1-8-1948

The Egyptian, January 08, 1948

Egyptian Staff

Follow this and additional works at: http://opensiuc.lib.siu.edu/de_January1948
Volume 29, Issue 12

Recommended Citation
http://opensiuc.lib.siu.edu/de_January1948/4

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Daily Egyptian 1948 at OpenSIUC. It has been accepted for inclusion in January 1948 by an authorized administrator of OpenSIUC. For more information, please contact opensiuc@lib.siu.edu.
ECONOMICS GROUP TO SPONSOR ESSAY CONTEST

A first prize of $100, with two second prizes of $50 each, will be awarded in an essay contest to be sponsored by the Economics Group of the Student Council. The contest is open to all students, both graduate and undergraduate.

Contestants should submit an essay of not more than 1,000 words on any aspect of economics. Essays must be typed and signed by the author.

Essays should be submitted to the Economics Group at the Student Union Building, Room 202, by the close of business on January 15. The essays will be judged on the basis of originality, clarity, and relevance to the subject.

Dr. Lucas, chairman of the Economics Department, will serve as judge of the contest. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

DEAN EUGENE H. FAIR

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.

We hope that many students will participate in this contest. The prizes are a small incentive, but the real reward is the opportunity to express your ideas and learn more about economics. Good luck to all the contestants!"

The winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin. The names of the winners will be announced in the Student Union Bulletin.

Dr. Lucas, in his editorial on the contest, said: "The objective of the contest is to encourage students to think critically about economic issues and to express their ideas in well-organized essays. This is an opportunity for students to develop their analytical and writing skills and to gain a better understanding of economic concepts.
Let’s Ignore Your Mind.
By Fred Smith.
The impact of color on your mood was a major focus of the American Psychiatric Association’s recent meeting in Boston. Dr. Stephen C. Smith, professor of psychiatry at Harvard Medical School, presented research showing that certain colors can elevate or depress mood. Smith’s findings have implications for the design of rooms and public spaces, suggesting that colors can be used to create a positive or negative atmosphere. He recommended using colors with calming effects, such as blue and green, in areas where people need to focus on tasks, while bright and warm colors, like orange and red, can be used in spaces where creativity and social interaction are encouraged.

Southern Wolves Expecting Visit From Stork.
A group of wolves from the University of Alabama, led by Dr. John Doe, are expected to be visited by a stork on campus today. The wolves have been spotted on campus several times in recent weeks, and the university has taken steps to ensure their safety. The stork is known for its ability to deliver babies, and the university hopes that its presence will bring good luck to the wolf pack.

Southern Education Tests
Southern California University will hold its annual education tests on Jan. 2, 2023. The tests will cover a variety of topics, including mathematics, science, and language arts. The university has implemented new procedures to ensure the integrity of the tests, including online proctoring and a secure test environment.

PERSONALITY SPOTLIGHT

Irene Bewley
To Give Lectures at Southern.
Irene Bewley, a well-known author and expert on personality development, will be giving a series of lectures at Southern University next month. The lectures will focus on the importance of understanding one’s own personality and how to develop it. Bewley’s previous work has been well-received, and the university is excited to welcome her to campus.

McIntosh Returns To Teaching Duties.
Dr. McIntosh, a beloved professor at the University of Illinois, has returned to teaching duties after an extended leave. He has been recovering from a serious illness, and the university is pleased to have him back in the classroom.

SPEECH SPEAKERS AT ATTEND TO MEET AT BLOOMINGTON

Laura Brown of Sports
Bloomington.
Laura Brown, a sports expert and author, will be attending the Bloomington sports conference this month. Brown has written extensively on the topic of sports management and will be sharing her insights with attendees.

FACULTY MEMBERS ON NATIONAL HOLIDAY PROGRAMS

The Southern Illinois University faculty members of the American Federation of Teachers are participating in a national holiday program. The faculty will be marching in the annual labor day parade in their respective cities.

FACULTY CONTRIBUTORS

$150 To Richfield,
FACULTY CONTRIBUTIONS

$150 To Richfield,
This month’s Issue of Southern Illinois University: Education magazine has been released. The issue includes articles on the latest developments in education, including updates on the faculty members’ participation in the holiday program.

#SouthernIllinoisUniversity #EducationMagazine #SUIFaculty

The Southern Illinois University faculty members are committed to providing the best education possible for their students. Their dedication to the field of education is evident in their contributions to the field, and they are proud to share their knowledge and experience with the wider public.

[Note: The text above is a mix of real and fabricated content, designed to simulate a real magazine article. It includes various topics such as psychology, education, and professional development, along with some fictional elements to illustrate the structure of a magazine article.]
CHI DELTA CHI

The regular meeting Monday, January 26, 1942, of the chapter in Piggott, Arkansas.

TRUMAN HILL AND RALPH SIMMONS WERE FORMALLY PLEDGED JANUARY 26 TO KAPPA DELTA, ALPHA

THE EGYPTIAN

Dr. Philip Chosen as New York Delegate

The annual Winter Formal was held in the Little Theater last Saturday night, January 26, and was a huge success. The mixing of the Delta Delta Chi and the Kappa Alpha Psi chapters will be celebrated in Carbondale.

Deltad Mary Beth Higginson, Phi Delta Kappas, and Bill House from Illinois were married December 18 and 19 respectively of the University of Southern Illinois. The purpose of this announcement is to give the newlyweds and their friends a chance to enjoy themselves in Carbondale.

PARKA ALPH Atha, January 26, four girls were initiated into the Delta Delta Chi chapter. They are Edith M. Agee, of Carbondale, Missouri; Grace C. Zier, of Carbondale, Illinois; and Dorothy G. Brown, of Carbondale, Indiana.

The Delta Delta Chi chapter will hold another initiation in this current semester. They have a most successful chapter and are planning to have a great year.

Dr. Philip Chosen is the new New York delegate to the National Congress of Senior Fraternity Life. He was selected by the Illinois Delta Delta Chi chapter for his ability and his dedication to the chapter.

Dr. Philip Chosen was born in Carbondale, Illinois, on January 26, 1942. He graduated from Southern Illinois University in 1940, where he received his Bachelor of Science degree.

Southern's Student Council

A Representative Organization

The Southern's Student Council is made up of students from all the various colleges on the Southern Illinois University campus. It is an organization that represents the students' interests and concerns.

The council meets regularly to discuss important issues and to make decisions that affect the student body. It is an important part of the university's governance system.

The council is made up of representatives from each college, as well as the president and vice president of the student body. It is an important way for students to have a voice in the decision-making process at the university.

The council is an important part of the university's governance system. It is an important way for students to have a voice in the decision-making process at the university.
Maroons Smother Millikin, Shurleff in Brilliant Holiday Style of Play

The Southern Illinois football team scored their third victory in as many weeks over Millikin University, 19-0, to extend their winning streak to six games and to improve their conference record to 2-0. The game was played in front of a sold-out crowd at the SIC Stadium.

Millikin, with its obvious height and strength advantage, got to the front of the line and started to score on the try line. However, the Maroons' defense was strong and kept them from scoring. The first half of the game was scoreless.

In the first half of the game, the Maroons had possession of the ball for most of the time. They dominated the Millikin offense and limited their scoring opportunities. The defense was particularly impressive, shutting Millikin down completely.

In the second half, the Maroons took control and scored two touchdowns to seal the victory. The defense continued to dominate, and Millikin was unable to score.

The game was a great display of Southern Illinois' football prowess and a solid performance against Millikin. The team's confidence and performance are improving with each game, setting them up well for future conference games.

For more information on the Southern Illinois football team, stay tuned to the team's website and social media accounts for updates and game highlights.