SIU Gymnasts Trailing In NCAA Meet

National Championship To Be Decided Tonight

By Tom McNamara
PITTSBURGH, Pa.

SIU is in second place behind Michigan after Friday night's preliminaries and six events of the 21st annual NCAA Gymnastic championship.

With preliminaries still to be held in still rings and tumbling, Michigan has an unofficial point total of 86 compared to SIU's 40 1/2. In the all-around event Rusty Mitchell holds second place and Bruno Klaus is in tenth.

Klaus, 1961 NCAA high bar champion, failed to qualify in the event today as he missed his routine. He started his routine in brilliant fashion but then on a "giant vault" slipped and had to start his routine over.

Dennis Wolf, sophomore from Pico Rivera, Calif., is tied for third place in the event with Arno Lascari of Michigan.

Mitchell was Southern's only qualifier in the free exercise event. In the parallel bars Mitchell qualified fifth, and Wolf qualified seventh.

In the long horse event the Salukis qualified three men. Bill Hladik, another SIU sophomore, is tied for seventh place. Orlofsky is ninth and Mitchell is tenth.

Steve Pasternak qualified sixth and Orlofsky eighth in the side horse event. Pasternak's performance pleased Bill Meade, SIU gymnastic coach, because the 19-year-old sophomore was extremely nervous prior to competing.

John Rush and Charles Woerz did not compete for the Salukis because of bad knees.

Rush was ready to compete in the tumbling event when he re-injured his knee in a warm up session.

Even though the Salukis are behind Michigan so far, Meade still has hopes of pulling closer to the Wolverines. The finals in all eight events will be held tonight starting at 8 p.m.

Michigan surprised everyone here with its depth. The Wolverines qualified 11 men while Southern qualified only nine. These standings do not include the still rings or tumbling events because they were not completed by Egyptian press time.

Larose surprised teammate Lascari and SIU's Orlofsky in the all-around event. Larose was expected to finish behind Orlofsky and Lascari and Penn State's Tom Seward.

SIU, which never placed in a NCAA gymnastic meet until 1959, was a favorite to take its first national championship this year. After placing second for the past two years, it appears likely that the Salukis will bring home their third consecutive second place trophy rather than the coveted and elusive championship.

The team is expected back in Carbondale tomorrow. The arrival time is not known.

Draft Boards To Be Told Of Discipline

Information regarding major disciplinary actions against students will be forwarded to the students' draft boards, according to Joseph Zaleski, assistant dean of student affairs.

Selective Service boards currently defer from the draft students who are making satisfactory progress in school. Zaleski said he does not know if the disciplinary status of a student is taken into consideration in the "satisfactory progress" or if the draft boards will make use of the disciplinary reports.

However, the information will be made available to the boards, he said. Minor disciplinary actions, such as reprimands, will not be reported, he said, but reports of dismissals and suspensions will be made.

Power Failure Hits University

Most of the University and the southeast section of Carbondale were without power for more than an hour yesterday afternoon.

A Central Illinois Public Service spokesman said there was "trouble" in a substation in that section of the city. However, he was not able to describe just what caused the power to go off.

For residents of the southeast section of the city including the University's Southern Hills apartments, it was the second day in a row for utility headaches.

A break in the watermain supplying that area left most of the homes waterless from 11 a.m. Thursday until 3 a.m. Friday.

A spokesman for the city said the break occurred at Park and Wall streets where a bridge is under construction.

Student Leader Deadline April 5

Deadline for applications for New Student Week Leaders has been extended to April 5, according to Bonnie Gardner, chairman of the event.

Application forms may be picked up at the University Center information desk and should be returned there as soon as possible before the deadline.

Undergrad English Exam

The undergraduate English qualifying examination will be given at 2 p.m. Monday in Furr Auditorium in University School. Pre-registration is not required, however students must bring their ID cards.

Graduate Faculty Work Load Being Surveyed By Committee

A self-study of the work loads of graduate faculty members was launched at SIU recently by a committee appointed to study the framework of all the existing graduate programs.

President Delyte W. Morris, who inaugurated the study in advance of a visit by a North Central Association reviewing team, said if cases of overloading and understaffing are turned up, graduate work may be deferred temporarily.

C. Addison Hickman of Southern's Department of Economics has been asked to serve as chairman of the self-study group. The committee is composed of graduate faculty members receiving the highest number of nominations in their own fields.

In addition to Hickman, others from the Carbondale campus are: George E. Axtelle, Education; James G. Benzinger, English; Herman M. Haag, Agriculture; Frank L. Klingberg, Government; W. C. McDaniel, Mathematics.

Also from the Edwardsville campus, William C. Bennewitz, Science and Technology; Robert Wayne Duncan, Humanities; and Patrick Riddleberger, Social Science.

Paul Isbell Appointed New Executive Director Of Business Affairs For SIU

Appointment of Paul W. Isbell to succeed John S. Rendleman as executive director of business affairs was announced today by William J. McKeefery, acting vice president for operations at Southern Illinois University.

Isbell has served Southern since 1952 as director of auxiliary enterprises.

Rendleman was assigned new duties as special assistant to President Delyte W. Morris and general counsel of the University by the board of trustees at its meeting March 6. He moved Thursday to the president's office building.

Isbell is moving this weekend to the vice president's office building.

No successor to Isbell as director of auxiliary enterprises has yet been named, McKeefery said.

Isbell, 49, came to Southern when the office of auxiliary enterprises was created, to manage the University's

Million Dollar Bosses To Speak Here Wednesday

The opportunities of becoming a president of a million dollar business before age 35 will be told to SIU students and faculty by a group of young presidents of such businesses at a panel session to be held on Wednesday in the Studio Theater at 4 p.m.

The participating executives are members of the Young Presidents Organization of St. Louis, which is a branch of a national group composed of individuals who, before age 35, attained the presidency of a company with sales of a million dollars or more a year.

E.M. O'Neill, president of the General Grocer Company of St. Louis, will be chairman of the panel.

Each panel member will tell how the American economic system helped him to obtain his position and advance in his field of business. After the presentations, there will be an open question and answer session.

Free copies of the booklet, "How To Get A Job With A Future," will be distributed at the panel session.

All University students and faculty are invited to attend.

On May 16, Dr. Lillian Gilbreth, "world's foremost woman engineer," will be the guest speaker on the last program in this year's School of Business lecture series.

Free Tutor Service Planned

A new program is being developed by the University Center Programming Board which will provide a free tutoring service to students who want to improve their scholastic standing.

Since the program is essentially for the students and by the students, able students who want to help the cause of scholarship in an intellectual atmosphere, must volunteer to do the tutoring.

The Leadership and Training committee of the Board believes there are these graduate and undergraduate students who will offer to help.

Subjects to be offered in this service are freshman English, mathematics, chemistry and physics.

The tutoring service will operate in the evenings in the University Center.

The Leadership Committee has asked that all students interested in either acting as student tutors or seeking academic assistance, should turn in their names to Mrs. D. Kaplan at the Activities Development Center.

"The worth of the tutor program will be determined by the Student Body response," the committee stated.

Two Leave School Over Stolen Chairs

Two students were asked to withdraw from the University after the theft of chairs from Dowdell dormitories at the end of last quarter.

Robert E. Williams, an 18-year-old freshman from Tuscola, and Billy Joe Tincher, a 19-year-old sophomore from Robinson, were fined $30 each and given 30-day suspended jail sentences by Police Magistrate Robert Schwartz, according to University disciplinary officials.

Authorities said the two students had the chairs loaded in a car and were ready to leave for home at the end of last quarter when a resident fellow saw the chairs and notified the Security Office.

New Quick Color Film To Be Shown At Photo Fair

Four rolls of Polaroid Land Camera's new color film will be used in a demonstration at the 1963 Photo Fair which opens at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the University Center ballroom.

The new film has been available only in Florida so far, according to William C. Horrell, associate professor of printing and photography.

Text exposures will be made with the new film to show the effect of under and over-exposure and pictures will be taken of visitors at the Fair, Horrell added.

Angus McDougall, associate editor for photography for International Harvester, will be the featured speaker at the Fair.

Some 55 photographers have entered more than 500 photographs in this year's fair. Prizes will be awarded in 11 categories. Prize-winning photographs will be displayed in the University Center.

Is Tropic Star for you?

College girls seem to know what they want. We get a lot of ideas about ring styling from American campuses. If there is such a thing as a consensus, it would sound like this: conservative styling, with a difference.

That's what we've designed into Tropic Star...the newest of the beautiful Artcarved diamond engagement rings. Like all Artcarved rings, it's styled for lasting beauty...guaranteed in writing for permanent value. Is Artcarved's beautiful new Tropic Star for you? See for yourself.

Dances, Concert, Lectures Highlight Busy Campus Weekend

The swingin', twistin' sounds of the Dawn Capris band will provide music to 'bust' into spring term with a dance at University Center tonight.

The dance committee of the University Center Programming Board has named the dance, "Swing Into Spring." It will be held in the Roman Room from 8 p.m. to midnight.

To new students the committee stresses the important reminder that all dances are free.

Unclassified Student Advancement starts off at 9 a.m. in Ballroom C of the University Center today.

VII Open House continues into the second day starting at 9 a.m. and closing at 3 p.m. Special buses will leave from the Center at 9:30 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. No charge for the bus.

A Ph.D. in Education examination has been scheduled for Library Auditorium starting at 8 a.m.

There will be a session of College Bowl testing in Furr Auditorium starting at 1 p.m.

A ping pong and billiards tournament will start at 2 p.m. today. People interested must sign up at the desk in the Olympic Room.

Horseback riding will get underway at Little Grassy today weather permitting. A bus will leave from in front of the Center at 2 p.m. to take riders to Grassy. A charge of $1.00 an hour is made for riding.

"David and Bathsheba," starring Gregory Peck, Susan Hayward, and Raymond Massey, will be shown at Furr Auditorium tonight starting at 6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

Swimming, weight lifting and free-play are scheduled for students' recreational pleasure today.

Co-recreational swimming will be in session at the Pool from 1-5 p.m. Weight lifting will be held in the Quonset Hut and free-play (games) in both men's and women's gyms from 1-5 p.m.

The Glee Club will hold a rehearsal in Shryock Auditorium at 6:30 p.m.

Three Center Programming Board committees have scheduled meetings this afternoon. The Spring Festival Miss Southern Contest committee, Room H at 1 p.m.; the Special Interests Committee, Room C at 2:30 p.m.; and the Special Events committee at 1 p.m. in Room F of the Center.

Pi Lambda Theta, women's education honorary, is having a luncheon in the Mississippi Room of the Center at 12:30 p.m. and a reception in the Family Living Laboratory in the Home Economics Building at 2 p.m.

MARJORIE LAWRENCE

The University Glee Club will be the featured artists at the 4 p.m. Sunday Concert to be given in Shryock Auditorium. The musical group will appear under the direction of Robert Kingsbury.

Marjorie Lawrence former Metropolitan Opera singer and research professor of music, will be soloist.

Jerome S. Handler will conduct the first Sunday Seminar of the spring quarter at 8 p.m. in the Ohio Room. The discussion subject is "Could Your Children be Communists?" It is open to all students and faculty.

Peter Spurbeck, cellist, will explore his musical talents at the Creative Insights program to be held in the Gallery Lounge of the University Center at 7:30 Sunday. This is another weekly program at Southern.

Activities at the Student Christian Foundation Sunday will include a Hootenanny, an informal group participation session with folk music. Interested students are invited as participants or observers. It will start at 5:30 p.m.

A movie sponsored by the Southern Film Society at 6:30 and again at 8:30 p.m. The film is "The Informer," starring Victor McLaglen and Preston Foster.

The University Center Ballroom will be opened at 2:30 p.m. for a Photo Fair Display.

Lessons in bridge and knitting will be resumed in the new quarter at the University Center this Sunday.

Bridge will be taught to novices and experts at 2 p.m. in Room C.

Recreational activities Sunday include men's intramural weightlifting at the Quonset Hut from 1-5 p.m.; co-ed swimming at the Pool also from 1-5 p.m.; and a meeting of the Rifle Club from 2 to 5 p.m. at the range on the 4th floor of Old Main. All interested students are invited to attend.

English Department

Schedules 2 Lectures

The English Department has scheduled two lectures on campus for Monday, Marvin Mudrick will discuss "Fiction Since World War II," in the Studio Theater at 3 p.m. and a different topic, "Colette, Claudine, and Willy," in the Family Living Laboratory at 8 p.m.

Foundations Open Programs

The religious foundations at SIU are beginning their spring quarter activities this weekend.

The Wesley Forum meets at the Wesley Foundation Sunday evening for an evaluation of last quarter's programs and a preparation for the presentations of this quarter. Titled "It's All in the Way You Look At It," program goals will be considered through role playing.

According to David West and Robert Harmon, co-chairmen for the program, individual students will assume attitude types in discussing the role of the Wesley Foundation as it ministers to the campus.

The unstructured play will follow the supper at 5:30 p.m.

A "Hootenanny" will be featured at the first Supper Club meeting of the spring term at the Student Christian Foundation.

The supper begins at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday. The charge for the meal is 50¢.

Students are invited to bring their musical instruments and their voice.

Gamma Delta will open its activities with a business and discussion session Sunday at 7 p.m. in the Lutheran Student Center, 700 S. University.

The discussion topic will be "Sex Education As A Contributing Factor Toward A Successful Marriage."

Gerald Wiechmann, a graduate student in Health Education, will be the discussion leader. A film connected with the topic will also be presented.

SIU Baptist Plan B-High Weekend

At least 70 high school students are expected to take advantage of B-High Weekend, April 5-7, at the Baptist Student Union.

The Baptist Student Union is sponsoring the event in order to acquaint high school students with the activities of the BSU. The theme for the weekend is "Up Perspective."

The program for the high school students includes a Get-Acquainted Party on Friday evening. Saturday's events include a morning worship service, a tour of the SIU campus, a picnic at Giant City State Park, and a talent show in the evening.

On Sunday morning the students will worship in local churches. BSU members Jean Lobenstein and Terry Peterson are the co-chairmen of the activities.

Coaching 14 Years:

Bill Meade's Confident Team Will Be Champs

Bill Meade has been coaching gymnastics for 14 years but there is one thing that has avoided his grasp. The National Collegiate Gymnastic Championship is the prize possession of the nation's coaches which Meade wants badly.

"We have two silver second place trophies," Meade said enroute to Pittsburgh, Pa., where this year's NCAA gymnastics championships are to be held.

"I'm confident that this is the year we can win it," Meade said with a cautious optimism. "We are physically fit and mentally ready to start the drive for the national title.

"The boys are hungry and will not settle for anything short of the national title," Meade added enthusiastically.

Meade is in his seventh season of coaching at Southern after seven years at North Carolina. He began coaching at North Carolina in 1949 where he remained until coming to SIU in the fall of 1956.

Meade in just seven years has converted the Salukis into national contenders. Southern began gymnastics in 1955 when it lost both of its meets under Tom De Carlo.

De Carlo was replaced by Meade and SIU has been winning ever since. Meade has a 50-22 record at Southern including 18 straight victories dating back to 1961. He also has one National AAU team championship and two NCAA second place ribbons to his credit.

In his comparatively few years at SIU, Meade has attracted several of the country's top-flight prospects and is expecting rich dividends this weekend for his efforts. Only the National Collegiate Championship would completely satisfy Meade's appetite.

Volleyball Rosters Due On Monday

The Intramural office has announced that team rosters for intramural volleyball are due Monday. A meeting will be held for managers of the volleyball teams Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Men's Gym.

A team must have a representative at the meeting or else the team will forfeit one game. A $2 entry fee is due at the time of the meeting. Each team is required to have a minimum of eight players.

The volleyball tournament will start Tuesday, April 2nd.

Intramural softball rosters are due April 11th and are to be turned in to the Intramural office. A meeting of all managers will be held on April 11th at 4 p.m. in the Men's Gym. A $2 entry fee is due at this time.

Saluki Wrestler On TV Show Today

Southern's Larry Kristoff will appear on ABC's Wide World of Sports when a taped version of the NCAA wrestling championships will be aired today.

One of the highlights of the tournament, which was held on March 21-23 at Kent, Ohio, was the Unlimited class. Kristoff fought his way to the finals of that weight class before losing on a referee's decision to Jim Nance of Syracuse.

Terry Finn was the only other Saluki entry.

Golf And Tennis Teams Face Strong Schedule

With SIU's tennis coach Dick LeFevre and golf coach Lynn Holder each anticipating peak seasons, the Salukis have carded exceptionally strong 1963 schedules.

Both squads made auspicious debuts last week while on spring tours in the south. LeFevre's outfit blanked Ohio State 9-0 at Miami, Fla., and Holder's group missed the team championship in a 10-club tournament at Mobile, Ala., by a single stroke.

SIU's tennis team opened its season officially at Tulsa yesterday and meets virtually all of the top teams in the Midwest before climaxing its season by participating in the NCAA university division championship meet for the first time.

Saluki golfers, meanwhile, open at home April 3 against Southeast Missouri State and have such opponents as Tulsa, Lamar Tech, Memphis State, Mississippi, St. Louis University, Wisconsin and Notre Dame on their agenda.

Complete SIU schedules follow:

Tennis--April 5-6, quadrangular meet at Minnesota with Iowa State and Wheaton completing the field; April 11, Notre Dame; April 12, Iowa; April 13, Western Michigan; April 18, Wisconsin; April 19-20, Lamar Tech; April 26-27, quadrangular meet at Kansas City, Mo., with Kansas, Oklahoma State and Wichita completing the field; May 6, at Northwestern; May 7, at Indiana; May 18, at Cincinnati; May 21, Washington U. of St. Louis; May 25, at Notre Dame.

Golf--April 3, Southeast Missouri; April 8-9, Illinois State Normal; April 10, at Southeast Missouri; April 15, at Tulsa; April 19-20, Lamar Tech; April 26, at Memphis State; April 27, at Mississippi; April 29, St. Louis U.; May 3, at Wisconsin; May 7, at St. Louis U.; May 13, at Notre Dame.

Kennedy Confers With Aids On Cuban Shooting Incident

WASHINGTON

President Kennedy and his top advisors on national security affairs yesterday discussed the implications of the latest attack on an American vessel by Cuba-based jet fighters.

The State Department announced two messages had been received from the Cuban government saying there had been "no intention" of shooting at the American ship and that the planes "probably fired in error" while looking for a "suspect boat."

By coincidence, the meeting of the executive committee had been scheduled before the two jets made firing passes Thursday at the motor ship Floridian, in international waters off Cuba's north coast.

The Army announced yesterday that three anti-aircraft missile battalions sent to Florida during last fall's Cuban crisis will remain there permanently to bolster air defenses. Officials said the action had been under consideration for some time and had no connection with Thursday's shooting incident.

WASHINGTON

Former President Eisenhower yesterday called for deep cuts in President Kennedy's request for $108 billion in new appropriation-including money for defense and space.

In a letter to Rep. Charles A. Hallack of Indiana, Eisenhower said $10 to $12 billion could be cut from spending authority next year "without injuring any necessary authority." He said it would be "fiscal recklessness" to accept "a massive deficit and then simultaneously embark upon lavish new spending and a high tax cut."

Rice Leads Workshop At Lincoln University

W. Manion Rice, assistant professor of journalism, is conducting a high school journalism workshop this week at Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo.

This is the third consecutive year he has been in charge of the program which attracts high school students from all over the Midwest and South.

SAN DIEGO, Calif.

A six-man court yesterday began deliberation in the trial of 33-year-old Carlton S. Slay, who is accused of slugging and choking recruits.

WASHINGTON

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says Bomarc anti-aircraft missiles in Canada and the United States could be useful in drawing Soviet missile fire away from other targets.

McNamara's statement, given to a House subcommittee in secret session six weeks ago but released yesterday, could inflame the Canadian election campaign.

MARKING ON THE CURVE—AND WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT

Twokey Crimscoot was a professor. Choate Sigafoos was a sophomore. Twokey Crimscoot was keen, cold, brilliant. Choate Sigafoos was loose, vague, adenoideal. Twokey Crimscoot believed in diligence, discipline, and marking on the curve. Choate Sigafoos believed in elves, Julie London, and thirteen hours of sleep each night.

Yet there came a time when Twokey Crimscoot—mentor, sage, and savant—was thoroughly outthought, outfoxed, outmaneuvered, outplayed, and out-witted by Choate Sigafoos, sophomore.

"You and your ideas!"

It happened one day when Choate was at the library studying for one of Mr. Crimscoot's exams in sociology. Mr. Crimscoot's exams were murder—plain, flat murder. They consisted of one hundred questions, each question having four possible answers—A, B, C, and D. You had to check the correct answer, but the trouble was that the four choices were so subtly shaded, so intricately worded, that students more clever by far than Choate Sigafoos were often set to gibbering.

So on this day Choate sat in the library poring over his sociology text, his tiny brow furrowed with concentration, while all around him sat the other members of the sociology class, every one studying like crazy, every one scared and pasty. Choate looked sadly at their stricken faces. "What a waste!" he thought. "All this youth, this verve, this bounce, chained to dusty books in a musty library! We should be out singing and dancing and cutting didoes on the greensward! Instead we are here."

Then, suddenly, an absolute gasser of an idea hit Choate. "Listen!" he shouted to his classmates. "Tomorrow when we take the exam, let's all—every one of us—check Choice 'A' on every question—every one of them."

"Huh?" said his classmates.

"Oh, I know that Choice 'A' can't be the right answer to every question," said Choate. "But what's the difference? Mr. Crimscoot marks on the curve. If we all check the same answers, then we all get the same score, and everybody in the class gets a 'C'."

"Hmm," said his classmates. "So why should we knock ourselves out studying?" said Choate. "Let's get out of here and have a ball!"

So they all ran out and lit Marlboro Cigarettes and had a ball, as indeed, you will too when you light a Marlboro, for if there ever was a cigarette to lift the spirit and gladden the heart, to dispel the shades of night, to knot up the ravelled sleeve of care, to put spring in your gait and roses in your cheeks, it is filtered Marlboros—firm and pure and fragrant and filled with rich, natural, golden tobacco. And, what's more, this dartin' smoke comes in soft packs that are actually soft and flip-top boxes that actually flip.

Well sir, the next morning the whole class did what Choate said, and sure enough, they all got C's, and they picked Choate up and carried him on their shoulders and sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and plied him with sweetmeats and Marlboros and girls and put on buttons which said "I DOTE ON CHOATE."

But they were celebrating too soon. Because the next time shrewd old Mr. Crimscoot gave them a test, he did not give them one hundred multiple choice questions. He only gave them one question—to wit: write a 30,000 word essay on "Crime Does Not Pay."

"You and your ideas," they said to Choate and tore off his caplets and broke his sword and drummed him out of the school. Today, a broken man, he earns a living as a can-shaft in Toledo.

At the top of the curve of smoking pleasure, you'll find Marlboro Cigarettes, available at every tobacco counter in all fifty States of the U'nion.
