In 1956 he was chosen for the department's "superior service award" and the following year was named as an advisor to the International Labor Conference in Geneva. He has been associated with the Office of Education since 1929, as specialist in adult education, as regional agent, as field representative for vocational education and as assistant director for program coordination in vocational education.

Since he has been assistant commissioner there have been many significant developments in vocational education. Legislation for the training of practical nurses was enacted and, Title VIII of the National Defense Education Act of 1958 providing for the training of highly skilled technicians has been implemented, and legislation for the training and re-training of the unemployed and under-employed has been approved.

"I WON'T DANCE" seems to be the thought of Miss Sheila Sabrey, who plays Katherine in the "Taming of the Shrew" tonight at the Southern Playhouse. Show also is Will Grant, who plays the husband of the sharp-tongued Katherine and "tames her to his liking."

Taming Of The Shrew
Opens At SIU Playhouse

Tonight the curtain will go up for the 30th time this season on the Southern Players presentation of William Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew."

The performances will be in the southern Playhouse and will be at 8 p.m. today through Dec. 3 and Dec. 5 through Dec. 8. The box office is open weekdays 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Performance plus, tickets will be sold at $1.00 as well.

The play, staged by Showin Alarms, will feature Sheila Sabrey as Katherine "The Shrew" and Will Grant as Petruchio "The Tamer."

Others in the cast are "Dwars Herndon as Lucentio; Joseph Kacer as Tranio; Bill Ballard as Baptista, Edward Barber as Gremio, Jo McLeod as Grumio; Harold Yee as Vincentio, and Margaret Cox as The Widow. Miss Cox and Miss McLeod will alternate in their roles each night.

The play, brieftly, deals with two sisters, Bianca, who is as attractive as she is good natured and Katherine, who is good looking, but is an ill-mannered, sharp tongued wench.

The father of the girls declares that Bianca cannot wed until Katherine has a husband. Therefore, the two sisters of Bianca set out to find a male for Katherine. Petruchio, the male lead, is looking for a wife and is intrigued by marry Katherine. He has a plan to tame her, and it is simply to go Katherine one better and be even more ill tempered and sharp-tongued than her spouse.

In the end he is successful and Katherine becomes a delightful wife. There is also a counter plot running through the story in that Bianca's suitors are outsmarted by Lucentio, the school teacher, who secretly marries her.

The Southwestern Campus is presently being constructed, recently indicated an interest in the athletic contingency at Carbondale. Following a partial report of an editorial:

"Another point to make is that SIU athletic department's expenses have increased because of playing freshmen on their own level. American educators have been prove that SIU needs the money better for freshmen to compete on their own level until they have adjusted to college. The increase in freshmen numbers there represents the increase in the athletic department. Furthermore, if SIU had better transportation, the SIU athletic department would never miss Thursday and Friday classes. As it is now, students who go home to Southern have to travel 300 or more miles away. They can also leave Thursday morning. This necessitates missing classes the entire day. If SIU traveled by plane or train, there would be no need to leave.

Moreover, Southern's football season this fall was a promising gridiron via head John W. Morris. Despite these improvements, the SIU athletic department is on the downgrade.
Mrs. Carmen Piccone finds football season hectic

By PAT TOTORAITIS

It's possible to be happily married and still feel like a widow. Mrs. Carmen Piccone, wife of SIU's football coach, will concur. This week, however, the pretty Carbonado housewife spent a relaxed week-end with the family breadwinner. Southern had completed another successful season.

"Carmen was home for Thanksgiving in the morning," Mrs. Piccone said. "In fact, we entertain the whole week-end. I think you could call us the Hotel Piccone during the fall."

Football is something heard the year around at the Piccone household. The Salukis mentor often entertains squad members and occasionally some of the boys drop by to catch a game or two.

"Working with young people keeps us both young. We are all ways joking that we can't be 30 years old because we feel too much like the college students," she added, picking up a small trophy her husband won during his undergraduate days.

"Meals are a real problem during the season," according to Mrs. Piccone. "You never know when to start fixing dinner or if it will be fit to eat before he gets home from the stadium," she added.

Mrs. Piccone rarely misses any of the home games. When her husband is on the road with the ball club, she tunes in over a local radio station to keep up with the Salukis.

The picnics have been put away for another season at SIU, but Mr. Piccone will now take in the road in order to seek new talent to replace departing seniors.

"I have to see him out on the road alone, but that's some of the things you put up with when you are a coach's wife," explained Mrs. Piccone. "I guess I just worry too much."

"What are her plans for this week-end?"

"I'm not sure. Carmen will be home, but Army-Navy, or what ever game will be on television will probably get top priority. It will be a week-end to relax and probably some time to catch up on conversations," she added.

Coach Piccone will be off on scouting tours Dec. II. For most of the winter months, he'll probably be on the banquet circuit. It's all in a coach's work schedule.

The Bell Telephone Companies

Salute: Steve Banks

Because of Steve Banks, who just two years ago was an undergraduate engineering student, the Bell Telephone System is close to wiping out the noise (or "static") that sometimes interferes with telephone conversations.

On one of his first assignments, Steve examined the noise levels that had "franked" into telephone circuits in Colorado. His findings shed new light on the source of noise, and on the important methods of measuring it. Steve Banks of Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Company, and the other young engineers like him in Bell Telephone Companies throughout the country, help make your communications service the finest in the world.

Concert Rehearsal In Full Swing

Symphony, Chorus Will Present Weekend Christmas Program

Sans applause and formal attire, performers in Southern Illinois University's Christmas Oratorio Program direct their activities toward the perfection that their audiences will enjoy this weekend.

Channeling the determination a violinist, the concentration of a cellist, the frenzied blur that is the tympanist and the tinkling grace of a harpsichord, the director has a long and laborious job in blending the music and voices into a harmonious whole.

In the often tedious rehearsals, the incongruous elements of music mechanics and artistic creativity are merged. The long hours of work behind such a program sometimes go unnoticed and unappreciated by the listeners.

From the initial cacaphony of sounds and frayed nerves, a program of 16th and 17th Century choral works will be offered to Southern music lovers. This year's Oratorio Concert will be presented at 8 p.m. Saturday and 4 p.m. Sunday in Shryock Auditorium.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY TOM LANG
Two faculty members and four students will be featured solists when a special Christmas oratorio program is presented here this week-end.

Some 248 singers in three choral units will take part in the program, Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 4 p.m. in Shryock Auditorium.

The 196-member Southern Illinois Orono Socety and an invitational chorus of voices from 15 area high schools will be directed by SIU choral director Robert Kimmons, with a variety of Christmas selections.

Performers in the two performances will be Johann Pachelbel's "Magnificat in C," for solo quartet, orchestra and chorus. Faculty soliUates will be soprano Carol MacClintock and baritone William Taylor.

Students in solo roles will be tenor Larry Jarvis of Hennepin, Me. soprano Deanna Stevenson of Salem; tenor John Wilkinson of Mt. Carmel; and contralto Laurel Buntun, formerly of Carmi.

Jarvis, a senior music major, has starred in campus productions of "Die Fledermaus," "Carmen," and "Pajama Game" and is a student of Miss Marjorie Lawrence.

Miss Stevenson, another Opera Workshop principal under Mr. Lawrence, is a transfer student and will appear in next winter's production of "Aida." Wilkinson is a graduate vocal student who played in several campus productions including "Carmen," and "Carmen," and "South Pacific." Mrs. Russon, also a graduate student, will be a bachelor's degree at Miami University and has studied at Finland.

Her husband is a member of the SIU industrial education faculty.

Other selections on the program will be a group of 16th and 17th century choral classics; four excerpts from the "Messiah," with Miss MacClintock as soloist, two carols and a Bach "Adeste Fideles" by the high school group; and "All Glory Be to God on High" featuring the combined choirs.

The programs will be free.
Untried Niagara and Seton Hall Universities play the role of host this weekend as Coach Harry Gallatin unveils the 1961-62 edition of SIU basketball.

The Salukis play in Niagara tonight and then travel to South Orange, New Jersey, to battle Seton Hall tomorrow night.

Radio station WSIU will carry the broadcasts live from both powder days. The Niagara game tonight is 7:00 p.m. Broad- cast time of tomorrow's encounter is set for 7:10 p.m.

Although both Niagara and Seton Hall long have been credited eastern powers, Niagara appears to be the stronger of the two this season. Since this is the first meeting with the schools, lit- tle is known about the type of offense either team might possess.

The Salukis open a 24-game schedule with hopes of bettering the .54 record of a year ago.

"HAPPINESS CAN'T BUY MONEY"

I have asked the makers of Marlboro—an enterprise and advertising genius team—yet at the same time warm and lovable, though not without a sense of humor and reason, to drive, which does not use cigarettes, to produce formal events. Marlboro cigarettes are something that are not only well liked but also enjoyed by many who enjoy them. I have smoked a Marlboro cigarette. It is well known that the Marlboro cigarette is made of fine materials with a light taste. And it is said that the Marlboro cigarette is something that is not only well liked but also enjoyed by many who enjoy them. I have smoked a Marlboro cigarette.

On the shoestring. Why don't you tell me before?

I believe in learning from Mary Ellen's smiling classroom and Monday morning, but I never neglect to take her all-important question: "Will you wear your 4-H pin?"

You said simply. They shook hands and squeezed each other's shoulders and exchanged brave smiles, and if our eyes were a tripe mois, who can blame them?

For a time things went swimmingly. Then a cloud appeared. Mary Ellen, it seems, is a rich girl and accustomed to costly pleasures. Everything was too expensive and I quickly ran out of money. Unable to make Mary Ellen to the place where she favored to tell her the reason, he turned away and was full of melancholy. Soon their romance, so promising at the beginning, was broken for a breakfast. But I at the last moment, Powdered makeup to blunt us.

Oh, beloved agrarian! cried Mary Ellen, grasping him close to her heart. Oh,admirable money! Why has not you told me before? I have plenty of money, and I will contribute according to my ability.

Powerful, of course, but I feel she finally preferred him to the other center. I am sure that they will split all expenses according to their income. Rather than eat a Powdery, of course, but I feel she finally preferred him to the other center. I am sure that they will split all expenses according to their income. Gymnasts Defend Midwest Crown

The highly-touted gymnastics team travels to Chicago this week to defend its second consecutive Midwest Open championship today and Saturday.

The defending champions will compete against some of the nation's top schools, including all of the Big Ten universities, all HAC teams and many independent clubs and individuals. In the clubs are the Turners, one of the strongest contingents on the country and the Sokeis, a Czechoslovakian club.

Saluki coach Bill Meade sees the University of Illinois, Michigan, Michigan State and the Midwest Gymnastic Association as his chief competitors.

Competing for the Gymnastic Association are four All-Americans: Bill Bush, the exiled giant and side-horse champ, Marshall Claus, who was among the top 10 performers in the Olympic try-outs and John Culbertson, an all-around. Salukis in the 1970 Olympic Games.

But Southern also has three All-Americans in Bruno Klass, a 5'11"-138-pound junior from New York, the NCAA horizontal bar champ in 1969; Fred Oristoffsky, 6'3", 155-pounder from Bergen, N.J., who is the NCAA still-ring champ; and Fred Tijersman a 5'4"-138-pound senior from Elmhurst, Ill., who tied for first in the NCAA parallel bar competition in 1969.

"Even though he'll be competing against many All-Americans, we'll be the team to beat," said Meade. "We're the defending champs and we have the team to prove it.

The meet will be run under National Collegiate Rules so will not enter his high school gymnast. However, they can change unattached, but will not figure in the scoring.

"NCAA Wolf, of Pico Rivera, Calif., who was named national individual all-ring champ last year, will be in high school, is expected to finish in the top three to three events.

A side from Wolf winning," commented Meade, "I expect Steve Pasternak, a freshman from Oak Park, to finish in the top two in the side horse event.

Oristoffsky, who is co-captain and who finished 46th out of 160 competing gymnasts in the 1969 Rome Olympics, will be pushed very hard by his teammate Wolf on the rings.

Klass, who is hampered by a sprained thumb, will be a heavy favorite in the high bar competition.

"Tripin, the other co-captain, will have a good chance of coping with the parallel bar event," smiled Meade.

When asked what was the overall condition of the squad, the coach replied: "We're in better shape than anybody, and nobody works as hard as we do.

CD Film Series Opens Tonight
At 7:30 In Library Auditorium
March Library Auditorium and the final night at 7:30 in Farr Auditorium of University School.

A series of 15-minute Civil Defense films depicting ways of surviving a nuclear attack will be shown in three public screenings this month at Southern Illinois University.

Arranged by O.B. Young, head of SU's atomic and disaster research laboratory, the showings have been set up because of what Young calls "a tremendous demand for information on fallout protection and nuclear hazards." A member of the Civil Defense group witnessing the 1957 U.S. atomic tests in Nevada and former chief radiological officer for the Illinois Civil Defense effort, Young has had to start turning down speaking engagements because of the demand.

The series will be shown tonight, Dec. 6th and 7th, at 7:30 in Service.
