Registrar's Office Approves Change in Work Sheet For Spring Registration Program

Pep Song Contest Officially Opens

Unofficially, and service for the students and some pep songs, the contest opened. An anonymous donor, who prefers to remain anonymous, purchased the song "A Soothing Dose of Love to an an trained fan." The music, which opened the contest, was created by the students, faculty members, and the University community, but was not eligible to compete in the contest. The winning song will be announced at the end of the day on Thursday, Feb. 15, in Sheffield Auditorium. As the contest continues, the song will be performed at the concerts, in the radio, and on television. The song will also be performed in the pep band.

Students Urged to Register Early to Avoid Conflict in Meeting College Requirements

A new threat has been added to the spring semester, which is now in progress. The Registrar's Office has approved a change in the work sheet for spring semester, which is designed to increase the number of students enrolled. The work sheet now contains a summary of the "A" and "B" option courses, which are recommended for students who plan to take courses in the Spring-Summer semester.

The work sheet, as corrected by the Registrar's Office, will be returned to the students for review. The changes recommended by the Registrar's Office will be adopted by the University for the Spring-Summer semester.

The Autumn of the University for the Spring-Summer semester, will be announced at a later date.

Chairman, Frosh Council Names Date Set

Final plans were made Thursday in the Undergraduate Student Government for the annual Frosh Council dance, which will be held on Friday, Jan. 19, beginning at 9 p.m. in the Student Union.

Tobacco remains numerous places, and four for sale for positions on the dance committee. A total of 72 hours were available in the student government for the dance committee.

The process for selecting the dance committee began on Monday, Jan. 16, and will continue until the end of the week. All students, regardless of major, will be able to participate in the selection process.

The dance committee will consist of 12 members, with three representatives from each of the four major classes. The committee will be responsible for planning and executing the dance.

The dance will be held in the Student Union, and all students are invited to attend.

Plans Underway For Sixth Theta Xi Variety Show

Formal plans for the Sixth Theta Xi Variety Show are underway. The show will be held on Thursday, Feb. 15, in Sheffield Auditorium. As the show continues, the show will be performed at the concerts, in the radio, and on television. The show will also be performed in the pep band.

Enrollment is Up From Last Winter Term

On-campus enrollment this term is significantly higher than last winter term, with 19,092 students enrolled. The increase is due to a number of factors, including the growth in student population, the increase in faculty and staff, and the increase in the number of programs offered.

Sponsored by the University of Illinois, the show is open to the public. Tickets are available at the door.

The benefits of the show will be used to support the University's annual fundraising campaigns.

Committee Chairman of the show, Dr. William Kramer, discussed the show's progress and the upcoming events.

The show will be held in the Student Union, and all students are invited to attend.

Heroes to Win Superman

The rewards of heroism for Superman may soon be in jeopardy, as the character is being considered for a possible retirement in the upcoming storyline. The news was confirmed by the publisher, who cited that the character has been in continuous service for over 80 years and it's time for him to take a break. Superman, who is known for his unwavering commitment to justice and public service, has been a symbol of hope and inspiration for many who see him as a beacon of light in a world often filled with darkness. However, with the announcement of his retirement, fans from around the world are expressing their concern and support for the beloved superhero. Despite the uncertainty of his future, Superman remains a timeless icon, and his legacy will continue to inspire generations for years to come.

From China in a Can

Some of buiten's teas and spices are a hit in a coffee co-op, while a few others are not. William J. B., a brewer with the co-op, said that the demand for the tea and spices is fluctuating. He noted that some people are interested in the exotic flavors, while others are put off by the unfamiliar ingredients. However, he added that the co-op is always looking for new products to offer to its members. The co-op offers a variety of teas, spices, and other tea-related items, such as teapots and tea bags. They also carry a selection of loose leaf teas and spices, which can be sourced from around the world. William J. B. said that the co-op is always on the lookout for new suppliers and sources, as they strive to provide their members with a wide variety of options to choose from.

The End of Superman

In light of the recent announcement of Superman's retirement, it is important to reflect on the impact that this beloved superhero has had on popular culture. Superman has been a symbol of strength, courage, and hope for generations, inspiring countless individuals to pursue their dreams and overcome adversity. The character's impact is not limited to the comic books and movies, as he has become a cultural icon that transcends the pages of a comic book. Superman's legacy will continue to live on, as his spirit of justice and compassion will continue to inspire future generations.

Joe College Faces A Bleak New Year

By LARRY CONNOR

The end of the academic year is approaching, and many college students are feeling a sense of uncertainty and anxiety about their future. With the pandemic still ongoing, many are left wondering how they will complete their degrees and find employment. The situation is particularly challenging for international students, who face additional obstacles due to their visa status and the uncertainty of their ability to return to their home countries. Despite the challenges, many students are finding ways to stay motivated and positive, and they are looking for ways to make the most of their remaining time in college.

Report Shows Where Too

U. S. Scholars Go To School

By RALPH BECKER

A recent report has shed light on the educational opportunities available to U.S. scholars, revealing that many choose to study abroad. The report found that the top destinations for U.S. scholars include Europe, Asia, and Latin America. The findings suggest that these regions offer a variety of academic programs and cultural experiences, as well as opportunities for cross-cultural exchange. The report also highlights the importance of studying abroad for personal and professional development, as it exposes students to new ideas and perspectives.

Jen D., a tea enthusiast, said, "I love making tea, especially in the morning. It's a great way to start the day." She noted that she enjoys experimenting with different blends and flavors, and she often creates her own custom blends. Jen D. said that making tea at home is a relaxing and meditative practice that helps her to unwind and de-stress.

World News in Brief

- The Electoral College vote for the U.S. presidential election was announced today, with Joe Biden declared the winner. The vote count, which was closely fought, was determined by a split vote in the U.S. Senate, with 302 electoral votes needed to win.
- A major earthquake struck the southwestern United States, causing significant damage and injuries in several states. Authorities are warning residents to be prepared for aftershocks and potential landslides.
- The World Health Organization announced that the novel coronavirus has spread to more than 150 countries, with over 1 million cases worldwide. The organization is calling for increased testing and contact tracing to combat the spread of the virus.

Inside Out

The ladies insist that they are pastime for professor.

Bring insulating to ladies to back a pleasant position for their future. Every week they have a monthly tea room where they discuss their interests and concerns. Although all women are in a special relationship to the professor, there will be a different field — perhaps because everything is not so pleasant. In his most protestant presentation he will call, "The ladies insist that they are pastime for professor, but do not insist that they are pastime for professor."

Groups Name SIU Theaters

The meeting of the university's Little Theatre has been called to order. The students were present and the university president, Professor E. T. S. E., was in attendance. The board of directors of the theater, which is under the control of the university, was also present. The meeting was held in the old auditorium, and the audience was composed of students and faculty members. During the meeting, the board of directors discussed the future plans for the theater, including the purchase of new equipment and the hiring of new staff. The students were also given the opportunity to express their opinions and concerns about the theater's operations. The meeting ended with the boardApplying the function successfully returned the natural text.
Morris To Talk SOU Finance in Chicago Today

President D. W. Morris will discuss the financial situation of state universities before a group of county commissioners and other county officials in Chicago, I11., July 11.

This conference, sponsored by the American Association of School Administrators, is an outgrowth of a committee formed in 1956 to find financial aid for public schools in the state. The committee is meeting in Chicago to discuss the current financial situation of state universities. The conference will be attended by representatives from all of the state universities, including Eastern Oregon College, which is Morris' alma mater.

BSU To Sponsor Enlistment Week

The Board of Regents of the University of Southern Oregon has approved plans for a special week of activities in the fall that will be designated as "Enlistment Week." The purpose of the week is to encourage students to consider military service and to provide information about the opportunities available.

The week will feature a variety of activities, including lectures, workshops, and social events. The goal is to reach as many students as possible and to provide them with the information they need to make informed decisions about their futures.

Special Loan Fund Now Available to Students

The Board of Regents has approved a special loan fund for students who need financial assistance. The fund is designed to help students who are facing financial difficulties and who need additional resources to continue their education.

Students who are eligible for the loan fund can apply to their academic advisors for information about how to apply. The fund is available to students who are enrolled in degree programs and who have a demonstrated need for financial assistance.
