BEAUTIES AND THE BEACH

So what if the water in Campus Lake is still cold? The sun was hot Tuesday as the photographer, patrolling the lake, spotted these co-eds soaking up the ultra-violet on the Bowyer Hall patio. Photo by Val Biggers.

Events Heavy For Weekend

A free trip to the Crab Orchard Golf Course and a peach blossom expedition into southern Illinois are two first for this weekend, sponsored by the Student Union.

A bus will leave the Union at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow for the links and return about 11:30 a.m. The peach blossom tour will leave the Union for the Cobden area at 1:30 Sunday afternoon.

Another hayrack will pull away from in front of the Union tonight at 6:30, bound for the Campus Lake.

Other weekend Union activities, listed by time and place on the Campus Calendar, include duplicate bridge, rifle club, bowling, coke dance, pinhole party, music listening and coffee hour and open bridge.

BRIDGES SPEAKS

ON SCHOOL SAFETY Dr. Frank Bridges of SIU will assist with programming of the meeting of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers held in Bridgeland yesterday and today.

Bridges will speak on a panel concerning school problems of safety. He is state chairman of safety and civil defense for the P.T.A. and recently was named as the 1960 recipient of a lifetime membership in the Illinois Assn. of Driver and Safety Education.

Banker Tells Business Fair

Most Of Banking Is Practical Knowledge

Although knowledge of all economic theory is important, 99 per cent of banking is practical knowledge.

So John Mars, vice president of the Carbondale National Bank, told an audience at the first annual Business Fair, "Mind Your Business," held Tuesday in Muckley Auditorium.

"You need a basic knowledge of how a bank operates, but most of the business is to safeguard from loss. You do that from practical methods, not theories," Mars said.

An evolution has taken place in banking the same as in other industries, Mars said, but in banking, the change had been on a greater scale.

The most radical change in the past 50 years, he said, was the establishment of the Federal Reserve System.

Records are posted by machine now, but banks are hesitant to go too far with electronic methods, because developments are coming so fast that "most equipment is obsolete by the time of delivery."

As far opportunities in banking, Mars said there are many but they "usually start at the bottom, such as a clerical position." Ability and opportunities depend on the rate of gaining more attractive positions, usually, he said.

What is the definition of a bank? "A warehouse for the storage of money is still the best," Mars said.

When questioned about "bankers' hours," Mars said that although they are usually less than eight, as far as the banker is concerned sitting behind his desk, "he's wearing out his mind deciding problems."

Mars was first speaker of a Finance and Accounting Forum. Others on the panel were Professor E. J. Schmidlein, accounting department; Charles J. Lerner,

Rebel Kicks Off Civil War Centennial Celebration

Beware Yankees, there's a rebel on campus!

Next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Muckley Auditorium, Professor T. Harry Williams, noted Civil War authority from Louisiana State University, will speak on "The Coming of The Civil War."

Actually, Williams isn't any more a rebel than he is a Yankee. He was born in Vinegar Hill, Ill.

Williams is one of the rare experts on the Civil War who both respects and concerns himself seriously with both sides of the conflict. He is famous for such books as "P.G. T. Beauregard: Napoleon in Gray," and "Lincoln and His Generals" which was a best-selling choice of the Book-Of-The-Month Club.

Being from Illinois, Williams logically is interested in the Lincoln side of the great American struggle that began 100 years ago. As a faculty member at LSU, Williams comes just as naturally to his interest in the Confederacy.

Williams has been President of the Southern Historical Association. He has also been invited to contribute to the British-sponsored "Cambridge Modern History."

Offices to be filled are student body president and vice president; the Student council; class officers for sophomores, juniors, and seniors and homecoming chairman.

Jamal Concert Adds Glitter To Big Week

Ahmad Jamal—complete with car-pick fingers, gaites, pulsating jazz and jazz trio—will bring the Shryock Auditorium April 30 for two concerts, sponsored by Inter-Greek Council.

Hundreds of tickets for both shows are still available at the Student Union ticket office. The shows each last an hour and a half, but Jamal, who believes in quantity as well as quality, has been known to plan on and on for appreciative audiences. All seats are reserved at $2, $1.75 and $1.50. Times are 7 and 9 p.m.

Probably the most successful jazz pianist going today, Jamal combines expert musicianship with an esthetic awareness of popular tastes. Such albums as "But Not For Me" and "Ahmad Jamal" have multiplied his fan following from a handful of Chicagoans to an audience numbering into the millions, both in the United States and Europe.

Work Day, Greek Sing Kick Off Greek Week

Ahmad Jamal . . . Highlights Greek Week

Born in Pittsburgh July 2, 1930, and dance team known as The Caldwelles. Ahmad burst into national prominence when Down Beat's Pat Barry heralded him a "new find" when he worked at the Blue Note in 1952.

At 14, the late great Art Tatum singled Jamal out as a "coming great." He gained much experience during his early years by playing with everything from big bands to small groups and as a soloist.

From Westinghouse High School where he gave many concerts and determined to make music his career, Ahmad stepped immediately into the George Hudson Orchestra, one of the top big bands of that era.

Singled out repeatedly by critics for his highly individual solos, he moved next to a small group called The Four Strings. When they disbanded in 1950, he toured briefly as accompanist for a song alongside the biggest of "pops."

Clean Up Crab Orchard Tomorrow; Sing Sunday

About 400 Greeks will swing Phi Alpha; Phi Kappa Tau: Delta Zeta.

Following intermission will be Sigma Kappa; Phi Sigma Kappa; Alpha Gamma Delta; Sigma Pi.

In other Greek Week activities, Marsha Van Cleave and Clark Hyland were named "Greeks of the Week" yesterday at Freshman Convocation.

Chosen primarily for sense of humor and ability to lead others, the pair will serve as unofficial hosts at all Greek Week activities in costumes of toga, wreath and sandals.

A work project "to promote good will" will be carried out by Greeks tomorrow at Crab Orchard Lake.

"We thought the lake would be a very timely project, since the area is understaffed and certainly will need by University students-Greeks as well as independents," Jerry Brooks said.

Sponsored by radio station WCJL, Greeks will go to the lake as a group, be divided into squads, and give the beaches a general cleanup.

Jeff Trout and Geri Kay Howell are chairmen of the work project, Ron Vachic and Sharon Thomson of the Greek Sing.

The remainder of the Week will feature chariot races, beer garden party, dance an officer's workshop, Little Grassie Lake picnic, and a concert by jazz pianist Ahmad Jamal and his trio.

Honors Day Listing Announced

A roll of students included on this year's Scholastic Honors Day listing has been posted outside the Registrar's Office.

Corrections should be reported to the Records Division of the Registrar's Office by next Friday.

To be on the list students must have met the following requirements:

1. Must graduate a full-time undergraduate student at SIU for each of the three quarters of the current school year. (Two 1/2 quarter hours is considered full-time.)

2. A freshman or sophomore must have a 4.5 average or above. A junior or senior must have 4.25 or above. Students must have earned the average indicated for work earned at Southern only as well as including all credits.

3. A freshman must have from 32 to 48 hours of credit, a sophomore from 48 to 120. Only graduating students are listed as seniors. The junior list includes all with 121 hours or more who are not to be graduated at either the June or Aug. commencement.

4. A master's degree graduate of Indiana University where he taught before coming to Southern five years ago, Taylor completed undergraduate studies in voice at Cornell (Iowa) College and was a member of the Cornell College Concert Choir.

Taylor and his family will sail for Italy Sept. 24. He has been granted a sabbatical leave for the 1959-61 school year.

Taylor, director of SIU's Opera Workshop, is a baritone and has sung in operatic and oratorio performances throughout the U.S. On May 3 and 7, he will sing the title role in two performances of Puccini's "Gianni Schicchi" with the New Orleans Opera Company.

'Touch of Evil' Heads Movies

Intrigue south of the border and a movie talent hunt headline this weekend's campus film showings.

The series is sponsored individually or jointly by the audiovisual department, Student Union and zoology department.

TOUCH OF EVIL, a crooked cop planting evidence on his victims provides gripping action and suspense as two newlywed targets of a sinister plot in a Mexican border town. Starring are Charlton Heston, Janet Leigh and Orson Welles. Furr Auditorium: 6:30 and 8:30 p.m.

TOMORROW FOUR GIRLS IN TOWN, the colorful adventures and fortunes of four girls who find themselves finalists in a world-wide movie talent hunt for the ever-sought "new face." Joseph Gershenson provides a first-rate musical score. In color and Cinemascope, it stars Julie Adams, George Nader, Gia Scala, Elsa Martinelli, Marianne Cook, John Gavin and others. Furr Auditorium: 6:30 and 8:30 p.m.

Admission to each of the movies is 25-cents for students with activity cards, 40-cents for others.

McAndrew Stadium has a permanent seating capacity of 8,643 and a total seating capacity of 12,000.

FISHING EQUIPMENT AVAILABLE AT UNION

Six rods and reels and several fishin' poles are now available to be checked out at the main desk in the Student Union. Any undergraduates or graduates student may check out the equipment for use at Campus Lake.

Reading Hour Leads With Sandburg, Twain

Works of Carl Sandburg, Guy de Maupassant, Mark Twain, Edna St. Vincent Millay and Jean Genet will be featured on the first Reading Hour presented April 29 by the speech department.

Titled "The Writer Looks at Mankind," the readings will be performed by graduates and undergraduates from the Departments of Speech, English, Radio and Education. Readers include Eleanor Kilby, Phyllis Thorman, Dave Brookbank, Phyllis Ury, Mimi Rosenbloom, Dick Somner, Rita Woesthaus and Marieta Fletcher.

There is no admission charge to the program, held in Morris Library Auditorium at 8 p.m. "Who and His Various Aspects" is the topic of a second Reading Hour set for May 20.

Marion Davis, speech department, said "These programs are the beginning of what we hope will become a regular activity of the speech department."

Taylor Gets Fulbright Award

William Taylor, SIU voice instructor, has been awarded a Fulbright Grant to study voice and opera next year at the Rome Opera School.

Taylor, director of SIU's Opera Workshop, is a baritone and has sung in operatic and oratorio performances throughout the U.S. On May 3 and 7, he will sing the title role in two performances of Puccini's "Gianni Schicchi" with the New Orleans Opera Company.

THE EGYPTIAN, FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1966

Sorry, Don't Cash Checks

A slight crisis seems to have arisen concerning the cashing of checks . . . or more literally, the inability to cash checks. Merchants are becoming more and more determined not to cash student checks. However, a rash of "bad" checks has brought about a feeling of distrust in the merchants, and it is hard to put a case against them when such evidence is shown.

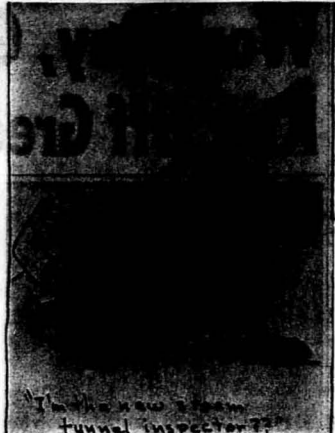

On the other hand, the student who needs to cash an "honest" check—even to make a purchase—falls victim to the rubber checks. He either writes to the bank to secure funds or has to talk the merchant into cashing a check.

An evident answer to the problem would be an exchange on campus, whereby students could cash checks. When a merchant finds himself stuck with a bad check, he must turn the check over to the University; the subsequent investigation takes a few days, sometimes weeks, before the merchant eventually receives his money. If the University cashed checks, such tools as the freezing of grades or student checks could not set wedges in making checks good. Also, the bad checks could be turned over to Campus Police immediately and investigations could begin. Merchants would then be happy, students could cash checks on campus and all would be well.

There are undoubtedly several problems involved, including the possibility of legal clearance. A place to handle such a program would be necessary, unless the Bursar could do the job.

The University should, however, in the best interests of its students, endeavor to perfect some system whereby checks could cash checks. When a merchant finds himself stuck with a bad check, he must turn the check over to the University; the subsequent investigation takes a few days, sometimes

Unhappy With Library

Dear editor: I am writing in reference to the closing of Morris Library without prior notice to the students on the evening of April 16 and through the whole day April 17. It seems ironic in this modern day and age where communication is so widespread that the student body might be advised of the closing of the institution. I personally remained on campus this weekend to do research work in the library and I knew of several other students who found themselves in the throes of a wasted weekend because of the unforeseen closing. Perhaps in the future, the administration of the library might warn the student body or at least give them advance notice of closings. Sincerely, John C. Millier

Some Freedoms Canceled

To the editor: In regard to the editorial published in your paper on the 18th of April, 1966, I have a comment to make. In an organized society, certain freedoms, in some cases individual freedoms, are sacrificed by all for the well-being of the community. Mutual protection would be a case in point. This does not mean that freedom of thought and action are denied to those who profess individuality. It is there, right, but must draw a distinction between individual thinking and non-conformity. Non-conformists tend to conform to an established norm. They band together, their thought and dress form a certain pattern. They conform to their own pattern. The individual, however, is a different story. His road is a lonely one. He weighs the merits of all phases in society. He is realistic, for he is aware that a certain amount of conformity is necessary, but this does not exclude him from his own uniqueness. His right, and indeed his right, is to render his individual thoughts and actions for the betterment of society. Thus great individual minds have contributed much to the well being of society, a society formed by the contract of a people. Thomas M. Shaahan

Each term the Textbook Service rents an average of five books to each student enrolled.

Thought for the day: "Some say that those who wake up in good moods turn out to have lousy personalities."

It's strange how people anticipate different things. We are firm believers that the main facets of life are anticipation and memories. But back to the point with which we began: some look forward to meals, others to sleep, others to ballgames, others to . . . well, lots of things. But we look forward to opening our mail. Every day we race into the office and attack the bundle of letters, papers and circulars which invade our two-by-four. The past two weeks have brought an assortment of advice on different subjects, but the most fascinating have been literature on how to properly select a wardrobe, how to lose weight, how to make marriage a success, and finally a useless tidbit entitled, "The Man Who Understands Women."

But we thought we'd slip a few comments to those of you thinking of tripping down the aisle. Sociologist Nelson M. Foote says 47 per cent of all brides this year will be under 19. In the same breath, Foote says one-third of all teen age marriages in which the girls are under 20 and in divorce. Foote says too many people have a highly romantic idea of married life as a state of heavenly bliss that goes on effortlessly "and they live happily ever after." He says in looking for a mate, look for one with reasonable exceptions, one with a happy childhood, who is cooperative, friendly and willing to change an attitude, if necessary. So there you are. If your bride is under 19, watch it.

KTA Accepts Eight Members

Six students and two faculty members were accepted into membership by Kappa Tau Alpha, journalism honor society. The new members were tapped Monday morning at a "Jobs in Journalism" lecture. Three of the six students selected are foreign graduate students in the journalism department. They were Michiko Takaki of Japan, and Joe Huang and James Huang of Formosa. Undergraduates tapped were Joe Bryant of Metropolis, Bob Hayes of Carmi, and Kenneth Wilson of West Frankfort. Lecturer Marlan Nelson and Assistant Professor Manion Rice of the journalism department faculty were also invited into the fraternity.

Willis Moore, SIU professor of philosophy, was principal speaker at the Kappa Tau Alpha ceremonies Monday night at the University Cafeteria. He said bringing peaceful and meaningful developments out of today's clashes of cultures and deadly technologies is the "assignments for tomorrow" for students.

Essay Contest New Open

The magazine "New World Review" is sponsoring an essay contest on the subject "A Peace Program for Our Country." The contest is open to anyone 18 through 25 years of age. Suggested topics include disarmament; ending of nuclear weapons tests; the problem of Germany and Berlin; American Soviet relations; aid to underdeveloped countries; peaceful uses of outer space. Judges will base their ratings on content, conciseness, clarity of presentation and effectiveness of style. Entries may either choose a few specific points for elaboration, or cover a larger number more briefly. First Prize $300. First prize is $200, second $100, third $50 and then honorable mentions will receive $15 each. Rules of the contest are as follows: Length must not exceed 1,000 words and all entries must be typewritten, double-spaced, on regular bond paper. Name, address, age and occupation should accompany each essay on separate sheet.

Graek Success -- Strength

A festival of Graek activity will begin Sunday night, igniting the annual Graek Week. Themed "Golden Week of the Graeks," the seven-day agenda includes a picnic, Graek Sing, the Ahmad Jamal concert, dance, beer garden and officers meeting.

The week has grown in tradition since its inauguration several years ago. Just as Homecoming and the Spring Festival, Graek Week has become a much looked-forward-to event by the 500-plus Graeks.

This year's week should be even better because of the new housing area. Several events will be held in Small Group Housing, with Campus Lake serving as a fitting background. Increased cooperation between fraternities and sororities should come from the informal week. The closeness of living in the new area has been a boost in making relations between the Graeks closer. When the remaining groups move into the housing within the next two years, the cooperation should be even better.

The success of Graeks on a campus hinges on their strength. This strength can come only when their common bonds are securely tied by cooperation.

Such bonds have been tied more securely in the past year. May next week prove to be another step in the building of Graek strength, in addition to providing days and evenings of entertainment.

ECONOMY PROVED IN MOBILGAS RUN!

CORVAIR BY CHEVROLET DRIVE IT! GET OUR DEAL!!!!

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.00 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U. S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:
Practically 87 cubic . . . real foot room for the man in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.0 cu. ft. of extra storage space. Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, flatter ride. Rear-engine traction . . . that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the rear wheels. You probably realize already that the Mobilgas figures Corvair recorded in the Mobilgas Economy Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the rear seat every kind of driving condition—rugged mountain grades, long country straightaways, congested city traffic—these notable figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.

Blackburn Wins Book Contest

Michael Blackburn took first place honors in the general division of the Student Book Collection contest, held last month.

Harriet Briggs' collection took second place and Franklin Moreno's third. Prizes were $25, $15 and $10 in books, donated by the University Store.

Winners had to submit 25 titles from a variety of fields, plus a statement of the objective of their collection.

There were no winners in the special collection division. A number of entries were disqualified because they did not comply with contest rules. The remaining entries, in the opinion of the judges, were not sufficiently outstanding to warrant awards.

Criteria for judging was quality and variety, value as a working library, as a nucleus for a permanent library, and as an indication of discriminating judgment in books.

Blackburn's statement of objective reads in part as follows: "I have tried to assemble a library that will offer the learning I try to get a cross-section of man's achievement on this planet. I reflected once on the idea that the earth was attacked by another planet and my books were the only ones to survive. I looked at my library and saw representative books of this civilization. I was pleased."

Rifle Club Honors Members

The newly formed Student Union Rifle Club will present awards to three of its members in the near future.

Edward Tucker, Bill Crowley and Charles Mitchell have qualified for Marksman in the National Rifle Assn.

The club meets on Saturday afternoons on the top floor of Old Main.

From Alton Box Co. SIU Foundation Receives First Dividend -- $1,000

The SIU Foundation has received its first $1,000 dividend on an idea destined to foster some mutually profitable friendships between SIU faculty researchers and practical-minded manufacturers.

A $1,000 check from the Alton Box Board Co., has marked the first payment on a Cooperative University and Foundation plan for development of faculty research projects that might have commercial possibilities.

The plan is off to a good start with a disposable animal cage designed here and well on the way to full-scale production by a Chicago manufacturer of laboratory equipment. In consideration for being named manufacturer of paperboard frames or containers used in the cages, Alton Box paid the Foundation $1,000 and will turn over a percentage of all sales to be used in future research.

Under the cooperative system, faculty research projects which seem to have commercial application are referred to the Foundation by John Anderson, University research coordinator. In their early development stages, all staff research plans go through Anderson, and a Graduate School Research Committee anyway, and this makes it possible to refer appropriate projects.

Insures Development

Once a project is referred to it, the Foundation takes steps to insure further development. For example, the possibilities of patents are discussed with a St. Louis patent law firm retained by the Foundation. Should a patent be obtainable, the Foundation moves in and takes over all the business spadework involved, leaving the researcher free to develop and perfect his idea.

Any resulting patents are assigned to the Foundation. Then Kenneth Miller, executive director of the Foundation, starts developing contacts with likely manufacturers. Any subsequent contracts including the mouse houses, the Foundation now holds patents on two products born and reared on the campus and is negotiating for two more. A Swiss-O-Meter — a sort of circular slide rule that will give hog producers at a setting a complete management schedule from breeding to marketing — is already paying off for its inventor, Joseph Burnside of SIU's School of Agriculture faculty. A depth-gauge for woodworkers is also under patent, and the Foundation staff with Anderson is processing several other highly promising inventions.

Selective Service Exams Given

The Selective Service College Qualification Test will be given here April 28 to registrants who have begun and plan to continue their college or university studies, under-graduate or graduate.

The test presupposes no schooling beyond the ordinary high school preparation for college. Scores will not themselves determine eligibility for deferment. Scores on the test will be used by the Selective Service local boards in considering the eligibility of registrants for occupational deferment as students.

High school graduates and other candidates for admission to their first year of college will not be eligible to take the test until they have entered upon their first year of college work.

To be eligible to take the test, an applicant on the testing date must:

non-profit corporation receiving and administering gifts to a long range process for reducing radioactive Strontium 90 from milk. But a major benefit of the system will lie in establishing a reservoir of dollars to pay the bills for patent processing and business negotiations. The Foundation will also organize marketing and distribution plans.

"The researcher can bring his baby into the world and nurse it to health, that's about all," says Miller. "Then the Foundation can step in, care for it and feed it until it's able to stand on its own feet. With the right guidance we'll get it to maturity — the payoff stage."

A check for $1,000 is turned over to Robert Gallegly, University business manager by John Anderson. The check was the first payment on an SIU-developed product. The check came from the Alton Box Board Co., which has contracted with

READY FOR FALL...

Spring football practice ends April 30 with a 45-minute intrasquad scrimmage. The scrimmage concludes 20 days of practice under the watchful eyes of Carmen Piccone, head coach; Bob Franz, line coach; and backfield coach Harry Shay.

Herb Fairfield, graduate assistant, has been helping Piccone and his staff. Herb directed the Saluki freshman football squad last year. In the fall he will assume similar coaching duties at Miami of Ohio University, which is his alma mater.

Piccone announced that there will be a clinic, open to all area managers, preceding the scrimmage on the 20th. The clinic, which starts at 10 a. m., will last an hour and will consist of blocking rules, positions, and a question and answer period. The scrimmages will follow immediately after the meeting or approximately 11 a. m.

St. Louis Cardinals' pro-football scout Les Stuber witnessed Monday's drills and was seeing Piccone many questions.

Crider, Grubbs Qualify...
Jack Crider, member of Jim Wilkinson's wrestling squad this year, qualified last week in the regional Olympic tryouts held in Toledo, Ohio.

Lee Grubbs, captain of last year's team, qualified the week before at the regional tryouts in Iowa. Grubbs is wrestling for the St. Louis YMCA team.

They both finished among the best two men in their weight division. Crider entered at 135 pounds and Grubbs competed at 145 pounds. They will go to Iowa State University in Ames to compete for the Olympic team berth on April 28-30.

The Iowa tryouts will match the 16 top men in each class and will cut them to four; these four will go to West Point in August for a series of matches to reduce the field to one man for each weight division.

Grubbs is expected to be on campus next week to work out with Crider.

Coach Wilkinson will be one of the judges at the Iowa tryouts.

HAGERUP TAKES 2 FIRSTS

Jack Hagerup, a member of Theta Xi, took two firsts in the college bowling tournament at the Arena Bowl in St. Louis last Monday. His scratch 258 took first place honors for the individual high game, and his 658 series, with handicap, copped individual honors for the three games total.

Others representing SIU in the bowling tournament were - Russ Soewic, George Ranich, Fred Bourdine, Jim Bruin, and Chuck Demster.

FORMER GRIDDERS COACHING NEXT YEAR...

Jerry Hart and Ed Johnson, former Saluki football players, have received coaching assignments at Anna-Jonesboro High School and Canton High School, respectively.

Hart, former SIU quarterback, has named head football coach at Anna. Last year Hart was the freshman-sophomore coach at Taylorville.

Johnson was varsity assistant coach at Murphysboro Township High School. At Canton he will take over the head football coaching chores. He will also assist in track and will coach in the overclass basketball program.

EASTERN MICHIGAN'S JONES

Hayes Jones, Eastern Michigan's one-man track team, the country's No. 1 hurdler swept home with a 13.6 clocking in the 110-meter high hurdles at the Quantico Relays last week in his first outdoor performance of the year.

His time was the fastest of 1960 for the event and was only four-tenths of a second off Martin Lauer's world standard. The clocking was also eight-tenths of a second under the Olympic qualifying time.

But perfectionist Jones was quoted as saying that he had to improve. He said that he was bad on his last three hurdles.

Hayes holds five IAC track records.

SOLLY'S BOYS DID IT...

Bradley Falls To SIU

Southern's tennis team won its seventh meet in succession by blanketing the Bradley University Braves, 9-0, Tuesday afternoon on the SIU courts.

It was the Salukis' third straight whitewash of an opponent; they dropped Kalamazoo College and Principia College previously by the lopsided score.

SIU's doubles team of Jerry Budzdek and Bob Sprengelmeyer notched their 11th straight victory, to continue undefeated for the season. Southern's team record stands at 10-2 with the two losses to Florida State and the University of Florida on the Salukis' southern tour.

Coach Kick LeFevre's squad are playing at the University of Cincinnati today and at Ohio State University tomorrow. One of the three losses that Southern suffered last year was a 7-2 setback to the Buckeyes of Ohio State.

Tuesday's results: Roy Sprengelmeyer (S) beat Nikels (B), 6-2, 6-0.

Jerry Budzdek (S) defeated Coker (B), 6-3, 6-3.

George Domenech (S) dropped Shave (B), 6-2, 6-1.

Bob Sprengelmeyer (S) topped Whitham (B), 6-2, 6-0.

Arnie Cabrera (S) downed Dick King (S) beat Whaley (B), 6-4, 6-1.

R. Sprengelmeyer - Domenech dropped Nickels-Shave, 6-3, 5-7, 6-0.

B. Sprengelmeyer - Budzdek defeated Coker-Troughton, 6-2, 6-3.

Jack Cabrera topped Whitham-Whaley, 6-0, 6-3.

Eastern Mich. Hosts Salukis For Three

Southern's powder-puff hitting Saluki baseball nine continues its drive for a third consecutive IAC flag this week-end against Eastern Michigan. Southern will play a single game Friday followed by a doubleheader on Saturday.

The games at Ypsilanti will be the first for the Hurons this spring. Last year Southern defeated Eastern Michigan three times, 7-1 and 9-4. Eastern finished the season with a 6-8 record for fifth place in the IAC.

Stourest hitter among the Saluki regulars is shortstop Gerry Marling with 294. Capt. "Rock" Bidgen is next at 280 and third baseman Bob Hardcastle and center fielder Mike Sullivan are bunched at 265 and 262. Richard Jones, second baseman, rounds out the top five with a 240 mark.

The lack of hitting is disappointing but the absence of steady pitching is even more disappointing. Of Southern's 19 returning lettermen hurlers (Sutton, unbeaten on the mound last year, has taken over in center field and will make brief appearances on the mound), only Roger McKnight has approached '59 form. The veteran left-handed relief artist in 19 innings of work has allowed only three earned runs for a 1.44 earned-run-average and a 2-0 record.

Larry Tucker, 9-0 and 0.78 ERA last spring, turned in the first complete game of the year in the 4-3 win over Central Michigan in the opening game of a three-game set. The big south-paw looped sharp with a whistling fast ball and a good curve despite allowing seven hits. Tucker now is 1-2 for the season.

Southern is not alone as its opponents are not fairing much better at the plate, maintaining a .238 average. The enemy has outscored Southern 79-61.

SPEECH SPECIALIST MICKEN SPEAKS AT STEELVILLE

Dr. Ralph Micklen, chairman of the speech department, will be featured speaker at the spring dinner meeting of the Randolph County SIU Alumni Club Thursday. The organization will meet at 6:30 p. m. in the Belvedere Club west of Steelville.

Dr. Micklen, a specialist in effective speaking, came to SIU in 1957. Before that he had taught for eight years at Illinois State Normal University and also at Iowa State University and Montana State University. He received his doctoral degree in speech from Northwestern University and has written many articles for professional journals.

Track Team Home; Four To Kansas

Southern opens its home track season tomorrow afternoon against Missouri School of Mines. The meet was previously scheduled for today. SIU will also be represented in the Kansas Relays tomorrow when the Salukis send Sonny Hocker, John Saunders, Alan Gelson, and John Flamer to compete in the distance medley relay.

The meet will be the Salukis' second of the young season, after opening their season by drubbing Southeast Missouri 77-54. The SIU tracksters took eight first places and also tied for two firsts.

Missouri School of Mines lost to Southern 92-39 last year in the first cinder meet between the two lettermen Dale Gleghorn, Harold Bardo, Emmett Ellis, Gerald Eskoff, Ted Farmer and Lee E. King hope to lead SIU to its second straight victory. Other lettermen competing in the home meet will be: Louis Lambert, Carl Meier, Jim McDonald, Dave McCann, Don Windler and Bill Yates.

Track enthusiasts will be able to see Gleghorn perform in the hurdles as he holds the mark for the low-hurdles and has tied the high-hurdle mark. Other boys to watch are Harold Bardo, IAC high jumper winner last year, and Carl Meier in the 880 yard-dash and the mile.

pitching of Wilmer Vinegar Bend Mizell. Mizell struck out Cubs and contributed to his first win of the season with a two-run double. "Stan the Man" Musial also hit a two-run double. The Cardinals' other run came on a homer by Bill White.

This writer hopes that they can catch the Philadelphia Phillies.

FRANK LANE MAKES THE HEADLINES

General Manager Frank Lane of the Cleveland Indians, known for his trading skill(7), traded Rocky Colavito and Herb Score this week to the Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox, respectively.

Detroit gave up Harvey Kuenn, last year's American League hitting champion, for Colavito. Rocky hit 42 home runs last year, compared to Kuenn's nine.

The White Sox sent right-handed pitcher Barry Latman to the Tribe for the famous Score. Leathers Score had a 9-11 record last year and Latman was 8-5 for

Linkmen Drop Eastern Twice

Lynn Holder's golfing Salukis won two matches from Eastern Illinois University, 20-4 and 22-2, Monday and Tuesday at the West Frankfort Country Club.

It was Southern's sixth and seventh straight wins for the young season: it was also SIU's 23rd and 24th straight victories on the "home" course.

Bill Barnett's 34-36 Monday took medal honors, with all other Saluki golfers shooting in the 70's except Jerry Thomas who soared to an 83, which tied his opponent for medal score but Jerry lost in match play.

Tuesday all of Southern's linkmen found the 70's to their liking with Dick Foulk's 72 capturing scoring honors.

Southern's scores: Barnett - 70-76-146; Foulk - 73-72-145; Capt. Larry Wood - 77-76-158; Max McDonald - 79-77-156; Eugene Carello - 75-75-150; Jerry Thomas - 41-42-83; and Roy Lee Gish - 38-37-74.

SIU meets the University of Illinois tomorrow at Savoy.

"YOUR FORD DEALER FOR 37 YEARS"

SIU Men Like ROTC Change

By Bob Melchians Staff Reporter

"It's a step in the right direction, but it doesn't go far enough. This was the reaction of William Wuerz, Valmeyer senior, to the approved AFROTC program change.

Being able to fill part of their requirements with electives was unanimously approved by all students questioned.

"Any time a course is required, people are against it," said Clarence Dieter, Dexter, Mo. "If students elect a course they'll be 'gung-ho' and the Air Force will have a much better outfit," he said.

Most of the students questioned believed AFROTC courses were "too easy" and therefore a "waste of time." They felt the program should be put on a voluntary basis and greatly intensified.

"People get passing grades without attending drill and many classes can be passed without study," Tom Means, Danville sophomore, said. He suggested making the program an elective as a remedy.

Having fewer class hours seems to be a boon to the students. Still many wish the drill requirements had been cut.

"I'd suggest more class work and less drill. You're apt to learn something in class," said Ron Otto, Chicago freshman.

The time-credit ratio of the new program has made many students happier.

"This is a lot better. The other way took too much time," commented Jack Hammond, Collinsville sophomore. "Besides," he said, "you weren't learning much anyway."

Oddly enough, SIU students seem to be crying for less class time, more work and no drill.

Librarians Meet Here For Conference

School librarians from 11 southern Illinois counties have been invited to a conference here tomorrow. The conference, first of its kind, is being sponsored by SIU's department of instructional materials and the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Debaters Enter New York Meet For Contests

An SIU debate team comprised of Keith Sanders and Kent Brandon flew to New York last Saturday to compete in the national intercollegiate championship meet at West Point.

The team participated in an eight-round preliminary contest Wednesday and Thursday. If victorious, the debaters will be among 16 teams competing in the final eliminations this weekend.

SIU has been represented at West Point twice before, but each time was eliminated in the quarter-finals. Brandon and Sanders each hold state championships, and are rated to finish among the finalists.

Debate Coach Jack Parker is with the team on the nine-day trip.

There were some changes made last week at the ALPHA GAMMA house. It was Topsy Turvy Day and the "pledges for a day" wore beanies, pledge pins, and did special house duties. They also entertained the "actives" at dinner. The make-believe pledges were given a lineup. Then things were put right side up, and the real pledges went before the verbal spring squad.

Several of the sisters traveled to Clinton to attend the wedding of Carol May, a former pledge, and Duane Thompson. Judy Vaughn and Georgianne Tamer, both sorority sisters of the bride, were in the wedding.

The Alpha Gam will hold their traditional Greek Sing reception after the show. The music, faculty and students are invited.

Joan Markus, Jo Kirby, Mag DeLassus, Carol Rotramel and Ramona Sargalski Wheeler, alumnae, visited the chapter house last weekend.

Linda Souther has pledged Kappa Omicron Phi, honorary home ec fraternity. The women have chosen Judy Finley to represent the Alpha Gam in the Miss Southern contest.

The women of DELTA ZETA had an exchange party with the Sig Tau's Sunday. The groups met informally at the DZ house. The DZ's made news individually last week. Nancy Smith was elected to the vice presidency of Beta Omicron, honorary fraternity for women in journalism. Bernice Levy was a guest at the Women's Day luncheon and received the University Women's Club scholarship award for 1960-61. June Nightwine will sing for the Shriners' Ladies Night in East St. Louis tomorrow evening.

Janet Weber has been pledged into the sorority. Marilyn Ferkin, alumnae, was a guest at the chapter house last weekend.

PROFESSORS ATTEND SOCIOLOGY MEETING
Three SIU professors are on the program at the 24th annual Midwest Sociological Society meeting in St. Louis, which began yesterday and will conclude Saturday.

D. Paul J. Campisi, chairman of the sociology department and president of the Society, will preside at the three-day meeting. The newest addition to SIU's sociology staff, Dr. Charles R. Snyder, will serve as chairman of a discussion on alcoholism Friday. Snyder is a former director of the Yale Center for Alcohol Studies.

Joel Moss, a specialist in "home and family," will discuss marriage and family life at a Saturday session.

Woody Hall Hit By April Showers

It couples grabbed their umbrellas and attended a Woody Hall (C-1) "April Showers" date party recently.

A large umbrella filled with balloons hung from the ceiling and smaller umbrellas were used to carry out the theme. Potato chips and punch were served.

The evening was spent dancing and playing games. Prizes were won by Nick Re and Randy McClary. Ann Turner and Dave Smith chaperoned the dance. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McNeil.

Shiny brass plan- month of brides. Have you got yours? If not, don't despair. You don't have to be rich or handsome to get a girl. All you have to be is kind, considerate, thoughtful, and obliging—in short, a gentleman.

For example, don't ever call a girl for a date at the last minute. Always give her plenty of advance notice—like three months for a coke date, six months for a movie, a year for a prom, two years for a public execution. This shows the girl that she is not your second or third choice and also gives her ample time to select her costume.

And when you ask for a date, do it with a bit of Old World gallantry. A roomy, for instance, is always sure to please a young lady, like this:

I think you're cute, Daphne La France. I'll put on a suit, and take you to a dance.

In the unlikely event that you don't know any girls named Daphne La France, try this:

I think you're cute, Winifred Jopp. I'll put on a suit, and take you to a hop.

In the extremely unlikely event that you don't know a Winifred Jopp either, try this:

I think you're cute, Isabel Prall. I'll put on a suit, and take you to a ball.

If there is no Isabel Prall, Winifred Jopp, or Daphne La France on your campus, it is quite obvious why you've had trouble finding dates all year: you're enrolled in an all-male school, you old sissy!

Next let us take up the question of etiquette once you are out on a date with Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne. The first thing you do, naturally, is to offer the young lady a Marlboro. Be sure, however, to offer her an entire Marlboro—not just a Marlboro butt. Marlboro butts are good of course, but whole Marlboros are better. You get an extra inch or two of fine flavorful tobacco—and I mean flavorful. Do you think flavor went out when filters came in? Well, you've got a happy surprise coming when you light a Marlboro. This one really delivers the goods on flavor, and when you hand Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne a whole, complete, brand-new Marlboro, she will know how highly you regard and respect her, and she will grow misty and weak with gratitude, which is very important when you take her out to dinner, because the only kind of food a college man can afford to feed is a weak and misty food. Latest statistics show that a coed in a normal condition eats one and a half times her own weight every twelve hours.

At the end of your date with Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne, make certain to get her home by curfew time. This is gentlemanly. Do not leave her at a bus stop. That is rude. Deliver her right to her door and, if possible, stop the car when you are dropping her off.

The next day send a little thank-you note. A poem is best. Like this:

For a wonderful evening, many thanks, Isabel, Winifred, or Daphne. I'll take you out for some more merry pranks next Saturday if you'll haph me. © 1959 Max Weinland

We can't give you rhyme but we'll give you good reason why you'll enjoy Marlboro and Marlboro's unfiltered companion cigarette, Philip Morris. One word says it all: reason.

A GUIDE FOR THE LOVELESS

Gentlemen, take warning. June is almost upon us—June, the month of brides. Have you got yours? If not, don't despair. You don't have to be rich or handsome to get a girl. All you have to be is kind, considerate, thoughtful, and obliging—in short, a gentleman.

For example, don't ever call a girl for a date at the last minute.
