SIU Greet Alumni With Big Homecoming Schedule

Homecoming weekend, is now here, and great numbers of alumni will crowd the campus tomorrow as they are welcomed by SIU to the big game with the Washington University Bears and the concert and the dance tomorrow night featuring Ralph Matricie.

Festivities started last night when the 1952 Homecoming Queen was crowned and her court and attendants presented. Following the coronation was an informal dance in the men's gym with music furnished by Tommy Lawson and his orchestra.

This evening at 5:45 students will assemble at the Kroger parking lot for a torch light parade to the old football field with the queen, her court, and attendants riding in convertibles. At the old football field a speech will be given by William Caruthers, president of the Alumni Association, followed by the Ephebic Oath for freshmen directed by President Morris. The Most Typical Freshman Boy and Girl will be announced at the event.

Curtain Rises Tonight For Homecoming Play

As the house lights dim, and the curtain goes up tonight at 8, in Shrock auditorium, Southern's annual Homecoming play will get under way. This year's play, "First Lady," was selected by Dr. Archibald Melton, the director, for the reason that it is very timely and appropriate, as the play concerns an election week in Washington.

This year's play is different than other plays used as Homecoming attractions in that it has four leads: Carole Krusen, Phyllis Owen, Darwin Payne, and Dave Anderson have the four leading roles.

ALVERSON, of the four, has the most scenic appearance on Southern's stage. He has had roles in "Stage Door," "Ladies in Retirement," "Born Yesterday," "Under the Gaslights," "Medea," "Indian Captive," a children's play, and "Goodbye My Fancy," last year's Homecoming play.

Carole Krusen, a veteran of four plays, "Under the Gaslights," and "Bleak Spook," was Phyllis Owen, who appeared in last summer's Little Theatre production, "Under the Gaslights," will make her second appearance before the footlight in "First Lady."

Darwin Payne, the other male lead, "in the play," will make his initial debut before Southern students in this play.

"First Lady" was written by Katherine Dayton and Geboge Kaufman.

THE PLAY CONCERNS the conflict that centers on the feud between two Washington hostesses. Irene Hibbard, played by Carole Krusen, is a wife of Supreme Court Justice. Lucy, played by Phyllis Owen, tries to discourage Irene's interest in a young Senator by circulating a rumor that the party is considering Hibbard for the presidency. Irene immediately decides to stick with her husband in his hour of need, and the scheme completely backfires on Lucy. In reality, Lucy is considering her husband as a nominee for president.

Lucy eventually tries to repair the damage she has done. When all seems lost, Lucy gets a brilliant inspiration and with the use of a little black-mail, forces Irene to resign from the field.

TICKETS for the production will be 50 cents, or admission will be granted upon the presentation of a Little Theatre season ticket.

AUDREY MAYER

Coronation Launches Annual Homecoming Festivities

Amidst all the glamour and romance of heraldic times, Miss Audrey Mayer, junior from St. Louis, was crowned queen last night to reign over the 1952 Homecoming festivities here at Southern this week-end.

At the special coronation ceremonies held last night at 7:30 o'clock, Joe Huske, captain of this year's football team, crowned Audrey with the traditional silver crown.

Attendees were Dixie Bast, last year's queen, and Pat Miller, Nashville, both freshmen.

All members of the court, including the queen, were attired in white, full length formal, 1952 fashion. Miss Mayer wore a white net dress with a skirt of three layers of not topped by a white lace top inset with rhinestones. The skirt was finished off with a dust ruffle of the same rhinestone studded fabric.

Audrey's escort for the evening was Billy Wanglein, Chi Deba Chi Alpha.

HER MAJESTY and her court will appear tomorrow night at the formal dance and the queen will at that time take her position on the throne. This year a note of interest has been added to the throne and its accessories. For Audrey has been wearing a tiara of the coronation decorations, consisting of floral and planning for the decorations and the throne itself. She will sit on what may be termed her own throne because it was her committee that made it.

The queen and her court will also appear at the bonfire party and Homecoming play tonight, at the parade tomorrow, at the game tomorrow afternoon, and finally at the dance tomorrow night.

Trophies for the winners in class A and class B competition for the 1952 Homecoming house decorations will be awarded tomorrow at the halftime ceremonies of the football game.

The houses will be judged this afternoon at 3 o'clock and tonight at 6 o'clock so that the judges may see the decorations in both daylight and artificial lighting. Judges are Mrs. George Hand, wife of the executive assistant to the president, Steve Holliday, advertising manager of the regional Kroger office, and Dr. S. S. Marshall, candidate for state senator.

First place trophies will be given to men and women entries in class A and class B. Second place trophies will be given to one entry in class A and class B.

Students Choose Concert Numbers

The Homecoming concert to be presented by Ralph Matricie and his band tomorrow at 8 p. m. will feature many slow and sentimental songs. During the Oct. 21 elections, students will vote on preferences for selections to be played at the concert on a separate ballot.

The results were: "September Song," 605 votes; "Tenderly," 562 votes; "I'm Yours," 475 votes; "Tell Me Why," 368 votes; and "Once in a While," 316 votes. The next five songs in order of preference selected were: "Summerine," "The Object of My Affections," "Peanut Vender," "Candle Rock," and "Perfidio."

Dean Announces New Late Leave

According to an announcement from Dean of Women Mildred Schrotter, all women students attending the Homecoming formal dance tomorrow night may have three a. m. late leave. This announcement is to hold true instead of the bulletin which was released earlier by the dean and published in Tuesday's Egyptian.

Parade Entries Include 15 Bands, 13 Organizations

The tilt of the marching feet of 15 Southern Illinois high school bands and Southern's Maroon and White organization will add pep and spirit to the 1952 Homecoming parade.

Bands from the following towns will be represented in the order of march: Murphysboro, Carbondale, Armetks, Du Quoin, Pinckneyville, Cairo, Sumner, Carbondale Community, Roxana, Madison, University School, Anna, Elincoln, Benton, Zeigler, and Murphysboro Jr. High School.

Southern's marching band will lead the parade followed by the AF ROTC unit and the Queen's Host.

Thirteen campus organizations have entered floats in the class A parade. The class has a limit of $20 budget per float.—Phi Sigma Mu, Doyle Donn, Industrial Ed. club.

Bonfire Set For Tonight

The festivity of "wearing of the green" and the election of the Most Typical Freshman Boy and Girl will reach their climax tonight at the traditional Homecoming bonfire. All students are requested to assemble at the Kroger parking lot at the corner of University and Monroe at 5:30 p. m. to start the torch light parade to the old football field.

After arrival at the football field music will be provided by Bud Randolph and his pep band, and the cheerleaders will lead a pep rally. After the pep session, William Caruthers, president of the Alumni Association, will speak.

The freshmen, who have been wearing their green ribbons for the past three days in preparation for tonight will throw the ribbons into the bonfire following the traditional Ephebic Oath given by President Morris to the most typical freshman boy and girl.

At the half-time of the game tomorrow afternoon, Bob Odaniel, director of the Alumni service, will present an American flag to Audrey as a gift from the SIU Alumni chapter in Washington, D. C. Then at the dance Saturday night Jim Schmullbach, general Homecoming chairman, will present the Queen with the gift from the Homecoming steering committee.

Audrey's list of activities here at Southern includes the presidency of the Pan-Hellenic Council; vice-presidency of her sorority, Sigma Sigma Sigma; vice-presidency of Intra-Greek Council; membership in the Sphinx club; and final contestant in the Miss Southern contests of 1950 and 1951.

Art Education is Audrey's major here at Southern and her hobbies are painting and swimming. She was graduated from Cleveland High School in St. Louis where she was born in 1932. Mr. and Mrs. Leo B. Mayer are Audrey's parents and their address is 3844 French Court, St. Louis.

Typical Campus Group Just Knows Their House Decorations Will Win

"The leader interrupted, "A WINNER!" He flicked some ashes from the cigar. "Get a light!" someone asked, fishing for a cigarette. "Here, catch." The leader threw a box of matches that were deftly caught. "Come on you guys think!" This glance took in every one. They were slouched in varying positions. To Issue Copies Of Homecoming Programs Tonight

By Jan Evans

Ten pages of pictures and print will present the activities of the 1952 Homecoming to the student body and alumni in the annual Homecoming program. Five thousand copies have been printed and they are to be distributed at the play tonight and the football game tomorrow afternoon, according to Cliff Karch, chairman of the program committee.

The program contains such information as the schedule of the week-end's events, pictures and addresses of President Delye W. Morris and William Carothers, president of the Southern Illinois Alumni Association, and the picture and line up of the Washington U. Bears and the Salaks.

Featured in the program are the 1952 Homecoming Queen and her court. Two pages will contain the individual pictures of the five girls. Pictures of the four leading characters and directors of the Homecoming play, "First Lady," are shown in the booklet.

'52 Homecoming Chairman is Versatile SIU Student

By Jan Evans

Jim Schmulbach, one of SIU's more versatile seniors, was chosen last spring by the student body to direct this year's 1952 Homecoming activities. Needless to say that includes just about everything from the smallest publicity stunt to the close watching of the general Homecoming funds.

Jim has been the general coordinator for all the Homecoming activities and has been a general clearing terminal for his co-chairman. He began work on Homecoming preparations early last spring following the election of Jim as president of his fraternity, Sigma Pi, and only last week he was elected president of the senior class. He is also president of the Sphinx Club, Southern's only honorary service organization.

When he was asked how much of this time Homecoming preparations had consumed, he said, "Bob Fithridge, faculty advisor for the Homecoming activities, has done most of the work—more than I."

However, don't let that statement fool you, as Jim Schmulbach has worked for months to produce a Homecoming for SIU to remember.

Maybe it would be a good idea if the management let women keep their hats on during one half of a movie double-feature.

2000 Mums Displayed for Homecoming

Approximately 2,000 blossoming chrysanthemum plants will be on display in the new SIU greenhouse—starting at 1 p. m. tomorrow for all Homecoming visitors. Southern's physical plant is sponsoring this second annual Mum show, which will run throughout November.

The greenhouses will be open from 1 to 4 p. m. tomorrow, and from 1 to 4 p. m. daily thereafter with the exception of Saturday, according to William M. Marberry, director of the greenhouses.

Over 400 varieties of chrysanthemums are included in Southern's collection, which has been in existence four years. Blossoms range in size from less than one inch in diameter to 12 inches across in larger varieties. The plants have a wide variety of colors including white, yellow, orange, pink, bronze, and other various shades.

Several types of mums in Southern's collection have been acquired from the University of Illinois, Garfield Park, Chicago, the St.

Alumni Services Committee Mails 13,000 Letters To Former Students

The Egyptian ran a story in the last issue which indicated that the Alumni services committee had mailed 13,000 letters to Southern alumni throughout the country.

In actuality, 13,000 letters were mailed, as a part of the program to stimulate alumni participation in this year's Homecoming.

The temporary editors who held the fort while the regular editors attended the press conference in New York City last week, report that this error was not discovered until the 11th of October.

Visitors to the exhibit show also see orchids, the purple Hawaiian hibiscus, and the tropical vine Bougainvillea, as well as many other plants.

Visitors may find the week-end afternoons less crowded than Sunday. The exhibit is open to Marberry a wide variety of colors including white, yellow, orange, pink, bronze, and other various shades.

Students Urged To Register For Winter Quarter

All students who have not registered for the winter quarter are advised to do so within the next few days according to a release from the Registration Center. Some classes are in danger of being forced to close due to insufficient registration.

The graduate classes must have at least four registrants. The junior and senior level courses must have a registration of at least six students, and the freshman and sophomore classes must have at least ten students registered or the course must be dropped.

The failure of several students to register for a course might result in the closing of that class. When it appears that there will not be sufficient students to offer a course, that course is often dropped so that the instructor can teach some other course.

There is a need for more 100 level courses this quarter because of the large freshman class. Therefore, students interested in getting into classes that do not have heavy enrollment thus far are urged to register promptly.

Hogshead Elected Junior President

Jim Hogshead, junior from Vienna, is the official president of the junior class according to Jerry Fear, president of the Student Council, sponsor of the class officer elections held last week.

First tally of the votes showed that Lantia Brown, Hogshead's opponent in the race for the class presidency, had only a very narrow margin. Since the race was close, the ballots were counted again with the results showing that Hogshead had won the title.

Therefore, the results as published in the Egyptian Tuesday were not correct, since Lantia Brown was listed as junior class president.

The new class officers are as follows: Seniors — president, Jim Schulbach; New Athens, vice-president, Wilma Beadle; Carbondale, secretary-treasurer, Don Shelton, Mt. Vernon.

John Loy attended Homecoming festivities at the University of Illinois last weekend.

A weekend house guest was Jack Bishop, who hasn't missed a Homecoming since his graduation from SIU. Jack is here a week early this year.

Don Marcus spent last weekend in the hospital with an attack of sinusitis. He returned to school Wednesday.

THESE HANDS ARE PRICELESS!
They protect the American way of life... our homes; our freedoms; our futures.

These Hands, sensitively trained to respond acutely to the commands of an alert mind and courageous heart, are the hands of a United States Air Force Pilot.

The skillful touch of these hands attunes the blasting speed of modern jet aircraft to effective missions in discouraging any enemy. These hands are supremely capable of flying and fighting these machines with devastating effect.

These Hands belong to young, spirited American men (not supernmen) who desire to live unmoored in a free America... who want to enjoy the same rights and opportunities open to all real American people.

These Hands belong to our sons—you and mine. Youths who must decide today how they can share in defense of our nation and also better themselves. To insure greater chances of their success, today's college men should be encouraged to complete their education and then serve their country best by enlisting as Aviation Cadets in the U. S. Air Force.

There is the choice of becoming either a Pilot or Aircraft Observer. After graduation as Second Lieutenants in the U. S. Air Force, they wear the silver wings of flying executives and begin earning nearly $5300 a year.

These Hands represent a man ready to qualify for this tremendous task because he is between the ages of 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in excellent physical condition, especially eyes, ears, heart and teeth. He possesses at least two years of college and the inherent urge to fly.

These Hands shape the destiny of America... the difference between our survival and oblivion. The U. S. Air Force needs the hands, the minds and the hearts of young Americans who desire to make the American way a greater way of peace and happiness for all.

Saluskis Try for Big One, Face Washington Bears

by Dan Duffy

Although tomorrow's battle against Washington U. is a non-conference game, it is parked as a big one to win because the Saluskis will have their first homecoming game against the largest crowd of the season—the Homecoming crowd.

Aside from trying to avenge a 25-6 shellacking they took from the Bears at St. Louis last season, the Saluskis will be trying to win their first Homecoming victory in five tries. Last victory at the festivity time came in 1947. Closest to being a victory since then was when an inspired Maroon crowd battled the champion Illinois Normal Redbirds to a 14-14 tie in 1950.

Both the Bears and the Saluskis will go into the contest with identical records for this season. Each team has won two games and lost three. Biggest trouncing the Bears received was slapping on them by Harvard, 48-0. The Saluskis' biggest setback was a 55-7 rout by the Spartans by Central Michigan, last Saturday, while Southern upset Eastern 22-7. The Bears were losing to Western Michigan 28-20. Western Michigan holds an 18-0 victory over Central's Chip Pippava.

start the same offensive line-up as he has in the past two games with the exception of senior Nick Veremis, who will start at left end in place of Wayne Williams. Dan Smith will start at the other end. Cliff Johnson and Bill Goodman at the tackles, Charlie Parker and Bill Bishop at guards, Tim Bowers at center. In the backfield the starting line-up will be Captain Joe Huske at quarter, Johnny Vanderschueren and Jack Schneider at the halfbacks spots, and big Bob Ems at fullback. For Ems, this game will be his last in a Saluki uniform for quite a while. The hard driving fullback is due to report for induction into the armed forces Nov. 10.

ACCORDING to head coach Bill O'Brien, the entire team is in playing condition for tomorrow's game. Although the game is a non-conference tilt, it cannot be classed as a breather for the Saluskis. Southern has a rough schedule ahead. After today, they yet have to face Western Illinois and Michigan Normal. For the Saluskis, it will be the fourth Homecoming game this season.

Southern helped Northern celebrate at DeKalb by losing to the Huskies 21-7, succumbed to a Homecoming inspired Central Michigan team 55-7, then upset the apple cart for Eastern fans by trouncing the Panthers 27-7 at the Chableston festivities. Southern's 0-9 record last season made the Saluskis a popular team for the opposition's Homecoming this season. But the Saluskis held their own by losing a hard fought match to Northern, losing to Central Michigan (as every other team in the conference will have done before the season is ended); and brought tears in the eyes of Eastern fans last Saturday.

So tomorrow the Saluskis have a chance to even their 1952 Homecoming record at 2-2, average season's 25-6 Bear victory, come through with the first Homecoming victory here in five years, and boot themselves to a .500 mark for the season with 3 wins and three losses. Three wins and three losses wouldn't be bad at all for a team which some persons expected would close its way through to another unvictorious season.

Head Coach Bill O'Brien's assistants gathered around him to take a look at the record book—which now shows two wins and three losses. The Saluki tutors hope to win a 500 mark tomorrow with a victory over the Washington U. Bears. Left to right are Russ

Bush, recently returned from the Marine Corps; Joe Kella, sophomore transfer student from Wayne University and voluntary assistant to the assistants; and Jim Wilkinson, who also acts as tennis and wrestling coach and intramural director.

Second place Western Illinois is host at Eastern in another league contest. Western has a conference mark of two wins and one loss while the Panthers have lost both of their conference games and are in sixth place.

For the Women IIAC Has Full Weekend

Usually when grads come back to their Alma Mater for the Homecoming events their time is consumed with visiting old school chums and society sisters, reuniting acquaintances, and mostly, relaxing. But not so with the women P. E. alums! Oh no! When these girls come back to Southern for Homecoming, they're put to work; for on the morning of Homecoming day, of every year grads from all over the country meet the WAA varsity hockey team.

THIS YEAR is no exception as 8 a. m. tomorrow will find the two teams battling it out on the hockey field. The WAA girls are well-prepared for this big event; they've even painted the goal posts. Plays and techniques such as tripping, pushing, and elbowing have been practiced to the nub by the team members managed to sneak by the alums 1-0 last year.

NEXT TUESDAY at 4 p. m., two WAA hockey teams, one composed of girls who like ice, and the other made up of those who want to win with Stevenson, will battle it out. Both faculty members and students will participate in this game between the Democrats and the Republicans. Dr. Davies and Miss Stehr have consented to umpire the game. The entire student body is invited.

There will be a hockey Sports Day on campus November 8. Members of the WAA at Illinois Normal are bringing to the campus at 10 o'clock, for all alums and WAA members, whether or not they participated last in the game.

There will be a WAA meeting Monday at 4:00 in the WAA room in the gym.

The Information Service is the official news agency of Southern Illinois University.

Central Michigan rates a heavy favorite to fatten its conference lead tomorrow when the Chippewas entertain Illinois Normal at Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

The game will match the conference leader against the cellar team. The Chippies are unbeaten in four IIAC games while Illinois Normal has just won a league tilt in three tries.

REDBIRD Quarterback, Wes Bair has a passing record of 91 completions in 164 attempts. His passes have gained 804 yards and scored nine touchdowns. But Bair will need plenty of help before Normal can upset the Chippies, who have had only three touchdowns scored against them in conference play this year.

The SIU film library is serving the needs of over 250 Illinois schools.

Kahmann Korner

By Jim Kahmann

Good football players come and go, but every once in awhile a school is fortunate enough to have a man on their sports roster who leaves a record that is unparalleled when compared to others of his rank.

Such a man is Bob Ems. Bob Ems' record will be stamped Southern's real STAR if anyone wanted to choose one this year. And, we might add, not only this year, but for a number of years past. Now a junior, Ems lettered his freshman, sophomore, and now his third year.

Last year, he was elected "most valuable" player by his teammates, and also led the team in scoring as well as total yardage. He had the best average per carry, and without a doubt, was the team's best line-banger. The IIAC named him on the All-Conference squad two years.

Football isn't Ems' only love. He is also a fine baseball player, and last year hit over .300, and received mention on the IIAC all-star squad. He's a long-ball hitter, and a race-horse in the garden.

These are facts. You can't erase them. These are his accomplishments in his three years at SIU.

Now he is leaving to take up another fight. This time he'll be with another good team, the U. S. Army.

takes the knocks of football with an attitude that makes you wonder in amazement.

Even when he is bothered with a chronic muscle injury, Bob goes out there with that same determined effort, that inimitable will-to-win, that's Ems' love of the game.

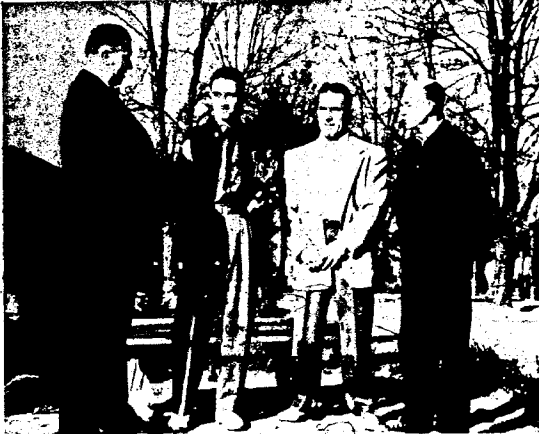

So, even though Bob Ems is leaving, and we're sure he's just as glad to go as we are to see him leave, he's leaving behind something more than just the usual run of athletic glories. He leaves here at Southern, stamped indelibly on the record books, a story of sports that will live for many years to come. He leaves in the minds of his teammates a friendship that has come sincerely from a heart that understands the other guy.

When he walks off the field Saturday, you can say, "There goes Bob Ems, the best of football!" Good luck, Bob, and we know you'll be a star on the big team you'll be going to.

Jim Wilson Wins SIU Golf Tourney

Jim Wilson of Mt. Vernon staged a fighting come-back last Saturday in the last three holes of an 18 hole match at Jackson Course-club to tie Charlie Newkirk of Greenville, then went on to outshoot Newkirk on the tie-breaking 19th hole to win the championship match in Southern's intramural golf tournament.

Wilson trailed by three points with three holes to play. He took the remaining three to deadlock Newkirk. This tie set the stage for the extra sudden death hole and Wilson's ascension to the crown Newkirk had reached the finals by defeating Jack Shanks of Pana in the semi-finals 2 up. This eliminated Shanks from the double-elimination tournament sponsored by the men's physical education department.
