PUBLIC LAW

The year 1965 was devoted to the theme of black students and graduates of predominantly white schools. This year's focus is on the role of the black student in society. The program of the black student in society will be presented in three parts: the black student's role in education, the black student's role in the work force, and the black student's role in the community.

Addendum: The program will be presented in the following manner:
1. The black student's role in education
2. The black student's role in the work force
3. The black student's role in the community

4. The black student's role in society

Tells How To Be Campus Big-Wig

By Richard B. Patterson

In a recent issue of Look magazine, the editors of the magazine published an article entitled "How To Be Campus Big-Wig.

The article, which is written in a cocky, sarcastic manner, is an guide to becoming a campus bigwig.

The article begins with a quote from a famous author: "To be a bigwig on a campus, you must have certain qualities.

First, you must be able to work hard and be persistent.

Second, you must

be able to

network and

make connections.

Third, you must

be able to speak in public.

Finally, you must

be able to act on your campaigns.

OUTSIDE AND INSIDE

By Bill Plater

From a poll recently taken among the girls at Stephens college, it was found that 90% of the girls prefer the "casual" look to the "formal" look. The girls said that the "casual" look was "more comfortable" and "easier to wear." The "formal" look was seen as "too stuffy" and "too serious."

The girls said that they would rather wear jeans and t-shirts than formal dresses and gowns.

In an interview with a group of Carbonado taxi drivers, we asked him if he enjoyed his work. He replied, "It's not just the work, it's the people I run into!"

caller to have a good graduation record on the record anyway. He's the one who is very particular about the girls he dates. He's very particular about his clothes and his appearance. He's always wearing the latest fashion.

He only goes out with girls who agree to go out with him. He's a real gentleman. He's the type of guy who would never cheat on his

He met a new girl the other day. She looks like a Poppers model—that's just all she's got. She's the type of girl who wouldn't know how to do anything. She

Southern Student Wins Recognition In Music Group

There is something about a fresh face on the campus that always draws attention. This is true of Doris Lee Nelson of Piney Wood, who has played the deepitone saxophone on the Southern student band for the past two years.

Doris Lee Nelson is a member of the Piney Wood 6-A Colored Orchestra in Piney Wood. She has played this instrument for two years, and has been featured on the band's performances. Her talent and dedication have earned her recognition and admiration from her peers and the band's directors.

Doris Lee Nelson's contributions to the music group have not only been limited to her saxophone playing. She is also involved in other musical activities on campus, including choral groups and small ensembles. Her passion for music and her commitment to excellence have made her an influential figure in the music community at Southern.

Southern To Become Focal Point of Visual Education

Films are among the most effective tools in the educational process, and Southern University and Agricultural and Mechanical College is taking advantage of this fact by expanding its film program.

The university's film library is a valuable resource for students and faculty alike, providing access to a wide range of educational films that cover a variety of subjects. The library is also home to the university's film club, which organizes screenings and discussions of films of interest to students.

The Southern film program is supported by a dedicated team of faculty and staff who work tirelessly to ensure that the library is well-stocked and that the films are accessible to all students. The film club also plays an active role in the program, organizing events and providing opportunities for students to engage with the material presented in the films.

Delta Sigma Epsilon And Manor To Sponsor Weekly All-School Dance

Anthony Hall will be the site of an all-school dance this fall, sponsored by Delta Sigma Epsilon and Manor. The dance will be held on Friday, September 23rd, and is open to all students.

The dance will feature music provided by the university's resident DJ, as well as a variety of other entertainment options. Food and refreshments will be available for purchase, and there will be cash prizes for the best-dressed couple.

This event is a great opportunity for students to socialize and have fun, while also supporting a good cause. Delta Sigma Epsilon and Manor are proud to sponsor this event, and look forward to seeing everyone there.

A message to you from the Chief of Staff

Jefferson's Rough Draft of the Declaration of Independence

A Declaration by the Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, therefore a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to thus proceed.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, appeal to the World in General for a redress of the grievances of our people.

In the course of human events, it may become necessary for us to dissolve the political bands which have connected us with other nations, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle us.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are

Trackmen Delayed in Warmup For Western

Bad weather has put a long week's spring sports work of the Illini on hold, including 14 intramural games and four varsity meets. The weather, which was in condition for Friday's track schedule which opened May 10 in preparation for the Western Conference meet, delayed practice.

The weather during the past two weeks has been an atypical one that has hindered men for only three days of good practice. Despite the weather, Southern Illinois' track team has been doing all it can to get ready for the meet.

According to Coach Earl M. (Doc) Little, who is preparing the second-year track team at Southern Illinois, the team has been able to practice in the unusually favorable weather conditions.

The team is currently preparing for the Western Conference meet, which is scheduled for May 15-16. The meet is expected to attract teams from the Midwestern Conference, Mid-America Conference, and the South Atlantic Conference.

Little said that his team is working hard to prepare for the meet, focusing on improving their times and developing new techniques. He said that the team is confident and ready for the challenge.

Little added that the weather has been a blessing for the team, as it has allowed them to practice and improve their skills in a favorable environment.

Little concluded by saying that the team is excited to compete in the Western Conference meet and is looking forward to the challenge.

Maroon Diamond Crew To Engage Arkansas Aggies At Jonesboro Sat.

The Maroon Diamond Crew, a group of student athletes from the university, will be joining the Arkansas Aggies at Jonesboro on Saturday. The crew will be participating in the annual Water Polo meet at the pool at Arkansas State University.

The Maroon Diamond Crew will be showcasing their skills in the pool, performing various aqua activities such as synchronized swimming, water polo, and other water sports.

The meet will feature both men's and women's teams from both universities. The Aggies are expected to put up a strong challenge.

Arkansas State University is another member of the Southwestern Conference, and the meet will be a test of strength and skill for both teams. The meet will be held in the pool at Arkansas State University, with both teams participating in a variety of water sports.

The meet will be an exciting event for fans of water sports, with both teams showcasing their skills in the pool. The Maroon Diamond Crew will be one of the main attractions, with their synchronized swimming routines and water polo performances.

The meet will be held on Saturday, and both teams are expected to put up a strong challenge. The Aggies are expected to provide tough competition, and the Maroon Diamond Crew will be looking to showcase their skills in the pool.

The meet will be a great opportunity for fans of water sports to come out and enjoy the entertaining performances of both teams. The pool at Arkansas State University will be buzzing with excitement as the meet unfolds.
