SCHEDULE

NOTE

This number of the Newsletter completes Volume IV. We offer a reminder to all readers: Volume V and subsequent volumes will have only two numbers rather than the four we have sent in the past. On the new schedule, the Newsletter will be issued in March and October. The next number to appear, then, will not be in January as in the previous volumes, but in March 1971.

JOHN DEWEY

SOCIETY TO

MEET IN FEBRUARY

The John Dewey Society for the Study of Education and Culture has its annual meetings in February in Chicago at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. We call your attention to the date because it is somewhat later in the month than usual. The all-day John Dewey Conference, the open forum for discussion of ideas and problems, will be on Wednesday, February 24, 1971. The annual John Dewey Lecture will be presented by Kenneth Clark on Friday, February 26, 1971. Further information about the meetings, and about membership in the John Dewey Society, is available from the new Secretary-Treasurer, Peter F. Baldino, College of Education, Youngstown State University, Youngstown, Ohio 44503.

DEWEY

MATERIALS

ACQUIRED

Through the gracious co-operation of Dr. Charlotte B. Winsor, Distinguished Teacher Education Specialist at the Bank Street College of Education, many historical materials collected and preserved by Elsie B. Clapp have been given to the Dewey

Center. Of special interest and importance are John Dewey's original typewritten (with inked-in corrections and changes) notes for classes at Teachers College from 1911 through 1916, notes on class discussions, and letters to Miss Clapp.

Priceless records of the Minton, Balch Publishing Company have been put in the Dewey collections by G. P. Putnam's Sons. These include the original manufacturing cards on German Philosophy and Politics, Philosophy and Civilization, Art as Experience, and Quest for Certainty. The manufacturing cards are a complete and detailed summary of the publishing history of each of these major Dewey volumes, the kind of information that is included in A Note on the Texts in each of The Early Works.

sets of class lecture notes, one for Dewey's course "Study of Morals," given at Columbia in 1923, and the other for Dewey's course "Types of Philosophic Thought" given at Columbia in 1924. These notes are mimeographed and in excellent condition.
