Religion in Life Week Ends Tonight; Sneaking Speaker

Godfrey Spruell Jr., chief of the Board of Public Affairs and Central News Bureau, will close the prayer period of the Life Week celebration at 7:30 p.m. today as he delivers the benediction at the evening service. Sneaking speaker at the benediction will be the Rev. Dr. Jacob A. Green, who will speak on the theme of the week, “A Christian’s view of life.”

Three days of Life Week activities at the university focused on the theme “Christianity in the World.”

“A Christian’s view of life” will be a dominant theme at the three-day Life Week celebration at SIU. The event is sponsored by the Catholic Student Association and the Student Christian Movement.

Cagers Get Rest

Perched precariously atop the Big Ten standings, the University of Michigan men's basketball team has the luxury of being able to take a week off before returning to action.

The Wolverines were able to travel to Dearborn for a practice session, and then return to Ann Arbor for more workouts.

The team will have a chance to regroup before they return to action on February 12th.

Fresh Frogs Carrot

Southern's men's basketball team has been struggling to find consistency, but they have managed to score well in recent games.

Sophomore center, Brandon Carothers, had a season-high 22 points in the team's most recent game, a 90-60 win over Illinois State.

Carothers, a 6-foot-10 forward, has been a key player for the Frogs, averaging 10.7 points and 7.5 rebounds per game.

Slogan Set For SIU's

"With it, we go to Indiana and get it."

The Illinois State Redbirds have been on a roll lately, winning their last three games.

"We've been playing well defensively," said head coach,.uint, "and that's been the key to our success.

The Redbirds have allowed just 61.4 points per game in their last three contests.
