RUDOLF SERKIN

Well-Known Pianist To Present Concert Here Monday Night

Rudolf Serkin, internationally known pianist, will play here in Shryock auditorium Monday, Feb. 25, at 8 p.m. The concert is being sponsored by the Carbondale Community Concert association.

Students will be admitted to the concert upon the presentation of activity tickets.

J. D. Bohm of the New York Herald Tribune has said that Serkin is "the greatest living pianist, equalled by no other pianist and by no other interpretive musician except Arturo Toscanini."

AN INTERNATIONAL figure, Serkin was born of Russian background in Eger, Bohemia in 1903. He was brought up in Vienna where he studied piano with Professor Richard Robert and, later, composition under Arnold Schoenberg. He made his debut at twelve with the Vienna Symphony but his concert career did not start until his teens.

Serkin's first visit to the United States was to play for a special invited audience at the Coolidge Festival in Washington, D. C. His public debut in the United States was made in 1936 when Toscanini invited him to be his soloist with the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra.

risburg after it is presented at Southern.

Chairmen of the committees for the Variety show are, general chairman, Bob Mosher; finance, Carroll Cox; publicity, Joe Harding; and awards, Al Tritan.

Serving as master of ceremonies for the show will be Joe Harding, acting vice-president of Theta Xi fraternity.

Russell Babcock Speaks On Brotherhood Program

"Illinois has taken some leads in the field of inter-group relations," said Russell Babcock, director of the Illinois Commission on Human Relations, as he spoke at the all-school Brotherhood Week assembly yesterday morning.

SIU Band To Give Winter Concert

The thirty-eighth annual Southern Illinois University winter band concert will be presented on Thursday evening, Feb. 28, in Shryock Auditorium. Phillip Olsson, band instructor, announced the presentation will feature 40 specially-chosen members of the SIU band.

The entire program will be one of contemporary music. Included in the evening's activity will be two selections by William Shuman, president of the Juilliard School-of Music in New York. Also, a suite Francaise by Darius Milhaud, professor at Mills College in California, will be given.

There will be a condensation of music from the movie, Tap Roots, presented by Frank Shimmer.

One of the highlights of the program will be the rendering of a Lincoln Portrait by Aaron Copland. This number is one for both a narrator and the band. It will include excerpts from many of Abraham Lincoln's most famous speeches, and it will be concluded with a part of the Gettysburg Address.

The evening's music will begin at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Babcock devoted most of his talk to informing the audience, which consisted of approximately 300 students and faculty members, about the work of a relatively new state agency, the Illinois Commission on Human Relations, which is directly involved with inter-group relations within the state.

Russell Babcock was introduced by Dr. Paul Hunsinger, speech instructor and acting Brotherhood Week faculty adviser. Master of Ceremonies for the program was Doug Shepherd, president of the Student Council, which sponsored the Brotherhood Week observance here on campus.

President D. W. Morris, in a short opening talk, commented on the spirit of living and working together in business, service, and here at SIU.

SIU Speech Students Defend State Title At Oratory Meet Today

Southern's representative in the men's division will be Lloyd Bitzer, sophomore from Carmi, who will speak on the problem of helping needy persons without robbing them of initiative.

Entering in extemporaneous speaking will be Sue Smith, senior from Benton, and Jim Gibbons, sophomore from Mason.

Giving Southern a state title last year was Doris Schwinn, who received first place in women's oratory, and later went on to win the inter-state and national contests. She was top woman orator in a group of 65 women from 35 states at the national meet.

Think About It

Brotherhood Week isn't over yet. Stop for a minute to figure out what you as an individual can do to observe it, if you haven't already. You might get some ideas on the subject from the following editorial by Gideon Seymour, vice-president, Minneapolis, Minn., Star and Tribune.

THIS IS BROTHERHOOD WEEK—dedicated, under the auspices of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, to appraising our progress toward an ideal which, more than any other, motivates Americans in their dealing with each other and with all the world.

If we could embody in a word the sum of what we stand and strive for as a people, that one word "brotherhood" would come closer than any other to defining our philosophy and our aspirations. If words or phrases like "democracy" and "free enterprise" fall short of conveying to our own people, and to others, the essence of the American ideal it is because they are political and economic words, therefore limited in scope. What they describe are only the best means to an end: the end itself is brotherhood.

We fail, of course, to achieve perfect brotherhood. Each of us fails, too often, individually; all of us fail, in too many areas of life. But slowly and stumbling, as men always make progress toward a high goal, we inch toward brotherhood.

To that ideal are dedicated many a major and minor holiday—Independence day to the brotherhood of American citizenship; Community Chest week to the brotherly responsibility of each of us to the less fortunate; our highest religious holidays to the brotherhood of mankind.

But we do well to take a week each year to emphasize brotherhood for its own sake, and to examine our progress toward it, and to dedicate ourselves anew to the practice of it, and to resolve to go faster toward its attainment.

Shakespeare On Exams

With the end of winter term about two weeks away, the thought of final exams is looming larger and larger in the minds of students.

Although Shakespeare may never have heard of finals back in his time, some lines taken out of context from his plays seem to fit in very well, we think, with student ideas about exams.

From the University of Minnesota Daily comes proof that Shakespeare's writings can apply to just about anything. Studying in the library:

"More light, you knaves; and turn the tables up. And quench the fire, the room is grown too hot."—Romeo and Juliet.

Cramming at 3 a.m.:
 "How weary, stale, flat and unprofitable seem to me all the uses of this world."—Hamlet.

Cramming at 7 a.m.:
 "It is not for your health thus to commit your weak condition to the raw cold morning."—Julius Caesar.

Teacher hands out tests:
 "O most pernicious woman! O villain, villain, smiling, damned villain!"—Hamlet.

Composition exam:
 "Why, I will fight with him upon this theme until my eyelids will no longer wag."—Hamlet.

Fountain pen leaks:
 "Out damned spot! Out, I say!"—MacBeth.

Lost And Found

Unclaimed Articles At Center To Be Auctioned

The following articles are being held for their owners in the central Lost and Found department in the Student Center. If you recognize any of the articles as your own, please call for them immediately at the Student Center.

All of the listed articles will be held until March 17, 1952, spring term registration day, after which date they will be auctioned. The proceeds of the auction are to be used for a drive for the operation for one day of Anatolia College in Greece. The final date and time of auction will be decided by the Student Council and will be announced later.

ALL DEPARTMENTS have been asked to co-operate in keeping the university's Lost and Found centralized in the Student Center. Keeping the Lost and Found in one place for the entire school will relieve individual departments of extra work and will simplify the process for a student who is returning or seeking a lost article.

'Tom Sawyer' Play

Tom Sawyer lived again for 800 school children here at Shryock auditorium last Tuesday afternoon. Pupils from the various Carbondale schools watched as Tom talked his friends into white-washing his fence, held their breath as he buried the black cat in the graveyard at midnight, and listened solemnly as Huck Finn's funeral was in progress.

Scott Randle, age 7, said, "Boy, that was the best play I ever saw!" That is a second-grader at the new University training school.

THE PLAY, based on Mark Twain's story, "Tom Sawyer," was directed by Lawrence Voss of Southern's speech department and was sponsored by the American Association of University Women.

With a cast of twenty players, including both SIU and university school students, the play will be presented at six other Southern Illinois cities during the coming week. Herrin, Marion, Carmi, Harrisburg, Johnston City, and Anna are scheduled for performances.

Children Must Play!

C. HORTON (The Kid) Talley advises Buren G. (Bub) Robbins to stick 'em up, but Robbins seems to be giving him the cold shoulder at the recent faculty party held last Friday night. Theme was "The Last Day of School" and the "children" were asked to bring their lunches for recess. Maxine Vogely, director at Anthony Hall, and chairman of the faculty social committee, was in charge of the party. Dr. Talley is SIU speech department chairman and Robbins is director of radio.

Salukis Trim Bears, Wrestlers Battle 42-41, To Wind Up Home Court Season

by Sherman Doolen

Southern checked a Washington U. rally Wednesday to win 42-41 in its final home game of the season. It was Southern's eighth victory in 10 home games and gave the Salukis a season's record of 13 wins, nine losses.

Ray Ripplemeyer and Chuck Thate paved the way to a victory that actually wasn't decided until after Southern fans had flocked to the floor after the final horn. It happened this way:

THE SALUKIS were stalling out their one-point lead in the final seconds. A Washington foul was called, the free throw refused and the ball taken out of bounds. Harvey Welch threw it in, but the ball went out of bounds on the other side of the court without being touched. The buzzer sounded and fans crowded the floor. Then the officials explained that the game was not over since the ball hadn't been touched. After the floor was cleared, Washington took the ball out of bounds and took a desperation shot that missed. The horn sounded again and it was really over.

Ripplemeyer and Thate were high with 13 points each and were sensational under the boards. Both grabbed 23 rebounds. Bob Kimpfing, a Nashville, Ill., boy, paced the Bears with 12 points.

COACH LYNN HOLDER shuffled his starting lineup, inserting Captain Stan Horst and Jacques Theriot at the guards. For Horst—"Old Reliable"—it was the last home game of his career and he turned in a fine job. He scored only three points but was a bulldog on defense and captured 10 rebounds.

Welch, apparently over an injured finger that has kept him off the starting team for five games, played a major portion of the

Wrestlers Battle Arkansas Saturday

Southern's wrestlers will try to improve their record of one victory in six matches tomorrow night against Arkansas State. The meet will get underway here in the gym at 7:30 p.m.

IN THEIR LAST crack at Arkansas the Salukis lost 18-10. In their six matches this season the Salukis have scored 80 points to their opponents' 93. However, one match, a 16-13 win over Normal, had to be forfeited, since Southern used an ineligible wrestler.

Co-Captain Jack Stoudt currently has the best record among the Salukis. In six matches he has won four, lost one and tied one. Phil Bruno, the other co-captain, who missed last week's meet with the Memphis Naval Air Station team, has a record of three victories and two defeats.

His shooting, however, was off and he missed 10 shots at the basket while hitting two.

Bob Nickolaus, who poured in 24 points last week against Normal, couldn't hit either and made only one basket in 10 attempts. Missing from the bench was Tom "Hots" Taylor who has quit the squad.

Washington made the first point of the game but never regained the lead afterwards. The Salukis led 15-8 at the end of the first quarter, 26-23 at halftime and 37-31 at the end of the third period.

EARLY IN THE fourth quarter the Salukis stretched their lead to eight points and looked as if they would win handily, but the Bears chipped away and with three minutes left, trailed 41-38. At this point, both Thate and Rich Rockefeller went out of the game on a double foul. Gib Kurtz made the free throw for SIU and Bill Lahrman for Washington. A basket by Bob Kreighausen with two minutes left marked the end of the scoring. Southern's 42 points was the lowest total for the season.

Both teams shot poorly. Southern shot .370 the first half but wound up the game with 14 baskets in 56 shots, or a .250 percentage. The Bears hit 13 buckets in 65 shots for an even .200 average. Southern made 14 free throws but missed an equal number. The Bears hit 15 free throws, missed five.

Tough Beloit Squad Is Host Saturday To Southern Cagers

Beloit, always rated one of the best "small college" teams in the country, will provide stiff competition for the Salukis tomorrow night. The game will be played in the Beloit (Wisc.) College Field House.

The Buccaneers are coached by Dolph Stanley, a native of Marion. Stanley moved to Beloit after a brilliant record at Taylorville high school. In 1944-45 he took Taylorville through the first undefeated basketball season in state high school history. When he moved to Beloit he took most of his players with him and ever since has drawn heavily on Illinois players to fill out his teams. This year Stanley's 18 varsity men included 15 from Illinois.

BELOIT HAS a record of 14 wins and only four losses this season (not including a game last night with Chreighton). The Buccaneers won their first 12 games before losing 64-59 to Indiana State, a team that beat the Salukis in their first game of the year, 50-45. Beloit lost its next two games to DePaul, 80-57 and Xavier 84-70. Then the Bucs whipped Santa Barbara, 94-53, lost to Loyola of Chicago, 50-26 and beat Carroll College 61-59.

Those losses came after Stanley had lost two of his key men to injury and ineligibility. In the game with Southern, he may use two freshmen who performed well against Carroll last Saturday. They are Wayne Gilmore, San Jose, Ill., and John Brooks, Villa Grove, Ill.

BESIDES INDIANA State the two teams have only one other common opponent this season. That was Washington U. Beloit staked out the Bears in a rhubarb-raising 24-21 victory at St. Louis.

Southern has played Beloit only once before. That was during the 1948-49 season when the Bucs won 67-48.

Salute the Salukis

The two Saluki sophomores from Centralia are running one-two in conference scoring for Southern. Forward Bob Nickolaus now tops the list with 109 points, thanks to his 24-point output last Saturday against Normal.

Guard Harvey Welch has slipped into second place with a total of 106 points. Forward Ray Ripplemeyer, freshman from Valmeyer, is third with 94 points.

Nickolaus has scored his 109 points in 10 conference games, giving him a game average of 10.9. Welch's average is higher. He's appeared in nine games for a game average of 11.8.

Welch's record is actually better than it looks on paper. Before he suffered an injured finger, Welch was averaging 14.5 points per conference game. Since the injury he has appeared only briefly in two games, but these ap-
