The Thin Line Of Difference

Between right and left there is ever so small a turning. Between right and wrong there may be only a shadow of a distinction. The thin line of difference between acceptable conduct and unacceptable conduct is easy to cross. The easiness of the crossing is a tremendously important thing. Respect for the line is at the core of our democracy.

As a nation, if ever we should lose respect for our persons, respect for each other's property, respect for each other's abode, we cannot continue as a self-governing democracy. We will cease to exist as a free people.

Between happiness and hysteria the line may be so very thin that many will disagree as to when the line is crossed. But no one who is thoughtful will fail to agree that Wednesday night this line of difference was crossed. To visit a house in good fun is one thing—to break and enter is another. Here is the thin line of difference. On one side is acceptable behavior—on the other side unacceptable. On one side is legality—on the other illegality. On one side mischief—on the other malicious mischief.

Wednesday night the line of difference was crossed between respect and lack of respect for personal property, and for persons. Some furnishings were broken, clothing was taken and at least one person was injured by rough handling.

The line of difference is a thin one and I am fully aware there was no planned intention to cross it. The degree of crossing was not great. There was no extensive property damage, there was no serious personal injury, the loss of personal property was not great.

However, we must now face up to the matter of responsibility. Who is to pay the piper? Who, is to make restitution for the excursion from exuberance to excess? Who will pay for repair to broken doors and windows, broken furniture and missing articles? Will it be the injured parties, or the ones who committed the vandalism, or should the entire student body share in the cost of restitution as an experience in self-discipline? The Student Council has been asked to recommend answers to these questions.

To Publish Egyptian on Wednesday Next Week

There will be no school on Memorial Day, next Friday, May 30, since that date was voted an official school holiday.

Since there will be no school on Friday, the usual day of publication of the Egyptian, there will only be one issue of the Egyptian next week.

That issue will appear on Wednesday, May 28, in order to give better coverage of next week's activities. Deadline for material to be printed in Wednesday's issue will be 4 p.m., Monday.

It Happened Here

America's college students, and Southern's students are no exception, have at last found a way to make themselves known in this muddled world. The solution: raid women's dormitories.

For centuries, the "leaders of tomorrow" have wondered how to make themselves known today. But is this any way to make one's self known? If this is the only way our students can get recognition, it proves a definite weakness on the part of those wanting the publicity.

Such a raid is novel, fun, important, and jovial to those instigating it, but later the raid loses these spirited adjectives and becomes less thrilling when the thought about how damages will be repaired, how clothing will be restored, and how doctor bills will be paid enters the minds of those involved.

We wonder if the fun that the raiders set out to get was actually attained, and if so, is such fun really "fun" when it is accompanied by such serious after-effects?

List Rules Governing Absences

Following is a set of revised rules released by the Academic Deans and the Office of Student Affairs concerning student absences from class and from examinations. The rules are now in effect, according to Dr. Jack Graham of the Student Affairs office.

Listed under absences from class, the rules are:

1. STUDENTS are expected to attend class regularly. There is no such thing as an excused absence. Instructors are occasionally given notices of past or anticipated student absences due to field trips, health, or other reasons. These motives merely indicate an explanation of the absence; they do not excuse them.

2. ALL ABSENCES, explained and unexplained, are to be recorded by the instructor. It is the responsibility of the student to inquire from the instructor what he should do to make up the work missed. The privilege of making up work missed during absences is dependent on the instructor in question.

3. ONLY A GRAVE emergency serves as a reason for being absent from an announced test. The student should inform the instructor prior to the examination of any such anticipated absence when at all possible.

4. A STUDENT who is ill should report to the Health Service if at all possible. If a student is not well enough to go to the Health Service, the student's parent or householder may call the Health Service. This should be done for each day's illness. Each day the Health Service sends a list of students whose illness warrants absence from class to the following persons: the Academic Deans, Office of Student Affairs, physical education department for men, physical education department for women, and air science and tactics department.

The student should report to his instructor the reason for his absence. The Health Service does not issue routine statements verifying student absences due to health.

Any student who has gone home because of illness or has been admitted to a hospital must report this to the Health Service when he returns to the campus. He should present to the Health Service a statement from his home-town physician.

5. STUDENTS who wish to explain their absences due to reasons beyond their control which are other than health may report to the Office of Student Affairs. Students may request that a letter of explanation be sent to their academic deans and instructors. (Male students required to take physical examinations for the Selective Service System need only to present their orders to report for such an examination to their various instructors).

6. ALL STUDENTS going on University sponsored field trips must have a trip permit on file in the Office of Student Affairs. The official list of participating students will be sent to the instructors involved by the Office of Student Affairs. Such an absence is NOT excused. It still remains the responsibility of the student to check with his instructor and to make up any work missed.

Listed under absences from final examinations, the rules are: 1. A student who for some reason must miss a final examination may not take an examination before the one scheduled for the class. If a student misses a final examination, the instructor will record a 'W' together with the grade which the student was making at the time of withdrawal.

2. The final examination may be given at a later date, within one year.

A Review—

Little Theatre Play Proclaimed Best Yet

by Tom Sloan

The three-day run of "Medea" on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week is a major step forward by the Little Theatre. The play itself and the Little Theatre production of it is of such scope and power that no one but the completely uninitiated would refrain from acclaiming the performance as "the best yet on Southern's campus."

An ancient Greek tragedy, written by Euripides and freely adapted for the modern stage by Robinson Jeffers, the play concerns a tale from Greek mythology. Medea, who had aided Jason in his quest for the Golden Fleece and whom he later married was renounced by Jason after she had bore him two sons.

AS MEDEA, Dorothy Paterson so skillfully conveyed the emotions of a tormented creature that many members of the audience were agast. Aided by the technique of central staging, Miss Paterson so convincingly gave us the emotions of a woman torn between love, hate, submission, and vengeance, that the performance will stand as testimonial of her acting versatility.

After a rather slow start in Act I, Don Fearheiley, as Jason, disappointed no one at the conclusion of the play. The "clear-as-a-bell" voice quality and stage maturity of Sue Smith aided the exposition immeasurably; it is undoubtedly her finest performance.

OF ALL THE PEOPLE in the cast, only David Alverson and Carolyn Reed delivered the lines written in poetry in such a facile way that their very utterance enhanced the depth of the play. Though he had only a small part, Tom Berry proved the effectiveness of a thorough and lasting characterization.

The technical crew, directed by Lawrence Voss, reached an excellence in production never attained before. The timing of the lighting, the set design, the costume, and the make-up aided much in the success of the performance.

Club Makes Field Trip To Southern Tennessee

Members of the SJU Geology club spent the weekend of May 9 collecting fossils in southwestern Tennessee.

The trip was under the direction of Jules R. DuBar, of the geography and geology department, who was accompanied by the following club members: Mrs. DuBar, Betty Hannigan, Larry Wachtel, Jack French, Raymond Hatcher, Bill Allen, Polly Weathers, and Jim Weathers.

Area studied was once an arm of the sea and the sediments in which the marine organisms are now enclosed were deposited over 60,000,000 years ago in the cretaceous period. Surprisingly enough, the forms observed and collected are extremely well preserved and bear a striking resemblance to modern seashore shells whose ancestors they are.

PERSONS TAKING the trip left Carbondale Friday evening and arrived in Selmer, Tennessee, early Saturday. Saturday morning was spent collecting clams from a hillside on the farm of K. A. Holley, near Guys, Tennessee.

Saturday afternoon was spent collecting fossils from the banks of Coon Creek, a famous fossil locality visited by geologists and paleontologists from all over the world. The group was directed to this area by Will Gantt of Enville, Tennessee. Gantt was a friend of Wade, the first man to work out the geology of the region.

Salukis Take Crown, Defeat Eastern 5-4; 4-1 Hagler Hurls No-Hitter

Southern wrapped up the IIAC baseball conference title Wednesday, by tripping the Panthers of Eastern in a double-header 5-4 and 4-1. The last was a no-hit affair hurled by Ron Hagler. Southern wound up the campaign boasting a conference record of 9 wins and 1 loss.

Wayne "Elmer" Grandcolas started the initial contest for Coach Martin's charges, and went the distance allowing six hits and four runs. The Belleville sophomore hung up his eighth straight victory of the season as he whiffed six Panthers. Wayne has yet to lose his first game.

Freshman Ron Hagler, who hails from Murphysboro, pitched the first no-hit game of his career in the second tilt. Had it not been for inaccuracy in the last inning he would have added to his laurels by capturing a shutout. The big right-hander struck out six, but walked eight, four of which were in the last inning, costing him a no-hit no-run victory.

EASTERN jumped off to a one-run lead in the second inning of the first game, when John McDevitt, second sacker for the Charleston crew, scored on his long drive that bounced over Zapotocky's head in left field. The lead, however, was short lived as Southern roared back for two in their half of the second. Buck Burns led off with a walk and West singled to center. "Zip" Zapotocky, who collected four hits for the day, sacrificed the runners to second and third. Jack Chor drove in a run with a ground out and Grandcolas dumped a beautiful bunt to help execute a squeeze play and score West.

In the fourth, the Salukis collected another marker but Eastern deadlocked the contest in the fifth as Anderson doubled in two runs. They took the lead in the sixth when McDevitt, who proved to be the thorn in Grandcolas' side, doubled, driving in Corey. Burns evened it up again in the same inning, scampering home on Zapotocky's double.

THE CLINCHER was scored in the next frame. Ems singled after two were out and went to second as Brumleve walked Burns. He advanced to third on a passed ball, and then romped home on a double steal. Brumleve was charged with the defeat as he was plastered for nine hits.

SECOND GAME There was little to shout about for the Easterners in the second contest, as Hagler had them eating out of his hand until the last inning. They received some consolation then, when Ron gave up one run via four walks and a ground ball. Hagler's mates helped him with some remarkable saves.

SOUTHERN scored one in the first on successive singles by Schmulbach and Coleman and Ems' ground ball. Ems punched a single through shortstop in the third and pulled up at third on a wild throw by the pitcher, Hemphill. He tallied when West drove a long fly to center. Southern countered twice more the next inning to assure Ron his victory and sew up the championship.

In the windup series, the Southern nine will face Bradley University in two non-conference games on May 30 and 31.

CHARLIE VALIER, third baseman, finished with a .305 average for 10 conference games.

Zapotocky Tops Southern in IIAC With .449 Average

Final unofficial IIAC batting averages for the first place Salukis show that left fielder Verlan (Zip) Zapotocky finished as top man on the Southern club with .449.

Zapotocky, a Belleville freshman, collected a total of 13 hits in 29 appearances at the plate. Probably the most important of these 13 hits came in the tenth inning of the first game against the Northern Huskies. With two out, Zapotocky lined a fast ball into right field to score Charlie Valier with the winning run in a 4-3 victory.

ANOTHER small man with a big bat, second sacker Eddie Coleman, finished second to Zapotocky with a healthy .350. The DuQuoin junior hit safely 14 times in 40 tries.

Just one point below Coleman was slugging right fielder Bob Ems. Ems, clean-up hitter during the entire campaign, pounded out a .349 average by getting 15 hits in 43 trips to the plate. The Fisher sophomore led the club in home runs, hitting for the circuit twice in league play.

CHARLIE VALIER, collared in the first game against Eastern, dropped off from .333 to finish at .305. The hot-corner man, a Pinckneyville senior, had 11 for 36.

Captain Jim Schmulbach also fell off in the last league series. Batting .293 before the Eastern series, the fleet-footed center fielder closed the IIAC season batting .282, with 11 hits in 39 appearances.

Shortstop Jerry West, who also found trouble in the Eastern series, dropped from .276 to .257. West, a Belleville sophomore, went to bat 35 times for nine hits.

LARRY BURNS, junior first baseman from Madison, slumped to .222 when he was collared in both Eastern games. Burns hit safely six times in 27 appearances.

Catcher Jack Chor finished his first year in the IIAC with .120. Although the Lebanon receiver made a rather poor showing at the plate, he handled himself well defensively. If Chor's hitting improves, he could easily become one of the finer catchers in the league.

Four Golfers Enter Conference Meet

Four men from Southern's golf squad left with Coach Lynn Holder to compete in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference meet at Ypsilanti today and tomorrow.

Jim Wilson, Don Wilson, Charlie Newkirk, and Jack Shanks comprise the team which Holder will field against the other six schools of the conference.

Rain forced cancellation of the last regularly scheduled meet, booked last week-end at Peoria against a strong Bradley team.

Twelve Trackmen Enter Conference Meet Today

Twelve of Southern's trackmen will carry the aspirations of the Saluki cinder squad today when they compete in the IIAC meet at Ypsilanti.

PHIL COLEMAN, who set new records for Southern in both the mile and two-mile runs at Washington U. last Saturday, carries the best chance of any of the Saluki competitors. Lingle stated that the distance star will probably compete in both races today. Previously, there had been some speculation as to whether Coleman would run in both events, or concentrate his efforts to one, hoping to establish a new conference record. He is defending champion in the mile-run.

Gregory, Delia, Bierman, and Cherry will compete in the distance and middle-distance runs, while West, Lawler, and Wilson will enter the dashes and hurdles.

COMPETING in the field events will be White in the broad and high jumps, Massa in the javelin and pole vault, and Carlisle in the javelin and broad jump.

According to all pre-meet reports, Michigan Normal of Ypsilanti is favored to place first in team position. Both Michigan Normal and Central Michigan, usually out of contention in other conference sports, field track teams of consistent top performance.

Netmen Lose Two, Play in IIAC Today

SIU's tennis team concluded the dual match portion of the 1952 season last week-end in Peoria by dropping two 7-0 decisions to Bradley University. The matches were played indoors because of bad weather. Coach Jim Wilkinson's boys conclude the season at Ypsilanti, Michigan today and tomorrow in the IIAC meet.

Two losses last week-end gave the Salukis a 5-7 mark for the year. One match with Illinois Normal on April 12 was cancelled. In winning five outings, SIU whipped Eastern State twice, Missouri School of Mines, and Evansville twice. The seven losses were inflicted by Elmhurst, Beloit, Washington University twice, Western State, and Bradley twice.

Most conclusive victory of the year for the Southern netmen came in the second Evansville meeting when the Salukis won 5-1. The most thorough thumping for '52 was handed the Wilkinson men by Washington University in the second meeting, 9-0.

Carrying the net load for SIU throughout the season were Ernie Flota, Jerry Hensley, Bruce Lape, Paul Prussman, Charles Pisoni, Don Kilian, Bill Meyers, Bill Fly, and Chuck Haile. Pisoni was chosen as Southern's representative in the NAIB meet.

DARRELL THOMPSON NOW PITCHES FOR UNCLE SAM

Darrell Thompson, one of Southern's top pitchers last year, is now playing with an Air Force team in Japan, according to his friend and former teammate, Wayne Grandcolas. Both are from Belleville.

Thompson, a righthander, pitched against a rival Air Force team in Tokyo recently and although he allowed only four hits, his team lost 2-1.
