Summer Term Makes SIU A Busy Place

Southern's 1947 summer term got under way June 16, with Dr. Charles D. Tenney, administrative assistant to the President and professor of English and philosophy, as director of the Summer Session. It is the first time such a position has existed at Southern.

Thirty-five new teachers are on the staff, including five permanent additions to the faculty and 17 summer visiting teachers. To help relieve the crowded conditions on the campus, arrangements have been made with the Carbondale public schools to work out classes held at Lincoln School, the Carbondale Community High School are temporarily replacing the Carbondale public school facilities. A Health Education Workshop is being conducted in Carbondale, at Salem, and at Ewing.

Enrollment for the 1947 summer term at Southern has climbed to 1,573 last summer, Registrar Marjorie Shank reports. The 1947 summer student body includes 1,110 men and 477 women. Veterans number 959, of whom 14 are women students.

Grouped by colleges, the enrollment shows 1,065 students in the College of Education, 354 in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 346 in the College of Vocations and Professions, and 148 in the Graduate School. Of the 142 graduate students, one comes from Mexico City, one from California, one from Arizona, and one from Mississippi, according to Dr. Willis G. Swarta, chairman of the Graduate Studies Committee.

The legislature specifically appropriated to Southern $2,667,134 from the General Revenue Fund while the remainder of the 4 1/2 million dollars will come from the Teachers College Income Fund.

The new budget provides $2,998,145 for personal services (faculty and student help), $322,300 for equipment, $6,000 for printing.

The budget for the 1945-47 biennium, plus additional sums needed to complete the projects contemplated.

Contracts totaling $2,565,017 were made to Southern for buildings during the 1947-49 biennium, plus additional sums needed to complete the projects contemplated.

Contracts totaling $1,383,489 have already been awarded for construction of the new power plant and steam tunnels.

The 4 1/2 million building fund appropriated by the 1947 General Assembly provides $23,571 for construction of the new power plant; $22,290 for contractual services, $29,000 for office expenses, $35,989 for travel, $75,000 for commodities, $52,446 for pensions and annuities, $310,000 for equipment, $6,000 for refunds, and $32,000 for postage and printing.

The new budget contemplates the addition of 125 new faculty members, and the opening of some new training programs.

Appropriations totaling $2,565,017 were made to Southern for buildings during the 1947-49 biennium, plus additional sums needed to complete the projects contemplated.

Alumni Approve New Constitution For Alumni Association

Southern alumni approved the new constitution of the Alumni Association at the annual banquet June 12 in the gymnasium of Old Science Building, and re-elected the present officers and 12 of the present board with authorization to carry out the organizational program created by the constitution.

Approximately 250 former students of Southern attended the banquet, at which Dr. Charles R. attigast, Class of 1921, president of the Remijdi (Minn.) State Teachers College, spoke informally, "pinch-hitting" for George C. Gitter of Carbondale, Class of 912, scheduled speaker, who was unable to be present because of the death of his sister. Dr. Percival Bailey of Chicago, Class of 1912, president, called upon representatives of the reunion classes of 1897, 1912, 1917, 1922, 1927, 1932 and 1937, for toasts. Toasts for the reunion classes were given by the following:

Mrs. Adelia Goodall Mitchell of Swansea, who, so far as is known, is the only surviving member of her Class of 1882 and the oldest living graduate of the University. Mrs. Mitchell is 85 years of age.

Mrs. Nellie Weller McLaughlin of Indianapolis, Ind., and E. W. Reef of Carbondale, Class of 1892.

Herman Greer of Chicago, Class of 1917 and Class of 1922. In 1917 all graduates of the University received two-year diplomas. Greer was one of the first to obtain a degree from Southern, and he gave interesting sidelights on the transition period from a normal to a four-year college.

Mrs. Dilla Hall of Carbondale, Class of 1927.

J. R. Moss of Christopher, Class of 1932.

Arthur Chitty of Goreville, Class of 1937.

University President Chester F. Lay extended greetings to the assembled alumni, and Fred Arm- strong of Du Quoin, president of the Class of 1947, spoke briefly.

Armstrong reported that the Class of 1947 attended its own "alumni" banquet on the night of June 11. At the business session following the banquet, Dr. Bailey reported on the proposed constitution, which was unanimously adopted.

Officers and board members re-elected were:

President, Dr. Percival Bailey, Chicago; vice president, Dr. Leo Brown, Carbondale; secretary-treasurer, Miss Irene D. Brock, Du Quoin.

Directors, Mrs. J. W. Barrow of Carbondale, Dr. Clyde Brooks of Carbondale, Paul Chance of Salem, and George Hancock of Harrisburg, O. W. Lyerla of Herrin, C. Roberts of Chicago, Mrs. Barbara Burr Hubbs of Chicago, Oard Sittee of Carbondale, Mrs. Lionel C. McLaughlin of Elwood, Park, and W. G. Cisne of Carbondale. Dr. Orville Alexander, director of alumni services, is an ex officio member of the board.

Release of 30 Units Completes Veterans Housing Project

With the release of the last 30 apartments to the University, the Southern Veterans Housing Project on Chautauqua Street is completed.

The University had asked for $7 million additional moneys to construct a new library and two classroom buildings, and to complete acquisition of land for the 25-year expansion program. Mr. Dr. Percival Bailey of Carbondale, president of Carbondale, Dr. Clyde Brooks of Carbondale, Paul Chance of Salem, and George Hancock of Harrisburg, O. W. Lyerla of Herrin, L. C. T. Roberts of Chicago, Mrs. Barbara Burr Hubbs of Chicago, Oard Sittee of Carbondale, Mrs. Lionel C. McLaughlin of Elwood, Park, and W. G. Cisne of Carbondale. Dr. Orville Alexander, director of alumni services, is an ex officio member of the board.

Veteran students and their families began moving into the new apartments as soon as the units were accepted by University President Chester F. Lay from the Federal Public Housing Authority. This section of the housing project brings the total number of apartments to 105. Of this number, approximately six may be reserved for veteran students and their families. The Veterans Administration will provide instructional facilities for veterans.

June Grads Tell Why They Teach

To find out why teachers choose the teaching profession, the College of Education at Southern Illinois University asked its June graduates who next fall will take their places in the classrooms of Illinois.

A tabulation of the answers received from the 78 of the 134 graduates showed:

More than two-thirds chose the teaching profession primarily because they like boys and girls and like to work with them.

One-seventh, because they feel a responsibility for furthering the democracy.

Another one-seventh, because teaching offers an opportunity for service to their country and their community, or an opportunity for community leadership.

These same students, asked to check the personal qualifications a good teacher should have, ranked the following as the most important:

Good judgment regarding the needs of children, even at various ages.
A belief in freedom and worth of each growing personality.
A knowledge of subject matter.
Good physical and mental health.
Faith in the worth of teaching.

Two newcomers were put on Southern's sports program this spring, and for the first time in the history of the school a four-sports schedule was carried on.

Baseball and golf represent the new activities and along with track and tennis make the spring of 1947 the busiest sports season in Southern history. Baseball was not entirely new, but was making a reappearance for the first time since the early 1920's, and therefore presented the identical problems of an entirely new sports organization.

Due to adverse weather conditions, the spring schedule did not really get to rolling until May.

TENNIS

The tennis team coached by Bill Freeburg, took up where it left off last year, and whipped through another undefeated season crowning the program with a repeat performance of last year's conference success. The victims of the Maroons' net were Evansville College, State Normal, Eastern, and Arkansas State.

Joe Pulley of Marion, Ray Lelich of New Athens, John McGuire of Carbondale, Ray Folkerson of Carbondale, and John Bristow of West Frankfort were the top-notch performers who were awarded letters for this year.

BASEBALL

After winning their first game against a fairly weak Evansville team, the Maroons batted into a slump as they faced more experienced clubs. However, as the season progressed, Coach Glenn "Abe" Martin developed a combination that was a real threat every time it took the field. The team finished the season with a record of six losses and three victories.

Two strong points of the ballplayers were the team hitting, which showed an average above .300 and the effective hurling of chunky Fred Brenzel of Staunton. Brenzel received credit for all three victories and traveled the route in each game.

The weakest thing about the team was the defensive work, which resulted in the loss of several games.

Other than Brenzel, it will be difficult to select the Maroons' outstanding players. However, the work of catcher Benny Dunn of Gorham should be placed in the category of a "job well done." Dunn, who was out of the lineup for a good part of the time with a sore arm, served with James McFie as student coaches.

Letter winners in baseball were Dunn, Brenzel, Roger Spears of Carbondale, Jim Smith of Coulterville, Bill O'Brien of Zeigler, Gordon Henrichs of Bloomington, Glenn "Abe" Martin of Cape Girardeau.

Possibility of changing the calendar for the quarter plan for the fall semester plan is being considered by Southern Illinois University.

President Chester F. Lay has appointed a committee to study the advantages of the semester plan and to report to him and the faculty next October. If, after study, the new plan is adopted, it will go into effect for 1948-49.

Martin Announces Football Card

Southern's football schedule for 1947 has been announced by Athletic Director Glenn "Abe" Martin as follows:

Sept. 27, Scott Field at Carbondale; October 4, Evansville College, at Carbondale; October 11,

Indiana State College, at Terre

Haute, Ind.; October 18, Western

I linois State College, at Macomb;

October 25, Northern Illinois State

Teach ers College, at Carbondale

(Southern's Homecoming); November 1, Arkansas State College, at Jonesboro, Ark.; November 6,

Illinois' first game at Normal; at

Normal; November 15, Eastern

Illinois State College, at Carbondale; December 22, Southern Missouri State Teachers College, at Cape Girardeau.

The team showed in their first encounter with Evansville that the Maroons were a force to be reckoned with in the conference meet, which found the Maroons trailing in second place behind a powerful Northern aggregation.

The first Southern record to be cracked was broken by George Beltz of Marion as he clipped the 880-yard run in 2:02.7 in the first meet of the year against Evansville College. However, this was not fast enough for his running mate, John Brake of Du Quoin, who ran the same event in 2:01.8 two weeks later against Eastern. However, Beltz was not to be beaten, and returned to the track May 10 against Shurtleff College.

Robert D. Faner, associate professor of English at Southern, who has recently completed work for his doctor's degree at the University of Pennsylvania, has brought back to the campus an interesting first-hand report on a Southern alumnus, JOHN STEVENSON, Class of 1905.

Mr. Faner, whose doctoral dissertation is on Walt Whitman, found that Mr. Stevenson has gathered an extensive collection of the poet's works and manuscripts which he made available to Mr. Faner for study.

Mr. Stevenson, president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., Philadelphia, who this year is celebrating its 100th anniversary, has acquired among other rare Whitman items, a manuscript of an early version of the great Whitman essay, "A Backward Glance O'er Travel'd Roads," first published in 1888.

In collaboration with Prof. Scully Bradley of the University of Pennsylvania, Mr. Stevenson published last spring a book, WALT WHITMAN'S BACKWARD GLANCES, analyzing the evolution of the essay and reproducing in facsimile the manuscript. This essay throws light on Whitman's purpose in writing his masterpiece, LEAVES OF GRASS, as well as on his methods of composition in general.

but despite this handicap, he is doing highly satisfactory work at the firm. They will celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary at 840 N. Kirkwood Road in Kirkwood, Mo.

FRED K. LINGLE, who regularly teaches English and journalism at the Herrin high school, is teaching English at Southern during the summer session. His wife, the former GEORGIA CAMPBELL, Class of 1926, teaches foreign languages at the Herrin high school. They live at 608 S. 14th.

ERVIN H. WARREN of the Illinois Highway Police has been promoted to the rank of captain, but is now in charge of the department's safety section, and quarters in Springfield. In his new capacity he will direct the state safety program. Ervin taught eight years in the city schools of West Frankfort before joining the state police force.

ALVIN L. WILLIAMS has resumed the practice of law in Mt. Vernon after being discharged from military service.
