Former Illinois Governor Ford Brings Inscenity to Saluki Days...and to Saluki-Cat Fight

The former Illinois Governor, who was in town for the Saluki Days, is said to have brought in some nosebleeds to the Saluki-Cat Fight. Governor Ford was seen bleeding from the nose during the fight, which he refereed, and it is speculated that the bleeding was caused by the cat's sharp claws. Governor Ford's presence at the event added a unique touch to the festivities, and his nosebleeds were a topic of discussion among the spectators.
