LAST WORDS

Farewell fall grads, we hardly knew ye

We want every moment at SIUC to be memorable, but sometimes we forget. Occasionally, it's because of an over-indulgence in week-end activities. Regardless, time here just goes by too fast.

As we stroll up to the stage and grasp that fancy, empty envelope (the real one comes in the mail after the parking tickets are paid), our college life will flash before our eyes. Well, at least the parts that we can remember.

We'll never forget the time we fell in love. Our would be sweetheart wooed us with a smooth look. Or were they beckoning a more attractive person we couldn't see? Our hearts have been broken, mended and broken again. Here, there was always someone who would understand.

We'll everlastingly remember our friends. Friends in college are people who have acquired the same drinking habits, taste in movies or video games. Our lives wouldn't have been the same without them. When times got rough, they would lend a hand, and if need be, carry us home at night. We spent nights awake together cramming for tests and writing papers.

Our friends sauntered through campus with us when we couldn't find the ever-elusive Faner Hall.

We shouldn't forget the professors and teachers who helped get us our degree. Our favorites were the ones who gave us the best grades. But we also learned from the ones who wouldn't have given Einstein an A in science and math. They taught us to grow as individuals and helped us to understand that, above all, life is about learning. And that life is the biggest classroom of all.

Our families provided some of us with the income when we needed it the most. For others, they did it alone, and for that we applaud their strength and willingness to succeed. But even if the parents didn't support us with financial assistance, most did with the loving support that was needed most.

We now realize that we are moving on at a pace some of us aren't ready for, and for others, at a pace only too slow. We're racing forward in life with the speed given to us by all we learned here at Southern Illinois University.

So wherever our degree take us, we'll look back on each poignant, palpable and intangible moment at Southern with a fond loving eye. And we'll hold our degrees high and take pride in calling ourselves SIU alumni.

Graduation times and locations

JENS DEJU
 DAILY EGYPTIAN

Graduation time has finally arrived for an estimated 900 SIU students. The winter commencement ceremony takes place on Saturday Dec. 16 at the SIU Arena.

The ceremony will be split into a morning and an afternoon session. The morning session begins at 9:30 and features students in liberal arts, mass communication and media arts, science, and the graduate and law schools.

The afternoon session begins at 1:30 and is for students in agriculture, applied sciences and arts, business and administration, education and engineering. Seating for friends and families of the graduates will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Interim Chancellor John Jackson will oversee the ceremonies.

An unplanned pregnancy can make you feel like you're out of options. But The Cradle can offer support and assistance on matters of adoption. Talk to women who have been where you are. And have the option of choosing your child's adoptive parents and staying in touch. There is more than one solution. And together, we'll find the right one for you.

EVERY TEST SHOULD BE MULTIPLE CHOICE.
