Southern Considers Campus Educational TV Programs

A series of educational television programs on campus are presently being considered by the University. Southern has applied to the Federal Communications Commission for a permit to conduct a television station on Channel 8.

"The University plans to present a wide variety of programs of college credit courses, and also of an adult educational nature, as well as a wide variety of informational and entertaining programs including music, news, and current events," stated Richard M. Uray, television coordinator for the Broadcasting Service.

"A rough guess is that the F.C.C. may give their approval of the plans around the first of the year," Uray said. "With all going well, we should have a television station by the summer of 1981."

Class Instruction
In the interim before the station gets on the air, the University is considering the presentation of closed circuit classroom instructions. These instructions will present lectures from a central studio to various class room areas that have been connected to the main station by cable or microwave. These areas will be equipped with a number of television receivers.

As part of the development of educational television on campus, the Broadcasting Service is carrying out a program of orientation and information for faculty and staff members. The program includes the showing of films from various other educational television stations and gives the faculty and staff members an opportunity to view some of the programs which are being presented.

The second series of these films will be shown Monday, Nov. 9, from 7 to 10 in the evening. They also will be shown on Tuesday, Nov. 10 from 2 to 5 in the afternoon. Both showings will be in the Morris Library Auditorium.

Included is a film from the educational television series, "The Children's Corner," which has been presented on a national network and is aimed primarily to work and is aimed primarily to work younger children. The second film, "Plays and Players," is a drama appreciation course of interest to people in the fields of speech and theater. "Music for Young People," the third film, is a music education film. The fourth film is entitled, "Doctors in Space," which deals with the medical problems of space travel and should be of interest to people in the fields of medicine, physics and mathematics.

Students as well as faculty and staff members are invited to attend presentations of these films.

Southern Host 2,000 Here For IEA Day

Southern is host today to more than 2,000 teachers and administrators from the south 14 counties of Illinois. The group is at the annual meeting of the Southern Division of the Illinois Education Assn.

Featured on the program are Billie Davis, nationally-known lecturer and writer; Dr. Eugene B. Vest, chairman of the humanities division of the University of Illinois, Chicago branch, and Dr. Kenneth H. Lemmer, director of the legal division of the state office of public instruction.

Billie Davis, daughter of a California migrant family, will tell the story of her life at 1:50 p. m. in a talk titled "I Was a Hobo Kid." A popular lecturer, she has talked before the National Education Assn. meeting in New York. Her life inspired the filming of an educational movie, "Desk for Billie."

This talk is scheduled for Shroyck auditorium—as is the rest of the program.

SIU President Delyte W. Morris opened the session with a welcome address at 9:15 this morning. Following his address, the educators heard Mrs. Alice L. Grant, a West Frankfort high school teacher who is president of the IEA's Southern Division.

Lemmer will talk on "New Legislation Affecting Schools" at 10 this morning, and Vest's address at 10:30 will be "Where Do You Hall From Stranger?"

After 11 a. m., the various interest groups within the Southern

Special Day Southern Honors Parents

With over 8,000 letters sent to parents, the final arrangements for Parents' Day, Nov. 9, are being made, according to Dave Leckrone, co-chairman of the annual event. Georgia Meagher is co-chairman.

This is final deadline for registration of parents in the Student Union by their sons or daughters for the "Parents of the Day" honors. All parents must be registered to be eligible for the honor.

"The purpose of the special day is to honor parents and let them see what college life is like today," Leckrone said.

Events of the day include an assembly at which the "Parents of the Day" will be honored and where a style show will be staged. Tours of the campus and attendance at the SIU-Bowling Green football game at 1:30 p. m. are also planned.

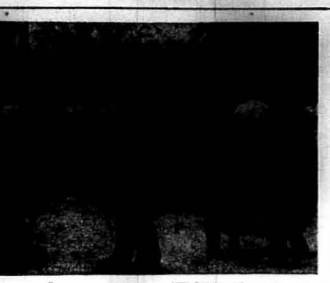

After the game, coffee hours at several organized houses are the Kentucky meet on a last minute invitation. They were scheduled to open the season Nov. 6 at Emporia, Kan.

The Ohio State team was coached by Richard Rieker, star debater for Sorbonne who graduated in 1958.

"SIU has had one of the strongest squads in the country in the past few years, and this year we have an excellent opportunity of matching or surpassing past records," said M. Jack Parker, debate coach, Monday.

Sanders was rated ninth among collegiate debaters in the nation in last year's National Debate Tournament at West Point. Another SIU debater, Paul Black, who is not with the team this season, was rated 12th.

Movies Set For Weekend

"Cockleshell Heroes" a n d "Winchester '73" are scheduled hours tonight and tomorrow for the Fur Auditorium movie night. Show times each night are 6:30 and 8:30, with admission 25-cents with activity card and 40-cents without.

Tonight's feature, "Cockleshell Heroes," is a color production starring Jose Ferrer, Trevor Howard and Don Bryan. It is billed as an explosive story of an unknown dangerous mission of war resulting in the return of only two of the original 10 men.

Tomorrow's movie is "Winchester '73," which stars James Stewart, Shelley Winters, Dan Duryea, Stephen McNally, Rock Hudson and Tony Curtis. Stewart, as Lin McAdam, searches the frontier for the man who killed his father and loses his prized repeating rifle to his father's slayer.

Eating, Auto Rules For Day

With the Southern Division of the Illinois Education Assn. meeting today, special arrangements for cafeteria service and campus parking have been made.

In a general bulletin to faculty, staff and students Tuesday, President Morris called for the cooperation of everyone in welcoming members of the association.

"We can expect 2,600 or more guests on our campus," the bulletin said. "To add this number to the faculty, staff, students and visitors usually on campus creates a crowded condition for about six hours."

In making the facilities of the University available for the IEA, special arrangements must be made, the bulletin said.

To allow the visitors to eat at the noon hour, the University cafeteria will be closed to all except IEA members from 11 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. today.

To ease the parking situation, all students, staff and faculty are encouraged to leave their cars at home today. The following parking lots will be open only to members of the IEA:

1. The lots north of University School.
2. The lot north of Morris Library on Grand Avenue.
3. The lot east of the Illinois Central tracks between Grand and Harwood Avenues.
5. The lots on either side of

President's Retreat Brings Student Leaders To Grassy

The EGYPTIAN, interdisciplinary programs and bicycles headed the topics of discussion at the President's Retreat for the Senate last weekend at Little Grassy.

The theme of the retreat was "Student Roles and Responsibilities in the Total Community."

Discussing the academic community, the student leaders considered interdisciplinary programs in sciences, arts and literature in which professors in these subjects would give lectures in their particular fields. In such a program, it was said, a student could meet the requirements in these fields by attending these sessions instead of taking the whole course.

It was brought out that three such programs are now scheduled. The lectures could be held at the same time as Freshman Convocation, but for underclassmen, the group decided.

Along the same line, the use of proficiency examinations to prevent the necessity of student repeating courses they have had in high school was discussed. This way, the participants said, more advanced courses could be taken instead. There was debate as to whether a student should get credit for courses passed by proficiency tests, but no decision was made.

A long discussion of the EGYPTIAN, and its request for an additional $4,000 for operating expenses, was held. Some members of the Council said a appraisal of the newspaper should be made, keeping in mind the purpose and primary objective of a newspaper.

Among the points brought out concerning the EGYPTIAN were:

1. It should announce all student activities, stressing weekend activities.
2. It should adequately announce extra programs, such as outstanding visitors on campus.
3. It should be a weekly guide to student activities.
4. It should stimulate student thinking.
5. It should be publishing coming

Harwood immediately west of the Illinois Central tracks.

For today only, faculty, staff and students will be permitted to park on the Campus Drive from Thompson Street west to the Agriculture building, and in the lots located adjacent to this area.

Campus police will be on duty to direct IEA visitors, faculty, staff and students to proper parking facilities.

Other suggestions called for bicycle registration, help in planning bicycle paths, "inconspicuous" tags for them if they are registered, a stock of parts for bicycles in the University store, and space for bicycle repair and rental tools available at the Student Union.

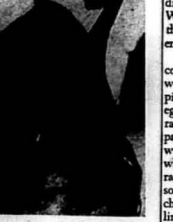

If registration is called for, the group decided, it should require a modest fee and should wait a year or more until students accept the idea. Plans for a bicycle insurance program and the paving of bicycle parking areas was also discussed.

President Morris presented plans for an ice skating rink planned for Campus Lake. The rink would be two-thirds the length of a football field, Morris said, and would accommodate 300 people. Other future University facilities discussed by President Morris included a hand shell on the lake shore which would provide space for concerts and theatre productions, and an observatory or planetarium, which he said might be built at Little Grassy.

Other subjects of discussion at the weekend conference were faculty-student relationships, student employment and the activity budget.

Fourth Annual Teke-Ole-impics Tomorrow

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity will hold its fourth annual Teke-Ole-impics tomorrow from 2 to 4 p. m., in McAndrew Stadium, under direction of Chairman Jerry Cline.

The afternoon will feature races and contests for sororities and will be climaxed by the crowning of the Teke-Ole-impics queen.

At 1 p. m. a relay team of Teke-Ole-impics carrying a flaming torch will visit each sorority house a signal for the Teke-Ole-impics to begin. At 2, Jay Reynolds, disc-jockey from radio station WGGH in Marion, will open the Teke-Ole-impics. Reynolds will emcee the day's events.

The program of races and contests will begin with a tug of war. An egg-throwing contest, pie-eating contest, balloon race, egg relay race, threelegged sack race, wheelbarrow race, tank race, pajama race and an active race will follow. The active race which will climax the events is a race in which 20 girls from each sorority pick an active Teke to chase. Taking place within the limits of the football field, if an active is caught he becomes the house boy for that sorority. He then performs odd jobs for the sorority, such as washing walls and running errands.

Individual active Teke's will coach each sorority. Don Schmidt will coach the Tri Sigmas. Bob Stiefel will coach the Alpha Gams, Matt Tusinski will coach the Delta Zeta's. Ron Walker will coach the Sig Kaps and Jim Fundamentals will coach Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority.

After the contests are over, first and second place trophies will be awarded to the sorority with the highest number of points. Queens of the Teke-Ole-impics will be crowned after the awarding of the trophies. Pi Kappa Sigma sorority, now merged with the Sig Kaps, won last year's event. Jay Barry, Delta Zeta, was last year's queen. The Delta Zeta's won second place in last year's events.

Candidates for queen include Judy Shackelford, Tri Sigma; Susie Kihlmeier, Alpha Gamma Delta; Brenda Collins, Delta Zeta; and Sandy Keller, Sig Kap and Ethel Fletcher. Each fraternity excluding Tau Kappa Epsilon, will vote for a queen from these candidates. The queen will receive red carnations—the Teke-Ole-impics—and her sorority will receive a trophy.

Admission to the Teke-Ole-impics is free and all students are invited to attend.

Benefit To City

A town, such as Carbondale, benefits from a University, such as Southern. Students may bring several headaches, such as an influx of automobiles, a little enthusiastic noise and a few pre-adult pranks to the townspeople. But the townspeople gain more constructive support than destructive influence from a university.

A city is associated with the university. As the university grows and gains prestige, so does the city.

Students must purchase clothing and food and the stores receive the business. Students need hair-cuts and hair-styling and the local shops get the trade. Local entertainment establishments and restaurants receive income from students and the visitors pulled in by the University. On the other hand, the university affords many intellectual, athletic and entertainment opportunities to local persons. Many of these things are free and the only restriction on area attenders are personal indifferences.

The university offers many parents the opportunity to send their children to college in cases where it would be impossible if the only university were located elsewhere.

Since the university means so many things to local people, it is necessary that mutual understanding and cooperation prevail. The Carbondale city-University liaison committee can achieve this goal.

Remember that Halloween night in your younger years when the dark clouds floated mysteriously overhead and the autumn eve seemed filled with suspense and weird creatures?

You would eagerly dig through the closet and pull dad's old overcoat out. Or you would find moon's aged "Sunday-best" dress which you found hilarious, and garb yourself into a comical character. Then you would place the rubber or cloth mask over your face, giggling in nervous anticipation, and stumble down the steps into the darkness to spook your neighbors.

You would cast an occasional glance toward the silvery moon and hope the witch on her tattered broom would not swoop down and nab you.

But where and how did this fantastic idea begin that filled your mind with ideas of witchcraft and mystic happenings?

As most holidays, Halloween has a religious history. All Saints, a feast of the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches, is Nov. 1. This is the day when the church glorifies God for all his saints, known and unknown. Old names for the occasion are All Hallows and Hallomass, which leads to the present term of Halloween.

The origin of All Saints day probably lies in the common commemoration of martyrs who died in groups or whose names were unknown. In the seventh

40 Attend Third Motel Meeting

More than 40 businessmen from throughout the nation turned out for the third annual Motel Management Clinic Tuesday at Morris Library, Director Don G. Hillman said.

Advance registrations indicated a slight decrease in attendance from the past two clinics.

The meeting was geared for motel owners, managers, employees and those who are contemplating going into the business. No organization or association membership was required for attendance.

The clinic, sponsored by the American Motel Assn. of Southern Illinois and SIU, featured a tour of the area and a dinner with a speech by State Rep. Paul Powell Tuesday.

Salukis Meet Eastern Michigan Tonight; Gun For Second Place And Third Straight

With its sights set on going over the 500 mark for the first time this year, a pepped-up Saluki football game tackles the Hurons of Eastern Michigan tonight at 7 p. m. (CST).

The Salukis of Coach Carmen Piccone flashed their bristling power of old last weekend to overrun Illinois State Normal, 19-8, and push the season record to 3-3 overall and 2-2 in conference.

The superb running of Full back Tom Bruna, Chuck Thayer, and the return to the lineup of Amo Bullocks, combined to give the Salukis the offensive punch promised at pre-season practice but lacking in the first five games.

It will be the 10th meeting between the two league opponents. The Hurons hold a 6-3 edge in the series that dates back to 1950 when the present league was formed with the addition of Eastern Michigan and Central Michigan. The Salukis won last year's game, 13-9.

Eastern's Hurons are 1-4 for the season and 12 in the conference.

Against mutual foes, Southern downed Eastern Illinois, 7-0, and Illinois State, 19-8, while the Hurons lost to Eastern, 32-6, and defeated the Redbirds, 13-7.

Southern's freshman speedster Clarence Walker, still tops the rushing department with 219 yards on 65 carries—4.9 yards per try. Bruna is second with 191 yards on 38 carries for an average of 5.0 yards per clip.

Ron Winter, Carmi quarterback, has completed 19 of 51 passes for 168 yards and one touchdown to lead in that department. End Jim Battle, is the top receiver with 8 grabs for 54 yards.

Quarterback Bob Stone, has punted 37 times for 1,212 yards—32.8 per kick.

Bullocks return to the lineup with a bang, scoring all the touchdowns in the Illinois State win to boost his point total to 30 for the year. Walker is second with 14.

We Goofed, But Harriers Didn't; Down Normal

Captain John Falmer circled a three-and-one-half mile course in a brilliant time of 17:55 Friday, to lead the Salukis Harriers to an overwhelming 16-45 victory over Illinois State Normal University.

Flamer finished 42 seconds in front of Lee King, who finished second 18:37. Don Hequeburg, top freshman of the squad finished third for the Salukis and Carl Meier, veteran of the squad, finished fourth.

The first runner to cross the finish line was Rod Vawter, fifth in an even 19 minutes. The Salukis finished sixth (Fred Arnold) eighth (Art Sommer), and ninth (Mike Brazier).

Southern now stands at 4-1 for the season, losing only to Northern Illinois.

Thursday the Salukis travel to Southeast Missouri for a dual meet.

The new record number of students for fall term comprises the largest single quarter student body in the history of the university.

JV Streak Stopped By Evansville

Evansville's Purple Aces punched across a touchdown in the final period Wednesday and took up a Saluki JV three-game winning streak, 8-0.

The winning score came on Fullback John Titzer's six-yard run around left end on a lateral pass from Quentin Merkle, Purple Ace quarterback. Ron Magnus made a two-point run following the touchdown after Evansville faked a place kick.

The scoring play was set up by Merkle's long aerial to Keith Bunty.

The game ended with a dramatic climax, as the pups marched to the Evansville five-yard stripe, only to be unable to move as time ran out.

Southern's best scoring opportunity came at the midway point of the final period when Charles Reinhardt's long pass slipped out of Mickey Feather's hands and Feather was well beyond all the Evansville defenders.

Both teams showed tremendous defensive strength at various times during the contest. However, the pups' defense was less stable than the Evansville defense.

Neither team showed much of an aerial attack, though the Purple Aces' long, completed pass in the last quarter proved to be instrumental in setting up the game's only touchdown.

Titzer, Evansville's husky fullback, paced the winners' successful ground attack against the pups. Titzer picked up valuable yardage for his team.

Southern's jayvees will close out the season Nov. 9 at Cape Girardeau, Mo., against Southeast Missouri State College.

Score by quarters:

Evansville	0	0	8	—
Southern	0	0	0	—

Longest complete pass-run play of last season was from Bill Norwood to Lane Jenkins goal for 67 yards and a victory against Western Illinois.

Don Miller Forced To Quit Football

Don Miller, one of the biggest sparkplugs in the Saluki football machine, has been forced to give up athletics at Southern.

The pint-sized senior from Cairo was hospitalized late last week as the result of a head injury. Doctors have advised against his further participation in athletics. The head injury was the sixth in the past two seasons for Miller.

Saluki Coach Carmen Piccone reports that Miller will remain with the squad as backfield assistant to back Coach Harry Shay. Miller's attitude is wonderful," Piccone commented. "He wants to help the team as much as possible. Each spirit and drive certainly will be missed."

Miller was on his way to earning his third SIU letter in football this fall, mainly as a defensive specialist. He gained 21 yards the eight times he carried the ball, but saw considerable action with the defensive unit.

At Cairo High School, Miller lettered four years in football, three in basketball and two in track.

Any one interested in going out for varsity wrestling should attend a meeting next Monday at 5 p. m. in room 204 of the gym.

Winter quarter will begin on Monday, Jan. 4.

Construction of gun lockers for residence halls has been delayed. The lockers are being made by the Statesville Branch of the Joliet State Penitentiary.

H. B. Granow, industrial superintendent of the prison, told Asst. Dean of Men Joseph F. Zaleski that the prison had just completed moving the sheet metal shops on the prison grounds, one reason for the delay. Another cause for the holdup was a change in dimensions.

The lockers are to be heavy steel gauge for maximum security, stated Zaleski. They will have 20-gauge doors and 16-gauge sides, with three contact points for each brace, added Zaleski.

The original plan was to place 36 individual lockers in the utility room of each residence hall. The change in dimensions of the lockers may alter the intended allotment per hall. Warden Joseph E. Ragen is awaiting official confirmation of this possible snag.

It is hoped that the lockers will be ready for use by the middle of November, Zaleski said.

At present, University rules forbid hunting and the possession of firearms.

Gun Lockers Soon?

The Intramural Office has divided into four leagues by the announced that flag football will be played on weekends. The leagues are off-campus, fraternity and two mens residence halls, the American and National leagues.

Wesley Foundation of the off-campus league has been dropped from further competition because of two forfeits. Vets Club and Undeclared Theta Xi and Sigma Pi met last night at Thompson Point with the winner taking over undisputed possession of first place in the fraternity league. Sig Pi's record is 3-0 and Theta Xi's record is 2-0.

Flag football teams have been altered the intended allotment per hall. Warden Joseph E. Ragen is awaiting official confirmation of this possible snag.

It is hoped that the lockers will be ready for use by the middle of November, Zaleski said.

At present, University rules forbid hunting and the possession of firearms.

LANGUAGE MADE SIMPLE: NO. 1

In this day of swift international communications, like radio, television, and the raft, it becomes more and more important to be solidly grounded in foreign languages. Accordingly, I have asked the makers of Philip Morris whether I might not occasionally forego levity in this column and instead use it for a lesson in language.

"Of course, silly!" chuckled the makers of Philip Morris, tousing my yellow locks. Oh, grand men they are, just as full of natural goodness as the cigarettes they make, just as clean and fresh, just as friendly, just as agreeable to have along in all times and climes and places. "Of course, fond boy," laughed the makers and tossed me up and down in a blanket until, giggling with giggling, I bade them desist, and then we all had basins of farina and smoked Philip Morris and sang songs until the campfire had turned to embers.

For our first lesson in language we will take up French. We will approach French in the modern manner—ignoring the tedious rules of grammar and concentrating instead on idiom. After all, when we go to France, what does it matter if we can parse and conjugate? What matters is that we should be able to speak idiomatic conversational French.

So, for the first exercise, translate the following real, true-to-life dialogue between two real, true-to-life Frenchmen named Claude (pronounced Cloyd) and Pierre (also pronounced Cloyd).

CLAUDE: Good morning, sir. Can you direct me to the nearest monk?
PIERRE: I have regret, but I am a stranger here myself.
CLAUDE: Is it that you come from the France?
PIERRE: You have right.
CLAUDE: I also. Come, let us mount the airplane and return ourselves to the France.
PIERRE: We must defend from smoking until the airplane elevates itself.
CLAUDE: Ah, now it has elevated itself. Will you have a Philippe Maurice?
PIERRE: Mercy.
CLAUDE: How many years has the small gray cat of the sick admiral?
PIERRE: She has four years, but the tall brown dog of the short blacksmith has only three.
CLAUDE: In the garden of my aunt it makes warm in the summer and cold in the winter.
PIERRE: What a coincidence! In the garden of my aunt too!
CLAUDE: Ah, we are landing. Regard how the airplane depresses itself!
PIERRE: What shall you do in the France?
CLAUDE: I shall make a promenade and see various sights of cultural significance, like the Louvre, the Tomb of Napoleon, and the Eiffel Tower. . . . Why shall you do?
PIERRE: I shall try to pick up the seaweed.
CLAUDE: Long live the France!

Et vive aussi les Marlboros et les Alpines, les cigarettes très bonnes, très agréables, très magnifiques, et les sponsors de cette colonne-la.
