Cycle Population Climbs to 800 Here

By Mike Harris
Second of a Series

Motorcycles modestly moved into IU about three years ago. "There were about half a dozen then," said John Maynard, director of Student Activities Office, "and most of these were owned by the faculty," said Edward McDevitt, supervisor of the Parking Section at SIU.

Today at SIU there are more than 800, and, according to McDevitt, there are undoubtedly several hundred more floating around town that do not belong to the University registration sticker. Large fork and rims, "moon" cycles (as they are called) didn't have to be properly registered and given an official University sticker.

Motorcycle inspection and the issuing of a sticker are free services to SIU students. The only prerequisite is that the following checks be met: (1) Front Brake (if fitted), (2) Rear Brake, (3) Head Light (high beam and low beam if fitted), (4) Tail Light (stop lights), (5) Horn (electric or bulb type), (6) Muffler (City Ordinance specifications), (7) Tyres (sufficient tread), (8) Suspension (front and rear, if fitted; compress suspension if necessary), (9) Exhaust (not a problem, if dual, seat fitted), (10) Fenders (front and rear), and (11) Miscellaneous (loose parts, bolts, etc.).

"Our biggest problem is stickers," said McDevitt. "The students bring their

Puerto Rico Cited as Latin Show Window

Puerto Rico stands as an example of what can be done with hard work, President Manuel Rodriguez, and audiences were told Thursday.

"With Latin America can do the same," according to Mario B. Rodriguez, professor of history at the Rodriguez Branch of the Pan-American University of Puerto Rico.

Rodriguez spoke on six features of the Pan-American Festival being held this week at SIU.

Puerto Rico, Rodriguez said, is honored to be selected as the theme of the 12th annual festival at SIU. The theme is Puerto Rico: The Bridge of Understanding Between the Americas.

Rodriguez explained how Puerto Rico has come into the world. He told how the American Army conquered the island after the Spanish-American War.

"The island was very poor at this time the Americans came and remained so during the first half of the 20th century, but Puerto Rico has accomplished what Latin America plans to do in the future," he said. That 30 per cent of the budget is devoted to education, and this proportion is "the largest in the world today.

As part of the Pan-American Festival, movies about Puerto Rico will be shown at 2 p.m. today at Morris Library Auditorium. At 6 p.m. tonight a discussion will be held on the geography and history of the culture of Puerto Rico.

Discussion Meeting Is Called For Student 4 Radio Station

A meeting of all persons interested in a closed circuit television plans for the station will be set for 3 p.m. today in Room C of the University Center.

Mike McDaniel, cochairman of a student committee preparing a plan for the proposed station, said the need of both administration and faculty will be discussed at the meeting.

McDaniel and his cochairman, Fred Lueck, said when the student committee composes the plans for the station, they will be submitted to John G. Anderson, executive director of Communications media.

Anderson will then review the plans and make his recommendations on the station to the administration. The Board of Trustees will take final action on the matter.

Student Leaders Attempting To Meet Morris' Objections

By Ric Cox

Carbondale campus representatives on the ad hoc committee for a study of student government were called together at 9 p.m. Thursday to consider the newest proposal for student government.

"We are the president for area and student services, drew up the plan to keep the audience informed for which have been discussed by the Greek Week Awards Tonight In the Ballroom

Greek Week continues for Southern's 13 fraternities and sororities with the annual Greek Week Banquet, to begin at 5:30 o'clock tonight in the University Center Ballroom. Harold L. Hakes, assistant director and housing, will speak at the banquet. Hakes is an alumnus of the University of Miami in Miami, Ohio, "The Mother of Fraternities."

Hakes, general chairman of Greek Week, will present a check to the Rev. Melvin Haan, a board of the American Cancer Society. It represents a two-day effort of the Greeks to collect cancer fund donations in the Madison and Murphyboro area.

Thirty members of Greek letter organizations earned a 5.0 grade average for winter quarter, and will receive recognition at the banquet. The Fraternity and Sorority with the highest overall grade average will also receive honors.

Peter, Paul, Mary at 8:30; Tickets Available

Folk music will reign in the SIU Arena tonight when Peter, Paul, and Mary, one of the singing group Peter Paul and Mary, perform a variety show. The performance will begin at 8:30 (The tickets incorrectly list the starting time as 8 p.m.)

A number of tickets are still available for the performance and will be sold on sale today at the Student Activities Office in the University Center. They will also be sold at the door, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Many of the tickets are in choice seats on the floor and in chair-seats. A group in the nation by "Billboard Magazine."

Student Council is working to take flash pictures during the performance, as this is forbidden in the group's contract.
PHI SIG MEN DEMOLISH 2 OLD HOUSES
Get Lumber for Spring Festival Display

Members of Phi Sigma Kappa social fraternity recently demolished two houses in Carbondale to obtain lumber for their Spring Festival display. The houses were torn down with the approval of D. Blaney Miller, mayor of Carbondale. The houses are located near East Main Street behind the Holiday Inn.

John S. Macdonald, a Phi Sigma Kappa, was surprised when he tapped just one little board inside one of the houses and the structure suddenly gave way. Two of his fraternity brothers moved a portion of the fallen roof and Macdonald emerged unharmed. Several members of Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority, who are teamed up with the Phi Sig for Spring Festival, came down on him. Two of his fraternity brothers removed a portion of the fallen roof and Macdonald emerged unharmed.

Several members of Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority, who are teamed up with the Phi Sig for Spring Festival, assisted the demolition crew by bringing refreshments.

Plant Industries Club Entertain
Agronomy Exchange Saturday

SIU’s Plant Industries Club will act as host for the annual Agronomy Club Exchange Day Saturday.

Students and faculty members from Purdue University, and the Purdue Branch at Evansville, Ind., the University of Kentucky, and the University of Illinois are expected to attend the exchange. Registration will begin at 9 a.m., in Muckelroy Auditorium of the Agriculture Building. The program will include discussion of current research and teaching programs in agriculture. After the discussions there will be a tour of the campus and agricultural research centers.

The Exchange Day is held each year at one of the universities to acquaint students and staff members with teaching and research facilities at the respective schools.

Join Conference On Education

Four SIU students recently attended the 36th Annual Study Conference of the Association for Childhood Education International held in New York.

Sharon F. Eggert, Diane B. Kosowski, Mary A. Spytek, and Mary Jo Willis, students from SIU, were present at the conference.

The conference included general sessions with talks by prominent people in the field of childhood education, and tour discussion groups, including visits to 57 places.

MARISSA, III. (KA) - University President, present in con- commemorating the student President's efforts to involve students in "the Great Masters" and be presented at a luncheon next week.

The guest speaker for the commemorative luncheon will be Vice-President in Charge of Moving the Illinois Central Tracks, announced to-day that his office was planning a special "midnight moving session" next week.

MARISSA, III. (KA) - Webley Greely Jr., Illinois State Council Leader, announced to-day that "A crew of Frazier-From-Carleton members has volun- teered to help rebuild Car- rie's Tavern at Mur- phy's Bluff.

Greely said, "We got our inspiration from the kids at Murphy's Bluff."

During the between-term break, the Frazier-From-Carleton students went to Missippi to help rebuild a Negro group's building destroyed during recent civil rights demonstrations.

Greely also asked for "don- nations of any sort to Speed up Murphy's Bluff," adding "If we are successful we may try similar tactics, perhaps make drink-ins at Jr.'s in Colp."

June McFee, author, teacher and lecturer from Arizona State University, will be the headliner at the fourth annual Art Education Conference to be held here today.

Miss McFee will speak at a 10:50 a.m. session in the University Center Ballroom.

Following registration and a coffee hour in the University Center, a series of student demonstrations by SIU Art education majors will be given at University School.

In the afternoon a seminar, "Art in Action," will be presented by a panel of art educators, Marguerite Baker, elementary art education supervisor at Granite City; Everett King, art teacher at DuQuoin, and Robert Steff, art teacher at University School here.

A gallery talk by Jack Taylor, supervisor of University Galleries, discussing the New Berlin Exhibit currently being shown in the Mitchell Art Gallery in the Home Economics Building will conclude the day's program.

The conference is sponsored by the Art Department and the Division of University Extension, to bring together administrators, supervisors and teachers who are interested in the role of the arts in education.

Reception is Rescheduled For Evening of May 1
A student recital that was postponed because of power failure Wednesday night has been rescheduled for 5 p.m. May 1 in Shryock Auditorium.

Gary L. Blass, acting director of the Missouri Driver and Safety Education Association, spoke about four hours, according to Blass, acting director of the conference.

The Student Work Office will move to the Home Economics Building on Sunday, May 9, but only for the day.

The move, involving approximately 30 office personnel, will be made to film a half-hour television program detailing the work office's activities. A portion of the telecast will show SIU students in on-the-job situations.

The staff of WSU-TV is handling script and production details. Four cameras will be used to film the production in and around the Home Economics Buildings, which is being used as the staging area.

Rehearsals will be conducted Sunday morning, beginning at 8, and actual production will be done in the afternoon. About 30 to 40 staff members of WSU-TV are expected to take part.

The half-hour video tape will be shown first on the Communications Costume Party Set
An All-Communications costume party will be held at 8 p.m. May 9 in the Home Economics Lounge. The party will be sponsored by Zeta Phi Eta, professional speech arts fraternity for women.

All School of Communications faculty members and graduate students are invited. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes.

In Liuzzo Indictment

Three Men Freed
On $10,000 Bond

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Three white men indicted on first-degree murder charges in the slaying of Viola Liuzzo, a civil rights worker from Detroit, Mich., surrendered to Sheriff Mel Bailey on Thursday.

The three—Eugene Thomas, 22, and William Crovella Eaton, 41, both of Bessemer, Ala., and Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., 21, of Fairfield, Ala.—posted $10,000 bond each and were released.

The Lowndes County grand jury returned the indictments Thursday at Hayneville. The indicted, He subsequendy appeared as a witness before the court which begins May 3.

The indictment charged that each man "unlawfully and with malice aforethought killed Viola Gregg Liuzzo by shooting her with a pistol."

Mrs. Liuzzo, 39, mother of five and the wife of a Teamsters Union official, was shot to death in her car near Lowndesboro, Ala., the night from five to eight cents a gallon.

The three-Eugene Thomas, and William Oroville gunshot slammed into her car on U.S. 80, the same route taken by the civil rights marchers.

She was shot from a passing car on U.S. 80, the same route taken by the civil rights marchers.

Mrs. Liuzzo, who was white, had driven some marchers from Montgomery back to Selma and was returning to Montgomery for more when a gunshl smashed into her head.

The three arrested Thursday also were indicted by a federal grand jury on civil rights charges, but the fourth—Gary Thomas Rowe, 34, of Birmingham—was not indicted. He subsequently appeared as a witness before the county grand jury.

Gas Tax Increase
Approved by House

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois House Revenue Committee approved by a 19-7 vote Thursday a bill to increase the state gasoline tax from five to eight cents a gallon.

It also advanced to the floor with committee endorsement were administration measures to boost taxes on horse and harness racing.

The gasoline tax would raise $122 million of the $282 million Gov. Otto Kerner seeks in new revenue for his two-year budget.

The higher tax on race tracks would yield $10 million.

Opponents of the gas tax bill contended the money should not bear the burden of financing increased state appropriations for education.

Floodwater of the rampag­ing Mississippi River, far out of banks along a 450-mile stretch, posed new threats Thursday to communities in a four-state area.

In Washington, President Johnson designated Iowa a disaster area eligible for federal aid, the third state so defined as a result of Mississippi River flooding. The others are Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The presidential action came as volunteers manning improved dikes in Dubuque, a city of 57,000 population, poured tons of dirt into a dike break that threatened to inundate a residential area in the city's northwestern section. A mile-long section of Dubuque's business and industrial area along the river already is flooded.

Across the river from Dubuque, National Guardsmen and volunteers reinforced dikes protecting East Dubuque, Ill.

Marines Rout Red Guerrillas

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A Viet Cong band challenged a U.S. Marine patrol Thursday in a valley outside Da Nang and set of the Leathernecks' first extended ground action of the war. The skirmish ended with the Red guerrillas in full retreat.

North of the border, U.S. Navy jets ended a day of almost continuous air raids by shooting up four Communist torpedo boats and two junks. Flota said the strike was highly successful.

The Marine-Viet Cong skirmish marked the first significant battle action for the men of a brigade landed six weeks ago to reinforce defenses of the Da Nang airbase, 380 miles northeast of Saigon.

One Marine, a radioman, suffered a scalp wound from a sniper’s bullet. Two collapsed from heat prostration. The guerrilla casualties, if any, were not determined.

A Viet Cong detachment of perhaps 20 men opened up with machine guns after a patrol of 41 Marines and 38 Vietnamese stalked the hamlet of Binh Thai, nine miles from town the past few days trying to work out a peaceful settlement immediately scheduled separate meetings with both sides for Friday.

The union directed its locals to start preparations for a shutdown. If a walkout comes it would idle 425,000 workers. The union last struck in 1959 for 166 days.

Strike sanction was voted unanimously by the union’s rank-and-file Wage Policy Committee, acting on recommendation by the Executive Board.

The committee issued a policy statement saying steel profits are high and steelworkers deserve part of them.

“Production reached record levels in 1964 and is continuing at that level in 1965,” the statement said.

“Profits have been steadily moving upward. In 1964 they showed a gain of 75 per cent over 1963 and a gain of 75 per cent over 1962. Profits in 1963 are even higher.” At the same time, “industry figures show that it took only 13.3 man hours to produce a ton of finished steel in 1964 compared to 15.0 man hours in 1961, a rise in productivity of 15.4 per cent per year,” the statement added.

The committee said 11 major steel producers have offered a contract improvement of only 2 per cent, equal to about 3 cents an hour. No negotiations were held Thursday. None has been scheduled for the immediate future.

Steelworkers’ Union Threatens to Strike

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—Warning “no contract—no work,” the United Steelworkers Union sanctioned a strike against the steel industry Thursday unless an agreement can be reached by May 1.

Steelworkers absolutely will refuse to work beyond May 1 without a contract boost of 17.6 cents an hour, said union President David J. McDonald. He said the union is willing to continue talks.

Federal mediator William E. Simkin, who has moved to town the past few days trying to work out a peaceful settlement immediately scheduled separate meetings with both sides for Friday.

The union directed its locals to start preparations for a shutdown. If a walkout comes it would idle 425,000 workers. The union last struck in 1959 for 166 days.

Strike sanction was voted unanimously by the union’s rank-and-file Wage Policy Committee, acting on recommendation by the Executive Board.

The committee issued a policy statement saying steel profits are high and steelworkers deserve part of them.

“Production reached record levels in 1964 and is continuing at that level in 1965,” the statement said.

“Profits have been steadily moving upward. In 1964 they showed a gain of 75 per cent over 1963 and a gain of 75 per cent over 1962. Profits in 1963 are even higher.” At the same time, “industry figures show that it took only 13.3 man hours to produce a ton of finished steel in 1964 compared to 15.0 man hours in 1961, a rise in productivity of 15.4 per cent per year,” the statement added.

Photo Competition
Sets Deadline

Entries for the 1965 SIU Student Photography Competition must be received by the Department of Printing and Photography, Building T-27, by May 7.

All SIU students, including graduates, are eligible to enter the competition which is sponsored by the Department of Printing and Photography, the Photographic Society, and Kappa Alpha Mu, national photo-journalism honorary.

To qualify, prints must have been made since March 31, 1964. And they must be mounted on artboard no larger than 16 by 20 inches.

Entry fees are $1 for 1 to 10 prints; $2 for 11 to 20 prints; and $3 for more than 20 prints.

Photographs will be judged in news, portrait and commercial divisions as well as a special division, category X, which includes experimental, off-beat or abstract photographs.

Senior Gets Defense Grant
For Grad Work at Illinois

Norman Schnake, a senior in agricultural economics, has been granted a $2,400 National Defense Education Fellowship for graduate study at the University of Illinois next year. The fellowship, awarded for work toward master’s and doctoral degrees, is renewable for two additional years with an increase of 200 annually.

Schnake has been an instructional aide to Herman M. Haag, professor of agricultural industries, for the past year.

Miss Southern Acres Contest Starts at 8 p.m.

The Miss Southern Acres Contest will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday in the VTI cafeteria, not at 7 p.m. as listed earlier in the Daily Egyptian.

Social Studies

Children who place second in the national students to visit Marion on May 10 will leave from the University Center at 8:15 a.m. instead of 8:45.

The time change was made so the students could visit the azalea gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schnafel of Marion.

The 32 students who have accepted the trip to Marion will meet the 18 participating families from Marion in the bus.

They will then go to various churches for a sightseeing tour of the area. This will be followed by dinner with the families and a sightseeing tour of the area.

SIU’s Justins Win
Tri-State Contest

The Justin Singers, a folk-singing group of SIU students, recently won the fifth annual Henderson County Lions Club tri-state talent contest in Henderson, Ky.

The original competing field consisted of 38 acts, with 18 of them vying for prizes in the junior and senior division finals.

The Justin Singers have performed on WLTV of Jacksonville and various functions, appeared on WSVU-TV, and given performances in many different high schools. The group has won first place trophies in their division of the all-campus Theta Xi Variety Show the last two years.

The group competed in the Henderson Lions Club contest last year also and finished as a runner-up. Another SIU singing group, the Pointers Quartet, took second place in this year’s competition.

Members of the Justin Singers are Bill Hayes, Larry Johnson from Carbondale, Wanda Jones, Centralia, Chuck Trewham, Oskaloosa, and Pati AusBuchon, of Festus, Mo.

Federal Grant to Aid Study
Of Mentally Troubled Pupils

SIU’s Department of Special Education has received a federal grant of $46,000 that will assist future teachers of mentally handicapped children.

Olive P. Kolato, chairman of the department, said that nine students have been selected to take part in a graduate fellowship and senior research assistantship program.

The graduate students who will participate in the program are Sara E. Maxwell, Pamela Ann Newberry, Darlene Scott, and Lawrence G. Danielson.

The seniors to take part in the program are Irene Ann Weinberg, Mary Ruth Heal, Priscilla Heenon, Carol Uffers and Pamela Jo Hoehnert.

Kolato said that graduate fellows will receive $2,000 grants for the 1965-66 academic year, plus dependency allowances, as assistants at the senior level will receive $1,600.

The grant came from the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. It is the second year that SIU has been selected to participate in the program.
Cycle Count Jumps to 800
Over Last 3-Year Period

"bikes" in for inspection, we pass them and then some of them remove theuffle from the muffler after they've been issued a sticker. Some students even remove the fender. And an additional problem is the fact that it's almost impossible to police the cycles completely.

McDevitt said that the University would rather see the Safety Check List maintained than issue tickets to violators.

"We want the students' cooperation, not their money," he said.

The Parking Section estimates there will be 1100 plus cycles on campus next fall.

"Parking will be somewhat of a problem... it is now... but the lots are expanding at a fairly rapid rate," McDevitt said.

In SIU's near motorcycle future, a permanent sticker might be issued. In other words, the student would have his motorcycle inspected once. He would not then be required to obtain a new sticker each fall.

"Motorcycles are a good, inexpensive means of transportation, and students should use and not abuse their privileges," McDevitt said.

The fantastic influx of motorcycles on campus has created a myriad of problems.

"We are averaging a motorcycle accident (requiring some medical attention) each day," said Thomas Leffler, head of the Security Office at SIU.

Leffler said the Security Office issues at least five tickets a day to students on motorcycles, for the following reasons: (1) no driver's license, (2) no lights, (3) no SIU registration, (4) speeding, (5) disobeying stop signs, (6) improper use of driveways, and (7) noise.

"Irritating noisy mufflers and the reckless driving by some cyclists seem to be the chief complaints," Leffler said.

Motorcycle accidents have taken their toll at SIU. One student has lost his life after colliding with a truck and another student's leg was amputated as a result of a motorcycle-train accident.

"If the accidents increase, a more stringent cycle safety code will have to be put into effect," Leffler said.
Chemistry Keglers Win 4 Games, Tie Spares for Staff Bowling Lead

The Chemistry Keglers climbed to a tie for first place with the Spares by winning four games from the Agriculture team Monday night at the University Center bowling lanes. The matches were in Faculty-Staff League play. The Spares, who had enjoyed undisputed possession of the top spot, won three from Industrial Education to preserve a share of first place.

In other matches, the Technology II team suffered a severe setback in their bid for league honors by dropping four to the University Center bowlers. V.T.I. blanked Rehabilitation to gain four points in the standings and the Alley Cats turned the trick by sweeping four from Data Processing.

The last-place Counseling and Testing team could manage only one victory in the University Center bowling a share of first place. Its set with seventh-place Industrial Education to preserve the undisputed possession of the top spot. won three from Data Processing.

Progress and Testing team could 1959 in other matches, the Tech-

OOPS!—A slight miscalculation by horse and rider at a recent steeplechase caused Nicholas Vergette, associate professor of art, and Billy Joy, his mount, to strike the fence.

OUCH!—Vergette attempted to roll free but Billy Joy pinned him to the ground for a moment.

TRAPPED—Vergette seeks to protect his face from Billy Joy’s hooves as the horse rolls over on him. These pictures were taken at the Southern Illinois Open Hunt Horse Show in February. It was a forerunner to a similar steeplechase to be held Saturday and Sunday at Larry Sheffield’s Stonewall farm southeast of Devil’s Kitchen Lake.

Saluki Track Team Enters Drake Meet

Continuing to surprise the naysayers, Salukis have won almost every outing, St. Louis' small but talented track team has a shot at scoring at least 350 among the 26 feet 2 inches set only a month ago at Des Moines, Iowa. Coach Larry Summers and his team have surpassed expectations of everyone in the meet's long history, expected to be repeated in the near future.

Coach Larry Summers will go with the same quartet in the sprint medley as that of today's race only Abileene Christian has a faster time than mine.

Texas Southern University has the nation's best mark with a 2:40.8. But they'll skip this afternoon's race only Abileene Christian has a faster time than mine.

The Saluki team will be in the second heat with Ohio State, Wisconsin, Central State of Ohio and Baylor. Abileene Christian will lead the way in the first heat, with Oklahoma State, Oregon, Drake and Drake State also running.

The six fastest teams will qualify for Saturday's finals scheduled at 4:40 p.m. The Salukis, however, are hoping for the first place nod that is the start of the mile relay preliminaries.

The Salukis will be competing at 3:45 p.m. in the sprint medley relay, an event in which the Salukis hold the meet record of 1:03.87 set in 1963 and in which the Salukis have run the fastest time in the nation this season, 1:03.84.

Saluki's .300 Baseball Team To Play Cincinnati Saturday

SIU's hot-hitting baseball Saluki will take a .300 team batting average into a game for the first time this season Saturday afternoon. The Salukis play host to Missouri Valley Conference foe Cincinnati in a doubleheader starting at 1 p.m.

The Salukis edged above the magic mark to .303 with 19 hits in Tuesday's lopsided 19-4 victory over Evansville. Kent Collins, a senior from Alton, continues to lead the way with a .438 average on 21 hits in 48 at-bats.
