SIU Trustees Approve Annexation to City Of Thompson Point, Group Housing Area

Annexation to the City of Carbondale of a section of SIU's campus, including Thompson Point and Small Group Housing, has been approved by the Board of Trustees.

The Board, meeting in Edwardsville, acted on University President Delyle W. Morris' recommendation.

Annexation is pending final approval by the Carbondale City Council.

Included in the annexation is an area bordered on the north by Chautauqua and on the south by the Reservoir Road. The west boundary is McLafferty Road.

On the east, the boundary starts at the north and follows the Campus Loop road beginning at Lake street and running to just short of the SIU Arena, then it turns south and west alternately to the Reservoir Road back to McLafferty. Besides the housing areas, the annexation includes the construction sites of the Communications and Technology Buildings.

Annexation would help the University qualify for federal aid to build low-rent housing for married students and faculty members, if the city accepts the annexation the University may begin construction of this housing by next fall, John S. Rendleman, vice president for business affairs, said.

The University contains buildings 400 four-family homes, of and three bedroom rooms, at a cost averaging $10,000 each. However, plans may be changed to build multi-story apartment buildings.

It is estimated that the city will receive an additional 3000 motor fuel tax annually, the city gets motor fuel tax from the state and the basis of city population.

This amount would be increased with the addition of married student homes.

The University may continue to maintain ares within the annexed area. Fire protection would be provided free by the city, however, the University pays $600 a fire call in areas outside the city, D. Blanney Miller, Carbondale Mayor, expressed some disappointment that an earlier proposal by the University administration that a second housing area was not considered by the board.

The area would be included the University Park housing area, which will house nearly 2500 students when completed this fall, Southern Hills, and a planned second stage of University Park will be built. This area would bring Carbondale's total 6000 000 a year in motor fuel tax income when all housing is finished.

Class Schedules Resume; Late Registration Opens

Pope Asks Birth Control Unit To Conclude Study Urgently

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope VI has told a Vatican birth control commission to conclude its work urgently and courageously, without leaving Roman Catholics "exposed to uncertainties."

His remarks — published in a Vatican announcement that broke the secrecy surrounding the work of the commission — appeared to be an exhortation to its members to overcome reported divisions concerning use of the new contraceptive pills.

The Pope’s speech and the first Vatican communiqué on the commission’s work since it was established about eight months ago made clear that its work were beyond the pills to encompass all population growth problems, but use of the pills was clearly a key issue.

Until Monday, the Vatican press office and newspaper, L'Observatore Romano, had not mentioned the commission. Its work was conducted in secret, its members had never been publicly named.

But the communiqué disclosed that an American, Archbishop Leo Blin of St. Paul, Minn., had presided over its meetings and that a Belgian, the Rev. Henry De Kiepert, was its secretary general.

The words came with reports the commission might not be able to agree on a recommendation on the birth control pills.

EL COBRE, Chile (AP) — Survivors sobbed their fearful stories Monday in this tiny mining village buried beneath tons of rubble in Chile’s worst earthquake in five years. Their walls and the roof of a few pieces of earth-moving machinery broke because they were not able to agree on a recommendation on the birth control pills.

Entrance Requirement Hiked For Out-of-State Students

Acting on the recommendations of the University and Faculty councils, the SIU Board of Trustees has charged admissions rules to stiffen requirements on out-of-state applicants to allow earlier action on applications from top-ranking high school students.

Effective with the fall quarter of 1965, out-of-state applicants must have ranked in the upper 40 per cent of their high school classes before, out-of-state applicants needed only to be in the upper half of their high school classes.

Lower ranking students will be admitted only if they make exceptional scores on entrance examinations and will be granted entry only during the summer term on academic probation.

Several years ago, Garrett continued, "only about 5 per cent of the students who registered with us failed to get into a college. Last year, the figure was about 10 per cent, and I suspect that this year it may approach 15 per cent."

SIU Gymnasts Bow To Penn State Team

By Joe Cook
Staff Writer

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.—The old saying, “What goes up must come down,” was never truer than when the Nittany Lions of Penn State knocked off the defending champion Saluki gymnasts 66 1/2-53 1/2 in the Midwestern semifinals.

Penn State will travel to Carbondale to the finals this weekend and will meet the Western winner, the University of Washington, for the NCAA Championship.

Penn State was at its best Saturday night as the underdog Salukis turned in their best scores of the season. After three events the Salukis were ahead 28-20, but the Nittany Lions, with the help of the highly partisan, standing-room-only crowd of 7,750, scored a second-place finish in high bar, parallel bars and long horse. Southern had three first-place finishes, two by Frank Schmitz and one by Bill Wolf.

Schmitz was in his usual good form as he turned in winning scores of 95 1/2 in free exercise and 97 on the trampoline line and finished a 96 on the long horse. Wolf took the rings with a 96 1/2.

Coach Bill Meade made no allusions about the Salukis’ defeat as he stated after the meet that Penn State had the better team and should be favored to win the finals.

“I was really proud of the boys,” said Meade. “They turned in their finest performances of the year.”

A check of the final statistics showed Meade’s statement to be correct as the majority of the Saluki performers turned in scores in the low 90’s.

Brent Williams turned in scores of 90 1/2, 93 and 94 in free exercise, trampoline and long horse respectively, yet all he had to show for his evening’s work was a second-place finish on the trampoline and two fourth-place finishes in the other events.

Mike Boegler had the same misfortune as he turned in a 91 1/2 on the all-around on the other four events plus the all-around event was paced by senior Mike Jacobson, Jacobson in addition to his all-around victory over Souther’s Larry Lindauer scored a first in side horse and parallel bars.

Bill Wolf turned in his best performances of the year with a 86 1/2 on the all-around and high bar and a 90 on the parallel bars, but not finish high on the side horse.

Jim Culhane and Pete Saponaro inflicted the other damage in the Salukis’ armor as Culhane won the high bar and Saponaro took long horse.

“The crowd didn’t bother us, but I think it had a positive influence on the performances of some of their gymnasts,” Meade said.
Swim Squad Ninth in NCAA Finals

By Roy Franke

Coach Ralph Casey and his SIU swimming squad can sit back and bate in their success today.

Casey’s Salukis who at one time weren’t even sure they’d get a chance to swim in the national championships, did all but the impossible as they finished ninth in the classiest field ever in the classiest NCAA swim field in history.

“It was unbelievable,” said Casey Monday. He couldn’t have thought his team could be so good.

The eight-man squad picked up 43 points to edge their way into the top 10 in the big affair for the first time in SIU history.

Salukis were shat­tered like glass, Tom Mc­Aneny, the giant distance ace who led them there, said Monday. He couldn’t have believed it himself.

The incredible rags to riches story. The junior personally accounted for 23 of SIU’s 50 points. McAneny had been bothered by various ailments all season which had cur­tail­ed his workouts.

Along with the scoring perfor­mances, the Salukis also had two near misses as they just failed to place in both the medley and freestyle relays.

The medley relay of Bob O’Callaghan, Ted Petras, Miles and Don Shaffer just lacked by 1.1 second of a second of being in the money. Their time was 1:43.18.

The freestyle relay quartet of Mike Roberts, Shaffer, Mc­Aneny and Reinhold Westen­reider also were in the cutted 18-second zone as they shot up as well in 3:17.4.

The victory.

O’Callaghan and team cap­tain Ted Petras also entered individual events but failed to place. Petras swam the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:03.8 while O’Callaghan had the second best time of his career, 57.0, in the 100-yard back stroke.

Northern Southern Indiana triumphed 285-278 271 to take the team title with Michigan third with 221 points.

Roundout the top ten were Yale 113 1/2, Ohio State 91 1/2, Michigan State 90, Southern Methodist 72 1/2, UCLA, 51 1/2 and SIU, Oregon and North Carolina State with 41 each.

When the three-day affair drew to a close Saturday, the eight American and nine NCAA records had fallen.
