Children toss leaves after school Oct. 22 at a playground in Ullin. Deanna Smith, 12, second from right, and her mother Frances, from Anna, came to Ullin to help babysit for their friend. Deanna said the fall weather has allowed for going outside more often, and the kids enjoy playing in the leaves. "Being outside keeps them out of my hair more," Smith said. "I hope it stays warm all winter."

Chris Young, of St. Jacob, hangs a giant stuffed dog up as a prize at the toilet toss stand Sept. 7 during the Popeye Picnic in Chester. Young said he has been working for Premier Works Inc. for four years while attending the University of Missouri.

Freshman pole vaulter Kemar Jones focuses on his swing up Oct. 3 during practice at Low Hertzog Track & Field Complex. Coach Brian Porter said off-season practices are geared toward establishing a base for each vaulter to build upon leading up to the season. "This is putting it together right now. Then they'll adapt to a longer run," he said. "This is setting up their base for the season and getting them ready for what's going to happen when we get started in January."

LAURA ROBERTS | DAILY EGYPTIAN

Fourth grader D.J. Tillman receives help from Truth Marsh, a third grader, as the two try to identify the faces of presidents on currency while Fadhillah Tollman watches. The game was part of the Boys and Girls Club of Carbondale's Election Day activities, which included a mock election, snacks and various games. Club members ages 6-18 elected Barack Obama as president in a 45-2 landslide.

Partygoers flee after police use Mace to break up a fight by West Walnut and South James Streets around 2 a.m. on Aug. 5. A violent altercation erupted between two females as they left the party, and police used Mace to control the crowd when a group gathered around it.

Naimah Fobbs, a sophomore from Chicago studying physical therapy, rehearses Oct. 31 with the Southern Illinois Dance Company at Furr Auditorium in Pulliam Hall. "I've been dancing since I was 3 and have loved it ever since," Fobbs said. Chelsea Lenon, choreographer for one of the upcoming dance's performances, said she decided to name this piece "Red Velvet." Kevin Britton, 9, of Villa Ridge, tosses American flags into a fire during a flag retirement ceremony at American Legion Post 178 in Villa Ridge. Ronald Roberts, 25th district commander for the Illinois American Legion, said one of the only ways to properly retire a flag is to burn it and bury its ashes. "The flag is one of the main symbols of the United States military," he said. "Burying the ashes returns the flag to the earth with respect."

Freshman tight end MyCole Pruitt runs the ball downfield Sept. 15 during the first home game at Saluki Stadium. Coach Dale Lennon said during his post-game press conference that this is the offense they were waiting to put on display. "We want to feel that the hard work and preparation is going to show," he said.

SIU head football coach Dale Lennon and team members celebrate by singing "Go Southern Go" in front of the home crowd after the Salukis defeated the University of Northern Iowa in their Oct. 13 Homecoming game. The Salukis, who were 3-3 going into the match, came up with several big plays to keep pace with their conference rivals. SIU was tied at 31 with the Panthers with less than a minute to play when freshman kicker Austin Johnson nailed a 24-yard field goal to give SIU a 34-31 edge. The Saluki defense took over and kept pressure on UNI quarterback Brett Kollmorgen, sacking him twice in UNI's last possession of the game.
