The Daily Egyptian, February 24, 1872

Daily Egyptian Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://opensiuc.lib.siu.edu/de_February1972
Volume 53, Issue 95

Recommended Citation

Blackout lasts over an hour

By Monroe Walker
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

Blown fuse, insulator cause power failure

Conduct Code revised concerning dual jurisdiction, academic cheating

By Richard Lorenz
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

The North Vietnamese so far have covered ideas for cultural and scientific exchanges, a Nixon goal, and perhaps had discussed Vietnam.

No one expects the Chinese to give in on Nixon's peace plan for Indochina. Chou made clear before the President arrived in China that the plan was unacceptable.

Penalty reflecting Hanoi's certainty on this, George Wald, a Harvard antiwar professor, said in Hong Kong on his arrival Wednesday from North Vietnam: "I think the Chinese are going to hold the line on Vietnam."

The North Vietnamese so far have avoided any press or radio mention of Nixon's trip.
Police report 3 bike thefts

SIU security police Wednesday reported the theft of three bicycles from students earlier in the week.

A blue and silver girls’ bike valued at $50 was stolen from 600 W. Freeman St. between 8 p.m. and 11 p.m., according to its owner, Cetermina C. Gayo, 33, Carbondale.

Jonathan J. Cutler, 19, Carbondale, told police his Japanese racing bicycle was stolen from the square.

Playhouse to air penicillin story

Thursday afternoon and evening programs on WSUI-TV, Channel 8: 3 p.m.—Spotlight on Southern Illinois, 3:30—This Week; 4—Sesame Street; 5—The Evening Report; 5:30—Mister Roger’s Neighborhood; 6—Electric Company; 8:30—Sportscenter.

7—Thirty Minutes with Governor John Connally of Texas; 8—Mysteries of Bruce Lee.

7:30—NET Playhouse biography: “Sir Alexander Fleming.” In his efforts to isolate a substance to kill bacteria, yet not harm animals, Fleming discovers the penicillin.

If anyone has any information about the thefts, they are asked to call the police department.

Activities

SGAC Movies: Gable Festival; “It Started in Naples” and “San Francisco”, 7:30 and 10 p.m., Student Center Admission free.

Social Work Club: Meeting, 7:30-10 p.m., Wˇnna Faculty Lounge.

Sailing Club: Meeting, 8:30 to 11 p.m., November 9-10 p.m., Morris Auditorium.

Christian Science Organization: Meeting, 8 p.m., Wesley Foundation.

Public Relations Students’ Society of America: Meeting, 7-9 p.m., Student Center Room D, Speaker, Dr. Keith Sanders, “Political Campaign Processes.”

Recreation Club: Meeting, 9-10 p.m., Home Economics 206.

FREE DELIVERY OPEN Sun. - Thurs. till 10 p.m., Fri. - Sat. till 5 a.m., Complete Luncheon Special $1.15

- Sandwich
- Salad
- Soda
- ½ PRICE PIZZA: 11:30 a.m. - 6 p.m. Daily

The Purple Mousetrap

Road Runner Club

Route 1 DeSoto Illinois
Six Miles North of
Carbondale on Rt. 51
Phone 867-9367

Judo Club: Meeting, 7:30-4:15 p.m., E. Concourse, Arena

Society of American Foresters: Meeting, 7-9 p.m., Agriculture 166.

Southern Illinois Abortion Repeal Coalition: Meeting, 7:30 p.m., Student Center Room B.

College Democrats: Meeting, 7:30-9 p.m., Student Center Room C.

Pan Hellenic Council: Meeting, 8-10 p.m., Student Center Room A.

International Programming Committee: Meeting, 8-10 p.m., Student Center B.

Student Health Consumer Council: Meeting, 8-9 p.m. Thursday in the Ohio Room of the Student Center.

JED T. KELLY

Phone 867-9367

The Purple Mousetrap

Paul Newman is HANK STAMPER in Ken Kesey’s TOWERING STORY!

NOW VARIETY

“PURE DYNAMITE!”

“THE NIFTIEST CHASE SEQUENCE SINCE SILENT FILMS!”

—Paul D. Zimmerman

NOW CINEMA

“SOMETIMES a GREAT NOTION”

“THE FRENCH CONNECTION”

LATE SHOW

Friday – Saturday

BOB DYLAN

DON’T LOOK BACK

“THE LITTLE ARK”

GARY"

Page 2, Daily Egyptian, February 24, 1972
Illinois student group head urges change in IBHE methods

By Randy Thomas
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

Lorrie J. Johns, executive director of the Association of Illinois Student Governments (AISG), told the Student Senate Wednesday night that some work must be done about the closed process of Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE).

Johns told the senators that much of the board’s work is done behind closed doors, especially that done in meetings of the Illinois Council of Higher Education. The board’s work is done behind closed doors, especially that done in meetings of the Illinois Council of Higher Education.

"We will probably have our man by April 15," Jerry Maxwell, assistant city manager, said Wednesday. The prospects are good that Carbondale will have a new city manager by mid-April.

The office has been vacant since the resignation of William Schmidt at the end of 1973. Public Works Director Bill Schwengen is currently serving as acting city manager.

A Chicago consulting firm contracted by the city to assist in the selection process is already screening applications for the position, using criteria developed during a meeting last week.

At the meeting, representatives of seven local groups met with the City Council and with City Manager Maxwell, a consultant to the Jacobs Co. of Chicago, to determine qualifications which city manager candidates should meet.

Among the criteria mentioned were a bachelor’s degree, preferably in government, administration or business; "sufficient experience" as a city manager or assistant in at least two or other large cities over a period of five or six years; and experience in dealing with labor unions, with minority groups and with students.

The City Council is to be reviewed by the Jacobs firm at least monthly, to discuss the progress of the search.

The Jacobs firm will attempt to "honor" the number of applicants to about 15, at which time those applicants’ qualifications will be reviewed by the council.

Representatives of seven local groups also will participate in the review and in subsequent interviews of the four to six candidates brought to Carbondale, Maxwell said.

The represents and the groups to which they belong are: Pat Conti, SIU students; Chester Williams, SIU employees; "Gree" Pelfreys, SIU administration; Norvel Haynes, Northeast Congress; Harold Hill, city employees; Betty Evanson, Carbondale Advisory Council; and Don Meyer, Carbondale Chamber of Commerce.

City manager search may end by mid-April

By Barry Cleveland
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

"We will probably have our man by April 15," Jerry Maxwell, assistant city manager, said Wednesday. The prospects are good that Carbondale will have a new city manager by mid-April.

The office has been vacant since the resignation of William Schmidt at the end of 1973. Public Works Director Bill Schwengen is currently serving as acting city manager.

A Chicago consulting firm contracted by the city to assist in the selection process is already screening applications for the position, using criteria developed during a meeting last week.

At the meeting, representatives of seven local groups met with the City Council and with City Manager Maxwell, a consultant to the Jacobs Co. of Chicago, to determine qualifications which city manager candidates should meet.

Among the criteria mentioned were a bachelor’s degree, preferably in government, administration or business; "sufficient experience" as a city manager or assistant in at least two or other large cities over a period of five or six years; and experience in dealing with labor unions, with minority groups and with students.

The City Council is to be reviewed by the Jacobs firm at least monthly, to discuss the progress of the search.

The Jacobs firm will attempt to "honor" the number of applicants to about 15, at which time those applicants’ qualifications will be reviewed by the council.

Representatives of seven local groups also will participate in the review and in subsequent interviews of the four to six candidates brought to Carbondale, Maxwell said.

The represents and the groups to which they belong are: Pat Conti, SIU students; Chester Williams, SIU employees; "Gree" Pelfreys, SIU administration; Norvel Haynes, Northeast Congress; Harold Hill, city employees; Betty Evanson, Carbondale Advisory Council; and Don Meyer, Carbondale Chamber of Commerce.
No reasonable doubt remains that cigarette smoking is the leading cause of lung cancer among American men, or that cigarettes are a significant factor in death from such diseases as emphysema and cancer of the lungs. Research has been conducted in numerous studies, most notably the Surgeon General’s 1964 report on Smoking and Health.

In light of this irrefutable evidence, the Federal government imposed a ban on radio and television cigarette advertising which took effect a little more than a year ago. This broadcast advertising ban has resulted, unfortunately, in an increase in cigarette advertisements appearing in the print media. A sampling of several national magazines including Newsweek, Time and Life, made shortly after the ban took effect, showed a marked increase in the amount of cigarette advertising when compared with issues of the same period the previous year when there was no ban.

As a result of judges selected to rule on the constitutionality of the ban has found in a 2-1 decision that advertising is not entitled to the full protection of the First Amendment and that the ban is therefore to remain in effect. The broadcast ban, having been given this preliminary judicial stamp of approval, must now be broadened to bring about the end of cigarette advertising in all of the media including newspapers and magazines.

This misuse, only a commitment by each cigarette smoker to quit smoking coupled with an effective media campaign to discourage new generations of smokers from lighting up will put an end to the health menace posed by cigarettes. This is the only hope that magazine and newspaper publishers, and cigarette manufacturers, however, is counterproductive to the goal of a healthy society. Magazine owners must recognize the immorality inherent in profiting by helping to glorify a product that is known to cause death and disease on a disastrous scale year after year.

Circuit Court Judge J. Skelly Wright, one of the judges who served on the panel, said of television cigarette commercials in words that none apply to the advertisements being run in the print media, “Overwhelming evidence makes plain that the Salem girl was a seductive merchant of death—that the real Marlboro Country is a graveyard.”

The print media must end voluntarily their practice of selling advertising space to the tobacco companies to use to encourage the use of cigarettes. It is voluntary effort is not made soon, the Federal government should act to extend the broadcast ban to apply to all the media in the interest of the health and quality of life that must be sought for all people.

Robert McIntosh

Student Writer

The ring of terror

The telephone rings. The terrorized senior begins to tremble. "It is time to quit smoking," he hears with agonizing fear that he answers after three rings. With a parched, sickly hello the student’s worst fears are realized. With blushed face and shaking hands he listens to the smooth, well-practiced monotone. They’ve found him again.

They are the telephone solicitors. They will try to sell the graduating student damn near anything that includes an longest-standing agreement. Life, auto and health insurance, a consumer buying service, encyclopedias and many other “services” designed to provide "premiums" from the proceeds of the money he hasn’t earned yet.

This week only, a commitment by each cigarette smoker to quit smoking coupled with an effective media campaign to discourage new generations of smokers from lighting up will put an end to the health menace posed by cigarettes. This is the only hope that magazine and newspaper publishers, and cigarette manufacturers, however, is counterproductive to the goal of a healthy society. Magazine owners must recognize the immorality inherent in profiting by helping to glorify a product that is known to cause death and disease on a disastrous scale year after year.

Circuit Court Judge J. Skelly Wright, one of the judges who served on the panel, said of television cigarette commercials in words that none apply to the advertisements being run in the print media, “Overwhelming evidence makes plain that the Salem girl was a seductive merchant of death—that the real Marlboro Country is a graveyard.”

The print media must end voluntarily their practice of selling advertising space to the tobacco companies to use to encourage the use of cigarettes. It is voluntary effort is not made soon, the Federal government should act to extend the broadcast ban to apply to all the media in the interest of the health and quality of life that must be sought for all people.

Robert McIntosh

Student Writer

Who’s criminal?

Now that opposition to the Indochina war has become almost universal, the question of what to do with the estimated 70,000 resisters and deserters has become a major political issue. Several congressmen have introduced bills providing amnesty for draft resisters, but not deserters, on the condition that they work for some kind of government-supervised alternative civil service for a number of years.

President Nixon has also offered to be "very liberal with regard to amnesty," but only after the war is over and all the POWs are returned—and then only in connection with an unspecified type of punishment. People could grow very old and tired waiting for this kind of amnesty.

Doubting the morality of protests, these politicians are pushing the amnesty question for very practical and obvious political purposes. They’re attempting to "buy" the "law" of the land-year vote, by which they have largely been in favor of the anti-war movement, with their usual unscrupulous group exaggerations.

And so, we, the people, are left to examine the evidence and search our minds in order to determine whether or not the real government is responsible for sending millions of young men to kill a people who have never threatened the safety and security of the country. It might be possible for young men to refuse to part in this war. It might be time for the government to offer a conditional pardon to the victims.

John Hudell
Student Writer

Paying 10 cents an hour at meters because the University sold one-and-a-half red decals for each parking space has become a real problem. Not only are there too many cars for the lots, but the large lots (Communications, Arena, Brush Towers) are far east and central campus.

Carbondale may reap some profits from the parking lot vendors at SIU, but the SIU administrators may crawl out by saying there are no areas to build lots. But one thing seems certain.

Poor Joe Student will get the short end of the deal. He’ll be able to pay 10 cents to go class while glaring at his useless $30 red decal.

David Butler
Student Writer

Promises, promises

You can tell it’s an election year. The politicians are promising what the people have been demanding for years. Only instead of a chicken in every pot, this time it’s a dove on a bamboo platter.

Lisa Beck
Student Writer

Parking meters

Carbondale has made an unmw move by choosing to install parking meters in lots along the Illinois Central railroad tracks near campus.

The lots, which the city has designated for SIU visitors, will be filled with student’s cars. Cars that have red parking decals...

Who decides parking lots?

SIU does not have sufficient red decal parking lots near the center or to the east portion of central campus.

SIU previously held leases for the lots along the tracks. But the I.C. increased the leases a substantial sum (from $600 to $29,996 for one lot) and the University balked. But along came the city.

Although the financial woes of Carbondale are well known, the city will install 300 meters and bumper guards in the lots at a cost of $22,000. This is in addition to the hourly price.

More important than the city’s money making venture is SIU’s inaction.

Although the University has known for more than a year that the lots could no longer be used, only one new small lot has been built on Grand Street.

Students and student workers around Anthony Hall are told by the Parking and Traffic section to park north of Brush Towers or at the Arena. Both are quite a distance from the center of campus.

Who will be hurt by the city’s actions and SIU’s inaction?

Students.

Paying 10 cents an hour at meters because the University sold one-and-a-half red decals for each parking space has become a real problem. Not only are there too many cars for the lots, but the large lots (Communications, Arena, Brush Towers) are far east and central campus.

Carbondale may reap some profits from the parking lot vendors at SIU, but the SIU administrators may crawl out by saying there are no areas to build lots. But one thing seems certain.

Poor Joe Student will get the short end of the deal. He’ll be able to pay 10 cents to go class while glaring at his useless $30 red decal.

David Butler
Student Writer

Who’s criminal?

Now that opposition to the Indochina war has become almost universal, the question of what to do with the estimated 70,000 resisters and deserters has become a major political issue. Several congressmen have introduced bills providing amnesty for draft resisters, but not deserters, on the condition that they work for some kind of government-supervised alternative civil service for a number of years.

President Nixon has also offered to be "very liberal with regard to amnesty," but only after the war is over and all the POWs are returned—and then only in connection with an unspecified type of punishment. People could grow very old and tired waiting for this kind of amnesty.

Doubting the morality of protests, these politicians are pushing the amnesty question for very practical and obvious political purposes. They’re attempting to "buy" the "law" of the land-year vote, by which they have largely been in favor of the anti-war movement, with their usual unscrupulous group exaggerations.

And so, we, the people, are left to examine the evidence and search our minds in order to determine whether or not the real government is responsible for sending millions of young men to kill a people who have never threatened the safety and security of the country. It might be possible for young men to refuse to part in this war. It might be time for the government to offer a conditional pardon to the victims.

John Hudell
Student Writer

Paying 10 cents an hour at meters because the University sold one-and-a-half red decals for each parking space has become a real problem. Not only are there too many cars for the lots, but the large lots (Communications, Arena, Brush Towers) are far east and central campus.

Carbondale may reap some profits from the parking lot vendors at SIU, but the SIU administrators may crawl out by saying there are no areas to build lots. But one thing seems certain.

Poor Joe Student will get the short end of the deal. He’ll be able to pay 10 cents to go class while glaring at his useless $30 red decal.

David Butler
Student Writer

Promises, promises

You can tell it’s an election year. The politicians are promising what the people have been demanding for years. Only instead of a chicken in every pot, this time it’s a dove on a bamboo platter.

Lisa Beck
Student Writer
Letters to the editor

Board's decision stifling

To the Daily Egyptian:

It is difficult to breathe, much less work, in the atmosphere created by the board's Friday decision in the Douglas Allen tenure case. I, for one, will try to conduct classes as normal in the coming weeks until I hear some satisfactory explanation for the board's apparently arbitrary and willful action against one of my colleagues, I will be severely hampered in my effectiveness as a teacher. As I stand before my students in the classroom I sense the lie of my presence and actions, for nothing I can say relative to my narrow academic discipline can be of much importance as long as free discussion may be impaired and the will of the majority denied by the unaccountable acts of a distant, invisible power, as long as professors may be silenced by the threat of economic sanctions. I therefore call upon my colleagues in the foreign language department, upon my colleagues in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, upon all my colleagues in all the University departments and schools, to examine your own thoughts on this subject and to set aside at least one day this week for an in-class discussion of this important question.

John F. Gadway
Instructor, Foreign Language

Derge should speak out

To the Daily Egyptian:

During the past two weeks, many students have voiced their disquiet at Doug Allen's denial of tenure, not just in the pages of the Daily Egyptian, but in the additional support of students to Allen's departmental colleagues in the foreign language department. Many of these students have not had sufficient time to reach a conclusion on this issue, as if to tell the board what it does that prove. Other than a lot of people can write defending the civil liberties of Miss Marrs. I hope

One for the board

To the Daily Egyptian:

Five thousands signatures of faculty, students and clergy—Big Deal. Since when do the faculty and students need the additional support of the clergy to fight their causes? Could not just one red neck staff member be found to sign? Give me free equal space for the news media, and I can obtain signatures firmly against the Allen issue. So what does that prove, other than a lot of people can write their name?

What is the warning implied in the board's reaffirmation of their prior action of denying tenure to a faculty member? Unless everybody has lost their bearings, isn't this decision still the province of the Board of Trustees? Freedom of speech? Bull! What about the board's freedom of speech? When are the people comprising this University community going to allow common sense and the rule of reason to prevail? "Hooray" for the Board of Trustees.

Ray Yarbrough
Staff

P.S. For those of you wanting to donate money to something, how about the Association for the Blind, the Crippled Children's Hospital or some other "worthy" cause.

To the Daily Egyptian:

One of the most delightful bylines, Daniel T. Primrose's letter is making an already confused issue--"curiouser and curiouser." Poor Miss Marrs; how could she ever know that her freedom of expression, to describe a class as she saw it, would be threatened by a libel suit by a loyal student supported by his wife. And all this because he is not interested in the freedom of expression. Is this not the proper time for Mr. Lyman Baker and Rev. Lane to issue a statement defending the civil liberties of Miss Marrs. I hope that an action like this would restore the shattered image of the Board of Trustees, whether or not it is successful.

What is the warning evidence presented by Morris Bishop in Commentary?

Hagiology has a peculiar canon. In this decade its hall-of-famers seem entirely to come from one-crop-anti-Vietamin the news media. The clout associated with this movement makes us blind to judge people and issues in our perspective.

I have no quarrel with the petition being circulated by ideologues. The student movements are a real phenomenon, unfortunately, are susceptible to manipulation. I submit that if the ideological

Let's debate it all

To the Daily Egyptian:

To quote Lewis Carroll's delightful heroine, Daniel T. Primrose's letter is making an already confused issue—"curiouser and curiouser." Poor Miss Marrs; how could she ever know that her freedom of expression, to describe a class as she saw it, would be threatened by a libel suit by a loyal student supported by his wife. And all this because he is not interested in the freedom of expression. Is this not the proper time for Mr. Lyman Baker and Rev. Lane to issue a statement defending the civil liberties of Miss Marrs. I hope that an action like this would restore the shattered image of the Board of Trustees, whether or not it is successful.

What is the warning evidence presented by Morris Bishop in Commentary?

Hagiology has a peculiar canon. In this decade its hall-of-famers seem entirely to come from one-crop-anti-Vietamin the news media. The clout associated with this movement makes us blind to judge people and issues in our perspective.

I have no quarrel with the petition being circulated by ideologues. The student movements are a real phenomenon, unfortunately, are susceptible to manipulation. I submit that if the ideological

Convos speaker deserved better

To the Daily Egyptian:

In spite of the sterile atmosphere of the Arena, black poetess Joanna Featherstone's Feb. 17 Convocation was a pleasant surprise. Joanna Featherstone was obviously shaken by the ill-mannered indifference displayed by a great many of those in attendance.

The habitual latecomers provided the first interruptions. Many of those in the audience for the stage conversed, seemingly untouched by the speaker's emotional readings. I observed students reading newspapers, doing schoolwork and working on crossword puzzles. The more nervous of these students even sought room darkening shades. Scarcely of those left early, apparently more interested in the first five

They only ask

To the Daily Egyptian:

Ted Lindberg's letter of Feb. 18 stated that letters have been berating Dean Elwyn Zimmerman for doing his job. I do not believe they are berating him, they are just asking why must freshman and sophomores under 21 years of age live in University-approved housing or present just cause for not doing so?

Zimmerman is the only one they can direct their questions to without having them cast aside.

Lindberg also stated that the Western District of Louisiana handed down a judgment stating that a university could require a student to live in approved housing. What other you think that, that is true in another state will hand down the same ruling?

You also stated that the Supreme Court refused to hear the case, you must reread also that in 1970 persons under 21 did not have the right to vote. A lot of things have changed since 1970 and maybe even the decision of the court.

What disturbed me most about your comment is the fact that you are a grad student. What concern is it of yours if freshmen and sophomores want to live off campus?

Since you are a grad student, I am willing to wager that you do. do? live off campus or be subjected to the things a freshman is subjected to.

C. Kumarratnun
Higher Education

To the Daily Egyptian:

Ted Lindberg's letter of Feb. 18 stated that letters have been berating Dean Elwyn Zimmerman for doing his job. I do not believe they are berating him, they are just asking why must freshman and sophomores under 21 years of age live in University-approved housing or present just cause for not doing so?

Zimmerman is the only one they can direct their questions to without having them cast aside.

Lindberg also stated that the Western District of Louisiana handed down a judgment stating that a university could require a student to live in approved housing. What other you think that, that is true in another state will hand down the same ruling?

You also stated that the Supreme Court refused to hear the case, you must reread also that in 1970 persons under 21 did not have the right to vote. A lot of things have changed since 1970 and maybe even the decision of the court.

What disturbed me most about your comment is the fact that you are a grad student. What concern is it of yours if freshmen and sophomores want to live off campus?

Since you are a grad student, I am willing to wager that you do. do? live off campus or be subjected to the things a freshman is subjected to.

Robert Smith
Sophomore, Secondary Education
GSC to reconsider motion against board in Allen case

By Richard Lawrence
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

A motion expressing the Graduate Students Council's (GSC) opposition to the Board of Trustees' denial of tenure to Doug Allen will be reconsidered at a GSC meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Memorial Room of the Student Center.

The motion, presented at the Feb. 11 meeting by D. Reed Clark, stated that the council "did not look with favor" on the board's action in not granting Allen tenure. The motion was passed inadvertently, Clark is the council's president.

The reason for raising the motion was that there was a lack of information concerning the case.

Allen was originally denied tenure in November 1970 by the board. However, he was again denied tenure in December 1971, despite a favorable recommendation from then-president Robert G. Layer. The board reaffirmed its December decision last Friday by once again denying Allen tenure. The American Civil Liberties Union is planning to sue the board on behalf of Allen.

In other action, the council is expected to consider a request made at the Feb. 11 meeting by Franklin "Buzz" Specter, editor of Grassroots, asking the council for $200 in order to publish the spring edition of the magazine.

Specter told the council the magazine's account was empty. The spring edition is scheduled to appear in the first week of spring quarter.

The question of constitutional changes is also scheduled. Bill Edwards, a member of the Constitutional Committee, has indicated that the committee will have specific amendments or a whole new constitution prepared by Friday's meeting. A copy of the amendments or the new constitution has not been released.

Discussion will also be held concerning the university governance system. The purpose of the discussion is to try to develop some type of consensus among the council members concerning the retention or the modification of the system.

Abortion discussion at Center Thursday

By Pat Nauman
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

The Carbondale chapter of the Women's National Abortion Action Coalition (WONAAC) will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Activity Room B of the Student Center to discuss upcoming activities, including a possible week of action May 14.

WONAAC will also have a table in Area C of the Student Center Thursday from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. to distribute reprints from the Illinois Women's Abortion Action Coalition Fact Sheet and the book, "Black Women and the Motherhood Myth" by Beverly Cope.

According to Pat Moffett, a member of WONAAC, the group hopes to hold a campus referendum on abortion as part of the spring student government elections. The group may also have an evening of testimony by those who have had abortions.

The group is also planning an April teach-in involving all groups concerned with repealing anti-abortion laws, according to Ms. Moffett.

In May, members of the Coalition will produce two plays: "What Have You Done For Me Lately," by Myrna Lamb and "The States Forbids," the WONAAC group also plans to raise funds to pay for reprints.

Talk by Young Republicans set Thursday

By Bob Mertes
Daily Student Writer

The Young Republicans will present their views in a discussion titled, "The New Order and the Registration Drive" at 9 a.m. Thursday in WSIL-TV Channel 3.

The participants in the discussion will be Jack Van Der Sluis, faculty adviser to the Young Republicans, and Nancy Colman, president of the Young Republicans. Rebecca Baker, professor of education, and Ms. Barbara Martin, counselor in the Affirmative Action Program, will appear on the same program.

The Young Republicans will provide the \"ISS\" panel discussion on their attendance at a recent conference on women's rights in Chicago. The title of their discussion is \"The Women Speak Out.\"

The second part of the program will include a discussion entitled, \"The Secretary of Now,\" Carolyn Britten, secretary in the Department of Philosophy; Elaine Dallman, a teaching assistant in the Department of English; and Karen Siegel will be the participants of this program.

The moderator for each program will be the Jim Cox and C. Kumararatnam.

Blum's is doing it again-- offering you the best prices in town. Blum's Spring Store, 701 S. University, will be closed today until 4 p.m. in order to reduce their prices even further! Prices will be drastically cut!

The store will be open from 4 p.m.-9 p.m. tonite.

T Shirts and Hot Pants - orig. to $12.00 2 for $5 (large groups from which to select, many colors, fabrics, and styles.)

Dresses orig. to $24.00 $588-$988
Swim Suits- orig. to $18.00 $588
Hot Pant Sets- orig. to $18.00 $188-$488

Bargain Table

Many Asst. items $1.00
Peasant Blouses $2.00
Opaque Hose $1.00

Spring Store
701 S. University

Opaque Peasant Swim Suits- orig. to $18.00 $1.00

Blum's

MAY SPECIAL:
ITALIAN FESTIVAL
PESTUCELLE
All You Can Eat! $1.00

LISTEN TO PAPA ON WIDB CAMPUS RADIO!

Warm Balls Sandwich and Salad 1/2 lb
Trustees get letters backing Allen from 3 universities

By Pat Nassanan
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

Three more letters in support of philosophy faculty member Douglas A. Allen have been sent to the Board of Trustees from students and faculty at other universities, according to a spokesman for the Committee to Defend the Right to Speak (CDRS).

The letters, urging the board to reverse its decision denying tenure to Allen, were from the University of California, Berkeley; Washington University, St. Louis; and the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

Charles Sellers, a professor of history at the University of California, wrote that he is "dismayed to learn of the controversy at your institution over the appointment of Dr. Douglas Allen.

"Because the whole academic world is affected by any case of this kind," the letter said, "I hope you will understand that a decision based on a man's expression of unpopular opinions will be viewed as a threat to academic freedom everywhere.

"The academic world knows that this kind is the surest way to muzzle the spirit of unfettered inquiry. "People of real intellectual or personal quality would want to be associated with such an institution," Sellers wrote.

Mark Selden, assistant professor of history at Washington University, wrote that it is the Trustees "who have thrown dirt in the face of the entire university and community, for it is the Trustees...who are now purging the most principled upholder of the university as a place of true independent inquiry in the service of the American people.

"The future of the university rests on the retention of scholar-teachers of the caliber of Mr. Allen...It is not too late to save the university," wrote Selden.

Furniture

Scott's Barn

Across from Ramada Inn 549-7000

Free Admission to Everyone til 10:00

25¢ Beer for guys ALL NITE!

BONAPARTE'S

Tonight is Boney Nite with ARROW MEMPHIS

Remember Free Admission to Everyone til 10:00

SPUDNUTS

Open 24 hours a Day
7 days a week
CAMPUS SHOPPING CENTER 549-2665

Daily Egyptian classifieds work.

FRANKLY SPEAKING by Phil Frank

'GUESS WHOSE TURN IT WAS TO PAY THE ELECTRIC BILL!'

Campus briefs

Peter Cole, instructor at the Center for English as a Second Language, has written an article entitled "An Adaptation of Group Dynamics Techniques to Foreign Language Teaching." Originally published in TESOL Quarterly, it has been reprinted in Forum, a journal published by the United States Office of Information.

Cole is presently on leave of absence, completing his studies for a Ph.D. in linguistics at the University of Illinois on a fellowship.

+ + + + +

Cleo D. Carter, assistant professor of education, has been appointed to serve as a member of a statewide advisory committee. Ms. Carter will serve as a member of the Health Education Advisory Committee on the Critical Health Problems and Comprehensive Health Education Act.

Signed into law on August 31, the act provides for the committee which will advise the office of the superintendent of public instruction on all matters relating to the provisions of the act.

+ + + + +

An article entitled "Job Market: Some Solutions" by Jewell A. Friend, assistant professor of English, has been published in the current issue of English Education, a journal.

The book grew out of her experience as supervisor of the writing program for foreign students at the Center for English as a Second Language in the Department of English.

Weekend sale-at flea market will be held

A flea market will be held at the Student Center this weekend. Rhonda Starnes, chairman of the Student Center Programming Committee, said Wednesday.

The market will be located on the fourth floor of the Center from 7:30 p.m. until midnight Friday and in the Roman Room from noon to midnight Saturday.

Among the items on sale will be clothing, jewelry, art work of all kinds, odds and ends, Miss Starnes said.

Persons interested in participating should contact the student government office at 536-2541 or student activities office at 452-5714.
Model U.N. begins tonight; speaker includes diplomats

By Daryl Stephenson

Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

The 14th annual Model United Nations Assembly will officially begin with the first session at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the Student Center Ballrooms.

Bobbie Sherry, a member of the U.N. Secretariat staff assigned to Security Council affairs and member of the U.N. Peacekeeping Committee, will deliver the keynote address at 8 a.m. Thursday.

Bobbie Carter, secretary general of the Model United Nations, said that this year's assembly will feature two other speakers in addition to Sherry before adjourning Saturday.

One is U.S. Sen. Frank L. Hart-D.Okla., who will address the assembly at 4:15 p.m. Friday. Carter said that Harris will speak on the World Health Organization and his own involvement with U.N. efforts to help underprivileged children.

The other speaker is Robert Boetcher, staff consultant to the International Organizations and Movements sub-committee of the U.S. House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee. Boetcher has recently returned from Austria where he held discussions with representatives of several central European countries. He will speak at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Student Center Ballrooms.

Carter said this year's assembly will have 90 delegates composed of delegates. The theme of the assembly will be the "U.N. Game" or "angame," he said.

"What is meant by angame," said Carter, "is that events will be set up so that each participant will attempt to assume the role that an actual U.N. delegate would assume in hypothetical situations.

Carter said that in the past, the delegates addressed themselves to actual ongoing current issues, and thus ended up poring mass media opinions they had either heard or read about.

"There was a little less going on in regard to the actual workings of the United Nations," said Carter.

"So, what we have done is to devise the angame," he said. "In draw up in advance several hypothetical situations that have not yet happened, but could possibly happen or even will happen in the future."

"None of the delegates know what these situations are," Carter said. "All they know is the background information given them concerning the nature of the country they are representing."

Carter said that the hypothetical situations will be distributed one at a time throughout the duration of the assembly. Thus it will be the task of each delegation, he said, to decide what its country would do in a given hypothetical situation using what it already knows about that country's past actions.

Carter said that during the last session Saturday, Boetcher will participate in a panel which will review the assembly's decisions and compare them with what the panel thinks the actual United Nations would do in the same situations.

The other members of the panel are Maj. M. Forsyth Jr. of the Air Force ROTC and Madison Landis, decker and Earl T. Hanson, both professors of government.

The sessions will be open to the public, said Carter, with seating capacity in the ballrooms reaching about 300.

Here is a schedule of the sessions:

Registrations of delegations, 3 p.m. Thursday, opening session.

First session, 6:30 p.m. Thursday; second session, 8 p.m. Friday; third session, 6:30 p.m. Friday; fourth session, 6:30 p.m. Friday; fifth session, 9 a.m. Saturday; sixth session, noon Saturday and the seventh and final session, 2 p.m. Saturday.

Judge rules for bail in Angela Davis case

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A judge ruled Wednesday that Angela Davis could be released on bail, allowing her to be freed after 16 months imprisonment on murder-kidnap charges, her attorney said.

Now that you can fly to Europe for peanuts, here's how little you shell out to get around:

$130 for Two Months of unlimited air travel in Europe–Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland.

You shell out $130, and get a Student-Railpass.

All you need is the bread and something to show you're a bona fide student between 14 and 25.

Our Student-Railpass gives you all that unlimited rail travel on the 100,000 mile railroad networks of those 13 countries for two foot-loose months. So with low air fares and Student-Railpass you've got Europe made.

Our Student-Railpass gives you Second Class travel on our trains. You'll find that there's very little second class about Second Class. Besides being comfortable, clean, fast, and absurdly punctual, the European trains have some other advantages for you. They take you from city center to city center, so you don't have to hassle airports. And the stations are helpful homes away from home, with Picktograms that give you information in the universal language of signs, and dining rooms, bookstores and other helpful facilities.

Now, here's the catch. You can't get your Student-Railpass or the regular First Class Eurailpass in Europe—you have to get them before you leave the country. So see your Travel Agent soon. Meanwhile, send in the coupon for a free folder, complete with railroad map.

Soaked, chilled child gets help from SIU coed

A cold, wet and crying eight-year-old boy was taken in by an SIU coed at Thompson Point Tuesday and delivered safely to his home by SIU security police.

Chanis Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynd, 1601 G St. W., Walnut, Ile., Lakeville-on-the-Carrollton, Ill., was taken from school who were tearing the park, allegedly followed the girl and boy, who was in a nearby home for help after he and the girl alleged they were attacked.

Charged with rape were Rico Limardo, 18, Chicago; Arthur Vosley, 17, Rock Island; James William, 16, Chicago; and Herman Yates, 16, Chicago.

Smorgasbord 5-9

Thurs. & Fri.

Little Life

Now that you can fly to Europe for peanuts, here's how little you shell out to get around:

$130 for Two Months of unlimited air travel in Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland.

You shell out $130, and get a Student-Railpass. All you need is the bread and something to show you're a bona fide student between 14 and 25.

Our Student-Railpass gives you all that unlimited rail travel on the 100,000 mile railroad networks of those 13 countries for two foot-loose months. So with low air fares and Student-Railpass you've got Europe made.

Our Student-Railpass gives you Second Class travel on our trains. You'll find that there's very little second class about Second Class. Besides being comfortable, clean, fast, and absurdly punctual, the European trains have some other advantages for you. They take you from city center to city center, so you don't have to hassle airports. And the stations are helpful homes away from home, with Picktograms that give you information in the universal language of signs, and dining rooms, bookstores and other helpful facilities.

Now, here's the catch. You can't get your Student-Railpass or the regular First Class Eurailpass in Europe—you have to get them before you leave the country. So see your Travel Agent soon. Meanwhile, send in the coupon for a free folder, complete with railroad map.

Student-Railpass The way to see Europe without feeling like a tourist.

Eurailpass is valid in Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland.

Eurailpass, Box 90, Lindenhurst, New York 11757.

Please send me your free Eurailpass folder with railroad map. □ Or your Student-Railpass folder order form. □

Name ___________________________ No. 192A

Street ___________________________

City ____________________________ State __________ Zip _____________________
Dan Crane

SIU student is chosen for theater award

Dan Crane, a student in the masters program of the Department of Theatre at SIU, received the Irene Ryan Award of $500 for being the best actor at the regional American College Theater Festival at The Krannert Center of the University of Illinois.

Crane appeared as Harry in the play "Home," written by David Storey and directed by Darwin R. Payne. "Home" was presented in the University Theater Dec. 18 and 19 in the Southern Players entry in the 1972 American College Theater Festival competition. It was judged one of the best plays in the Illinois-Wisconsin region in competition last week at Urbana.

Crane, who was notified Sunday that he had won the award said his reaction was "one of astonishment." Crane said that this might open a few doors for him in his pursuit of a professional career.

"Home" has been nominated for performance at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C., although the decision of the judges is not final.

Crane is now eligible to go to Washington, D.C. in April to compete with all of the other regional winning actors for the best actor of the year award and a $2,000 scholarship prize.

Crane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crane of Port Byron, N.Y., has appeared in numerous other plays while at SIU, including "Dracula," "Tobacco Road," and "Twelfth Night."

Education award to be presented at club meeting

The Public Relations Club will attend a joint luncheon with its parent chapter of the Public Relations Society of America, Friday in St. Louis, as the invited guests of the St. Louis Medical Association.

The luncheon will be highlighted by the presentation of the club's newly established Education Award. The award, for outstanding service, counseling, teaching and participation, by parent chapter members in the public relations degree program, will go to Bert S. Brod, director medical center development, St. Louis University, and Monsanto Co., St. Louis.

The program will be on PR education and the feature address will be given by Raymond Wiley, assistant professor of speech and director of public relations education.

The students will also visit the firm of Fleischman-Hillard, Wilson and Ferguson, Inc. and the St. Louis Medical Association's public relations department.

Be a Winner!!!
Use Daily Egyptian Classifieds.

Penneys choice ribs.
When the selection is this good, have seconds.

Nylon ribbed T-shirt top in darks or brights, sizes S, M, L

Lace-up sweater of polyester knit in basics and brights, sizes S, M, L

Dog collar slipover of polyester knit in mostly brown, navy, lilac or orange, S, M, L

Mock turtleneck slipover of polyester knit in white and fashion colors, S, M, L

JCPenney
The values are here every day.

MONDAY THRU SATURDAY 9:30 A.M. TO 9:00 P.M. SUNDAY 12:00 TO 6:00 P.M.
Armour Star
Skinless Wieners
12 oz. pkg. 58c
only

Our Nature's Best
Sliced Bacon
1 lb. pkg. 68c

IGA ICE MILK
2 Half Gallons 88c

IGA
Vegetables
Canned 9
Soda 12 oz. cans 88c

Florida
Red or White Grapefruit
10 for 88c

Nature's Best Red River Valley
Red Potatoes 20 lb. bag 78c

Frozen, IGA WAFFLES
5 oz. pkgs.
8 for $0.88

Nature's Best Margarine
1 lb. Solids
6 for $0.88

IGA Tablerite
Pork Steaks
Family Pack 5 lbs. or more
lb. $0.78

IGA Sandwich Bread
3 1 1/2 lb. for $1

IGA Tablerite Grade ‘A’
Large Eggs

Florida
ORANGES
5 lb. Bag $0.68

Boren's Foodliner
606 E. GRAND
LEWIS PARK, VILLAGE MALL
-and- 1620 W. MAIN
We reserve the right to limit quantities
Expro proposal referred to management committee

By Richard Lawrence
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

David Kenney, president of the University Senate, has announced that Expro (experimental proposal) has been sent to the Campus Management Committee in order to have proposals studied and written. Kenney's action followed last week's action by the senate's screening committee. The screening committee referred the report of the Interim Board on Expro back to the senate. The committee considered. Before going to the screening committee, the report was presented at the February senate meeting.

Robert Campbell, chairman of the management committee, said his group has not yet met to study the report. He said a meeting would probably be held either Friday or Monday. The management committee is a standing committee of the senate composed of members of the senate with each of the seven constituencies having one member on the committee.

VISA trip to depart March 19

The trip to Washington, D.C., sponsored by the Visiting International Student Association of SIU is planned for spring quarter and is scheduled to depart on Sunday, March 19.

Roundtrip transportation by bus #47. This includes bus tours of Washington during the trip. The bus will return to Carbondale on Sunday, March 24. International students and others from the University are invited to participate.

The International Student Services office has announced the availability of housing accommodations. Hotel space can be arranged, but no one is required to stay at the hotel. Prices are reasonable and the hotel is located in downtown Washington. Each person will be responsible for his own meals. There are several cafeterias and restaurants near the hotel.

Tours planned for the trip are optional and all students may participate. There will be as much time as needed for traveling on one's own during the trip.

More information may be obtained by calling Pamela Sherer at 433-5774. Reservations should be made by March 5.

Injury details still unknown

Susan Sternberg, the SIU coed found unconscious along Old Illinois 13 Sunday evening, has not yet been questioned as to the details of her injury. Carbondale police said Tuesday:

Miss Sternberg suffered a concussion and bruises. She was taken to the Health Service Sunday night and transferred Monday to Illinois Masonic Hospital in Chicago, where her condition is described as fair.

Miss Sternberg has regained consciousness and will be questioned by Chicago police in the near future, police said.

Self-advisement applications due

Students in the College of Education who wish to self-adviser for the summer and fall quarters must receive their adviser's permission by February 17.

Students may not self-adviser for the fall quarter. Before graduation or their final quarter before student teaching. All other students are eligible to apply for their adviser's recommendation.

Britain's population shown to be increasing slowly

LONDON (AP) — Britain's population is growing more slowly than that of other developed Western nations. By 1986 it is expected to be 18 percent higher than it was in 1950, compared with rises of 36 percent in West Germany, and 16 percent in the United States.
Scholarly group plans expansion

A meeting of the Committee of Concerned Knowledgeable Scholars will be held at 3 p.m. Thursday in Woody 308 to discuss possible expansion of the group.

Manuel Schneider, corresponding secretary for the group, said Wednesday that until now, the committee has been little more than a coffee group. He said the group will discuss "whether we should open up to serious examination of University problems or whether we will continue our monthly conversations." Schneider said only current members should come to Thursday's meeting.

Materials in the Bertrand Russell Archives.

"Excellence" topic of Derge's talk

SIU President David R. Derge will speak at the monthly meeting of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP) at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, in Home Economics Building, Room 208, on "Excellence and the University."

According to Robert Harrell, president of the AAUP, Derge will give a fairly brief formal statement, then the bulk of the meeting will consist of questions and answers.

Live weekend entertainment to be free at snack bar

The Last Resort Snack Bar at Lentz Hall in Thompson Point is sponsoring live free entertainment Friday and Saturday. This weekend two fold singing acts will play at the snack bar. Ron Shano and the duo of Jane and Joe will perform from 8 p.m. until midnight Friday and Saturday.
Students in the dark?

Program for developmental skills may begin spring quarter at VTI

By Chuck Hutchcraft
Daily Egyptian Staff Writer

A developmental skills program is going to be initiated at the Vocations Technical Institute, according to the vice president of VTI's Student Advisory Council.

Al Ransom told the council at its Tuesday meeting that the program was being extended to VTI through the coordination of the Counseling and Testing Center and the VTI staff.

Music students present show

A program of musical compositions by SIU music students will be presented at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Old Baptist Foundation Chapel.

A senior recital featuring Linda Covington, soprano, and Monie Moyer, mezzo soprano, will be presented in the Home Economics Auditorium at 8 p.m. Monday.

No, Louis Jack, anthropology instructor, isn't trying to save the University some money on its utilities bill. John Lapine's photo illustrates the result of a power failure that put some parts of the campus in the dark.

The program is already "available to everyone," Ransom said. "This is an extra step to make it a little more convenient for people at VTI."

Ransom said the program could possibly begin spring quarter, but no later than summer quarter.

In other business, the council discussed plans for the annual VTI spring banquet slated May 20.

Also discussed at the meeting was the graduating class's annual gift to VTI. The council has not decided upon this year's gift.

A motion by John Pastor, the VTI Programming Board representative to the council, to send a letter to the SIU Board of Trustees asking for an investigation into how money was distributed to the various VTI programs.

Bible against nudity; churchwomen insist

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — Art does not exist for its own sake, but is subject to the word of God, three churchwomen told Prime Minister John Vorster. They presented Vorster with a memorandum condemning a controversial nude statue scheduled to be erected at a new government office building.

The memorandum said: "It is clear the Bible demands the wearing of clothes in public after the fall of man."

Fantastic Spring Coming Sale!

Terrific selection Casual and
Dressy Dresses ½ - ¾ off

Entire Stock - Fall & Winter Coats ½ off

Unbeatable Collection
Current Sportswear

Don't miss out on this sensational Sale!

FREE PEANUTS
FREE POPCORN
25¢ BEER

in The Commanders Room
FREE SNAX
SERVED WITH BUD ON DRAFT
THE GENERAL
5¢
Live entertainment every Thursday and Friday
MURPHYSBORO

THIS WEEK'S DANDY DEAL
Bowl Soup & Steakburger 67¢
(Good Thru 2/29)

LEO'S
N.F.L. FILM
Thurs. nite

FREE PEANUTS
FREE POPCORN
25¢ BEER
Field narrows in IMplayoffs

First there were 18, now there are eight and at the end of the intramural basketball play-offs on Monday night, only one will be the champ.

Eight teams are still in contention following action Tuesday night when Burguiegos edged Stagg 45-31, Division One; Och's defeated Rapp 77-44; Greenen's; and Ham P' s Redeyes defeated Bitches By 84-74.

The eight victors advance to the quarterfinal round Friday in the Arena. The 16 teams then will be divided with league winners receiving byes in the playoffs. The following were winners in their respective league and division.

Men's Residence Hall division one, Dennis Ocho's; division two, Stagg Studios; division three, TRC and Rapp; division four, Rooks; division five, Executors; division six, Free Schmeks.

Fraternity League; division one, Th e Show; division two, Kappa Alpha Psi "A"; division three, The Tief.

Independent League; division one, Central Brees; division two, H.M. Packard's; division three, T-9; 457-8315

The winning teams will advance to the playoffs. However, a participant may elect to take all free throws during one session. However, the participant must make at least 20 of the 25 attempts to advance to the second round.

During the intramural basketball championship game Monday night, the top four free throw shooters will compete for first place.

NIT game film showing on Friday

Salish basketball buffs can see "it" happen all over again this weekend.

"It is the winning of the 1967 National Invitational Tournament crown and the color game film showing SU beating Marquette in the championship match will be shown Friday night in the Newman Center.

The showdown will begin at 8:15, 10 p.m., and Saturday at 8 p.m. at the PFM Club. Admission is 25 cents.

MC basketball

League Overall Nov. 3 8 2
Northern Illinois State 5 0
Illinois State 4 1
Indiana State 3 2
Ball State 2 3
Others 1 9 12
Season completed Tuesday Indiana State 91. Southern Illinois 82. WEDNESDAY Illinois State at Northern Illinois (not included above)

SATURDAY

Saluki gymnast Holthaus improving on routines in 'leaps and bounds'

By Jim Braun
Daily Egyptian Sports Writer

Like a needle in a haystack, the talents of SIU gymnast Steve Holthaus can often be found buried during the course of a meet.

As with all the Salukis are laden with talent, led by all-around men Gary Morava and Tom Linder.

So when it comes time for Holthaus to do his thing on floor exercise and vaulting, he’s usually playing the role of “filler” rather than leader.

A sophomore from Wheeling, Holthaus’ scores on the two events were pretty well glued in the upper eight’s until last Saturday’s meet against Air Force Academy and Louisiana State.

In the Salukis’ double-dual win, he had a 9.10 mark on floor exercise for third and summed up the vaulting with a “stick” routine of 9.2, bettering teammate Dieter Schweit.

Holthaus stayed in the nine-point range when the squad flew to Colorado State Monday night. His scores of 9.05 and 9.0 were garnished by Morava and Linder.

The SIU gymnast explained that his improvement on vaulting is due to more speed at the end of the runway. This enables Holthaus to gain more height when he propels himself over the apparatus. A gymnast’s height is one of the more critical areas a scoring judge looks at during the event.

The Saluki squad has four potential nine-point vaulting performers—Lindner, Morava, Holthaus and specialist Rich Hawthorne. Not to undermine the rest of the team’s talents that makes six able events for the SIU gymnasts to score at least 27 points, an average of 9.0 for each individual routine.

That comes in handy for Friday evening’s dual in Terre Haute with Indiana State. Most of the Salukis feel that the Sycamores should provide the 12-1 SIU gymnasts with the roughest competition since the loss to Iowa State on Jan. 15. A meet against Indiana State was the following evening in the SIU Arena rounds out the 1972 dual-meet action for SIU.

Indiana State is the fifth-highest scoring college team in the country, trailing leader SIU, 163.175-158.850. Although the Sycamores are plagued by the lack of depth, they do possess some outstanding individuals.

Still rings performer Dave Seal heads the list. Seal finished in the runnerup spot to SIU’s Charlie Kopeyski in last year’s SIC finals. He had the year earlier as a sophomore.

Also on the roster is pommel horse competitor Ed Slezak, a national finalist in 1971. Slezak should give Southern’s Dave Oliphant and Ed Hembl a run for the money in the dual as well as in the conference meet a week later in DeKalb.

Indiana State was the only team that seriously challenged SIU in last year’s MC affair. SIU (311) won the five-school meet while Sycamores (293) dropped a close second. Illinois State was a distant third at 274 points.

Swimmers enter ‘meal of schedule’

By Ernie Schwiet
Daily Egyptian Sports Writer

The meat and potatoes portion of the 1971-72 schedule is here for the SIU swimming team.

Coach Ray Essick likes to call it the championship phase of the season. It consists of the Southern Intercollegiate Championships, the Midwest Conference Championships, the NCAA meet at West Point, N.Y., and the National AAU.

The Salukis kicked off the championship portion of their schedule by rolling to an impressive win in the SIC last weekend in Athens, Ga., accumulating 446 points. In that meet several Salukis swam to the best times of their careers.

The swimmer who had the most impressive meet was backstroker Owen Kupper. The native of South Africa, who enrolled at SIU just after the season began, swam a 56.2 in the 100-yard backstroke, 2:04.3 in the 200-yard individual medley and a 2:01.2 in the 400-yard medley relay.

Of all the times the 2:01 in the 200 was the most significant for it shaved more than three seconds off his previous best effort. Earlier in the year Kupper swam a streak of six 2:06 backstrokes.

“I think it’s a question of his etching late in school and the adjustment he had to make to our more intense training program,” said Saluki coach Ray Essick in explaining Kupper’s sudden success.

“He has gone through a tremendous growth period and I think he has good potential.”

Also swimming career best times at the SIC were Rick Andersen in the 50-yard freestyle, Bill Magnuson’s 200- yard freestyle, Pat Miles’ 200-yard breaststroke and Tom Mooney and Bob Dickson in the 200-yard backstroke.

Tipples’ backstroke time of 53.2 was good for a new Saluki varsity mark.

According to some calculations by Essick, more than 72 per cent of the points at the SIC were best efforts of the year.

There’s also good news from the swimmer’s sick list as Rob McGinley and Rob Dickson are both in the water following illnesses.

McGinley has been ailing since Feb. 11 and didn’t compete in SIU’s home finale against Northwestern or the final dual meet of the year against Indiana State.

“Are we just praying he can get ready for the nationals,” Essick said. “He’s almost a month behind in his conditioning.”

Dickson’s sickness apparently wasn’t bad enough to keep him out of the water, but it did hurt his times at the SIC.

Dickson had a 1:53 in the 200-yard butterfly,” saidEssick, “but he fell off at the end because of his being sick.”

Dickson still ended up going 1:55, his best clocking this season.

Wrestlers lose

The SIU wrestling team lost to Indiana State, 30-0, Wednesday night in Terre Haute. Salukis Jim Cook (134), Loren Vastreese (150) and Don Stumpf (150) won their matches.

Off horse