A performer waits on the edge of the stage as other dancers perform their routine at Latinofest at the Free Forum Area.

Alex Shelton holds a butterfly up for inspection as Bill Black gestures to the insect and discusses the local butterfly habitat. Shelton was participating in the Shawnee Audubon Insect Awareness and Appreciation Day in Pope County.

Sunniva Atiquez, a freshman in theatre from Chicago, spins around the dance platform at Latinofest with Felipe Gomez, a junior in industrial technology from Chicago.

Cover: Kent Butler confronts a rioter who had been pounding on his storefront windows during Halloween weekend. The windows and sign of his Jimmy John’s store were later smashed during the weekend’s Halloween violence.

Friends gather at the Kimakura Garden to remember Gregory Parks. More than 150 people attended the candlelight service in honor of the 21-year-old known as just "Parks" to those close to him.
Upper right: Confetti douses the crowd as a young girl decked out in red, white and blue waves her campaign sign near the end of a rally for presidential hopeful George W. Bush in Marion. Right: A self-proclaimed anonymous anarchist, completely garbed in black, waits with his respirator on near the police barricade outside the Ralph Nader debate in St. Louis. "This is a tactic to protect our identities so we can do this for the rest of our lives and not become a prisoner because of my politics or my beliefs."

Above: Kevin Wise throws his arm in the air at the informational picket for the faculty union earlier this year. Although the union voted to allow its president to file an "intent to sue" at any time, negotiations with the administration continue. Below: Police emerge from a large cloud of tear gas unleashed on the Strip to disperse Halloween revelers after a third night of rioting. A week later, the Carbondale City Council voted to close the five bars on the Strip and limit keg sales around Halloween indefinitely.

A firefighter looks through the empty window frame of a Murphysboro home as the Murphysboro and Carbondale fire departments work to put out the flames.
Above: A man flings a flaming shirt into the air during the second night of rioting on the Strip this Halloween weekend. Police later used mace to disperse the crowd.

Right: Vandals destroy a sign outside the Recreation Center on SIU's Carbondale campus. Police used tear gas to drive rioters off the Strip. As the crowd advanced down the street, they caused more damage to signs and windows.

Important Reminder for Students Graduating or Leaving SIU!

Students who are not planning to return to SIUC for the Spring Semester can opt to purchase an extension of their off-campus student insurance coverage for 60 days past their last date of university enrollment. The last date of coverage for students who complete the Fall '00 semester is January 14, 2001. In order to purchase the optional extension coverage, you must complete an application and make payment PRIOR to your last date of coverage and the regular student coverage. Students who withdraw prior to the end of the semester must make application and payment PRIOR to their last date of official university enrollment.

For further information regarding this coverage, please refer to the "1998/99 Extended Medical Care Benefit Plan Brochure" or visit the SHP web page at WWW.siu.edu/~shp. The Student Medical Benefit Office (student insurance) is located at Room 118, Keenam Hall or can be reached via phone at 453-4413.
Carbondale mayor Neil Dillard shows his frustration during the city council meeting Tuesday. Public opinions were heard to help the council make decisions about fixing the town Halloween problem.

Clockwise from Above: SIU forward Josh Cross battles for a rebound with Long Beach State forward Grant Stone during the Salukis 101-89 victory at SIU Arena. Haley Vielhaus attempts to tag out a University of Tennessee-Martin base runner at second during a Saluki win. The Salukis went 11-1 for the fall season. Dante Santa Cruz returns a volley over the net during match play. Newcomer Sylvester Willis attempts a layup at a recent home game.
Saluki head coach Jan Quarless kneels dejectedly on the sidelines after his team was assessed one of nine penalties in their disappointing loss to the previously winless Indiana State University Sycamores. Quarless was fired less than 24 hours after the Salukis ended their 3-8 season with a 22-0 loss at Western Kentucky University.
