.

For two years, the stocky halfback was the pride and joy of the Maroon football team. His long runs outside and his superlative drive down the middle supplied the offensive meat for Southern's football machine. Every team and every defensive player laid for O'Brien when their team played the Southern Maroons of '40 and '41. But, as the records prove, he was deadly just the same.

Without a doubt, he was one of the greatest halfbacks in the history of football at Southern.

And his performances in baseball were just as outstanding. He supplied the punch at the plate, and the speed in the outfield and on the bases necessary for the make-up of a top-rung horsehide performer. He also earned one letter in track.

Then when O'Brien became coach, it was good to see that he put his athletic prowess to practical use, teaching his teams the things which come only from experience. He has been a good coach.

So it is the hope of all concerned, and certainly that of this writer, that the Marines won't keep Bill O'Brien too long. But they probably will—he's a good man to have around.

Our old buddy, Stan Wilson, who probably won't like to see his name in print in this column, has been having his hands full with athletic injuries this fall.

It all started out with Bob Ems and Don Simpson, two of Bill Waller's better football players. Stan has brought Bob around, but Simpson's knee has been a slow, aching process. Then too, the unusual number of injuries on the football team this season has made his job a busy one.

Last week Captain Tom Millikin of the basketball team twisted a knee, and Tom's presence on the courts this winter is a "must" if the Maroons are to have a successful cage season. No doubt, there will be other injuries in basketball and wrestling in the months that follow.

So we just want to convey to Stan the fact that we're glad to have him around, and this year has already depicted the worth of a trainer here at Southern. His job is an important one.

O'Brien Receives Call to Report Back to Marines

William (Bill) O'Brien, assistant football, basketball, and baseball coach at Southern, received notice this week from the U. S. Marine Corps to report for active duty Dec. 13 at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. O'Brien will re-enter the service as a first lieutenant.

A member of the active reserves, O'Brien served four years as a Marine in World War II. He is married.

For the past three years, O'Brien has served in an assistant coach capacity at the University. Prior to this, he was assistant coach at Carbondale Community high school for a year.

O'Brien, however, is not exactly a newcomer to Southern's campus. Before entering the service in 1942, he was an outstanding football and baseball player here. In 1940 and 1941, he led Southern gridiron teams to winning seasons as the regular left halfback. His flashy offensive play and his durability on defense made him a 60 minute performer.

The stocky Irishman has been a real asset to the Southern coaching staff. His know-how in all phases of sports make him a valuable member of the P. E. department. He was backfield coach in football, coached the "B" team in basketball, and served in an assistant baseball coach.

He is the second member of the physical education department to be recalled to service this fall. Russ Bush, wrestling and tennis mentor, received his call and reported early this fall to the Air Corps.

SOU B SQUAD BATTLES CAPE TO 12-12 TIE

Southern's B squad closed its season with a 12-12 tie with Cape's second-stringers in a game played at Cape Monday.

Lineman Phil Bruno scored one Southern touchdown on a 40-yard pass play while Joe Huske tallied the other, scoring on a quarterback sneak from the eight.

Southern reached the two-yard stripe in the second quarter, but a fumble squelched the touchdown drive.

RAMPAGING HALFBACK Harold Call advances the ball in the Southern-Michigan Normal football game played here Friday night. Call scored two touchdowns and set up two others before leaving the game with a broken ankle in the third quarter. He will not play in tomorrow's game, but should be back next season.

Maroons, Minus Call, Meet Western In Finale

Southern's football Maroons play their last game of the season this Saturday in McAndrew stadium when they meet one of the strongest teams in the conference, the Western State Leathernecks. Still looking for victory No. one in conference play, the gridders will be fighting hard for their fourth win of the season.

Game time is 1:30 p.m.

A tie with Normal, IJAC champs, and losses to Eastern and Northern compose the Maroons loop performances this fall. However, the boys feel that since they have already tied the best team in the conference, they may be able to upset the other top-rung crew.

SOUTHERN will be playing without the services of Harold Call, their ace halfback, who suffered a broken ankle in last week's encounter with Michigan Normal. Call's position will probably be filled by John VanderPluym, Leo Wilson, and Fred Pantano. Pantano's running was a high feature of last week's victory, along with Call's outstanding play.

Seniors Captain Don Cross, Warren Littleford, Fred Brenzel, and Chuck Oyler will be playing their last game for the Maroon and White. Needless to say, the boys will be gunning fiercely for a final victory.
