Residence Halls Contract Awarded

A contract for two additional high-rise residence halls and a commons building was awarded by the SIU Board of Trustees during a meeting in September.

The buildings, to be known as Brush Towers, and the commons building, with dining hall and service facilities, will be built in University Park where the first high-rise, a 17-story women's dormitory, was finished last month.

The J. L. Simmons Company of Decatur received the general contract on its bid of $6,407,000. Simmons was named for a tentative contract for site development on a bid of $194,700.

Kopp Mechanical Contractors which would bring the contract for Brush Towers was subject to engineer estimates.

The J. L. Simmons Company was approved the appointments of two artists-in-stage and screen actor and a well-known art

Actor Herbert Marshall, former director of the Old Vic and Sadlers Wells Theaters in London, is visiting SIU during the fall term.

Harold Rosenberg, the art critic, served as National Art Editor of the American Guide Series and is author of several books and articles. He will visit during the fall term and again in the spring of 1966.

Jazz singer Nancy Wilson, folk singers Jay and the Americans, comedian Henny Youngman, and the Cy Zentner band will be featured in this year's Homecoming Show, scheduled at 8:30 P.M. October 29 in the Arena. Tickets are $1, $2, and $3.

The Homecoming Weekend actually begins the night before, though, with the crowning of 1965 Homecoming Queen in Shryock Auditorium. The Coronation begins at 7:30 P.M. A reception will follow at 8:30 P.M. in the Gallery Lounge.

Saturday is the big day, the 34th annual Homecoming for SIU alumni. A parade, reunions, music, football, dancing, dining, and many other attractions are planned.

The parade, with floats, bands, and comic stunts, starts at 9 A.M. on University Avenue. Living units and student organizations will compete for honors with decorations and parade floats.

Alumni are invited to the Homecoming Buffet, to be served from 11:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. in the University Center Ballroom. Cost is $1.80 per person.

The football game, always the feature of Homecoming, will begin at 1:30 P.M. in McAndrew Stadium. The Salukis meet a powerful Tulsa team. Tickets are $3.50 each and alumni may sit in a reserved section.

The Southern Players' first production of the 1965-66 season, The Madwoman of Chaillot, will be presented at 8:00 P.M. both Friday and Saturday. Tickets are $1.25 each.

Two orchestras will be playing Saturday evening for separate dances. Tex Beneke will play for a dance in the University Center Ballroom and Don Lemasters will play for a dance in the Roman Room downstairs. Tickets to the dance are $3.50 a couple.

Tickets for all events may be ordered from the SIU Alumni Office. The reservations coupon, page 2, should be used and the appropriate boxes marked. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the SIU Alumni Association. No ticket requests by mail can be honored after October 25.

Members of the Alumni Office staff will be on duty at the University Center from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M. on Homecoming Day. Alumni who wish information about Homecoming activities are invited to stop at the alumni information desk, which will be located at the cross halls just inside the Center main entrance.

Fullback Monty Riffer scores SIU's first touchdown of the 1965 season. The Salukis went on to defeat State College of Iowa 23-16. At right, Coach Don Shroyer gives last-minute instructions to sophomore halfback Hill Williams, one of eight rookie starters.

Sports at Southern

Sophomores sparked Southern to its first season’s opener victory in four years and perhaps established a trend for the remainder of the 1965 campaign.

With eight “rookies” occupying starting positions, Coach Don Shroyer’s club overcame a 14-point deficit to down a veteran State College of Iowa team, 23-16, and boosted hopes for what may be SIU’s finest grid showing in recent years.

Although senior fullback Monty Riffer, Vandergrift, Pa., accounted for two of Southern’s three touchdowns, sophomores Hill Williams, Laurel, Miss., and Arnold Kee, Wheaton, Ill., played important roles in the victory as they operated effectively behind classmates John Ference, Parma Heights, Ohio, Bill Blanchard, Olympia Fields, Ill., Ralph Galloway, Aurora, Ill., Isaac Brigham, Chipley, Fla., and Joe Ewan, Canton, Ill.

Ference, Blanchard, and Kee also proved capable of replacing quarterback Jim Hart’s departed pass receivers of a year ago. The classy SIU signal-caller from Morton Grove, Ill., lost all four of his favorite targets, but found the sophomores more than adequate as he launched the season by connecting on 10 of 18 attempts for 119 yards and one touchdown.

Highlighting Southern’s remaining home schedule are games with Lincoln (October 9), Drake (October 16), Tulsa (October 30, Homecoming), Northern Michigan (November 6), and Southwest Missouri State (November 20).

Joe Lutz New Baseball Coach

Joe Lutz, former Parsons College coach, is the new baseball coach at SIU. He replaces Glenn (Abe) Martin, who retired but will continue as freshman coach.

Coach Lutz is a former major league player. Coach Martin is a veteran of 27 years at SIU, having served as athletic director and football and basketball coach.
Mrs. Claude Vick (Mary Margaret Pyatt '17—2), center, and Lauri Brown, Carbondale senior, right, discuss SIU with freshman student at Springfield club meeting.

Springfield Alumni Honor SIU Students

The Springfield Alumni Club held a reception for area SIU students and members of the freshman class September 12.

Senior Lauri Brown, Carbondale, chairman of New Student Week, attended and answered questions for the freshmen.

The reception, held at the Illinois Education Association headquarters, attracted some 90 alumni and students.

SOUTHERN SKETCHES

A total of 1,341,361 items—books, periodicals, microfilms, maps, and other materials—were circulated by Morris Library last year. Use of library resources was 26.3 per cent greater last year than the year before.

Prof. Lindegren Honored

Carl C. Lindegren, professor emeritus of microbiology at SIU, was the honored guest at the dedication of a new Genetics Building at the University of Washington in September. Yeast geneticists from all over the globe paid tribute to Dr. Lindegren, who pioneered the science of seeking life's secrets in the microcosm of the yeast cell. A three-day Yeast Conference was held concurrently with the dedication.

The 1965 Obelisk, the Carbondale Campus yearbook, was judged one of the best in America by the Associated Collegiate Press rating service. It was given an "All American Honor Rating" in competition with other schools in the 10,000 to 15,000 enrollment category. More than 1,200 degrees were conferred during summer commencement exercises on the Carbondale and Edwardsville campuses.

Family Housing Planned

A housing project for moderate-income college families, first of its kind ever financed by the Federal Housing Administration, will be built at SIU. The $4 million project, for at least 350 families, is scheduled for completion by the opening of fall term in 1967.

The paved road between Old Main and the old gymnasium has been removed and turned back to lawn, the first step in eliminating vehicular traffic in the area of the old campus. Within a year, the Main Gate driveway circling the west side of Old Main will be removed and sodded in.

Bus service to and from the new Edwardsville Campus will provide transportation for approximately 1,000 students. University officials hope the service will help minimize problems of parking and traffic safety.

Crime Center Featured

Crime and corrections experts from around the world learned about SIU's crime study center in August in a unique way—a story in a prison newspaper. Among literature distributed at the Third United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and Treatment of Offenders, meeting in Stockholm, Sweden, were 1,000 copies of a special issue of The Menard Times, which featured an article about the SIU Center for the Study of Crime, Delinquency, and Corrections. The newspaper is written and edited by inmates of the Illinois State Penitentiary at Menard.
