Freshmen Exam Burglars Suspended, Fined $50 Each By Justice Of Peace

Two students who entered the Economics Office, 701 W. Mill St., in search of final exams at the close of last quarter have been officially suspended from the University following the disposal of their cases in court Thursday.

William F. Murphy, 21-year-old freshman from Dwight, was suspended for one full calendar year (four quarters), and William Weibeler, a 20-year-old freshman from Joliet, was suspended for one academic year (three quarters).

Murphy and Weibeler were each fined $50 plus costs in the court of Justice of Peace Jim Kerley. Authorities said the original charge of illegal entry and possession of burglary tools against the two was reduced to disorderly conduct.

Disciplinary officials said Murphy also had an illegal car which was illegally registered by Weibeler. It was Murphy's third offense of possessing an illegal car and this was the reason for his longer term of suspension, authorities said.

Play Tickets Now On Sale

Tickets for "A Raisin in the Sun" which opens Friday are now on sale at the theater box office from 10 to 11 a.m. and 3 to 4 p.m. weekdays, and at 7 p.m. on performance nights.

The Southern Players will present the play April 12-14 and April 16-18.

"The play is about a Negro family, the Youngers, living on the southside of Chicago. It deals with their dreams and ambitions and their difficulties in obtaining these goals.

"Raisin in the Sun" show the Negro as a man operating in his own times," says Mrs. Eelin Harrison, director of production.

Louise Gordon plays Mama Younger, a firm-minded widow. Her family includes her daughter, Ruth (Tena Washington), her restless son, Walter (Ed Pugh), his wife, Beneatha (Gloria Beck), and his son, Travis (Duane McKinley).

Other characters in the play are Joseph Asagai played by Ward White, George Murchison played by Clifford Shaw, Bobo played by Joseph Clarke, Karl Linder played by Fred Fallen, and Ben Brown and Martis Davis as two moving men.

Early Bird Bathers To Face Charges

Two early-bird swimmers will appear before a Carbondale Police Magistrate at 9 a.m. today on a charge of indecent exposure, according to Joseph Zaleski, assistant director of Student Affairs.

Chuck Miller, 23, a graduate student, and Tim West, 25, a former SIU student, were found swimming in the nude near the boathouse in Lake-on-the-Campus at 1 p.m. Monday.

Security Officer Thomas Leffler signed the warrants, Zaleski said.

Dean Zaleski said further disciplinary action may be taken against Miller for behavior unbecoming a student.

Classes To Meet Good Friday

Classes will be held as scheduled on Good Friday, according to I. Clark Davis, director of student affairs, but students who desire to attend religious services are encouraged to do so.

Davis said any student who has a class at the time of a scheduled religious service

INJURED IN ACCIDENT - Ray Brandt, 19-year old SIU sophomore from Lawrenceville and member of the track team, sustained a broken jaw and fractured skull in a Sunday morning auto accident. Brandt was one of five SIU athletes in the University Car returning from Austin, Texas, where they had competed in the Texas Relays track meet.

Ray Brandt, SIU trackman injured in an auto-truck wreck, remained in satisfactory condition Monday afternoon with a fractured skull

Registration For Spring Term Ends

Today is the final day to register for spring quarter without the dean's written approval.

Marion B. Treece, supervisor of sectioning, said it is also the last day a student may add an additional course without special permission from the dean.

April 23 is the last day to withdraw from a course with-out receiving a letter grade, and April 19 is the deadline for payment of deferred fees.

and broken jaw at St. Clement's Hospital in Red Bud, Ill.

Brandt was one of five SIU athletes in a University car which collided head long into a truck Sunday morning on Illinois highway 3.

They were returning from Austin, Texas, where the Texas Relays were held Saturday.

Brandt was reported "resting well" by the hospital. He was under sedation. He is in the intensive care unit of the hospital and is being observed by doctors from St. Louis, Mo., a hospital spokesman said.

George Wood, Alan Gelso, Joel Beachell and Jack Leydig were all treated at the hospital Sunday morning and then brought back to Carbondale.

Woods suffered a broken toe of the right foot. Gelso sustained fractured ribs in the accident while Leydig and Beachell escaped with only bruises.

State Police said Brandt was attempting to pass a truck which was signaling to turn right. When Brandt started around the truck he realized he was at an intersection and veered back into the lane hitting the truck. The driver of the truck was not injured.

Brandt, 19, is sophomore class president and shotput-discus thrower on the track team.

Fenwick Feels Effort Was Made To Prevent Athletes Complaints

Student President Bill Fenwick said Monday that he felt there was an effort on the part of some members at the Council meeting Thursday "to prevent a presentation of athletes' complaints because the Missouri Valley Conference Committee was on campus at that time."

Fenwick stressed that he has made no charges against the Athletics Department, but that he had received complaints from athletes which he wished to present to the Council.

"It is the Student Government's responsibility to look into these complaints," the student president said.

The complaints will be presented "as soon as the Council will hear them," Fenwick added. "I have already attempted to bring the complaints before the Council twice."

Fenwick said he planned to let the Council decide whether or not it wants to hear the athletes' complaints in an open meeting because "the Athletic Department felt a grave injustice had been done by not getting the complaints out in the open."

"The Council defeated the suggestion of a grievance board without fully understanding its function or its need," Fenwick said, referring to a program recommendation on the athletics account which was defeated last week.

Fenwick said he told the Council on March 8 that he would give specific information which would help explain his request to the campus Intercollegiate Athletics Council for policy on recruiting. "Not one Council member contacted me with this objective in mind," Fenwick said, adding that the Council of its own volition was not aware of the complaints which have been made.

Strike Halts Campus Construction

Work on all major construction projects on the SIU campus has been brought to a halt because of the expiration of the Carpenters Union contract.

Failure to negotiate a renewal of the contract before the expiration last week has led to the carpenters not having a contract to work under.

Willard Hart, associate University architect for the Carbondale campus, said the carpenters did not report for work last Monday but other unions continued on the job until Friday when the carpenters put up a picket line. The picket line was up again yesterday.

Major construction projects now at a standstill on campus include the Physical Education-Military Training Building, Morris Library Addition and the Education Building. Construction projects throughout all of Southern Illinois are affected by the work stoppage.

Block And Bridle Showmanship Show Scheduled May 5

The Block and Bridle Club has announced a deadline of April 9 for signing up to enter the club's showmanship contest to be held May 5.

Jim Tucker, reporter for the club, said any SIU students can enter to judge in one or two of the four classes, pigs, sheep, beef cattle or dairy cattle.

A place to sign up has been provided on the bulletin board across the hall from the Animal Industries Office, Tucker said.

A fair and inspection of the University Farms will be other features of contest day, May 5.

SIU Graduate Gets $2,500 Fellowship

Donald E. Pursell of Pinckneyville, a graduate assistant in the Department of Economics, has been granted a $2,500 fellowship to continue his graduate studies at Southern.

Pursell has received the H. B. Earhart Fellowship from the Earhart Foundation, Ann Arbor, Mich. Selection was based on high scholarship and recommendation of the faculties of the SIU departments of economics and government. Awards are competitively selected from applications made by candidates from universities throughout the United States.

Upon obtaining his master's degree, Pursell plans to continue his studies for a doctorate. He then plans a career in university teaching and research.

Does a man really take unfair advantage of women when he uses Mennen Skin Bracer?

All depends on why he uses it.

Most men simply think Menthol-Iced Skin Bracer is the best after-shave lotion around. Because it cools rather than burns. Because it helps heal shaving nicks and scrapes. Because it helps prevent blemishes.

So who can blame them if Bracer's crisp, long-lasting aroma just happens to affect women so remarkably?

Of course, some men may use Mennen Skin Bracer because of this effect.

How intelligent!

Herbert Davies, visiting professor of journalism from Great Britain, will give the first of a series of four lectures April 9, at 8:00 p.m., in the Family Living laboratory of the Home Economics building.

The topic of discussion will be "The British Press--What It Is."

The dates and topics of the remaining lectures are: April 23, "The British Press--The Government and Local Government." April 30, "The British Press--The Law of the Press--Restrictions on Publication." May 7, "The British Press--Royal Commissions 1947 and 1961--The Press Council."

Davies, who prepared the British newspaper industry for a "state of emergency" at the request of Neville Chamberlain, then prime minister, at the outset of World War II, is teaching during the spring term in the department of journalism. He also has lectures scheduled at the Edwardsville campus, University of Missouri, University of Wisconsin and University of Minnesota.

The public lectures here are sponsored by the Department of Journalism and the undergraduate chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic society.

Guess who offered me an executive position with a leading organization, where I'll get good pay, further my education, and enjoy world travel?

My uncle.

In this case, nepotism's a pretty good idea. And the best way to get it is through Air Force ROTC--because the Air Force prefers to commission its officers directly upon graduation. But if you couldn't fit AFROTC into your schedule, you can still apply for Air Force Officer Training School. OTS offers college men and women an opportunity to assume great responsibility. When you complete the three-month course, you'll be commissioned a second lieutenant, and become a part of a vital aspect of our defense effort. As an Air Force officer, you'll be a leader on the Aerospace Team.

We welcome your application for OTS now--but the same may not be true next year. So if you're within 210 days of graduation, get full information from the Professor of Air Science.

VIENTIANE, Laos

Pathet Lao battle groups battered neutralist troops on the Plaine des Jarres Monday in a campaign apparently aimed to give the Communists undisputed control of all northern Laos.

In Paris, U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk accused the pro-Communist forces of obstructive tactics and called on the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization to be vigilant. Laos is not a member of that eight-nation alliance, but is in the territory offered SEATO's protection.

The U.S. State Department in Washington said the pro-Communist forces have committed "a serious violation of the ceasefire" and called on Britain and the Soviet Union, as co-chairman of the Geneva conference, to take prompt action to stop the shooting.

The 14-nation conference in Geneva agreed on a treaty pledging Laos independence and neutrality.

The Navy, encouraged by cost-reducing technological advances, has urged that all of its bigger fighting ships be nuclear powered in the future.

If approved, this approach would be a fundamental switch from a policy which until recently has rejected any more atomic-powered surface craft because they have been so expensive.

The added cost, which once was about 50 per cent over conventional power, has been cut to about 20 per cent, Navy officials said.

Pan American Festival Turns To Agriculture

Latin American Indians will lead the way Tuesday as SIU celebrates the 10th Annual Pan American Festival with a round table discussion on the "Contributions of the Indians of the Americas to Agriculture."

Participants of the discussion will be: Dr. Charles B. Heiser, Jr., professor of botany, Indiana University; Dr. Carroll L. Riley, associate professor of anthropology, SIU; and Dr. Melvin L. Fowler, Curator of North American Archeology, SIU Museum.

Dr. Heiser will give an illustrated lecture on "Collecting Rare Plants in Ecuador," at 7:30 p.m. in Muckelroy Auditorium.

On Wednesday, Jesse P. Perry, Jr., will discuss "How Can We Make Agricultural Improvement Programs Work in Latin America?" at 7:30 p.m. in the Family Living Lounge of the Home Economics Building.

To wind up the Festival Thursday, a round table discussion will be held on: Que

It will be conducted in Spanish by SIU Latin American students: Enrique Low Murta from Columbia, a graduate student in economics; J. A. ## Gymnast Wolf Leaves School

Dennis Wolf, SIU gymnast from Pico Rivera, Calif., has withdrawn from school this quarter to return home.

He plans to work and save the money earned and return to Southern next fall.

Wolf was one of the few bright spots at the NCAA Gymnastics Championships which Saluki fans could cheer about. He tied for second place in the high bar and also placed in the still rings and parallel bars events.

Two years ago Wolf won the National Junior AAU All-Around title as a freshman. Bill Meade, SIU gymnastic coach, is expecting bigger and better things of the diminutive 5-4 gymnast.

Dennis hopes to bring along his brother next fall to SIU. His brother has been working out with the Southern California squad and is regarded to be better than Dennis.

The Issue

A story in the Egyptian of April 4 concerning activity fees pointed to a question that is significant and of interest to students of Southern.

The facts are this: The amount of money that has been requested by the advisors of programs partially or completely financed by student's activity fees totals slightly more than $475,000. This figure is much lower than the figure reported earlier, the result of a more precise examination by Student Government.

Second, the amount of money that can be expected through the activity fee assessment is approximately $352,000. This figure is based on an estimated 37,000 students paying the activity fee during the four quarters of 1963-64. The difference between expected revenue and expected expenditures is about $123,000.

Although Student Council deliberations are far from conclusion, and a decision as to whether the totality of the programs involved have merit enough to warrant an increase in expenditures close to $123,000 has not been made, it is probable that the cost of programs will exceed expected revenue. Therefore, the question looms: Where will the money come from to make up the difference?

Outside the chopping allocation requests to the expected activity fee intake total of $352,000, a number of alternatives present themselves for consideration by the Student Council and inevitably to the student body by way of referendum.

The first choice is to increase the activity fee. An increase in fees amounting to about three to four dollars per student, per term would be required.

The second alternative involves expanding the base support concept of the activity fee. If this alternative were selected, it would be recommended that a number of accounts receive a smaller activity fee allocation, the remainder of the amount being financed from another source.

Among the other sources that are being talked about are university funds and a faculty activity fee. The recommendation for a faculty activity fee would have to come from the Faculty Council.

The feeling is that SIU activities may have outgrown the scope of the activity fee structure and to continue demanded growth, support from another area may be required.

It is important to remember that there has not yet been a decision to increase the activity fee or reduce it. Nor has there been a decision to expand or contract programs. The simple situation is that should students agree that certain programs be expanded to the extent advisors have recommended, the present activity fee will not be enough to finance them as the situation looks now.

The recommendation for support from other sources would be significant, and a student referendum would be essential. In a sense, the students would be voting on whether they value expanded programs enough to approve of support of the programs from new sources.

IRVING DILLIARD

5 Significant Court Mileposts

It has been a long time since the Supreme court has done as much good work on one day as it did last Monday. In at least five decisions of significance, the justices either unanimously or by majority vote strengthened the liberties of the individual American citizen. One of these becomes at once a landmark on the side of strict adherence to the Bill of Rights.

Irving Dilliard

In a case from Illinois, the Supreme court ruled out drug-induced confessions. In a case from the state of Washington the court held the defendants in criminal cases without funds must be provided without cost an adequate trial record for appeal. In a California case, the justices decided the indigent have an absolute right to appointed defense lawyers when appealing a state criminal conviction.

Unit Voting Loses

Still another decision held that all votes in state-wide elections must have equal weight. This knocks out much of Georgia's unit voting system which has allowed the county units to defeat the popular majority. It also does as much to the Mississippi and Maryland county unit vote-counting systems. The effect of this is to say: "One voter, one vote—and no more."

All these decisions are important, but the one that stands out as the landmark is a unanimous ruling in the case of Clarence Earl Gideon, who was sentenced to five years in jail on charges of breaking into a Florida pool hall with intent to steal. He could not hire a lawyer and counsel was not appointed by the trial court.

Gideon knew nothing about the intricacies of criminal law. He attempted to act as his own lawyer, he was unsuccessful. He was found guilty and imprisoned, notwithstanding the Constitution's guarantee of "the assistance of counsel."

The Supreme court unanimously overruled the Gideon conviction and, in doing so, expressly reversed the decision in Betts vs. Brady that had stood for 21 years. This reversal was a great victory for Justice Black, who wrote the decision, and also for Justice Douglas who was with Justice Black in dissent in the 1942 Betts case in which a poor, uneducated, jobless farmhand tried to establish his innocence on a robbery charge. He did not know how to proceed and was sentenced to eight years.

The Betts ruling established two kinds of justice — one for the defendant who had the money to hire a lawyer and another kind entirely for the accused person who was too poor to hire counsel when none was appointed. It was a shocking decision and certain some day to be wiped off the lawbooks.

But as long as now-retired Justice Frankfurter was on the bench, he held tightly to the Betts precedent even tho it had in effect overruled the Supreme court's earlier insistence upon adequate counsel for the Negro defendants in the historic Scottsboro case [Powell vs. Alabama, 1932]. As recently as last April, in Carnley vs. Cochran, seven justices had this issue before them, but did not expressly overrule the Betts precedent as Justice Black urged.

Fundamental Right

Now, as Justice Black so well says in the Gideon case, the Supreme court recognizes this fundamental: "The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours. This noble ideal cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him."

The present writer said reluctantly in this space last year that the liberties of citizens would be more highly regarded with Justices Frankfurter and Whitaker off the Supreme court bench. Here is proof as striking as it is welcome. A better day is ahead for the Bill of Rights!

Plink!

It must be spring. Kite-flying winds toss about the delicate magnolia blooms, and Southern talks of forming a tiddy wink league.

All indications are that the league is being offered on an experimental basis, to see whether SIU students have an interest in the "game." Interest will be immense, of course.

The University Center Programming Board announced recently that tiddy winks, popular in the ivy-league schools in the east, would soon be available to SIU students. Purchase of all the necessary equipment -- little round chips, mats and cups to shoot at -- is being purchased. Tiddy wink fans will be able to check out the tools of their trade from the activities department in the University Center.

Really, it is hard to think of a better way to kill time. It is less destructive than chopping up pianos, a current college fad. It is less sickening than eating goldfish. It is not as bruising as a ride in a clothes dryer.

Now no one can say Southern is not improving. We are just as good as Harvard. We play tiddy winks too. E.S.

Student Writer Asks For Temperature Control In Library Reading Room

Having been in the library for the last three days, I have found it unbearably warm. This condition has not been present in the past and I don't think there is any reason for it now.

The Egyptian is one of the only organizations that gets things done on the campus. I believe that it should put pressure on the library and make them turn on the air conditioning. If this is not done there could possibly be a very significant drop in student grade average. Action should be taken by the Egyptian for the betterment of the students it serves.

The library was built with the purpose of providing a comfortable, uninterrupted study area for students. Its whole purpose is defeated by not having the air conditioning on.

EARL BUCHHOLZ

In Bowen Gym:

Pro Tennis Stars Play Here Tonight

Three years ago the talk of the tennis world was a promising young man from St. Louis named Earl Buchholz.

Today he is ranked as one of the better professional players.

Buchholz is one of six pros who will perform here Tuesday night in Carbondale Community's Bowen Gymnasium at 7:30.

Admission is $1 for students and $2 for adults. Tickets may be purchased at the University Center Information Desk.

Buses will take the students to the gym and will be leaving from the University Center and Thompson Point. Girls can get late leaves by checking with their house supervisor.

Buchholz handed Rod Laver an 8-4 setback earlier this week and will have a chance Tuesday night to repeat it. Laver is only the second man in history to win the grand slam of amateur tennis.

Laver was a sensation in the amateur ranks just a year ago when he duplicated American Don Budge's feat of capturing the championships of Australia, France, Great Britain and the United States.

In addition to Laver and Buchholz appearing here,

Barry MacKay, one of the more hotly-tempered pros, Andres Gimeno, Luis Ayala and Ken Rosewall will be here.

Rosewall is in first place and Buchholz second in the bid for the $35,000 first place money. The round robin tournament is sponsored by the International Professional Tennis Player's Association and carries $125,000 worth of prize money.

The Laver-Buchholz match is scheduled to be the first of a four-match card which starts at 7:30.

Rosewall, world professional champion, will be challenged by Barry MacKay and Luis Ayala will meet Andres Gimeno in a third singles match.

Trackmen Place In Texas Relays

SIU finished second in the sprint medley and third in the two-mile relays Saturday at the Texas Relays in Austin, Tex.

Southern's freshman mile relay team finished third in the event but turned in the fastest time this season for either the freshman or varsity squads.

The freshman mile relay quartet of Jerry Fendrich, Bill Lindsey, Bob Wheelwright and Gary Carr set a new SIU record of 3:15.7. The team finished behind Abilene Christian's 3:14.8 and Rice's 3:15.3.

Carr turned the anchor 440 in :47.4 seconds to get the team an invitation to the Kansas Relays.

Rain forced schedule changes which put the sprint and distance medley events only 30 minutes apart. Lew Hartzog, SIU track coach, scratched the distance medley in hopes of getting a good enough sprint medley time to get invitations to the Kansas and Drake Relays.

The Salukis lost the sprint medley to Oklahoma State. SIU's 3:24.5 was good enough to get an invitation to the Drake and Kansas Relays. Oklahoma State's winning time was 3:24.1.

Al Pulliam and Ed Houston led off with 220's, Bill Cornell ran the quarter-mile and Jim Dupree ran the half-mile. Anchorman Dupree got the baton 15 yards behind Oklahoma State's Tom Winn for the final 880 and raced to the lead with a fast 50 second first quarter. But Dupree could not keep up with the blistering pace and finished second to Winn.

The two-mile relay quartet had a little bad luck. John Peters led off the relay and was running strong but well back in the 11-team race. He tried to break through a knot of runners but dropped the baton and fell to the ground. He finished his half in 2:06.

Brian Turner was clocked in 1:52.5, Cornell in 1:48.1. The Salukis were third behind Ohio University's 7:30.6 and Texas' 7:35.1. SIU received a 7:35.5 clocking.

Kristoff Wins Heavyweight Wrestling Title

Larry Kristoff won the National AAU heavyweight wrestling title in San Francisco (Calif.) Saturday night. Bill Hartzell and Ken Houston also competed but did not fare as well.

Hartzell gained a draw in his first match with Art Mankinster of Oregon State. Then he lost to Bill Jarzorzovich of Navy and Russ Winer of Phoenix.

Houston lost to Charles Tribble of San Bernardino College and to Jack Stanbro of the New York Athletic Club.

Kristoff won his matches Friday and two Saturday to enter the finals.

Tennis Team Sweeps Minnesota Meet, 9-0

By boosting its season's record to an unblemished 5-0, Southern's tennis team scored a 9-0 clean sweep of Minnesota, Iowa State and Wheaton College in a quadrangular meet at Minneapolis, Minn., last weekend.

The only set lost by SIU against the three teams was by Lance Lumsden, Southern's number one singles player.

SIU opens a six match home stand starting Thursday afternoon against Notre Dame and continuing to Saturday April 20 against Lamar Tech. During that nine day stretch, the Salukis host Iowa (April 12), Western Michigan (April 13), Wisconsin (April 18) and Lamar Tech (April 19-20).

Iowa State results:
Lumsden over Tuck Vosburg, 6-0, 6-2.
Pacho Castillo, SIU; beat Dave Scheiding, 6-0, 6-0.

Bob Sprenghelmeyer, SIU; beat Lou Counter, 6-0, 6-1.

Walter Fans 19 Billiken Batters

SIU opened its regular season with two home victories over St. Louis University as Ed Walter set a new SIU strike-out record for pitchers. Walter, an 18-year-old freshman from Mt. Carmel, limited the Billikens to five hits while striking out 19 hitters enroute to the 9-0 first game victory. Doug Edwards was the winning pitcher in the second game limiting St. Louis to four hits in the 5-2 victory.

Walter's 19 strike-outs broke Harry Gurley's old record of 14 which was set in 1960. Gurley is now pitching coach for Glenn Martin's SIU baseball squad.

"He must be teaching us too well," Walter quipped after breaking the record. "It was the best day of my life."

In addition to striking out 19 Billikens, Walter collected three hits including a triple.

SIU collected 14 hits in the first game. The Salukis scored a single run in the second inning and then exploded for eight runs in the third inning.

Rod Landreth and Jim Long hit home runs, Walter and Mike Pratte tripled and John Siebel doubled in the big inning. Landreth's round tripper was good for three runs and Long drove in two runs with his circuit blast.

In the second game, St.

Louis jumped out to an early 2-0 lead but the Salukis came back in the fourth inning to take a 3-2 lead. Jerry Qualls drove in two runs and Dave Harris the other run for the Salukis.

Dave Leonard, captain, scored the fourth run on a wild pitch after advancing to third on Siebel's fly out to center-field. He had doubled earlier in the inning.

Harris scored the final run in the sixth inning on an error by St. Louis second baseman Jerry Koehler. Harris collected two hits in the second game victory.

SIU hopes to extend its two-game winning streak to four Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock when it plays host to St. Joseph's College of Rensselaer, Ind. The two teams will play a double header at the Chautauqua baseball field.
