FRANKIE LESTER

To Feature Vocalist Frankie Lester With Buddy Morrow's Orchestra Here

Frankie Lester, with his crew hair cut, bow tie and boyish smile, will be the featured male vocalist with Buddy Morrow and his orchestra this Saturday night at the Spring Festival concert and dance.

Frankie was born in Philadelphia, Pa., a little over 24 years ago, and according to his parents was singing almost before he could talk.

While attending school in his home town of Philadelphia, Frankie was also heard three times a week over station WIP, a Mutual affiliate, on his own show. Ted Lewis heard Frankie one day and immediately signed him as a vocalist with the band.

THE NEXT STEP for this personable young singer was a featured role with Tommy Dorsey. While Frankie sang with the Dorsey orchestra, he appeared at such top spots as the Meadowbrook in Cedar Grove, New Jersey, and the 400 Restaurant in New York City.

After leaving Dorsey, Frankie joined Hal MacIntyre with whom he was featured at all the number one night spots, location dates and recording sessions, as well as on a European U. S. O. tour.

After Frankie heard that Buddy Morrow was forming a dance band, he left Hal MacIntyre to join this new band.

BUDDY MORROW and Frankie Lester will present the Spring Festival concert at 8 p.m. in Shryock auditorium May 3 to be followed by the annual Spring Festival dance in the men's gymnasium at 9:30 p.m.

The dance is to be called the Zodiac Formal, and the theme will be astrological to carry out the title.

In a recent issue of "Music," Buddy Morrow and his orchestra were rated among the top bands of the nation.

Over 2000 disc jockeys voted Morrow the No. 1 most promising band in the country in the 1951 Annual Billboard Magazine disc jockey poll. Morrow drew such a big vote that no other band was near him.

To File Applications For Student Teaching

All students who plan to do student teaching during the school year 1952-53 should file a preliminary application with Dr. Charles D. Neal, director of teacher training, not later than May 1. Those students who plan to take student teaching during the fall term should make final application by May 1. In addition, those students who expect to be assigned to student teaching for the fall term should make final application with the Health Service within the next few days for a physical examination. The examinations will be given from May 6 to May 23.

Students who have been assigned to student teaching for the summer term, 1952, should also take their physical examinations at the same time.

Hold Homecoming, Student Council Nominations Today

Nominations are being held today for next year's Student Council members and Homecoming chairman.

Polls are located in front of Old Main, but in case of rain they will be moved to the crosshalls of Old Main.

Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will nominate candidates for the sophomore, junior, and senior representatives on next year's Student Council.

All students will nominate one person for next year's Homecoming chairman.

In order to be officially nominated, a student must receive at least ten nominating votes, must have a three point over-all scholastic average, must be a full-time student, and must have the correct number of quarter hours credit to be classified in the class which is to be represented.

Also in the final elections, which are to take place May 6, the newly revised Student Council constitution will be put before the student body for vote.

District Rotarians Hold Convention On Campus

Southern was the scene of the recent district Rotary meeting which was held Wednesday and Thursday of last week. One of the highlights of the meeting was the speech Thursday afternoon by Clark Eichelberger, an authority on the United Nations.

According to conference secretary, dean of the College of Vocations and Professions, Henry J. Rehn, about 217 Rotary members were in attendance for the Thurs-

To Launch Festivities With Assembly Thursday

A special kick-off assembly, which will set off the festivities for Southern's Spring Festival, will be held Thursday morning at 9 a.m. in Shryock auditorium. Classes will be dismissed for the assembly.

To Hold Festival Midway Concessions On SIU Driveway

Spring Festival Midway chairman, Doree McClane, has announced the plans for the Midway concessions. The Midway will be held Saturday, May 3, 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. The concession stands will be set up on the circle driveway on campus between Anthony Hall and the Men's gym.

In case of rain the Midway will be held in the crosshalls of Old Main.

Miss McClane announced that, to date, eighteen organizations have entered in the Midway competition. The organizations that have announced their concessions are: Chi Delta Chi fraternity, pie-throwing, ISA, "Dunk the girl," Pi Delta Epsilon, cokes; Sigma Sigma Sigma, "Esquire Escapades" (with the calendar girls).

SAGAWAH, target shooting; Johnson Hall, fishing; Pi Kappa Sigma, "Ring Around the Posie;" Delta Sigma Epsilon, "Wink An Eye;" Pottery club, ball throwing; Newman Club, refreshments; Student Council, dart throwing; Girl's Rally, "Pick the String."

Organizations that have entered the Midway, but have not announced a theme are: Sigma Pi, Sigma Tau Gamma, Anthony Hall, Alpha Phi Omega, and The Bungalow.

All organizations entering the Midway are responsible for erecting and removing their own concession stands. It has been announced that stands should be erected by 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

A parade consisting of 41 bands on Thursday morning was another of the featured attractions.

A review of the speech made by Eichelberger, speaker at the Thursday assembly, is on page 2 of this issue.

The main purpose of the assembly will be to introduce the candidates for Miss Southern to the student body.

The program will also include the introduction of students in charge of the Festival, the presentation of several short skits, and music by the Theta Xi band. Joe Harding will be master of ceremonies.

The judging of the Miss Southern contestants will take place Saturday at 1 p.m. in front of Shryock auditorium. Five finalists will be chosen at this time, but the queen will not be announced until the dance Saturday night.

THE GIRLS will appear in formal and bathing suits before the out-of-town judges, and will be judged on figure, poise, and beauty.

The candidates for queen and their sponsors are: Eleanor Miller, Dixie Byvan, and Carolyn Collier, Anthony Hall; Rosemary Gendron, Theta Xi; Linda Casper and Faye Keller, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mary Jo Zumer, Pi Kappa Sigma.

To Decorate Wharf Club With Marquee

A marquee in front of the men's gymnasium and a wharf-shaped bandstand accentuated with fishnets in the gym have been planned by the Spring Festival committee as decorations for the Friday night Wharf Club, feature of the Spring Festival weekend.

Among those acts to be presented for the Wharf Club floor show are the Chi Deltones, Harry Evers who will sing, and a Sigma Sigma Sigma act, Barbara Buford, Anthony Hall, and Dick Ashmore will also present vocal numbers.

Emil Kass and Ray Seville, Sigma Tau Gamma, will do a tumbling act, and Tau Kappa Epsilon will conduct a Mr. Saluki contest. Tom Sloan with the help of Leah Bradley Simms and Delores Blondi will present an act.

Other acts, which have not tried out as yet, will also be included in the program, according to Cliff Karch, Wharf Club chairman.

The show will begin at 8:30 p.m. and will last until 11:30 p.m.

From the Chairman of Spring Festival

Dear Editor:

This week on May 2 and 3 there will be an annual all-school event held on Southern's campus. This annual event, which is known as the Spring Festival, is one that is primarily for the benefit of the students—for their enjoyment and their relaxation.

This event has been going on for a number of years and I have seen the last three such events in operation here at Southern. I have always enjoyed the various activities that have taken place and the entertainment that was presented by the general student body.

I am sure that the students have enjoyed doing this type of thing.

THERE IS JUST one thing that I would like to stress and that is that this year's Spring Festival steering committee is striving for a bigger and better Spring Festival.

So far, most of the arrangements are going along with a bang, but there are still some sore spots, and there will continue to be, unless the students realize that they should not just be bystanders but should be active participants.

Last year, for example, there were only five concessions on the Spring Festival Midway. I know that Southern is a small school, but not that small by a long shot! This year we are trying to make a good showing and we would like to have at least twenty-five entries for concessions. At the present time, there are only 18 such entries, so you can see we need more co-operation. Therefore, we would like to urge all organized houses and organizations to not only be spectators but to join in the fun by being participants in the Midway activities.

ANOTHER PHASE of Spring Festival that is a lead ball so far this year is the entertainment for the Wharf Club which is to be presented Friday night, May 2. This year, we have tried to add something new and different in the way of entertainment by adding the Wharf Club to the list of Spring Festival activities.

But there seems to be a lack of interest on the part of students to participate in the show. We need acts, and such acts cannot be created over night by a few persons. If any students can act, sing, dance, or play an instrument they should contact Cliff Karch at the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

One last thing I want to mention is the Saturday night dance and concert featuring the orchestra of Buddy Morrow. I want to encourage the students to attend the concert and the dance, for Morrow plays one of the sweetest trombones I have ever heard.

Here's hoping I see everyone at the Spring Festival activities!

Yours truly,
Lowell Odaniell
Spring Festival Chairman

Lost: Furniture

Since Southern has had a Student Center of any form such items as books, magazines, cards, etc., have occasionally disappeared since, no matter what is done, there are always those people who continue to have "sticky fingers."

However, a new note has been added to the list of items which have strayed from the Student Center. According to a release from the Student Center steering committee, four chrome chairs, a table lamp, and a round bridge table are no longer among the Student Center's possessions as they should be.

The above mentioned lost furniture is not thought to be exactly stolen from the Center, but due to moves the Center has made the furniture may have been stored in other offices on campus.

If anyone knows where the furniture is located they should call Mrs. Proctor, dial 295, and she will arrange to have the items picked up.

By the way, in case you're interested, the chrome chairs have maroon upholstery and the table lamp has a spun aluminum shade and base.

Dr. Amos Black, Sponsor, Recognizes Spring Festival As Students' Affair

"I am officially fiscal sponsor of Spring Festival, but this is an all student affair in which the faculty members do as little as they can," explained Dr. Amos Black, associate professor of mathematics. The accounting system of the state of Illinois believes that each social function should have a faculty member who signs bills, calls routine meetings, and interferes at various intervals. Consequently Dr. Black is the go-between between the accounting department and the students for Spring Festival.

When the general chairman and the 12 other chairmen of the various committees meet with Dr. Black for their regular, routine meetings, all plans are discussed before they are actually put into effect. According to Dr. Black, the plans usually sound so nice to him that no revision is necessary.

Dr. Black explained that the students have a budget of approximately $2700 which can be used for Spring Festival, and they are hoping they will not spend more than that amount.

The different committees have a certain part of that budget set apart which they may spend, with a large allotment going to the dance committee, said Black. Some committees use less money than their share, and some need more money; that is where the headaches come in, Black continued.

"I don't want to detract anything from the students because they are doing all the work, and in my opinion they are doing it very nicely," concluded Dr. Black.

Begin Plans For Honors Day Program

Plans are underway for the annual Honors Day program to be held May 15. According to Dr. Charles Tenney, classes will be dismissed from 10-12 a.m. for the program and reception which will follow.

At the Honor's Day program, special scholarships and gift awards will be presented by different organizations and departments. The SIU band will play several selections preceding and following the program.

All graduating seniors with a 4.25 scholastic average or above will be awarded scholarship pendants. Juniors with a 4.25 or above and freshmen and sophomores with a 4.5 or above will be honored.

Following the program, a reception will be held at Anthony Hall for all honor students and their parents.

Chairman of the faculty committee for the Honor's Day program is Dr. Vera Peacock. The student committee consists of Barbara Von Behren, Delores Hamp, Carroll Cox, and Wilma Beadie.

Happy Times

Humorous Sidelights Add to Festival Spirit

by Teresa White

In connection with this year's Spring Festival, the concessions committee has run into some interesting side-lights, which are in keeping with, and have added much, to the spirit and joviality of the occasion.

For example, the chairman of the concessions called a house which she thought was one of the organized houses on campus. It was organized, she found out, but only two people were living there.

When she reached the party on the line, she asked, "Is this an organized house?" The man who answered yelled to someone in the next room, "Honey, is our house organized?" to which his wife replied, "I hope so."

THE CONCESSIONS chairman then asked to speak to the president whereupon the man yelled, "Maxine, are you president?" She replied, "I sure am." Soon, it dawned upon the chairman that something was askew, and the matter was finally straightened out with no harm done.

Perhaps the most novel experience pertaining to Spring Festival concessions was the one which shows what happens when an organized house goes off the deep end, so to speak, and lets imagination run amuck.

One group had the idea to have as a concession a helium filled balloon and to sell rides on it to poor unsuspecting patrons. Plans included an insurance booth adjoining the balloon take-off area. The group wrote to the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company asking about the possibilities of getting such a balloon for use as a concession. Following is the reply that was received:

"CONGRATULATIONS on a novel and 'different' idea for your Spring Festival as outlined in your undated letter to our St. Louis district office.

"I regret, however, that we will not be able to help you materialize your plan for many reasons: (1)

All of our resources in the field of aircraft manufacturing at present are concerned with military production. (2) We do not have any old balloons available. (3) If we did, we could not loan one to you without the services of skilled personnel to handle the erection and employment of the craft, because, believe it or not, the handling of an inflated balloon of the man-carrying variety is not something just anyone can master in one easy lesson.

"Sorry we can't help you, but I'm sure that a group of girls with enough imagination to think up such an unusual idea, will have no difficulty in coming up with some good ideas that can be worked out successfully.

"We sincerely hope you have an outstanding Spring Festival."

Sincerely,
C. E. Schetter

Serkin Presents Community Concert

The Community Concert Association presented Rudolf Serkin Pianist, in a concert last night at Shryock auditorium.

Born of Russian background, Serkin was raised in Vienna where he studied the piano. Although he made his debut at twelve with the Vienna Symphony, he did not start on a concert career until his mid-teens.

His first performance in the United States was at the Coolidge Festival in Washington, D. C. In 1936 Toscanini asked him to be the guest soloist with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. His brilliant success on this occasion established an American career for Rudolf Serkin.

HIS PERFORMANCE last night included the following selections: "Praeludium and Fugue, A minor," by Johann Sebastian Bach; "Rondo, D major," by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart; "Sonata in F minor, Opus 57," by Ludwig van Beethoven; "Berceuse" and "Perpetuum mobile," by Ferruccio Busoni; "Invitation to the Dance," by Carl Maria von Weber; "Barcarolle, Opus 60," by Frederic Chopin; and "Variation in A minor," by Paganini-Liszt.

National FTA Secretary To Address SIU Group

Mrs. Wilda Freebern Faust, national Future Teachers of America secretary of Washington, D. C., will address the campus chapter of the FTA in the Little Theatre of the University school tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Faust has been in Illinois since Thursday, April 24, and has addressed FTA groups at Moline and Alton as well as the Illinois Association of the FTA convention at Springfield, Saturday, April 26.

Seven SIU students attended the Springfield convention last weekend. They were: Jack Sistler, Darlene Woodside, Dorothy Kellerman, Barbara Bain, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Klingenberg, and Dr. Jacob Bach.

Local area chapters, clubs, and the SIU educational organizations and fraternities have been invited to attend Mrs. Faust's address on campus. The public is also invited to attend.

Pi Lambda Nominates New Officers For Year

Pi Lambda, honorary educational fraternity for women, met and nominated new officers Monday, April 21, at the Student Center, according to Dr. Maude Stewart, sponsor of Pi Lambda.

Wilma Beadle and Loretta Bolen were nominated for president. The candidate who receives the most votes will be president, and the other will become vice-president in charge of programs.

Barbara Von Behren and Rosanna Giltner were nominated for the office of vice-president in charge of publicity.

Nominations for secretary-treasurer were Doris Jones and Phyllis Lewis. The candidates are now being voted on by mail with Margie Ferguson in charge of the voting.

During this meeting Dr. Charles Neal, director of teacher training, spoke on Southern's internship program.

Dr. Rusinger will speak at Pi Lambda's next meeting. The title of his talk is "Unseen Harvests."

Looking Back—

SIU's Spring Festival First Began In 1921

by Don Duffy

Although Spring Festival is supposed to be a recent addition to the list of Southern social activities, a check back through the Egyptian files relates that the first Spring Festival was staged way back in 1921.

President Shryock declared May 17, 1921, a holiday because, "We have passed the 1,000 mark in attendance, and it is time to celebrate." The celebration became known as the "Carnival."

The May 25 issue of the Egyptian for that year carries an account of the celebration. It states that "the campus became a tented city overnight, as tents and booths sprang up over the campus." Even a parade was held, which the Egyptian states was viewed by 3,000 to 4,000 people.

THE EVENT was held again in 1922. Prizes were awarded in typical carnival and country fair contests. The parade was more colorful than the first one, as more organizations participated in the festivities.

In 1923, a king and queen were elected to reign during the celebrations. The Egyptian of that year expressed hope that the 1923 carnival will not be the last carnival, and that every year SIU

Student Council Group Edits 'Southern Style'

Included in this year's "Southern Style" handbook will be sections concerning student activities, entrance fees, the deans of the various colleges, sports, and campus services Mrs. Loretta Ott, assistant dean of women, stated.

The new "Southern Style," which will be basically the same as in past years, is a get-acquainted book for new students. The committee hopes to have it finished by July 1 so it can be sent to new students before the fall term.

The president of the Student Council appointed the Student Council committee members who are working on this project. They are Barbara Von Behren, Carolyn Bernhard, and Jo Rusinger. The office of Student Affairs is the sponsor of the student handbook.

students and faculty members will arrange the same type of information.

But for some reason, the idea was dropped after 1923. Then, in 1948, the Student Council elected Bill Burns and Bob McCabe as co-chairmen of a Spring Festival. Burns and McCabe formed their committees, and formulated plans for the first Spring Festival in 25 years. The carnival was a huge success, and since then, has continued to better itself in scope and quality with each yearly presentation.

Commerce Club Tours St. Louis Area Today

Twenty members of the SIU Commerce club are touring St. Louis business establishments today on an educational field trip, according to the club sponsor, Paul Hoffman, assistant professor of business administration.

The tour will include visits to the Federal Reserve bank, the Travelers' Insurance company, the Lincoln-Mercury automobile plant, the Globe-Democrat newspaper plant, Anheuser-Busch company, Pevely Dairy plant, and Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

Those students who are on the tour are: Virgil Jones, Lester Barnes, Robert Robertson; Russell Cloud, president of the Commerce Club; R. T. Sullivan, Karl Hout, Henry Booten, John Ludwig, Sam Rincella, John Dingrando, Donald Riess, Jack Dempsey, James Prowell, George Gabor, Carroll Cox, Jean Mossman, Patricia Madden, Paul Sullinger, Fred Harvey, and Paul Ramsey.

Viola DuFrain and Van Euboltz of the business administration department accompanied the tour.

APPOINT FACULTY MEMBERS TO HEALTH COMMITTEE

Frances Phillips, Ralph Boatman, and Frank Bridges of Southern's health education department have been appointed as the nominating committee for the school and health services section of the American association of health, physical education and recreation.

To Give SIU Sophomores Exams Here Thursday

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will again participate in the national sophomore college testing program this year. All sophomores in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences are required to take three examinations which will be given on Thursday, May 1. Notices explaining absences from classes will be given to the students to present to their instructors.

The testing session will be from 8 a.m. until 11:40 a.m. and from 1 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. All of the testing will take place in the auditorium of the University School.

Examinees will have an opportunity to have the results of these tests interpreted to them by one of the counselors in the Office of Student Affairs.

These tests will measure (1) how effectively one has learned to read and write English; (2) how much of a general cultural background one has achieved in history and social studies, literature, science, fine arts, and mathematics; and (3) how alert one is to current developments in public affairs, science and medicine, and literature and fine arts.

Students who have questions about the testing program should contact Dean T. W. Abbott, dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, or the testing service in the Office of Student Affairs prior to the examination date.

GAMMA DELTA ELECTS

PAUL WALTERS PRESIDENT

Gamma Delta, Lutheran student organization on campus, recently elected officers. Paul Walters is the new president, and Elmer Holhubner is vice-president.

Other officers elected were Joyce Gollon, secretary; Bill Blase, treasurer; and Irma Strelow, reporter.

Plans were made for a speaker from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, to talk to the group on May 14.

The next Gamma Delta meeting will be held Wednesday, April 30, at 7:30 p.m. at the Savior Lutheran Church. Installation of the new officers will be held at this meeting.

To Feature Soprano In Music Festival

Virginia Haskins, famous coloratura soprano from Centralia, will be the nationally recognized musician from Southern Illinois in the third annual Southern Illinois music festival, "Music Under the Stars," to be presented May 10 at McAndrew Stadium.

Miss Haskins' ascension to fame has included voice study in St. Louis and Chicago, leading roles with the Chicago Opera Company, and head of the New York cast of the operetta, "Carousel."

SHE IS CURRENTLY a member of the New York City Opera Company. She is also currently in demand for national radio programs, and has lately earned enthusiastic praise as star of NBC Television Opera productions.

Other features of the program will include the following: a traditional May-Pole dance, an all Southern Illinois high school band of 200 select players, an all Southern Illinois elementary chorus of over 1,000 voices, an all Southern Illinois elementary band of 200 select players.

An all Southern Illinois high school choir of 800 voices, authentic Indian dances in full costume under black light, a performance of Southern Illinois baton twirlers, and a fireworks display.

THE FESTIVAL is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. at McAndrew Stadium, but in case of rain, the recital will be presented by Virginia Haskins at 8:15 p.m. in Shryock auditorium and the remainder of the Festival program will be postponed to May 17. A Festival ticket will admit one to both programs.

Honored musician of the festival will be Mrs. H. O. Pope, DuQuoin. Mrs. Pope has made a great contribution to the music in Southern Illinois for the past 46 years.

President Delyte W. Morris will be master of ceremonies for the Festival, and F. V. Wakeland, music department, is the Festival chairman.

Graduates Accept

Jobs for Next Year

The Placements Service has announced that several more of this year's graduates have accepted positions recently.

Pat Randolph, Shabbona, has accepted a primary position in the elementary school in Carbondale.

Delores Wheeler, Belleville, has accepted the position as art supervisor for the Carbondale elementary schools.

Emigene Bourland, Dongola, and Caroline Norris, Mulkeytown, have accepted teaching positions in the elementary school in Grayville.

Clara Baudison, Pinckneyville, will be teaching in the elementary school in Pana.

Barbara Brach, Cisne, who is a home economics major, will be teaching in the high school at Wayne City, next year.

Myrtle Coffman, Jonesboro, has accepted a position in the McLearn High School.

John C. Dingrando, Marion, will be working as a junior accountant for the Central Illinois Public Service company in Marion next year.

Phyllis Wardrop Broadway, Golconda, has recently accepted the position of home adviser for Johnson County.

Betty Conatser, Carbondale, has accepted a position in the high school at Brentwood, Mo., and will be teaching English and Spanish.

Behind the Scenes of Spring Festival

...The Committees That Made the Plans

PRINTING, distributing, and selling of tickets for the Wharf Club, concert, and dance are a small part of the work done by the tickets committee. During this week each committee member is working according to schedule at the main gate selling tickets. Committee members are, seated, from left—Mona Garland and Libby Mars. Standing, from left—Louie Taylor, Ron Sullivan, and Delores Hamp, chairman.

THE CONSTRUCTION of the sign of the Zodiac, an integral part of the over-all astrological theme for the Festival dance, is being planned by the decorations committee. Lou Steinberg, center, chairman, explains a draft of the Zodiac to committee members Charles Werner and Shirley Smith.

DOREE McCLANE, center, chairman of the Midway committee, is explaining a tentative schedule of the concession stands for the Midway to members of her committee, Wilma Beadle, left, and Mitzi Cagle, right. Allotting of space on the Midway for the stands will be the next major step in planning the Midway.

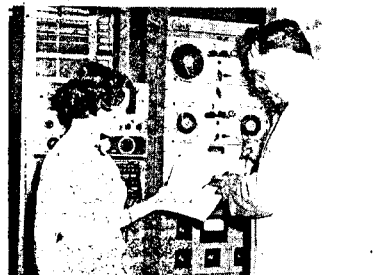

As The Plans Are Put Into Action . . .

"DUNK A GIRL" will be the theme of the ISA concession stand on the Spring Festival Midway this year. Shown above in the stages of construction on their stand are, from left—Jerry Fears, chairman of the concession; Dick Beavis, and Don Duffy. Several girls have volunteered to participate in the dunking contest.

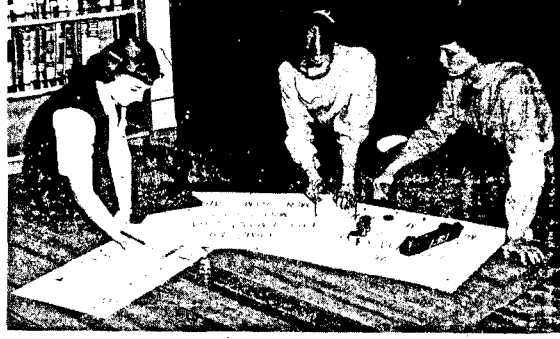

FISH NETS from the fishery's management service are being inspected by Cliff Karsh, chairman of the Wharf Club committee. Numerous fish nets and silhouettes are being used for the walk and the band stand to carry through the Wharf theme. Hal Haviard and his band have been contracted to play for the Club.

PUBLICITY discs of Morrow recordings were cut last week by Buren Robbins, director of radio at Southern, for distribution to ten Southern Illinois radio stations. He was assisted by Anita Early, member of the publicity committee. In the background is a picture of the tape recorder used by the radio service.

AFTER THE FESTIVAL tickets are printed, numbered, and distributed to the downtown merchants, they must be sold to the students. So every day this week an advance ticket sales stand will be opened by ticket committee members at the main gate. Advance ticket sales for the Wharf Club, dance, and concert will be sold as is being done above. Working members are: from left—Mona Garland, George Holliday, Velda Prince, and Libby Mars.

APPROXIMATELY 75 posters were placed on campus this week-end announcing various phases of Spring Festival. Several additions to the Wharf Club posters were made last week at the Student Center by: from left—Shirley McConnaughay, Mary Jane Ball, and Julie Geddes. Freda Gower was in charge of the poster construction and printing group on the publicity committee.

HELEN NANCE, left, and Rosemarie Gendron, right, are purchasing bathing suits at the Alice-Fly Shop. Both girls are candidates in the Miss Southern contest, and they are to be judged Saturday afternoon in bathing suits before a group of out-of-town judges. Helen is being sponsored by the Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority, and Rosemarie, by the Theta Xi fraternity.

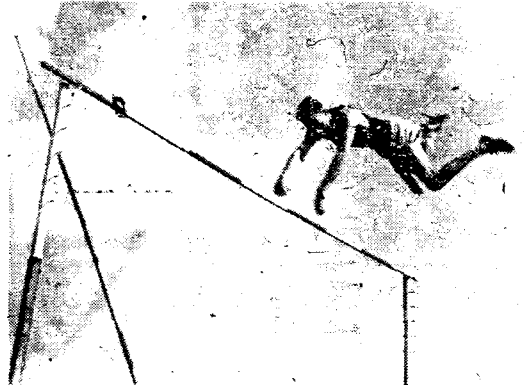

COACH JIM WILKINSON'S tennis squad, in search of its third match victory of the year, found itself washed out of a meeting with Washington university at St. Louis last Thursday afternoon.

This Friday, the Salukis will battle on the home courts for the first time since April 12, when they play host to Western-Illinois State. Saturday, SIU will remain in the roll of host when Evansville comes to Carbondale for a return match. This meet is part of the three-ring athletic day scheduled to coincide with Spring Festival.

'SOUTHERN'S BASEBALL coaching staff looks over the score-book and standings to find that the Salukis are on top in the IAC standings. Southern is thus far undefeated in four conference games. From left—Bill O'Brien, assistant baseball coach recently returned from the Marines; head coach Glenn (Abe) Martin, and Milt Weisbecker, temporary assistant coach.

HARRY CLARK, Carbondale senior, clears the bar at 11 ft. 6 in. in a dual meet against Missouri School of Mines here Apr. 19. Clark, a veteran letterman, is one of the Saluki track crew which will be out for its fourth straight victory next Saturday. The track meet against Illinois Normal is part of the three-ring athletic event scheduled as part of the Spring Festival celebrations.

SIU Golfers Beat Scott Field 9-6

Southern's linksmen downped Scott Field for the second time this year, 9-6, in a match held last Wednesday afternoon at the Jackson County Country Club in Carbondale.

Coach Lynn Holder's forces will tussle with St. Louis University in St. Louis this afternoon and will return home for their match against Evansville College on May 9. Following the Evansville match there will be five dates remaining on the Saluki schedule.

In the Scott Field match, Church Newkirk and Bob Henley led the way, scoring 5½ of Southern's nine points. Jim Wilson, Jack Shanks, and Duane Wilson combined to pile up the other 3½ for SIU.

Low round for the afternoon was Newkirk's 76. He fired two 38 nines. Other Southern scores: J. Wilson, 81; Duane Wilson, 84; Jack Shanks, 81; and Bob Henley, 83.

Final result showings:
Jim Wilson (S), 41-40—81.
Perry (SF), 38-44—82.
Kelly (SF), 40-44—84.
D. Wilson (S), 44-40—84.

Trackmen Face Normal Saturday

Coach Leland (Doc) Lingle's trackmen will be looking for their fourth straight victory when they meet the Illinois Normal Redbirds here next Saturday, May 3.

This will be the first conference meet for Southern this season. After getting rained out in their scheduled IAC opener with the Western Leathernecks, the Salukis have compiled a record of three straight victories.

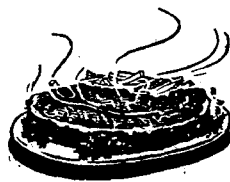

The Linglemen opened the season with a trouncing of the Southeast Missouri Indians at Cape Girardeau April 8. They opened the home season with a victory over Missouri School of Mines April 25. Last Friday night, the Southerners trounced Cape for the second time, 91 2/3-39 1/3.

The Redbirds, who beat Southern 67-64 in their only meeting last season, are reported to have the strongest dual meet team in the school's history.

Thus, the Salukis will have their work set before them if they expect to extend their winning streak to five-in-a-row this Saturday. The meet is scheduled to start at 2:15 p.m.

Following this meet, Southern will have two more opponents to face before traveling to Ypsilanti for the IAC meet May 24.
