We want every moment at SIUC to be memorable, but sometimes we forget. Occasionally, it's because of an over-indulgence in weekend activities. Regardless, time here just goes by too fast.

As we stroll up to the stage and grasp that fancy, empty envelope (the real one comes in the mail after the parking tickets are paid), our college life will flash before our eyes. Well, at least the parts that we can remember.

We'll never forget the time we fell in love. Our would-be sweetheart wowed us with a smooth look. Or were they beckoning a more attractive person we couldn't see? Our hearts have been broken, mended and broken again. Here, there was always someone who would understand.

We'll everlastingly remember our friends. Friends in college are people who have acquired the same drinking habits, taste in movies or video games. Our lives wouldn't have been the same without them. When times got rough, they would lend a hand, and if need be, carry us home at night. We spent nights awake together cramming for tests and writing papers.

Our families provided some of us with the income we needed. For others, they did it alone, and for that we applaud their strength and willingness to succeed. But even if the parents didn't support us with financial assistance, most did with the loving support that was needed most.
