Admitted Pushers Of Bus Face County Court Today

Three Southern Students Have Hearing; Fourth In Army

The three SIU students who admitted pushing the SIU bus onto the Harwood ave. railroad tracks Nov. 16 will face a Jackson County Court hearing today. A fourth member, Leonard Bruce Jossander, is in the army. Jossander, who suddenly dropped out of school Nov. 17, shortly after the VTI bus was pushed onto the tracks and demolished by an Illinois Central train, confessed to an FBI agent at Fitzsimmons General Hospital in Aurora, Colo., where he was sentenced in the Army.

In Jossander's confession, he told of three students involved but did not give their names. Fred Graper, Carbondale agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, then completed the case upon receipt of the confession by nabbing Larry Lynn Coats, James Edward Foley and John C. Mouzakiotis, all of Dowdell Hall.

Graper Has Secret

When asked how he discovered the other three, Graper said, "Let's just keep that our little secret."

Graper received word this week that Jossander had confessed, and the three students were taken to Murphreeboro Friday to William Ridgeway, state attorney. A warrant was issued, charging the four with driving without the owner's consent, malicious mischief and tampering with a motor vehicle.

Jossander had not been taken into custody at St. Louis Sunday. The three students were freed on bond.

Jossander, 22-year-old Oakland native, was last seen on the night of Nov. 17, and one week later, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch reported that he had re-enlisted in the Army.

Davis Suggests Folly

I. Clark Davis, dean of men, asked Graper to maintain a constant check on Jossander, and Graper contacted the St. Louis FBI agent, who traced Jossander to the hospital in Colorado, and the agent in that area was contacted.

All three students have been suspended from class until the trial.

According to Jossander's testimony, the four were walking down Washington ave. from Carbondale, when they just saw the buses and decided to push them.

One steered the bus, and the other three pushed.

The three students had conflicting stories concerning the ultimate destiny of the hapless bus. One said they planned to push it in front of Dowdell, another said they were going to put it in a parking lot; and the other said he "didn't know what they were going to do with it."

Jossander, according to Joseph E. Zaleski, assistant director of housing, said he was not involved.

Fingerprints were found on the bus.

Several witnesses at the scene said an Impala arrived shortly after the bus was hit, and a person asked "whether the fella's who pushed the bus had been caught yet or not."

At the time, the statements "out of place," said Zaleski, who said the bus had not rolled onto the tracks.

Zaleski, who received much praise from Leffler "for his untiring and splendid work on the case," said the thrust made by the Egyptian and Director of Housing William Rogge were not made by the students.

Threats Made

A note was sent to an Egyptian reporter and Rogge received a call telling them to "lay off the bus investigation."

Leffler, who was hired by the University of the first year, said credit goes to Dean Davis, Zaleski, Graper, Rogge and Illinois Central special agent Clyde Webb for closing the case.

Fine Arts Ball Set Saturday; Ends Festival

The first annual Fine Arts Ball will be held Saturday night in Lantz Hall at Thompson Point. The dance, which is open to both faculty and students, will end the Fine Arts Festival for this year.

"Several people have asked me about the correct dress for the Ball," Jerry Kinsman, chairman, commented. "Except for the masks which we hope everyone will wear, we recommend a semi-formal attire which is worn at most of the other college dances."

Masks may be sold at the dance to those who are not able to purchase them before coming to the dance, but plans are indefinite.

Prizes will be given to the woman, man and couple whose mask is judged the best. Masks will be judged on being the most interesting and most original.

To follow through with the theme of the two-month long Fine Arts Festival, the three adjoining rooms in the dining area of Lantz Hall will be decorated as portrayals of Rome, Venice and Florence.

The music for the evening will

Players Give Summer Stock At Southern

SIU's Southern Players Will Perform This Summer

SIU's Southern Players will perform their summer stock programs on campus this summer. During the past two years the Players have given their six summer shows at K1150, Hollander Theater, New Salem State Park, Branson, Mo., was the site of the shows in 1955 and 1956.

Two 10-ton air-conditioning units are scheduled to be installed in the Southern Playhouse by June 15, according to Dr. Sherman Abrams, assistant professor of the theater.

Dr. Abrams said the recent institution of a graduate program in the theater department and the demands of an increasingly popular summertime musical production clinched the decision to stay at home. The musical production is given in cooperation with the music department.

"This fall, during the performance of 'Major Barbara,' we took a poll," said Abrams, who is co-producer of the Players' year-long drama series. "Eighty per cent of the people said they would buy season tickets which would include summer shows."

"However, this doesn't mean that we've abandoned thought of returning to New Salem State Park in the future. In time we hope to expand summer theater activity both in Carbondale and at Peabody; perhaps even next year."

The eight-week summer season will provide time for a four-play bill, Abrams indicated. The plays have not yet been announced.

Three Confess Stealing Seat From SIU-Auto

Three Carbondale boys have confessed stealing a pair of $50 binoculars and both seats from a car owned by Charles Cluser.

Security Officer Tom Leffler said Sgt. Carl Kirk, a member of the Campus Police, was instrumental in rounding up the violators last week.

The three boys threw the seats and binoculars into Crab Orchard Creek when they discovered they had been detected. Leffler said full restitution would be paid by the violators.

Leffler said a "ring" of boys has been picked up for stealing, and about 40 Carbondale youths are involved. He said they have been in operation for over a year.

No SIU students have been involved thus far.

LUNCHEON PROGRAM FEATURES WIEMAN

Dr. Henry Wieman, of the philosophy department, will be the discussion leader for the Student Christian Foundation's faculty luncheon today.

What are the counseling and testing services offered by SIU? Where does one go to take advantage of them? What do they do? How do they help the students?

It is hoped that everyone on campus has ready answers to these questions however, it is understandable in a University of this size that there might be some who are still relatively unacquainted with the various counseling services offered by SIU.

Every student can look back to the beginning of his college career and recall the tests he took. The results of these tests, administered by the Student Counseling and Testing Center, were used by the students' academic advisers as an indication of the individual's background and how well he might be expected to perform in college.

With the aid of these test results students were enrolled in subjects which would best lead to their further advancement and proper adjustment in college.

Will be played by Bill Stroder and the Delta City Five.

Student Goes In Triangles, Schedule Shows

Bert Pike, a SIU senior, is going around in triangles.

Pike, majoring in radio and TV, averages about 500 miles per week in his '52 Packard, crisscrossing between Carbondale, Du Quoin and Christopher to pursue a college education while holding down a full-time job with a radio station.

Christopher, Pike's home town, lies approximately 15 miles east of Du Quoin where he works at WQQN. Carbondale is 17 miles south of Du Quoin.

An ordinary day for Pike goes something like this:

He rises about 4:30 a. m., does a stint for the radio between six and eight, buzzes down to Carbondale, for a nine o'clock class, returns to Du Quoin by 11 to write radio copy and broadcast the noon news, and presides over the control board for four hours in the afternoon.

He then journeys back to SIU for a seven o'clock class, goes back to the studio to check and work on equipment, and return to his home in Christopher by 10. In between times he manages to eat, study, and date a young lady from Christopher.

Pike, who puts in about 50 hours a week at the radio station, insists his schedule is comparatively easy at present.

"Last term I was driving about 600 miles a week," he said. "I was making two trips to the university every weekday and once on Sunday."

An ex-salt fisher and the Aina Falls, Pike re-enters SIU in the fall of '58 following a two year period in which he applied most of his time to the radio station.

He had attended the university two years previously in '56.

Physics Offers Atomic, Nuclear Survey Course

Physics 402, a survey course in atomic and nuclear physics has been added to the physics curriculum this month. Five days a week the eleven students hear lectures over Channel 5 (St. Louis) or Channel 6 (Paducah) on Contemporary Physics.

Every other Saturday class is held on campus to discuss the program, answer questions, supplement demonstrations and quizzes, said Dr. Richard E. Watson, instructor for the course.

The eleven students are drawn from the surrounding area. One of the students is an instructor at VTI. A graduate student at Cape Girardeau State Teachers College, enrolled at SIU to get graduate credit. Last semester he took the first part of the course at Cape Girardeau which did not offer it as a graduate course. All other students enrolled for the course at SIU are teachers.

The course runs from February 11 to June 5, and SIU gives five quarter hours credits. Problems are assigned daily and are mailed to Dr. Watson each week.

TV lecturer Dr. Harvey E. White has had 30 years experience in physics. Presently he is on leave from the University of California at Berkeley where he is vice chairman of the physics department.

Another item in the display is a Sioux woman's bone necklace. The necklace was worn by the Sioux princess for special celebration ceremonies. It is made of skin bone of deer. The bones have been polished down to wearable size.

Other items include a small woven yarn bag containing a large grizzly bear claw and a small round wooden bowl. The display also includes a Crow medicine charm, a Yank Hat and skin bag, a Yank Hat made from leg bone of deer, war clubs and a Sioux war shield box.

On Convo Sleeping Folkerts Denies Statement

Sen. George Folkerts said he did not say it is all right to sleep in Freshman Convocations, but "simply that it is not against University regulations."

Sen. Folkerts said, in Thursday's Council meeting, that Freshmen's presence was not required at convocations, and little more should be asked.

Folkerts said Thursday that he had been speaking at the senator for Temporary Men's Housing and not particularly for Dowdell Hall, as he had indicated in a Feb. 12 meeting.

He said "Statements which I make as a representative are not necessarily my own personal opinion."

Folkerts said that many students, and some faculty, have spoken to him about the problem. "Most feel that forced attendance at Freshman Convocations without proper motivation on the part of the students contributes to an unhealthy situation."

The convocations committee, according to Marsha Van Cleave, is trying to obtain a better balance of talent and variety in Freshmen Convocations. "And," she said, "not so many lectures."

The visiting Student Body President from Southeastern Missouri State College, Mary Anderson, was asked about the student newspaper there.

She said the Student Council and the student newspaper sometimes have disagreements.

SCF Starts Fund Drive For Building

A fund-raising campaign for a $150,000 Student Christian Foundation Building at SIU will open next week.

The new structure will provide facilities for worship, recreation and religious study for Protestant students attending the University, according to Willis G. Swartz, dean of the SIU Graduate School and campaign director.

The building will be erected at the corner of Illinois and Grand avenues, across the street from the University's new Home Economics Building.

According to an analysis by the late Dr. Frederic H. Douglas, the picture story shows one wife milking the other to steal horses. Dr. Douglas, who was on the Denver Art Museum staff, felt that the Northwest tribe (probably Blackfoot) was the raider. He also thought that the Central Plains tribe was Cheyenne group.

"The painting is in the style of about 1870," according to Dr. Douglas's report. "The realistic 'driving of the horses' foot is the best clue to dating."

Another item in the display is a Sioux woman's bone necklace. The necklace was worn by the Sioux princess for special celebration ceremonies. It is made of skin bone of deer. The bones have been polished down to wearable size.

Other items include a small woven yarn bag containing a large grizzly bear claw and a small round wooden bowl. The display also includes a Crow medicine charm, a Yank Hat and skin bag, a Yank Hat made from leg bone of deer, war clubs and a Sioux war shield box.

Col. MacMillan Retires, Today; Rogers Visits

A formal change of command ceremony marking the retirement of Col. Alexander R. MacMillan, commanding officer of the SIU Branch of AFROTC, was scheduled for today at 10 a. m.

A special guest for the ceremony was Maj. Gen. Thomas L. Rogers, commander of the nation's 179 Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps programs. Gen. Rogers arrived on campus yesterday.

According to a spokesman from the AFROTC department, "A visit by the commander is rare. It may be interpreted not only as a tribute to Col. MacMillan, but also as recognition of the enviable record of the SIU unit."

The members of the SIU wing were scheduled to march in review at the drill field.

Placement Sets Job Interviews

The Placement Service offers prospective graduates a full week of interviews to finish the month of February, the busiest of the year for interviews.

Today, L. R. Murphy, superintendent, Miss Prospective, will hold interviews for teaching positions in kindergarten through the eighth grade.

Harold Kaiser, superintendent of Granite City Schools, will interview seniors for elementary, junior high and high school teaching positions. High school teachers must have an M. A. degree.

Robert C. Hutton, Ross Laboratories, Clayton, Mo., will hold interviews with seniors for sale positions.

W. E. Camell, General Insurance Co. of America, St. Louis, will interview prospective graduates for actuarial, claims, sales, and administrative positions.

Wednesday Joseph E. Maloney, Rike Kummel Co., Dayton, Ohio, will interview executive trainees for department store buyship positions.

Floyd Fisher, Shell Oil Co., St. Louis, will hold interviews for sales and accounting positions.

Eldon Steiner, Illinois Farm Supply Co., Chicago, will interview senior management trainees, business administration, agriculture and L & S majors.

Thursday: Leiner will again hold interviews with seniors in the fields mentioned above.

A. Gordon Dobbs, superintendent of Edwardsville schools, will hold interviews for E. M. H. and art in elementary school, science, mathematics, language arts, social studies and boys' physical education in junior high school, and mathematics, physical and English in high school.

G. V. Blythe, superintendent of Vandallia schools, will interview seniors for first grade, high school English and dramatics teaching positions.

Donald R. Jones, Professional Insurance Co. of America, Chicago, will have interviews for claims, underwriting, method, and accounting positions.

Friday, Harriet Bick, St. Louis city schools, will hold interviews for elementary, special education, and secondary teaching positions. Secondary teaching positions require an M. A. degree.

Eugene Redemick, assistant superintendent, Cahokia schools, St. Louis, will interview seniors for primary, E. M. H., and junior high home economics teaching positions.

Mrs. Mildred Ingon of Danville city schools, will interview prospective teachers for elementary and kindergarten.

Senators Ask For 5 Minutes

The Student Council Thursday night passed a resolution calling for students to limit phone calls to five minutes except in an emergency.

Senator John Crowell pointed out that it is often difficult, or impossible for a faculty or staff member to reach a student at a centrally located phone, though the matter may be urgent.

Organized house phones are "very heavily used," often in disregard of recommendations by the Office of Student Affairs and there is no promise of additional phone service in the immediate future, Crowell said.

A student committee is currently investigating existing conditions and future plans for telephone service at Southern Acres, Thompson Point and Illinois Avenue Residence Halls.

Another problem of campus communication—informing the students on campus activities—drew a number of suggestions.

When Sandra Lutz said she has become particularly aware of the problem in the off-campus unorganized houses, where adequate communication is lacking.

The Council said many times students may be unaware of the "wealth of activity provided by the Office of Student Affairs and the University on weekends."

The possibility of making more use of local radio stations was discussed and "will be investigated." Also, it was suggested that a tape recording of the weekend's activities be made and placed in students' who call.

The latter suggestion was received with enthusiasm by the Council and possibilities were set for investigation.

Senators said students should check the school library boards for coming events. A printed calendar of the weekend events is now available by Thursday afternoons at the Union or the Office of Student Affairs.

The matter of library hours was up, especially the late hours of students who work or are otherwise unable to make use of the library except on weekends.

A resolution was passed that the library consider extending hours and examine the possibility of staying open on Saturday nights.

Advisement was again discussed and problems of increasing departmental representation and making students' advisement more effective were discussed.

Although no decision was reached, a resolution was passed to express the Council's "concern."

In other action:

During across town was discussed and several other reasons for the "problem" lay in the rush to get from one class to the next in the 10 minute period.

A resolution was passed in that faculty will be reminded that students need all of the 10-minute periods between classes and should be dismissed from classes promptly.

Senator Rafiq Chowdhury, speaking for the International Relations Club, requested that part of the expense for delegates to the IROC regional conference in Indiana be supplied by the Student Council.

Funds were denied on the basis of a policy established last fall that expense funds not be provided to any except an all-campus group.

Members and advisors of Southeastern Missouri State College Student-Council were the special guests at the meeting.

Members of the visiting council sat in on the meeting, and participated in the meeting of the Judicial Council.

The visiting group presented a message to Bernadine Hamilton, according secretary.

The Editors' Opinions

Too Fast Expansion?

Criticism of "too fast expansion" has been aimed at Southern in recent years. Biased and trumped-up articles have cried that quality is being sacrificed for quantity.

Each criticism is based on nothing but falsehoods. When the educational program at SIU is examined objectively this comes out.

It is to be expected that criticism would come. When rapid progress is being made by any organization those in the same field cry out.

But the real point—carefully avoided by the detractors—is the story behind Southern's rapid expansion. What caused it?

The simple fact is that more and more people are reaching college age. The rapid expansion can be traced to one thing—the birth rate.

Admittedly, growth must eventually reach a point where further expansion is undesirable. President Morris places this figure at 18,000. It is in this framework—planning to meet future educational needs—that the center at Edwardsville was conceived.

Southern has expanded to meet the educational needs demanded by the people. But standards have not been lowered in doing so.

Letter-To-Editor

Would Like Classified Ads

I would like to compliment you and your staff on what I think is a fine newspaper. The basic objective of the paper appears to me to be a source of information about Southern, past, present and future. The editorials are almost always directed at bettering some function of the University, student and administrative alike, and I have not seen anything derogatory written in the short time I've been here. This is my third college, and the Egyptian appears to be the most objective and competent student paper I have been in contact with.

While fully realizing that I am not a journalist, I do wish to suggest something which has always wanted to, but never have, seen in a student newspaper.

DUCKS PURCHASED FOR LITTLE GRASSY KIDS
Three amphibious ducks were purchased last December by SIU for use by cerebral palsy children at Little Grassy Lake Camp.

Each truck runs on land and water and is valued at $10,129 but they were sold to Southern as army surplus for $200 each plus shipping charges. They measure 31 feet long, 8 feet 10 inches high and 8 feet 2 inches wide.

All the trucks are relatively new, having less than 1,000 miles registered on their meters. Every duck has four-wheel drive and can carry about 15 children. The tires can be inflated and deflated while riding. This is a feature because it is necessary to deflate the tires for water riding. A gauge which tells how much air pressure is in the tires when

It would be worthwhile to institute a classified ad section in the Egyptian? I'm sure that almost every student, at sometime during his college career has wanted to sell, buy, retrieve, or return something.

Students occasionally want to sell anything from popcorn poppers to typewriters, bicycles to raincoats, their only problem being that of contacting the right person. In fact, I for one would be very willing to pay the going rate which the local paper charges in order to buy or sell something now and then.

Editor's Note: Classified ads were tried in the Egyptian but dropped due to lack of response. However, you may buy a small ad for the things you mentioned.

The spring quarter will begin Monday, March 30, for students who have Monday night classes.

MUSIC GROUPS

The SIU Choir, Madrigal Singers, and members of the Opera Workshop company will tour Southern Illinois and the Chicago area during March and April.

Director Robert Hines said the tour, first for the choir in four trips, will be made in two trips, covering eight downstate communities March 2, 5 and 11, and the Chicago vicinity during the week of April 20. The junket is being arranged by the SIU Alumni Service.

refilling for land usage is also an added feature.

Side Glances at STU ★
By RICHARD DABBY

The Student Council has decided to remind the faculty (by way of resolution, yes) that students need all of the 10-minute period between classes.

Southern's senators add that classes should be dismissed on time. This is a light treatment problem that burdens many of us.

The resolution so much as says, if it is convenient, try to let us out on time. It is more than a try-to situation.

Quoting from the good book, the Southern Bulletin:

"Each day-time class period during the academic year is fifty minutes in length beginning on the hour. Ten minutes are allowed between periods."

When I pointed out the problem of overtime classes in my Jan. 27 column, results were varied.

One instructor said, "I'll meet with my class as long as I want to!"

This exclamatory statement is not only hardly becoming of a professor, it is presumptuous for as authority is concerned.

One kind prof dismissed class, I am told, at the proper time only once this year.

However, I have had several reports that classes are beginning to end when they should. But the Die-hard still make it tough for many students.

A senior student reports that he has a class in Main at 11:55. THREE MINUTES LATER his 12 o'clock begins in the ag building.

For a "full" ten minutes between classes, sessions must not only end at 10, they must not begin before "on the hour."

Even with a "full" 10 minutes between classes, Southern has become a proving ground for the survival - of - the - fittest theories. The strong find it difficult to walk from Main to TP in 10 minutes; the weak can only pray for understanding.

The ting-a-ling at 10 til is not an ice cream truck; nor is it signal for the prof to add three or four "one last things". Truly, it is a time for the omegapoint of the rule.

As it has been pointed out in the past, night-class students have their problems too. But to quote again from the book:

"Classes during the evening ordinarily run longer than fifty minutes because they meet

POVERTY CAN BE FUN

It is no disgrace to be poor. It is an error, but it is no disgrace. So if your purse is empty, do not sit at a desk and brood and hide your head in shame. Stand tall. Admit your poverty. Admit it freely and frankly and all kinds of good things will happen to you. Take, for instance, the case of Blossom Signposts.

Blossom, an impetuous freshman at an Eastern girls' college, was smart as a whip and round as a dumpling, and scarcely a day went by when she didn't get invited to a party weekend at one of the nearby men's schools. But Blossom never accepted. She did not have the fall fare; she did not have the clothes. Weekend after weekend, while her classmates went frolicking, Blossom sat alone, saved from utter despair only by her pack of Marlboro's, for even an eschequer as slim as Blossom's can afford the joys of Marlboro—joy far beyond their paltry price: rich, mellow tobacco, lovingly cured and carefully packed; a new improved filter that works like a charm. Cresson himself could not buy a better cigarette!

However, Marlboro's most passionate admirers—among war veterans, I am paid to count myself—would not claim that Marlboro can entirely replace love and romance, and Blossom grew steadily morose.

Then one day came a phone call from an intelligent sophomore named Tom O'Shanter at a nearby men's college. "Blossom," said Tom, "I want you to come down next week for the barby festival, and I won't take no for an answer."

"No," said Blossom.

"Foolish girl," said Tom gently. "I know why you refuse me. It is because you are poor, isn't it?"

"Yes," said Blossom.

"I will send you a railroad ticket," said Tom. "Also a small salam in case you get hungry on the train."

"But I have nothing to wear," said Blossom.

"Tom replied, 'I will send you one suit of cashmere, two gowns of lace, three pairs of velvet, four shoes of calf, five socks of nylon, and a partridge in a pear tree.'"

"That is most kind," said Blossom. "But I fear I cannot dance and enjoy myself while back home my poor lame brother Tiny Tim lies dead."

"Send him to Mayo Brothers and put it on my tab," said Tom.

"You are terribly decent," said Blossom, "but I cannot come to your party because all the other girls at the party will be from rich, distinguished families, and my father is but a humble woodcutter."

"I will buy him Yosemite," said Tom.

"You have a great heart," said Blossom. "Hold the phone while I ask our wise and kindly old Dean of Women whether it is proper for me to accept all these gifts."

She went forthwith and asked the Dean of Women, and the Dean of Women laid her wise and kindly old hand on Blossom's cheek and said, "Child, let not false pride rob you of happiness. Accept these gifts from Tom."

"Lord love you, Wise and Kindly," breathed Blossom, dropping grateful tears into the Dean's reticule. "I must run and tell Tom."

"Yes, run, child," said the Dean, a smile wrinkling her wise and kindly old eyes. "And ask him he has got an older brother."

Cagers Brush Michigan Squads Aside, Keep Hope Alive In IIAC Title Race

By Ron Jacoby
Sports Editor

Paced by the brilliant ball-handling of Dick Ruggles and a well balanced scoring attack, Harry Gallatin's cager pounded the two Michigan representatives in the IIAC last weekend, 106-53 and 94-67.

The victories however, failed to help the Salukis sneak back into a first place tie in the IIAC as Illinois Normal whipped Western, who lost to Northern Thursday night, 94-85, to maintain the league lead with an 8-2 mark. SIU and Western are now 8-3.

In Friday's ragged tilt, the Salukis didn't impress much of anyone, but they still managed to score over 100 points for the fourth straight home game.

The Salukis jumped off to a 19-6 lead despite the fact that they were very cold. The dogs extended the margin to 41-26 at halftime, despite hitting a cool .304 from the field.

Hitting and passing with more precision, SIU popped in 45 points in the first 14 minutes of the second half to take an 86-36 lead. With Bryson, Vaughn, Hepler, Ruggles and Gualdoni on the bench, the Southern reserves kept pounding away at the hapless Hurons.

Harold Bado finally hit the free throw that gave Southern the 100 points against a minute and a half left. Gallatin used 13 men and all of them broke into the scoring column.

Charlie Vaughn, hitting 8 for 14 the second half, ripped the cords for 27 markers. Frank Manley led the Hurons with 15 points. Eastern hit a miserable .233 from the field.

Saturday night, the Salukis celebrated "Jim Gualdoni Night" by defeating a more respectable Central Michigan squad, 94-67.

Gualdoni, a former Herrin prep star, was honored by a group of Herrin fans. Jim has been very outstanding at SIU this season, his first, and promises to be one of the finest guards ever to wear the Maroon and White.

Seymour Bryson and Charlie Vaughn again led the Salukis offensively. Seymour tallied 21 for the game, 15 coming in the first half, and Vaughn chalked up 19. Southern had three others in double figures. Ruggles, again moving the ball with uncanny poise, marked the books for 12 points while Gualdoni and Hepler each had 11.

Cold In Early Part

Southern, following true to form, was cold from the field early in the game. Gualdoni popped in two jumpers from the key to lead the Salukis to a 10-6.

Midway in the first half, SIU shot to a 22-12. At intermission Gallatin's warriors led by a 46-36 count behind the passing of Ruggles and the shooting of captain Seymour Bryson. Gary Lee, 5-8 Chippewa guard, kept the Michigan squad in the game in the first half, hitting for 14 points.

Coming out in their usual second-half spirit, the Salukis moved to a 72-52 margin midway in the final half.

Southern finished the game with a 444 field goal percentage, hitting 34 for 79. The Chips collected a .324 mark.

Last night the Salukis traveled to Bloomington for a session with Illinois Wesleyan's hapless Titans.

Southern Accepts NCAA Tourney Bid

Southern Illinois University has accepted a bid to the NCAA College Division postseason regional tournament at Evansville, Ind.

Other probable entries at the Mar. 6-7 Mid-East Regional Playoffs are Evansville College, Belmont Abbey of Belmont, North Carolina, and the University of Akron, of the Ohio Athletic Conference.

It will mark the first appearance of the Salukis at the NCAA tourney. Southern previously attended the NAIA playoffs four times, winning the national title in 1946.

The bid was issued by the National Collegiate executive offices in Kansas City through Harvey C. Chrouser, Wheaton College athletic director and chairman of the NCAA College Division basketball committee. Southern athletic director, Dr. Donald N. Boydston, accepted the invitation.

Winners of the Mid-East playoff will meet the winners of the Northeast Regional held at Waltham, Mass., in the national finals Mar. 11-13, also at Evansville.

The University of South Dakota was the 1959 winner, with St. Michael's of Vermont runner-up and Evansville third.

The Salukis, leading scorers in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and fourth-ranked scorers among the nation's small colleges by the NCAA, have compiled a 13-8 record so far this season.

Playing for the first time under Harry Gallatin, former "Iron Horse" of professional basketball, Southern has scored 1,823 points for an 87.0 average per game.

Leading SIU's new fast-break, pro-style offense is Charlie Vaughn, high scoring freshman forward from Tamm, Vaughn, first player to score over 500 points in one season at SIU, is maintaining a 24.0 average for 21 games with 504 points. The Salukis have four games remaining on the schedule.

Rounding out Gallatin's six, all 100-plus, are Captain Seymour Bryson, senior center from Quincy, 415; Dick Ruggles, Quincy, Mass., 133; Jim Gualdoni, Herrin, 145; Don Hepler, Champaign, 116, and Tom McGrail, Rantoul, 110.

Salukis Win Wheaton Title For 4th Time; Northern Illinois Is Next

Continuing to dominate college wrestling in the Midwest, the Salukis grabbed won the Wheaton Invitational tournament for the fourth straight year last Saturday.

Jim Wilkinson's Salukis, paced by captain Lee Grubbs who won his fourth straight championship at the Wheaton tournament, scored 94 points. Northern Illinois was second with 82, Normal had 83, Bradley 27, Eastern Illinois 23, Notre Dame 23, Wheaton 23, Central Michigan 14, Augustana 8, Western Illinois 2.

Grubbs, who has compiled over 80 wins in his college career against only four defeats, won the 130 pound title in his freshman year. He then moved up every year. His sophomore year he captured the 137 pound crown. Last year he won the 147 pound crown and this year he wrestled in the 157 pound class.

Other titles were won by Dick Frankenberger, Jack Crider and Marion Rushing.

Saturday the Salukis put their 21 straight dual meet win streak on the line against Northern Illinois. The Huskies are defending IIAC conference champs.

The results:

115 — Tessler, Southern by Ray Caruse, Southern 1-0 in overtime.

123 — Jim Bledsoe won third place.

130 — Semeris, Eastern, beat Rich Irvin, SIU, 9-6.

137 — Dick Frankenberger, SIU, beat Hootonin, Bradley, 15-4, for first place.

147 — Crider SIU beat Gruch, Northern, 16-9, for first place.

157 — Grubbs beat Guck, Northern, 1-0 in overtime.

167 — Conrad, Northern beat Herman Ayers, SIU, 3-0.

177 — Ken Pontickes, SIU, third.

191 — Marion Rushing, SIU, beat Browning, Eastern, 2-0, for first place.

HW — Houston Antwine, SIU fourth.

Felt's Sneaks Into First Spot In Cage Loop

By Charles Bundy

While intramural cage action was going strong last week, a "dark horse" quietly scampered to the foreground in Men's Residence League No. 1.

When play started last week, Felt's Hall 3rd Floor was stationed in third place. With a 3-1 record, the team was seemingly out of reach of front-running Dowdell 3 and Brown Warriors, with 6-0 and 7-1 records.

Wini Two

Felt's then commenced to take charge and re-shape the standings by its own power. Following up a Tuesday night win over previously undefeated Dowdell 3, Felt's came through with a 58-50 decision over Brown Warriors Thursday night. In the meantime, Dowdell 3 lost to Bailey Hall 2nd Floor, 45-40, Wednesday night.

If Felt's can cap the remainder of games on its schedule, it will conclude this Hoar's Alger story by taking the title in division No. 1 and going into the tournament playoffs. Felt's now leads the league with a 5-1 mark, followed by Brown Warriors, 7-2, and Dowdell 3, 6-2.

In other games Thursday night, Delta Chi topped Tau Kappa Epsilon, 57-47; Egyptians downed Phi Play Boys, 44-32.

Four Fartlets

Four other games scheduled for Thursday night ended in forfeits as part of the teams failed to show up at game-time. In those contests, Phi Sigma Kappa forfeited to Alpha Phi Alpha, Phi Kappa Tau forfeited to Sigma Pi, Theta Xi forfeited to Sigma Tau Gamma, and Big Boppers forfeited to Foot Boys.

The lead was altered in two leagues as a result of Wednesday night games. Felt's Phasors, previously tied with Pierce Hall 3rd Floor for the top spot in Men's Residence League No. 2, was lowered to second place as a result of a 61-47 loss to Illinois Avenue. Blue Racers moved into the lead in the same league by beating Vikings 91-38.

Tom Truitt scored 20 points, and Phil Farr connected with 15 to help Illinois Avenue cut down Felt's Phasors. Cal Meier scored 19 points for Phasors.

Racers Struck In

Five men on the Blue Racers squad got into double figures as the Racers rolled over Vikings: Glen Buske, 18 points, Darrell White, 14, Leroy Luketich, 13, Merle Walker, 12, and Gary Lane, 10, compiled 67 of the 91 Racer markers. Ron Lee, 15 points, and Harry Gurley, 11, led the scoring for the Vikings.

Also Wednesday night, Bailey Bombers beat Felt's Hall 2nd Floor, 64-46; 29ers forfeited to Sleepy Hollow, Bailey Hall 2nd Floor, downed Dowdell 3, 45-40; Buffo's defeated Little Italy, 72-60; Horny Fory edged The Bones, 50-47; and Brown Tigers forfeited to Roots.

Split Two Meets Gymnasts Embarrass Eastern, Find Illini A Little Tough

The Salukis gymnasts easily tumbled themselves to their seventh straight victory last Friday over Eastern Illinois, but then found the undefeated University of Illinois a little too tough to handle Saturday.

Coach Bill Meade, in an effort to rest his top stars for Saturday's meet with the Illini, didn't use any of his top men against hapless Eastern Illinois. High Blaney and John Ostaslo used the Salukis who again took every first, with two firsts each.

The final count of 77-46 gave the Salukis a 9-3 mark and pushed Eastern's embarrassing record to 0-6.

Saturday, the Salukis who came within five points a month ago, meet with much stiffer competition as Don Tony and A B C Crossfield both hit better than they did against the Salukis at Carbondale.

Leonard Kalikian won the tumbling and trampoline and Fred Tijerina won the P-bar as SIU collected three firsts in the seven events.

The great Illini twosome of Tony and Crossfield, both past NCAA All-around champs, paced the Illini with four firsts and three seconds. Crossfield won the free ex and still thing events while Tony won the side horse and high bar. Between them they collected 43 points. In the previous meeting with Southern they collected 33.4 points.

Other than Kalikian and Tijerina, Jake Wiley was the only Saluki that performed real well. Jack took second in tumbling and third in free exercise. Bob Kees and John Taylor took thirds in side horse and high bar, while Hugh Blaney took the same in tumbling.

The Salukis are now 9-4 in dual meet competition this season. Thursday, Meade's athletes meet Navy Pier in Chicago.

FABULOUS FROSH
Len Kalikian, SIU freshman, relates between workouts for the Salukis' two meets last weekend.

Kalikian, tumbler and trampoline performer from Fresno, Cal., is one of SIU's top scorers this season.

Saluki Gymnast

Kalikian 'One Of The Best'

Len Kalikian, Southern Illinois University freshman gymnast, is earning all-Interstate conference recognition by tumblers and bounds.

The Fresno, Calif., tumbler has rated a nomination for most valuable gymnast in the conference on the strength of outstanding performances in the Salukis' first 13 meets this year.

Competing in three events — trampoline, free exercise and pommel horse — Kalikian has won at least one first in all but the Michigan State meet as he led the Salukis to an 9-4 record.

His peak performance came against Illinois' powerful NCAA champs. He won first in the trampoline and tumbling and finished a close second to the Illini great Don Tony in free exercise.

In his outing against Central Michigan and Illinois Normal, the stubby (5-4, 150-pounds) Kalikian scored first in free exercise and tumbling and second in trampoline to score 16 points and pace Southern to its fifth and sixth wins in a row. Against Illinois Saturday, he won the trampoline and tumbling.

Coach Bill Meade is counting heavily on Kalikian to score points for SIU in the National Collegiate championships Mar. 20-21 in Berkeley, Calif. Kalikian also probably will see action May 6 at the National AAU meet in Chicago.

Kalikian and the salukis will perform at home for the last time Feb. 20 in a dual meet against Eastern Illinois. Southern trounced the Panthers, 101-27, in a Jan. 30 meet in Charleston, S.C. Southern will meet Illinois in Champaign.

At Fresno's Roosevelt High School, Kalikian earned letters in football as a guard and in swimming as a diver.

Speakers Highlight Week's Events

AG CLUB MEETS TUESDAY NIGHT

The SIU Agricultural Club will hold its regular meeting Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in the Agriculture Auditorium. Guest speaker for the meeting will be Dr. Harris, chairman of the geology department. His topic will be "Western Europe." Slides will be used to illustrate the lecture.

SIGMA BETA GAMMA TO HEAR TANGNEY

Ralph Tangney, producer of films for educational television, will be guest speaker at Thursday night's meeting of Sigma Beta Gamma, honorary radio and television fraternity.

Tangney, formerly with educational television stations in Boston and Pittsburgh, is now special projects producer for a company working on St. Louis's KETC educational channel.

Tangney's film series, "Action at Law," is presently being seen on the National Educational Television network. It is the case history of an accident which took place in St. Louis, with emphasis on the legal aspects.

ROCKET SOCIETY MEETS MONDAY

The SIU Rocket Society meets Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Library Lounge. The club is open to anyone interested in any aspect of rocketry.

A panel discussion, entitled "Complexities of Basic Rocket Experimentation," was the principal feature of the meeting. Panel members, who related personal experiences, were William Newlon, Lawrence Berger, Fred Smith, and Lawrence Larson. Herbert Rominger served as chairman.

SOCIOLOGY TO MEET WITH ANTHROPOLOGY

A joint meeting of the SIU Sociology and Anthropology Clubs will be held tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Library Lounge.

Guest speaker for the event will be Dr. Donald Taft, of the SIU sociology department. Taft's subject will be "A Criminologist Looks at War."

FORESTRY CLUB HEARS MINCKLER

"Forestry as a Profession," a speech by Leon S. Minckler, Forest Research Center, will be the main feature of a Forestry Club meeting tonight. The session will be held at 7:30 in Room 181 of the Agriculture Building.

Minckler, who is adjunct professor of Forestry at SIU, will talk about various career opportunities in the field. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

WESLEY FOUNDATION TO PRESENT PLAY

The Terrible Mock, a play on Christian faith and the first, will be presented at the Wesley Foundation this Thursday evening. Presentation will take place at the weekly Forum of Faith program, which begins at 8 o'clock.

Ruby Ballentine, Duane Bodden, and Dale Black, SIU students, make up the cast of the play. Director is Dan Wanders, student officer at the Foundation.

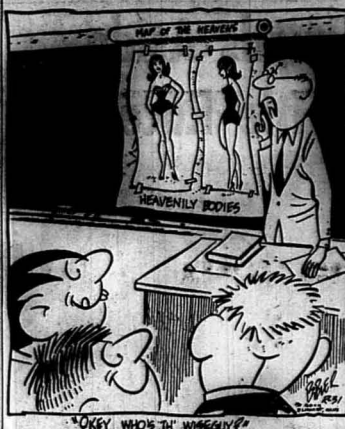

Firesside Meditations and Altar Time, to be held tonight at 9:45 will feature a devotional by John Wood, SIU student.

ADVERTISING CLUB FEATURES SEEP

Robert Seep, assistant director of the SIU Small Business Institute, was the speaker of the evening when the Advertising Club met last Thursday night. The meeting was held in the Seminar Room of the Agriculture Building.

Seep has spent the major portion of his life in advertising, formerly being associated with the research department of the Compton Advertising Agency in Chicago.

The business portion of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of the service project for radio station WCIL, and the formulation of plans for the club's blotter project.

SIGMA PI SIGMA SPONSORS FILM

A 55-minute film on "Research into Controlled Nuclear Fusion" will be shown at 7 p. m. Thursday in the University School Auditorium. The film is sponsored by Sigma Pi Sigma, honorary physics society, and admission is free.

The film is intended for public instruction in nuclear research and will be available for loan to area organizations until March 4. Groups interested in showing the film, made by the Atomic Energy Commission, should contact Dr. O. B. Young.

Students To Visit Grain Exchange

A visit to the Grain Exchange and a talk by J. W. Hogan, Ralston Purina division manager, will be the highlights of an excursion to St. Louis being made today by 15 members of a SIU grain marketing class.

The Grain Exchange visit will give the students a chance "to observe operations," according to Dr. Walter J. Wilks, chairman of agricultural industries, who is accompanying the students.

Hogan, chief of the company's grain marketing division, will talk to the class about problems in the field, Wilks said.

Final examinations will begin March 16.

We have a problem at my dingy bungalow this term. A very little problem, with four feet yet. In short, we are afflicted with mice—all sizes, shapes, and kinds.

They peer out at us from the most unexpected places. They scamper out from the upholstery whenever anyone sits on the couch. They skitter merrily across the living room just as some poor unlucky boyfriend appears in the door. (Actually, we like this arrangement. It's just that the third gentleman who suddenly found himself holding 120 pounds of screaming coed went screaming into the night and never returned.)

As conveniences the four-footed beasts time their appearance just right. Unfortunately, they also have a very well-organized system for inconvenience. They seem to be able to read minds. With such a spy system, it does no good to move your provisions up three shelves in the cabinet or even up to the upper story of your bunk bed. They know where they are, and they gleefully steal anything that isn't nailed down, and some that is.

It seems almost as if these rodents have mastered the secret of inter-cabinet flight, or else they've invented a special elevator. Anyhow, they manage. Maybe they've got something we could sell to the boys down at Cape Canaveral, if we could just get hold of a set of plans. I'm sure Walt Disney would be interested.

In the meantime, several of my housemates have other plans. Two of them are planning, I think, to open a fur coat factory. They have the furs, having trapped twenty-one of the more unfortunate members of Micerville within the last few weeks. All they need now is a supply of thread, some good luck, and a little advertising.

Anybody want to buy a good fur coat? Cheap?

The whole is equal to the sum of its parts

(But some of its parts are more equal than others!)

Even Euclid had to admit...

It's what's up front that counts

Euclid proved that a straight line is the shortest distance between two points. And if you'll walk a straight line to the nearest pack of Winstons, you'll find it the shortest distance to a really enjoyable smoke. It's the tobaccop up front that makes the difference and that's where Winston packs its own exclusive Filter-Blend—a special selection of light, mild tobacco, specially processed for filter smoking. You'll find Filter-Blend gives Winston a flavor without parallel. In fact, it's axiomatic that...
