The Messiah' To Be Presented Here Sunday

By Dan Moran

The Southern Illinois Oratorio Society will present the Handel "Messiah" under the leadership of Dr. Charles F. Roos, on Sunday evening, November 13, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission is free.

Dr. Roos, who is well known in the music world, is the director of the Southern Illinois Oratorio Society and has directed the "Messiah" in St. Louis seven times and in Chicago five times.

The Messiah, a cantata for chorus and orchestra, is one of the most popular works of Handel and is performed annually in many parts of the world.

The orchestra will consist of 200 musicians, and the choir will be made up of 150 voices. The choir will be divided into four parts, with the tenors, basses, sopranos, and altos.

The concert will be held in the auditorium of the Southern Illinois Oratorio Society, located at 401 S. Main St.

Siu Takes First in Greeniville Debate Tourney

Southern brought home a first place trophy for the third time in as many years last Saturday from the fourth annual Southern Illinois College Debate Tournament.

Eldridge, University of Illinois, was the first place winner, Southern was second and Bradley, third.

In the debate about "relationships between the university and the student," Eldridge got the most votes, Southern was second and Bradley third.

Ten schools attended the tourney and each school was represented.

Harold Klinefelter and Jerry Zappeho, members of the Southern debate team, won the first place championship.

The article will include the debate team and their trophies, and a special section on debate team participation and involvement.

The Southern debate team is one of the best in the country and has won several national and regional tournaments.
