STC shrugs off Walker veto of $3.6 million

By Jeff Jonett
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

The School of Technical Careers (STC) didn't need the $3.6 million, anyway, Dave Saunders, STC information director said Tuesday.

"We couldn't spend the money this year even if we did have it," he explained.

Saunders was talking about the $3.6 million on SIU's appropriation tabbed for construction costs of an on-campus

STC building, that Gov. Dan Walker vetoed Monday.

The parts of SIU's appropriation signed by the governor include a $63,000 allotment to pay for planning the STC building, a Walker aide said Tuesday.

Construction funds were vetoed because they exceeded the level agreed upon with the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) and because plans for the project have not been drawn yet, the aide said.

Saunders said the funds cut wouldn't delay the STC building since "we've been going on the assumption he (Walker) would veto it."

SIU and IBHE officials had agreed to request funds for planning this year and for construction next year, Saunders said.

House Minority Leader Clyde Choate, (D-Anna) added the estimated construction cost to the SIU appropriations bill when it was in the house, Saunders said.

Also included in Walker's $351.8 million vetoes was a reduction of pay raises for SIU employees from eight to five per cent.

Dale Knight, SIU vice president for administration and campus treasurer, indicated Tuesday the five per cent pay boosts would be made effective July 1 and the increase will be included in the paychecks starting Aug. 1.

Shade of difference

On a warm summer day, two children wistfully eye the shade covering two rather solid youngsters at Old Main Mall fountain. Camera angle and telephoto lens make it appear that Alice Herman and Chris Newman, both 4, share the umbrella space, but shadow and light make it clear they're standing on the outside of the fountain. Honorary degree for Gray recommended by Sullivan

By Bill Layne
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

Student Body President Dennis Sullivan has recommended that an honorary degree be awarded to Rep. Kenneth Gray (D-West Frankfort).

In a letter to various administrative personnel, Sullivan cited "the outstanding contributions made by him (Gray) to Southern Illinois merits a recognition higher than a simple award."

Gray is retiring from politics after 20 years in the House. He was hospitalized about a year ago after a heart attack.

Sullivan said Tuesday that Gray is a "self-made man" and was elected without substantial financial backing.

"He's one of the few common people to get into politics and make it without having family money behind him.

GOP lawmaker pledges to vote for impeachment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Lawrence J. Hogan of Maryland, a Republican member of the House Judiciary Committee, announced Tuesday he will vote to impeach President Nixon.

"I have come to the conclusion that Richard M. Nixon has, beyond a reasonable doubt, committed impeachable offenses which, in my judgment, are of sufficient magnitude that he should be removed from office," Hogan said.

"The evidence convinces me that my president has lied repeatedly," he added.

Hogan, 45, who is running for governor of Maryland, made his announcement the day before committee debate was scheduled on proposed articles of impeachment.

The judiciary panel scheduled the opening session of its official debate of the impeachment of President Nixon for Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

The proceedings will be televised live on ABC-TV and on various Public Broadcasting System stations.

The National Public Radio system has said it will carry the debate live from start to finish. CBS has said its radio network will also carry the debate live but will break away for its regular six-minute newscasts every hour.

NBC Radio and ABC Radio have said they will air the debate live only when developments warrant. The Mutual Broadcasting System has said it plans to carry highlights of each day's debate in special evening programs.

TV networks are rotating coverage but each one can carry debate if it wishes.

Asked why he was declaring his position in advance, Hogan replied the debate would be "pro forma."

"By tomorrow every person on the committee, so far as I'm concerned, will have made up his mind," Hogan said.

Hogan predicted that at least five of the 17 Republicans on the committee will vote for impeachment. He said if the full House studies the evidence as carefully as he did it also will vote to impeach President Nixon.

White House spokesmen had no comment on Hogan's announcement.

Hogan said his decision was made within the last few days but "the real body blow was when the President released his tapes and I read in his own words things that shocked me."

In his statement, he said, "Those who oppose impeachment say it would weaken the presidency. In my view, if we do not impeach the President after all that he has done, we would be weakening the presidency even more."

Hogan generally was not listed among those committee Republicans most likely to support impeachment.

Nearly all of the 21 Democrats are regarded as virtually certain to support impeachment while 11 Republicans usually are listed as hard-line voters against. Hogan is the first member to formally announce his vote although others have indicated how they would vote.

The likeliest scenario for the debate is that it will open with introduction of a resolution declaring that it is the committee's recommendation to the House that Nixon should be impeached.

Then would come first phase of the debate, with each of the 38 committee members having 15 minutes to talk. The resolution may be tabled without a vote and then the committee will turn to debate on individual articles of impeachment.

The Democrats reportedly were working on three proposed articles of impeachment based upon the presentation made last week by John Doar, chief counsel to the impeachment inquiry.

The three articles would charge the President with obstructing justice in the Watergate investigation, with contempt of Congress for his refusal to obey committee subpoenas and abuse of power for his alleged role in surveillance activities as well as attempts to make the Internal Revenue Service more politically responsive.

Makarios may regain post Crisis tumbles Greek regime

By The Associated Press

The military-backed government of Greece fell Tuesday in the aftermath of bloody turmoil on Cyprus and the president of the island's rebel government resigned. Archbishop Makarios said he expected to return to the Cypriot presidency in a few weeks.

These developments came in quick succession in advance of a scheduled Cyprus conference set up by Britain with Turkey and Greece in Geneva.

Former Greek Premier Constantine Caramanlis, who had called the coup on Cyprus a "national disaster," was invited by Greece's president to return from exile in Paris to head a new civilian government of national union.

The French government said it had offered Caramanlis a plane to fly to Athens. His office said he had left his apartment to return to Athens.

Glafos Clerides, speaker of the Cypriot House of Representatives during Makarios' old regime, was named to take over the Cypriot presidency. Under Cyprus' constitution, Clerides was the next in line for the presidency.

Makarios told a news conference in New York that he expected to regain "in the next few weeks" the post he lost in a Greek officer-led coup July 15. The archbishop said he was firmly convinced that Clerides was now acting in his behalf.

Makarios added that he was gratified that Nikos Sampson had quit as president of the Cypriot rebel government and that Greece would get a new civilian regime.

In announcing his resignation, Sampson said in a Cyprus radio broadcast that Clerides was better equipped, because of his experience, to lead the nation.

At the Western White House in California, Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said President Nixon was keeping in touch with developments through Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger.

On the Mediterranean island itself, there were new outbreaks of fighting, according to the United Nations and the British Defense Ministry. But the action, which at first was described as serious, later was reported to be sporadic incidents that did not seem to endanger the cease-fire that went into effect on Monday.

U.N. headquarters in New York said Greek Cypriot national guard troops advanced on a U.N. force camp in Nicosia, the capital, and the international force was given orders to resist them. However, a U.N. spokesman said later that the U.N. unit, made up of Canadians, "was not attacked or invaded."

U.N. troops took control of the Nicosia airport because of fighting in that area.

The British reported fighting on the northern coast beach-head established by Turkish forces in their invasion Saturday.

The announcement in Greece by the office of President Phaedon Gizikis, a general, that the government of Premier Adamantios Androustopoulos had stepped down brought jubilation to the streets of Athens. People hugged and kissed, automobiles honked their horns and crowds shouted out, "Unity and democracy!"

State freeway projects hit with $79 million reduction

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Transportation Secretary Langhorne Bond said Tuesday the state's road program for the next 11 months will involve a $79 million reduction in freeway projects approved by the Illinois Legislature.

Bond explained details of the mammoth $2 billion budget for operation of the state Department of Transportation in a series of news conferences in five cities.

Gov. Dan Walker announced plans Monday to trim the DOT bill by $120 million.

The reductions include $79 million in supplemental freeways, $16.4 million for state road projects, $15 million for gas tax grants to local communities, $1.9 million for state aid to mass transit systems and $1.9 million for passenger railroad routes.

The budget includes money to award construction contracts for the Quincy Bypass, the Decatur Bypass and to acquire the remaining sections of land needed for the Central Illinois expressway from Springfield to Quincy.

Bond and Walker said the cuts in supplemental freeway projects were in areas which could not realistically be placed under contract by June 30, 1975, the end of the current fiscal year.

Supplemental freeways are four lane roads built to interstate standards. When completed, state officials hope to have 1,950 miles of freeways linking the state's major cities.

Among the projects which were trimmed were: the Rock Island to Jacksonville freeway, cut $1.9 million to $100,000; the freeway from Lawrenceville to Goodnow, cut $5.75 million to $250,000; the Marion Bypass, cut $900,000 to $100,000; and the Marion to Harrisburg freeway, cut $5.75 million to $250,000.

In Southern Illinois, the East St. Louis to Carlyle project was cut by $32 million to $2.8 million.

Walker and Bond contended when the DOT budget passed the legislature that many lawmakers wanted to include money for specific road projects to make themselves look good to voters in an election year.

"Legislating highways is a bad thing, but that's what they have done," Bond said.

Bond opposed the line-by-line itemization of freeway projects, saying it deprived him of flexibility needed to spend money where weather and labor conditions permitted.

The legislature, however, spelled out the programs in detail because they felt this made Bond and Walker more accountable for road building progress.

Included in the budget is more than $1.5 billion for local road building and $3.4 million for subsidies to five existing and one new railroad passenger route.

The bill also contains $6 million for subsidies to mass transit systems statewide.

Carbondale merchants left holding $660 in fake bills

By Bruce Shapiro
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

Carbondale merchants received $660 worth of counterfeit $20 bills during the weekend, Carbondale police reported Tuesday.

"So far, 33 counterfeit bills have shown up in the Carbondale area," said Lt. Jerry Reno.

Merlin's night club and Leo's Permitt Lounge were hardest hit. Bill Hitchcock, owner of both establishments, reported that he received 23 counterfeit bills some time Saturday night.

"We didn't notice they were bad bills until we counted the money Sunday morning," said Hitchcock. "Some of the bills were a bright yellow color."

Hitchcock said Saturday night one of his bartenders at Merlins noticed one of the customers was passing a lot of $20 bills. "The bartender called over one of the managers and he took a look at one of the bills. It looked OK to him," said Hitchcock.

Buzbee to talk on SIU goals

State Sen. Kenneth V. Buzbee, D-Carbondale, will address the President's Advisory Committee on Goals and Objectives at a public hearing Wednesday.

Buzbee will speak at the meeting scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. in the Mississippi Room on the second floor of the Student Center.

The public hearing is the third scheduled by the goals committee seeking input from individuals and groups on or off campus regarding goals for SIU for the next ten years.

About 45 persons attended the July 17 goals hearing and several indicated they wanted an additional chance to express their views, according to Terry D. Mathias, administrative assistant for the goals committee.

Panel will meet on revisions

The second meeting of the full Advisory Committee on Board and Executive Officer Relationships is scheduled for 2 p.m. Wednesday in Edwardsville.

The 20-member advisory group is studying possible revisions in SIU administrative structure "to insure maximum autonomy."

The committee is made up of 10 members from both Carbondale and Edwardsville, representing various campus groups. The group has been charged with reporting recommendations to the Board of Trustees by Oct. 1.

"It was very difficult to tell if the bills were counterfeit in the bar itself because of the dim lights, but once we began counting the money under normal lighting, they were easy to spot."

Other businesses which received counterfeit $20s were Buffalo Bob's, Booby's and Southern Quick Shop. These stores received a total of six bills.

The Golden Bear Restaurant and Sirloin Stockade reported that they refused several $20 bills from patrons, because they looked counterfeit and they had received a warning from police Saturday night.

One of the customers who had the counterfeit bill was unaware that it was bad. He told police he received it while visiting several bars Saturday night.

Another customer reported to police that he had picked up several bad bills after the Road Runner Club had paid him for playing in a band Saturday night.

Police said that the Road Runner might have taken in the bills Friday or Saturday.

Reno said that Secret Service agents in Springfield checked out the serial numbers of the bills with those which were confiscated in St. Louis over the weekend, but that there was no connection.

St. Louis police arrested two persons over the weekend and seized $650,000 in counterfeit $20 bills.

Reno added that bills similar to those found in Carbondale were spotted in Missouri and Illinois.

"Food for Thought!"

If you have a friend who ever tricked you into a "sucker bet," I can tell you how to get even. Just wait till the next time you see him eating an ear of corn, and bet him that the ear he is holding has an even number of rows.

You'll win every time, because it is a scientific fact that every ear of corn on earth has an even number of rows.

And that is only one of many fascinating facts about corn. For instance did you know that corn was cultivated here in America twenty-five hundred years before the birth of Christ? Well, it was, but it wasn't much to eat! You see, the average ear in those days was about the size of one of our ears today!

Curiously, the American Indian gave corn to the early settlers and they sowed the seeds of his own destruction. For corn saved the colonists from sure starvation in the first bitter winters at Plymouth.

Strangest of all, I suppose, is the fact that corn today is completely dependent upon man for its survival. It needs man to plant its big seeds, which are the kernels, properly spaced so that the plants will not crowd out each other. For when corn is seeded too closely, it produces only grass and not the ears which bear the kernels. Thus if man should suddenly vanish from the earth, corn as we know it would vanish two or three years afterward.

And if all this has made you crave corn, visit Mack's produce department any time corn is in season... for the ideal food that will keep you smiling... from ear to ear!

Don't force the public to pay

By Arthur Hoppe

So far, 32 eager members of the President's Watergate Boosters' Club have been found guilty of assorted felonious peccadilloes. Worse, flint-hearted judges keep clapping them in the pokey — sometimes for months on end.

This gross miscarriage of justice must cease. Everyone knows that our Nation's prisons are not only already overcrowded, but they are vicious breeding grounds of crime.

Think for a moment, if you will, of these handsome, clean-cut, respectable Presidential aides being tossed into cells with hardened, desperate, con-wise criminals. The outcome is inevitable.

Truthful to the end

To the Daily Egyptian:

Robert Springer, in his editorial on the proposed Federal Campaign Spending Bill, reached a conclusion which I feel misleads people about it.

He evidently sees nothing wrong with forcing people to pay the campaign costs of politicians. If the politician is not representative of them, or if he is personally distasteful to them, that is too bad. They will just have to pay for that politician anyway. Doubtless many students at SIU can remember someone in the last federal election for whom they would never vote, much less wish to monetarily support.

There is already in existence a Federal Campaign Fund, held by the Internal Revenue Service, which will be divided between the Democrats and the Republicans in 1976. This fund consists of the money collected by the income tax checkoff.

When this fund was started in 1972 the money collected was to go to whatever political party the donor chose.

For 1973, the money was again collected but the taxpayer had no say as to where it was to go. The formula for the distribution of these funds will be left to the General Accounting Office (which is controlled by Congress), and a congressional committee. I rate the chances of the formula giving an advantage to the incumbent as better than even.

In broad Keynesian words Mr. Springer dismisses Sen. Lowell P. Weicker and all other critics of the Kennedy bill. Sure, he says, your constitutional right to free expression of your political beliefs will be trampled on, but that is only so that there will be no more instances like 1972. But, Mr. Springer, 1972 was the year when all peoples' right to a fair and honest election was trampled on.

The Constitution of the United States was designed to protect the individual and any violation of the Constitution invariably hurts many people. How do you justify taking away the protection of freedoms? Not, Mr. Springer, by merely asserting that this country could not withstand the aftermath of another 1972. The end does not justify the means.

Countering the contention that the rich and the powerful corporations have put this country in a mess: consider that it is the politicians, not the corporations, that make the laws.

Take the case of White House aide Charles W. (Bud) Magruder, who found himself sharing a cell with the notorious hit man, Salvador (Potatoes) O'Gratin.

"Whatcha in for, kid?" said O'Gratin, picking his teeth with a shiv.

"Plea bargaining, sir," said Emil Magruder, truthful to the end.

"Ain't we all?" said O'Gratin. "They nailed me on three counts of violating the civil rights of Crabs Newberg, one for each hole, and dumping his remains on his front steps. But the fix was in and I'm only doing one-to-five for littering."

The most filthy part of the entire Watergate trauma was that the corporations bought the favor of the politicians. Since the money changed hands quietly, the country was not aware of what had happened until big government dropped suits and raised subsidies.

Since the corporations are able to move quietly but government cannot, the only way to stop the corruption in politics is to remove from the politicians the ability to grant favor to an individual or a corporation. With the removal of the influence, the money that bought the influences dries up. Under this system the legitimate desire to see the man of your choice elected would not be infringed upon.

Finally, Mr. Springer appeals to the "straight-thinking" humans in this country to consider that the system is inequitable and unmanageable and the way to have the system more flexible is to give the politicians and bureaucrats more control over all our lives. The inevitable consequences of that kind of thinking has been clearly established in Mussolini's Italy, Hitler's Germany, Stalin's Russia and Allende's Chile.

Mr. Springer, please in the future weigh cautiously your thoughts and words. Remember, too, that the freedom of others is not yours to dispose of. No individual or group of individuals has the legal or moral right to dictate the course of anyone else's life. Morality is what we all want, don't we?

Watergate breakout

With Ehrlichman's conviction, this will give Watergate conspirators a chance at their hand in breaking out since they've already proven their ability at breaking in.

Mary Daniels
Student Writer

"That's nice, sir. They charged me with breaking and entering, perjury, wire-tapping, bribery and obstructing justice. But once I promised to tell all I knew about my boss, they let me off with a sentence of four-to-ten for violating the 1812 Overture Act."

"You squealed on your boss, kid?" said O'Gratin, hefting his shiv.

"Yes, sir. I told them all I knew was that he was an honest, decent, courageous, great American."

"You got what it takes in this business, kid," said O'Gratin admiringly, "loyalty. Your problem, from what I seen in the papers, is that you got in with the wrong bunch — nothing but stupid, bumbling amateurs. When you get out, how'd you like to go to work for a gang of real pros?"

"Meaning you, sir?"

"That's right. We could use a kid with your brains and loyalty. Now we got an Apprenticeship Training Program right here in this breeding ground of crime. We'll teach you the ropes."

"Well, I don't know, sir..."

"Think of whatcha get for turning pro. You ever drive a flash car, kid?"

"Well, no, sir. I always had a chauffeured limousine at my disposal."

"And trips, kid, to Miami Beach and Vegas. You ever fly first class?"

"No, sir. We always took Air Force One to Key Biscayne and San Clemente. They met us with helicopters and..."

"Think of the dough, then. Crime don't pay, kid, like it used to. But you could pull down 20 grand a year easy."

"Gosh, sir. I was making $32,500 in my old job."

"Well, kid, money ain't everything. Look how your mob let you down. Me, I'll be out in '76 with time off for double occupancy. But you're doing ten years."

"Not years, sir. Months."

O'Gratin scratched his head. "Well, there ain't no use wasting our valuable time in stir, kid. We gotta have little talks bout how to make a life of crime pay."

"Yes, sir. What do you want to know?"

"Well, first, kid," said O'Gratin, "how do you get to be one of them White House aides?"

Daily Egyptian Opinion & Commentary

EDITORIALS The Daily Egyptian encourages free discussion of current issues through editorials and letters on these pages. Editorials are written and signed by members of the student news staff and by students enrolled in journalism courses and represent opinions of the authors only.

LETTERS Readers are invited to express their opinions in letters which must be signed with name, classification and major or faculty rank, address and telephone number. Letters should be typewritten and their length should not exceed 250 words. Letter writers should respect the generally accepted standards of good taste and are expected to make their points in terms of issues rather than personalities. Acceptance for publication will depend on limitations of space and the timeliness and relevance of the material. Unsigned letters will not be accepted and authorship of all letters must be verified by the Daily Egyptian. It is the responsibility of the Daily Egyptian to determine content of the opinion pages. Other materials on pages four and five include editorials and articles reprinted from other publications syndicated columns and articles and interpretive or opinion articles authored locally.

Cinemasonics recital features SIU graduate's compositions

By Michael Hawley
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

A cinemasonics recital by composer and filmmaker Philip Loarie will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Home Economics Building Auditorium.

Loarie, an SIU graduate, designed and was graduated in a special cinemasonics major under the sponsorship of associate professor of cinema Richard Bluenberg. Loarie's recital will consist of five films with musical scores, four of the films and scores composed by Loarie himself.

Loarie said that in all cases the films were made before the scores were composed. The majority of the music is Moog synthesizer, with some manipulated guitar, all recorded on stereotape.

In addition to his own works, Loarie has also composed the music for a film titled "Faint Trails," a film detailing the history of Southern Illinois Indians. Now that Loarie has graduated, he is still uncertain as to whether he wants to pursue music or film, or a combination of the two, film scoring.

"To me, the two are equally important. They feed off of each other."

"It's very hard to find a school which can accommodate what I'm into. Also, like anyone else I would like to have my own studio some day," Loarie said.

The first film of Loarie's recital will be "Kata," a study in movement based on the katas, or exercises of Karate expert Joe Kon Lee. Loarie said the katas are a great subject for film because of their expressive motions and dance-like quality, and "motion is the defining characteristic of life," he added.

"Separations," a film made by Doug Cragoe with music by Loarie, is second on the program. Described as "a social comment on today's T.V. society: Are we voyeurs or participants?" Loarie says the film is composed of color separations, warped time and "people freaking out in the country."

Loarie made both film and soundtrack for the third film, "Noesis," a cinemasonics thesis studying the synthesis of music and image in a time-space-motion continuum. Water is used as a source material, Loarie said, and the film explores the many forms water can take and the "visual music" it creates.

The sun god, "Helios," provides the title for the fourth film, made by Loarie and scored by Bryce Robbley. Subtitled "A galactic journey through a cosmic karma kracker," Loarie says the film and music are evidence that he is definitely not into reality.

The final piece of the recital, "Of Beggars and Leaves," is a compilation of various slides taken by Loarie. With music also composed by Loarie, the film runs in a somewhat Japanese vein, he said.

The public is invited to attend this recital in cinemasonics. There will be no admission charge.

Miniature golf course to open in spring of '75

Carbondale residents will be teeing off at an 18-hole miniature golf course next spring if things go right for an SIU student.

Richard Griffith, an SIU senior in speech pathology and audiology said he plans to build the one-acre course across from Lewis Park Apartments on the east side of town.

Griffith said he plans to sink about 15 to $20,000 into the project to give the miniature course good landscaping.

Dennis Cagle, an engineering student at SIU, is drawing up plans for the course and will own five per cent of the course, Griffith said.

Police equipment exhibit to be held Friday, Saturday

The Carbondale Police-Community Service Center will present a crime prevention exhibit Friday and Saturday, at J.C. Penney's, 1201 E. Main. The exhibit will run from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

"The exhibit will cover all the equipment that an officer normally has to use," Cpl. Jim Rossiter of the police community center said Tuesday.

The exhibit will include a squad car, lock display, shot gun, tear gas, tear gas mask, handcuffs, helmet, night stick and riot stick.

Lt. Wayne Booker, head of the Carbondale Crime Prevention Center, said that several officers will be at the store throughout the day to answer any questions. The exhibit is free and open to the public.

Booker noted that a similar exhibit would be held at Sav Mart on Rt. 13 in the near future.

The 22-year-old businessman said construction will begin in about three weeks.

Griffith recently won a city zoning battle when the city agreed to grant a special exception for Griffith to build the course.

Admission will be 75 or 80 cents a game. A game will last about 30 minutes, he said.

33 New strikes threatening GM

By The Associated Press

Strike-plagued General Motors Corp., with 13,500 picketing workers off the job at two assembly plants, faces walkout threats at three other plants this week in local contract disputes.

About 5,700 United Auto Workers at GM's St. Louis factory have been on strike since June 28, and a walkout by 7,800 workers at Lordstown, Ohio, ended its 11th day Tuesday.

GM has laid off 2,150 workers at supplier plants because of the strike at its Lordstown plant, which makes the sub-compact Chevrolet Vega and light trucks and vans.

GSC to discuss grad grievances

The Graduate Student Council is scheduled to discuss grievance procedures for graduate students at a meeting Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Ohio Room of the Student Center.

According to Sharon Yeargin, GSC will also discuss the feasibility of having hearings on the types of grievances graduate students may have.

Also on the agenda is discussion for forming a committee for revising the GSC constitution and bylaws.

Authorities still seeking suspect in weekend rape

Jackson County authorities were still searching for an unidentified man Tuesday who raped an SIU co-ed early Saturday morning.

The 21-year-old woman told police Saturday night that she was attacked and raped by a white male in his mid 30's about 6 feet, 2 inches tall, with a slender build.

The woman told police that she was hitchhiking on East Walnut Street when the man stopped and offered to drive her home.

Instead of driving her home, the man traveled to an isolated rural area on Reed Station Road where he raped the woman under a threat to strangle her, police said.

The woman told police that the incident took place between 1 and 3 a.m.

City councilmen deny own pay hike

By Dave Ibsata
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

A proposal to give city councilmen and the mayor pay raises met with resistance from the very persons the raises were to benefit.

City councilmen and Mayor Neal Eckert Monday night concurred in opposing a raise in the salaries of City Council members from $2,000 to $2,500 a year, and in the mayor's salary from $2,500 to $4,000 a year.

The City Council spoke for a raise in the mayor's pay while disclaiming a pay hike for themselves. Councilwoman Jean Westberg suggested at least a $3,500 salary for the mayor.

"I do not support over a $3,000 salary," Eckert replied.

The report also recommended raising the mayor's car allowance from $50 to $75 a month.

In other business, one of the former dormitories at the University City municipal complex may have to be torn down to make room for a parking lot, according to a progress report on leasing the complex.

The report, prepared by Phillip A. Baewer, division of industrial development, stated that one parking space should be reserved for each 250 square feet of office space rented out. Since 148,000 square feet are available for leasing, 592 spaces must be set aside.

"There are only two possible solutions: one, to acquire adjacent property; the other is to demolish some of the existing buildings and convert the space to a parking area," the report said. "Cost information is being gathered on both these alternatives."

Additional parking space would be needed for users of the swimming pool and the administrative office building, the report noted.

Associated teachers

EDMONTON, Alberta (AP)—Teachers here have formed the Association of Classroom Teachers, an organization which they say will provide "strictly a teachers' voice in negotiations." A spokesman for the new body said she believes it will be more effective.

'Old' controversy of firing appeal
occupying council

By Dave Ithala
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

A months-old controversy has resurfaced before the City Council with that body's consideration of a proposed appeals process for police and fire chiefs dismissed by the city manager.

That process would be set up if the council approves an ordinance amendment it discussed at the informal meeting Monday night. No action was taken.

The proposal would amend an ordinance giving the city manager the power to hire and fire police and fire chiefs. That authority would not be changed, but the amendment would grant the right to appeal such dismissals to the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners.

The intent of the amendment "is to make the language the same in the thrust of the firings as the hirings," according to City Manager Carroll Fry.

Mayor Neil Eckert opposed the amendment. If fired by the city manager, police and fire chiefs should have only one channel for appeals—through the courts, Eckert said.

To grant a right of appeal through the City Council or the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners would give police and fire chiefs an unfair advantage over other department heads, Eckert said.

To an extent, Fry concurred. "The minute department heads can go around you and cry to the council, you've lost control," Fry said. "The control in the directions of the department heads has to be vested in the city manager, or you don't have a managerial system."

The City Manager has the right to hire and fire department heads, Fry emphasized. However, "anyone has a right of appeals to an appeals board with the power to override," Fry said. "But the council doesn't want to pass the amendment."

Fry maintained that according to special provisions of the Illinois constitution, home rule cities such as

The Carbondale Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold a summer meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jon Muller, 1004 Taylor Drive.

AAUW is an organization of, and for, women college and university graduates with emphasis on personal and professional interests of women. Interested persons may call Mrs. Robert Davis at 549-7157 for more information.

Carbondale have the power to set their own guidelines for hiring and firing department heads.

How far this right goes has been a subject of controversy since January, when the old Board of Fire and Police Commissioners tried to block the transfer of its hiring and firing functions to the city manager.

In the ensuing dissension the City Council, acting on a request made by Mayor Eckert, dismissed the three-member board on Feb. 4 and appointed three new members.

Black arts festival

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—At least 71 nations have registered to participate in the second World Black and African Festival of the Arts and Culture, to be held here in the fall of 1975.

A government announcement said, however, only 15 countries have so far paid the required $10,000 registration fee.

Union official tells of efforts to move men before rail fire

DECATUR (AP)—A rail union official says that for several months before an explosion ripped through a freight yard killing four persons he tried repeatedly to get a bunkhouse moved to a safer spot.

The four victims, employees of the Norfolk and Western Railroad Co., were believed to have been in the bunkhouse in the center of the yard when a tank car blew up Friday.

The bunkhouse, which sleeps about 40 men, was 20 feet from tracks used frequently for switching operations, including cars carrying hazardous materials.

3 SIU students awarded EPDA grad fellowships

Three SIU students have been awarded graduate fellowships under the Education Professional Development Act, according to Wayne S. Ramp, professor of occupational education. Two other EPDA fellows, one a former student, also will enroll at SIU this fall. All will be in doctoral studies.

This is the first year the school has qualified to give training for EPDA fellows, Ramp said, although for more than a year it has been conducting an intern training program in competency-based occupational educational leadership, funded by the Illinois Division of Vocational-Technical Education, Ramp said.

The new EPDA program will be "piggy-back" to the existing internship plan coordinated by Ramp and James Parker of the department of educational administration, he said.

The present SIU students receiving the fellowships with stipends of $4,200 plus dependency allowances are Marcia Allen of Ridway, John McLuckie of Du Quoin and Kenneth W. Smith of Itta Bena, Miss.

In addition, James Acord of Fontana, Calif., a master's degree graduate of SIU, currently teaching in California, and Thomas M. McGinnis of Indianapolis, a bachelor's and master's graduate of Indiana University and currently employed in the Indiana Department of Public Instruction, also will exercise their fellowships at SIU.

WSIU-FM will pre-empt all regular programming to broadcast live coverage of the House impeachment hearings from Washington. At press time, NPR had not been informed of scheduled times for the hearings.

WSIU-TV

Afternoon and evening programming scheduled on WSIU-TV, Channel 8.

4 p.m.—Sesame Street; 5—The Evening Report; 5:30—Mister Rodger's Neighborhood; 6—The Electric Company; 6:30—The House Judiciary Committee Impeachment Hearings.

FBS and NPACT will be carrying the taped proceedings of the impeachment hearings starting at 6:30 p.m. and will pre-empt all regularly scheduled programming.

A railroad specialist with the Illinois Commerce Commission said it is not unusual for bunkhouses to be located that close to freight movement.

Charles Gallagher, 56, general chairman of the United Transportation Union's board of adjustment, said in an interview Monday that he met with two company representatives as late as the day before the explosion that injured more than 100 persons and caused millions of dollars in damage.

"I asked the management what the chances were of getting proper lodging for the men—that I felt was unsafe—that there could be some explosion because of the volatile and dangerous type of material that is being transported and switched in the yard," he said.

Gibron goes with 'Hey you' squad

Vets plan picket of Bears-Pack game

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP)—The improvised Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers are scheduled for a game-type scrimmage at Green Bay, Wis., Thursday night with likely picketing by striking veterans of both clubs.

Player representative Mac Percival, directing current picketing of the Bear camp here in Rensselaer, said Tuesday five or six Bear veterans would go to Green Bay "to help Ken Bowman, Packer player representative, picket with his veterans."

Although the Bear-Pack scrimmage is not listed on the National Football League exhibition schedule, it may be the first contest at which an admission is charged to be picketed by the striking NFL Players Association.

A $1.00 admission will be charged in a benefit for the Green Bay police and fire departments, the Brown County Sheriff Traffic Department and the Packers' Alumni Association.

The players union already has indicated it will try to prevent the NFL's nationally televised Hall of Fame game between the St. Louis Cardinals and Buffalo Bills from being played at Canton, Ohio, Saturday.

What would have been the opener of the NFL exhibition season, the College All-Star game with the Miami Dolphins at Soldier Field this Friday night, was canceled because the All-Stars refused to cross picket lines to practice.

No bona fide veterans have reported to Bear Coach Abe Gibron since practice started July 13, although Percival classifies as "yes and no" veterans three members of the club's 1973 taxi squad currently working out.

They are running back Reggie Sanderson, tackle Steve Kinney and wide receiver Mike Reppond.

Although some 114 veterans have crossed picket lines at other camps and the NFL Management Council Monday ordered salary increases for all players now training, Percival said "so far, all of our people are staying pretty well put."

Meanwhile, Gibron has been toiling with a squad of 10 drafted players and 40 free agents on a more or less "hey, you" basis.

"I don't want to name any names yet," said Gibron, "but we've got a couple of running backs who look promising. We've also got a couple of linebackers and a couple of offensive and defensive linemen who could possibly make this team."

Among a trio of aspiring quarterbacks are draftees Alan Chadwick of East Tennessee State, Craig Holland of Texas-Arlington, and a converted running back, Joe Barnes of Texas Tech.

Top rookies in camp include a pair of first-round draft picks, linebacker Wayne Bryant of Tennessee State and defensive end Dave Gallagher of Michigan.

The 1974 SIU baseball brochure that was awarded "Best in the Nation" award was edited and written by Sports Information Director Butch Henry. Assistant Mike Needleman did the research on the booklet. The cover photo is of Coach Ith Jones when his team went to the College World Series in 1971.

SIU's baseball brochure voted nation's best

The 1974 baseball brochure compiled and designed by the SIU Sports Information Department has been voted "Best in the Nation" by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Butch Henry, sports information director, and Assistant Mike Needleman, received the award certificate this week. Henry accepted the award earlier this month at the College Sports Information Directors Association annual meeting in St. Paul, Minn.

Michigan State University had won the award for five consecutive years, but finished second to SIU's booklet this year. Clemson's brochure was voted third best.

"This is a real honor," Henry said Tuesday. "The credit also goes to Mike Needleman, who updated all the records, and Rip Stokes, whose photographs were used frequently by media in other parts of the country who did feature stories on our team."

Other awards went to Columbia University for the best football game programs, the University of Indiana for the best basketball game programs, Army was voted the best football brochure award, Marquette the best basketball brochure award, Oregon had the best track brochure and East Carolina won the best swimming brochure award.

IM softball meeting, canoe race planned

The Office of Recreation and Intramurals will conduct a softball manager's meeting Friday for all summer teams that have won a minimum of 50 per cent of their games.

The purpose of the tournament will be to discuss and schedule the season-ending single elimination tournament to begin on Monday, July 29.

The meeting will be at 10:30 a.m. in the Office of Recreation and Intramurals, Room 128 of the SIU Arena. All teams planning to participate in the tournament must have a representative at the meeting.

Interested students, faculty and staff have until 5 p.m. Friday to register for the men's intramural two-man canoe race to begin at 10 a.m. Saturday on the Lake-on-the-Campus boat dock.

Men's competition and mixed competition will be held.

For more information contact the Office of Recreation and Intramurals or call, 453-2710.

Dent hard to rate in Sox history

By Joe Mooshill
AP Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Classic shortstops have been the trademark of the Chicago White Sox.

They had Luke Appling who made the Hall of Fame. They had Chico Carrasquel, the "Caracas Cat" who played as well off the field as on and they had Luis Aparicio, the graceful Venezuelan who led them to a pennant in 1959.

Now along comes Bucky Dent, a 22-year-old antithesis to his illustrious predecessors.

Dent, 5-foot-9 and 170 pounds, will never hit with Appling. He has nowhere near the range of Carrasquel nor the rifle arm of Aparicio.

"He's hard to rate," said Manager Chuck Tanner. "He doesn't have size, he doesn't have great speed and he doesn't have a big bat. All he does is beat you."

Dent came up last year when the Sox were hit with a rash of injuries and impressed Tanner to such an extent that the White Sox manager kept insisting all winter that "Bucky will be our shortstop."

"I never told him he had the job," said Tanner. "I just played him in spring training and when we'd split our squad, he'd be with the regulars."

"When the season started and he had a little trouble adjusting, I sat him out a couple of games. I noticed he was a little down and called him in my office."

"He was really worried. I told him forget it. I was just trying to get him to relax. You know what he told me. He said, 'When I thought I was going to be sent down, I put him back into the lineup and can't get him out of there.'"

"He's hard to compare. He's small, like Phil Rizzuto but he doesn't play like a Rizzuto. He's more like Dick Groat was with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He's smart and makes the good plays. He has no fear. The tougher the games, the better he plays. He's just hard-nosed and he could be the White Sox shortstop for a long time."

Dent appeared in 40 games for the Sox last season and batted a creditable .248.

"I had heard things in spring training that I would be the regular shortstop," said Dent. "But I didn't want to get my hopes too high. I decided to go out and try as hard as I could."

"The coaches like Al Monchak and Jim Mahoney were working real hard with me every day. They still do and they've been a great help."

"One of the writers was talking to me the other day and he mentioned guys like Appling, Carrasquel and Aparicio. I don't know about them because I never saw them play. But I know they are the types who come along once in a lifetime. They had all the skills."

"Myself? I don't have any one thing going for me. I just go out and play as hard as I can with what talents I have."

So far this year, Dent has been in on most of the 107 double plays executed by the Sox, who lead the league in that department. He's batting .268 with three home runs and 27 runs batted in. And he likes it when things are going tough.

"When things get tough I concentrate more and play better ball, that's all."

Near sweep in handball

Mark Van Tuinen very nearly swept the Office of Recreation and Intramurals Handball Tournament honors. Van Tuinen and his doubles partner, SIU Trainer Bob "Doc" Spackman, beat three consecutive opponents, topping Ron York and Mike Dunn in the finals, 15-21, 21-6, 21-5.

In the singles competition Van Tuinen again made his way into the finals, this time versus John Guyon, the Dean of the College of Science. Guyon topped Mark's chances of a clean sweep, winning 21-17, 21-9.
