Student Week Leaders Start Work This Summer

Student leaders for the 1953 New Student Week have begun work on the week's plans. Their initial work will begin with each writing freshman personal notes of welcome explaining the week's activities on campus.

The leaders met Thursday in Algeid Hall to hear the complete plans for New Student Week and to receive instructions on their part in the program. They will be responsible for making new students feel at home, to help new students become better acquainted with SIU, its traditions, customs, and ideals, seeing that new students have an opportunity to meet and know fellow class members, upper class leaders, and faculty, and answering to many questions on college life and activities.

The student leader plan is not new to Southern, but has been done successfully at many other universities. This will be the first year for the plan at Southern, however. Leaders will meet with their groups once a day for an hour. Leaders will be responsible for collecting material for their groups and for distributing and explaining the material.

Student leaders will work in twos and threes. The groups are: (1) Lorena Lee and Juanita Parodina, (2) Mary Ann Natusis, Gerald McGovern and Teresa White, (3) George Henry and Pat Balm, (4) Joe Walter, Rita Penrod, and Bob Taftinger, (5) Gwen Applegate, Dick Schmitz, and Arlette Rhinehart, (6) Martha Cralley and Betty Ross, (7) Beverly Darnell and Robert Sidebottom, (8) Mike Westall and Betty Caldwell, (9) Anna Propp and Joe Ainslie, (10) Don Bender and Roger Vaiter.

Book Return Is Scheduled For Next Week

Four days next week have been set aside by the University Book Store for return of rented textbooks with a $1 fine awaiting the unwary student who fails to return them by the Thursday deadline.

Book return may be made each day, Monday through Friday, according to a schedule issued this morning by Carl Tronbaugh, manager of the store. A student may bring in books all at once, or just as he completes his use of them, just so they are returned by Thursday.

Night hours are listed for return of books used by night class students.

The schedule is issued by the University Book store manager as follows:

"1. Monday through Thursday of examination week. Hours (for regular students):

8 a. m. to 4 p. m. (for students in night classes) 8 p. m. to 10 p. m.

"2. Two lines will form at the inside door to the bookstore. AL students line up at the left-hand door facing east. NZ students line up at the right-hand door facing east.

"3. When inside the Book Store, AL students go to the first counter on the left. NZ students go to the second counter on the left.

"4. Be sure that books are checked off your card, or properly recorded as returned.

"5. After books are checked in, leave through the east door.

"6. The student is free to return one book at a time, or all books at once, whichever is more convenient.

"7. All students who fail to return books or locks by closing time Thursday, June 4, will be fined $1."

USAF Extends Weather Officer School Deadline

Deadline for college graduates and second-semester seniors to apply for return of rented textbooks with a $1 fine awaiting the unwary student who fails to return them by the Thursday deadline.

Requirements remain the same—a bachelor's degree and credit for one year of college physics and mathematics through integral calculus. Both men and women are eligible to apply.

Successful applicants will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve. In many instances, weather officers with the USAF Air Weather Service have been extended to June 1, 1953.

In addition to the weather training, officers will attend a short basic officer training course before assignment to active duty in an Air Force weather station.

While attending the government-paid weather training, students will receive full pay and allowances of a second lieutenant. In the case of a married student, this amount is about $350 a month, for a single officer slightly less.

Application forms for a direct commission and weather training are available by writing to the Commanding General, Air Weather Service, Washington, 25, D. C.

The program is administered by the USAF Institute of Technology, one of the schools participating are the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, New York University, the University of Chicago, Pennsylvania State College, the University of California at Los Angeles, Florida State University, the University of Washington and St. Louis University.

LAY THAT SLINGSHOT DOW

(ACP) Firing dangerous weapons on campus—like pistols, rifles, slingshots, and pellet guns—may soon be illegal and grounds for expulsion at the College of Pacific. The Interfraternity council has recommended the ban and punishment to the school's administrative committee.

Students Approve Of 18-Year-Old Voting Age

(ACP). "If you can fight, you can vote."

This statement, made by a law student at the University of Pittsburgh, represents student majority opinion, according to a nationwide student opinion poll.

More than a dozen state legislatures this year considered bills lowering the voting age to 18. All bills were defeated, which leaves Georgia the only state in the Union where 18-year-olds can vote.

ACP asked the question: "Several state legislatures have considered lowering the legal voting age to 18 years. What is your opinion of this plan?" Here are the results:

Approve 54 per cent
Disapprove 44 per cent
No opinion 2 per cent

A sophomore at Western Maryland college declares, "People don't know their own minds until they are a little older—sometimes not then."

Says a coed at the University of Michigan, "If 18-year-olds can vote for their country, they should be able to vote for their own country. The country does not impose obligations on young people, then the present system is ok."

And a graduate student at the University of Texas, who disapproves, adds, "People over 70 years of age shouldn't be allowed to vote either."

Home Economics Department To Run Nursery

Southern's home economics department is going into the nursery business. Not the green house kind, but one with real honest-to-gosh kids.

The nursery is being created in order to provide students in the "Child Development" home economics course with practical experience in handling children.

Approximately a dozen children ranging in age from two and a half to four years old will get their first taste of "school" when the operation begins this fall. Curriculum will include both indoor and outdoor activities, rest periods, attention to cleanliness and occasional naps during the three-hour school day.

Miss Maryjorie Savage, supervisor of the home economics management house, will direct the nursery. A small fee to cover expenses will be charged. Children may be enrolled with Miss Savage on a first-come, first-served basis.

Mt. Vernon School Administrator To Give Alumni Day Address

J. Lester Buford, superintendent of city schools at Mt. Vernon for the past 16 years, will address the annual Alumni banquet of SIU at 6:30 p. m. June 6, according to Robert Odanell, Director of Alumni Services.

The banquet will include Alumni Day activities which include a convocation address by Gov. William G. Stoneman at 1:30 in Shroyok auditorium prior to coronation laying for two new buildings—the Life Science building and Wood Hall women's dormitory.

Buford is a graduate of Southern and received a master's degree from the University of Michigan. He has the honorary degree Doctor of Laws from McAndrew College, Lebanon. Prior to going to Mt. Vernon, he held school positions in Cypress, Galatia, West Frankfort, Carbondale, Eldorado, and Johnston City. During his superintendency the Mt. Vernon ele-

Great Books Discussions To Be Held Next Year

Mr. Raymond Rainbow, SIU English Department, is extending an invitation to all students and faculty members to take part in the Great Books discussion program—one of the most stimulating adult education programs of our time.

Books discussion groups are open to all adults, free of charge. There are no educational requirements other than the ability to read, and a willingness to learn.

In the Great Books discussion program, groups of adults meet for two to two and one half hours every other week and discuss leaders the Great Books selections which have been set by the reading group in advance. Southern's Great Books club will meet on the weekends, under the sponsorship of Mr. Rainbow.

A banquet will be held June 3 in the cafeteria at 6 p. m. for all graduates. The banquet is being held by the Alumni Association. The annual senior picnic will be June 4 beginning at 2 p. m. The site for the picnic is Crab Orchard Lake.

The Great Books discussion program is based on the following premises: (1) That men and women themselves; (2) That there are certain basic problems which have confronted mankind in every era; (3) That some of mankind's best thinking on these problems is to be found in books written by the great thinkers and writers of the past; (4) That, through reading these books, and discussing them with their friends and neighbors, individuals can educate themselves and find better solutions to their daily problems; (5) That education is a continuing activity not dependent upon school attendance.

The first year reading list which contains all the books which will be studied by the group next year is as follows: The Declaration of Independence; Old Testament selections: "Apocalypse" and "Crito" by Plato; "Republic," Books I and II, by Plato; Selections from "History" by Thucydides; "Lystris," "Birds," and "Clouds" by Aristophanes; Book I of "Ethics" by Aristotle; Book I of "Politics" by Plato; Selections from "Lives" by Plutarch; St. Augustine's "Confessions," Books I-VIII; Selections from "Treatise on Law" by St. Thomas Aquinas; "The Prince" by Machiavelli; selected essays by Montaigne; "Hamlet" by Shakespeare; "The Social Contract" by Rousseau; selections from the Constitution; Book I of "The Wealth of Nations" by Smith; and "Communist Manifesto" by Marx.

All those interested in joining the Great Books Club which will meet next year, should contact Marilyn Wakefield.

Of this club, Mr. Rainbow says: "Although I doubt that one can discover with that ardent searching a dozen students anxious enough to work in a non-credit class for no fee, it will meet on weekends, I'm willing to be persuaded that the search might be worth a try."

mentary school system has undergone a period of modernization in teaching and physical plant facilities.

Alumni activities will begin at 9 a. m. Saturday, June 6. At this time the Alumni Association Board will meet at the Board of Trustees office followed by a meeting of the SIU Foundation Board at 10 a. m. in the conference room at the president's office.

A noon luncheon at the university cafeteria will be served to members of both boards.

Class reunions will be held in the afternoon. Alumni with class years ending in '89 and '93 will meet from 4 to 6 p. m. in the Student Union. Members of other classes not having reunions this year may also want to have informal get-togethers during this period.

At 4 p. m. also a reception will be held in the Conference Room at the Board of Trustees at President Morris's home.

The convocation, coronation laying ceremonies, and commencement exercises will be open to the public. William J. Caruthers, Murphysboro school superintendent and president of Southern's Alumni Assoc will be toastmaster for the luncheon meeting. The presentation of life membership certificates in the Alumni Association, and the election of association officers for the coming year is also scheduled for the banquet meeting.

Reservations for the dinner scheduled to be on campus near the Men's Gymnasium, are due in the SIU Alumni Services office by May 29 according to Odanell.

'The Good Earth' To Be Shown Monday Night

Monday night's presentation of "The Good Earth" will be the last of this year's series of motion pictures shown by the "Audio-Visual Aids department in cooperation with the Social Service.

The movie, based on the book of the same name by Pearl Buck, will be presented, twice — at 7 and 9 p. m. — at the University school auditorium. Students will be admitted on activity tickets and others on a $1.00 admission ticket.

Co-sponsoring Lucile Rainer and Paul Munny, the feature-length dramatization tells the story of a Chinese family who were forced to leave their land when the Japanese invaded and of their return years later. Emphasis is placed upon the agricultural philosophy of the people of China and their dependence upon the land for subsistence, according to Donald Ingold, SIU Social Aids director.

Ingold also announced the scheduling of six films to be shown free of charge during the summer term. The movies will be presented at McAndrew Stadium in fair weather and in Shroyok auditorium on rainy days.

Four Home Series of the ACP which, a former of Charlie Chaplin's early comedies.

Officers of the active chapter are Myra Valentine, Pinckneyville, president; Marilyn Wakefield, Carbonde, first vice-president; Ruth Hoffman, Chester, second vice-president; Jane Schorfeide, Nashville, recording secretary, and Charlotte McCann, Cobden, treasurer.

TWELVE MEN from the SIU chapter of The Kappa Epsilon installed Delta Chi Delta, a local fraternity at Southeastern Missouri State Teachers College, into the national fraternity.

This makes the 103rd chapter of TKE, one of the largest fraternities in the country. The Tokes Glad Week tennis doubles team of Eldon Evans and Don Kilian have defeated Chi Delta Chi and Theta Xi. The softball team has won from Theta Xi and Sigma Tau Gamma. Jerry Hawkins and Jim Aiken have been chosen as delegates to the TKE Grand Conclave to be held in Des Moines during the first week of September. MRS. Looking Back

By Larry Connor Looking over a yellow old Egypt I can see a headline which proclaimed "Neckers to Give Address." Imagine my chagrin when I found that it was Dr. Neckers who gave an address on the con. I was further depressed when I found that the St. Bernard dogs no longer carry liquor to stranded travelers, but that they now carry hot coffee. Does Switzerland have an Anti-Saloon league?

Here's discouraging note for college men. Dan O'Brien, king of hoboes back then, said that collegians don't make good hoboes. How's this for a blow? Some poor fellow worked for a year gathering material for his thesis; then a fire came along and burned all his notes. There should be some sort of moral to that story, but it's too hot to search for it. When will it all stop?

Two weddings will be coming up this summer. Mary Jane Ball and Lt. Charles Jones of the Marines plan to be married June 26 and Sue Raymond and Lt. Bill Frey of the Air Force are to be married June 14. Lu Lou Bozarth was pinned to Len Zabroski while the Sigma Tau Monday night. PARENTS DAY was held last Sunday for all parents and guests of members of Sigma Pi fraternity. Approximately 200 guests attended the picnic dinner, which is to be an annual event of the fraternity.

Dull Facts To Sadden Students

(ACP) A University of Toronto senior has decided not to bother with his final exams and says that university degree is not worth the paper it is printed on. Walk Awestart, in a letter of defiance printed in The Varisty, student newspaper, blasts the administration, the teachers, and the students. "The administration talks in terms of dollars, the teachers in terms of marks, and the students in terms of sex," he says. As for the examination system, it "draws these things together and proves that the process of learning consists of a bad speaker divulging a lot of dull facts to a group of sodden students."

How About Women In The Spring?

Spring, the season when according to popular legend, "a young man's fancy lightly turns..." This is unfair. Nobody ever bothers to ask what happens to a woman in spring. Does a woman's fancy turn or doesn't it? Or maybe it's turned all year long. Nobody seems to know. What happens to all the young men who turned fancies for the young ladies are still as cold as winter? Let Ph. D. candidates ponder that one. —From the Record, Western Reserve University, Ohio.

BARCELONA ORATORY

(ACP) Under the title "The Baby Shoes of Democracy," the Colloquium, Berlin student magazine, awards a pair of baby shoes to the member of the German parliament judged to be responsible for the year's worst oratory. This year the contest was a two-way draw, and shoe spice was sent to the winner. Winners were Federal Minister of Justice Dr. Dehler (right shoe) and Bundestag representative Dr. Greve (left shoe). Dr. Dehler sent his shoe back to the magazine, but Dr. Greve wanted to know how he could earn the entire pair.

SIU Tennismen Out To Get Wins In Today's Match

As far as the NAAIA tennis meet at Macomb today and tomorrow is concerned, the Salukis are going to treat their opponents as most dogs do malingers.

The Salukis who placed third in the IAC meet last week-end, are much improved over last year's squad. They finished fourth in the conference last year with a 5-1-7 record. This year, with a fine line of stars, they were expected to finish in the running spot and behind the powerful Illinois Normal Redbirds, but they were edged out by Central Michigan and relegated to the third-place spot.

Southern's only two defeats this year came at the hands of the Washington U. Bears, 6-1, and Bradley Braves, 8-1. Both teams are considered to be among the powerhouses of the midwest.

Saluki Golfers Better Last Season's Record

The Salukis put the bite on Cape twice, 5-2, and 6-3; on Rolla, 6-1; on Eastern, 6-1; on St. Louis, 7-0; on Western, 5-1; and on Carthage, 6-1. They won their last six matches before the IAC meet.

Bruce Lape has the best individual record on the squad with six wins against one loss (in regular season play) at St. Louis. Pisoni and Bill Fly have identical records of 7-2, and Gene Halle has a 6-2 record. Ernie Flota has four wins against one loss.

In the doubles, Halle and Fly have a 6-2 record, and Pisoni and Lape have a 5-3 slant.

By Larry Connor

The Saluki golf team wound up with a record of 3 wins, 2 ties and 1 loss for the season; this better last season's record. Last year Southern lost 7, whereas this season they tied twice. The team met some tough teams this year and also lost two of their players before the season started, due to inelegibility. Coach Holders was forced to play out the schedule with only 6 men. Jim Wilson, Chuck Newkirk, Wayman Heard, and Bob Henley.

STARTED OFF WELL

The team started off by tying the always-strong, Rolla Miners 16-6, with everybody playing good golf. They then came back to edge out an equally strong Billiken team 5-14-6. Then the roof fell in. The boys usually managed to stay within two or three strokes of their opponents, but too frequently, sometimes even on the final hole, the other team made a stroke or two edge on the individual twosomes and that makes the match.

Then at Decatur, Southern whipped Millikin, with Newkirk and Heard turning in some good scores. Newkirk out shot Jim Finley of Millikin 74-76. Earlier in the season, I went so far as to predict that the Salukis would win several games this year. Well, Webster defangs several as "more than two, but not very many" that sounds about right. At that time, however, things did look bright. Holder had two boys that were shooting in the low 70's, along with a good 78-80 shooter. However, the playing didn't live up to advance copy in most instances.

McGoo, Swimmer Supreme

By Don Prims

People shake their heads in amazement when they see Willie McGoo swim. He splashes more water than a Mississippi steamboat, expends more energy than a dynamo, but goes slower than a turtle with rheumatism.

WILLIE CYCLES TO LAKE

The other day, for instance, Willie put on his Billiken swimming suit (so called because it looked as if it had recently survived an atomic blast) and headed for the lake. He was a strange sight as he paddled down the road on his stationary bike. So strange, in fact, that many motorists tried to run over him. But Willie just sneered at each unsuccessful attempt and pedaled on.

When he arrived at the lake, he dismounted from his bike and very carefully removed the stationary bike. All through his life, Willie has been plagued by practical jokers, so he gives them a helping hand whenever he can. Therefore he removed the wheels—to save the jokers the trouble.

Willie's second act upon arriving at the lake was to determine the temperature of the water by sticking his foot in. Of course, he could only estimate the temperature because he forgot to take his shoe off, and when he did take his shoe off, he clump of them in. "Oh, well," said Willie, "perhaps there's some disease fish down there who needs

Then at Decatur, Southern whipped Millikin, with Newkirk and Heard turning in some good scores. Newkirk out shot Jim Finley of Millikin 74-76. Earlier in the season, I went so far as to predict that the Salukis would win several games this year. Well, Webster defangs several as "more than two, but not very many" that sounds about right. At that time, however, things did look bright. Holder had two boys that were shooting in the low 70's, along with a good 78-80 shooter. However, the playing didn't live up to advance copy in most instances.

SOME REMEDIES

"Far be it from me to give alibis for anyone (except, of course, for me); nevertheless, there are a couple of things which, if remedied, would be something to have a winning golf team. The main one is more material to play from. A grand total of five players tried out for this year's team, and two of these later became ineligible. Another factor, that a big one, is practice, or lack of it. In order to practice, a prospective golfer must go to the Jackson County Club and this entails leaving his entire afternoons free during the season at least. This is inconvenient, to say the least, and sometimes almost impossible.

The first factor will present somewhat of a problem, but the solution might be related directly to the solution of the second. If the proposed golf links were completed, the practice problem would be eliminated. Golf is relatively new to Southern, and it is understandable that student action might be slow. However, we have a baseball diamond, a gymnasium, a stadium, and a cinder track for the track team to dash about on. So why not golf links?

Golf Captain Jim Wilson

Wilson Is SIU's Golf Ace

When the graduates search down the aisle for their degrees in a few days, with them will be a person who has set four records that will never be broken, and one more that will probably never be broken in the field of athletics.

He is Jim Wilson, three time captain of SIU's golf team. Jim was elected to guide the team when he was a sophomore, and this has the honor ever since. This is the one record that could be broken, but it is highly improbable since an incoming freshman is not likely to be the captain of an athletic team.

Golf Coach Lynn C. Holder said that Jim had done a wonderful job for him. He estimates that the "little captain" who has been hitting a long ball this year has won over 75 per cent of his individual matches while in competition.

That's the record. Four out of five that can never be broken, and a fifth that will probably never be broken.

Evan in high school, Jim was joining in to set records. Living in Mt. Vernon, he played on the Ram basketball team that won the state tournament in 1949. Also while he was in high school, Wilson was on the Ram golf team and made a couple of trips to the state tournament in that field.

When Jim goes into the Army this summer, there is going to be a lot of surprised captains and lieutenants when they take on the "little captain" for easy pickings.

Dash Men Lift SIU Over Eastern, 81-50

By Jim Kahlmann

It was "dash night" in McAndrew Stadium last Tuesday, as Doc Lingle's track team sprang to an 81-50 victory over favored Eastern State college in the Salukis' last dual meet of the 1953 season. Lingle's boys didn't do so hot in the distances, but it didn't matter for they so far outclassed the Panthers in the sprints, the outcome was never in much doubt.

The dashmen swept the 100, the 220, and 120 high hurdles, and took first and second in the 220 low. Southern also took first second in the broad jump and the javelin, and won the mile relay.

Top point-getters for the meet were Leo Wilson, who per se won both hurdles events; Bob Nitzkowski, who did far first in the high jump, and got two seconds in the broad jump and 120 high; and Vern Sprehe, winning the 100 and 220, and getting the mile-relay team off to a good start.

Dick Gregory, Southern's distance star, had to be content with a first and a second, besides running on the winning relay team. That's eight points plus, but the St. Louis sophomore has become so used to sweeping at least two events, it was a rarity. Greg was a little out of shape, inasmuch as he hadn't been on the track for over a week. The death of his mother called him home early last week, and he missed the conference meet at DeKalb last weekend. But sore muscles and all, he still had enough left to run a winning 2:01.5 half mile, and run second to Matheny in a 4:23.3 mile.

Probably the big thrill of the evening was the mile relay, last event of the night. Sprehe got Southern off to a four yard increase and Natz held it. Gregory increased the Saluki lead to about five yards, but a poor exchange put Bierman about four yards behind.

Bierman then started his kick on the second turn, took the lead, and outlasted Farris of Eastern to win by about two yards. The event went in 3:30.

Zamir Barel in the broad jump and Bill Carlisle in the javelin gave Southern two firsts in the field events. Barel won the jump with 21' 2 1/2", and Carlisle tossed the spear 76' 7" to take an easy first.

Before the meet, Doc Lingle was quite pessimistic. Eastern scored the same number of points in the IAC meet last weekend, but the big track mentor perceived that Eastern had a little too much depth for the Salukis. At any rate, he didn't anticipate a 31-point margin of victory. The dashes really spoiled the difference.

Tuesday night, Southern missed only eight points in the 800, and one, and two-mile, but came up with 35 points in the 100, 220, 120 high, and 220 low.

That's about all you can get Come next year, should Doc land one more real good distance runner, someone along Gregory's caliber, and his track team should be set for that conference meet. More strength in the field events will help, but with one more good distance man, Lingle can win about all the dual meets he wants to in '54.

Southern closed the season with six wins and one loss, that a one-point defeat at the hands of Western of Macomb. And now that it's all over, you'll have to admit—those dash men sure came through with the points. It was another good year for the old dash, Doc Lingle.

In last week's track story a mistake was made about one of the contestants. The story stated that Dick Gregory failed to place in any event. Gregory did not take part in the track meet. Gregory was called home because of death of his mother.
