Our Opinion.

Success Story

It is our one true job to judge things as they are, and not as they were or will be. For the judgment of today may be wrong, just as the one of yesterday may have been right; and you do not fail that the things which are right now are the same for many years.

Salukis Start Season Right

The Salukis opened the 1938 basketball season right with a 40-30 victory over Illinois Wesleyan at the college. The game was played at the new Central Park home of the Illinois Wesleyan University. The Salukis were led by Coach Joe Evans, who was named the Outstanding Coach of the Year in the Missouri Valley Conference. Evans had joined the Salukis in 1937 after a successful coaching career at the University of Missouri. He was known for his aggressive playing style and his ability to develop young talent. Under Evans' leadership, the Salukis quickly became one of the top teams in the conference, and they won the Missouri Valley Conference championship in 1939. The team went on to play in the NCAA Tournament, where they were eliminated in the first round. However, Evans' coaching career was cut short when he was tragically killed in an automobile accident in 1940. Despite his untimely death, Evans is remembered as one of the greatest basketball coaches in the history of the Salukis program.
