Performers Rehearse For
Upcoming Musical Program

By Harry Schonhauser

"Ready for one."
There are the words soon to be heard by the cast for the opening performance of "South Pacific." The members have been rehearsing vigorously since the beginning of the semester term, and now are "pulling" their part heroically. Opening night is scheduled for August 1, and the musical will also be given on Aug. 3, 5, and 7.

The members of the cast are composed of the Southern Players and the Summer Opera Workshop. The two groups in the above situation are Jan Stringer, who will appear at Nellie Fikala, and James Pattison, who will play Robert. Miss Stringer has appeared in numerous musicals at Southern. Considering future plans, Green hopes to teach English and possibly enter show business to same degree.

"Some Enchanted Evening" was presented in Summer Opera Workshop. This musical has been adapted from James Michener's Pulitzer Prize novel "South Pacific." This musical features敏敏 in "Shuffle Along" in Summer Opera Workshop and Southern Players. From James Michener's novel, "South Pacific" will be given in a joint production on Aug. 5, 6, and 7.
