Changed Driving Laws in Effect Today

SIU motorists will have to alter some of their driving habits today as a record number of new traffic regulations go into effect. The new driving laws were passed during the last session of the State Legislature.

The Illinois Bar Association has condensed some of the changes which the average driver is likely to encounter. On the highway, outside of congested areas, signal intention to make a turn for at least 200 feet before the turn.

The old rule was to give a turn signal at least 100 feet before making the turn. The 100-foot rule still applies to in-town turns.

Signal when leaving a parallel parked position. Use the electric turn signal when leaving a parallel parked position on the right hand side of the road.

At night, dim headlights at 500 feet.

Previously, drivers were required to dim headlights when within 350 feet of a vehicle from the opposite direction.

The new law for headlights also states that drivers must dim their lights if there is another vehicle within 300 feet ahead traveling in the same direction.

Pushing is now illegal.

Drivers may push another only in cases of extreme emergency and then only off the road or from any immediate danger.

Alcoholic beverages may be transported only in original packages with the seals unbroken.

It is unlawful to have any alcoholic liquors in containers that indicate use.

Yield to the right when a car is trying to pass on the left and don't speed up.

All passing maneuvers must be completed on the left side of the vehicle being overtaken, except for specific cases when passing on the right is permitted.

There's a limit to interior decorations. Religious or lodge statues not exceeding six inches in height and wearing apparel suspended behind the driver in a manner that will not obstruct his view are the only objects permitted.

Studded tires are permitted only for winter driving.

Previously, studded tires—those equipped with small metallic anti-skid devices imbedded in the rubber—were illegal in Illinois.

Experimental Program

SIU Students Start Training as Police

Four SIU students will begin training Monday for jobs on the Carbondale Police Department as radio dispatchers and complaint officers, Chief Jack Hazel said.

Hazel said the training program will be from 20 to 40 hours and will include complaint report writing, recording in logs as required by the Federal Communications Commission, and briefing on procedures and routines.

The four entering the program are John A. Hudson, a senior from Mt. Carmel; John R. Huffman, a freshman from Carbondale; Bernard J. Peter, a senior from Mt. Carmel, and Albert M. Suguitan, a junior from Chicago.

"This program is in the experimental stage," Chief Hazel said. "I think we have some good men."

The hiring of students is being done in cooperation with the SIU Student Work Office.

Hazel said he hopes this new program will also serve as a liaison between the city police enforcement department and university students.

There are four openings for jobs for dispatchers.

ZOUNDS AND MUSIC—Cindy Nolan, foreground, head twirler, and Bonnie Ostran, regular standard twirler, helped shape up the Marching Salukis during a practice session Friday afternoon. They will perform with the band at today's SIU-Lincoln University game at McAndrew Stadium.

Reaffirms U.S. Stand

LBJ Says Will Stop Bombing If Assured of 'Productive' Talks

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson said Friday night he would stop bombing North Vietnam and meet with President Ho Chi Minh immediately if this would lead to "productive discussion."

But Johnson said Hanoi has not accepted any of this country's proposals, and it is by North Vietnam's choice alone that the war continues.

In sum, Johnson noted, what he was saying to the Hanoi government had previously been said "time and time again" to no avail.

White Sox Out; Tigers Postponed

Phil Ortega pitched a 4-hit shutout to lead the Washington Senators over the Chicago White Sox, 1-0, and eliminate Chicago from the American League pennant race.

Washington's only run, scored in the first, was earned.

The Detroit Tigers double-header with the California Angels was postponed because of bad weather.

At the same time Johnson said that dissent at home will not turn him from his course.

In a major summary and defense of his position in Vietnam, Johnson claimed military progress for the Allied cause, cited leaders of Asian nations as backing the U.S. stand in the conflict, and appealed anew for peace talks.

But his conclusion bore down hard on what he termed Hanoi's mistakes about the nature of domestic debate over the war.

The President's speech was prepared for the National Legislative Conference here.

He said: "First, we must not mislead our enemy. Let him not think that debate and dissent will produce wavering and withdrawal. For they won't."

"Let him not think that protests will produce surrender. Because they won't."

"Let him not think that he will wait us out. For he won't."

Johnson's determination was summed up in four words: "...we shall press forward."

Discussing the stakes involved, the chief executive said "all that we have learned in this tragic century strongly suggests" that a Communist victory in Vietnam would lead to Communist domination of Southeast Asia and "bring a third world war much closer to terrible reality."

Traffic Violations

Get Tickets Monday

University Police will begin giving parking tickets for all violations Monday, Capt. Randal McBride said.

Regulations which will be enforced include parking in unauthorized lots, unregistered cars on campus and parking in loading zones.

Gus Bode

Gus says he's glad the vending machine strike is over, especially if it means somebody will fix the ones that take your money but don't deliver the goods.

Vending Machine Servicemen End 11-Day Strike on Campus

ARA vending machine drivers went back to work Friday after an 11-day strike.

Area management personnel had been servicing machines, including some 300 on the SIU campus.

The International Brotherhood of Teamsters Local 347 was the bargaining agent.

The walkout was reportedly caused by the company's laying off a driver who had refused to work on Saturday.

Police Check Out

Narcotics Rumor

SIU Security Officer Thomas Leffler said he checked with local law enforcement agencies and believes the stories which were circulating on campus yesterday about a raid for narcotics was just a rumor.

Local police said they too received several calls inquiring about the rumor but believe the recent story telling of two SIU students being arrested in Mattoon had started the stories.

Carbondale manager Carl J. Runkel said contract terms were not available from the Carbondale Area Office.

Grand Jury Gets

Narcotics Cases

The cases of two SIU students—among three persons accused with violating federal narcotic laws—has been bound over for action by the Coles County Grand Jury which meets at 9 a.m. Monday.

Charges against the trio include possession of dangerous drugs, violation of the Narcotic Drug Act, and violation of the Hypodermic Syringe Needle Act.

Charged are Richard Green, 18, of Urbana; Miss Diane C. DeClercq, 20, of Kewanee; and, Miss Carolyn M. Ronzani, 25, of Chicago. Green and Miss DeClercq are currently enrolled at SIU and Miss Ronzani is a former student.

The preliminary hearing was held Friday at Charles-

IASA Conference Set at Center

Kerner to Address School Administrators Oct. 9

Governor Otto Kerner will deliver the banquet address when the fall conference of the Illinois Association of School Administrators is held Oct. 8-10 at SIU.

Kerner's speech will be given Monday evening, Oct. 9, in the University Center Ballrooms. It will follow remarks by Wayne A. Stonking, executive secretary of the Illinois Education Association, who will talk on the subject, "A Word from IEA."

The statewide event will begin Sunday evening with the President's Reception in University Center, at which the IASA president, Virgil H. Judge of Mattoon, and Mrs. Judge will head the reception line. Jacob O. Bach of the SIU Department of Educational Administration and Supervision who is hospitality chairman, said reception hosts will include Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jennings of West Frankfort, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Stanley of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Martin of Carbondale, Mr. and Mrs. Taft Baker of Cartersville, Mr. and Mrs. Hewey Tweedy of DuQuoin, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Jones of Joppa, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hood of McLeansboro, Loren Eddleman of Anna, Lee Booth of Herrin, Jacob Whitecotton of Elkhart, and members of the SIU administration and supervision department. There will be entertainment by units from Angel Flight, women's group associated with the SIU Air Force ROTC detachment.

Monday addresses will feature Eugene L. Swearingen of the University of Tulsa, who will talk on "Financing Education in Tomorrow's Society," William Curtis, president of the American Association of School Administrators, and James Redmond, superintendent of the Chicago Public Schools. During the afternoon there will be films on a team teaching experiment and innovative school buildings, after which there will be seminars, "The Public Relations of School Innovations" and "Special Education—Its Impact on Our Schools."

W.E. McAllister of Centuria, IASA president-elect, will preside over a Tuesday morning panel discussion titled "The Future of the IASA." Following this part of the program President Judge will speak on "The President's Prerogative."

The Illinois Conference of Professors of Educational Administration will meet in conjunction with the fall IASA conference. Bach said this session usually is held during one of the afternoons.

Bach said he is arranging tours for wives of educators and recreation events for both men and women who are here for the convention.

Upperclass Honors Program

In English Lists 19 Students

Nineteen SIU students are participating in the upperclass honors program in English this year. The program was started two years ago.

To qualify for honors, students must be second term juniors and have maintained B-plus or better grade averages in English and overall University averages of B or above. An honors committee makes final selections following an oral examination.

The reward for those chosen is specially tailored seminars and a readings course instead of the usual 12-hour sequence of English courses required of majors in the senior year.

At graduation, those who finished with high grades receive "honors" citations on school records and letters of recommendation.

Richard Lawson, director of the program, said that of seven coveted Woodrow Wilson Fellowships won by SIU students in the past two years, two went to English honors participants.

Honor students this year are: William Rudert, Esther Brooks, Glenda Vaughn, Jeanne Rodewald, Gretchen Lingle, Charlene Petersen, Jean-Claude Gaignon, Donna Radakovich, Jeness Yoho, Sharon Stumpf; Edward Fish, Kenneth Zink, Pamela Sabin, Janet Kenmuir, Laurel Walbright, Barbara Allen, Bert Hinchman, Jennifer Raddatz and Glenna Claybaugh.

SIU Grads Reassigned by USAF

Three SIU graduates, now serving in the U.S. Air Force, have received new assignments.

Major Frank D. Mayberry, a 1956 SIU graduate from McLeansboro, has been assigned to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, as a member of the Air Force Systems Command which manages USAF scientific and technical resources to develop new missiles, and aircraft.

Mayberry recently graduated from the physiological training course at Brooks AFB, Tex.

Captain Joe E. Johnson, who previously served with the AFOTC detachment on campus, has begun new duties at Clark Air Base in the Philippines.

Johnson, a native of Mt. Vernon, is assigned to a unit of the Pacific Air Forces, which provides tactical air power supporting the U.S. and its allies in Southeast Asia and the Far East.

A 1967 graduate of Southern, Second Lieutenant Richard G. Hasten has been graduated from the three-week course for ballistic missile early warning systems surveillance office at Keesler AFB, Miss.

Hasten is now stationed at Fort Fisher Air Force Station, N.C., as a member of the Air Defense Command which provides aerospace defense against hostile aircraft and missiles.

Visiting Professor McLean to Help Start Religious Studies Program

Milton D. McLean, noted religious educator and former President of Lincoln College (Ill.), has been appointed visiting professor of philosophy at WIU and will serve as coordinator of a newly organized program of religious studies during its initial phases.

McLean retired this summer from the staff of Ohio State University where he had directed the Religious Affairs Center for 12 years.

He spent the fall of 1965 as a visiting professor in sociology and consultant on religious studies at SIU, and helped conduct a three-day national Consultative Conference on Religious Studies in Tax-Supported Colleges and Universities.

The new program, offered in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, provides for a minor in religious studies, embracing Biblical studies, Western and non-Western religious thought and designated courses in either history, English, philosophy, sociology or psychology.

McLean has written or contributed to more than a half-dozen books on religion and education. He is the co-author of 'The Teaching of Religion in State Universities'.

A native of Tracy, Minn., McLean holds degrees from the University of Minnesota, McCormick Theological Seminary and Union Theological Seminary of Columbia University, and has done doctoral studies at the University of Chicago.

City Police Plan to Test Radar Device

Carbondale police will begin testing a radar speed detection unit next week, according to Chief Jack Hazel.

Hazel said the unit will be aimed at helping police study speed limits, learn speed patterns, and set effective speed controls.

In the past, he said, police cars stationed on certain streets in response to citizen complaints have been spotted by potential speeders.

The new unit will end this problem because it can be placed as far as 1,000 feet from the street.

The unit can track any moving vehicle and is equipped with a graph that charts rates of speed. It can be used either by the police car in which it is placed or in conjunction with a "chase" car, Chief Hazel said.

Hazel, who considers speeding a "serious problem" in Carbondale, said acquisition of the unit for testing was hastened by recent fatal auto accidents in the city.

On September 22, two SIU students were killed and one injured seriously when they were struck by a car on Wall Street.

Signs advising motorists of the presence of the radar unit will be posted at the city limits in accordance with state law, Hazel added.

Drew Pearson to Address Convocations

Drew Pearson, noted columnist and author, will address University Convocations Thursday in Shryock Auditorium. Pearson, born in Evanston, Ill., has been an active figure in American journalism as well as in politics. In 1923 he interviewed "Europe's Twelve Greatest Men." He visited and interviewed Premier Khrushchev, the King and Queen of Greece, President Tito, and Premier Fanfani in 1961.

His travels have taken him to China, Japan, and Siberia in 1922 when he reported results of the Washington Arms Conference. He reported on the anti-foreign strikes in China in 1925, as well as the Sixth Pan-American Conference in Havana in 1928.

He received the Sigma Delta Chi Award for the best Washington journalist of 1942, and was named Father of the Year in 1948. He received the First Order Star of Solidarity from the new Italian Republic and was decorated in the French Legion of Honor. The Knights of Columbus gave him their International Gold Medal in 1948.

An informal coffee hour will be held in the Illinois and Sangamon Rooms of the University Center at 11 a.m. Thursday following the 10 a.m. Convocation.

Shawnee Library Destroyed Friday; Loss $1/3 Million

The building which housed the Shawnee Regional Library in Marion was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning destroying 20,000 to 25,000 books.

The library, which serves 18 counties, was moved from SIU last June.

Estimated loss is listed as between $275,000 to $350,000. The loss to the library system was estimated by Director James Ubel as being between $150,000 and $200,000.

Plans for a new building have been approved for construction west of Carterville.

False Alarm

A false alarm was reported at noon yesterday at the Holden hospital 512 S. Illinois Ave.

According to a spokesman for the city fire department, the alarm was accidentally set off.

The truck, a 1,000 gallon pumper model, will be housed in the University fire station which is expected to be completed in November.

The new fire station will be situated on U.S. 51, adjoining the coal storage yard at the SIU steam generating plant. The 55 by 44-foot structure could house two trucks, but present plans call for only the one pumper.

The SIU fire station will service the University area as well as assist the Carbondale Fire Department.

At present, the University fire truck is being housed at Carbondale's number two station on Oakland Avenue.

"Have a cook-out without charcoal!"

Here's an idea for a "cook-out without charcoal!" Just drive in at the nearest McDonald's Golden Arches, and there you are! Super-fast "carryout" service, and a gilt-edge value that lets you take home a complete meal—McDonald's hamburger, french fries, and a shake—for about fifty-eight cents per person! No fuss. No muss. And a McDonald's meal is a whole lot easier to clean up after than a wicker butter plate!

...Because it will send them a copy of your college paper every day it's printed--for a whole term. With a gift subscription to the Daily Egyptian, your parents will be able to keep abreast of what's going on at SIU--and it might even tell them a couple of things you forget in your letters!

Dad is sure to get a thrill out of watching the Salukis go, go, go (on to victory, we hope), and Mom is sure to get a chuckle out of Gus Bode. And everybody's sure to be interested in the editorial page, reflecting student opinion. And there is campus news and activities and intellectual things and lots more.

So, why don't you just clip out the coupon, mail it in with two bucks (or be a sport, and enclose six dollars for four terms)? Mom, Dad, brothers, sisters, grandmas, grandpas, aunts, uncles, girl friends, boy friends are just a few of the people who might be interested. Mail it in today.

Set Yardage, Receiving Marks

Ends Massey, Ference Extending Records

Every time Saluki ends John Ference and Tom Massey catch a pass today against Lincoln in McAndrew Stadium they will be establishing school records for receptions.

Both receivers own one all-time SIU mark, Ference for most career catches (he's tied with Jim Battle) — 85, and Massey for most yardage gained through receptions — 1,245.

Ference has gained 1,033 yards with his receptions and Massey's record total yardage was gained on 73 catches. So each has a chance of overtaking the other before season's end.

Lincoln Coach Dwight Reed said late in the week, "We don't have a kicker or a passer who has been tried under pressure."

But Reed does have his leading rusher and his leading scorer back from last year's squad, Willie Lewis, a 198-pound right halfback, was the top Tiger rusher in 1966 with 92 carries for 413 yards, a 4.4 average.

His running mate, left half Homer Cavitt, a 185-pounder, was the leading Lincoln scorer last fall. He racked up 26 points.

This Tiger duo hasn't been

quite as productive this year. Lincoln hasn't appeared on the scoreboard in its two losses, 13-0 to Morningside and 37-0 to Arkansas AM&N.

One of Reed's top problems is at quarterback, where Ronald Stuart is the only returning letterman. And, according to the Tiger mentor, "he played just enough to letter last year."

Lincoln's ranks were practically demolished by academic losses before the season started and the Tigers are just now beginning to recover from the loss of seven starters.

Their offensive lineup will look like this today: ends—Jim Kirchner, 200-pounds, and Joe Berryman, 170; tackles—Aaron Martin, 205, and Oliver Holt, 250; guards—Harry Burnett, 240, and James Sullivan, 240; center—Melvin Cross, 220; quarterback—Stuart, 170; halfbacks—Lewis and Cavitt; and fullback—Charles Bolden, 180.

On offense Southern will start: end—Ference, 211, and Massey, 195; tackles—Bob Hudspeth, 275, and Isaac Brigham, 238; guards—Rich Joyce, 210, and Bill Sanders, 203; center—Mike Barry, 214; quarterback—Barry Stine, 201; halfbacks—Roger Kuba, 206, and Charles Pemberton, 179; and fullback—Doug Holmgren, 166.

Game time is 1:30 p.m.

Frazier Benched by Pulled Ligament

Walt Frazier, former Saluki basketball star who was the top draft choice of the New York Knickerbockers National Basketball Association club, will miss a week to 10 days of practice and preseason competition due to a pulled ankle ligament, according to an Associated Press story.

Frazier, who was voted Most Valuable Player in last year's National Invitational Tournament, signed a one-year no-cut contract with the Knicks after his junior season.

The Knickerbockers are presently training at their Wrightstown, N. J., camp. They opened the exhibition season this week.

Frazier is one of six trying to earn a starting position with the Eastern Division team.

There has been recent rumor concerning a possible trade of one of these backcourt men for an experienced forward.

Army Gets Hurler

BOSTON(AP)—Bill Landis, a rookie left-handed pitcher, has left the Boston Red Sox to report for 22 weeks of active duty in the Army.

Griffith Wins Title Decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Emile Griffith, fighting with the desperation of a scorned ex-champion, ended the five-month reign of Italy's Nino Benvenuti as world middleweight king Friday and won a majority decision in a 15-round title match at Shea Stadium.

Snatching back the title he had lost last April 17 in a tremendous upset, Griffith used a solid left jab and a booming body attack to even matters with the blood stained Italian, who bled from the nose throughout the bitterly fought match.

Managers' Meeting Scheduled Monday
