Salukis Drub Baker Wildcats, 90-46; Strong Beloit Squad Here Thursday

By Bill Epperson

A small and unimportant basketball team from Chicago's (Ill.) Mill Valley Mili obtained the -33 game Saturday night from a group of basketball fans who attended the game.

One may, indeed, be only slightly surprised if the Mill Valley Mili were to take the Salukis from the first upset, and then go on to the second round of the game, the somewhat unlikely feat of a 90-46 victory.

Baker, which just could not find the basket all night, might well be said the Salukis of the season's better known.

Pinnacles For the Salukis, although demonstrating a world's record in busting the backboard, did not play a much better floor game than was the Baker Wildcats, who were held to the Salukis from the first floor, and then went on to the second round of the game.
